BLUE CHIP VALUE FUND ANNOUNCES STOCKHOLDER

APPROVAL OF PROPOSED REORGANIZATION

DENVER, CO. (February 8, 2011). Blue Chip Value Fund, Inc. (NYSE:BLU) announced today that its stockholders have approved the reorganization of the Fund into Westcore Blue Chip Fund, a series of Westcore Trust an open-end registered investment company. The conversion and reorganization date is anticipated to be March 28, 2011.

Information regarding the exact details of the reorganization will be released at a later date.

Also on February 8, 2011, the Blue Chip Value Fund's Board of Directors terminated the Dividend Reinvestment and Cash Purchase Plan (the Plan). Blue Chip Value Fund will declare and pay the final dividend or capital gains distribution, if any, prior to the closing of the reorganization entirely in cash, even to those stockholders who participated in the Plan. A future press release will provide further details on this final distribution. In connection with the termination of the Plan, after March 10, 2011, no additional voluntary cash investments or sales will be permitted through the Plan Administrator.

This communication is not intended to, and shall not, constitute an offer to purchase or sell shares of Blue Chip Value Fund or Westcore Trust.

Before making any investment decision, please read the prospectus/proxy statement relating to the reorganization carefully because it contains important information (including investment objectives, policies, strategies, fees, expenses and risk considerations). Free copies of the prospectus/proxy statement are available by calling (800) 624-4190 or visiting www.blu.com or the SEC website (<http://www.sec.gov>).
