(e) In March 2009, Aceto Corporation (“we” or “Aceto”) entered into employment agreements with Douglas A. Roth, our Chief Financial Officer, Frank DeBenedittis, our Senior Vice President and Michael Feinman, President Aceto Agricultural. The employment agreements with Messrs. Roth, DeBenedittis and Feinman have evergreen terms, which means that the initial three (3) year employment term under each agreement will be automatically be renewed for successive, additional three (3) terms, unless Aceto or the executive gives prior written notice to the other that the term will not be extended. Copies of these employment agreements have been previously filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

On January 10, 2012, Aceto gave written notice to Messrs. Roth, DeBenedittis and Feinman that their current employment agreements would not be renewed beyond the scheduled expiration date which, subject to the terms of the employment agreements, is March 23, 2012 for each of Messrs. Roth, DeBenedittis and Feinman will remain employed with Aceto through and following the expiration of the employment agreements. In addition, Messrs. Roth, DeBenedittis and Feinman will, subject to the terms thereof, continue to be bound by the confidentiality, non-competition and non-solicitation covenants contained in the employment agreements following the expiration date. Copies of the notices to Messrs. Roth, DeBenedittis and Feinman are attached hereto as Exhibits 10.1, 10.2 and 10.3, respectively. Aceto intends to enter into new severance agreements with certain key executives that will provide enhanced severance protections following a change in control of Aceto.

Following the expiration date of their employment agreements, each of Messrs. Roth, DeBenedittis and Feinman will be eligible to receive severance pay and benefits pursuant to the Aceto Severance Policy (the “Severance Policy”) in the event his employment is involuntarily terminated by Aceto. In the case of Messrs.
