CAUTIONARY NOTE REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

In order to utilize the "Safe Harbor" provisions of the United States Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 (the "Reform Act"), Marconi plc (the "Company") is providing the following cautionary statement. Except for historical information contained herein, statements contained in this Report on Form 6-K may constitute "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the Reform Act. The words "believe", "anticipate", "expect", "intend", "estimate", "plan", "assume", "positioned", "will", "may", "risk" and other similar expressions which are predictions of or indicate future events and future trends which do not relate to historical matters identify forward-looking statements. Reliance should not be placed on such statements because they involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors which are in some cases beyond the control of the Company, together with its subsidiaries (the "Group"), and may cause the actual results, performance or achievements of the Group to differ materially from anticipated future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements (and from past results, performance or achievement). Certain factors that may cause such differences include but are not limited to the following: (1) any major disruption in production at our key facilities; (2) changes in the environmental, tax and other laws and regulations, which, among other things, could cause us to incur substantial additional capital expenditures and operation and maintenance costs; and (3) adverse changes in the markets for our products, including as a result of increased competition in the highly competitive international markets for such products. These and other risks, uncertainties and factors are discussed in the Company's Registration Statement on Form F-1 and other filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including this Form 6-K. Shareholders and prospective investors are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements which speak only as to the Company's judgment as of the date hereof. Any such forward-looking statements are not intended to give any assurance as to future results. The Company undertakes no obligation to publicly update or revise any of these forward-looking statements, whether to reflect new information or future events or circumstances or otherwise.

MARCONI WINS GBP20 MILLION COMMUNICATIONS SERVICES CONTRACT FOR TUBE LINES

Five-year agreement with Tube Lines covers maintenance of Jubilee Line communications equipment

London - 10 March 2003 - Marconi (MONI) today announces that has won a GBP19.2 million services contract from Tube Lines - the company selected by the Government to maintain and upgrade the infrastructure on the Jubilee, Northern and Piccadilly Lines (JNP). The five year contract is for the maintenance of existing communications equipment on the Jubilee Line.

The communications system is vital for the effective operation of the Jubilee Line. The contract between Marconi's Services division and Tube Lines is designed to ensure that any faults with the communication systems on the Jubilee line are responded to and rectified quickly. Tube Lines is committed to reducing the number of faults that affect the service year on year.

Marconi will continuously assess communications system performance using its Maintenance Management System (TRAMMS) to ensure optimum performance and reduce the number of faults. Marconi will also provide all corrective and preventative maintenance in supporting over 34 different communications systems on the Jubilee Line and provide remote monitoring of system elements that will improve system performance, as well as reduce the equipment downtime, thereby reducing service disruption.
