Each copy of this Proxy Statement mailed to holders of Common Stock, Class B Common Stock and Preferred Stock is accompanied by a form of proxy for use at the Annual Meeting.

At the Annual Meeting, IAC stockholders will be asked:

- (1) To elect 12 members of the IAC Board, each to hold office for a one-year term ending on the date of the next succeeding annual meeting of stockholders or until such director's successor shall have been duly elected and qualified;
- (2) To ratify the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as independent auditors of IAC for the 2004 fiscal year; and
- (3) To transact such other business as may be properly brought before the meeting and any adjournments or postponements thereof.

Date, Time and Place of Meeting

The Annual Meeting will be held on Wednesday, June 23, 2004, at 9:00 a.m., local time, at Le Parker Meridien Hotel, 118 West 57th Street, New York, New York.

Record Date; Shares Outstanding and Entitled to Vote

Only holders of record of Common Stock, Class B Common Stock and Preferred Stock at the close of business on April 29, 2004 (the "Record Date") are entitled to notice of, and will be entitled to vote at, the Annual Meeting. Each share of Preferred Stock entitles the holder to cast two votes per share, each share of Class B Common Stock entitles the holder to cast ten votes per share and each share of Common Stock entitles the holder to cast one vote per share on each matter on which holders of Preferred Stock, Class B Common Stock and Common Stock vote together as a single class. At the close of business on the Record Date, there were 636,810,239 shares of Common Stock, 64,629,996 shares of Class B Common Stock and 13,118,182 shares of Preferred Stock outstanding and entitled to vote.

Voting and Revocation of Proxies

The proxy conferred by the proxy card accompanying this Proxy Statement is solicited on behalf of the Board of Directors of IAC for use at the Annual Meeting. Stockholders of record may vote their shares in any of four ways:

Submitting a Proxy by Mail: If you choose to submit your proxy by mail, simply mark your proxy, date and sign it, and return it in the postage-paid envelope provided.

Submitting a Proxy by Telephone: Submit a proxy for your shares by telephone by using the toll-free telephone number provided on your proxy card. Telephone voting is available 24 hours a day.

Submitting a Proxy by Internet: Submit your proxy via the Internet. The web site for Internet proxy voting is on your proxy card, and Internet proxy voting is also available 24 hours a day.

Voting in Person: Vote by appearing and voting in person at the Annual Meeting.

Edgar Filing: INTERACTIVECORP - Form DEF 14A

Street name holders may submit a proxy by telephone or the Internet if their bank or broker makes those methods available, in which case the bank or broker will enclose the instructions with this Proxy Statement. If you submit a proxy by telephone or via the Internet you should not return your proxy card. Instructions on how to submit a proxy by telephone or via the Internet are located on the proxy card enclosed with this Proxy Statement.

All proxies properly submitted, and that are not revoked, will be voted at the Annual Meeting in accordance with the instructions indicated thereon. If no instructions are provided, such proxies will be voted FOR each of the proposals described in this Proxy Statement.

A stockholder who has given a proxy may revoke it at any time before it is exercised at the Annual Meeting by (1) delivering to The Bank of New York a written notice, bearing a date later than the proxy, stating that the proxy is revoked, (2) submitting a later-dated proxy relating to the same shares by mail, telephone or the Internet prior to the vote at the Annual Meeting, or (3) attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person (although attendance at the Annual Meeting will not, by itself, revoke a proxy). You should send any written notice or new proxy card to InterActiveCorp c/o The Bank of New York at the following address: InterActiveCorp, P.O. Box 11001, New York, New York 10203-0001 or follow the instructions provided on your proxy card to submit a proxy by telephone or via the Internet. You may request a new proxy card by calling our proxy solicitor, MacKenzie Partners, Inc., at 1-800-322-2885 (toll-free).

If you hold your shares through a bank or broker, follow the voting instructions on the form you receive from your bank or broker.

Your vote is important. We encourage you to submit your proxy by telephone, Internet or by signing and returning the accompanying proxy card whether or not you plan to attend the Annual Meeting.

The Board of Directors of IAC does not presently intend to bring any business before the Annual Meeting other than the proposals discussed in this Proxy Statement and specified in the Notice of the Annual Meeting. So far as is known to the IAC Board, no other matters are to be brought before the Annual Meeting. If any other business properly comes before the Annual Meeting, however, it is intended that proxies, in the form enclosed, will be voted on such matters in accordance with the judgment of the persons voting such proxies.

Vote Required

Election of nine of the director nominees to be elected at the Annual Meeting requires the affirmative vote of a plurality of the total number of votes cast by the holders of the shares of Common Stock, Class B Common Stock and Preferred Stock voting together as a single class (the "Total Voting Power"). Election of three of the director nominees requires the affirmative vote of a plurality of the total number of votes cast by the holders of the shares of Common Stock, voting as a separate class. See "Item 1 Election of Directors and Management Information Information Concerning Nominees."

Ratification of auditors requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the Total Voting Power present in person or represented by proxy at the Annual Meeting and voting on this proposal.

Pursuant to an Amended and Restated Stockholders Agreement, each of Vivendi Universal, S.A. ("Vivendi"), Universal Studios, Inc., a subsidiary of Vivendi ("Universal"), and Liberty Media Corporation ("Liberty") has granted to Mr. Diller an irrevocable proxy over all IAC securities owned by Vivendi, Liberty and their subsidiaries for all matters, except that each of Mr. Diller and Liberty generally has the right to consent to limited matters in the event that IAC's ratio of total debt to EBITDA (as defined in an Amended and Restated Governance Agreement among IAC, Vivendi, Universal, Liberty and Mr. Diller) equals or exceeds four to one over a continuous 12-month period. As a result, Mr. Diller, through shares owned by him as well as those owned by Liberty and Vivendi, generally controls the vote on 20.9% of the Common Stock and 100% of the Class B Common Stock and, consequently, 59.5% of the combined voting power of the Common Stock, Class B Common Stock and Preferred Stock. Thus, regardless of the vote of any other IAC stockholder, Mr. Diller has control over the vote on each matter to be considered by stockholders at the Annual Meeting, other than the election of the three directors to be elected separately by the holders of Common Stock.

Quorum; Broker Non-Votes

The presence, either in person or by proxy, of the holders of IAC securities representing a majority of the Total Voting Power entitled to vote is necessary to constitute a quorum at the Annual Meeting. Shares of IAC Common Stock, Class B Common Stock and Preferred Stock represented by a properly executed proxy will be treated as present at the Annual Meeting for purposes of determining a quorum, without regard to whether the proxy is marked as casting a vote or abstaining. Abstentions and broker non-votes, although counted for purposes of determining whether there is a quorum at the Annual Meeting, will not be voted. A broker non-vote occurs when a nominee holding shares for a beneficial owner does not vote the shares on a proposal because the nominee does not have discretionary voting power and has not received instructions from the beneficial owner.

If a quorum is not obtained, it is expected that the Annual Meeting will be postponed or adjourned in order to permit additional time for soliciting and obtaining additional proxies or votes, and, at any subsequent reconvening of the Annual Meeting, all proxies will be voted in the same manner as such proxies would have been voted at the original convening of the Annual Meeting, except for any proxies that theretofore have been effectively revoked or withdrawn.

