United Security Bancshares

Proxy Statement

Annual Meeting of Shareholders

May 19, 2004

Introduction

This proxy statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies for use at the 2004 annual meeting of shareholders of United Security Bancshares to be held on Wednesday, May 19, 2004 at 7:00 p.m. at the head office of United Security Bank located at 2151 West Shaw Avenue, Fresno, California, and at any and all adjournments thereof.

It is anticipated that this proxy statement and the accompanying notice and form of proxy will be mailed on or about April 20, 2004 to shareholders eligible to receive notice of, and to vote at, the meeting.

Revocability of Proxies

A form of proxy for voting your shares at the meeting is enclosed. Any shareholder who executes and delivers such proxy has the right to and may revoke it at any time before it is exercised by filing with the secretary of United Security Bancshares an instrument revoking it or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date. In addition, the powers of the proxyholders will be suspended if the person executing the proxy is present at the meeting and elects to vote in person by advising the chairman of the meeting of his or her election to vote in person, and voting in person at the meeting. Subject to such revocation or suspension, all shares represented by a properly executed proxy received in time for the meeting will be voted by the proxyholders in accordance with the instructions specified on the proxy. Unless otherwise directed in the accompanying proxy, the shares represented by your executed proxy will be voted FOR the nominees for election of directors named herein. If any other business is properly presented at the meeting, the proxy will be voted in accordance with the recommendations of United Security Bancshares management.

Persons Making the Solicitation

This solicitation of proxies is being made by the board of directors of United Security Bancshares. The expense of preparing, assembling, printing and mailing this proxy statement and the materials used in the solicitation of proxies for the meeting will be borne by United Security Bancshares. It is contemplated that proxies will be solicited principally through the use of the mail, but directors, officers and employees of United Security Bancshares may solicit proxies personally or by telephone, without receiving special compensation.

Voting Securities

There were issued and outstanding 5,523,713 shares of United Security Bancshares common stock on March 26, 2004, which has been fixed as the record date for the purpose of determining shareholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the meeting. On any matter submitted to the vote of the shareholders, each holder of United Security Bancshares common stock will be entitled to one vote, in person or by proxy, for each share of common stock he or she held of record on the books of United Security Bancshares as of the record date. In connection with the election of directors, shares may be voted cumulatively if a shareholder present at the meeting gives notice at the meeting, prior to the voting for election of directors, of his or her intention to vote cumulatively. If any shareholder of United Security Bancshares gives such notice, then all shareholders eligible to vote will be entitled to cumulate their shares in voting for election of directors. Cumulative voting allows a shareholder to cast a number of votes equal to the number of shares held in his or her name as of the record date, multiplied by the number of directors to be elected. These votes may be cast for any one nominee, or may be distributed among as many nominees as the shareholder sees fit. If cumulative voting is declared at the meeting, votes represented by proxies delivered pursuant to this proxy statement may be cumulated in the discretion of the proxyholders, in accordance with management's recommendation. The effect of broker nonvotes is that such votes are not counted as being voted; however such votes are counted for purposes of determining a quorum. The effect of a vote of abstention on any matter is that such vote is not counted as a vote for or against the matter, but is counted as an abstention.

Shareholdings of Certain Beneficial Owners and Management

Management of United Security Bancshares knows of no person who owns, beneficially or of record, either individually or together with associates, five percent (5%) or more of the outstanding shares of United Security Bancshares common stock, except as set forth in the table below. The following table sets forth, as of March 19, 2004, the number and percentage of shares of United Security Bancshares outstanding common stock beneficially owned, directly or indirectly, by each of United Security Bancshares directors, named executive officers and principal shareholders and by the directors and executive officers of United Security Bancshares as a group. The shares beneficially owned are determined under Securities and Exchange Commission Rules, and do not necessarily indicate ownership for any other purpose. In general, beneficial ownership includes shares over which the director, named executive officer or principal shareholder has sole or shared voting or investment power and shares which such person has the right to acquire within 60 days of March 19, 2004. Unless otherwise indicated, the persons listed below have sole voting and investment powers of the shares beneficially owned. Management is not aware of any arrangements which may, at a subsequent date, result in a change of control of United Security Bancshares.

