Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

Approval of New Forms of Equity Award Agreements and Compensation Programs and Plans. On March 31, 2005, the Compensation Committee (the "Committee") of the Board of Directors of AmNet Mortgage, Inc. (the "Company") approved (i) the adoption of five new forms of equity award agreements for use under the Company's 2004 Equity Incentive Plan (the "Plan") and (ii) the adoption of three new cash compensation programs or plans. On April 4, 2005, the Board of

Edgar Filing: AmNet Mortgage, Inc. - Form 8-K

Directors of the Company approved (i) the adoption of two new forms of equity award agreements for use under the Plan and (ii) revisions to the compensation terms for the Company's non-employee directors.

The following descriptions of the new forms of equity award agreements and compensation programs and plans are qualified in their entirety by reference to the actual forms of agreements, programs and plans that are attached as exhibits to this Current Report on Form 8-K and are hereby incorporated by reference.

-Standard Restricted Stock Agreement. The Committee may, in its sole and absolute discretion, elect to grant restricted stock subject to this standard form of agreement. No monetary payment is required in exchange for an award of restricted stock pursuant to this form, instead, the Company may make awards of restricted stock for past services actually rendered and/or future services to be rendered to the Company. The restricted shares, to the extent unvested, shall be subject to forfeiture and may be held by the Company in an escrow account. If a change in control of the Company occurs, this standard form of restricted stock agreement will provide that the stock awarded pursuant to this form would become fully vested on the date of such change in control. A copy of this standard restricted stock agreement is attached as Exhibit 10.27.

-Long Term Incentive Plan Restricted Stock Agreement. The Committee may, in its sole and absolute discretion, elect to grant restricted stock subject to this form of agreement. No monetary payment is required in exchange for an award of restricted stock pursuant to this form, instead, the Company may make awards of restricted stock for past services actually rendered and/or future services to be rendered to the Company. The restricted shares, to the extent unvested, shall be subject to forfeiture and may be held by the Company in an escrow account. If a change in control of the Company occurs, this standard form of restricted stock agreement will provide that the stock awarded pursuant to this form would become fully vested on the date of such change in control. In addition, in the event of the awardees termination of employment without cause, voluntary resignation for good reason, or termination due to death or disability, the stock awarded pursuant to this form will also become fully vested on such termination date. A copy of this restricted stock agreement is attached as Exhibit 10.28.

-Standard Restricted Stock Unit Agreement. The Committee may, in its sole and absolute discretion, elect to grant restricted stock units subject to this standard form of agreement. No monetary payment is required in exchange for an award of restricted stock units pursuant to this form, instead, the Company may make awards of restricted stock units for past services actually rendered and/or future services to be rendered to the Company. The restricted stock units, to the extent unvested, shall be subject to forfeiture, however, once such restricted stock units are vested, the Company shall issue to the awardee, in settlement of the restricted stock unit award, a number of shares of Company stock equal to the units vested. If a change in control of the Company occurs, this standard form of restricted stock unit agreement will provide that the restricted stock units awarded pursuant to this form would become vested and settled prior to the change in control in an amount determined by the years of service the awardee has provided to the Company as of the date of the change in control. A copy of this standard restricted stock unit agreement is attached as Exhibit 10.29.

-Executive Restricted Stock Unit Agreement. The Committee may, in its sole and absolute discretion, elect to grant restricted stock units subject to this executive form of agreement. No monetary payment is required in exchange for an award of restricted stock units pursuant to this form, instead, the Company may make awards of restricted stock units for past services actually rendered and/or future services to be rendered to the Company. The restricted stock units, to the extent unvested, shall be subject to forfeiture, however, once such restricted stock units are vested, the Company shall issue to the awardee, in settlement of the restricted stock unit award, a number of shares of Company stock equal to the units vested. If a change in control of the Company occurs, this form of restricted stock unit agreement will provide that the restricted stock units awarded pursuant to this form would become fully vested and be settled on the date of such change in control. A copy of this executive restricted stock unit agreement is attached as Exhibit 10.30.

-Stock Option Agreement. The Committee may, in its sole and absolute discretion, elect to grant stock options subject to this form of agreement providing for single trigger acceleration upon a change in control. Any stock option granted pursuant to this form may be either an incentive stock option or nonstatutory stock option. The exercise price of any such stock option will always be at least equal to the fair market value of a share of Company stock on the date of grant. The vested portion of any stock option must be exercised, if at all, within one (1) month after the optionee's termination of employment. However, if the optionee terminates employment as a result of total and permanent disability or death, the option must be exercised, if at all, within six (6) months after such termination. If a change in control of the Company occurs, this single trigger form of stock option agreement will provide that the stock options granted pursuant to this form would become fully vested on the date of such change in control. A copy of this stock option agreement is attached as Exhibit 10.31.

