VALUEACT CAPITAL

October 13, 2004

Mr. Fred Zeidman
Chairman, Interim President and CEO
Seitel, Inc.
10811 S. Westview Circle
Bldg. C, Ste. 100
Houston, TX 77043

Dear Fred:

This letter is a follow-up to the previous conversations that we at ValueAct Capital have had with you and other representatives of the Seitel (the

Edgar Filing: SEITEL INC - Form SC 13D/A

"company") Board of Directors. To begin, we would like to again acknowledge your work as Chairman of the Board in helping navigate Seitel, through a circuitous path, to its present position as a standalone public company. We do feel that the company today is largely separated from its controversial history. Non-core oil production assets have been divested, cash flows have been redirected to debt reduction, and some important first steps have been made to institute internal controls. These actions have been important in refocusing the business on the single core activity of building seismic data libraries. Our belief in Seitel's positive direction has been supported by our actions, as ValueAct Capital now owns more than 12% of the company.

However, we must admit to having been disappointed to learn in the press release dated October 5, 2004 that Randall Stilley, the company's Chief Executive Officer, had resigned to accept another position in the oil service industry. We strongly believe that after his many months of employment, the company's inability to deliver a concrete incentive option award provided Stilley with no guarantee of participating in the rewards of any successes under his tenure. It appears to us that he had little choice but to look out for his own interests and consider other alternatives.

While we recognize that option grants at Seitel might be more complex in their design given the nature of the bankruptcy and restructuring, we are nevertheless disappointed that this was not addressed in a more aggressive and effective manner. A more timely undertaking of installing management incentives at the company might have enable it to have retained Mr. Stilley.

Under Mr. Stilley's brief tenure, it appears to us that the company's culture had begun to demonstrate the initial signs of critical positive change. We understand that procedures have been adopted to evaluate capital investment more critically, and that the historical mismatch of cash and GAAP incentive award issues has been addressed. We are hopeful that the continuity of these positive changes can be continued by the company's Chief Financial Officer. However, a job of this magnitude cannot be successfully accomplished for long by a single individual. Thus, the most important immediate decision facing this board is the recruitment of a new Chief Executive Officer.

The importance of this decision is further magnified by the company's significantly leveraged capital structure. The company's balance sheet offers little margin for error if the company is to successfully execute on its business plan. Strong leadership is particularly important for Seitel at this moment in time.

As we have discussed, the principals of ValueAct Capital have extensive, direct experience as positive, productive and creative members of public company boards. In particular, we have direct experience in overseeing CEO searches with successful outcomes. Additionally, we are also experienced in developing incentive equity programs for senior management teams.

Based on our experiences, the present highly leveraged capital structure at the company, the current void of permanent senior leadership, and the positive dynamics of having a significant shareholder working alongside the existing board members, we respectfully request that the Board of Seitel consider the following:

- The company immediately names me to fill the vacant seat on the Board made available by Mr. Stilley's resignation.

Edgar Filing: SEITEL INC - Form SC 13D/A

- The Board immediately name Mr. Jay Golding, a successful Houston entrepreneur, as an Advisory Director to the Board; and that Mr. Golding be added to the Board by way of an expansion of the Board at the soonest practical time.

- The Board create an Executive Committee, and that a representative of the current Seitel Board, Mr. Golding and I be appointed to serve on that committee. Among other duties, this committee would immediately begin a search process for the company's new Chief Executive Officer. We also ask that the Executive Committee meet weekly in order to review and approve selected capital programs at the company, until a new CEO has been identified and retained.

At ValueAct Capital, we have worked hard to develop a successful track record and positive reputation for sound decision making in our other investments where we have joined boards. Our request above is not made lightly, but rather has been carefully considered with the sole objective of preserving and enhancing the value of Seitel for all shareholders. Our intention is to do all that we can to continue to develop Seitel's sustainable profits and free cash flows. We also believe that this proposal will be supported by many of the company's other large investors.

Finally, I would like to communicate our respect and appreciation for the time and energy you have personally invested in the company, working to ensure that shareholders retain the opportunity to participate in the company's further growth. We also strongly believe that the combination of our sizable investment in the company, experience and reputation for positive work in other similar situations, and the current state of management uncertainty at Seitel, warrants our involvement as suggested above.

Feel free to contact me with any questions. I look forward to discussing our request with you and the Board at your earliest convenience.

Sincerely,

Peter H. Kamin
Partner
