FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

AHMED HUSSEIN DISPUTES STATEMENTS BY GLASS LEWIS

NEW YORK, Sept. 19, 2005 Ahmed Hussein today disputes the erroneous statements made by Glass Lewis & Co., an independent research and proxy advisory firm, in its press release dated September 16 relating to Dr. Hussein's proxy contest with Quality Systems, Inc. (NASDAQ: QSII). The Glass Lewis press release was issued prior to any discussion by it with Dr. Hussein regarding the contents of his proxy statement.

Dr. Hussein reaffirms the statements made in his proxy, as filed with the SEC, in which he explained in detail the processes by which decisions have been made at the Company and his related concerns over the Company's corporate governance procedures. He confirms that he has not stated that all the current board members, other than himself, were handpicked by Sheldon Razin nor that each current director is controlled by Mr. Razin and therefore cannot be considered independent, in each case as erroneously asserted by Glass Lewis.

Dr. Hussein is issuing this additional statement because he believes the issues he has raised in his proxy are of significant importance to shareholders and he wants to ensure that shareholders are not misled by inaccurate statements of third parties.

Dr. Hussein has repeatedly expressed, among other things, his concern that the compensation arrangements for directors and senior management approved by the current board over the course of the past year are excessive in light of the company's size and earnings history. Dr. Hussein notes that the NASD Interpretation on the definition of independence states: "It is important for investors to have confidence that individuals serving as independent directors do not have a relationship with the listed company that would impair their independence." Dr. Hussein believes that such high levels of director compensation may result in the type of behavior this guidance seeks to avoid.

The Annual Meeting of Shareholders of Quality Systems, Inc. will be held this Wednesday, September 21, 2005 at the Hyatt Regency Hotel in Irvine, California.