Solicitation of Proxies and Expenses

IAC will bear the cost of the solicitation of proxies from its stockholders. In addition to solicitation by mail, the directors, officers and employees of IAC may solicit proxies from stockholders by telephone, letter, facsimile or in person. Following the original mailing of the proxies and other soliciting materials, IAC will request brokers, custodians, nominees and other record holders to forward copies of the proxy and other soliciting materials to persons for whom they hold shares of Common Stock and Preferred Stock and to request authority for the exercise of proxies. In such cases, IAC, upon the request of the record holders, will reimburse such holders for their reasonable expenses.

IAC has retained MacKenzie Partners, Inc. to distribute proxy solicitation materials to brokers, banks and other nominees and to assist in the solicitation of proxies from IAC stockholders. The fee for such firm's services is estimated not to exceed $15,000 plus reimbursement for their reasonable out-of-pocket costs and expenses.

The Company is subject to the Marketplace Rules of the Nasdaq Stock Market, Inc. (the "Marketplace Rules"). The Marketplace Rules exempt "Controlled Companies," or companies of which more than 50% of the voting power is held by an individual, group or another company, from certain requirements.

Pursuant to an Amended and Restated Stockholders Agreement, Mr. Diller, through shares owned by him as well as those owned by Liberty and Vivendi, generally controls the vote on 20.9% of the Common Stock and 100% of the Class B Common Stock and, consequently, 59.5% of the combined voting power of the Common Stock, Class B Common Stock and Preferred Stock. Mr. Diller, Vivendi, Universal and Liberty have filed a Statement of Beneficial Ownership on Schedule 13D (and related amendments) in respect of their IAC holdings and related voting arrangements with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"). On this basis, the Company is relying on the exemption for Controlled Companies from all applicable Nasdaq requirements.

The Board met eight times and acted by written consent one time during 2003. During 2003, all then incumbent directors attended at least 75% of the meetings of the Board and the Board committees on which they served with the exception of Mr. Bronfman. Directors are not required to attend annual meetings of the Company's stockholders. Two members of the Board of Directors attended the Company's 2003 Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

Board Committees

The Board has four standing committees: the Executive Committee, the Audit Committee, the Compensation/Benefits Committee and the Performance-Based Compensation Committee. The Board does not have a nominating committee.

Audit Committee. The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors currently consists of, and for the full year 2003 consisted of, Messrs. Keough and Spoon and Gen. Schwarzkopf, each of whom satisfies the independence requirements under the current standards imposed by the rules of the SEC and the Marketplace Rules. The Board had previously determined the Mr. Spoon is an "audit committee financial expert," as such term is defined in Item 401(h) of Regulation S-K promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act").

The Audit Committee functions pursuant to a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors, pursuant to which it has been granted the responsibilities and authority necessary to comply with Rule 10A-3 of the Exchange Act. A copy of the Audit Committee's written charter is attached to this Proxy Statement as Annex A. The Audit Committee is appointed by the Board to assist the Board with a variety of matters described in the charter, which include monitoring (1) the integrity of the financial statements of the Company, (2) the independent auditor's qualifications and independence, (3) the performance of the Company's internal audit function and independent auditors, and (4) the compliance by the Company with legal and regulatory requirements. Mr. Keough is the Chairman of the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee met 13 times during 2003. The formal report of the Audit Committee with respect to the year 2003 is set forth under the heading "Audit Committee Report" below.

Compensation/Benefits Committee. The Compensation/Benefits Committee currently consists of, and for the full year 2003 consisted of, Messrs. Spoon, Bennett and Keough and Gen. Schwarzkopf. The Committee is authorized to exercise all of the powers of the Board of Directors with respect to matters pertaining to compensation and benefits, including, but not limited to, salary matters, incentive/bonus plans, stock compensation plans, investment programs and insurance plans, except that the Performance-Based Compensation Committee exercises such powers with respect to performance-based compensation of corporate officers who are, or who are most likely to become, subject to Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code. None of the members of the Compensation/Benefits Committee is an employee of the Company. Mr. Spoon is the Chairman of the Compensation/Benefits Committee. The Compensation/Benefits Committee met six times and acted by written consent five times during 2003.

Performance-Based Compensation Committee. The Performance-Based Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors currently consists of, and for the full year 2003 consisted of, Mr. Spoon and Gen. Schwarzkopf. The Performance-Based Compensation Committee is authorized to exercise all of the powers of the Board of Directors with respect to matters pertaining to performance-based compensation of corporate officers who are, or are most likely to become, subject to Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code. Section 162(m) limits the deductibility of compensation in excess of $1,000,000 paid to a corporation's chief executive officer and four other most highly compensated executive officers, unless certain conditions are met. None of the members of the Performance-Based Compensation Committee is an employee of the Company. Mr. Spoon is the Chairman of the Performance-Based Compensation Committee. The Performance-Based Compensation Committee met six times during 2003.

Executive Committee. The Executive Committee of the Board of Directors currently consists of, and for the full year 2003 consisted of, Messrs. Diller, Kaufman and Bronfman. The Executive Committee has all the power and authority of the Board of Directors of the Company, except those powers specifically reserved to the Board by Delaware law or the Company's organizational documents. The Executive Committee met three times and acted by written consent four times during 2003.

Director Nominations

The Board does not have a nominating committee or other committee performing similar functions nor any formal policy on nominations. Liberty, an affiliate of the Company, has the right to nominate two directors for election to the Board so long as certain stock ownership requirements are satisfied. Historically, other nominees have been recommended by the Chairman, upon consultation with other members, and then considered by the entire Board. Given Liberty's right to nominate directors and the controlled status of the Company, the Board believes the process described above is appropriate. The Board does not have specific requirements for eligibility to serve as a director of the Company. However, in evaluating candidates, regardless of how recommended, the Board considers whether the professional and personal ethics and values of the candidate are consistent with those of the Company, whether the candidate's experiences and expertise would be beneficial to the Board in rendering its service to the Company, whether the candidate is willing and able to devote the necessary time and energy to the work of the Board and whether the candidate is prepared and qualified to represent the best interests of the Company's stockholders. Mr. Rattner, who was recently appointed to the Board, was recommended by the Chairman and elected by the entire Board.

The Board does not have a formal policy regarding the consideration of director nominees recommended by stockholders, as historically the Company has not received such recommendations. However, the Board would consider such recommendations if made in the future. Stockholders who wish to make such a recommendation should send the recommendation to InterActiveCorp, 152 West 57th Street, 42nd Floor, New York, New York 10019, Attention: Corporate Secretary. The envelope must contain a clear notation that the enclosed letter is a "Director Nominee Recommendation." The letter must identify the author as a stockholder, provide a brief summary of the candidate's qualifications and history and must be accompanied by evidence of the sender's stock ownership. Any director recommendations will be reviewed by the Corporate Secretary and, if deemed appropriate, forwarded to the Chairman of the Board for further review. If the Chairman believes that the candidate fits the profile of a director described above, the recommendation will be shared with the entire Board.

