Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On January 5, 2015, Washington Prime Group Inc. (the Company) entered into a transition and consulting agreement (the Minton Agreement) with Myles H. Minton. Mr. Minton had previously received notice of the Company's decision to terminate his employment as its Chief Operating Officer effective as of a date to be determined, as disclosed on a Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) on October 27, 2014.

The Minton Agreement is effective as of December 1, 2014, and modifies the employment agreement by and among the Company and Mr. Minton, dated as of June 3, 2014 (the Employment Agreement) (entry into the Employment Agreement was previously disclosed on a Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the SEC on June 5, 2014) to provide that (i) Mr. Minton's employment as the Company's Chief Operating Officer terminated as of December 1, 2014, and (ii) Mr. Minton's employment as an untitled employee of the Company will terminate effective as of the earlier of (x) the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Agreement and Plan of Merger dated as of September 16, 2014 by and among the Company, Washington Prime Group, L.P. (the Partnership), WPG Subsidiary Holdings I, LLC, WPG Subsidiary Holdings II Inc., Glimcher Realty Trust, and Glimcher Properties Limited Partnership (the Closing), and (y) January 15, 2015 (the earlier of such dates, the Termination Date). The Minton Agreement further provides that, as of the Termination Date and for six months thereafter, Mr. Minton will make himself reasonably available to provide consulting and advisory services to the Company for up to eight hours per week (the Consulting Period).

The Minton Agreement provides that, prior to the Termination Date, Mr. Minton will continue to receive an annual base salary at a rate of $415,000, reimbursement for reasonable business expenses, and will continue to remain eligible to participate in Company welfare and fringe benefit plans; however, Mr. Minton will not be entitled to participate in long-term cash or equity incentive plans.

Upon Mr. Minton's termination of employment, which will be deemed to be a termination other than for cause under the Employment Agreement, Mr. Minton will become entitled to a lump sum cash severance payment of $415,000 under the Employment Agreement and to accelerated vesting of 20,000 Inducement LTIP Units under the Series 2014B LTIP Unit Award Agreement among Mr. Minton, the Partnership, and the Company dated as of August 25, 2014 (the Award Agreement) (entry into the Award Agreement was previously disclosed on a Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the SEC on August 28, 2014), in each case, subject to his execution of a release of claims. The Minton Agreement also provides for the following upon Mr. Minton's termination of employment: (x) accrued but unpaid base salary through the Termination Date, (y) a cash payment equal to 25.5 days of base salary, and (z) Mr. Minton's earned annual bonus in respect of fiscal year 2014, which the Company has determined to be $415,000. In addition, as of Mr. Minton's termination of employment, the Company will waive the non-competition covenant contained in the Award Agreement.

Under the Minton Agreement, Mr. Minton will receive a cash payment in respect of his services during the Consulting Period equal to the value of 10,000 shares of Company common stock measured based on the closing price of Company common stock on the trading day immediately preceding the Closing, payable in lump sum within five business days following the beginning of the Consulting Period (the Consulting Fee). In the event that the Consulting Period is terminated by the Company for cause (as defined in the Minton Agreement) or due to Mr. Minton's resignation for any reason, Mr. Minton will be required to repay a prorated portion of the Consulting Fee based on the number of days remaining in the Consulting Period as of the date of such termination.

The Minton Agreement provides that Mr. Minton is subject to perpetual confidentiality and cooperation covenants, and a non-solicitation covenant with respect to employees, customers, suppliers, licensees or other business relations of the Company that runs for one year following the Termination Date.
