Item 5.04 Temporary Suspension of Trading Under Registrant's Employee Benefit Plans.

On November 20, 2006, Aerosonic Corporation (the Company) sent a notice to its executive officers and directors (the Notice) informing them they would be prohibited from purchasing, selling or otherwise acquiring or transferring any shares of the Company's Common Stock, $.40 par value per share, or exercising any stock options during a blackout period (the Blackout Period) relating to the temporary suspension of transactions in the Company's 401(k) Plan (the Plan). Attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated by reference herein is a copy of the Notice.

The reason for the Blackout Period is to facilitate the transition of a change in the Plan's administrator from Putnam Investments to Wachovia Retirement Services. During the Blackout Period, participants in the Plan will be unable to direct or diversify the assets held in their Plan accounts, make fund transfers, change investment elections or obtain distributions from the Plan.

The Notice indicates that the Blackout Period will begin on Friday, December 22, 2006 at 1:00 p.m. EST and ending sometime during the week of January 28, 2007. The Company provided the Notice to its directors and executive officers in accordance with Section 306(a) of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002. Inquiries concerning the Blackout Period should be directed to Gary E. Colbert, the Company's Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, by telephone at (727) 461-3000 or via the internet at gcolbert@aerosonic.com.

Description

99.1 Notice to Executive Officers and Directors of Aerosonic Corporation dated November 20, 2006

Exhibit 99.1

Notice of Blackout Period to Directors and Executive Officers of Aerosonic Corporation

November 20, 2006

You are receiving this notice to advise you that a blackout period is scheduled to occur under the Aerosonic Corporation 401(k) Plan (the Plan) for the period beginning Friday, December 22, 2006 at 1:00 p.m. EST and ending sometime during the week of January 28, 2007 (the Blackout Period).

The occurrence of the Blackout Period is in conjunction with a change in the Plan's administrator from Putnam Investments to Wachovia Retirement Services. During the Blackout Period, participants in the Plan will be unable to direct or diversify the assets held in their Plan accounts, make fund transfers, change investment elections or obtain distributions from the Plan.

Pursuant to Section 306(a) of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, as a director or executive officer of the Company, you are generally prohibited during the Blackout Period from purchasing, selling, or otherwise acquiring or transferring any shares of the Company's common stock, $.40 par value per share (Common Stock), or exercise any stock options (Options) if you acquire or previously acquired such Common Stock or Options in connection with your service or employment as a director or executive officer of the Company. Note that various transactions are exempt from these trading restrictions. In addition, there are special rules for determining which Common Stock or Options are treated as having been acquired in connection with service or employment as a director or executive officer. In the event you have any questions regarding the Blackout Period or the restrictions applicable to directors or executive officers of the Company, you should contact:

Gary E. Colbert

Executive Vice President

Chief Financial Officer