The Reporting Persons are required by Securities and Exchange Commission regulation to furnish United Security Bancshares with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file.

Based solely on its review of the copies of such forms received by it, or written representations from the Reporting Persons that no Forms 5 were required for those persons, United Security Bancshares believes that, during 2003 the Reporting Persons complied with all filing requirements applicable to them.

The Board of Directors and Committees

United Security Bancshares' board of directors met twelve (12) times in 2003. None of United Security Bancshares' directors attended less than 75 percent of all board of directors' meetings and committee meetings of which they were a member. United Security Bancshares has a standing Audit Committee and the independent directors meeting in executive session handle director nominations and chief executive officer and executive officer compensation.

Consideration of Director Nominees

Shareholder nominees

United Security Bancshares' independent directors meeting in executive session will consider nominees to the Board proposed by shareholders, although the Board has no formal policy with regard to shareholder nominees as they consider all nominees on their merits as discussed below. Any shareholder nominations proposed for consideration by the independent directors should include the nominee's name and qualifications for Board membership and should be addressed to:

Corporate Secretary

United Security Bancshares

1525 East Shaw Avenue

Fresno, California 93710

In addition, the bylaws of United Security Bancshares permit stockholders to nominate directors for consideration at an annual shareholder meeting. For a description of the process for nominating directors in accordance with the bylaws, please see the notice to this proxy statement.

Selection and Evaluation of Director Candidates

The independent directors are responsible for identifying candidates for membership on the Board and makes determinations as to whether to recommend such candidates nomination to the Board based on their character, judgment, and business experience, as well as their ability to add to the Board's existing strengths. This assessment typically includes issues of expertise in industries important to United Security Bancshares, functional expertise in areas such as marketing, human resources, operations, finance and information technology and an assessment of an individual's abilities to work constructively with the existing Board and management, all in the context of an assessment of the perceived needs of the Board at that point in time. The independent directors do not have any written specific minimum qualifications or skills that they believe must be met by either their candidates or a shareholder-recommended candidate in order to serve on the Board. The independent directors identify nominees by first evaluating the current members of the Board of Directors qualified and willing to continue in service. Current members of the Board with skills and experience that are relevant to United Security Bancshares' business and who are willing to continue in service are considered for renomination, balancing the value of continuity of service by existing members of the Board with that of obtaining a new perspective. If any member of the Board does not wish to continue in service or if the independent directors or the Board decided not to nominate a member for reelection, the independent directors identify the desired skills and experience of a new nominee in light of the following criteria. When identifying and evaluating new directors, the independent directors consider the diversity and mix of the existing board of directors, including, but not limited to, such factors as: the age of the current directors, their geographic location (being a community bank, there is a strong preference for local directors), minority and female representation on the Board of Directors, employment experience, community representation, public interest considerations and the implementation of United Security Bancshares' strategic plan. Among other things, when examining a specific candidate's qualifications, the independent directors consider: the ability to represent the best interest of United Security Bancshares, existing relationships with United Security Bancshares, interest in the affairs of United Security Bancshares and its purpose, the ability to fulfill director responsibilities, leadership skill, reputation within United Security Bancshares' community, community service, integrity, business judgment, ability to develop business for United Security Bancshares and the ability to work as a member of a team. All nominees to be considered at the Meeting were recommended by the independent directors in executive session.

In November, 2003, Todd Henry replaced Bobbi Thomason as both a director and a member of the Audit Committee. Director Henry is deemed by United Security Bancshares to be an audit committee financial expert. Director Henry has an understanding of generally accepted auditing principles (GAAP) and has the ability and experience to prepare, audit, evaluate and analyze financial statements which present the breadth and level of complexity of issues that United Security Bancshares reasonably expects to be raised by United Security Bancshares' financial statements. Director Henry is a Certified Public Accountant.

