Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On July 31, 2008, Liquidity Services, Inc. (the Company), was awarded the Surplus Usable Property Sales Contract (Sales Contract Number 08-0001-0001) (the New Surplus Contract) by the Defense Reutilization and Marketing Service (the DRMS) of the U.S. Department of Defense (the DoD). A copy of the New Surplus Contract is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and is incorporated herein by reference. A press release, issued on August 4, 2008, announcing the award of the New Surplus Contract by the DRMS to LSI is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.

The New Surplus Contract requires that LSI acquire all usable surplus property offered to it by the DRMS under the New Surplus Contract at a fixed percentage of approximately 3.26% of the DRMS original acquisition value. LSI will retain 100% of the profit from the resale of the property and bear all of its costs for the merchandising and sale of the property. The DRMS has broad discretion to determine what property will be made available for sale to LSI under the New Surplus Contract and may retrieve or restrict property previously sold to LSI under the New Surplus Contract for national security reasons or if the property is otherwise needed to support the mission of the DoD. The New Surplus Contract has a 36 month term (with two 12 month renewal options exercisable by the DRMS) and contains a provision allowing either the Company or the DRMS to terminate the contract for convenience. The New Surplus Contract is effective as of July 31, 2008; LSI expects to commence operations under the New Surplus Contract during the first half of its fiscal year 2009.

LSI and the DRMS are also parties to a contract under which LSI has the exclusive right to manage and sell substantially all DoD scrap property (the Scrap Contract). As described in LSI's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2007, LSI depends on its contracts with the DRMS for a significant portion of its revenue.

Item 9.01. Financial Statements and Exhibits.
