RESPONSE TO PART III

The Registrant is unable to file the Registrant's Report on Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended June 30, 2004 (the Form 10-Q) by the prescribed due date without unreasonable effort or expense due to unforeseen circumstances, described in more detail below, that the Registrant encountered in connection with the preparation of its unaudited consolidated financial statements. The Registrant seeks relief pursuant to Rule 12b-25(b) with respect to the Form 10-Q.

Specifically, in connection with the second quarter closing and review process, the Registrant identified a single equipment sale transaction in a single geographical sales market in the amount of approximately $1.9 million that was initially included as revenue in the Registrant's draft financial statements for the second quarter, but that the Registrant subsequently determined did not qualify as recognizable revenue. As a result, the Registrant did not include such revenue in its release of second quarter results.

Upon identification of this matter, the Registrant's audit committee commenced a full review and analysis of the facts and circumstances surrounding the transaction. The audit committee had not finished its review and analysis by the filing deadline for the Form 10-Q. In light of the foregoing, the Registrant has not finalized its unaudited financial statements for the quarter ended June 30, 2004.