Policy on Audit Committee Pre-Approval of Audit

and Non-Audit Services of Independent Auditor

The Audit Committee's policy is to preapprove all audit and nonaudit services provided by the independent auditors. These services may include audit services, audit-related services, tax services and other services. Preapproval is generally provided for up to one year and any preapproval is detailed as to particular service or category of services and is generally subject to a specific budget. The Audit Committee has delegated preapproval authority to its Chairman when expedition of services is necessary. The independent auditors and management are required to periodically report to the full Audit Committee regarding the extent of services provided by the independent auditors in accordance with this preapproval, and the fees for the services performed to date. The tax fees and other fees paid in 2003 and 2002 were approved per the Audit Committee's preapproval policies.

The Audit Committee meets annually to discuss and review the overall audit plan. The Board has adopted a written charter for the Audit Committee which is attached as Exhibit A to this proxy statement.

Audit Committee Report

This report of the Audit Committee shall not be deemed incorporated by reference by any general statement incorporating by reference this proxy statement into any filing under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, except to the extent that United Security Bancshares specifically incorporates this information by reference, and shall not otherwise be deemed filed under the Acts.

The Audit Committee has reviewed United Security Bancshares' audited financial statements and discussed such statements with management. The Audit Committee has discussed with Moss Adams LLP, United Security Bancshares' independent auditors during the year 2003, the matters required to be discussed by Statement of Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communication with Audit and Finance Committees, as amended).

The Audit Committee received written disclosures and a letter from Moss Adams LLP, required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 and has discussed with them their independence from management. The Audit Committee has also considered whether the independent auditors' provision of other nonaudit services is compatible with the auditors' independence.

Based on the review and discussions noted above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board that United Security Bancshares' audited financial statements be included in United Security Bancshares' Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2003, for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The Audit Committee has also confirmed that there have been no new circumstances or developments since their respective appointments to the Audit Committee that would impair any member's ability to act independently.

Report of Independent Directors on Executive Compensation

Compensation Policies

The independent directors establish the overall executive compensation guidelines of United Security Bancshares and establish the compensation plans and specific compensation levels of the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) and other executive officers. The independent directors review their approach to executive compensation annually.

The independent directors believe that executive officer compensation should be closely aligned with the performance of United Security Bancshares on a short-term and long-term basis, and that such compensation should be structured to assist United Security Bancshares in attracting and retaining key executives critical to its long-term success. To that end, the independent directors' policy for compensation packages of executive officers consists of three components: (i) an annual base salary; (ii) the potential to earn incentive bonuses dependent on United

Edgar Filing: UNITED SECURITY BANCSHARES - Form DEF 14A

Security Bancshares performance, and (iii) stock option awards and salary continuation plans designed to link shareholder interests with those of executive management by providing long-term incentives to executive officers of United Security Bancshares. The performance based aspects, items (ii) and (iii) above, are considered major elements of the overall compensation program.

Executive Officer Compensation

Base Salary: Effective January 1, 1997, a personnel committee of United Security Bank established a fixed-based salary program whereby the executive officers base salaries were frozen. Future compensation increases were to be achieved through the performance-based aspects of compensation. In establishing fixed base salaries, that personnel committee considered salaries of comparably sized California banks, as well as local area banks. The information was compiled from a variety of sources including the California Banker's Association, proxy materials, and other independent sources. However, executive officers may have their salaries adjusted from time to time as the size, complexity, and earnings of United Security Bancshares change, in order to ensure that total compensation remains competitive. The fixed based salary program was reviewed during 2000, and the base salaries were increased for the CEO and the other three executive officers as a result of the significant asset and earnings growth achieved since the plan was first enacted in 1997. The fixed based salary program was again reviewed by the independent directors in January, 2004, and the base salaries were increased for the four other executive officers.

