PROXY STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS

MERGER PROPOSED

YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

Dear Shareholders:

You are cordially invited to attend a special meeting of shareholders of Western Washington Bancorp, Inc. (WWB), to be held on May 17, 2006, at 5:00 p.m., at WWB 's main office located at 32303 Pacific Highway South, Federal Way, Washington 98003.

At the special meeting, you will be asked to vote upon a proposal to approve the Agreement and Plan of Mergers dated as of January 24, 2006 (the Merger Agreement), by and among Heritage Financial Corporation (Heritage), and its wholly owned subsidiary Heritage Bank, and WWB and its wholly owned subsidiary Washington State Bank, NA under which WWB will merge into Heritage, and WSB will merge into Heritage Bank.

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, WWB shareholders will receive 1.2530 shares of Heritage common stock and $20.36 in cash for each of their shares of WWB common stock, pending adjustment. Based on the closing price of Heritage common stock on April 7, 2006 ($28.21), the implied value of one share of WWB common stock on that date was $55.71. The actual value will fluctuate, reflecting any fluctuation in the value of Heritage common stock between April 7, 2006 and the date of closing. As a result of an adjustment pursuant to Section 1.3(C) of the Merger Agreement, WWB stockholders will receive an additional $0.50 per share, which shall be paid, at the discretion of Heritage, in cash, stock or a combination thereof. Heritage 's common stock trades on the NASDAQ National Market under the symbol HFWA.

If the merger is completed, WWB shareholders will own approximately 3.2% of the outstanding common stock of Heritage. We cannot complete the merger unless we obtain approval from WWB shareholders by the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares, in addition to regulatory approvals and certain other conditions described in this Proxy Statement/Prospectus. As a result, YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT. We urge you to complete, sign, and date the enclosed proxy card and return it promptly in the enclosed postage-prepaid envelope whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting. If you attend the meeting, you may vote in person even if you previously returned your proxy card. If you do not vote or if you abstain from voting, your actions will have the same effect as a vote against the merger.

No vote of Heritage shareholders is required to complete the merger.

This Proxy Statement/Prospectus gives you detailed information about the merger and includes a copy of the Merger Agreement. You should read both carefully. This document is a proxy statement that WWB is using to solicit proxies for use at its special meeting of shareholders. It is also a prospectus relating to Heritage 's issuance of its shares of common stock in connection with the merger. Before you make a decision on how to vote on the merger, you should consider the Risk Factors beginning on page 16 of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus.

Your board of directors has approved the merger and believes it is in the best interests of WWB and its shareholders.

The board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the merger proposal.

Sincerely,

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

ABOUT THE MERGER AND SPECIAL MEETING

What is the proposed transaction?

WWB has agreed to merge with Heritage, with Heritage being the surviving corporation. Immediately thereafter, WSB will merge with Heritage Bank, with Heritage Bank being the surviving bank.

What will I receive in the merger?

Under the Merger Agreement, unless you perfect your statutory dissenters' rights, you will receive 1.2530 shares of Heritage common stock, $20.36 in cash for each of your WWB shares and additional consideration equal to $0.50 per share (which may be paid in cash, stock, or a combination thereof, at the election of Heritage) as a result of an adjustment pursuant to Section 1.3(C) of the Merger Agreement. You also may receive additional Heritage stock and/or cash if Heritage's stock price falls below $21.25 per share. Cash will be paid for fractional shares. The value of the stock you receive will vary depending on the market price of Heritage common stock upon completion of the merger.

When will the merger occur?

We presently expect to complete the merger in the second quarter of 2006. The merger will occur after approval of the shareholders of WWB is obtained and the other conditions to the merger are satisfied or waived. Heritage and WWB are working toward completing the merger as quickly as possible.

When should I send in my stock certificates?

Please DO NOT send in your stock certificates with your proxy card. YOU SHOULD FOLLOW THE INSTRUCTIONS IN THE LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL WHEN SENT REGARDING HOW AND WHEN TO SURRENDER YOUR STOCK CERTIFICATES.

What are the tax consequences of the merger to me?

We expect that for United States federal income tax purposes, the merger will be considered a tax-free reorganization, which means that you will not recognize any taxable gain or loss with respect to the exchange of your shares of WWB common stock for Heritage common stock and will have a carry-over basis and holding period from your WWB shares. To the extent you receive cash in the merger, you will recognize gain or loss. We urge you to consult your tax advisor to fully understand the tax consequences of the merger to you.

When and where will the special meeting take place?

WWB will hold a special meeting of its shareholders on May 17, 2006, at 5:00 p.m., at the company's main office at 32303 Pacific Highway South, Federal Way, Washington 98003.

How do I vote?

To vote, please indicate on the enclosed proxy card how you want to vote and then sign, date, and mail your proxy card in the enclosed envelope as soon as possible so that your shares will be represented at the special meeting.

Why is my vote important?

Approval of the Merger Agreement requires the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of WWB's shares. Therefore, if you fail to vote, that will have the same effect as voting against approval of the Merger Agreement.

Table of Contents

If my shares are held in street name by my broker, will my broker vote my shares for me?

Yes, but only if you give your broker instructions on how to vote your shares. Consequently, it is important that you follow the directions provided by your broker regarding how to instruct your broker to vote your shares. If you fail to instruct your broker on how to vote your shares, the effect will be the same as if you voted against the merger.

What happens if I return my proxy but do not indicate how to vote my shares?

If you sign and return your proxy card, but do not provide instructions on how to vote your shares, your shares will be voted FOR approval of the Merger Agreement.

Can I change my vote after I have mailed my signed proxy card?

Yes. You may change your vote at any time before your proxy is voted at the special meeting. If your shares are held in your own name, you may change your vote as follows:

You may send a written notice stating that you would like to revoke your proxy and provide new instructions on how to vote;

You may complete and submit a new proxy card; or

You may attend the meeting and vote in person. If you intend to vote in person and your shares are held by a broker, you should contact your broker for instructions.

If you choose either the first or second method above, you must submit your notice of revocation or your new proxy card to WWB's secretary prior to or at the special meeting.

If your shares are held in street name by a broker and you have instructed the broker to vote your shares, you must follow instructions received from your broker to change your vote.

Who may vote at the meeting?

The board of directors of WWB has set April 6, 2006, as the record date for the meeting. If you were the owner of WWB common stock at the close of business on April 6, 2006, you may vote at the meeting.

How soon after the merger is completed can I expect to receive my Heritage common stock?

Heritage will work with its exchange agent to issue shares and pay cash as promptly as practicable following the completion of the merger.

What do I need to do now?

You should carefully read this Proxy Statement/Prospectus, including the appendices, for important information about the merger, the companies and the special meeting of shareholders. Additional information about Heritage that may be important to you is incorporated by reference into this document from documents separately filed by Heritage with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). This means that important disclosure obligations to you are satisfied by referring you to one or more documents separately filed with the SEC. You can find those documents online on the SEC website at <http://www.sec.gov>.

Following review of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus, please complete, sign, and date the enclosed proxy card and return it in the enclosed envelope as soon as possible so that your shares can be voted at WWB's special meeting of shareholders.

What if I choose not to read the incorporated documents?

documents filed with the SEC after the date of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus. Information that is incorporated from another document is considered to have been disclosed to you WHETHER OR NOT YOU CHOOSE TO READ THE DOCUMENT.

What risks should I consider?

You should review carefully our discussion of Risk Factors beginning on page 16. You should also review the factors considered by WWB's board of directors in approving the Merger Agreement. See The Merger Background of the Merger beginning on page 22 and The Merger Reasons of WWB for the Merger beginning on page 23.

common stock and cash. After the merger, you will no longer own shares of WWB, and the separate existence of WWB will cease. The directors of Heritage and Heritage Bank before the merger will continue to serve as the directors of Heritage and Heritage Bank.

The Merger Agreement is attached as Appendix A to this document. We encourage you to read the Merger Agreement in its entirety.

WWB Special Meeting (see page 19).

The special meeting of shareholders of WWB will be held at WWB's main office at 32303 Pacific Highway South, Federal Way, Washington 98003, on May 17, 2006, at 5:00 p.m., local time. At the meeting you will be asked to consider and vote upon a proposal to approve the Merger Agreement and, if necessary, to consider and act upon a proposal to adjourn the meeting to permit us to solicit additional proxies if we do not have sufficient votes to approve the merger as of the date of the meeting.

You will be entitled to vote at the WWB special meeting if you owned WWB common stock at the close of business on April 6, 2006. As of that date there were 170,058 shares of WWB common stock entitled to be voted at the special meeting.

Approval of the Merger Agreement Requires the Affirmative Vote of Two-Thirds the Outstanding Shares of WWB Common Stock (see page 19).

In order to approve the Merger Agreement, at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of WWB common stock as of the record date must be voted at the special meeting in favor of approval. Heritage shareholders do not have to vote on the transaction.

As of the record date for the meeting, directors, executive officers and 10% shareholders of WWB, owned approximately 43% (including shares issuable upon exercise of outstanding options) of the outstanding shares of WWB common stock. The directors, executive officers and principal shareholders of WWB have agreed to vote their shares in favor of adoption of the Merger Agreement.

What WWB Shareholders Will Receive in the Merger (see page 20).

WWB shareholders will receive 1.2530 shares of Heritage common stock and $20.36 in cash for each share of WWB common stock upon completion of the merger. We sometimes refer to this ratio as the exchange ratio. Heritage will not issue any fractional shares. WWB shareholders entitled to a fractional share will instead receive an additional amount in cash equal to 1.2530 times the average closing price of Heritage common stock on the NASDAQ National Market for the 30-trading day period ending on the third day prior to the effective date of the merger multiplied by the fractional share they are entitled to receive.

Example: If you hold 1,025 shares of WWB common stock, you will receive 1,284 shares of Heritage common stock, a cash payment of \$20,869 plus an additional cash payment of \$6.62 instead of the 0.3250 of a share that you otherwise would have received (i.e., $1,025 \text{ shares} \times 1.2530 = 1,284.3250 \text{ shares}$).

WWB shareholders will also receive additional consideration equal to $0.50 per share (which may be paid in cash, stock, or a combination thereof, at the election of Heritage) as a result of an adjustment pursuant to Section 1.3(C) of the Merger Agreement. WWB shareholders may also receive additional shares of Heritage stock and/or cash in the event Heritage's average stock price falls below $21.25. See The Merger Possible Adjustment to Per Share Consideration Paid. on page 21.

The actual value of Heritage common stock received will depend on the market price of Heritage common stock on the NASDAQ National Market at the time of the merger.

Table of Contents

WWB's Reasons for the Merger (see page 23).

In reaching its determination to approve the Merger Agreement, the WWB board of directors consulted with WWB's management and its financial and legal advisors, and considered a number of factors, including:

The value of the exchange ratio;

The dividends and liquidity available to WWB shareholders if they received Heritage stock in exchange for their shares of WWB stock;

The information presented by McAdams Wright Ragen, Inc. (MWRI) to the WWB board with respect to the merger and the opinion of MWRI that, as of the date of that opinion, the exchange ratio was fair to the holders of WWB common stock from a financial point of view (see "The Merger Opinion of WWB's Financial Advisor" on page 25);

The benefits to WWB and its customers of operating as a larger organization, including enhancements in products and services, higher lending limits, and greater financial resources;

The continued rapid consolidation in the financial services industry and competitive effects of the increased consolidation on smaller financial institutions such as WWB; and

The expected impact of the merger on the constituencies served by WWB, including its customers, depositors, employees and communities.

These factors and others are more fully discussed under the heading "The Merger Reasons of WWB for the Merger" beginning on page 23.

Certain Federal Income Tax Consequences (see page 29).

