PART I

ITEM 1. BUSINESS

GENERAL

Consumers Financial Corporation (the Company) was formed in 1966 as 20th Century Corporation (a Pennsylvania corporation) and adopted its present name in 1980. The Company was an insurance holding company which, until late 1997, was a leading provider, through its subsidiaries, of credit life and credit disability insurance in the states of Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Nebraska, Ohio and Virginia. In connection with its credit insurance operations, the Company also marketed, as an agent, an automobile extended service warranty product. The Company operated through various wholly-owned subsidiaries since it was formed; however, as of December 31, 2002, all of these subsidiaries had either been sold or liquidated and dissolved. From 1992 through 1997, the Company also sold all of its inforce insurance policies to various third party insurers.

On March 24, 1998, the Company's shareholders approved a Plan of Liquidation and Dissolution (the Plan of Liquidation), pursuant to which the Company would be liquidated and dissolved. The Plan of Liquidation permitted the Board of Directors to continue to consider other alternatives to liquidating the Company if such alternatives were deemed by the Board to be in the best interest of the Company and its shareholders. It became apparent to the Board during 2001 that the common shareholders would not receive any distribution under the Plan of Liquidation, and the preferred shareholders would receive less than the full liquidation value of their shares. Consequently, the Board concluded that selling the Company for its value as a "public company shell" was a better alternative for the common and preferred shareholders than liquidating the Company. Accordingly, in August 2001, the Company sent request for proposal letters to several investor groups that had expressed an interest in acquiring the Company, and also issued a press release soliciting similar offers. In October 2001, the Board of Directors met to consider three offers which were received, one of which was from CFC Partners, Ltd. (CFC Partners). Following its review of each offer, the Board determined that the offer from CFC Partners was the best offer. In February 2002, the Company and CFC Partners entered into an option agreement (the Option Agreement) which permitted CFC Partners to acquire a 51.2% interest in the Company's common stock for $108,000, or $.04 per share. The purchase price was deposited into an escrow account held by the Company in March 2002.

The option held by CFC Partners was exercisable within 15 business days following the completion by the Company of a tender offer to its preferred shareholders. The completion of the tender offer was, in turn, dependent on the sale of the Company's remaining insurance subsidiary, since substantially all of the Company's assets were held by that subsidiary and state insurance laws would not permit the withdrawal of those assets. In June 2002, the Company completed the sale of the insurance subsidiary, and, in August 2002, the Company purchased 377,288 shares of preferred stock (83.4% of the total shares outstanding) from those shareholders who elected to tender their shares.

On August 28, 2002, CFC Partners exercised its option to acquire a majority of the outstanding common shares of the Company. Accordingly, on that date, the Board of Directors terminated the Plan of Liquidation and authorized the issuance of 2,700,000 shares of common stock to CFC Partners. For additional information regarding the acquisition of the Company by CFC Partners, see Note 4 of the notes to consolidated financial statements appearing elsewhere in this

Edgar Filing: CONSUMERS FINANCIAL CORP - Form 10-K

Form 10-K.

The term "Company", when used herein, refers to Consumers Financial Corporation and its subsidiary unless the context requires otherwise. The Company's executive offices are located at 1525 Cedar Cliff Drive, Camp Hill, Pennsylvania 17011. Its telephone number is (717) 761-4230. The Company also maintains an office at 132 Spruce Street, Cedarhurst, New York 11516. Its New York telephone number is (516) 792-0900.

OPERATIONS

Prior to the discontinuation of its previous business operations, as discussed above, the Company operated in three industry segments: the Automotive Resource Division, which marketed credit insurance and other products and services to its automobile dealer customers, the Individual Life Insurance Division and the Auto Auction Division.

At December 31, 2002, the Company had no business operations. CFC Partners is currently pursuing various business opportunities for the Company, including strategic alliances as well as the merger or combination of existing businesses with the Company. In this regard, the Company will initially focus on partnering with or acquiring companies in the real estate, construction management and medical technology industries.

With respect to its plans for the real estate business, the Company intends to acquire garden-type apartment complexes, initially in Illinois and New York and later in other locations in the northeastern part of the United States. The Company also expects to become involved in real estate development, initially in the New York area and ultimately in other parts of the Northeast.

In connection with its construction management business, the Company, through a to-be-formed subsidiary, intends to manage all of its real estate development and other real estate activities. In addition, the Company will pursue the management of outside projects on a select basis.

With regard to its medical technology business, the Company, through a to-be-formed subsidiary, plans to develop, own and operate positron emission tomography imaging (P.E.T.) centers initially in the New York area and later on a regional basis. The Company is currently negotiating the terms of a potential joint venture with a leading radiologist and operator of multiple radiology centers. The Company is also exploring the possible acquisition of several full service radiology centers in New York.

COMPETITION

Each of the industry segments in which the Company is planning to operate is highly competitive. Many of the Company's potential competitors have substantially greater financial, technical, sales, marketing and other resources, as well as greater name recognition and a larger customer base, than the Company. While the Company believes it can successfully compete in selected niche markets in each of industry segments described above, there is no assurance that the Company will be able to develop sufficient revenues and cash flows from these businesses to operate profitably and compete effectively with other companies.

REGULATION

Each of the industry segments in which the Company is planning to operate is regulated by various laws enacted by federal, state and/or local jurisdictions. The Company intends to develop appropriate internal procedures and will rely on various external advisors to enable it to maintain compliance with all existing laws and regulations. However, there is no assurance of continued compliance if and when current laws and regulations change.

EMPLOYEES AND AGENTS

As of March 15, 2003, the Company had only two employees, who were also officers of the Company. Neither Donald J. Hommel, the Company's president and treasurer, nor Shalom S. Maidenbaum, the Company's secretary, currently receives any compensation from the Company in his capacity as an officer and employee. Mr. Hommel and Mr. Maidenbaum are also Directors of the Company and do receive compensation in their capacity as Directors.

The Company maintains insurance coverage against employee dishonesty, theft, forgery and alteration of checks and similar items. There can be no assurance that the Company will be able to continue to obtain such coverage in the future or that it will not experience uninsured losses.

ITEM 2. PROPERTIES

Prior to August 2000, the Company maintained its executive and business offices in a building located at 1200 Camp Hill By-Pass, Camp Hill, Pennsylvania. The office building contained approximately 44,000 square feet of office space (approximately 39,000 square feet of leasable space). The Company owned a 50% interest in this building and the other 50% interest was owned by a third-party investor. In August 2000, the Company and its co-owner sold the office building, and the Company reported a gain of approximately $274,000 on the sale transaction.

From August 2000 until December 2002, the Company leased approximately 1,200 square feet of office space on a month-to-month basis at 1513 Cedar Cliff Drive, Camp Hill, Pennsylvania. The monthly rent for this facility was $1,300. The Company now leases approximately 400 square feet of office space on a month-to-month basis at 1525 Cedar Cliff Drive, Camp Hill, Pennsylvania. The monthly rent for this space is $400. The Company leases an additional 800 square feet of office space in Cedarhurst, New York under a lease which expires on December 31, 2003. The monthly rent for this space is $850 per month. Until December 2002, the Company also leased approximately 1,100 square feet of warehouse space for the storage of its records. The monthly rent for this space was approximately $650. The Company terminated this lease as of December 31, 2002, and effective January 1, 2003, entered into a month-to-month lease for approximately 550 square feet at a monthly rent of $325. The Company's office space and warehouse space are adequate for its current needs.

