Item 1.01

Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Hamilton State Bancshares, Inc. Transaction

Agreement and Plan of Merger

On January 25, 2018, Ameris Bancorp, a Georgia corporation (“Ameris”), and Hamilton State Bancshares, Inc., a Georgia corporation (“Hamilton”), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”) pursuant to which Hamilton will merge into Ameris, with Ameris as the surviving entity (the “Merger”). The Merger Agreement provides that, immediately following the Merger, Hamilton State Bank, a Georgia bank wholly owned by Hamilton, will be merged into Ameris Bank, a Georgia bank wholly owned by Ameris, with Ameris Bank as the surviving entity (the “Bank Merger”).

Under the terms and subject to the conditions of the Merger Agreement, Hamilton’s shareholders will have the right to receive $0.93 in cash and 0.16 shares of the common stock, par value $1.00 per share, of Ameris (“Ameris Common Stock”) for each share of the voting common stock and non-voting common stock of Hamilton (collectively, the “Hamilton Common Stock”) that they hold. The Merger Agreement provides that at the effective time of the Merger, Hamilton’s outstanding restricted stock units, to the extent then vested, will be converted into the right to receive the same merger consideration per share as the outstanding shares of Hamilton Common Stock. The Merger Agreement further provides that at the effective time of the Merger, Hamilton’s outstanding stock options will fully vest and be cancelled and thereafter entitle the holders thereof to receive cash consideration of $9.06 for each share of Hamilton Common Stock issuable upon exercise of such options, less the applicable per share exercise price of such options. Under the Merger Agreement, the outstanding warrants to acquire shares of Hamilton Common Stock will be also cancelled at the effective time of the Merger, entitling the holders thereof to receive cash consideration of $9.06 for each share of Hamilton Common Stock issuable upon exercise of such warrants, less the applicable per share exercise price of such warrants.

The Merger Agreement has been unanimously approved by the boards of directors of Ameris and Hamilton. The closing of the Merger is subject to the required approval of Hamilton’s shareholders, requisite regulatory approvals, the effectiveness of the registration statement to be filed by Ameris with respect to the shares of Ameris Common Stock to be issued in the Merger and other customary closing conditions. The Merger is expected to close during the third quarter of 2018.

The Merger Agreement contains usual and customary representations and warranties that Ameris and Hamilton made to each other as of specific dates. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties were made solely for purposes of the contract between Ameris and Hamilton and may be subject to important qualifications and limitations agreed to by the parties in connection with negotiating its terms. Moreover, the representations and warranties are subject to a contractual standard of materiality that may be different from what may be viewed as material to shareholders, and the representations and warranties may have been used to allocate risk between Ameris and Hamilton rather than establishing matters as facts.

The Merger Agreement may be terminated in certain circumstances, including the following: (i) by mutual written agreement of the parties; (ii) by either party in the event that, under certain circumstances, the Merger shall not have been consummated by December 31, 2018; (iii) by either party in the event of a breach by the other party of any representation, warranty or obligation contained in the Merger Agreement which has not been cured within thirty days and which breach would be reasonably likely to result in a failure to satisfy any applicable closing condition; (iv) by either party if final action has been taken by a regulatory agency whose approval is required for the Merger or the Bank Merger, which final action has become final and nonappealable and does not approve the Merger or the Bank Merger, or a governmental authority enacts a law or judgment which would make the Merger or the Bank Merger illegal; (v) by either party if the requisite Hamilton shareholder approval is not obtained; (vi) by Ameris if the Hamilton board fails to make recommendation to the shareholders of Hamilton to approve the Merger Agreement, or Hamilton has materially breached its covenant not to solicit alternative acquisition proposals; (vii) by Hamilton, prior to Hamilton shareholder approval, to enter into an agreement relating to a superior proposal; or (viii) by Hamilton in the event that the price of Ameris Common Stock decreases in comparison to the specified ratio provided in the Merger Agreement and Ameris elects not to increase the merger consideration to be received by the shareholders of Hamilton. Upon termination of the Merger Agreement by Hamilton to enter into a superior proposal or by Ameris where the Hamilton board fails to make recommendation to the shareholders of Hamilton to approve the Merger Agreement or Hamilton has materially breached its covenant not to solicit alternative acquisition proposals, Hamilton will be required to pay Ameris a termination fee equal to $14 million.

In addition, if the Merger Agreement is terminated due to a failure to obtain any regulatory approval that is required for the consummation of the Merger or the Bank Merger (provided that such failure is not primarily related to the financial or regulatory condition of Hamilton) or due to a failure by Ameris to satisfy any condition contained in any required regulatory approval, then Ameris will be required to pay Hamilton $1.5 million as reimbursement for its transaction expenses.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of such document, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K (this “Report”) and is incorporated herein by reference.

Voting Agreement

In connection with entering into the Merger Agreement, the directors and certain principal shareholders of Hamilton have entered into a Voting and Support Agreement with Ameris and Hamilton (the “Voting Agreement”). The Voting Agreement generally requires that such shareholders agree to vote their shares of Hamilton Common Stock in favor of the Merger and against any action or agreement that would be reasonably likely to impair the ability of Ameris or Hamilton to complete the Merger, or that would be inconsistent with, prevent, materially impede or materially delay the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, and against any alternative acquisition proposal. The Voting Agreement automatically terminates upon any termination of the Merger Agreement.