We expect to receive a tax opinion from tax counsel for Heritage opining that the merger will be treated as a reorganization for federal income tax purposes. If the merger is so treated, WWB shareholders generally will not recognize any gain or loss on the conversion of shares of WWB common stock into shares of Heritage common stock although the receipt of cash for WWB shares will be a taxable event. This tax treatment may not apply to some WWB shareholders. You should consult your own tax advisor for a full understanding of the merger's tax consequences to you.

The WWB Board of Directors Unanimously Recommends Shareholder Approval of the Merger (see page 23).

WWB's board of directors believes that the merger is in the best interests of the WWB shareholders and has unanimously approved the Merger Agreement. WWB's board of directors recommends that WWB shareholders vote FOR approval of the Merger Agreement.

WWB's Financial Advisor Says the Exchange Ratio is Fair, from a Financial Point of View, to WWB Shareholders (see page 25).

MWRI has served as financial advisor to WWB in connection with the merger and has given an opinion to WWB's board of directors that, as of January 24, 2006 (the date WWB's board of directors voted to approve the merger) and as of the date of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus, the exchange ratio that WWB shareholders will receive is fair to WWB shareholders from a financial point of view. A copy of the opinion delivered by MWRI is attached to this document as Appendix C. WWB shareholders should read the opinion carefully to understand the assumptions made, matters considered and limitations of the review undertaken by MWRI in providing its opinion.

Table of Contents

WWB's Officers and Directors Have Interests in the Merger that Are Different from or in Addition to Their Interests as Shareholders (see page 28).

In addition to their interests as shareholders, the directors and executive officers of WWB each have interests in the merger that are different from your interests, including stock options and certain other compensatory arrangements discussed under the heading Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger beginning on page 28 of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus. WWB's board of directors was aware of these interests and took them into account in its decision to approve the Merger Agreement.

As of the record date, the directors, executive officers and principal shareholders of WWB owned and are entitled to vote 47,389 shares of WWB common stock, which, when added to the 12,832 options owned by these WWB insiders, represents approximately 33% of the outstanding shares of WWB common stock.

The Merger Is Expected to Occur in the Second Quarter of 2006 (see page 22).

The merger is expected to occur as soon as practicable after all the conditions to its completion under the Merger Agreement have been satisfied or waived. Currently, we anticipate that the merger will occur in the second quarter of 2006. However, we cannot assure you when or if the merger will occur.

Completion of the Merger Is Subject to Satisfaction or Waiver of Certain Conditions (see page 32).

Completion of the merger is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of several conditions including, but not limited to:

compliance by WWB and WSB with Section 3.12 of the Merger Agreement prohibiting WSB, subsequent to the execution of the Merger Agreement, from making any new loan outside of its trade territory of King and Pierce Counties, Washington, extend credit or account for loans and leases other than in accordance with existing lending policies and accounting practices, or make any new loan, a loan extension or renewal in a principal amount which exceeds $250,000, other than in accordance with the loan reporting process agreed to by the Parties;

compliance by WWB with Section 6.2(L) of the Merger Agreement requiring that on the Effective Date WWB have no less than $3,609,000 in minimum consolidated equity capital;

receipt by Heritage of agreements from each affiliate of WWB relating to restrictions on disposition of Heritage shares received by such affiliates;

the number of shares of WWB common stock for which dissenters' rights of appraisal are perfected as of the effective date or payable in cash for fractional shares shall not exceed 15% of the outstanding shares;

compliance by WWB with Section 6.2(M) of the Merger Agreement requiring that prior to the Effective Date written confirmation be delivered to Heritage by WWB stating that WWB has redeemed and paid off its outstanding trust preferred securities and that all tax returns for the statutory trust have been filed with no further current or potential liability to Heritage;

compliance by WWB with Section 6.2(N) of the Merger Agreement requiring that prior to the Effective Date Heritage shall have received written agreement from the landlord of WWB's and WSB's main office building permitting Heritage to assume the existing lease and the existing extension (authorizing continued occupation through 2017) with no assumption fee;

Edgar Filing: HERITAGE FINANCIAL CORP /WA/ - Form 424B2

compliance by WWB with Section 6.2(O) of the Merger Agreement requiring that as of the effective date, WSB's lease on its second office site be terminated at no cost and with no penalty to Heritage or to WWB or WSB, the building at that site be removed from the books of WWB, WSB and Washington State Bank Real Estate Holdings, Inc. (Holdings) at a loss after tax not exceeding $101,640, and that the building is to be sold for cash with no financing provided by WWB or WSB;

Table of Contents

compliance by WWB with Section 6.2(P) of the Merger Agreement requiring that the cost of certain recommended improvements to the main office of WSB shall be borne by WSB, which costs shall not exceed $25,000;

receipt of noncompetition and nonsolicitation agreements from each director of WWB and WSB, and from its President and Chief Executive Officer, L. Anthony Tebeau;

approval of the Merger Agreement by shareholders holding two-thirds or more of the outstanding shares of WWB common stock;

approval of the merger by federal and state regulatory authorities;

the absence of any material adverse change in (i) the business, property, assets (including loan portfolios), liabilities, or financial or other condition of WWB or Heritage, or (ii) the ability of WWB or Heritage to complete the merger; and receipt by Heritage and WWB of legal and tax opinions.

We May Not Complete the Merger Without All Required Regulatory Approvals (see page 35).

The merger must be approved by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) and the Washington Department of Financial Institutions, and a waiver obtained from the Federal Reserve pursuant to its regulations. We filed the applications with the FDIC and the Department of Financial Institutions, seeking such approval on March 31, 2006, and will request the Federal Reserve's waiver upon obtaining FDIC approval. We expect to obtain all such regulatory approvals, although we cannot be certain if or when we will obtain them.

Termination of the Merger Agreement (see page 38).

Heritage and WWB can mutually agree to abandon the merger (and terminate the Merger Agreement) at any time prior to the time the merger is completed, even after shareholder approval. Also, either WWB or Heritage can decide, without the consent of the other, to abandon the merger in a number of situations, including:

The other party breaches a representation, warranty or covenant in the Merger Agreement, and the breach is not cured within 30 days following receipt by the breaching party of written notice of the breach (or the breach, by its nature, cannot be cured prior to the closing), provided that in the case of a representation or warranty, the breach would have a material adverse effect on the breaching party;

There has been a material adverse change in the business, property, liabilities, prospects, or condition (financial or otherwise) of the other party, or in its ability to complete the merger;

The merger has not been completed by June 30, 2006; or

A regulatory authority denies a necessary approval or issues an order preventing the merger.

Subject to certain conditions, WWB's board of directors may terminate the Merger Agreement if (i) WWB receives an unsolicited acquisition proposal from a third party that the WWB board determines in good faith, consistent with its fiduciary duties upon advice of its counsel, to be more favorable to WWB and its shareholders than the Heritage transaction, or (ii) its financial advisor, MWRI, withdraws its fairness opinion.

Edgar Filing: HERITAGE FINANCIAL CORP /WA/ - Form 424B2

Heritage may also terminate the Merger Agreement if, prior to the effective date of the merger, the average closing price of Heritage common stock during the 30 day trading period ending three trading days prior to the effective date of the merger is less than $19.00. See The Merger Termination of the Merger Agreement-General beginning on page 38.

Table of Contents

WWB and Heritage Must Pay a Termination Fee to the Other Party Under Certain Circumstances (see page 39).

Under the Merger Agreement, WWB must pay Heritage a termination fee of $500,000 if WWB terminates the Merger Agreement in order to accept a superior acquisition proposal. WWB would also have to pay the $500,000 termination fee if either:

WWB's board of directors fails to recommend approval of the transaction by its shareholders or MWRI withdraws its fairness opinion, the Merger Agreement is terminated and WWB enters into an acquisition agreement with a third party on or before June 30, 2007.

A third party makes an acquisition proposal with respect to WWB that is known to WWB and has been publicly announced or otherwise become public, and thereafter, both of the following occur:

(1) the Merger Agreement is terminated by WWB because WWB shareholders fail to approve the merger, and

(2) WWB consummates an acquisition agreement with a third party on or before June 30, 2007.

Heritage and WWB are required to pay a $500,000 termination fee to the other party if the merger is terminated because that party materially breaches the Merger Agreement or fails to timely perform its obligations under the Merger Agreement.

Effect of Merger on Rights of WWB Shareholders (see page 63).

The rights of WWB shareholders are governed by Washington law, as well as WWB's articles of incorporation and bylaws. After completion of the merger, the rights of the former WWB shareholders receiving Heritage common stock in the merger will still be governed by Washington law, but subject to Heritage's articles of incorporation and bylaws. Although Heritage's articles of incorporation and bylaws are similar in many ways to WWB's articles of incorporation and bylaws, there are some substantive and procedural differences that will affect the rights of WWB shareholders.

Dissenters' Rights of Shareholders (see page 36).

WWB shareholders have the right under Washington law to dissent from the merger, obtain an appraisal of the fair value of their WWB shares, and receive cash equal to the appraised fair value of their WWB shares instead of receiving the merger consideration. To exercise dissenters' rights, among other things, a WWB shareholder must (i) notify WWB prior to the vote of its shareholders on the transaction of the shareholder's intent to demand payment for the shareholder's shares, and (ii) not vote in favor of the Merger Agreement. Submitting a properly signed proxy card that is received prior to the vote at the special meeting (and is not properly revoked) that does not direct how the shares of WWB common stock represented by proxy are to be voted will constitute a vote in favor of the Merger Agreement and a waiver of such shareholder's statutory dissenters' rights. A shareholder electing to dissent from the merger must strictly comply with all procedures required under Washington law. These procedures are described more fully beginning on page 36 of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus, and a copy of the relevant Washington statutory provisions regarding dissenters' rights is included in this Proxy Statement/Prospectus as Appendix B.

Restrictions on the Ability to Sell Heritage Shares Received in the Merger (see page 40).

Unless you are considered to be an affiliate of WWB under federal securities laws, upon the effectiveness of the S-4 Registration Statement being filed by Heritage, the Heritage shares you receive in the merger will be freely transferable. If you are considered to be an affiliate, upon the effectiveness of the S-4 Registration Statement being filed by Heritage, you can sell the Heritage shares you receive in the merger only pursuant to a registration statement or an exemption from registration under the Securities Act of 1933 or as permitted under the rules of that Act (including rule 145). Generally, you are considered an affiliate if you are an executive officer, director or 10% shareholder of WWB. As a practical matter, the rules of the Securities Act would generally permit an affiliate to sell the Heritage shares received in the merger if the shares are sold through a broker or dealer. This Proxy Statement/Prospectus does not cover resales of Heritage common stock received in the merger by affiliates of WWB.

Treatment of WWB Stock Options (see page 22).

Upon closing of the merger, unexercised WWB options to purchase WWB common stock held by each employee and each director will be converted into a cash payment based on the exchange ratio of 1.2530 shares of Heritage common stock multiplied by the average closing price of Heritage common stock over the 30 day trading period ending three trading days prior to the effective date of the merger plus $20.36 in cash for each WWB option less the exercise price of the unexercised option. As of March 28, 2006, the 10% shareholders, executive officers and directors of WWB held options to acquire 12,832 shares of WWB common stock, all of which will be 100% vested and exercisable upon closing. If any of the outstanding options remain unexercised at closing, the options will be converted into a cash payment equal to the difference between the per share consideration and the exercise price of the outstanding options.

Share Information and Market Prices (see page 15).

The following table sets forth the closing sale price per share of Heritage common stock and the most recent sale price per share of WWB common stock known to the company, and the equivalent per share price for WWB common stock, as of January 24, 2006 (the last full trading day before the public announcement of the merger). The Equivalent Price Per Share column is calculated by valuing the Heritage common stock at $24.657 per share, and multiplying this value by the exchange ratio of Heritage shares being issued in the merger and adding the $20.36 cash per share being paid by Heritage for each outstanding WWB share.

