Item 4. Description of Securities.

The Time Warner Supplemental Savings Plan (the “Plan”) is intended to constitute a non-qualified deferred compensation plan that, in accordance with Sections 201(2), 301(a)(3) and 401(a)(1) of the Employee Retirement Income Act of 1974, as amended, is unfunded and established primarily for the purpose of providing deferred compensation for employees of Time Warner Inc. (the "Company") who earn compensation in excess of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), Section

401(a)(17) limits on compensation eligible for deferral under a qualified retirement plan, as adjusted (the “Compensation Limits”). The Plan became effective on January 1, 2011. In accordance with the terms of the Plan, eligible participants (“Participants”) may elect to defer a portion of their compensation in excess of the Compensation Limits for a plan year (generally January 1 through December 31 of any year). Participants will be eligible to receive an allocation of Company matching deferrals if they elect under the Plan to defer a portion of their compensation that is in excess of the Compensation Limits and less than $500,000. Participants are 100% vested in their elective deferral and will become 100% vested in Company matching deferrals, if any, after completing periods of service of at least two years; provided that any Company matching deferrals shall immediately vest upon death, disability, the attainment of age 65, or upon a change in control, in each case, while employed by the Company.

Participants will allocate their elective deferrals and Company matching deferrals, if any, among various hypothetical targeted investment options. The Plan’s investment committee or the Company’s Board of Directors may add to, decrease or change the hypothetical targeted investment options offered under the Plan, at any time and for any reason.

An account will be established for each Participant. The value of a Participant’s account will be based on the amounts deferred by the Participant, Company matching deferrals, if any, and the performance of the hypothetical targeted investment options selected by the Participant. Each participant assumes the risk in connection with any decrease in value of such Participant’s account deemed invested in the hypothetical targeted investment options selected by the Participant.

The obligations of the Company under the Plan (the “Deferred Compensation Obligations”) will generally be payable six months after the month of the Participant’s separation from service and, in accordance with such Participant’s advance notice election, will be made in either a single lump sum distribution or in 120 monthly installments. Distributions of Deferred Compensation Obligations will be made upon death, the occurrence of an unforeseeable emergency or legal incapacity.

The Deferred Compensation Obligations are general unsecured obligations of the Company to pay deferred compensation in the future from the general assets of the Company in accordance with the terms of the Plan. All payments made under the Plan shall be made directly by the Company from its general assets subject to the claims of any creditors and no deferred compensation under the Plan shall be segregated or earmarked or held in trust. Participants shall be unsecured creditors of the Company with respect to all Deferred Compensation Obligations owed to them under the Plan.

The right to receive payment of the Deferred Compensation Obligations under the Plan may not be assigned, sold, transferred, pledged or encumbered, except to such extent as may be required by law.

The Company may amend the Plan at any time. In addition, the Company may terminate or suspend the Plan to the extent permitted without adverse tax consequences under Treas. Reg. § 1.409A-3(j)(4)(ix) and such other applicable guidance under Section 409A of the Code; provided that no termination or amendment of the Plan shall deprive a Participant of the right to receipt of amounts credited to the Participant’s account, in accordance with the terms of the Plan.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.

Brenda C. Karickhoff, who is providing an opinion on the legality of the Deferred Compensation Obligations being registered hereby, is Senior Vice President and Deputy General Counsel of the Registrant. As an employee of the Registrant, Ms. Karickhoff participates in equity compensation plans of the Registrant on the same basis as other similarly eligible employees, pursuant to which she owns or has options or rights to acquire an aggregate of less than

1% of the Registrant's outstanding common stock. Ms. Karickhoff is eligible to participate in the Plan.
