Item 2. Acquisition or Disposition of Assets.

On March 28, 2003, the registrant and its affiliated subsidiaries completed the acquisition of the worldwide Schick Wilkinson-Sword business (the "SWS Business") of Pfizer, Inc. The SWS Business is engaged in the business of researching, developing, manufacturing, marketing, distributing and selling men's and women's shaving products and systems, as well as manicure, toiletry and sword products. The assets acquired included the capital stock of approximately 10 Pfizer subsidiaries engaged in the SWS Business, as well as manufacturing and other operating assets of the SWS Business in approximately 30 other countries worldwide, for an aggregate purchase price of Nine Hundred and Thirty Million Dollars ($930,000,000), subject to adjustment to reflect working capital of the SWS Business as of closing. Following the acquisition, registrant intends to continue the operation of the SWS Business. Registrant obtained the funds for the acquisition through a combination of borrowings or receipts under (i) a 364-Day Bridge Term Loan Credit Agreement, (ii) a 5-Year

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

The Board of Directors Pfizer Inc:

We have audited the accompanying combined balance sheets of Schick (a business unit of Pfizer Inc) as of December 31, 2002 and 2001, and the related combined statements of income, business unit equity, and cash flows for each of the years in the three-year period ended December 31, 2002. These combined financial statements are the responsibility of Pfizer Inc.'s management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these combined financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Schick (a business unit of Pfizer Inc) as of December 31, 2002 and 2001, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the years in the three-year period ended December 31, 2002 in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

As discussed in Note 2 to the combined financial statements, effective January 1, 2002, Schick (a business unit of Pfizer Inc) adopted the provisions of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) 142, Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets.