	Heritage Common Stock	WWB Common Stock	Equivalent Price Per Share
January 24, 2006	$ 24.657	$ 23.00	$ 51.18

The market prices of Heritage common stock may fluctuate prior to the merger. You should obtain current market quotations for Heritage common stock.

Listing of Heritage Shares (see page 40)

The Heritage shares to be issued in the merger will be listed on the NASDAQ National Market and trade under the symbol HFWA .

Heritage to Use Purchase Method of Accounting (see page 40)

Heritage will account for the merger under the purchase method of accounting for business combinations under accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Accordingly, using the purchase method of accounting, the assets and liabilities of WWB will be recorded by Heritage at their respective fair values at the time of the merger. The excess of Heritage's purchase price over the net fair value of assets acquired including identifiable intangible assets, and liabilities assumed is recorded as goodwill. Intangible assets with definitive lives will be amortized, and intangible assets without definitive lives and goodwill must be tested for impairment periodically and such amortization and any impairment will be applied against the combined company's earnings following completion of the merger.

CAUTIONARY WARNING REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This document, including information included or incorporated by reference in this document may contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, (i) statements about the benefits of the merger, including future financial and operating results, cost savings, enhancements to revenue and accretion to reported earnings that may be realized from the merger; (ii) statements about our respective plans, objectives, expectations and intentions and other statements that are not historical facts; and (iii) other statements identified by words such as expects, anticipates, intends, plans, believes, seeks, estimates, or words of similar meaning. These forward-looking statements are based on current beliefs and expectations of management and are inherently subject to significant business, economic and competitive uncertainties and contingencies, many of which are beyond Heritage's and WWB's control. In addition, these forward-looking statements are subject to assumptions with respect to future business strategies and decisions that are subject to change.

The following factors, among others, could cause actual results to differ materially from the anticipated results or other expectations expressed in the forward-looking statements:

our businesses may not be combined successfully, or such combination may take longer to accomplish than expected;

the anticipated growth opportunities and cost savings from the merger may not be fully realized or may take longer to realize than expected;

operating costs, customer losses and business disruption following the merger, including adverse developments in relationships with employees, may be greater than expected;

adverse governmental or regulatory policies may be enacted;

the interest rate environment may change, causing margins to compress and adversely affecting net interest income;

the risks associated with continued diversification of assets and potential adverse changes in credit quality;

increased loan delinquency rates;

competition from other financial services companies in our markets; and the risk of an economic slowdown adversely affecting credit quality and loan originations.

Additional factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed in the forward-looking statements are discussed below under Risk Factors, and in Heritage's reports filed with the SEC.

All subsequent written and oral forward-looking statements concerning the proposed transaction or other matters attributable to Heritage or WWB or any person acting on behalf of Heritage or WWB are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements above. Neither Heritage nor WWB undertake any obligation to update any forward-looking statements to reflect circumstances or events that occur after the date the forward-looking statements are made.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information contained in or incorporated by reference into this document, including the matters addressed under the caption Cautionary Warning Regarding Forward-Looking Statements on page 11, you should consider the matters described below carefully in determining whether to approve the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

Because of the closing conditions in the Merger Agreement and the possibility that either WWB or Heritage may terminate the Merger Agreement in specific instances, there can be no assurance when or even if the merger will be completed.

The completion of the merger is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of a number of closing conditions, including, among others, that:

WWB obtain approval of the Merger Agreement by holders of two-thirds or more of the outstanding shares of WWB common stock as of the record date;

Representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement be true and correct as of the closing date to the extent that any inaccuracy would individually or in the aggregate have a material adverse effect on the party providing the representation;

During the period from the date of execution of the Merger Agreement through the effective date of the merger, no change relative to (i) the business, property, assets (including loan portfolios), liabilities, prospects, or financial or other condition of either party that is reasonably likely individually or in the aggregate to have a material adverse effect on such party, has occurred or been threatened other than transaction costs and certain occurrences that would affect the banking industry or businesses generally, as described in the Merger Agreement or (ii) the ability of either party to complete the merger;

There be no claim, action, investigation, or other proceeding pending or threatened which presents a substantial risk of restraining or prohibiting the merger or resulting in material damages or other relief;

There be no order, decree or injunction of any court or agency that prohibits completion of the merger;

The parties obtain all necessary regulatory consents and approvals; and Heritage and WWB have received an opinion from Gerrish McCreary Smith, PC, counsel to Heritage, that the merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Further, completion of the merger is subject to:

compliance by WWB and WSB with Section 3.12 of the Merger Agreement prohibiting WSB, subsequent to the execution of the Merger Agreement, from making any new loan outside of its trade territory of King and Pierce Counties, Washington, extend credit or account for loans and leases other than in accordance with existing lending policies and accounting practices, or make any new loan, a loan extension or renewal in a principal amount which exceeds $250,000, other than in accordance with the loan reporting process agreed to by the Parties;

compliance by WWB with Section 6.2(L) of the Merger Agreement requiring that on the Effective Date WWB have no less than $3,609,000 in minimum consolidated equity capital;

compliance by WWB with Section 6.2(M) of the Merger Agreement requiring that prior to the Effective Date written confirmation be delivered to Heritage by WWB stating that WWB has redeemed and paid off its outstanding trust preferred securities and that all tax returns for the statutory trust have been filed with no further current or potential liability to Heritage;

compliance by WWB with Section 6.2(N) of the Merger Agreement requiring that prior to the Effective Date Heritage shall have received written agreement from the landlord of WWB's and WSB's main office building permitting Heritage to assume the existing lease and the existing extension (authorizing continued occupation through 2017) with no assumption fee;

receipt of voting agreements from each director and executive officer of WWB;

compliance by WWB with Section 6.2(O) of the Merger Agreement requiring that as of the effective date, WSB's lease on its second office site be terminated at no cost and with no penalty to Heritage or to WWB or WSB, the building at that site be removed from the books of WWB, WSB and Washington State Bank Real Estate Holdings, Inc. (Holdings) at a loss after tax not exceeding $101,640, and that the building is to be sold for cash with no financing provided by WWB or WSB; and compliance by WWB with Section 6.2(P) of the Merger Agreement requiring that the cost of certain recommended improvements to the main office of WSB shall be borne by WSB, which costs shall not exceed $25,000.

There can be no assurance that the parties will be able to satisfy the closing conditions of the Merger Agreement or that closing conditions that are beyond their control, such as the absence of pending or threatened litigation or events that could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on their respective businesses, will be satisfied or waived. If WWB and Heritage are unable to satisfy all the conditions or such conditions are otherwise not satisfied, either party will not be required to complete the merger.

The Merger Agreement limits WWB's ability to pursue other transactions and provides for payment of termination fees if we do so.

While the Merger Agreement is in effect and subject to very narrow exceptions, WWB and its directors, officers and agents are prohibited from initiating or encouraging inquiries with respect to alternative acquisition proposals. The prohibition limits WWB's ability to seek offers that may be superior from a financial point of view from other possible acquirers. If WWB receives an unsolicited proposal from a third party that is superior from a financial point of view to that made by Heritage and the Merger Agreement is terminated, WWB would be required to pay a $500,000 termination fee. This fee makes it less likely that a third party will make an alternative acquisition proposal.

You cannot be sure of the value of the merger consideration that you will receive, because the market price of Heritage common stock may fluctuate.

Upon completion of the merger, each share of WWB common stock will be converted into merger consideration consisting of shares of Heritage common stock as provided in the Merger Agreement. The value of the merger consideration to be received by WWB shareholders will depend on the market price of Heritage common stock upon completion of the merger. This market price may vary from the price of Heritage common stock on the date the merger was announced, the date that this document is mailed to WWB shareholders, or the date of the special meeting of WWB shareholders. Stock price changes may result from a variety of factors, including general market and economic conditions, changes in our respective businesses, operations and prospects, and regulatory considerations. Many of these factors are beyond our control.

Accordingly, at the time of the WWB special meeting, you will not be able to determine the value of the shares of Heritage stock you would receive upon completion of the merger. We urge you to obtain current market quotations for Heritage common stock.

We may fail to achieve the revenue increases or realize the cost savings we estimate for the merger.

The success of the merger will depend, in part, on our ability to achieve the revenue increases and realize the estimated cost savings from combining the businesses of Heritage and WWB. Heritage's management originally estimated that approximately $900,000 of annual pre-tax (or $585,000 after-tax) cost savings would be realized from the merger in the first full year of operation. While we continue to be comfortable with these estimates as of the date of this document, it is possible that our estimates of the potential cost savings could turn out to be incorrect. Our cost savings estimates also depend on our ability to combine the businesses of Heritage and WWB in a manner that permits those cost savings to be realized. If our estimates turn out to be incorrect or we are not able to combine our two companies successfully, the anticipated cost savings may not be realized fully, or at all, or may take longer to realize than expected.

Combining our two companies may be more difficult, costly or time-consuming than we expect.

Heritage and WWB have operated and, until the completion of the merger, will continue to operate, independently. It is possible that the integration process could result in the loss of key employees, the disruption of each company's ongoing business or inconsistencies in standards, controls, procedures and policies that adversely affect our ability to maintain relationships with customers and employees or to achieve the anticipated benefits of the merger. As with any merger of banking institutions, there also may be disruptions that cause us to lose customers or cause customers to take their deposits out of our banks.

The market price of Heritage common stock may be affected by factors different from those affecting WWB common stock.

Upon completion of the merger, the holders of WWB common stock will become holders of Heritage common stock. Some of Heritage's current businesses and markets differ from those of WWB and, accordingly, the results of operations of Heritage after the merger may be affected by factors different from those currently affecting the results of operations of WWB. For a discussion of the businesses of Heritage and WWB and of certain factors to consider in connection with those businesses, see the documents incorporated by reference into this document and referred to under "Where You Can Find More Information," on page 68.

Future results of the combined companies may differ materially from the pro forma financial information presented in this document.

Future results of the combined company may be materially different from those shown in the unaudited pro forma selected combined per share financial information (see page 13). We have estimated that the combined company will record approximately $1.4 million pre-tax (or $900,000 after-tax) of merger-related expenses. Merger-related expenses consist of change in control, severance and other employee-related payments, investment banking, legal and accounting fees, and costs associated with data conversion. The charges may be higher or lower than we have estimated, depending upon how costly or difficult it is to integrate our two companies. Furthermore, those charges may decrease capital of the combined company that could be used for profitable, income-earning investments in the future. The changes and adjustments we estimate are described in the section entitled "Combined and Consolidated Historical and Pro Forma Per Share Financial Information" beginning on page 13.

Heritage has various anti-takeover measures that could impede a takeover of Heritage.

Heritage has various anti-takeover measures in place, some of which are listed below. Any one or more of these measures may impede the takeover of Heritage without the approval of Heritage's board of directors and may prevent you from taking part in a transaction in which you could realize a premium over the current market price of Heritage common stock. See "Comparison of Shareholders' Rights" on page 63. The anti-takeover measures include charter provisions providing for, among other things, a staggered board of directors; the removal of directors only for cause; and restrictions on the calling of special shareholder meetings, the nomination of directors and shareholder proposals.

THE SPECIAL MEETING

Place, Time and Date

WWB's special meeting of shareholders will be held on May 17, 2006, at 5:00 p.m., local time, at WWB's main office at 32303 Pacific Highway South, Federal Way, Washington 98003. This Proxy Statement/Prospectus is being sent to holders of WWB common stock and is accompanied by a form of proxy that is being solicited by the WWB board of directors for use at the special meeting and any adjournment or postponement thereof.

Purpose

The purpose of the special meeting is: (i) to consider and vote upon a proposal to approve the Merger Agreement described herein and (ii) if necessary, to consider and act upon a proposal to adjourn the meeting to another time and/or place for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies.

