Item 5.03. Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year

On January 8, 2009, the Board of Directors of RR Donnelley & Sons Company (the "Company") amended the Company's By-Laws, effective immediately, to expand the information required to be included in the notice that must be provided by any shareholder who submits a nomination for election to the Board or who introduces business to be conducted at an Annual Meeting. As amended, the By-Laws now require that such notice include disclosure regarding, among other things:

- All swaps, hedges and other derivative instruments and arrangements entered into, directly or indirectly, by the shareholder, any of its affiliates or persons acting in concert with the shareholder that have the effect of increasing or decreasing the shareholder's (or any affiliate or person acting in concert with the shareholder) economic or voting interest in the Company's stock; and

- All contracts, arrangements, understandings and relationships between the shareholders making such a nomination or introducing such business and any other person that relate to the matter to be proposed at the meeting.
