Item 4. Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountants.

On March 19, 2002, Schwartz Levitsky Feldman LLP ("SLF"), the independent certified public accountants for BankEngine Technologies, Inc. (the "Company"), was dismissed. During the year ended August 31, 2001 the reports by SLF on the financial statements of the Company did not contain an adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion, or one that was qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles. During the year ended August 31, 2000 the reports by Pender Newkirk & Company, CPAs ("PNC") on the financial statements of the Company contained a going concern opinion. During the Company's two most recent fiscal years and subsequent period up to March 19, 2002, there were no disagreements with the former accountant(s) on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements if not resolved to their satisfaction would have caused them to make reference in connection with their opinion to the subject matter of the disagreement.

On March 26, 2002, subsequent to approval of its Board of Directors, the Company engaged Kaufman Rossin & Co. to serve as the Company's independent certified public accountants. During the Company's two most recent fiscal years, and during any subsequent period through March 19, 2002, the Company did not consult with either PNC or SLF on any accounting or auditing issues.