ITEM 3. LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

The Company is a party to several lawsuits which are ordinary and routine litigation incidental to the business operations it previously conducted. None of these lawsuits is expected to have a materially adverse effect on the Company's financial position or results of operations. See Note 10 of the notes to consolidated financial statements appearing elsewhere in this Form 10-K for additional information concerning litigation matters.

ITEM 4. SUBMISSION OF MATTERS TO A VOTE OF SECURITY HOLDERS

Edgar Filing: CONSUMERS FINANCIAL CORP - Form 10-K

On December 13, 2002, the Company mailed a proxy statement to its shareholders in connection with a Special Meeting of Shareholders (the Special Meeting). At the Special Meeting, which was held on January 9, 2003, the Company's common shareholders were asked to vote upon a proposal to reinstate the voting rights of the 2,700,000 shares of common stock of the Company owned by CFC Partners. Under Pennsylvania law, the shares issued to CFC Partners were not permitted to vote on any matters unless and until such voting rights were restored by the holders of a majority of the outstanding common shares of the Company, excluding the shares owned by CFC Partners. A total of 1,319,491 shares (or 50.99% of the outstanding shares entitled to vote) voted in favor of the proposal to reinstate the voting rights of the CFC Partners shares, 24,069 shares (.93%) voted against the proposal and 14,633 shares (.57%) voted to abstain with respect to this proposal. As a result of the Special Meeting, the shares of common stock held by CFC Partners now have full voting rights.

PART II

ITEM 5. MARKET FOR REGISTRANT'S COMMON EQUITY AND RELATED STOCKHOLDER MATTERS

Consumers Financial Corporation's common stock was traded on the NASDAQ National Market System with a ticker symbol of CFIN until June 1, 1998 when it was delisted by NASDAQ for non-compliance with NASDAQ's market value of public float requirements. The Company's convertible preferred stock, series A, was also traded on the NASDAQ National Market System until March 16, 1998, when it was also delisted by NASDAQ for non-compliance with the public float requirement of a minimum of 750,000 shares. Since the shareholders of the Company approved the Plan of Liquidation and Dissolution on March 24, 1998, the Company did not appeal the delisting decision for either the common or preferred stock, nor did it take any steps to come into compliance with the new rules or attempt to seek inclusion on the NASDAQ Small Cap Market. As a result of the acquisition of the Company by CFC Partners, it is the Company's intention to become listed on a national securities exchange.

Quarterly high and low bid prices for the Company's common and preferred stock, based on information provided by The National Association of Securities Dealers through the NASD OTC Bulletin Board, are presented below. Such prices do not reflect prices in actual transactions and exclude retail mark-ups and mark-downs and broker commissions.

Edgar Filing: CONSUMERS FINANCIAL CORP - Form 10-K

As of March 14, 2003, there were approximately 6,500 shareholders of record who collectively held 5,276,781 common shares and 35 shareholders of record of the preferred stock who held 75,326 shares. The number of record holders presented above excludes individual participants in securities positions listings.

Dividends on both the Company's common stock and preferred stock are declared by the Board of Directors. No common stock dividends have been paid since 1994. The payment of dividends on the common stock in the future, if any, will be subordinate to the preferred stock, must comply with the provisions of the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law and will be determined by the Board of Directors. In addition, the payment of such dividends will depend on the Company's financial condition, results of operations, capital requirements and such other factors as the Board of Directors deems relevant. See Note 11 of the Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements appearing elsewhere in this Form 10-K for a description of the restrictions on the Company's ability to pay dividends to common shareholders. Dividends on the preferred stock are paid quarterly on the first day of January, April, July and October at an annual rate of $.85 per share. In January 2003, the Company announced that the Board of Directors had not declared the quarterly dividend due January 1, 2003, and that such dividend would not be paid when due so that the Company could conserve its cash resources.

On August 28, 2002, the Company issued 2,700,000 new shares of its common stock in connection with the purchase by CFC Partners of a 51.2% interest in the Company. The Company received $108,000, or $.04 per share, as consideration for the issuance of the new shares. The shares issued to CFC Partners have not been registered pursuant to the Securities Act of 1933 (the Act) or any applicable state securities laws, and, consequently, cannot be sold, transferred or otherwise disposed of unless such shares are subsequently registered under the Act or an exemption from registration is available at the time of any sale or transfer.

ITEM 7. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

A review of the significant factors which affected the Company's financial condition at December 31, 2002 and its results of operations for the year then ended is presented below. Information relating to 2001 and 2000 is also presented for comparative purposes. This analysis should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and the related notes appearing elsewhere in this Form 10-K.

The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 provides a "safe harbor" for forward-looking statements. This Form 10-K may include forward-looking statements which reflect the Company's current views with respect to future events and financial performance. These forward-looking statements are identified by their use of such terms and phrases as "intends", "intend", "intended", "goal", "estimate", "estimates", "expects", "expect", "expected", "project", "projected", "projections", "plans", "anticipates", "anticipated", "should", "designed to", "foreseeable future", "believe", "believes" and "scheduled" and similar expressions. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements which speak only as of the date the statement was made. The Company undertakes no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.

OVERVIEW

At a special meeting of shareholders held on March 24, 1998, the Company's preferred and common shareholders approved the sale of the Company's credit insurance and related products business, which was the Company's only remaining business operation. In connection with the sale of its inforce credit insurance business, the Company also sold its credit insurance customer accounts and one of its life insurance subsidiaries. At the special meeting, the shareholders also approved a Plan of Liquidation and Dissolution (the Plan of Liquidation), pursuant to which the Company would be liquidated and dissolved.

The Plan of Liquidation permitted the Board of Directors to continue to consider other alternatives to liquidating the Company. Because the common shareholders would not receive a distribution under the Plan of Liquidation, and the preferred shareholders would receive less than the full liquidation value of their shares, the Board of Directors determined that selling the Company for its value as a "public company shell" was a better alternative for the common and preferred shareholders than liquidating the Company. Accordingly, in August 2001, the Company sent request for proposal letters to several investor groups that had expressed an interest in acquiring the Company and issued a press release soliciting similar offers. In October 2001, the Board of Directors met to consider three offers which were received, one of which was from CFC Partners, Ltd., a New York investor group (CFC Partners). Following its review of each offer, the Board determined that the offer from CFC Partners was the best offer. In February 2002, the Company and CFC Partners entered into an option agreement which permitted CFC Partners to acquire a 51.2% interest in the Company at $.04 per share. The option held by CFC Partners was exercisable within 15 business days following the completion by the Company of a tender offer to the preferred shareholders. The completion of this tender offer was, in turn, dependent on the sale of the Company's remaining insurance subsidiary, since substantially all of the Company's assets were held by the subsidiary and state insurance laws would not permit the withdrawal of those assets.

