Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure

On November 5, 2010 the Company issued a press release that it has successfully updated and amended a significant exploration land package in south-western Mississippi, east of the Mississippi River.

The land package is in excess of 130,000 acres in five major blocks, and has been previously disclosed. However, due to the significant discovery and current development of the Belmont Lake oil field, Lexaria decided it was prudent to focus its future efforts on those same geological horizons in which it is currently enjoying success.
