Item 4. Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant

On May 22, 2002, the registrant received correspondence from its independent public accountant, Braverman & Company, P.C., that the client-auditor relationship was terminated. The decision by Braverman & Company, P.C. reflects its resignation. Neither of the reports of the former principal accountants on the financial statements for the fiscal years ending December 31, 2000 or December 31, 2001, contained an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, nor was either qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles. During the two most recent fiscal years, and the subsequent interim period preceding the resignation, there were no disagreements with the former accountant on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of the former accountant, would have caused it to make reference to the subject matter or the disagreements in connection with its reports.

The registrant has provided Braverman & Company, P.C., a copy of this disclosure and has requested that Braverman & Company, P.C. furnish it with a letter addressed to the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.

Item 7. Financial Statements, Pro Forma Financial Information and Exhibits.