Record Date; Shares Entitled to Vote

The WWB board of directors has fixed the close of business on April 6, 2006 as the record date for determining shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the special meeting. Only those holders of WWB common stock of record on the record date will be entitled to notice of and to vote at the special meeting. Each share of WWB common stock will be entitled to one vote. At the record date, there were 170,058 shares of WWB common stock outstanding and entitled to be voted at the special meeting.

Vote Required

Approval of the Merger Agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of WWB common stock. A majority of the shares entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, will constitute a quorum of WWB shareholders at the special meeting. Valid proxies that are marked "Abstain," and proxies without instructions submitted by brokers that are the record owners of shares (so-called "broker non-votes"), will be considered present for purposes of determining whether a quorum exists. Abstentions and broker non-votes will have the same effect as votes cast against approval of the Merger Agreement.

As of March 28, 2006, the directors, executive officers and 10% shareholders of WWB owned and have the right to vote an aggregate of 65,340 shares of WWB common stock, which represents 34.42% (excluding 12,832 shares issuable upon the exercise of outstanding options) of the shares entitled to be voted at the special meeting. Each of the directors and executive officers of WWB has agreed to vote his or her shares for approval of the Merger Agreement.

Proxies

Holders of WWB common stock may vote either in person or by properly executed proxy. Shares of WWB common stock represented by a properly executed proxy received prior to or at the special meeting will, unless such proxy is revoked, be voted in accordance with the instructions indicated on such proxy. If no instructions are indicated on a properly executed proxy, the shares covered thereby will be voted FOR the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement. Failure to return the proxy or to vote in person at the special meeting will have the effect of a vote against the Merger Agreement. If any other matters are properly presented at the special meeting for consideration, including, among other things, a motion to adjourn the special meeting to another time and/or place (including, without limitation, for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies), the persons named in the proxy and acting thereunder will have discretion to vote on such matters in accordance with their best judgment; provided, however, that no proxy which is voted against the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement will be voted in favor of any such adjournment or postponement. As of the date hereof, the board of directors of WWB knows of no such other matters.

Table of Contents

Any proxy may be revoked by the record holder of the shares at any time before it is voted by delivering to the Corporate Secretary of WWB, on or before the taking of the vote at the special meeting, a written notice of revocation bearing a later date than the proxy or a later dated proxy relating to the same shares of WWB common stock, or by attending the special meeting and voting in person. Attendance at the special meeting will not in itself constitute revocation of a proxy. If your shares are held in street name, you must contact your broker if you wish to revoke your proxy or change your vote, and you will not be permitted to revoke your proxy at the meeting.

The proxies for the special meeting are being solicited on behalf of the board of directors of WWB. The expense of soliciting proxies for the special meeting will be borne by WWB. All other costs and expenses incurred in connection with the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby are to be paid by the party incurring such expenses. Proxies will be solicited principally by mail, but may also be solicited by the directors, officers and other employees of WWB in person or by telephone, facsimile or other means of communication. Directors, officers and employees will receive no compensation for these activities in addition to their regular compensation, but may be reimbursed for out-of-pocket expenses in connection with such solicitation. Brokers and others who hold WWB common stock on behalf of another will be asked to forward proxy material and related documents to the beneficial owners of such stock, and WWB will reimburse them for their expenses in doing so.

THE MERGER

The descriptions in this Proxy Statement/Prospectus of the terms and conditions of the merger and related transactions are qualified in their entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, a copy of which is attached as Appendix A to this Proxy Statement/Prospectus and is incorporated herein by reference.

Transaction Structure

The Merger Agreement provides for the merger of WWB with and into Heritage, in which WWB's shareholders will receive Heritage common stock and cash for their WWB common stock, as described below. The separate existence of WWB will cease upon completion of the merger. In addition, WSB will merge with and into Heritage Bank. After the merger, WSB's office will operate and be known as a branch of Heritage Bank.

The Heritage articles of incorporation will be the articles of incorporation of the combined company after completion of the merger, and the Heritage bylaws will be the bylaws of the combined company.

Exchange Ratio

The Merger Agreement provides that as of the effective date of the merger each share of WWB common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective date will be converted into 1.2530 shares of Heritage common stock and $20.36 in cash, pending certain potential adjustments pursuant to Section 1.3(B) of the Merger Agreement. In addition, WWB shareholders will received consideration equal to $0.50 per share (which may be paid in cash, stock or a combination thereof at the election of Heritage) as the result of an adjustment pursuant to Section 1.3(C) of the Merger Agreement. In our discussion we refer to the number of shares of Heritage common stock and the cash to be received for each share of WWB common stock being converted into Heritage stock as the exchange ratio .

It is anticipated that Heritage will issue approximately 213,083 shares of Heritage common stock and $3,408,101 in cash (subject to adjustment if the average closing price is less than $21.25) to WWB shareholders in the merger in exchange for all the shares of WWB common stock outstanding as of January 24, 2006, the date of the Merger Agreement. With respect to shares of WWB common stock issued after January 24, 2006, upon exercise of outstanding stock options, Heritage will issue cash payments equal to the difference between the implied value of each share of WWB common stock and the exercise price of the outstanding options. See Exercised WWB Options and Treatment of Unexercised Options above.

The value of the shares of Heritage common stock to be exchanged for each share of WWB common stock may fluctuate during the period up to and including the completion of the merger. Based on the closing price of Heritage common stock on March 23, 2006, the trading day prior to the announcement of the proposed merger, WWB shares of common stock had an implied value of approximately $51.18 per share. Based on the $28.21 closing price of Heritage common stock on April 7, 2006, WWB shares of common stock had an implied value of approximately $55.71 per share. In addition, WWB shareholders will receive consideration equal to $0.50 per share (which may be paid in cash, stock or a combination thereof at the election of Heritage) as the result of an adjustment pursuant to Section 1.3(C) of the Merger Agreement.

No assurance can be given that the current fair market value of Heritage common stock will be equivalent to the fair market value of Heritage common stock on the date that stock is received by a WWB shareholder or at any other time. The fair market value of Heritage common stock received by a WWB shareholder may be greater or less than the current fair market value of Heritage common stock due to numerous market factors.

Possible Adjustment to Per Share Consideration Paid.

In the event that Heritage's average closing price over the 30 day trading period ending three trading days prior to the effective date of the merger is less than $21.25 but greater than $18.99, then the aggregate consideration that Heritage will pay shall be increased by an amount representing 75% of the difference between $21.25 per share and the average closing price multiplied by the total number of Heritage shares to be issued. See Termination of the Merger Agreement.

Heritage may terminate the Merger Agreement if, prior to the effective date of the merger, the average closing price of Heritage common stock for the 30 trading days ending on the third trading day immediately prior to the effective date of the merger (the average closing price) is less than $19.00 unless Heritage agrees to increase the merger consideration (in shares of Heritage stock or cash) by 50% of the difference between $19.00 and the average closing price, multiplied by the total number of Heritage shares to be issued. See Termination of the Merger Agreement.

If, between the date of the Merger Agreement and the effective date of the merger, the shares of Heritage common stock are changed into a different number or class of shares by reason of reclassification, split-up, combination, exchange of shares or readjustment, or a stock dividend is declared with a record date within that period, appropriate adjustments will be made to the exchange ratio.

No fractional shares of Heritage common stock will be issued to any holder of WWB common stock in the merger. For each fractional share that would otherwise be issued, Heritage will pay cash in an amount equal to the fraction multiplied by the average of the closing sale prices of Heritage common stock on the NASDAQ National Market for the 30 trading days ending on the third trading day immediately prior to the effective date of the merger. No interest will be paid or accrued on cash payable in lieu of fractional shares of Heritage common stock.

Letter of Transmittal.

Soon after the completion of the merger, Heritage will send a letter of transmittal to each person who was a WWB shareholder at the effective time of the merger. This mailing will contain instructions on how to surrender shares of WWB common stock in exchange for the Heritage shares the holder is entitled to receive under the Merger Agreement based on the exchange ratio.

All shares of Heritage common stock issued to the holders of WWB common stock pursuant to the merger will be deemed issued as of the effective date. Until you surrender your WWB stock certificates for exchange, you will accrue, but will not be paid, any dividends or other distributions declared after the effective date with respect to Heritage common stock into which any of your shares may have been converted. When you surrender your certificates, Heritage also will pay you $20.36 for each of your shares of WWB stock, any unpaid dividends or other distributions, as well as any cash for fractional shares, without interest. After the effective date, there will be no transfers on the stock transfer books of WWB of any shares of WWB common stock. If certificates representing shares of WWB common stock are presented for transfer after the completion of the merger, they will be cancelled and exchanged for the merger consideration into which the shares of WWB common stock represented by those certificates shall have been converted.

If a certificate for WWB common stock has been lost, stolen or destroyed, Heritage will issue the consideration properly payable under the Merger Agreement upon receipt of appropriate evidence as to that loss, theft or destruction, appropriate evidence as to the ownership of that certificate by the claimant, bond or indemnity satisfactory to Heritage, and appropriate and customary identification.

Exercised WWB Options

WWB had employee and director stock options outstanding for 12,832 shares of WWB common stock, as of March 28, 2006. All 12,832 options will be automatically 100% vested and exercisable upon the completion of the merger. Any WWB shares issued with respect to any WWB options exercised prior to closing will receive 1.2530 shares of Heritage stock and $20.36 in cash for each share of WWB stock that they own, in addition to consideration equal to $0.50 per share as the result of an adjustment pursuant to Section 1.3(C) of the Merger Agreement. This $0.50 per share of additional consideration may be paid by Heritage in cash, stock or a combination thereof.

Treatment Of Unexercised Options

Each outstanding option to acquire WWB common stock granted under WWB's stock option plans will be converted automatically at the effective date of the merger into the right to receive cash in the amount of the per share consideration less the exercise price of the option.

See "Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger - Stock Options" at page 28, for information about the exercise prices, and implied values resulting from the merger, of options and warrants held by the directors and executive officers of WWB.

Effective Date of the Merger

Subject to the conditions to the obligations of the parties to complete the merger as set forth in the Merger Agreement, the effective date of the merger will occur as soon as practicable after such conditions have been satisfied or waived. Subject to the foregoing, it is currently anticipated that the merger will be consummated in June of 2006. Either Heritage or WWB may, subject to certain conditions, terminate the Merger Agreement if the effective date does not occur on or before June 30, 2006.

Background of the Merger

WSB was organized in 1992 as a Washington state-chartered bank headquartered in Federal Way, Washington. WWB was formed in 1992. From its inception, WWB and WSB have sought to differentiate themselves from its larger competitors by emphasizing timely, local decision-making and by providing the highest level of personal banking service.

In October 2005, the board of directors retained MWRI to serve as its financial advisor in the sale of WWB. In reply to questions from some of the WWB directors, MWRI recommended that WWB seek expressions of interest from a select list of potential acquirers, including community and regional banks and thrifts. After discussion, the board of directors authorized MWRI to approach 18 potential acquirers and solicit written expressions of their interest in acquiring WWB with a proposed price range and structure.

MWRI contacted these parties about their interest in a possible business combination without identification of WWB. Each party was asked to execute a confidentiality agreement to permit the sharing of identity of WWB and nonpublic information on WWB. 12 parties executed confidentiality agreements in October-November 2005.

On November 18, 2005, Heritage and one other party submitted significant, nonbinding indications of interest to MWRI. The WWB board held a special meeting on November 21, 2005 to review the nonbinding indications of interest. Following extensive discussion among the directors concerning the potential advantages and risks of the proposed business combination, the Board unanimously authorized management to move forward with negotiations and due diligence regarding the two offers. Revised proposals were made and discussed by the WWB at a special meeting on November 30, 2005. The decision was made to pursue further the Heritage proposal exclusively.