Communications with the Board

Stockholders who wish to communicate with the Board of Directors or a particular director may send such communication to InterActiveCorp, 152 West 57th Street, 42nd Floor, New York, New York 10019, Attention: Corporate Secretary. The mailing envelope must contain a clear notation indicating that the enclosed letter is a "Stockholder-Board Communication" or "Stockholder-Director Communication." All such letter must identify the author as a stockholder and must clearly state whether the intended recipients are all members of the Board or just certain specified individual directors. The Secretary will then review such correspondence and forward it to the Board, or to the specified director, if appropriate.

Compensation of Outside Directors

During 2003, each director of IAC who is not an employee of IAC or any of its businesses received an annual retainer of $30,000, the chairperson of the Compensation/Benefits Committee and each member of the Audit Committee received an annual retainer of $5,000 and the chairperson of the Audit Committee received an additional annual retainer of $5,000. IAC also paid each of these directors $1,000 for each IAC Board meeting and each IAC Board Committee meeting attended, plus reimbursement for all reasonable expenses incurred by a director as a result of attendance at any of these meetings. In addition, directors who are not employees of IAC or any of its businesses receive a grant of 7,500 restricted stock units upon initial election to office and annually thereafter on the date of IAC's annual meeting of stockholders at which the director is re-elected, which units will vest in three equal annual installments commencing on the first anniversary of the grant date. For the year ended December 31, 2003, directors that were designated by Liberty waived their rights to receive compensation for their service as IAC directors.

Under IAC's Deferred Compensation Plan for Non-Employee Directors, non-employee directors may defer all or a portion of their annual retainer and meeting fees. Eligible directors who defer their directors' fees can elect to have such deferred fees applied to the purchase of share units, representing the number of shares of Common Stock that could have been purchased on the relevant date, or credited to a cash fund. If any dividends are paid on Common Stock, dividend equivalents will be credited on the share units. The cash fund will be credited with deemed interest at an annual rate equal to the weighted average prime lending rate of JP Morgan Chase Bank. Upon termination, a director will receive (1) with respect to share units, such number of shares of Common Stock as the share units represent; and (2) with respect to the cash fund, a cash payment. The payments made upon termination will be either in a lump sum or in installments, as previously elected by the eligible director at the time of the related deferral election.

Security Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners and Management

The following table presents, as of February 29, 2004, information relating to the beneficial ownership of IAC Common Stock, Class B Common Stock and Preferred Stock by (1) each person known by IAC to own beneficially more than 5% of the outstanding shares of IAC Common Stock, Class B Common Stock and Preferred Stock, (2) each director nominee of IAC, (3) each of the Chief Executive Officer and the four other most highly compensated executive officers of IAC who served in such capacities as of December 31, 2003 (the "Named Executive Officers"), and (4) all executive officers and directors of IAC as a group.

Unless otherwise indicated, beneficial owners listed here may be contacted at IAC's corporate headquarters at 152 West 57th Street, 42nd Floor, New York, New York 10019. For each listed person, the number of shares of Common Stock and percent of such class listed assumes the conversion or exercise of any IAC equity securities owned by such person, but does not assume the conversion or exercise of any such equity securities owned by any other person. Shares of Class B Common Stock may at the option of the holder be converted on a one-for-one basis into shares of Common Stock. Each share of Preferred Stock is convertible, at the option of the holder, into that number of shares of Common Stock equal to the quotient obtained by dividing $50 by the conversion price, currently $33.75 per share. Under the rules of the SEC, a person is deemed to be a beneficial owner of a security if that person has or shares voting power, which includes the power to vote or to direct the voting of such security, or investment power, which includes the power to dispose of or to direct the disposition of such security. A person is also deemed to be the beneficial owner of any securities of which that person has the right to acquire beneficial ownership within 60 days. Under these rules, more than one person may be deemed to be a beneficial owner of the same securities and a person may be deemed to be a beneficial owner of securities as to which that person has no economic interest. For each listed person, the number of shares of Common Stock and percent of class listed includes shares of Common Stock that may be acquired by such person upon the exercise of stock options and warrants that are or will be exercisable, and restricted stock units that are or will have vested, within 60 days of February 29, 2004.

The percentage of votes for all classes of capital stock is based on one vote for each share of Common Stock, ten votes for each share of Class B Common Stock and two votes for each share of Preferred Stock.

1999 Stock Option Plan

Edgar Filing: INTERACTIVECORP - Form DEF 14A

In February 2000, the Company's Board of Directors approved the 1999 Stock Option Plan, or the 1999 Plan. An award of stock options exercisable for 4.4 million shares of Company Common Stock, the total amount available under the 1999 Plan, at an exercise price of $22.59 per share, was made in February 2000 to Dr. Georg Kofler in consideration of his entering into an employment arrangement with a German affiliate of Home Shopping Network. These options vested over four years, with 25% vesting on the first, second, third and fourth anniversaries of the date of grant, and remain exercisable for ten years from the date of grant. Subject to applicable law, these options are freely transferable by the holders thereof by written notice to the Company, or by will or the laws of descent and distribution or pursuant to a qualified domestic relations order.

Equity and Bonus Compensation Agreement

In August 1995, the Company granted to Mr. Diller stock options to acquire 7,583,388 shares of Company Common Stock at an exercise price of $5.66 per share (both the number of shares and the exercise price have been adjusted to reflect the Company's two stock splits since the date of grant) pursuant to the Equity and Bonus Compensation Agreement. Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act requires the Company's officers and directors, and persons who beneficially own more than 10% of a registered class of the Company's equity securities, to file initial statements of beneficial ownership (Form 3) and statements of changes in beneficial ownership (Forms 4 and 5) of Common Stock and other equity securities of the Company with the SEC. Officers, directors and greater than 10% beneficial owners are required by SEC rules to furnish the Company with copies of all such forms they file. Based solely on a review of the copies of such forms furnished to the Company, and/or written representations that no additional forms were required, the Company believes that its officers, directors and greater than 10% beneficial owners complied with these filing requirements in 2003, except that due to administrative error, Mr. Bronfman did not timely report two purchases of shares of Common Stock by a family member, both of which were subsequently reported on a Form 4.

Certain Agreements with Executive Officers

Mr. Diller. Under the Equity and Bonus Compensation Agreement dated August 24, 1995, the Company issued and sold to Mr. Diller 883,976 shares of Company Common Stock at $5.65625 per share in cash (the "Initial Diller Shares") and an additional 883,976 shares of Company Common Stock for the same per share price (the "Additional Diller Shares") payable by means of a cash payment of $2,210 and an interest-free, secured, non-recourse promissory note in the amount of $4,997,779. These amounts have been adjusted as appropriate to reflect the two two-for-one stock splits to holders of record as of the close of business on March 12, 1998 and February 10, 2000, respectively. The promissory note is secured by the Additional Diller Shares and by that portion of the Initial Diller Shares having a fair market value on the purchase date of 20% of the principal amount of the promissory note.

Mr. Diller's Equity and Bonus Compensation Agreement with IAC also provides for a gross-up payment to be made to Mr. Diller, if necessary, to eliminate the effect of the imposition of the excise tax under Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code upon payments made to Mr. Diller and imposition of income and excise taxes on the gross-up payment.