In June 2002, the Company completed the sale of the insurance subsidiary. In July 2002, the Board of Directors approved a tender offer to the Company's preferred shareholders at a price of $4.40 per share, and on July 19, 2002, tender offer materials were mailed to the holders of the preferred stock. On August 23, 2002, the Company purchased 377,288 shares of preferred stock, or 83.4% of the total preferred shares outstanding, from those shareholders who elected to tender their shares.

On August 28, 2002, the Board of Directors terminated the Plan of Liquidation and authorized the issuance of 2,700,000 shares of common stock to CFC Partners. Donald J. Hommel, the president of CFC Partners, was also appointed as a Director of the Company to fill an existing vacancy on the Board. Following such appointment, the Company's officers resigned and the Board elected Mr. Hommel as the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer. In addition, James C. Robertson and John E. Groninger, who had been Directors of the Company for more than 30 years, also resigned.

On October 17, 2002, the Board of Directors appointed Shalom S. Maidenbaum, Esq. as a Director of the Company to fill an existing vacancy on the Board. In addition, the Directors elected Mr. Hommel as the Company's Treasurer and Mr. Maidenbaum as the Company's Vice President and Secretary. On March 13, 2003, the

Edgar Filing: CONSUMERS FINANCIAL CORP - Form 10-K

Board of Directors appointed William T. Konczynin as an additional Director to fill an existing vacancy.

As a result of the approval of the Plan of Liquidation, the Company adopted a liquidation basis of accounting for the period from March 25, 1998 to August 28, 2002. Under this basis of accounting, assets were stated at their estimated net realizable values and liabilities were stated at their anticipated settlement amounts. As a result of the transaction with CFC Partners and the related termination of the Plan of Liquidation, effective August 29, 2002, the Company re-adopted accounting principles applicable to going concern entities. Furthermore, as discussed in Note 3 of the notes to consolidated financial statements appearing elsewhere in this Form 10-K, the Company has restated its liquidation-basis financial statements for prior periods to conform such statements to the current presentation.

At December 31, 2002, the Company had no business operations, and its revenues and expenses during the past five years have been non-operating in nature. CFC Partners intends to pursue strategic alliances, as well as a merger or combination of existing businesses with the Company. The Company is initially focusing on joint ventures with or the acquisition of companies in the real estate, construction management and medical technology businesses.

At December 31, 2002, the Company's shareholders' equity deficiency totaled $196,485 compared to a shareholders' equity deficiency of $2,079,119 at December 31, 2001. For the year ended December 31, 2002, the Company's net income was $56,784 compared to net losses in 2001 and 2000 of $600,827 and $1,552,080, respectively. Dividends to preferred shareholders totaled $255,813, $385,572 and $390,669 in 2002, 2001 and 2000, respectively.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

A discussion of the material factors which affected the Company's results of operations for the year ended December 31, 2002 is presented below. Information for 2001 and 2000 is also presented for comparative purposes.

YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2002

For the year ended December 31, 2002, the Company reported net income of $56,784, which translates into a loss of $.08 per share after deducting the preferred dividend requirement. The 2002 results were positively impacted by a $242,480 gain on the sale of the Company's life insurance subsidiary and $255,000 in proceeds received from the settlement of litigation and other disputes. The gain from the sale of the insurance subsidiary includes a $178,483 gain from the sale of its insurance licenses and charter, a $56,448 gain from the transfer to the buyer of appreciated bonds held by the subsidiary and $7,549 in other gains. Prior to the collection of the $255,000 in settlement proceeds, the Company had not reflected any amounts due from the other parties in its financial statements because of the uncertainty as to not only the amounts which the Company might be entitled to receive, as determined by the courts or as a result of a settlement between the parties, but also the collectability of such amounts.

The improved results in 2002 also reflect reductions in salaries and professional fees compared to 2001. Partially offsetting the non-recurring revenues and the reductions in salaries and fees referred to above were (i) a decline in investment income (from $150,301 in 2001 to $45,300 in 2002) due to both a decrease in the Company's invested asset base and a decline in short-term interest rates and (ii) an increase in insurance costs (from $48,066 in 2001 to $78,438 in 2002).

Edgar Filing: CONSUMERS FINANCIAL CORP - Form 10-K

The Company's net loss for the year ended December 31, 2001 was $600,827 ($.39 per share). The Company's results in 2001 were adversely affected by a $216,000 charge related to the settlement of certain litigation matters and an $80,250 write-down of the value of the state licenses and charter of the insurance subsidiary, based on the Company's assessment at that time that the subsidiary would be liquidated rather than sold.

For 2001, the Company originally reported an excess of expenses over revenues of $520,577 under the liquidation basis of accounting. This amount differs from the $600,827 net loss being reported in the accompanying consolidated financial statements by $80,250, which is the amount of the write-down of the value of the insurance licenses and charter referred to above. Under liquidation accounting, this amount was treated as an adjustment of assets to estimated net realizable value and was not included in the determination of the excess of expenses over revenues.

Year Ended December 31, 2000

For the year ended December 31, 2000, the Company's net loss totaled $1,552,080 ($.76 per share). The loss in 2000 was principally the result of a $1,554,378 charge for pension expense in connection with the termination of the Company's defined benefit pension plan. Of this amount, $1,122,227 had been established as a liability in prior years through a direct charge to a shareholders' equity account. Consequently, the termination of the pension plan reduced the Company's shareholders' equity in 2000 by only $432,151. The Company also reported approximately $188,000 in charges for the write-down of various receivables. A $273,564 gain from the sale of the Company's home office building and $199,876 in fee revenues from the sale by the Company of its credit insurance customer accounts partially offset the charges discussed above.

For 2000, the Company originally reported an excess of expenses over revenues of $1,823,225 under the liquidation basis of accounting. This amount differs from the $1,552,080 of net loss being reported in the accompanying consolidated financial statements by $271,145, a large portion of which ($208,782) represents an adjustment to the gain originally reported on the sale of the Company's home office building in 2000. Under liquidation accounting, the carrying value of the building had been increased by $208,782 in 1999 to reflect the estimated net realizable value of the building.

FINANCIAL CONDITION

Capital Resources

The Company currently has no commitments for any capital expenditures. However, if the Company develops certain planned strategic alliances or identifies a target company to be merged or otherwise combined with the Company, the Company's plans regarding capital expenditures and related commitments are likely to change.

For the year ended December 31, 2002, the Company's cash and cash equivalents decreased by $1,636,507 (from $1,802,265 at the beginning of the year to $165,758 at December 31, 2002). The decrease is principally the result of the Company's tender offer to its preferred shareholders. As discussed more fully below, in August 2002, the Company paid $1,660,067, or $4.40 per share, to acquire the 377,288 shares which were tendered. During 2002, the Company also paid cash dividends in the amount of $335,986 to the preferred shareholders. As a result of the tender offer, the Company's preferred dividend requirement was reduced from $96,180 per quarter to $16,007. Further, in connection with the acquisition of a majority interest in the Company by CFC Partners, the Company deposited cash in the amount of $331,434 into a bank escrow account for the benefit of the preferred shareholders who did not tender their shares. The decreases in unrestricted cash were partially offset by $945,181 in proceeds received from the sale of bonds which were transferred to the buyer of the Company's insurance subsidiary.

