Oracle to Buy Siebel

September 19, 2005 On September 12, 2005, Oracle announced an agreement to buy Siebel, the leading provider of Customer Relationship Management (CRM) software. Oracle plans to bring together the complementary capabilities of both companies to provide customers with a complete set of information age applications.

Customer investments in Oracle and Siebel CRM will be fully supported and protected. Oracle plans to continue to provide product enhancements and support to Oracle, PeopleSoft, and JD Edwards CRM products, and customers are encouraged to continue to use, deploy, and upgrade to new versions of these products. In Oracle's next generation CRM, customers will benefit from the best features of Oracle, PeopleSoft, JD Edwards, and Siebel products, with features of Siebel CRM becoming the centerpiece of Oracle Project Fusion CRM. After the transaction