Mr. Diller was also granted a bonus arrangement, contractually independent from the promissory note, under which he received a bonus payment of approximately $2.5 million on August 24, 1996, and was to receive a further such bonus payment on August 24, 1997, which was deferred. The deferred amount accrues interest at a rate of 6% per annum. Mr. Diller also received $966,263 for payment of taxes by Mr. Diller due to the compensation expense which resulted from the difference in the per share fair market value of Company Common Stock and the per share purchase price of the Initial Diller Shares and Additional Diller Shares.

Mr. Kaufman. On February 5, 2004, IAC and Mr. Kaufman entered into an agreement pursuant to which Mr. Kaufman will continue to be employed by the Company as its Vice Chairman through February 5, 2007 (the "Initial Term") and will then be employed by the Company on a part-time basis through February 5, 2010. The agreement provides for Mr. Kaufman's compensation to be determined by the relevant committee of IAC's Board of Directors, following consultation with IAC's Chairman.

During the Initial Term, Mr. Kaufman will continue to oversee IAC's legal, financial and mergers & acquisition groups and devote at least 80% of his business time and attention to his duties to IAC and a new venture with IAC (as described below); provided, that Mr. Kaufman's duties to IAC shall be his first priority among his business activities. The venture will engage in a business to be agreed to by Mr. Kaufman and IAC and will be controlled by Mr. Kaufman with an initial start-up investment by IAC (in an amount to be mutually agreed upon by the parties). IAC shall have the right to make additional matching investments in the venture (in lieu of a third party) and shall have the right to purchase 100% of the venture following the fifth anniversary of the commencement of the venture by means of a put/call right on such terms and conditions as shall be mutually agreed upon by the parties. Mr. Kaufman has agreed that for the term of the agreement none of his activities outside of IAC shall be competitive with any IAC businesses.

The agreement provides that Mr. Kaufman's options and other equity awards which are unvested or subsequently granted will continue to vest throughout the term of his full and part-time employment with IAC. Vested options shall remain exercisable during both the Initial Term and the part-time employment period. However, in the event of termination of Mr. Kaufman's employment for any reason other than for cause or if Mr. Kaufman terminates his employment for good reason, vested options to purchase Common Stock ("IAC Options") held by Mr. Kaufman as of the date of termination shall remain exercisable for two years from the date of such termination, plus an additional fifteen days for each month of service performed by Mr. Kaufman during the Initial Term (up to a maximum of three years), and if Mr. Kaufman terminates his employment other than for good reason, vested IAC Options held by Mr. Kaufman as of the date of such termination shall remain exercisable for one year from the date of such termination, provided in each case that the options do not earlier expire.

Mr. Genachowski. On August 9, 2000, IAC and Mr. Genachowski entered into an employment agreement, which was subsequently amended on September 30, 2002. The term of the amended agreement expires on December 31, 2004 and provides for an annual base salary of $500,000 per year. The agreement also provides that Mr. Genachowski is eligible to receive an annual discretionary bonus (including equity awards). Under the agreement, Mr. Genachowski is entitled to receive an annual housing allowance, plus tax gross-up for such allowance, not to exceed an aggregate of $100,000. Commencing December 31, 2003, the agreement provides Mr. Genachowski with the ability to be based in Washington, D.C. for the remainder of the term, with any change in location potentially involving a change in position, provided his compensation and benefits would remain unchanged. The agreement also provides for a four-month sabbatical, with his compensation (including bonus) and benefits not being affected thereby.

Upon termination of Mr. Genachowski's employment by IAC for any reason other than death, disability or cause, or if Mr. Genachowski terminates his employment for good reason, IAC is required to pay Mr. Genachowski his base salary through the term of his agreement over the course of the then remaining term and continue the housing allowance for the remainder of the term, subject, in each case, to mitigation by Mr. Genachowski.

Mr. Blatt. On November 5, 2003 (the "Effective Date"), IAC and Mr. Blatt entered into an employment agreement for a term continuing until November 5, 2006 and providing for an annual base salary of $400,000 per year. Pursuant to the terms of the employment agreement, Mr. Blatt is also eligible to receive an annual discretionary bonus (including equity awards) and received a $100,000 advance against his 2003 annual discretionary bonus upon commencement of his employment with IAC.

Mr. Blatt's employment agreement provided for a grant of 35,000 restricted stock units ("RSUs"). Mr. Blatt's RSUs vest in four equal installments on the second, third, fourth and fifth anniversaries of the Effective Date. The employment agreement provides that upon a change of control of IAC, 100% of Mr. Blatt's RSUs would become vested and exercisable. In addition, upon termination of Mr. Blatt's employment by IAC for any reason other than death, disability or cause, or if Mr. Blatt terminates his employment for good reason, the agreement provides that IAC would be required to pay Mr. Blatt his base salary through the term of his agreement over the course of the then remaining term, subject to mitigation by Mr. Blatt. In the event of a termination for any reason other than death, disability or cause or if Mr. Blatt terminates his employment for good reason, the agreement provides that Mr. Blatt's RSUs would vest (in each case, inclusive of amounts previously vested) as follows: 25% after the first anniversary of, but prior to the second anniversary of, the Effective Date; 50% after the second anniversary of, but prior to the third anniversary of, the Effective Date; 75% after the first anniversary of, but prior to the fourth anniversary of, the Effective Date; and 100% on or after the fourth anniversary of the Effective Date.

Ms. Fisher. On June 30, 2003 (the "Effective Date"), IAC and Ms. Fisher entered into an employment agreement for a term continuing until June 30, 2005 and providing for an annual base salary of $400,000 per year. Pursuant to the terms of the employment agreement, Ms. Fisher is also eligible to receive an annual discretionary bonus (including equity awards) and received a $100,000 advance against her 2003 annual discretionary bonus upon commencement of her employment with IAC.

Ms. Fisher's employment agreement provided for a grant of 35,000 RSUs. Ms. Fisher's RSUs vest in four equal installments on the second, third, fourth and fifth anniversaries of the Effective Date. The employment agreement provides that upon a change of control of IAC, 100% of Ms. Fisher's RSUs would become vested and exercisable. In addition, upon termination of Ms. Fisher's employment by IAC for any reason other than death, disability or cause, or if Ms. Fisher terminates her employment for good reason, the agreement provides that IAC would be required to pay Ms. Fisher her base salary through the term of her agreement over the course of the then remaining term, subject to mitigation by Ms. Fisher. In the event of a termination for any reason other than death, disability or cause or if Ms. Fisher terminates her employment for good reason, the agreement provides that Ms. Fisher's RSUs would vest (in each case, inclusive of amounts previously vested) as follows: 17% after the first anniversary of, but prior to the second anniversary of, the Effective Date; 37.5% after the second anniversary of, but prior to the third anniversary of, the Effective Date; 62.5% after the first anniversary of, but prior to the fourth anniversary of, the Effective Date; and 87.5% on or after the fourth anniversary of the Effective Date.

