

Item 8.01. Other Events

On September 11, 2007, CoStar Group, Inc. (“CoStar”) entered into an enterprise-wide agreement (the “Agreement”) with CB Richard Ellis, Inc. (“CBRE”), the world’s largest commercial real estate services firm. The Agreement has a potential term of 11 years, pursuant to which CoStar has agreed to license its full suite of commercial real estate information services for all of its U.S. markets to all CBRE U.S. personnel. The Agreement is a significant expansion of CoStar’s current agreement with CBRE, as all CBRE personnel, including approximately 800 additional commercial real estate professionals located in CBRE offices and CBRE partner offices throughout the U.S., will now have access to all of CoStar’s U.S. information services, including services and markets for which CBRE personnel previously did not have such access.

The Agreement has a potential value in excess of $100 million in revenue and is the largest financial commitment CoStar has ever received from a single client. The fees payable by CBRE during the term of the Agreement are subject to a limited number of upward or downward adjustments if there are increases or decreases in the number of CBRE professionals that will have access to CoStar’s services. Fees may also change in the 6th and 9th years based on the Consumer Price Index. The $100 million potential value amount assumes a relatively constant number of CBRE professionals will have access to CoStar’s services during an 11-year term and that there will be relatively consistent annual Consumer Price Index increases throughout the term. The agreement potentially covers 11 years; CBRE has one cancellation option after the fifth year and one cancellation option after the eighth year, each upon written notice.

CoStar and CBRE have agreed to mutual non-competition covenants that run through the term of the Agreement and continue for two years beyond the date of termination or nonrenewal of the Agreement.

In the U.K., CBRE will continue to access all of CoStar's information services available in the U.K. under separate license agreements.

The Agreement replaces separate agreements between CoStar and each of CBRE and Trammell Crow Co., which CBRE acquired in December 2006. The transaction is not expected to significantly affect CoStar’s 2007 revenue or earnings. Financial terms include fee step-ups beginning in January 2008. Revenue received from CBRE does not currently account for more than 5% of CoStar's revenue, and CoStar does not anticipate that the revenue under the Agreement will account for more than 5% of its revenue.