Following due diligence of WWB by Heritage on December 10, 2005 and of Heritage by WWB and MWRI on December 20, 2005, the parties continued arm's length negotiations regarding the consideration to be received by WWB shareholders in the merger, and other issues raised by the proposed transaction.

During the period from December 20, 2005 to January 24, 2006, counsel for WWB and Heritage negotiated the precise wording of the terms of the Merger Agreement, the directors' voting and noncompete agreements, and other ancillary documents in light of the parties' negotiations. All substantive issues regarding the business combination transaction were resolved by January 20, 2006, and draft disclosure schedules were exchanged by the parties on that date.

On January 24, 2006, the WWB board held a special meeting to review the definitive Merger Agreement and the fairness opinion delivered by MWRI. Mr. Tebeau, legal counsel, and a representative of MWRI again reviewed the reasons for and the potential benefits of the business combination with Heritage, the MWRI representative made a presentation regarding the financial terms of the transaction and the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be paid by Heritage in the merger to the shareholders of WWB, and management updated the directors regarding the merger timeline and communication plan. After discussion and detailed consideration of the Merger Agreement and of the factors discussed below under "Reasons of WWB for the Merger," the WWB directors, all of whom were present, unanimously approved and authorized the execution of the Merger Agreement. The Merger Agreement was executed and a press release was issued on January 25, 2006.

Reasons of WWB for the Merger

The WWB Board of Directors believes the merger is in the best interests of WWB and the WWB shareholders. The WWB Board unanimously recommends that WWB shareholders vote for the approval of the Merger Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated by that agreement.

In reaching its determination to adopt the Merger Agreement, the Board consulted with WWB's management and its financial and legal advisors, and considered a number of factors. Following is a description of each of the material factors that the WWB board believes favor the merger:

the WWB Board's assessment, based in part on presentations by MWRI, WWB's financial advisor, and its management and the results of the due diligence investigation of Heritage conducted by WWB's management and financial and legal advisors, of the business, operations, capital level, asset quality, financial condition and earnings of Heritage on an historical and a prospective basis, and of the combined company on a pro forma basis including anticipated cost savings;

the WWB Board's knowledge of Heritage's business, operations, financial condition, earnings, asset quality and prospects;

the financial and growth prospects for WWB and its shareholders of a business combination with Heritage as compared to continuing to operate as a stand-alone entity;

the information presented by MWRI to the WWB Board with respect to the merger and the opinion of MWRI that, as of the date of that opinion, the merger consideration was fair to the holders of WWB common stock from a financial point of view (see "Opinion of WWB's Financial Advisor" on page 25);

the benefits to WWB and its customers of operating as a larger organization, including enhancements in products and services, higher lending limits, and greater financial resources;

the WWB board's belief that the two companies share a common vision of the importance of customer service and local decision-making and that management and employees of WWB and Heritage possess complementary skills and expertise;

the current and prospective economic and competitive environment facing the financial services industry generally, and WWB in particular, including the continued rapid consolidation in the financial services industry and the competitive effects of the increased consolidation on smaller financial institutions such as WWB;

the increasing importance of operational scale and financial resources in maintaining efficiency and remaining competitive over the long term and in being able to capitalize on technological developments which significantly impact industry competitive conditions;

the expected social and economic impact of the merger on the constituencies served by WWB, including its borrowers, customers, depositors, employees, suppliers and communities;

the employee and severance benefits to be provided to WWB employees and career opportunities in a larger organization;

the fact that Heritage has existing resources to fund the cash portion of the merger consideration; and the WWB Board's assessment, with the assistance of counsel, concerning the likelihood that Heritage would obtain all regulatory approvals required for the merger.

In the course of its deliberations regarding the merger, the WWB Board also considered the following information that the WWB board determined did not outweigh the benefits to WWB and its shareholders expected to be generated by the merger:

the federal income tax consequences to WWB shareholders who receive cash in exchange for their shares of WWB common stock in the merger;

that the directors and officers of WWB have interests in the merger in addition to their interests generally as WWB shareholders (see "Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger" on page 28); and the effect of the termination fee in favor of Heritage and recognizing that the termination fee was a condition to Heritage's willingness to enter into the Merger Agreement.

Edgar Filing: HERITAGE FINANCIAL CORP /WA/ - Form 424B2

The foregoing discussion of the information considered by the WWB board is not intended to be exhaustive but includes all of the material factors considered by the WWB board. In the course of its deliberations with respect to the merger, the WWB board discussed the anticipated impact of the merger on WWB, its shareholders, and its various other constituencies, and determined that the benefits to WWB and its constituencies expected to result from the merger would likely outweigh any disadvantages identified during the board's deliberations. In reaching its determination to approve and recommend the merger, the WWB board did not assign any relative or specific weights to the factors considered in reaching that determination, and individual directors may have given differing weights to different factors.

Reasons of Heritage for the Merger

The merger with WWB will allow Heritage to expand its commercial banking franchise into the fast-growing King County market. This is consistent with Heritage's strategy to expand into areas contiguous with its

Table of Contents

South Puget Sound locations. See Businesses of the Parties to the Merger Heritage Business Strategy at page 42. Heritage and WWB share similar customer banking strategies and philosophies and have compatible deposit and loan products.

In approving the Merger Agreement, Heritage's board of directors also considered, among other things:

the attractiveness of the Federal Way and King County market areas;

the expectation that the transaction will be accretive to Heritage's earnings per share for 2007;

information concerning the financial performance and condition, business operations, capital level and asset quality of WWB and projected results and prospects of Heritage and WWB on a combined basis, including anticipated revenue increases and cost savings;

the terms of the Merger Agreement, including the mutual covenants and conditions and the circumstances under which Heritage would receive or pay a termination fee; and the likelihood of obtaining the regulatory approvals required to consummate the merger.

Opinion of WWB's Financial Advisor

MWRI has delivered a written opinion to the WWB Board to the effect that, as of the date of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus, the Consideration to be received by WWB common stockholders pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement is fair to the WWB stockholders from a financial point of view. Heritage and WWB determined the exchange ratio of 1.2530 shares of Heritage common stock and cash of $20.36 for each WWB share through negotiations. The MWRI Opinion is directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Consideration to be received and does not constitute a recommendation to any WWB stockholder as to how such shareholder should vote at the Special Meeting. As negotiated, a $24.3740 Heritage stock price was used to calculate the purchase price per share of approximately $50.90 per share (adjusted to $51.40 per share as the result of an adjustment pursuant to Section 1.3(C) of the Merger Agreement).

WWB retained MWRI as its exclusive financial advisor pursuant to an engagement letter dated October 13, 2005 in connection with the Merger. MWRI is a regionally recognized investment banking firm that is regularly engaged in the valuation of businesses and securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions. The WWB Board selected MWRI to act as WWB's exclusive financial advisor based on MWRI's experience in mergers and acquisitions and in securities valuation generally.

On January 24, 2006, MWRI issued its Opinion to the WWB Board that, in its opinion as investment bankers, the terms of the Merger as provided in the Merger Agreement are fair, from a financial view point, to WWB and its shareholders. The full text of the MWRI Opinion, which sets forth the assumptions made, matters considered, and limits on its review, is attached hereto as Appendix C. The summary of the MWRI Opinion in this Proxy Statement/Prospectus is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of such opinion. WWB SHAREHOLDERS ARE URGED TO READ THE ENTIRE MWRI OPINION.

In rendering its opinion to WWB, MWRI reviewed, among other things, historical financial data of Heritage, certain internal financial data and assumptions of Heritage prepared for financial planning and budgeting purposes furnished by the management of Heritage and, to the extent publicly available, the financial terms of certain change of control transactions involving Northwest community banks. MWRI discussed with the management of Heritage the financial condition, current operating results, and business outlook for Heritage. MWRI also reviewed certain publicly available information concerning WWB and certain financial and securities data of WWB. MWRI discussed with WWB's management the financial condition, the current operating results, and business outlook for WWB and WWB's plans relating to Heritage. In rendering its opinion, MWRI relied, without independent verification, on the accuracy and completeness of all financial and other information reviewed by it and did not attempt to verify or to make any independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets of Heritage or WWB nor was it furnished any such appraisals. WWB did not impose any limitations on the scope of the MWRI investigation in arriving at its opinion.

MWRI analyzed the total Purchase Price on a fair market value basis using standard evaluation techniques (as discussed below) including the market approach (or comparable merger multiples), the income approach (or net present value analysis), relative contribution analysis, earnings per share accretion analysis and the cost approach (or net asset value analysis) based on certain assumption of projected growth of earnings and dividends and a range of discount rates from 16% to 18%.

The Cost Approach is the net asset value or the net equity of a bank, including adjustments for every kind of property on the balance sheet that can be valued. This approach normally assumes the liquidation on the date of appraisal with the recognition of the investment securities gains or losses, real estate appreciation or depreciation, adjustments to the loan loss reserve, discounts to the loan portfolio and changes in the net value of other assets. As such, it is not the best evaluation approach when valuing a going concern because it is based on historical costs and varying accounting methods. Even if the assets and liabilities are adjusted to reflect prevailing market prices and yields (which is often of limited accuracy due to the lack of readily available data), it still results in a liquidation value. In addition, since this approach fails to account for the values attributable to the going concern such as the interrelationship among WWB's assets and liabilities, customer relations, market presence, image and reputation, staff expertise and depth, little weight is given by MWRI to the net asset value approach to valuation.

Market Value is generally defined as the price, established on an arms-length basis, at which knowledgeable, unrelated buyers and sellers would agree. The hypothetical market value for a bank with a thin market for its common stock is normally determined by comparable change of control transactions using financial ratios such as the average price to stockholders equity, price to earnings, and price to total assets, adjusting for significant differences in financial performance criteria and for any lack of marketability or liquidity of the buyer. The market value in connection with the evaluation of control of a bank is determined by previous sales of small banks in the state or region. In valuing a business enterprise, when sufficient comparable trade data are available, the market value approach deserves greater weighting than the net asset value approach and similar weight as the investment value approach as discussed below.

MWRI maintains a comprehensive database concerning prices paid for banking institutions in the Northwest, particularly Washington, Idaho, Montana and Oregon banking institutions, during 1998 through 2006. This database provides comparable pricing and financial performance data for banking institutions sold or acquired. Organized by different peer groups, these data present medians of financial performance and purchase price levels, thereby facilitating a valid comparative purchase price analysis. In analyzing the transaction value of WWB, MWRI has considered the market approach and has evaluated price to stockholders' equity and price to earnings multiples and the price to total assets percentage for three samples; sample one is twenty-nine Washington, Idaho, Montana and Oregon bank transactions occurring in 2002-2005, and sample two is twenty-three Western Washington and Western Oregon transactions with banks having total assets less than $500 million that sold from January 1, 1998 to October 15, 2003 segregated by form of consideration. Although MWRI also tested a sample of 45 bank transactions occurring in 1998-2005, these results are not presented since the results reflect the higher level of merger prices in 1998. Sample three is thirty banks from across the United States with total assets between $50 million and $150 million that announced mergers in the period of July 1, 2005 through December 31, 2005.