Mr. Marriott. On March 1, 2002, IAC and Mr. Marriott entered into an employment agreement for a term continuing until March 1, 2005 and providing for an annual base salary of $400,000 per year. COMPENSATION COMMITTEE INTERLOCKS AND INSIDER PARTICIPATION

The Board of Directors has a Compensation/Benefits Committee, which in fiscal year 2003 was comprised of Messrs. Bennett, Keough and Spoon and General Schwarzkopf, and a Performance-Based Compensation Committee, which in fiscal year 2003 was comprised of Mr. Spoon and General Schwarzkopf. None of the members of these Committees is or was in the past an officer or employee of IAC or any of its businesses at the time of their respective service on the Committees. Mr. Keough currently serves as Chairman (in a non-executive capacity) of Allen & Company LLC, a New York investment banking firm. From time to time, IAC has retained the services of Allen & Company LLC.

REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The Compensation/Benefits Committee of the Board of Directors and the Performance-Based Compensation Committee (collectively, the "Committee") furnished the following joint report that provides an overview of the Company's compensation philosophy and executive compensation programs for the 2003 fiscal year.

Compensation Philosophy

The Company's executive compensation program is designed to reward exceptional performance and to align the financial interests of the Company's senior executives with those of the equity owners of the Company. To achieve this end, the Committee has developed and implemented a compensation program consisting of base salaries, bonuses and equity compensation designed to attract, retain and motivate highly skilled executives with the business experience and acumen necessary for achievement of the Company's long-term business objectives.

The compensation of the Company's Chief Executive Officer and the four other most highly compensated executive officers is governed in part by the terms of certain agreements which are described under "Executive Compensation Certain Agreements with Executive Officers" herein.

Base Salary

In determining base salaries paid to the Company's executive officers, the Committee takes into account a variety of factors, including (i) recommendations of the Chief Executive Officer, (ii) competitive factors, (iii) individual performance and an assessment of the value of the individual's services to IAC, (iv) the fairness of individual executive officers' salaries relative to their responsibilities and individual compensation history, (v) the salaries of other executive officers, and (vi) IAC's financial performance. The Committee does not apply a formulaic approach, and gives these criteria varying degrees of weight depending on the specific circumstances.

Annual Bonus

In early 2003, target cash bonus pools were established for the Company and each of its businesses with actual pool amounts generally based upon the achievement of a specified level of Earnings Before Interest, Taxes and Amortization ("EBITA"), or comparable measure, against budgeted levels. Upon completion of 2003, the bonus pools were funded based upon actual performance against those targets and then specific bonus amounts were paid out of the relevant pool to each of the executive officers based upon satisfaction of certain performance conditions and the discretion of the Performance Based Compensation Committee, taking into account a number of considerations, including the recommendation of the Chief Executive Officer and the individual's performance and contribution to the Company during the year.

Stock Based Compensation

In February 2004, the Committee granted restricted stock units to executives and certain other employees throughout the Company and its businesses in connection with their service to the Company in 2003. The Committee believes that stock-based compensation, and particularly restricted stock units, align the interests of employees and long-term stockholders and form an important element of the Company's compensation practices.

In determining overall equity grant levels throughout the Company and its businesses, the Committee evaluated a number of considerations, including targeted long-term dilution rates, the practices of the Company's primary competitors for personnel, and the cost to the Company of such compensation. Once aggregate equity pools were established for the Company and its businesses, the Committee approved equity grants to each executive officer other than the CEO. The Committee approved each grant to the executive officers based on a variety of factors, including the individual performance of the executive officer, an assessment of the value of the individual's services to IAC, the awards given to other executives, the recommendation of the CEO and the desire to keep the Company's overall compensation competitive. Additionally, the Committee generally grants equity awards to executive officers upon commencement of their employment with the Company, with the level of award based on factors similar to those considered in connection with annual awards to existing executive officers, where applicable. All grants, other than certain grants made upon the hiring of new executives, vest over a five-year period and, in the case of all executive officers, are subject to the satisfaction of certain specified performance goals.

Compensation of Chief Executive Officer for the Fiscal Year

Effective September 25, 1998, the Committee authorized the payment to Mr. Diller of an annual base salary of $500,000. Prior to such time, Mr. Diller had not received a salary from the Company. Mr. Diller's base salary for fiscal year 2003 remained unchanged and, like the period 1998-2002, Mr. Diller did not receive additional equity based grants for 2003. Through the bonus process described above, the Committee awarded Mr. Diller a bonus of $3,250,000 for fiscal year 2003. The Committee believes Mr. Diller's compensation is appropriate in light of his substantial contribution to the Company's performance. Additionally, the Committee believes that Mr. Diller's significant equity stake in the Company strongly aligns his interests and those of the Company's stockholders.

Tax Matters

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code generally permits a tax deduction to public corporations for compensation over $1,000,000 paid in any fiscal year to a corporation's chief executive officer and four other most highly compensated executive officers only if the compensation qualifies as being performance-based. The Company endeavors to structure certain of its compensation policies to comply with Section 162(m), including submitting certain matters to the Performance-Based Compensation Committee. Stock based compensation under the Company's 2000 Stock and Annual Incentive Plan is also structured to comply with Section 162(m).

The Board, the Compensation/Benefits Committee and the Performance-Based Compensation Committee reserve the authority to award non-deductible compensation in appropriate circumstances. In addition, it is possible that some compensation paid pursuant to certain awards that have already been granted, including options granted by a company that was subsequently acquired by IAC, may be nondeductible.

Summary

The Committee believes that the Company's executive compensation program must continually provide executives with a strong incentive to focus on and achieve the Company's business objectives. By assuring that executives are appropriately compensated and therefore motivated, the long-term interests of stockholders will be best served. The actions taken by the Committee in 2003 were consistent with this focus and the principles outlined above.

During 2003, the Audit Committee adopted a policy governing the pre-approval of all audit and permitted non-audit services performed by the Company's independent auditors in order to ensure that the provision of such services does not impair the auditor's independence from the Company and its management. Unless a type of service to be provided by the Company's independent auditors has received general pre-approval, it will require specific pre-approval by the Audit Committee. Any proposed services in excess of pre-approved cost levels will require specific pre-approval by the Audit Committee. In all pre-approval instances, the Audit Committee will consider whether such services are consistent with SEC rules on auditor independence.

In its pre-approval policy, the Audit Committee has designated specific services that have the pre-approval of the Audit Committee (each of which is subject to pre-approved cost levels) and has classified these pre-approved services into one of four categories: Audit, Audit-Related, Tax and All Other. The term of any pre-approval is 12 months from the date of such pre-approval, unless the Audit Committee specifically provides for a different period. The Audit Committee will revise the list of pre-approved services from time to time, based on subsequent determinations. Pre-approved fee levels for all services to be provided by the independent auditors will be established periodically from time to time by the Audit Committee. Any proposed services in excess of pre-approved costs levels will require specific pre-approval by the Audit Committee.

Pursuant to its pre-approval policy, the Audit Committee may delegate its authority to grant pre-approvals to one or more of its members, and has currently delegated this authority to its Chairman. The decisions of the Chairman (or any other member(s) to whom such authority may be delegated) to grant pre-approvals must be presented to the full Audit Committee at its next scheduled meeting. The Audit Committee may not delegate its responsibilities to pre-approve services to management.