The Company's shareholders' equity deficiency improved significantly during 2002. The deficiency totaled $2,079,119 at the end of 2001 compared to a deficiency of $196,485 at December 31, 2002. The reduction in the amount of the deficiency is primarily due to the Company's purchase of 377,288 shares of its preferred stock at $4.40 per share, which was less than the $9.78 per share carrying value of such shares at the end of 2001. Net income of $56,784 further reduced the deficiency, but was more than offset by preferred shareholder dividends declared for the year of $255,813.

LIQUIDITY

Historically, the Company's subsidiaries met most of their cash requirements from funds generated from operations, while the Company generally relied on its principal operating subsidiaries to provide it with sufficient cash funds to maintain an adequate liquidity position. While the Company was in liquidation, its principal sources of cash funds were investment income and proceeds from the sales of non-liquid assets. In connection with the acquisition of the Company by CFC Partners, substantially all of the Company's remaining liquid assets were used to complete a tender offer to the preferred shareholders in August 2002.

At December 31, 2002, the Company had only $165,758 in cash and cash equivalents. Furthermore, as of that date, the Company had no business operations and no sources of operating revenues. As indicated above, CFC Partners is currently pursuing various business opportunities for the Company, including strategic alliances, as well as the merger or combination of existing businesses with the Company. The new management of the Company intends to initially focus on joint ventures with or acquisitions of companies in the real estate, construction management and medical technology businesses. However, there is no assurance that the Company's efforts in this regard will be successful.

The adequacy of the Company's liquidity position and its ability to continue as a going concern are dependent on the Company's success in developing new cash revenue sources or, alternatively, in obtaining short-term financing while its new businesses are being developed.

REDEEMABLE PREFERRED STOCK

As indicated above, on August 23, 2002, the Company completed a tender offer to all of its preferred shareholders, pursuant to which it purchased 377,288 shares (approximately 83.4% of the shares outstanding) at $4.40 per share plus $47,445 in accrued dividends. The tender offer was completed in conjunction with and was a condition to the exercise of the option by CFC Partners. Since all of the Company's remaining assets would have been distributed to the preferred shareholders if the Company had been liquidated, the Board of Directors believed that the exercise of the option (and the related termination of the Plan of Liquidation) should not take place until the preferred shareholders had been given a chance to exchange their shares for cash.

Edgar Filing: CONSUMERS FINANCIAL CORP - Form 10-K

The terms of the redeemable preferred stock require the Company to make annual payments to a sinking fund. Such payments were to have commenced on July 1, 1998. The preferred stock terms also provide that any purchase of preferred shares by the Company will reduce the sinking fund requirements by an amount equal to the redemption value ($10 per share) of the shares acquired. As a result of the Company's purchases of preferred stock in the open market and in the tender offer, no sinking fund payment for the preferred stock is due until July 1, 2006. However, in connection with the exercise of the option by CFC Partners, the Company deposited $331,434 into a bank trust account for the benefit of the remaining preferred shareholders (see Note 5 of the notes to consolidated financial statements appearing elsewhere in this Form 10-K).

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Management has reviewed the Company's accounting policies that are now in effect and has determined that, based on the Company's current non-operating status, there are no accounting policies which are deemed to be highly subjective or require complex judgments.

INFLATION

Since the Company had no business operations at December 31, 2002, the effects of inflation on the Company are currently minimal. If the Company is successful in its plans to enter the real estate development, construction management and medical technology businesses, the impact of inflation on the Company's future operating results may change.

10

ITEM 7A. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURE ABOUT MARKET RISK

The requirements for certain market risk disclosures are not applicable to the Company because, at December 31, 2002, the Company qualifies as a "small business issuer" under Regulation S-B of the Federal Securities Laws. A small business issuer is defined as any United States or Canadian issuer with revenues or public float of less than $25 million.

ITEM 8. FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AND SUPPLEMENTARY DATA

MANAGEMENT'S RESPONSIBILITY FOR FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The management of the Company is responsible for the preparation, integrity and objectivity of the financial information contained in this Form 10-K. The accompanying consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Such statements include informed estimates and judgments of management for those transactions that are not yet complete or for which the ultimate effects cannot be precisely determined. Financial information presented in this annual report is consistent with that in the financial statements.

Accounting procedures and related systems of internal control have been established to provide reasonable assurance that the books and records reflect the transactions of the Company and that established policies and procedures are properly implemented by qualified personnel. Such systems are evaluated regularly to determine their effectiveness.

Edgar Filing: CONSUMERS FINANCIAL CORP - Form 10-K

The consolidated financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2002, 2001 and 2000 have been audited by Stambaugh Ness, PC, independent auditors. Such audits were conducted in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, and included a review of our internal accounting control structure for the purpose of determining the nature, timing and extent of audit procedures to be performed.

The Board of Directors monitors the financial and accounting operations of the Company. The Board meets periodically with representatives of its independent auditing firm to discuss the scope of the audit and related reports. The Company's independent auditors have at all times full and free access to the Board of Directors and its Audit Committee, without management present, to discuss any matter that they believe should be brought to the attention of the Board.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

Board of Directors
Consumers Financial Corporation

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of Consumers Financial Corporation and subsidiary as of December 31, 2002 and 2001, and the related consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive income, shareholders' equity deficiency and cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2002. These financial statements and the schedules referred to below are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements and schedules based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and the significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

As more fully described in Note 3 to the consolidated financial statements, the Company has restated its liquidation-basis financial statements for periods prior to December 31, 2002 to conform to the current presentation using generally accepted accounting principles applicable to going-concern entities.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Consumers Financial Corporation and subsidiary as of December 31, 2002 and 2001 and the results of their operations and their cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2002, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Edgar Filing: CONSUMERS FINANCIAL CORP - Form 10-K

The accompanying consolidated financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern. As discussed in Note 1 to the consolidated financial statements, the Company has a shareholders' equity deficiency at December 31, 2002 and has no operating revenues. These matters raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. Management's plans with respect to these matters are also described in Note 1. The consolidated financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

Our audits were made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic consolidated financial statements taken as a whole. The schedules listed in the index of financial statement schedules at Item 15(a) are presented for purposes of complying with the Securities and Exchange Commission's rules and are not part of the basic financial statements. The amounts included in these schedules have been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic consolidated financial statements and, in our opinion, fairly state in all material respects the financial data required to be set forth therein in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

CONSUMERS FINANCIAL CORPORATION AND SUBSIDIARY
 NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
 YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2002, 2001 AND 2000

1. OVERVIEW AND BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The operating losses incurred by Consumers Financial Corporation and its subsidiaries (the Company) from 1993 to 1997 significantly reduced the net worth and liquidity position of the Company. As a result, in 1998, the Company sold its core credit insurance and related products business, which had been its only remaining business operation, following the sales in 1994 and 1997 of all of its universal life insurance business and the 1996 sale of its auto auction business. Since 1998, the Company has had no business operations, and its revenues and expenses have consisted principally of investment income on remaining assets and corporate and other administrative expenses.