Comparable Sales Multiples. MWRI calculated the estimated purchase price per share for these three samples for each ratio using the appropriate WWB financial data for the expected Effective Date. This simplification enables direct comparisons between the proposed WWB-Heritage transaction and the results of the three samples. Then the $50.90 price per share for the proposed WWB-HERITAGE transaction is compared to these estimated purchase prices per share for the three samples. The results are shown below:

Sample One- 29 Transactions		Sample Two-23 Transactions
Financial Ratio	Price per share	Financial Ratio	Price per share
Price to Book Value	$46.82	Price to Book Value	$46.14
Price to Earnings	$75.73	Price to Earnings	$76.92
Price to Total Assets	$67.09	Price to Total Assets	$78.73

Table of ContentsSample Three-30 Transactions

Financial Ratio	Price per share
Price to Book Value	$43.42
Price to Earnings	$85.85
Price to Total Assets	$69.20

The results for sample one reflect data on all Northwest-based bank and thrift transactions for 2002-2005. The proposed purchase price of $50.90 is above the price to book value and below the price to earnings ratio per share and price to total assets ratio. Perhaps, a better comparison is sample two with bank mergers involving banks in Western Washington and Western Oregon. The proposed $50.90 purchase price compares favorably only for the price to book value results. The price to book value ratio provided price per share results that are above $50.90. Similar to samples one and two, the results for sample three show that the proposed purchase price of $50.90 per share was above the price for the book value and below the price to earnings and total assets ratios.

Relative Contribution Analysis involves certain historical and estimated financial information for WWB and Heritage and the pro forma combined entity resulting from this transaction. The following table shows the percentage contributions of each company to the indicated values to the combined company.

Percentage of Combined	Heritage	WWB
Trailing 12 Months Net Income	92.3%	7.7%
Total Assets at 9-30-05	92.7%	7.3%
Total Deposits at 9-30-05	92.9%	7.1%
Stockholders' Equity at 9-30-05	94.7%	5.3%

The proposed transaction has WWB shareholders receiving 5.5% of Heritage's market capitalization at closing. The percentage of stockholders' equity of 5.3% compares favorably with 5.3% and offsets the higher net income percentage of 7.7%. Also, the net income for WWB was $207,117 in 2004, significantly lower than the trailing 12 months level. Using the 5.3% to calculate a price per share value for WWB, the value is $48.59 per share, a price that is lower than the $50.90 that Heritage is offering WWB shareholders.

Earnings Per Share Accretion Analysis is the review of earnings per share calculations for the first year after the closing of the merger. Using the 2006 calculations for WWB and Heritage, estimates of the revenue enhancement and cost reductions that can reasonably be attained, information all provided by the management of WWB and Heritage, the comparison of stand-alone earnings per share and adjusted earnings per share shows that the adjusted earnings per share is $.06 to $.09 higher than the expected earnings per share depending upon the assumptions made. A calculation of 4% accretion to earnings per share yields a total amount of $8,277,612 (or a price per share of $46.78).

The Income Approach is sometimes referred to as the net present value or earnings analysis. One investment value method frequently used estimates the present value of an institution's future earnings or cash flow that is discussed below.

Net Present Value Analysis. The investment or earnings value of any banking organization's stock is an estimate of the present value of future benefits, usually earnings, dividends, or cash flow, which will accrue to the stock. An earnings value is calculated using an annual future earnings stream over a period of time of not less than five years and the residual or terminal value of the earnings stream after five years, using WWB's estimates of future growth and an appropriate capitalization or discount rate. MWRI's calculations were based on an analysis of the banking industry, WWB's earnings estimates for 2006-2010, historical levels of growth and earnings, and the competitive situation in the market area of WWB. Using discount rates of 18% and 16%, acceptable discount rates considering the risk-return relationship most investors would demand for an investment of this type as of the valuation date, the Net Present Value of Future Earnings provided a range of $47.66 to $51.11 per share, which compares favorably with $50.90.

Table of Contents

When the cost, market value, relative contribution, earnings per share accretion and income approaches are subjectively weighed, using the appraiser's experience and judgment, it is MWRI's opinion that the proposed transaction is fair, from a financial point of view to the WWB shareholders.

Pursuant to the terms of the Engagement Letter, WWB has agreed to pay MWRI a fee of $25,000 for this fairness opinion and a completion fee that is contingent on the value of the Heritage stock price, $98,898 if calculated on January 24, 2006, for other financial advisory services. During the two years preceding the date of the Engagement Letter, MWRI had no other contractual relationships with WWB or Heritage. In addition, WWB has agreed to reimburse MWRI for its reasonable out-of-pocket expenses, including the fees and disbursements of its counsel, and to indemnify MWRI against certain liabilities.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Mergers

Stock Ownership. The directors, executive officers and 10% shareholders of WWB, together with their affiliates, beneficially owned (including their outstanding options to purchase, in the aggregate, 12,832 shares of common stock), as of the record date for the special meeting, a total of 65,340 shares of WWB common stock, representing 43% of all outstanding shares of WWB common stock and options to purchase WWB common stock. The options to purchase the 12,832 are immediately exercisable on the effective date of the merger. The directors, executive officers and affiliates of WWB will receive the same consideration in the merger for their shares as the other shareholders of WWB, plus cash with respect to their options. None of the directors or executive officers of WWB has indicated that he or she has any plans to exercise his or her options prior to the completion of the merger. Various members of WWB's management and the WWB board have other interests in the merger, as described below, that are in addition to their interests as WWB shareholders. The WWB board is aware of those interests and considered them, among other matters, in approving the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

Stock Options. On the effective date of the merger, WWB options to purchase WWB common stock will be converted into a cash payment equal to the difference between the per share consideration (as defined in the Merger Agreement) and the exercise price of the option. As of the date of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus, the officers and other employees of WWB held options to acquire a total of 7,500 shares of WWB common stock and the non-employee directors of WWB held options acquire a total of 5,332 shares of WWB common stock. All the WWB options will be immediately and fully exercisable as a result of the merger.

WWB Change in Control Obligations. WWB is a party to employment agreements with its President and Chief Executive Officer, L. Anthony Tebeau, which generally provides for change of control payments equal to Mr. Tebeau's current salary for 24 months from the date of the change in control in the event Mr. Tebeau is not the President and Chief Executive Officer of the surviving entity. Paula A. Vinson, Chief Financial Officer and Charles R. Perry, Lending Officer also have employment agreements with WWB. Ms. Vinson's agreement provides that in the event of a change in control, Ms. Vinson's term of employment shall not be less than two years after the Effective Date of the transaction. Mr. Perry's agreement provides that in the event of a change in control, Mr. Perry's term of employment shall not be less than six months after the Effective Date of the transaction. Heritage currently proposes to employ Ms. Vinson and Mr. Perry for the periods specified in their employment agreements. Therefore, the estimated aggregate cash payment upon completion of the merger is approximately $236,500, which shall be paid in satisfaction of the change in control provisions in Mr. Tebeau's employment agreement. If Ms. Vinson is not employed by Heritage for a period of two years following the merger, she would be entitled to be paid by Heritage in a lump sum an amount equal to $7,850 times the number of months she was employed by Heritage less than 24 months. If Mr. Perry is not employed by Heritage for a period of six months following the merger, he would be entitled to be paid by Heritage in a lump sum an amount equal to $7,500 times the number of months he was employed by Heritage less than six months.

Table of Contents

Heritage also has entered into agreements with the directors of WWB providing that the directors will not, directly or indirectly, become interested in, as a promoter, principal shareholder, director or officer of, any financial institution that competes or will compete with Heritage or any of its subsidiaries or their affiliates within Pierce County, Thurston County or King County in the State of Washington for a period of two years after the Effective Date. The agreements also provide that during this two year period, the directors will not solicit employees or customers of WWB or Heritage, or any of their subsidiaries.

Heritage does not intend to enter into any written employment, severance, change of control or similar agreements with the executive officers or directors of WWB.

Insurance. WWB has agreed to cause the persons serving as officers and directors of WWB immediately prior to the effective date of the merger to be covered by the current policies of the directors and officers liability insurance maintained by WWB for a period of three years after the effective date of the merger with respect to acts or omissions of officers and directors, in their capacity as such, occurring on or prior to the effective date.

Certain Federal Income Tax Consequences

The following is a discussion of the material federal income tax consequences of the merger that are generally applicable to holders of WWB common stock who are citizens of, reside in or are organized under the laws of the United States. This discussion is based on currently existing provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), existing regulations thereunder (including final, temporary or proposed) and current administrative rulings and court decisions, all of which are subject to change. Any such change, which may or may not be retroactive, could alter the tax consequences described herein. The following discussion is intended only as a general summary of the material federal income tax consequences of the merger and is not a complete analysis or listing of all potential tax effects relevant to a decision on whether to vote in favor of approval of the Merger Agreement.

This discussion assumes that the WWB shareholders hold their shares of WWB common stock as a capital asset within the meaning of section 1221 of the Code. Further, the discussion does not address all aspects of federal income taxation that may be relevant to WWB shareholders in light of their particular circumstances or that may be applicable to them if they are subject to special treatment under the Code, including, without limitation, shareholders who are:

financial institutions, mutual funds or insurance companies;

tax-exempt organizations;

S corporations or other pass-through entities;

WWB shareholders whose shares are qualified small business stock for purposes of section 1202 of the Code or who may otherwise be subject to the alternative minimum tax provisions of the Code; or

WWB shareholders who received their WWB common stock through the exercise of employee stock options or otherwise as compensation or through a tax-qualified retirement plan.

Consummation of the merger is conditioned upon the receipt by WWB of the opinion of Gerrish McCreary Smith, PC counsel to Heritage, dated as of the effective date of the merger, substantially to the effect that, on the basis of facts, representations and assumptions set forth or referred to in the opinion, which are consistent with the state of facts existing as of the effective date of the merger, the merger will be treated for United States federal income tax purposes as a reorganization within the meaning of section 368(a) of the Code. The tax opinions to be delivered in connection with the merger are not binding on the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) or the courts, and neither WWB nor Heritage intends to request a ruling from the IRS with respect to the United States federal income tax consequences of the merger.

Assuming the facts as set forth in the opinion referred to above occur, the United States federal income tax consequences of the merger to a holder generally will be to the following effect:

the merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code,

Table of Contents

no gain or loss will be recognized by Heritage or WWB by reason of the merger, each shareholder of WWB will recognize gain, but not loss, in an amount equal to the lesser of:

the excess, if any, of the sum of the fair market value of the Heritage common stock and the amount of cash (excluding any cash in lieu of fractional shares) received by the shareholder in exchange for shares of WWB common stock over the shareholder's basis in the WWB common stock, and the amount of cash (excluding any cash in lieu of fractional shares) received by the shareholder in exchange for shares of WWB common stock, the basis in the Heritage common stock to be received by a WWB shareholder (including fractional shares deemed received and resold) will be the same as the basis in the WWB common stock surrendered in the exchange for Heritage shares, decreased by the amount of cash received (excluding any cash received in lieu of fractional shares) and increased by the amount of gain recognized, if any, as a result of the merger (but excluding any gain or loss from the deemed receipt and sale of fractional shares).

if WWB common stock is a capital asset in the hands of the shareholder at the time of the merger, the holding period of the Heritage shares received by the WWB shareholder in the merger will include the holding period of the shares of WWB common stock surrendered in exchange for the Heritage shares.

the receipt of cash in lieu of a fractional share of Heritage common stock will be treated as if the fractional Heritage share was distributed as part of the exchange to the WWB shareholder and then redeemed by Heritage, resulting in gain or loss measured by the difference, if any, between the amount of cash received for the fractional share and the shareholder's tax basis in the fractional share.

Assuming that the merger is a reorganization, neither Heritage nor WWB will recognize gain or loss as a result of the merger. The following discussion of U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to WWB shareholders assumes that the merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

Exchange of WWB Shares for Heritage Shares and Cash. If a WWB shareholder's adjusted basis in his or her WWB shares is less than the fair market value, as of the date of the merger, of the shares of Heritage common stock and cash received by the shareholder, then the shareholder will recognize a gain. This recognized gain will be equal to the lesser of:

the excess, if any, of the fair market value, as of the date of the merger, of the Heritage shares and cash received, other than cash received in lieu of fractional shares, over the adjusted basis of the WWB shares surrendered in the exchange, and the amount of cash received in the exchange, other than cash received in lieu of fractional shares.