Pursuant to the pre-approval policy, requests or applications to provide services that require separate pre-approval must be submitted, after consultation with the independent auditor, to the Audit Committee by the Company's Chief Financial Officer and/or the Controller. In connection with any such submission, each of the Chief Financial Officer and/or Controller, as applicable, as well as the independent auditor, must represent to the Audit Committee that the request or application is, in their respective views, consistent with the SEC rules on auditor independence.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Relationships with Officers and Directors

Mr. Diller, the Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of IAC, is the sole holder of the voting stock of the BDTV Entities. The BDTV Entities hold shares of Common Stock and Class B Common Stock that have effective voting control of IAC with respect to all matters submitted for the vote or consent of stockholders as to which stockholders vote together as a single class.

In 1997, the Company and Mr. Diller agreed to defer repayment of an interest-free, secured, non-recourse promissory note in the amount of $4,997,779 due from Mr. Diller from September 5, 1997 to September 5, 2007. As of December 31, 2003, the promissory note remained outstanding. In 1997, Mr. Diller and IAC agreed to defer the payment of a bonus in the amount of $2.5 million that otherwise was to be paid to Mr. Diller in 1997. The deferred bonus amount accrues interest at a rate of 6% per annum.

In 2001, IAC and Mr. Diller entered into an agreement with respect to the construction of facilities, including a screening room on Mr. Diller's property, to assist Mr. Diller in connection with Company-related activities. Construction costs of approximately $1.8 million were paid by the Company and the agreement provides that under certain circumstances, including upon Mr. Diller's termination of employment by IAC or its affiliates, Mr. Diller shall have the option of paying to IAC an amount equal to the depreciated book value of the construction costs to acquire the facilities.

In October 2000, a subsidiary of IAC and Nineteen Forty CC Inc. ("Nineteen Forty"), a company owned by Mr. Diller, acquired an aircraft for use by Mr. Diller and other directors and executive officers of IAC in connection with IAC's business. In connection with this transaction, Nineteen Forty, which originally was under contract to purchase the aircraft, assigned to IAC its rights under the purchase agreement and, in exchange, IAC granted Nineteen Forty an option to acquire all or any portion of the aircraft ultimately acquired by IAC for its depreciated value on IAC's books. The aircraft is currently owned 77.2% by the IAC subsidiary and 22.8% by Nineteen Forty. IAC's ownership interest remains subject to Nineteen Forty's option. IAC pays all operating and maintenance expenses relating to the aircraft. In 2003, IAC paid Nineteen Forty for use of Nineteen Forty's 22.8% interest in the aircraft at the rate of approximately $53,000 per month. The foregoing payment rate was based on market rates for similar aircraft.

In 2003, Mr. Diller reimbursed IAC approximately $413,000 in connection with a New York City apartment maintained by the Company for use by Mr. Diller, covering in full IAC's out-of-pocket costs of maintaining such apartment for 2003. In addition, rather than pay hotel accommodation expenses relating to Mr. Diller's business travel to Los Angeles on behalf of IAC, the Company has reimbursed Mr. Diller for 50% of the operating costs associated with his Los Angeles residence during 2003. In 2003, this amount was approximately $118,000, which IAC believes was not in excess of the amount IAC would have incurred in hotel accommodation expenses.

From time to time, IAC has retained the services of Allen & Company LLC, a New York investment banking firm. Mr. Keough, a member of the Board of Directors of IAC, currently serves as Chairman (in a non-executive capacity) of Allen & Company LLC.

LendingTree retained the services of Allen & Company LLC in April 2003 in connection with IAC's acquisition of LendingTree. Prior to joining the Company in July 2003, Ms. Fisher was a Vice President at Allen & Company LLC and participated in providing these services to LendingTree. Subsequent to the closing of the acquisition in August 2003, LendingTree paid Allen & Company LLC a customary fee for its services and, out of this fee, Allen & Company LLC paid, in accordance with its standard compensation policies, approximately $91,000 to Ms. Fisher.

During 2003, one of IAC's businesses, Home Shopping Network, made payments to Diane Von Furstenberg Studio, LP of approximately $263,000 relating to sales of the Studio's fashion merchandise by Home Shopping Network. Ms. Von Furstenberg, a member of the Board of Directors of IAC, is the founder and Chairman of Diane Von Furstenberg Studio, LP.

Vivendi Transaction

On May 7, 2002, the Company completed the Vivendi Transaction, pursuant to which it contributed its Entertainment Group to Vivendi Universal Entertainment LLLP, a joint venture with Vivendi ("VUE"). The joint venture is currently controlled by Vivendi and its subsidiaries, with the common interests owned 93.06% by Vivendi and its subsidiaries, 5.44% by IAC and its subsidiaries and 1.5% by Mr. Diller (subject to the assignments discussed below).

In connection with the Vivendi Transaction, IAC and its subsidiaries received the following at the closing of the transactions: (i) approximately $1.62 billion in cash, debt-financed by VUE, subject to tax-deferred treatment for a 15-year period; (ii) a $750 million face value Class A preferred interest in VUE, with a 5% annual paid-in-kind dividend and a 20-year term, to be settled in cash at its then face value at maturity; (iii) a $1.75 billion face value Class B preferred interest in VUE, with a 1.4% annual paid-in-kind dividend, a 3.6% annual cash dividend, callable and puttable after 20 years, to be settled by Vivendi, Universal and/or certain of their respective subsidiaries with IAC shares having a market value equal to the then face value of the Class B preferred interest, subject to a maximum of approximately 43.2 million shares of IAC Common Stock and 13.4 million shares of IAC Class B Common Stock (for a total of approximately 56.6 million IAC common shares), provided that Vivendi, Universal and/or certain of their respective subsidiaries may substitute cash in lieu of shares of IAC Common Stock (but not IAC Class B Common Stock), at its election; (iv) a 5.44% common interest in VUE, generally callable by Universal after five years and puttable by IAC after eight years, which may be settled in cash or, under certain circumstances, at Universal's election, Vivendi stock; and (v) cancellation of all of Vivendi's interests in USANi LLC, a Delaware limited liability company ("USANi LLC"), which interests were exchangeable into IAC common shares, including USANi LLC interests obtained by Vivendi from Liberty in a related transaction.

In addition, the Company issued to Vivendi ten-year warrants to acquire shares of IAC Common Stock as follows: 24,187,094 shares at $27.50 per share; 24,187,094 shares at $32.50 per share; and 12,093,547 shares at $37.50 per share. Barry Diller, IAC's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, received a common interest in VUE with a 1.5% profit sharing percentage in return for his agreeing to specified non-competition provisions and agreeing to serve as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the joint venture, which position he held from May 2002 to April 2003. In February 2002, Mr. Diller assigned the right to receive beneficial interests in a portion of his common interest in VUE to Victor Kaufman, Vice Chairman and a director of IAC (minimum value of $15 million), and Dara Khosrowshahi, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of IAC, and Julius Genachowski, Executive Vice President and Chief of Business Operations of IAC (each with minimum value of $2.5 million), subject to certain conditions.

