Item 8.01 Other Events.

On April 11, 2007, North American Galvanizing Company (the “Company”), the wholly-owned subsidiary of North American Galvanizing & Coatings, Inc., entered into a settlement agreement (the “Closing Agreement”) with Harris County Industrial Development Corporation and the Commissioner of the Internal Revenue Service (“IRS”) relating to an IRS examination of the Harris County Industrial Development Corporation Adjustable Rate Industrial Development Revenue Bonds (North American Galvanizing Company Project), Series 2000, dated and issued on March 14, 2000, in the original principal amount of $9,050,000 (the “Bonds”), of which $5,640,000 is currently outstanding. The Closing Agreement was entered into in settlement of certain issues raised by the IRS regarding compliance with the requirements of Section 103 of the Internal Revenue Code (the “Code”). The IRS has not formally asserted any claims against the Harris County Industrial Development Corporation, or sought to tax any holders of the Bonds on interest earned on the Bonds, and the Closing Agreement was entered into for the benefit of the past, present and future registered and beneficial owners of the Bonds. The bondholders will not be required to include in their gross income any interest on the Bonds.

Pursuant to the terms of the Closing Agreement, the Company agreed to make a payment to the IRS in settlement of the issues referenced above, on behalf of Harris County Industrial Development Corporation, upon the execution of the Closing Agreement. Furthermore, all outstanding Bonds will be redeemed on or before June 30, 2007. The Company currently has sufficient borrowing capacity to redeem the Bonds.