In March 1998, the Company's shareholders approved a Plan of Liquidation and Dissolution (the Plan of Liquidation) pursuant to which the Company began liquidating its remaining assets and paying or providing for all of its liabilities. However, as discussed more fully in Note 4, in February 2002, the Company entered into an option agreement with CFC Partners, Ltd., a New York investor group (CFC Partners), pursuant to which CFC Partners could obtain a majority interest in the Company's common stock. In August 2002, the option was exercised and 2,700,000 new common shares (approximately 51.2% of the total outstanding shares) were issued by the Company to CFC Partners. As a result of the acquisition of the Company, the Plan of Liquidation was discontinued. Immediately prior to the transaction with CFC Partners, the Company paid a substantial portion of its remaining assets to its preferred shareholders in connection with a tender offer to those shareholders (see Note 11).

The accompanying consolidated financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern. However, as a result of the cumulative effect of the events discussed above, at December 31, 2002, the Company had only $165,758 in cash and cash equivalents and a shareholders' equity deficiency of $196,485. Furthermore, as of that date, the Company had no business operations and no sources of operating revenues. CFC Partners is currently pursuing various business opportunities for the Company, including strategic alliances, as well as the merger or combination of existing businesses with the Company. The new management of the Company intends to initially focus on joint ventures with or acquisitions of companies in the real estate, construction management and medical technology businesses. However, there is no assurance that the Company's efforts in this regard will be successful.

The Company's ability to continue as a going concern is dependent on its success in developing new cash revenue sources or, alternatively, in obtaining short-term financing while its new businesses are being developed. The consolidated financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Principles of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Consumers Financial Corporation and its former wholly-owned subsidiary, Consumers Life Insurance Company (Consumers Life) until June 19, 2002 when Consumers Life was sold. Consumers Financial Corporation itself is also sometimes referred to herein as the Company. All material intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated.

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash equivalents consist of highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less.

Marketable securities

Marketable securities consist of U.S. Treasury Notes. Management determines the appropriate classification of these notes at the time of purchase and reevaluates such designation as of each financial statement date. All of these securities are classified as available-for-sale. Available-for-sale securities are carried at fair value, with the unrealized appreciation and depreciation, net of income taxes, if applicable, reported as a separate component of shareholders' equity deficiency.

Interest on U.S. Treasury Notes is credited to income as it accrues on the principal amounts outstanding, adjusted for amortization of premiums and discounts computed by the interest method. Realized gains and losses and provisions for permanent losses on investments are included in the determination of results of operations. The "specific identification" method is used in determining the cost of investments sold.

Fair values of financial instruments

The following methods and assumptions were used by the Company in estimating its fair value disclosure for financial instruments:

Cash and cash equivalents: The carrying amounts reported in the balance sheet for these instruments approximate their fair values.

Marketable securities: Fair values for U.S. Treasury securities are based on quoted market prices.

Income taxes

The Company follows the asset and liability method of accounting for income taxes. Under this method, deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases. Valuation allowances are established, if necessary, to reduce the deferred income tax asset account to the amount that will more likely than not be realized.

Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

3. RESTATEMENT OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

In connection with the acquisition of the Company by CFC Partners on August 28, 2002, as described in Note 4, and the related termination of the Plan of Liquidation, the Company re-adopted accounting principles applicable to going-concern entities as of that date. The Company's consolidated financial statements had been prepared using a liquidation basis of accounting since March 25, 1998 when the Plan of Liquidation was approved by the Company's shareholders. In order to provide comparative financial information, the Company has restated its liquidation-basis financial statements for prior periods to conform to the current presentation which utilizes accounting principles applicable to going-concern entities. Accordingly, in the accompanying consolidated financial statements, the statement of net assets in liquidation as of December 31, 2001 and the statements of changes in net assets in liquidation for the years ended December 31, 2001 and 2000, as originally prepared on a liquidation basis of accounting, have been replaced by a balance sheet, statements of operations and comprehensive income, statements of shareholders' equity deficiency and statements of cash flows.

At December 31, 2001, the Company's net assets in liquidation, as originally reported, were zero. For the years ended December 31, 2001 and 2000, the Company originally reported an excess of expenses over revenues of $520,577 and $1,823,225, respectively.

4. ACQUISITION OF THE COMPANY

On August 28, 2002, CFC Partners exercised its option to acquire 2,700,000 shares of the Company's common stock. The option was granted to CFC Partners through an option agreement dated February 13, 2002. The option price of $108,000 had previously been deposited by CFC Partners into an escrow account held by the Company. The newly issued shares represented approximately 51.2% of the total outstanding common stock of the Company. Under Pennsylvania laws, these new shares had no voting rights until the Company obtained the required approval to reinstate such voting rights from the remaining common shareholders. As more fully described in Note 14, a special meeting of shareholders was held on January 9, 2003 (the Special Meeting), at which time the voting rights of the shares of common stock held by CFC Partners were reinstated.

At an August 28 meeting of the Board of Directors, Donald J. Hommel, the President of CFC Partners, was appointed as a Director of the Company to fill an existing vacancy on the Board. Following such appointment, the Company's officers resigned and the Board elected Mr. Hommel as the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer. In addition, the Company's two Directors, other than Mr. Hommel, also resigned as planned. At a subsequent meeting of the Board of Directors, an additional Director was appointed to fill an existing vacancy and additional officers were elected. In March 2003, a third director was appointed to the Board.

In connection with the issuance of the new shares to CFC Partners, the Board of Directors also terminated the Plan of Liquidation. The Board had previously determined that selling the Company for its value as a "public company shell" was a better alternative for the shareholders than the Plan of Liquidation, inasmuch as the common shareholders were not expected to receive any distribution in a liquidation of the Company. The preferred shareholders were given an opportunity to exchange their shares for cash in a tender offer completed by the Company on August 23, 2002 (see Note 11).

5. RESTRICTED ASSETS

As required by the terms of the option agreement with CFC Partners, in October 2002, the Company deposited $331,434 (representing the tender offer price of $4.40 multiplied by the 75,326 shares of preferred stock not tendered) into a bank escrow account for the benefit of the remaining preferred shareholders. The funds in this account, including any earnings thereon, are restricted in that they may only be used by the Company to pay dividends or make other distributions to the holders of the preferred stock. At December 31, 2002, these assets consisted of $314,225 in money market funds.

Insurance laws required Consumers Life to deposit certain amounts with various state insurance departments in order to maintain its licenses. The approximate carrying amount of such deposits at December 31, 2001 was $1,421,000.