Upon consummation of the transaction, the following also occurred:

the Company, Vivendi, Universal, Liberty and Mr. Diller entered into an Amended and Restated Governance Agreement, effective at the closing of the transaction and superseding the previously existing Governance Agreement among the parties. The Amended and Restated Governance Agreement governs the relationship between Vivendi and IAC in respect of Vivendi's (including Universal's) ownership of IAC securities, including Vivendi's right to representation on IAC's board of directors, subject to the maintenance of specified ownership levels.

Vivendi, Universal, Liberty and Mr. Diller entered into an Amended and Restated Stockholders Agreement, effective at the closing of the transactions and superseding the previously existing Stockholders Agreement. Generally, the agreement governs the relationship among the stockholders, including rights of first refusal for sales of IAC securities, tag-along rights for sales of IAC securities by Liberty and Mr. Diller, restrictions on transfers of IAC securities and a standstill by Mr. Diller with respect to Vivendi. Under this agreement, Mr. Diller generally has voting control over all of the IAC shares owned by Vivendi and Liberty.

Summaries of the agreements relating to the Vivendi Transaction are set forth in, and copies of these agreements have been filed with the SEC as Appendices to, the Company's Definitive Proxy Statement, dated March 25, 2002, and are available from the SEC.

On October 8, 2003, Vivendi and General Electric Company ("GE") announced that they had entered into a definitive agreement for the combination of, among other things, the businesses of National Broadcasting Company, Inc. ("NBC"), a subsidiary of GE, and those of Universal, the affiliate of Vivendi that controls VUE. As a result of this transaction (which the parties have stated that they expect to close by June 30, 2004), NBC will control VUE and Universal.

Other Relationships and Transactions with Vivendi and its Affiliates

Vivendi currently holds a substantial equity interest in IAC. Pursuant to the terms of the Amended and Restated Governance Agreement, Vivendi was entitled to designate one member for election to the IAC Board of Directors during 2003. Following the sale by Vivendi to IAC of warrants to acquire shares of IAC Common Stock in June 2003 (see below), Vivendi was no longer entitled, as a result of the reduction in its beneficial ownership interests in IAC, to designate a member for election to the IAC Board of Directors. Accordingly, in June 2003, Mr. Jean-René Fourtou, Vivendi's designee, resigned as a member of the IAC Board of Directors. Other than in his capacity as a stockholder and officer of Vivendi, and as a director of IAC, Mr. Fourtou did not have any direct or indirect interests in the Vivendi-IAC agreements.

As described above, in connection with the Vivendi Transaction, IAC received $1.62 billion in cash, financed by VUE with proceeds of a bridge loan facility. After certain amendments to that facility in 2002, which extended the maturity date (the "Extension Facility"), on March 31, 2003, VUE completed a new financing facility that permits it to issue up to $950 million in notes, which notes are to be secured by certain film rights owned by VUE (the "Film Rights Facility"). In connection with the Film Rights Facility, IAC provided a limited consent to the sale and contribution of certain assets from one VUE subsidiary to another VUE subsidiary, the pledge of certain VUE assets to secure the notes issued under the facility, and the refinancing of a portion of the Extension Facility with the proceeds from the issuance of the notes. In connection with the consent, Vivendi and VUE provided indemnities to IAC.

Also, on March 31, 2003, Vivendi, Universal Studios, Inc. and Mr. Diller entered into a letter agreement amending the Amended and Restated Stockholders Agreement to provide that Mr. Diller's irrevocable proxy over Vivendi's (and Universal's) IAC common shares shall continue until the earlier of the time when Mr. Diller ceases to have any rights under the stockholders agreement and Vivendi and its group (including Universal) cease to beneficially own any IAC Common Stock.

In February 2003, Vivendi sold to Deutsche Bank AG all of its warrants to acquire IAC Common Stock with an exercise price of $27.50 per warrant and 8 million of its warrants to acquire IAC Common Stock with an exercise price of $32.50 per warrant, in each case, for $7.52 per warrant. In connection with such sale, affiliates of Deutsche Bank issued and offered in a private placement floating rate high income premium exchangeable notes due 2012, and IAC entered into an indemnification agreement with an affiliate of Deutsche Bank related thereto. In June 2003, IAC repurchased the remaining 16,187,094 warrants to acquire IAC Common stock with an exercise price of $32.50 and all of the 12,093,547 warrants to acquire IAC Common stock with an exercise price of $37.50 from Vivendi for an aggregate cash purchase price of approximately $407.4 million.

During 2003, one of IAC's businesses purchased approximately $2.7 million in advertising on certain of Universal's pay television channels. In addition, during 2003, certain IAC businesses had arrangements pursuant to which they purchased admission tickets to Universal theme parks and/or studio tours, which purchases totaled approximately $724,000.

Prior to 2003, one of IAC's businesses entered into arrangements with a subsidiary of Vivendi, pursuant to which the IAC business agreed to power the personals services on websites related to certain programming produced by the Vivendi subsidiary, as well as make certain revenue sharing payments in respect of subscribers acquired by the IAC business through such websites. The aggregate amount paid to the Vivendi subsidiary pursuant to these arrangements in 2003 was approximately $80,000.

See also " Relationships with Officers and Directors."

IAC believes that its business agreements with Vivendi are all on terms at least as favorable to IAC as terms that could have been obtained from an independent third party.

In the ordinary course of business, IAC may determine to enter into other agreements with Vivendi, Universal and their respective affiliates.

VUE Distributions

During 2003, IAC received paid-in-kind distributions with respect to the Class A preferred interests in VUE in an aggregate amount of approximately $38.7 million and paid-in-kind distributions and cash dividend payments with respect to the Class B preferred interests in VUE in an aggregate amount of approximately $24.7 million and $63.9 million, respectively.

In connection with the formation of VUE, IAC and various of its affiliates entered into an amended and restated limited liability limited partnership agreement (the "Partnership Agreement"), dated as of May 7, 2002, with various affiliates of Vivendi, as well as with Mr. Diller. The Partnership Agreement provides that VUE "shall, as soon as practicable after the close of each taxable year, make cash distributions to each Partner in an amount equal to the product of (a) the amount of taxable income allocated to such Partner for such taxable year... and (b) the highest aggregate marginal statutory Federal, state, local and foreign income tax rate... applicable to any Partner." The Partnership Agreement also provides that taxable income of VUE is to be allocated to the partners, including IAC and its affiliates, in a specified order, including amounts corresponding to the cash and pay-in-kind distributions on IAC and its affiliates' preferred interests in IAC, which represent a 5% annual return on those interests (the "Preferred Return"). The actual amount of cash distributions with respect to taxable income on the Preferred Return would depend on several factors, including the amount of VUE's earnings and federal, state, and local income tax rates.

Pursuant to these provisions of the Partnership Agreement, in 2003 VUE made cash distributions in respect of actual allocated taxable income attributable to the common interests in VUE for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002 to IAC and Messrs. Diller, Kaufman, Khosrowshahi and Genachowski. Aggregate cash distributions made to IAC and Mr. Diller were approximately $2.0 million and $549,000, respectively, and aggregate cash distributions made to Messrs. Kaufman, Khosrowshahi and Genachowski were, in each case, less than $60,000.

