Heckmann, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer; J. Wayne Merck, President and Chief Operating Officer; John J. Rangel, President European Operations; Dudley W. Mendenhall, Senior Vice President Finance; and Monte H. Baier, Vice President and General Counsel (collectively, the Executives).

A copy of the form of employment agreement entered into with Mr. Heckmann is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and is incorporated herein by reference; a copy of the form of employment agreement entered into with Messrs. Merck and Rangel is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.2 and is incorporated herein by reference; a copy of the form of employment agreement entered into with Messrs. Mendenhall and Baier is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.3 and is incorporated herein by reference; the severance benefit plan for the Executives is set forth as Exhibit 10.4 and is incorporated herein by reference. The following summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the employment agreements set forth in Exhibits 10.1, 10.2 and 10.3 and the severance benefit plan set forth in Exhibit 10.4.

Employment Agreements

Under the terms of the employment agreements, if the Company becomes subject to a change in control transaction (Change in Control), and if any Executive is involuntarily terminated by the Company without cause (as defined in the employment agreements) (Cause) or there is termination with good reason (as defined in the employment agreements) (Good Reason), during the period four months prior or 12 months after such transaction, the Company will be obligated to pay a multiple of the salary and bonus as well as continue health insurance benefits and extend stock option vesting and exercise periods for the Executives.

If Mr. Heckmann is terminated without Cause or there is termination for Good Reason following a Change in Control or at the discretion of Mr. Heckmann within 90 days of a Change in Control, the Company will agree to pay Mr. Heckmann 2.99 times his salary and bonus and continue his health insurance coverage for 36 months from the date of termination. The Company will gross up payments under the agreement to compensate Mr. Heckmann for specified taxes. In addition, all stock options received by Mr. Heckmann before the Change in Control will accelerate and become exercisable in full for 36 months from the date of termination.

If either Mr. Merck or Mr. Rangel is terminated without Cause or there is termination for Good Reason following a Change in Control, the Company will agree to pay to such Executive 2.99 times his salary and bonus and continue his health insurance coverage for 36 months from the date of termination. The Company will gross up payments under the agreement to compensate such Executive for specified taxes. In addition, all stock options received by such Executive before the Change in Control will accelerate and become exercisable in full for 36 months from the date of termination.

If either Mr. Mendenhall or Mr. Baier is terminated without Cause or there is termination for Good Reason following a Change in Control, the Company will agree to pay such Executive two times his salary and bonus and continue his health insurance coverage for 24 months from the date of termination. If payments under the agreements are subject to specified taxes, the Company will pay to such Executive either a payment that is reduced so that there would be no tax or an amount (which shall be no more than the total payment), which after taking into account all applicable taxes, would provide such Executive with the greatest payment on an after-tax basis. In addition, all stock options received by such Executive before the Change in Control will accelerate and become exercisable in full for 24 months from the date of termination.

Severance Benefit Plan

Under the terms of the severance benefit plan, in the event the Executive is terminated by the Company without Cause, the Company will pay to such Executive as follows:

Mr. Heckmann, 2.5 times his salary and bonus, continue his health insurance coverage for 30 months from the date of termination, fully vest his stock options and extend his stock option exercise period for 30 months;

Each of Mr. Merck and Mr. Rangel, two times his salary and bonus, continue his health insurance coverage for 24 months from the date of termination, fully vest his stock options and extend his stock option exercise period for 24 months; and

Each of Mr. Mendenhall and Mr. Baier, one times his salary and bonus, continue his health insurance coverage for 12 months from the date of termination, fully vest his stock options and extend his stock option exercise period for 12 months.

If payments under the severance benefit plan are subject to specified taxes, the Company will pay to such Executive either a payment that is reduced so that there would be no tax or an amount (which shall be no more than the total payment), which after taking into account all applicable taxes, would provide such Executive with the greatest payment on an after-tax basis.
