Forward-Looking Statements

This document may contain forward-looking statements made pursuant to the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements represent our management's judgment regarding future events. Forward-looking statements typically are identified by use of terms such as may, will, should, plan, expect, intend, anticipate, estimate, and similar words, although some forward-looking statements are expressed differently. We do not plan to update these forward-looking statements. You should be aware that our actual results could differ materially from those contained in the forward-looking statements due to a number of risks affecting our business. These factors include the risk that the proposed merger may not be approved by stockholders of Genome Therapeutics or Genesoft, Genome Therapeutics or Genesoft's inability to satisfy the closing conditions of the merger, including the condition of raising additional capital to finance the combined company, the risk that the two companies' businesses will not be integrated successfully and the significant costs related to the proposed merger. Upon completion of the merger, our business will be significantly dependent upon the combined company's ability to launch the commercial sale of FACTIVE®, and, due to the limitations on our resources and experience in commercializing products, there can be no assurance that we will be able to successfully launch FACTIVE®. We continue to be subject to the risks related to our lead product candidate, Ramoplanin, such as (i) our inability to obtain regulatory approval to commercialize Ramoplanin due to negative, inconclusive or insufficient clinical data and (ii) delays in the progress of our clinical trials for Ramoplanin, and increased cost, due to the pace of enrollment of patients in the trials or fluctuations in the infection rate of enrolled patients. We are also subject to risks related to our inability or the inability of our alliance partners to (i) successfully develop products based on our genomics information, (ii) obtain the necessary regulatory approval for such products, (iii) effectively commercialize any products developed before our competitors are able to commercialize competing products or (iv) obtain and enforce intellectual property rights. In addition, we are subject to the risk factors set forth in Exhibit 99.1 to the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 27, 2003 and those set forth in other filings that we may make with the Securities and Exchange Commission from time to time.

Additional Information About the Transaction and Where You Can Find It

Genome Therapeutics will file a proxy statement/prospectus and other documents concerning the proposed merger transaction with the SEC. Investors are urged to read the proxy statement/prospectus when it becomes available and the other relevant documents filed with the SEC because they will contain important information.

You will be able to obtain the proxy statement/prospectus and other related documents free of charge at the website maintained by the SEC at www.sec.gov.
