Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On January 8, 2008, AGL Resources Inc. (the “Company”) entered into an individual change in control agreement with each of John W. Somerhalder II, Andrew W. Evans, Kevin P. Madden and Douglas N. Schantz, all of whom are named executive officers. Each of the agreements (which are effective as of December 1, 2007 and replaces a similar agreement that expired November 30, 2007) provides that the covered executive will be entitled to receive, upon a “qualifying termination” (as described below) generally following a change in control event set forth in the agreement, a severance benefit equal to two times the sum of his base salary plus the highest annual incentive compensation during the three years prior to the year of the qualifying termination; at the time of the qualifying termination, a prorated annual incentive compensation payment for the year of the qualifying termination, based on the number of days the executive was employed by the Company during that year; a two-year continuation of medical, dental and life insurance benefits; vesting of all long-term incentive compensation; payment of any forgone employer contributions under the Company’s Retirement Savings Plus Plan and Non-qualified Savings Plan; an additional payment based upon participation in the Company’s Retirement Plan and Excess Benefit Plan; and outplacement assistance. A qualifying termination will occur if, following a change in control, the executive’s employment is involuntarily terminated without “cause” or voluntarily terminated for “good reason,” (as defined in the agreement) provided, that, such termination occurs on or before the second anniversary of the date of the consummation of the change in control. The covered executive may also receive reimbursement of legal fees in connection with the enforcement of his rights under the continuity agreement as well as a payment to offset potential excise taxes, if payments under the agreement are deemed “excess parachute payments.”

Copies of the continuity agreements are attached to this report as exhibits 10.1.a through 10.1.d.
