Statement of Moody's Investors Service Pty. Ltd

On February 18, 2009 Moody's Investors Service Pty. Ltd (Moody's) released a statement stating that it will consider the potential impact of Australia's economic outlook on Australian banks' asset quality and earnings and how this may affect Australian banks' financial strength ratings. At the same time, Moody's noted some significant, offsetting positive developments that will be considered, including increased capital levels, lengthened funding profiles and improved franchise positions. Moody's expects to provide a more detailed update by early March. Any change in the credit ratings of Westpac or its debt securities as a result of this review could adversely affect the market price and liquidity of Westpac's debt securities.
