New U.S. Legislation and Accounting Rules

As a result of the Company s listing at New York Stock Exchange, it is subject not only to the provisions of German law (corporation, codetermination and capital market legislation) and of its own Articles of Association but also to the licensing requirements of the New York Stock Exchange. American capital market legislation specifically the Sarbanes-Oxley Act and the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) also apply to Pfeiffer.

In December 2003, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued FASB Interpretation (FIN) No. 46R, Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities an interpretation of ARB No. 51 which addresses how a business enterprise should evaluate whether it has a controlling financial interest in an entity through means other than voting rights and accordingly should consolidate the entity. (Percentages calculated based on amounts in thousands)Net Sales

The following table summarizes the Company's net sales by geographical area:

	Three months ended
	June 30, 2004		June 30, 2003
	(in thousands)	%	(in thousands)	%
Net Sales
Germany	11,296	28.8	8,581	27.2

Total	39,247	100.0	31,499	100.0

The Company's total net sales increased significantly by 7.7 million or 24.6% from 31.5 million in the three months ended June 30, 2003 to 39.2 million in 2004. All geographical areas recorded an increase in revenues. The sales increased in Germany by 2.7 million (31.6%) and in Europe excluding Germany by 2.5 million (24.0%). Additionally, in the United States (U.S.) a sales increase by 1.3 million or 18.4% was recorded although revenue was adversely affected by the impact of the weak U.S. dollar. This exchange rate impact approximated 0.5 million. While consumer demand in Germany and Europe itself was slow in the second quarter of 2004, German and European OEM (original equipment manufacturer) demand was strong due to the needs of the Asian market.

Increased sales were noted in all product groups of the Company. Sales of turbo pumps, the Company's most important product, raised significantly by 2.7 million. Additionally, net sales revenue in systems increased by 2.8 million and in vacuum components and instruments by 1.6 million.

Order intake and Order backlog

Orders received amounted to 40.2 million in the three months ended June 30, 2004 and increased by 5.0 million, from 35.2 million in the previous year. This increase related primarily to turbo pumps (2.1 million) and vacuum components and instruments (1.8 million). In addition, the increase in customer orders led to enhanced plant utilization of the Company and resulted in an increase in inventories.

The Company's backlog increased from 23.9 million in 2003 by 6.5 million to 30.4 million in 2004, primarily in vacuum systems.

Contracts are included in backlog only if they represent firm orders and include firm shipping schedules. The backlog position at any particular time should not be construed to represent future levels of sales and orders generally.

Gross Profit

Gross profit increased significantly by 4.8 million or 38.6% from 12.5 million in the three month period ended June 30, 2003 to 17.4 million in the comparable period in 2004. The Company's gross margin increased from 39.8% in 2003 to 44.2% in 2004.

Selling and Marketing Expenses

Selling and marketing expenses decreased by 0.2 million or 3.1% from 5.3 million in the second quarter 2003 to 5.1 million in the second quarter 2004. As a percentage of sales, selling and marketing expenses decreased from 16.7% to 13.0% primarily due to the higher net sales revenue.

General and Administrative Expenses

General and administrative expenses amount to 3.3 million in the three months ended June 30, 2004 and decreased slightly by 0.1 million from 3.4 million in the prior year's period. The increased revenue led to a decrease of the general and administrative expenses as percentage of sales from 10.8% in 2003 to 8.4% in 2004.

Research and Development

Research and development expenses decreased slightly from 2.5 million in the second quarter of 2003 to 2.4 million in the second quarter of 2004. Due to the lower net sales revenue in 2003, the percentage of sales was 8.0% in 2003 and decreased to 6.1% in 2004. Nevertheless, the Company depends to a significant extent on continuing technological advances in vacuum pump design and manufacturing and has invested in the needs of future markets, improving its market position and entering new markets. It expects research and development expenses in future will for the most part correspond to the current level. The Company expenses all research and development costs as they are incurred.

Operating Profit

Operating profit increased significantly by 5.2 million or 386.6% from 1.3 million in the three months ended June 30, 2003 to 6.6 million in the three months ended June 30, 2004. As a percentage of sales, the operating profit increased from 4.3% to 16.7%.

The Company was not only able to obtain higher net sales, but also lower selling and administration expenses due primarily to its worldwide cost monitoring system. Nevertheless, the operating profit is burdened with the negative exchange rate impact due to the strong Euro against the U.S. dollar.

Interest Expense

Interest expense decreased in the three months ended June 30, 2004 by 0.1 million as a result of the Kreditanstalt für Wiederaufbau loan repayment prior to its maturity in 2003.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Interest Income

Interest income increased by 0.2 million in the second quarter 2004 to 0.6 million. The cash position decreased by approximately 32.2 million in June 2004 compared to June 2003 primarily due to the pension trust cash contribution in December 2003 amounting to approximately 36.0 million. Nevertheless, the Company was able to achieve a moderate interest income in 2004 due primarily to the interest income received in June (approximately 0.4 million) for a note receivable amounting to 9.0 million.

Foreign exchange gain

The Company recorded in the three months period ended June 30, 2004 exchange gains amounting to 0.2 million and in the previous year's period 0.9 million.

Income Tax Expense

The effective tax rate for the three month period ended June 30, 2004 was 40.6% compared to 66.3% in the respective period of 2003.

The decrease is primarily due to a change in German tax legislation relating to tax credits on distributed earnings.

Net income

Net income increased significantly by 3.5 million or 399.2% from 0.9 million in the second quarter of 2003 to 4.4 million in the current period due to the factors discussed above.