In April 2004, VUE made cash distributions in respect of estimated allocated taxable income attributable to the common interests in VUE for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003 to IAC and Messrs. Diller, Kaufman, Khosrowshahi and Genachowski. Cash distributions made to IAC and Messrs. Diller and Kaufman were approximately $4.6 million, $1.2 million and $70,000, respectively, and cash distributions made to Messrs. Khosrowshahi and Genachowski were, in each case, less than $60,000. To the extent that actual allocated taxable income attributable to the common interests in VUE for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003 differs from estimates, aggregate cash distributions made in respect of common interests in VUE for this period may be greater or lesser than those made in April 2004.

Commencing in October or November 2002, Vivendi advised IAC that it does not believe that VUE is obligated under the Partnership Agreement to make these payments in respect of taxable income allocated to IAC and its affiliates with respect to the Preferred Return. On April 15, 2003, IAC (and an affiliate) filed a lawsuit against Vivendi, a Vivendi affiliate and VUE in the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware to enforce the provisions of the Partnership Agreement requiring cash distributions with respect to taxable income allocated with respect to the Preferred Return. On June 30, 2003, the defendants filed an answer to the complaint and asserted various affirmative defenses, as well as certain counterclaims. The counterclaims request the court to declare that VUE is not obligated under the Partnership Agreement to make cash distributions with respect to taxable income allocated with respect to the Preferred Return, or, in the alternative, to reform the Partnership Agreement on the grounds of mutual, or, in the alternative, unilateral mistake so that it does not require VUE to make such payments. On July 21, 2003, IAC filed a reply denying the material allegations of the defendants' counterclaims, which IAC believes are meritless.

On January 30, 2004, IAC filed a motion for judgment on the pleadings, on the grounds that IAC is entitled to the relief it seeks on the basis of the pleadings in the case. The defendants filed their opposition to this motion on April 6, 2004. IAC's reply in support of its motion was filed on April 27, 2004. The motion for judgment on the pleadings is scheduled for oral argument on May 12, 2004.

VUE Covenant Defeasance

On March 17, 2004, Vivendi filed a complaint against USANi Sub LLC, a subsidiary of the Company, in the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware for a declaratory judgment that certain covenants under the Partnership Agreement in favor of the Company are defeased upon posting of letters of credit in favor of USANi Sub LLC, and for an order that USANi Sub LLC must accept the letters of credit posted by Vivendi. The defeasance of the covenants is a condition to the closing of the sale of Vivendi's interests in VUE to GE and NBC.

On April 21, 2004, Vivendi and the Company announced their agreement on the form of the letters of credit that would be issued in favor of USANi Sub LLC in order to defease such partnership covenants in connection with the closing of the sale of Vivendi's interests in VUE to GE and NBC. By mutual agreement of Vivendi and the Company, Vivendi's lawsuit against the Company, seeking a declaratory judgment regarding the letters of credit offered by VUE, has been stayed until the closing of Vivendi's transaction with GE and NBC and will be dismissed after the letters of credit are issued and accepted at the closing of that transaction.

Relationships between IAC and Liberty

Under the terms of the Amended and Restated Governance Agreement, two designees of Liberty, Messrs. Malone and Bennett, are members of the IAC Board of Directors. Liberty holds a substantial equity interest in IAC, and Liberty is a party to certain agreements executed in connection with the Vivendi Transaction which are filed as exhibits to IAC's publicly filed reports.

During 1996, Home Shopping Network, along with Jupiter Programming Company, formed Shop Channel, a television shopping venture based in Tokyo. Liberty Media International, Inc., a subsidiary of Liberty, owns a 50% interest in Jupiter, the 70% shareholder in the venture. Home Shopping Network owns a 30% interest in Shop Channel. During 1999, Home Shopping Network loaned $2.5 million to Shop Channel, of which $1.7 million was outstanding at December 31, 2003. Home Shopping Network did not sell any inventory nor provide any services to Shop Channel during 2003.

IAC believes that its business agreements with Liberty have been negotiated on an arm's-length basis and contain terms at least as favorable to IAC as those that could be obtained from an unaffiliated third party.

In the ordinary course of business, and otherwise from time to time, IAC may determine to enter into other agreements with Liberty and its affiliates.

Exercise of Preemptive Rights by Liberty

Under the Amended and Restated Governance Agreement, if IAC issues or proposes to issue its Common Stock or Class B Common Stock, Liberty has preemptive rights that generally entitle it to purchase a number of IAC common shares so that Liberty will maintain the identical ownership interest in IAC that Liberty held immediately prior to such issuance or proposed issuance. Pursuant to Liberty's preemptive rights that were triggered in connection with IAC's issuance of shares in connection with the Ticketmaster, Expedia, Hotels.com and uDate.com transactions, and in connection with IAC stock option exercises between May 2, 2003 and June 3, 2003, the Company issued shares of its Common Stock to Liberty. The following table set forth, in the case of each preemptive exercise, the date, the number of shares of Common Stock issued and the total consideration received by IAC.

| Date | Number of shares of IAC Common Stock Issued | Consideration Received by IAC |
|---------------|--|-------------------------------|
| April 7, 2003 | 11,217,934 | $ 220,320,224 |
| May 9, 2003 | 1,835,027 | $ 45,361,867 |
| May 28, 2003 | 33,813,169 | $ 837,992,732 |
| July 7, 2003 | 1,834,921 | $ 62,203,814 |

Relationships with Microsoft

IAC and its businesses have entered into a series of commercial agreements with Microsoft generally relating to their adoption of Microsoft technology, software and functionality, branding and advertising, and the provision of ticketing, city guide and personals content and functionality to the Microsoft Network. IAC believes that these transactions result in terms to IAC and its subsidiaries that are at least as favorable as those that could be obtained from a third party. Total fees paid to Microsoft by the Company with respect to these arrangements in 2003 were approximately $42.1 million. In addition, during 2003, the Company provided approximately $8.2 million in advertising to Microsoft, which advertising was obtained by IAC from Universal Television pursuant to the Vivendi transaction. One of IAC's businesses also purchased approximately $458,000 in advertising on a pay television channel affiliated with Microsoft in 2003. In the ordinary course of business, and otherwise from time to time, IAC and its businesses may determine to enter into other commercial arrangements with Microsoft and its affiliates.

The Company will furnish a requesting securityholder with any exhibit not contained therein upon payment of a reasonable fee.

Limitation of Audit Committee's Role

While the Audit Committee has the responsibilities and powers set forth in this Charter, it is not the duty of the Audit Committee to plan or conduct audits or to determine that the Company's financial statements and disclosures are complete and accurate and are in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and applicable rules and regulations. These are the responsibilities of management and the independent auditor. Additionally, the Audit Committee as well as the Board recognizes that members of the Company's management who are responsible for financial management, as well as the independent auditors, have more time, knowledge, and detailed information on the Company than do Committee members; consequently, in carrying out its oversight responsibilities, the Audit Committee is not providing any expert or special assurances with respect to the Company's financial statements or any professional certifications as to the independent auditor's work.
