Item 8.01 Other Events.

DeVry Inc. recently renamed and repositioned some of its segments to reflect the current alignment of its operations. Also, a new segment called "Other Educational Services," has been added. The four reporting segments are now as follows:

- |X| Business, Technology and Management (undergraduate and graduate at DeVry University, including Keller Graduate School of Management)
- |X| Medical and Healthcare (Chamberlain College of Nursing, Ross University, and U.S. Education, including Apollo College and Western Career College)
- |X| Professional Education (Becker Professional Education)
- |X| Other Educational Services (Advanced Academics and Fanor)

These segments are consistent with the method by which management evaluates performance and allocates resources. Such decisions are based, in part, on each segment's operating income, which is defined as income before interest income and expense, amortization, minority interest and income taxes.

The segments described above have changed from those previously reported by DeVry. The recently acquired business operations of Fanor do not operationally align with any of DeVry's previously existing businesses due to its foreign operating and regulatory environment. The evaluation of the performance of this business and how resources are to be allocated is distinct from that of the other DeVry businesses. The decision to realign Advanced Academics' operations from the former DeVry University segment is based on the expected growth of this business and how decisions on resource allocation are also now distinct from those of the Business, Technology and Management segment operations. Since neither business (Fanor and Advanced Academics) is significant enough to be reported as an individual segment, they are aggregated in the newly created Other Educational Services segment.

Included as Exhibit 99.1 to this Form 8-K are historical quarterly Revenue and Operating Income before Minority Interest and Income Taxes amounts by the renamed and repositioned segments for fiscal years 2009 and 2008.

Forward Looking Statements

Certain statements contained in this Form 8-K and related press release, including those that affect DeVry's expectations or plans, may constitute forward-looking statements subject to the Safe Harbor Provision of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements generally can be identified by phrases such as DeVry Inc. or its management "anticipates," "believes," "estimates," "expects," "forecasts," "foresees," "intends," "plans" or other words or phrases of similar import.

Because these forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties, there are important factors that could cause DeVry's actual results to differ materially from those projected or implied by these forward-looking statements. Additional information regarding factors that could cause results to differ can be found in DeVry's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2008.

These forward-looking statements are based on information as of August 13, 2009, and DeVry assumes no obligation to publicly update or revise its forward-looking statements even if experience or future changes make it clear that any projected results expressed or implied therein will not be realized.
