Item 2.05 Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities

On September 21, 2006, the Company announced that, as part of the Company's plan to maximize its resources and achieve greater overall cost-effectiveness, the Freshline Machines manufacturing and engineering operations in Sydney, Australia will be closed effective September 30, 2006 and integrated into existing operations in Walla Walla, Washington. The Company will maintain its sales and service offices in Sydney and Melbourne, Australia for the full line of the Company's products in that market.

The Company estimates that the total costs incurred in association with the closing of the Freshline Machines business will be approximately $275,000, with severance and other employee-related costs comprising approximately $44,000 and non-employee exit costs accounting for approximately $231,000. The charge that will result in future cash expenditures is estimated to be $86,000.

In addition, the Company's engineering facilities at Medford, Oregon will be consolidated into the Company's facilities in Walla Walla, Washington. The move will begin immediately and is expected to be completed early in 2007. A small number of aftermarket and service personnel will remain in Medford, Oregon.

The Company estimates that the total costs incurred in association with the consolidation of the Medford facilities will be approximately $500,000, all of which the Company estimates will be severance and employee related. The Company estimates future cash expenditures to be approximately $433,000.

The press release announcing the above actions is attached as an exhibit to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 8.01 Other Events

The Company has agreed in principle to sell its 50% interest in InspX LLC ("InspX"), a jointly owned manufacturer of x-ray inspection systems formed in 2004, to that entity. Under the terms of the agreement, Key will receive $1.5 million in a combination of cash and secured notes, plus rights to a contingent payment based upon future performance of the business. The transaction, expected to close early in the first quarter of fiscal 2007, is expected to result in a nominal gain that will not materially impact fiscal 2007 results.

The press release announcing the InspX transaction is attached as an exhibit to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.
