The Company announced on February 26, 2013 that it was changing its accounting policy to report its inventory on the cost method instead of the retail method and that it will capitalize additional supply chain costs instead of reporting them as period expenses, all effective in the fourth quarter of Fiscal 2012.

The Company's press release dated March 26, 2013 reports fourth quarter and Fiscal 2012 financial information, and financial information for the fourth quarter of the fiscal year ended January 28, 2012 ("Fiscal 2011") and for Fiscal 2011, in all cases, under both the new and previous accounting policies. The Company's March 26, 2013 press release also contains additional unaudited quarterly financial results for the quarterly periods in Fiscal 2011 and Fiscal 2012, and unaudited financial results for the fiscal years ended January 29, 2011, January 30, 2010 and January 31, 2009, in all cases, under the new accounting policy. ### Forward Looking Statements

This Current Report on Form 8-K, including Exhibit 99.1, contains forward-looking statements made pursuant to the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, including but not limited to statements relating to the Company's positioning, and forecasts regarding store openings and earnings per diluted share from continuing operations. Forward-looking statements typically are identified by use of terms such as "may," "will," "should," "plan," "project," "expect," "anticipate," "estimate" and similar words, although some forward-looking statements are expressed differently. These forward-looking statements are based upon the Company's current expectations and assumptions and are subject to various risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results and performance to differ materially. Some of these risks and uncertainties are described in the Company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including in the "Risk Factors" section of its annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended January 28, 2012. Included among the risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results and performance to differ materially are the risk that the Company will be unsuccessful in gauging fashion trends and changing consumer preferences, the risks resulting from the highly competitive nature of the Company's business and its dependence on consumer spending patterns, which may be affected by the continued weakness in the economy or by other factors such as increases in the cost of gasoline and food, and the risk that the cost of raw materials or energy prices will increase beyond current expectations or that the Company is unable to offset cost increases through value engineering or price increases, and the uncertainty of weather patterns. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date they were made. The Company undertakes no obligation to release publicly any revisions to these forward-looking statements that may be made to reflect events or circumstances after the date hereof or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events.