If, however, a WWB shareholder's adjusted basis in the shares of WWB common stock surrendered in the Merger is more than the fair market value of the Heritage shares and cash received, then the WWB shareholder's loss will not be currently allowed or recognized for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

In the case of a shareholder who recognizes gain on the exchange, if the exchange does not have the effect of a distribution of a dividend (as discussed below) and the shares of WWB common stock exchanged were held as capital assets by the WWB shareholder, the gain will be characterized as a capital gain. If the exchange does have the effect of a distribution of a dividend, the gain will be taxable as ordinary income (unless the gain is qualified dividend income within the meaning of Section 1(h)(11) of the Code entitled to capital gains treatment) to the extent of the shareholder's ratable share of available earnings and profits. The remainder, if any, of the recognized gain will be capital gain if the WWB shares exchanged were held as capital assets by the WWB shareholder.

Edgar Filing: HERITAGE FINANCIAL CORP /WA/ - Form 424B2

The determination of whether the exchange has the effect of the distribution of a dividend is based on a comparison of the WWB shareholder's proportionate interest in Heritage after the merger with the proportionate interest the shareholder would have had if the shareholder had received solely Heritage common stock in the merger. For purposes of this comparison, the WWB shareholder may be deemed to constructively own shares of Heritage common stock held by certain members of his or her family or certain entities in which he or she has an ownership or beneficial interest and certain stock options may be aggregated with the shareholder's shares of Heritage common stock. Dividend treatment will apply unless the shareholder's interest has been sufficiently reduced. While the determination is based on a WWB shareholder's particular facts and circumstances, the IRS has indicated in published rulings that a distribution that results in any actual reduction in interest of an extremely small minority shareholder in a publicly held corporation will meaningfully reduce the shareholder's interest in the corporation, and, therefore, will result in capital gain treatment for shareholders who hold the shares as capital assets if the shareholder exercises no control with respect to corporate affairs.

Because the determination of whether a payment will be treated as having the effect of the distribution of a dividend will generally depend upon the facts and circumstances of each WWB shareholder, WWB shareholders are strongly urged to consult their own tax advisors regarding the tax treatment of cash received in the merger, including the application of the constructive ownership rules of the Code and the effect of any transactions in shares of Heritage common stock by the WWB shareholder.

A WWB shareholder's basis in the shares of Heritage common stock received in the merger, including fractional shares deemed received and resold as described below, will be equal to the shareholder's basis in his or her WWB shares reduced by any cash, other than cash in lieu of fractional shares, received in the Merger and increased by any gain recognized in the merger, but excluding any gain or loss from the deemed receipt and resale of fractional shares described below. Provided that the WWB shares surrendered were held as capital assets at the time of the merger, the holding period of the Heritage shares received will include the holding period of the WWB shares surrendered.

Cash Received. Cash received by a holder generally will be treated as received in redemption of the WWB stock, and gain or loss generally will be recognized based on the difference between the amount of cash received in lieu of the WWB stock and the portion of the holder's aggregate adjusted tax basis of the share of WWB common stock surrendered allocable to the WWB stock. Such gain or loss generally will be long-term capital gain or loss if the holding period for such shares of WWB common stock is more than one year.

Dissenting Shareholders. Holders of WWB common stock who dissent with respect to the merger as discussed in Dissenters' Rights beginning on page 36 of this Proxy Statement/Prospectus, and who receive cash in respect of their shares of WWB common stock will recognize capital gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and their aggregate tax basis in their shares.

Backup Withholding. Non-corporate shareholders of WWB may be subject to information reporting and backup withholding on any cash payments they receive. Shareholders will not be subject to backup withholding, however, if they:

furnish a correct taxpayer identification number and certify that they are not subject to backup withholding on the substitute Form W-9 or successor form included in the election form/letter of transmittal they will receive; or are otherwise exempt from backup withholding.

Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules will be allowed as a refund or credit against a shareholder's federal income tax liability, provided he or she furnishes the required information to the IRS.

Cash in lieu of Fractional Shares. Holders of shares of WWB common stock who receive cash in lieu of fractional shares of Heritage common stock will be treated as having first received the fraction of a Heritage share and then as having received cash in exchange for the fractional share interest. Thus, such holders will generally recognize gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference between the amount of cash received in lieu of Heritage shares and the portion of the basis in the WWB shares allocable to the fractional interest.

Reporting Requirements. Shareholders who receive Heritage common stock as a result of the merger will be required to retain records pertaining to the merger and each shareholder will be required to file with his or her federal income tax return for the year in which the merger takes place a statement setting forth certain facts relating to the merger. WWB's shareholders will be responsible for the preparation of their own tax returns.

This discussion does not address tax consequences that may vary with, or are contingent on, individual circumstances. Moreover, it does not address any non-income tax or any foreign, state or local tax consequences of the merger. Tax matters are very complicated, and the tax consequences of the merger to an WWB shareholder will depend upon the facts of his or her particular situation. Accordingly, we strongly urge you to consult with a tax advisor to determine the particular tax consequences to you of the merger.

Conduct of WWB's Business Pending the Merger

WWB has agreed in the Merger Agreement to operate its businesses in the usual, regular and ordinary course and to use its best efforts to preserve its business relationships and to retain key employees. The Merger Agreement provides that, except with the written consent of Heritage, neither WWB nor WSB may:

amend its articles of incorporation or bylaws;

issue any additional shares of capital stock (except upon the exercise of outstanding options), options, warrants or other stock-based compensation rights;

dispose of or discontinue any of its assets, businesses or properties that are material to WWB;

merge, consolidate with, or acquire any business or property of any other party that is material to WWB;

repurchase any of its capital stock, split or otherwise subdivide its capital stock, recapitalize in any way or declare a cash or stock dividend on WWB common stock (except as necessary to pay transaction costs and distributions on outstanding trust preferred);

incur any additional debt except in the ordinary course of business;

increase compensation, pay bonuses or enter into severance arrangements;

amend any existing employment contract with any person or enter into any new employment contract;

adopt any new employee benefit plan or make any material change to an existing employee benefit plan;

make any capital expenditures exceeding $10,000 individually;

enter into, renew, terminate or change any material contract, agreement or lease;

settle any litigation;

extend credit or account for loans and leases other than in accordance with existing lending policies and accounting practices, except that WWB shall not, other than in accordance with mutually agreed procedures, make any new loan or extend or renew any existing loan in excess of $250,000, change its lending, investment, liability management or other material banking policies in any material respect; or incur more than $215,000 in transaction costs.

Conditions to the Completion of the Merger

Completion of the merger is subject to various conditions. While it is anticipated that all of the applicable conditions will be satisfied, there can be no assurance as to whether or when all of those conditions will be satisfied or, where permissible, waived.

The respective obligations of Heritage and WWB to complete the merger are subject to the following conditions:

approval of the Merger Agreement by a two-thirds vote of all outstanding shares of WWB common stock at the special meeting of WWB's shareholders;

Table of Contents

receipt of all required regulatory approvals and expiration of all related statutory waiting periods;

absence of any pending or threatened claim, action, or investigation before a court or governmental agency that threatens to prevent the completion of the merger;

the absence of any order, decree or injunction of any court or agency that prohibits completion of the merger;

effectiveness of the registration statement for the Heritage shares to be issued in the merger;

approval by the NASDAQ National Market of listing of the shares of Heritage common stock to be issued in the merger;

accuracy of the other party's representations and warranties contained in the Merger Agreement as of the dates specified in that agreement, except, in the case of most of those representations and warranties, where the failure to be so accurate would not be reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on the party making those representations and warranties (see - Representations and Warranties below), and the performance by the other party of its obligations contained in the Merger Agreement in all material respects;

that there be no change or threatened change relative to: (a) the business, property, assets (including loan portfolio), liabilities, financial or other condition of WWB or Heritage (unless due to changes in banking regulations, accepted accounting principles, or general economic conditions, or acts approved by the other party) which is reasonably likely, individually or in the aggregate, to have a material adverse effect on such business, or (b) the ability of each party to complete the transaction, in the period from execution of the Merger Agreement to the effective date of the transaction;

the receipt by WWB and Heritage of an opinion of Heritage's counsel substantially to the effect that the merger will be treated for federal income tax purposes as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.

The obligations of Heritage under the Merger Agreement are subject to several conditions including, but not limited to:

compliance by WWB and WSB with Section 3.12 of the Merger Agreement prohibiting WSB, subsequent to the execution of the Merger Agreement, from making any new loan outside of its trade territory of King and Pierce Counties, Washington, extend credit or account for loans and leases other than in accordance with existing lending policies and accounting practices, or make any new loan, a loan extension or renewal in a principal amount which exceeds $250,000, other than in accordance with the loan reporting process agreed to by the Parties;

approval of the Merger Agreement by a two-thirds vote of all outstanding shares of WWB common stock at the special meeting of WWB's shareholders;

compliance by WWB with Section 6.2(L) of the Merger Agreement requiring that on the Effective Date WWB have no less than $3,609,000 in minimum consolidated equity capital;

receipt by Heritage of agreements from each affiliate of WWB relating to restrictions on disposition of Heritage shares received by such affiliates;

the number of shares of WWB common stock for which dissenters' rights of appraisal are perfected as of the effective date or payable in cash for fractional shares shall not exceed 15% of the outstanding shares;

compliance by WWB with Section 6.2(M) of the Merger Agreement requiring that prior to the Effective Date written confirmation be delivered to Heritage by WWB stating that WWB has redeemed and paid off its outstanding trust preferred securities and that all tax returns for the statutory trust have been filed with no further current or potential liability to Heritage;

Table of Contents

compliance by WWB with Section 6.2(N) of the Merger Agreement requiring that prior to the Effective Date Heritage shall have received written agreement from the landlord of WWB's and WSB's main office building permitting Heritage to assume the existing lease and the existing extension (authorizing continued occupation through 2017) with no assumption fee;

receipt of voting agreements from each director and executive officer of WWB;

compliance by WWB with Section 6.2(O) of the Merger Agreement requiring that as of the effective date, WSB's lease on its second office site be terminated at no cost and with no penalty to Heritage or to WWB or WSB, the building at that site be removed from the books of WWB, WSB and Washington State Bank Real Estate Holdings, Inc. (Holdings) at a loss after tax not exceeding $101,640, and that the building is to be sold for cash with no financing provided by WWB or WSB;

compliance by WWB with Section 6.2(P) of the Merger Agreement requiring that the cost of certain recommended improvements to the main office of WSB shall be borne by WSB, which costs shall not exceed $25,000;

receipt of noncompetition and nonsolicitation agreements from each director of WWB and WSB, and from its President and Chief Executive Officer, L. Anthony Tebeau; and receipt of nonsolicitation agreement from Paula A. Vinson, Chief Financial Officer of WSB.

The obligations of WWB under the Merger Agreement are subject to the following conditions:

WWB's financial advisor shall not have withdrawn its fairness opinion; and nothing shall have come to WWB's attention to cause it to have a reasonable belief that the merger will not be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of section 368(a) of the Code.

Representations and Warranties

Each of WWB and Heritage has made representations and warranties to the other in the Merger Agreement as to, among other things:

corporate organization, existence and qualification to conduct business;

due authorization, execution, delivery and enforceability of the Merger Agreement;

capital structure;

governmental and third-party consents necessary to complete the merger;

absence of any violation of agreements or law or regulation as a result of the merger;

compliance with laws;

SEC and regulatory filings;

accuracy of financial statements;

absence of any undisclosed liabilities;

loan portfolio;

tax treatment of the merger;

agreements with regulatory agencies and regulatory approvals;

absence of legal proceedings and regulatory actions; and tax matters.