6. SALE OF STOCK OF INSURANCE SUBSIDIARY

On June 19, 2002, the Company completed the sale of Consumers Life to Black Diamond Insurance Group, Inc., a Delaware corporation. The Delaware Insurance Department approved this transaction on June 5, 2002. The purchaser paid the Company $1,548,846 in cash and assumed a $132,120 liability in connection with its acquisition of the Consumers Life stock. The cash proceeds were based on the following:

Value of underlying net assets of subsidiary:

Cash and cash equivalents	$ 491,399
Marketable securities (U.S. Treasury Notes)	931,903
Other assets	7,664
Unclaimed property liability	(132,120)
	1,298,846
Value of state insurance licenses	250,000
Total consideration received	$1,548,846

The sale of Consumers Life resulted in a gain to the Company of $242,480. Prior to the sale of Consumers Life, dividends and other distributions to the Company from the subsidiary were limited in that Consumers Life was required to maintain minimum capital and surplus in each of the states in which it was licensed, as determined in accordance with regulatory accounting practices. Under Delaware insurance laws, distributions to the Company were subject to further restrictions relating to capital and surplus and operating earnings. Because of its prior operating losses and its capital and surplus position, Consumers Life was not permitted to pay any dividends without prior approval from the Delaware Insurance Department. Also, any loans or advances to the Company were required to be reported to and approved by the Delaware Department. During 2002, 2001 and 2000, the Delaware Insurance Department approved the payment by Consumers Life of dividends totaling $1,481,510, $212,500 and $160,000, respectively. Substantially all of the 2002 dividend was approved in connection with the sale transaction.

9. PENSION AND OTHER RETIREMENT PLANS

As of March 22, 2000, the Company terminated its defined benefit pension plan, and, following approval from the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation and receipt of a favorable determination letter from the Internal Revenue Service, distributed all benefits due under the plan in November and December 2000. Benefits under this plan had been frozen as of July 31, 1996. The Company contributed approximately $966,000 to the plan during 2000 so that the plan could pay the required benefits to the participants.

Effective October 1, 1999, the Company also terminated its employee stock ownership plan. In October 2000, following the receipt of a favorable determination letter from the Internal Revenue Service, that plan's assets, consisting principally of common stock of the Company, were also distributed to the plan participants.

The Company's remaining defined contribution plan is designed to cover substantially all full-time employees and provides for annual contributions by the Company in amounts determined by the Board of Directors. Such contributions are based upon the annual compensation of each employee. No contributions were made in 2002. Company contributions were approximately $4,400 in 2001 and $10,500 in 2000.

Net periodic pension cost for the year ended December 31, 2000 consisted of the following:

Interest cost on projected benefit obligation	$ 218,756
Expected return on plan assets	(188,665)
Amortization of prior year losses	1,594,060
Other amortization and deferral	(69,773)
Net periodic pension cost	$1,554,378

Rates used in determining pension expense for the year ended December 31, 2000 were as follows:

Discount rate (pre-retirement period)	6.35%
Discount rate (post-retirement period)	6.35%
Annual rate of return on plan assets	6.35%
Annual rate of increase in compensation	N/A

10. CONTINGENCIES

In August 2001, the Company settled a claim made by a former general agency with whom the Company had a partnership agreement. As a result of this settlement, the Company agreed to pay the agency $210,000 in cash and to mark as satisfied a $90,000 judgment the Company had previously been awarded against the agency. The $90,000 receivable had been fully reserved in the Company's financial statements.

In October 2000, the Company settled a dispute with the purchaser of its credit insurance business. The purchaser claimed that the Company owed it approximately $1,400,000 for investment earnings on the assets which were transferred to the purchaser. In October 1999, the purchaser began withholding from the Company the fee revenue payments which were contractually due to the Company from the sale of the credit insurance accounts to partially offset the amounts the purchaser believed were due from the Company. At September 30, 2000, fee revenues totaling $421,000 had been withheld by the purchaser. Pursuant to the terms of the settlement agreement, the purchaser paid the Company $250,000 in settlement of all prior amounts withheld and in lieu of any future fee revenue payments.

Certain claims, suits and complaints arising in the ordinary course of business have been filed or are pending against the Company. In the opinion of management, based on opinions of legal counsel, adequate reserves, if deemed necessary, have been established for these matters and their outcome will not have a significant effect on the Company's financial position or results of operations.

11. REDEEMABLE PREFERRED STOCK

The redeemable preferred stock has a liquidation preference of $10.00 per share and is convertible at any time, unless previously redeemed, into shares of common stock at the rate of 1.482 shares of common stock for each share of preferred stock (equivalent to a conversion price of $6.75 per share). The preferred stock is redeemable at the option of the Company at a redemption price of $10.00 per share. Except in certain limited instances, the holders of the preferred stock have no voting rights.

On August 23, 2003, the Company completed a tender offer to all of the preferred shareholders, pursuant to which it purchased 377,288 shares (approximately 83.4% of the shares outstanding) at $4.40 per share plus accrued dividends. The tender offer was completed in conjunction with and was a condition to the exercise of the option by CFC Partners (see Note 4). Since all of the Company's remaining assets would have been distributed to the holders of the preferred stock if the Company had been liquidated, the Board of Directors believed that the exercise of the option (and the related termination of the Plan of Liquidation) should not take place until the preferred shareholders had been given a chance to exchange their shares for cash.

The terms of the preferred stock require the Company to make annual payments to a sinking fund. Such payments were to have commenced on July 1, 1998. The preferred stock terms also provide that any purchase of preferred shares by the Company will reduce the sinking fund requirements by an amount equal to the redemption value ($10 per share) of the shares acquired. As a result of the Company's purchases of preferred stock in the open market and in the tender offer described above, no sinking fund payment for the preferred stock is due until July 1, 2006. However, in connection with the exercise of the option by CFC Partners, the Company deposited $331,434 into a bank trust account for the benefit of the remaining preferred shareholders (see Note 5).

Annual dividends at the rate of $.85 per share are cumulative from the date of original issue and are payable quarterly on the first day of January, April, July and October. At December 31, 2002, the Company was not in arrears with respect to the payment of dividends on the preferred stock. However, in January 2003, the Company announced that the Board of Directors had not declared the quarterly dividend due January 1, 2003 and that such dividend would not be paid when due so that the Company could conserve its cash resources.

When the Company is in arrears as to preferred dividends or sinking fund appropriations for the preferred stock, dividends to holders of the Company's common stock as well as purchases, redemptions or acquisitions by the Company of shares of the Company's common stock are restricted. If the Company is in default with respect to the payment of preferred dividends and the aggregate amount of the deficiency is equal to four quarterly dividends, the holders of the preferred stock shall be entitled, only while such arrearage exists, to elect two additional members to the then existing Board of Directors.

The difference between the fair value of the preferred stock at the date of issue and the mandatory redemption value is being recorded through periodic accretions with an offsetting charge to the deficit. Such accretions totaled $84,448, $18,654 and $20,089 in 2002, 2001 and 2000, respectively.

At December 31, 2002 and 2001, 111,594 and 670,539 shares of common stock, respectively, were reserved for the conversion of the preferred stock.

12. INCOME TAXES

At December 31, 2002 and 2001, the Company had no material deferred tax liabilities. At December 31, 2002, the Company's only deferred tax assets consisted of (i) $2,038,000 arising from net operating loss carry forwards and (ii) $4,457,000 arising from capital loss carry forwards resulting from the sale of the stock of Consumers Life. These deferred tax assets, which totaled $6,495,000, have been fully offset by a valuation allowance. At December 31, 2001, the Company's only material deferred tax asset related to net operating loss carry forwards. This deferred tax asset, which totaled $2,013,000, was also fully offset by a valuation allowance.