The foregoing description of the Voting Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of such document, a form of which is included as Exhibit B to the Merger Agreement filed as Exhibit 2.1 to this Report and which is incorporated herein by reference.

Director Non-Solicitation Agreements

Simultaneously with the execution of the Merger Agreement, each of the non-employee directors of Hamilton and Hamilton State Bank entered into a Director Non-Solicitation Agreement with Ameris that contains provisions related to non-disclosure of confidential information, non-recruitment of employees and non-solicitation of customers.

The foregoing description of the Director Non-Competition Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of such document, a form of which is included as Exhibit C to the Merger Agreement filed as Exhibit 2.1 to this Report and which is incorporated herein by reference.

US Premium Finance Holding Company Transaction

On January 25, 2018, Ameris and Ameris Bank entered into a Stock Purchase Agreement (the “USPF Agreement”) pursuant to which Ameris agreed to purchase the remaining 70% of the outstanding shares of common stock of US Premium Finance Holding Company, a Florida corporation (“USPF”), held by USPF’s other shareholders (the “USPF Transaction”). Ameris previously purchased 4.99% of the outstanding shares of common stock of USPF in a transaction that closed on January 18, 2017 and an additional 25.01% of such shares in a transaction that closed on January 3, 2018.

As consideration for the shares of USPF to be acquired by Ameris in the USPF Transaction, Ameris will pay the selling shareholders approximately $8.92 million in cash and issue to them 830,301 unregistered shares of Ameris Common Stock, in a private placement transaction pursuant to the exemptions from registration provided in Section 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Rule 506 of Regulation D promulgated thereunder. In addition, under the USPF Agreement, the selling shareholders may receive additional cash payments aggregating up to approximately $5.83 million based on the achievement by Ameris Bank's premium finance division of certain income targets between January 1, 2018 and June 30, 2019. In exchange for 25.01% of the outstanding common stock of USPF which Ameris acquired on January 3, 2018, Ameris paid $12.5 million and issued 114,285 unregistered shares of Ameris Common Stock in a similarly exempt private placement transaction.

Upon the closing of the USPF Transaction, the parties will also enter into a Registration Rights Agreement (the "Registration Rights Agreement"), the form of which is included as an exhibit to the USPF Agreement. Pursuant to the terms of the Registration Rights Agreement, once it has been executed, Ameris will be required to file with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"), within 45 days, a registration statement covering the resale of the shares of Ameris Common Stock issued in the USPF Transaction.

The foregoing description of the USPF Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of such document, which is filed as Exhibit 2.2 to this Report and is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 1.02 Termination of a Material Definitive Agreement.

Upon the closing of the USPF Transaction, the Management and License Agreement, dated December 15, 2016, among Ameris Bank, William J. Villari and USPF (the "Management Agreement") will automatically terminate. Since early 2017, Mr. Villari has managed the premium finance division of Ameris Bank pursuant to the terms of the Management Agreement. He will continue to manage the premium finance division as an employee of Ameris Bank upon termination of the Management Agreement. Ameris Bank also previously licensed certain marks and other intellectual property from USPF under the Management Agreement.

In general, forward-looking statements usually use words such as “may,” “believe,” “expect,” “anticipate,” “intend,” “will,” “shall,” “plan,” “estimate,” “predict,” “continue” and “potential” or the negative of these terms or other comparable terminology, including statements related to the expected timing of the closing of the Merger, the expected returns and other benefits of the Merger to shareholders, expected improvement in operating efficiency resulting from the Merger, estimated expense reductions resulting from the transactions and the timing of achievement of such reductions, the impact on and timing of the recovery of the impact on tangible book value and the effect of the Merger on Ameris’s capital ratios. Forward-looking statements represent management’s beliefs, based upon information available at the time the statements are made, with regard to the matters addressed; they are not guarantees of future performance. Forward-looking statements are subject to numerous assumptions, risks and uncertainties that change over time and could cause actual results or financial condition to differ materially from those expressed in or implied by such statements.

Factors that could cause or contribute to such differences include, but are not limited to, the parties' ability to consummate the Merger or satisfy the conditions to the completion of the Merger, including, without limitation, the receipt of shareholder approval and the receipt of required regulatory approvals on the terms expected or on the anticipated schedule; the parties' ability to meet expectations regarding the timing, completion and accounting and tax treatments of the Merger; the businesses of Ameris and Hamilton may not be integrated successfully or such integration may take longer to accomplish than expected; the expected cost savings and any revenue synergies from the Merger may not be fully realized within the expected timeframes; disruption from the Merger may make it more difficult to maintain relationships with customers, employees or others; diversion of management time to merger-related issues; dilution caused by Ameris's issuance of additional shares of its common stock in connection with the Merger; general competitive, economic, political and market conditions and fluctuations, including, without limitation, movements in interest rates; competitive pressures on product pricing and services; and success and timing of other business strategies. For a discussion of some of the other risks and other factors that may cause such forward-looking statements to differ materially from actual results, please refer to Ameris's filings with the SEC, including its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016 and subsequently filed Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and Current Reports on Form 8-K. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made, and neither Ameris nor Hamilton undertakes any obligation to update or revise forward-looking statements. For any forward-looking statements made in this Report, the exhibits hereto or any related documents, Ameris and Hamilton claim protection of the safe harbor for forward-looking statements contained in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995.
