Item 3.01. Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On April 8, 2010, LiveDeal, Inc. (the “Company”) received a letter from Nasdaq’s Listing Qualifications Department informing the Company of its failure to comply with Nasdaq Listing Rule 5550(a)(2), which requires that listed securities (including the Company’s common stock) maintain a minimum bid price of $1.00 per share.

In accordance with Listing Rule 5810(c)(3)(A), the Company was given a 180-day grace period (until October 5, 2010) in which it can regain compliance by achieving a $1.00 per share or greater closing bid price of the Company’s common stock for a minimum of 10 consecutive business days. If the Company does not regain compliance with Nasdaq’s minimum bid price requirement prior to the expiration of the grace period, the Company will receive written notification that its common stock is subject to delisting. At that time, the Company could (i) appeal any delisting determination to a Nasdaq hearings panel or (ii) be eligible for an additional 180-day grace period if the Company then meets the initial listing standards (with the exception of the minimum bid price requirement) of the Nasdaq Capital Market. During the grace period(s) described above and the pendency of an appeal (if any), the Company’s common stock will continue to be traded on the Nasdaq Capital Market.

As of the date of this filing, the Company is still considering what actions to take in response to the letter described above.