Annual Incentives: The independent directors believe that incentives for officers are a key component for ensuring continued growth in shareholder value through increased earnings. Accordingly, executive officers earn bonuses based upon a percentage of United Security Bancshares' net income each year.

All executive officers are entitled to participate in United Security Bank's ESOP and 401(k) programs but are subject to more stringent matching bank contributions than other employees of United Security Bank, as required by regulation.

Long-term Incentives: Long-term incentives are provided through the grant of stock options to certain employees of United Security Bank including executive officers. Incentive stock options are granted at the market value prevailing on the date of grant and are intended to retain and motivate key management to improve United Security Bancshares long-term shareholder value, as the options only have value if the market price of the underlying stock appreciates after the date granted. At December 31, 2003, total stock options that have been granted to key management and remain outstanding totaled 113,000 shares, including 90,000 to executive officers other than the CEO (4 total), and 23,000 to other senior management (6 total).

A component of United Security Bank's 401(k)/ESOP recognizes and rewards employee's contributions to its successful operation by enabling those employees to acquire a proprietary interest in United Security Bancshares' common stock. All employees of United Security Bank are eligible to participate in the 401(k) Plan upon the first day of the month after date of hire. Participants are automatically vested 100% in all employee contributions which they may invest in any of several authorized investment vehicles, including United Security Bancshares' stock. United Security Bank contributes funds to match the employee's 401(k) Plan contribution up to 5% of the employee's eligible annual compensation. These contributions are invested in United Security Bancshares' stock and are subject to certain vesting requirements over a period of six years. Under the ESOP portion of the plan, United Security Bancshares annually contributes shares of common stock for each eligible employee's account in an amount proportionate to the employee's compensation. United Security Bancshares' contribution is at the discretion of the board of directors and has been 8% of employee compensation for all but one year since its inception in 1994 through 2003. Employees thereby have a vested interest in contributing on an ongoing basis to the profitability of United Security Bancshares, and with a vesting period of six years, they have the additional incentive to remain with United Security Bank on a long-term basis.

United Security Bank has established a nonqualified salary continuation plan for five of United Security Bank's key employees, including the president and executive officers, which provides additional compensation benefits upon retirement for a period of 15 years. Future compensation under the plan is earned by the employees for services rendered through retirement and vests over a period of 12 years. In connection with the implementation of the salary continuation plans, United Security Bank purchased single premium universal life insurance policies on the life of each of the key employees covered under the plan. United Security Bank is the owner and beneficiary of these insurance policies.

Chief Executive Officer Compensation

Since Mr. Woods became the CEO in 1993, United Security Bank's performance and competitive position have improved significantly. United Security Bank's earnings have increased more than 500% since that time, and dividends have increased every year; a total of 290% over the period. Total assets have increased more than 480% during that same period. Some of this growth has come from mergers and acquisitions, which in turn have strengthened United Security Bancshares' strategic position and competitive growth outlook for the future.

Base Salary: Mr. Woods is subject to the same fixed salary program as other executive officers. During 2000, the personnel committee targeted Mr. Woods' base salary at the competitive median for comparable sized California banks demonstrating comparable net earnings as taken from a variety of reliable sources. Mr. Woods' base salary of $239,000 is currently believed reasonable by the independent directors based upon reference to competitive pay practices and the previously described compensation approach to executive officers. The independent directors believe that the performance based compensation program, as it relates to the CEO, offers substantial additional compensation incentives to reward Mr. Woods for successful results.

Performance Based Compensation: Mr. Woods is eligible to participate in the same short-term and long-term incentive plans as the other executive officers of United Security Bancshares. In addition, the terms of the bonus plan for the CEO are different than the other executive officers.

Mr. Woods' entire performance based compensation is tied directly to net income of United Security Bancshares. Pursuant to the provisions of the performance based compensation plan for the CEO, Mr. Woods was awarded a cash bonus totaling $299,027 as a result of United Security Bancshares' performance during 2003.

As noted, United Security Bancshares' executive compensation policy is based primarily on performance.
