International Corporation also assumed approximately $45,000.00 of outstanding liabilities of WorldStar Pacific, Inc.

In anticipation of the purchase of assets from WorldStar Pacific, Inc., Autotech International Corporation formed a wholly owned Philippine subsidiary corporation, Millenium Autotech International Corporation. Millenium Autotech International Corporation was capitalized with the assets purchased from WorldStar Pacific, Inc., including, but not limited to molds, jigs, plugs, and other parts necessary to produce factories to build the WorldStar utility vehicles, a number of partially completed WorldStar vehicles, engines and other parts necessary to complete the vehicles, all existing contracts, and all intellectual property rights know and unknown that WorldStar Pacific, Inc. owns, including the World Transport Authority, Inc. Master License Agreement for Asia. Millenium Autotech International Corporation was also capitalized with $210,000.00 USD. Gary Cannon, World Transport Authority, Inc.'s General Counsel was appointed President of Millenium Autotech International Corporation. Bryan Hammer, an American who is a resident of the Philippines, and has operated businesses in the Philippines for 18 years, was appointed Vice-President and General Manager. Millenium Autotech International Corporation will be the production company to produce the factories which build the WorldStar vehicles. Millenium Autotech International Corporation has shipped three vehicles and the first production factory under the Cameron International LLC contract entered into in December of 2003.

On August 11, 2004, after considerable discussion between the parties, World Transport Authority, Inc., a Nevada corporation, and wholly owned subsidiary of World Transport Authority, Inc., an Alberta corporation, terminated its Master License Agreement with WorldStar Andino Corp., a Panamanian corporation, and WorldStar Paez S.A., a Colombian corporation, for breach of their obligations under these contracts.

World Transport Authority, Inc. Board of Directors reluctantly accepted the resignation of John F. Tidy from the Board of Directors of World Transport Authority, Inc., on August 15, 2004, due to consuming responsibilities as Manager of Product Development for Autotech International Corporation, a wholly owned subsidiary of World Transport Authority, Inc., an Alberta corporation. As of August 30, 2004 Mr. Tidy's seat on the World Transport Authority, Inc.'s, Board of Directors has not been filled. The Board of Directors has expressed its hart felt thanks for Mr. Tidy's service with the Board.

On August 27, 2004, Roger S. Brown voluntarily resigned his position as Secretary of World Transport Authority, Inc. for logistical reasons. He remains a member of the World Transport Authority, Inc. Board of Directors, and Vice-President for Investor Relations.

On August 31, 2004, George I. Bates, corporate Treasurer and a current Board Member of World Transport Authority, Inc., was appointed to the office of Secretary of the corporation. Mr. Fowler remains a Board Member of the corporation.