Additionally, in the U.S. a sales increase by 1.8 million or 12.1% was recorded although revenue was adversely impacted by the effect of the weak U.S. dollar. This exchange rate impact was approximately 1.8 million. While consumer demand in Germany and Europe was slow in the second quarter of 2004, German and European OEM (original equipment manufacturer) demand increased through sales to Asian markets.

Increased sales were noted in most product groups of the Company. Sales of turbo pumps, the Company's most important product, increased by 6.5 million or 26.5% from 24.7 million for the six months ended June 30, 2003 to 31.2 million for the respective period in 2004. Sales in vacuum instrument and vacuum components increased by 3.4 million or 19.5%. In addition, all other products had increased order intake, e.g. backing pumps by 0.4 million or 4.9%, systems by 3.2 million or 76.2%, vacuum instruments and components by 4.3 million or 26.7%; only offset by a small decrease in service orders amounting to 0.1 million or < 0.1%.

The Company's backlog increased from 23.9 million in 2003 by 6.5 million to 30.4 million in 2004, primarily in vacuum systems.

Contracts are included in backlog only if they represent firm orders and include firm shipping schedules. The backlog position at any particular time should not be construed to represent future levels of sales and orders generally.

Gross Profit

Gross profit increased significantly from 27.2 million in the first half year 2003 by 7.4 million or 27.3% to 34.7 million in 2004. Gross profit as a percentage of net sales (gross margin) increased from 40.9% to 44.3% in the respective periods. An increase in sales and decrease in cost of sales led to these better margins. Also, the plant utilization rate returned to an efficient level as a result of the Company's cost cutting programs.

Exchange rate differences between the strong Euro and the U.S. dollar influenced the gross profit adversely and accounted for approximately 1.4 million.

Selling and Marketing Expenses

Selling and marketing expenses decreased by 0.9 million from 10.8 million in the six month ended June 2003 to 9.9 million in 2004. A reduction in sales and marketing manpower of 8.4% led to a decrease in selling and marketing expenses. As a percentage of sales, selling and marketing expenses decreased from 16.2% to 12.6%, partly due to the higher net sales revenue position.

General and Administrative Expenses

General and administrative expenses amounted to 7.1 million in the first six months of 2004 and increased by 0.4 million from 6.7 million in the prior year's period. As a percentage of sales, general and administrative expenses decreased from 10.1% in 2003 to 9.1% in 2004 primarily due to the increased net sales.

Research and Development

Research and development expenses decreased from 4.9 million in the period ended June 30, 2003 to 4.7 million in 2004. Due to the higher net sales revenue in 2004, the percentage of sales was 7.4% in 2003 and decreased to 6.0% in 2004. Nevertheless, the Company depends to a significant extent on continuing technological advances in vacuum pump design and manufacturing and has invested in the needs of future markets, improving its market position and entering new markets. It expects research and development expenses in the future will for the most part correspond to the current level. The Company expenses all research and development costs as they are incurred.

Operating Profit

Operating profit increased significantly by 8.3 million or 174.6% from 4.7 million for the six months ended June 30, 2003 to 13.0 million for the six months ended June 30, 2004. Interest Income

Interest income amounted to 0.7 million in the six months ended June 30, 2004 compared to 0.9 million in 2003. The cash position decreased by approximately 32.2 million in June 2004 compared to June 2003 primarily due to the pension trust cash contribution in December 2003 amounting to approximately 36.0 million. Nevertheless, the Company was able to achieve a moderate interest income in 2004 primarily due to the interest income received (approximately 0.4 million) in June for a note receivable amounting to 9.0 million.

The Company recorded in the six month period 2003 foreign exchange gains amounting to 1.4 million and in the six month period 2004 0.7 million.

Income Tax Expense

The effective tax rate for the six months ended June 30, 2004 was 40.6% compared to 47.0% in the respective period of 2003.

The decrease is primarily due to a change in German tax legislation relating to tax credits on distributed earnings.

Net Income

Net income increased by 137.1% or 4.9 million, from 3.6 million in the first six months of 2003 to 8.5 million in the first six months of 2004 for the reasons discussed above.

Net income per Ordinary Share and ADR was 0.98 (basic) and 0.98 (diluted) in the six months ended June 30, 2004 compared to 0.41 (basic) as well as 0.41 (diluted) in the previous years period, respectively.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

In the six months ended June 30, 2004 net cash provided by operating activities totaled 12.9 million as compared to 11.9 million for the same period in the previous year.

The increase in net cash provided by operating activities is primarily due to the significant increase in net income. Trade accounts receivable increased in 2004 in conjunction with the increase in net sales revenue and decreased in 2003 due to better accounts receivable management. Increased business orders led to enhanced plant utilization and an increase in inventories. Additionally, some customers pushed back order dates to the third quarter of 2004.

The Company's use of cash in investing activities increased from 0.3 million to 0.8 million, primarily due to higher capital expenditures (by 0.4 million) in 2004. The investments have been financed by the Company's cash reserves.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The decrease in cash flow used in financing activities, amounting to 6.1 million in the first half year of 2004 and 14.8 million in the respective period in 2003 is primarily a result of the repayment of the long-term debt totaling 9.0 million in 2003. The Company used its high cash position to repay its loan due to Kreditanstalt für Wiederaufbau.

Additionally, in 2003 the Company started a share buy back program. The treasury stock at June 30, 2003 accounted for approximately 0.8 million and included the buy back of 35,626 non par value ordinary shares of the Company. At June 30, 2004 as well at December 31, 2003 the treasury stock accounted for approximately 2.4 million and included 100,076 non par value ordinary shares.