For the year ended December 31, 2002, the Company intends to file a consolidated Federal income tax return with Consumers Life, which will include applicable income and deduction amounts through the date Consumers Life was sold.

13. PER SHARE INFORMATION

Basic income (loss) per common share has been computed based upon the weighted average number of common shares outstanding. Diluted per share information is equivalent to basic per share information because the Company has no potential common shares which are dilutive for any period presented in the accompanying financial statements.

23

The following table sets forth the computation of basic and diluted per share data.

	Years ended December 31,
	2002	2001	2000
Net income (loss)	$ 56,784	($600,827)	($1,552,080)

The preferred stock is convertible into 111,594 shares of common stock (see Note 11). None of the common shares contingently issuable upon the conversion of the preferred stock have been included in the computation of diluted per share information because the effect would be antidilutive.

As discussed in Note 14, on March 15, 2003, the Company's shareholders approved a proposal to amend the Articles of Incorporation to effect a one-for-ten reverse stock split. The stock split is expected to become effective during the second quarter of 2003. Basic and diluted loss per share calculations included in the consolidated financial statements and elsewhere in this Form 10-K have not been restated to reflect this transaction. The proforma effects of the anticipated stock split are presented below:

	Years ended December 31,

14. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

At a special meeting of shareholders held on January 9, 2003, the Company's common shareholders voted in favor of a proposal to reinstate the voting rights of the 2,700,000 shares of the Company's common stock owned by CFC Partners. Under Pennsylvania laws, these shares were not permitted to vote on any matters unless and until such voting rights were restored by the holders of a majority of the outstanding common shares of the Company, excluding the shares owned by CFC Partners. A total of 1,319,491 shares (or 50.99% of the outstanding shares entitled to vote) voted in favor of the proposal to reinstate the voting rights of the CFC Partners shares. As a result, CFC Partners' common shares now have full voting rights.

At a special meeting of shareholders held on March 15, 2003, the Company's common shareholders voted to approve proposals to amend the Company's Articles of Incorporation to (i) effect a one-for-ten reverse stock split, (ii) increase the Company's authorized shares to 50 million and (iii) permit action upon the written consent of less than all shareholders of the Company, pursuant to the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law. CFC Partners, which owns 51.2% of the outstanding common shares of the Company, voted its shares in favor of each of the above proposals. As a result of the March 15, 2003 shareholder vote, the number of issued and outstanding shares of the Company will be reduced from 5,276,810 to approximately 527,681. The reverse stock split is expected to become effective during the second quarter of 2003.

ITEM 9. CHANGES IN AND DISAGREEMENTS WITH ACCOUNTANTS ON ACCOUNTING AND FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE

The firm of Stambaugh Ness, PC serves as the Company's independent auditors and has served in that capacity since November 29, 1999. No information relating to this Item is required to be included in the Company's Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2002.

PART III

ITEM 10. DIRECTORS AND EXECUTIVE OFFICERS OF THE REGISTRANT

Historically, the Board of Directors of the Company was divided into three (3) groups, with the directors in each group serving terms of three (3) years. However, due to (i) the Directors' decision in 1996 to merge, sell or otherwise dispose of the Company or its assets, (ii) the eventual approval by the shareholders of the Plan of Liquidation in 1998 and (iii) the acquisition of a 51% interest in the Company by CFC Partners on August 28, 2002, a slate of Directors has not been submitted to shareholders since 1995. On August 28, 2002, the Board of Directors appointed Donald J. Hommel, the president of CFC Partners, as a Director of the Company to fill an existing vacancy on the Board. Following such appointment, James C. Robertson and John E. Groninger, who had been Directors of the Company for more than 30 years, resigned as planned.

On October 17, 2002, the Board of Directors appointed Shalom S. Maidenbaum, Esq. as a Director of the Company to fill an existing vacancy on the Board, and on March 13, 2003, the Board of Directors appointed William T. Konczynin as an additional Director to fill an existing vacancy.

The table below sets forth the period for which the current Directors have served as Directors of the Company, their principal occupation or employment for the last five(5) years, and their other major affiliations and age as of March 15, 2003.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE INTERLOCKS AND INSIDER PARTICIPATION IN COMPENSATION DECISIONS

The members of the Personnel Committee of the Company's Board of Directors (the Committee) have historically been independent, non-employee directors. However, as a result of the acquisition of the Company by CFC Partners in August 2002, and the appointment of new directors to replace the previous directors who resigned, the current chairman of the Committee is Shalom S. Maidenbaum, who is also an officer of the Company. The Company plans to appoint additional independent directors to the Board of Directors in the future, at which time, the composition of the Committee will likely be limited to such independent directors. Neither of the two individuals who served in the capacity of Chief Executive Officer (CEO) during 2002, 2001 and 2000 received any compensation for his services as CEO. In addition, none of the other current officers, including Mr. Maidenbaum, received any compensation in their capacity as officers during 2002.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The Committee has historically administered and approved all forms of compensation for the CEO, the executive officers and other officers of the Company. The members of the Committee annually reviewed with the remainder of the Board all aspects of compensation, management succession and the implementation and administration of the Company's various incentive plans.

COMPENSATION PHILOSOPHY

Historically, the compensation policy of the Company was based upon the philosophy that an important portion of the annual compensation of each officer should relate to and be contingent upon the performance of the Company, as well as the individual contribution of each officer. In the past, the Company relied to a large degree on the annual and longer term incentive compensation plans to attract and retain corporate officers of outstanding abilities and to motivate them to perform to the full extent of their abilities. However, with the adoption of the Plan of Liquidation in 1998, the Committee implemented a compensation policy to allow an orderly and timely reduction of the officers and employees of the Company. As a result of the acquisition of the Company by CFC Partners and the appointment of new directors and officers to replace the previous directors and officers who resigned, the Company currently has no executive officers or other officers who receive compensation for their services.

CEO COMPENSATION

Mr. Robertson served as Chairman of the Board, President and CEO of the Company until August 28, 2002. However, his status as a salaried employee of the Company terminated effective July 19, 1996. During the three-year period ended December 31, 2002, Mr. Robertson did not receive any compensation in his capacity as President and CEO, although he did continue to receive the standard retainer and board meeting fees in his role as Chairman of the Board.

Mr. Hommel became Chairman of the Board, President and CEO of the Company effective August 28, 2002 but did not receive any compensation during 2002 for his services as CEO. However, he did receive the standard retainer and board meeting fees in his role as Chairman of the Board.

This report is submitted by the Personnel Committee of the Company's Board of Directors.

Shalom S. Maidenbaum, Chairman

(1) Assumes $100 invested on December 31, 1997 in the Company's common stock, the Peer Group's common stock and the NASDAQ Stock Index. Total shareholder returns assume reinvestment of dividends.

(2) As discussed in Item 5 of this Form 10-K, the Company's common stock was delisted by NASDAQ on June 1, 1998 for noncompliance with NASDAQ's market value of public float requirements. The Company's shareholders also approved a Plan of Liquidation and Dissolution in March 1998, and the Company ceased operations during that year. Therefore, any stock price comparisons after 1998 are not considered meaningful. If the Company is successful in developing new business operations, appropriate stock price comparisons will be made in the future.