-2005 Executive Officer Annual Cash Bonus Program . The goal of this program is to provide an annual incentive to the Company's executive officers to maximize the Company's financial performance and achieve specified strategic and individual goals in 2005. As a threshold to the payment of bonuses for the year, the Company must achieve minimum financial targets. The CEO's bonus is based entirely on financials goals for the Company. Each other executive officer's bonus will be based primarily on financial goals for the Company and to a lesser extent on individual goals. If the target goals are met, the officers will receive a bonus payment equal to 90% (CEO) or 80% (other officers) of their base salary. If the targets are exceeded, each executive officer may earn a maximum bonus of up to 135% (CEO) or 120% (all other officers) of his or her base salary. If target goals are not met, the bonus will be reduced or no bonus may be awarded. A copy of this executive bonus program is attached as Exhibit 10.32.

-Cash Long Term Incentive Program (2005-2006). This program was adopted under the Plan. The goal of this program is to provide long term incentives to the Company's executive officers and certain other officers to maximize the Company's financial performance. Under the program, the Committee has set two performance measurements for the two year performance period of 2005-2006. Prior to any award being granted under the program, the Company must meet or exceed a return on stockholders equity threshold set by the Committee. To determine the amount of an award, the Committee has set a target goal based on the Company's cumulative income before income taxes for the program period. If the target is met, the officers will receive an award payment equal to 50% (CEO), 33.3% (other executive officers) or 16.7% (other officers) of their base salary in effect at the beginning of the performance period. If the target is exceeded, each executive officer may earn a maximum award of up to 75% (CEO), 50% (all other executive officers) or 25% (other officers) of his or her base salary. At below target, lower awards may be earned however no awards will be granted at below 75% of the target. If a change in control occurs, the executive officers shall receive the amount that would be paid under the program upon achieving the target goal and other officers will receive amounts determined by the Committee in its discretion. All awards shall be paid in cash. A copy of this program is attached as Exhibit 10.33.

-Cash Long Term Incentive Program (2005-2007). This program was adopted

under the Plan. The goal of this program is to provide long term incentives to the Company's executive officers and certain other officers to maximize the Company's financial performance. Under the program, the Committee has set two performance measurements for the three year performance period of 2005-2007. Prior to any award being granted under the program, the Company must meet or exceed a return on stockholders equity threshold set by the Committee. To determine the amount of an award, the Committee has set a target goal based on the Company's cumulative income before income taxes for the program period. If the target is met, the officers will receive an award payment equal to 75% (CEO), 50% (other executive officers) or 25% (other officers) of their base salary in effect at the beginning of the performance period. If the target is exceeded, each executive officer may earn a maximum award of up to 112.5% (CEO), 75% (all other executive officers) or 37.5% (other officers) of his or her base salary. At below target, lower awards may be earned however no awards will be granted at below 75% of the target. If a change in control occurs, the executive officers shall receive the amount that would be paid under the program upon achieving the target goal and other officers will receive amounts determined by the Committee in its discretion. All awards shall be paid in cash. A copy of this program is attached as Exhibit 10.34.

-Director Stock Option Agreement. Any stock option granted to a non-employee director pursuant to the Plan shall be, until amended by the Committee, subject to the terms and conditions of this form. The stock options granted pursuant to this form shall be nonstatutory stock options. The exercise price of any such stock option will always be at least equal to the fair market value of a share of Company stock on the date of grant. The vested portion of any stock option must be exercised, if at all, within one (1) month after the director's termination of service. However, if the director terminates service as a result of total and permanent disability or death, the option must be exercised, if at all, within six (6) months after such termination. If a change in control of the Company occurs, this form of director stock option agreement will provide that the stock options granted pursuant to this form would become fully vested on the date of such change in control. A copy of this stock option agreement is attached as Exhibit 10.35.

-Director Restricted Stock Agreement. Any restricted stock granted to a non-employee director pursuant to the Plan shall be, until amended by the Committee, subject to the terms and conditions of this form. No monetary payment is required in exchange for an award of restricted stock pursuant to this form, instead, the Company may award directors shares of restricted stock for past services actually rendered and/or future services to be rendered to the Company. The restricted shares, to the extent unvested, shall be subject to forfeiture and may be held by the Company in an escrow account. If a change in control of the Company occurs, this form of director restricted stock agreement will provide that the stock awarded pursuant to this form would become fully vested on the date of such change in control. A copy of this restricted stock agreement is attached as Exhibit 10.36.