- (3) The peer group companies were primarily in the same segment of the insurance industry as the Company when it conducted its insurance operations. While none of the companies offered all of the products and services that the Company offered, each was considered a competitor of the Company during the periods presented. The members of the peer group are as follows: ACCEL International Corporation, CNL Financial Corporation, American Bankers Insurance Group and US Life Corporation.

PENSION PLAN BENEFITS

Effective March 22, 2000, the pension plan was terminated, and, following approval from the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation and receipt of a favorable determination letter from the Internal Revenue Service, all benefits due under the plan were distributed to the plan participants in November and December 2000. Participants, including retirees already receiving benefits, could elect to receive their termination benefits either in a lump sum payment or in the form of an annuity purchased from a third party insurer. Benefits under this plan had been frozen since July 31, 1996. The Company contributed approximately $966,000 to the plan during 2000 so that the plan could pay the required benefits to the participants.

In connection with the termination of the pension plan, Mr. Robertson elected a lump sum payment and received a distribution of approximately $427,000 from the plan.

ITEM 12. SECURITY OWNERSHIP OF CERTAIN BENEFICIAL OWNERS AND MANAGEMENT

The following table sets forth, as of March 15, 2003, the beneficial ownership of the Company's common stock, the only class of voting securities outstanding, (i) by any person or group known by the Company to beneficially own more than 5% of the outstanding common stock, (ii) by each Director and executive officer and (iii) by all Directors and executive officers as a group. Unless otherwise indicated, the holders of the shares shown in the table have sole voting and investment power with respect to such shares.

Common	All Directors and Executive Officers as a group (3 persons)	0	(1)	----

- (1) Mr. Hommel, Mr. Maidenbaum and Dr. Ehrenhaus each own one-third of the outstanding common stock of CFC Partners. These individuals may each be deemed to be beneficial owners of the 2,700,000 shares pursuant to Rule 13d-3 of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. These individuals have shared voting and investment power with respect to the 2,700,000 shares of common stock.
- (2) Mr. Hommel and Mr. Maidenbaum are also deemed to be principal shareholders due to their beneficial ownership of the 2,700,000 shares owned by CFC Partners.

ITEM 13. CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

During the year ended December 31, 2002, the Company did not enter into any transactions in which the amount involved exceeded $60,000, with any of its Directors, executive officers, security holders known to the Company to own more than 5% of the Company's common stock or any member of the immediate family of any of the foregoing persons.

ITEM 14. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

The Company has not conducted any business operations since 1997 and was in the process of completing a plan of liquidation until August 2002, when CFC Partners acquired a majority interest in the Company. As discussed in Item 1 of this Form 10-K, CFC Partners is pursuing various business opportunities for the Company. However, at December 31, 2002, the Company did not yet have any business operations. Further, for the year ended December 31, 2002, the Company had a very limited number of transactions to record in its financial records.

The Company's management is responsible for establishing and maintaining disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Exchange Act Rules 13a-14 and 15d-14) for the Company. To the extent applicable to the Company's current non-operating status, appropriate disclosure controls and procedures are in place to ensure that material information relating to the Company is available and provided to the Company's management, including its chief executive officer and chief financial officer, particularly during the period in which the Company's periodic reports on Form 10-K and 10-Q are being prepared. Management, with the participation of the Company's chief executive officer and chief financial officer, has evaluated the effectiveness of the design and operation of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures as of a date within 90 days prior to the filing date of this Form 10-K and believes, as a result of that evaluation, that such controls and procedures are effective in timely alerting the chief executive officer and chief financial officer of material information relating to the Company and required to be included in the Company's periodic Securities and Exchange Commission filings.

The Company's chief executive officer and chief financial officer are not aware of any significant deficiencies in the design or operation of internal controls which could adversely affect the Company's ability to record, process, summarize and report financial data, nor are they aware of any fraud, whether or not material, that involves management or other employees who have a significant role in the Company's internal controls. Furthermore, there have not been any significant changes in internal controls or in other factors that could significantly affect internal controls subsequent to the date of the evaluation referred to above.

SCHEDULE I CONDENSED FINANCIAL INFORMATION OF REGISTRANT

CONSUMERS FINANCIAL CORPORATION NOTES TO CONDENSED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2001, 2000 AND 1999

1. The accompanying condensed financial statements should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and notes thereto of Consumers Financial Corporation (the Company) and subsidiary. The consolidated financial statements are included elsewhere in this Form 10-K.
2. In connection with the acquisition of the Company by CFC Partners on August 28, 2002 and the related termination of the Plan of Liquidation, the Company re-adopted accounting principles applicable to going-concern entities as of that date. The Company's financial statements had been prepared using a liquidation basis of accounting since March 25, 1998 when the Plan of Liquidation was approved by the Company's shareholders. In order to provide comparative financial information, the Company has restated its liquidation-basis financial statements for prior periods to conform to the current presentation which utilizes accounting principles applicable to going-concern entities. Accordingly, in the accompanying financial statements, the statement of net assets in liquidation as of December 31, 2001 and the statements of changes in net assets in liquidation for the years ended December 31, 2001 and 2000, as originally prepared on a liquidation basis of accounting, have been replaced by a balance sheet, statements of operations and comprehensive income and statements of cash flows.

At December 31, 2001, the Company's net assets in liquidation, as originally reported, were zero. For the years ended December 31, 2001 and 2000, The Company originally reported an excess of expenses over revenues of $35,171 for the year ended December 31, 2001 and an excess of revenues over expenses of $33,426 for the year ended December 31, 2000.

3. In 2002, 2001 and 2000, the Company received dividends in the amount of $1,481,510, $212,500 and $160,000, respectively, from its subsidiary, Consumers Life Insurance Company (Consumers Life). Substantially all ($1,361,510) of the 2002 dividend was received immediately prior to the sale of Consumers Life in June 2002.
4. For the year ended December 31, 2002, the Company intends to file a consolidated Federal income tax return with Consumers Life, which will include applicable income and deduction amounts through the date Consumers Life was sold.

5. On March 15, 2003, the Company's shareholders approved a proposal to amend the Articles of Incorporation to effect a one-for-ten reverse stock split. The stock split is expected to become effective during the second quarter of 2003. Basic and diluted loss per share calculations included in the condensed financial statements and elsewhere in this Form 10-K have not been restated to reflect this transaction. The proforma effects of the anticipated stock split are presented below:

	Years ended December 31,
	2002	2001	2000
Weighted average number of common shares outstanding, as reported herein	3,501,238	2,577,701	2,578,231
Reduction in weighted average number of common shares outstanding as a result of reverse stock split	(3,151,114)	(2,319,931)	(2,320,408)
Proforma weighted average number of common shares outstanding, giving retroactive effect to reverse stock split	350,124	257,770	257,823
Basic and diluted loss per common share, as reported herein	($0.08)	($0.39)	($0.76)
Proforma basic and diluted loss per common share, giving retroactive effect to reverse stock split	($0.81)	($3.90)	($7.61)