WWB has also made representations and warranties to Heritage with respect to real estate and personal property, environmental matters, fees payable to financial advisors in connection with the merger, inapplicability of state anti-takeover laws, loan classification and loss allowances, insurance, material contracts and leases, employee benefit plans, and the receipt of a fairness opinion.

No Solicitation by WWB

WWB has agreed that it will not solicit, authorize, encourage or facilitate any inquiries with respect to any:

tender offer;

any proposal for a merger, consolidation, reorganization, share exchange, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution or other business combination involving WWB; or any proposal or offer to acquire a substantial equity interest in, or a substantial portion of the assets of, WWB.

In our discussion we refer to any offer or proposal of the type described in any of the prior bullet points as an acquisition proposal.

WWB, however, may negotiate or provide information to, or have discussions with, any person relating to an unsolicited acquisition proposal if WWB's board determines in good faith, consistent with its fiduciary duties upon advice of its financial advisor and counsel, that the proposal or offer would reasonably be expected to result in a transaction that is:

for either (A) a merger, reorganization or similar transaction involving WWB, (B) a sale, transfer or other disposition of at least 50% of the assets of WWB, or (C) the acquisition by a person of beneficial ownership of 50% or more of WWB's common stock;

more favorable to WWB shareholders from a financial point of view than the transaction contemplated by the Merger Agreement with Heritage; and reasonably capable of being completed.

In our discussion we refer to any offer or proposal described above as a superior proposal. Prior to providing confidential information to, or entering into discussion or negotiations with, the other party in connection with a superior proposal, WWB must execute a confidentiality agreement with the other party and WWB's board must promptly notify Heritage of the other party's proposal, any information requested from, and any such discussions or negotiations sought to be initiated or continued with, WWB.

Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger

Heritage and WWB have agreed to use their reasonable best efforts to obtain all regulatory approvals required to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, which include approval from the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC), the Washington Department of Financial Institutions and, unless otherwise waived, the Federal Reserve. We filed applications with the FDIC and the Department of Financial Institutions seeking such approvals on March 31, 2006, and intend to file a request to obtain a waiver from the Federal Reserve promptly after obtaining FDIC approval. The merger cannot proceed in the absence of these regulatory approvals. Although Heritage and WWB expect to obtain these required regulatory approvals, there can be no assurance as to if and when these regulatory approvals will be obtained. There can likewise be no assurance that the United States Department of Justice will not attempt to challenge the merger on antitrust grounds, or, if such a challenge is made, there can be no assurance as to its result.

Heritage and WWB are not aware of any other material governmental approvals or actions that are required prior to the parties' consummation of the merger other than those described below. It is presently contemplated that if any such additional governmental approvals or actions are required, such approvals or actions will be sought.

Bank Merger Act Approval. The merger of WSB into Heritage Bank as contemplated herein is subject to approval of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) pursuant to the Bank Merger Act (12 U.S.C. Sec. 1828 et seq.). The Bank Merger Act (the BMA) requires that the relevant regulatory agency take into consideration, among other factors, the financial and managerial resources and future prospects of the institutions and the convenience and needs of the communities to be served. The BMA prohibits the FDIC from approving the acquisition (i) if such transaction would result in a monopoly or be in furtherance of any combination or conspiracy to monopolize or to attempt to monopolize the business of banking in any part of the United States, or (ii) if the effect of such transaction in any section of the country may be substantially to lessen competition or to tend to create a monopoly, or if it would in any other manner be a restraint of trade, unless the relevant regulatory agency finds that the anti-competitive effects of such merger are clearly outweighed by the public interest and by the probable effect of the transaction in meeting the convenience and needs of the communities to be served. In addition, the FDIC must take into account the record of performance of the existing and proposed institutions under the Community Reinvestment Act of 1977 (CRA) in meeting the credit needs of the entire community, including low-and moderate-income neighborhoods, served by such institutions.

Washington Department of Financial Institutions. The Department of Financial Institutions must be notified at least 30 days prior to the completion of the merger and provided with a copy of the application to the FDIC and certain other information, as a result of the change of control of WWB's banking subsidiary, WSB. Upon receipt of the Merger Agreement (which is filed as an exhibit to the application), the Department of Financial Institutions will approve the merger if it determines that the transaction provides adequate capital structure, is fair and not contrary to the public interest.

Federal Reserve Board. The Federal Reserve must approve the merger before the merger of WWB can be completed, because Heritage is a bank holding company proposing to acquire WWB, another bank holding company, unless such approval is waived pursuant to the Federal Reserve's regulations. Based on the fact that the transaction is subject to the approval of the FDIC, Heritage intends to file a waiver request with the Federal Reserve to waive the application requirements.

The approval of any application merely implies satisfaction of regulatory criteria for approval, which does not include review of the transaction from the standpoint of the adequacy of the consideration to be received by, or fairness to, shareholders. Regulatory approvals do not constitute an endorsement or recommendation of the proposed transaction.

The Merger Agreement provides that if the merger has not been consummated on or before June 30, 2006, and Heritage and WWB have not agreed upon an extension, the Merger Agreement may be terminated, subject to certain conditions, by Heritage or WWB. Since there is the possibility that regulatory approval may not be obtained for a substantial period of time after approval of the Merger Agreement by WWB's shareholders, there can be no assurance that the merger will be consummated by June 30, 2006. In addition, should regulatory approval require any material change, a resolicitation of shareholders may be required if regulatory approval is obtained after shareholder approval of the Merger Agreement.

Heritage and WWB are not aware of any governmental approvals or compliance with banking laws and regulations that are required for the merger to become effective other than those described above. Heritage and WWB intend to seek any other approval and to take any other action that may be required to complete the merger. There can be no assurance that any required approval or action can be obtained or taken prior to the special meeting.

The merger cannot be completed unless all necessary regulatory approvals are granted. In addition, Heritage may elect not to complete the merger if any condition under which any regulatory approval is granted is unreasonably burdensome to Heritage. See The Merger Conditions to the Completion of the Merger and Termination of the Merger Agreement.

Dissenters' Rights

In accordance with Chapter 13 of the Washington Business Corporation Act (WBCA), WWB's shareholders have the right to dissent from the merger and to receive payment in cash for the fair value of their WWB common stock.

Table of Contents

WWB shareholders electing to exercise dissenters' rights must comply with the provisions of Chapter 13 in order to perfect their rights. WWB and Heritage will require strict compliance with the statutory procedures. The following is intended as a brief summary of the material provisions of the Washington statutory procedures required to be followed by a WWB shareholder in order to dissent from the merger and perfect the shareholder's dissenters' rights. This summary, however, is not a complete statement of all applicable requirements and is qualified in its entirety by reference to Chapter 13 of the WBCA, the full text of which is set forth in Appendix B.

A shareholder who wishes to assert dissenters' rights must (i) deliver to WWB before the vote is taken by WWB shareholders notice of the shareholder's intent to demand payment for the shareholder's shares if the merger is effected, and (ii) not vote such shares in favor of the merger. A shareholder wishing to deliver such notice should hand deliver or mail such notice to WWB at the following address within the requisite time period:

Western Washington Bancorp
32303 Pacific Highway South
Federal Way, Washington 98003
Attn: Paula A. Vinson

A shareholder who wishes to exercise dissenters' rights generally must dissent with respect to all the shares the shareholder owns or over which the shareholder has power to direct the vote. However, if a record shareholder is a nominee for several beneficial shareholders some of whom wish to dissent and some of whom do not, then the record holder may dissent with respect to all the shares beneficially owned by any one person by delivering to WWB a notice of the name and address of each person on whose behalf the record shareholder asserts dissenters' rights. A beneficial shareholder may assert dissenters' rights directly by submitting to WWB the record shareholder's written consent and by dissenting with respect to all the shares of which such shareholder is the beneficial shareholder or over which such shareholder has power to direct the vote.

A shareholder who does not deliver to WWB prior to the vote being taken by WWB shareholders a notice of the shareholder's intent to demand payment for the fair value of the shares will lose the right to exercise dissenters' rights. In addition, any shareholder electing to exercise dissenters' rights must either vote against the Merger Agreement or abstain from voting. Submitting a properly signed proxy card that is received prior to the vote at the special meeting (and is not properly revoked) that does not direct how the shares of WWB common stock represented by proxy are to be voted will constitute a vote in favor of the Merger Agreement and a waiver of such shareholder's statutory dissenters' rights.

If the merger is effected, Heritage as the surviving corporation shall, within ten days after the effective date of the merger, deliver a written notice to all shareholders who properly perfected their dissenters' rights in accordance with Chapter 13 of the WBCA. Such notice will, among other things: (i) state where the payment demand must be sent and where and when certificates for certificated shares must be deposited; (ii) inform holders of uncertificated shares to what extent transfer of the shares will be restricted after the payment demand is received; (iii) supply a form for demanding payment; and (iv) set a date by which Heritage must receive the payment demand, which date will be between 30 and 60 days after notice is delivered.

A shareholder wishing to exercise dissenters' rights must timely file the payment demand and deliver share certificates as required in the notice. Failure to do so will cause such person to lose his or her dissenters' rights.

Within 30 days after the merger occurs or receipt of the payment demand, whichever is later, Heritage shall pay each dissenter with properly perfected dissenters' rights Heritage's estimate of the fair value of the shareholder's interest, plus accrued interest from the effective date of the merger. With respect to a dissenter who did not beneficially own WWB shares prior to the public announcement of the merger, Heritage is required to make the payment only after the dissenter has agreed to accept the payment in full satisfaction of the dissenter's demands. Fair value means the value of the shares immediately before the effective date of the merger, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in anticipation of the merger. The rate of interest is generally required to be the rate at which Heritage can borrow money from other banks.

Table of Contents

A dissenter who is dissatisfied with Heritage's estimate of the fair value or believes that interest due is incorrectly calculated may notify WWB of the dissenter's estimate of the fair value and amount of interest due. If Heritage does not accept the dissenter's estimate and the parties do not otherwise settle on a fair value then Heritage must, within 60 days, petition a court to determine the fair value.

In view of the complexity of Chapter 13 of the WBCA and the requirement that shareholders must strictly comply with the provisions of Chapter 13 of the WBCA, shareholders of WWB who may wish to dissent from the merger and pursue appraisal rights should consult their legal advisors.

Termination of the Merger Agreement

General. The Merger Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to completion of the merger, whether before or after the approval of the merger by the shareholders of WWB, in any of the following ways:

by mutual consent of Heritage and WWB;

by either Heritage or WWB, 60 days after the date on which any application for a required regulatory approval is denied (or should any required approval be conditioned upon a substantial deviation from the transactions contemplated), unless such denial is appealed within 14 business days;

by either Heritage or WWB, if the merger is not completed on or before June 30, 2006, unless the failure of the closing to occur by that date is due to the failure of the party seeking to terminate the Merger Agreement to perform its covenants and agreements contained in the Merger Agreement;

by either Heritage or WWB, if (i) the terminating party is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained in the Merger Agreement and (ii) there has been a material breach of any of the representations, warranties, covenants or agreements of the other party in the Merger Agreement, which breach is not cured within 30 days following written notice to the party committing the breach, or which breach, by its nature, cannot be cured prior to the closing date of the merger;

by either Heritage or WWB if an event occurs between execution of the Merger Agreement and the effective date of the merger that has an adverse material effect on the business of the other party unrelated to changes in the banking industry, the general economy, accounting principles, or actions authorized by the party seeking to terminate the Merger Agreement;

by WWB if its financial advisor, MWRI withdraws its fairness opinion;

by WWB if its board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with outside counsel, that in light of an unsolicited superior proposal it must terminate the Merger Agreement to comply with its fiduciary duties to WWB and its shareholders, provided that WWB may terminate the Merger Agreement solely in order to concurrently enter into a letter of intent, agreement in principle, an acquisition agreement or other similar agreement (an "acquisition agreement") related to a superior proposal. Furthermore, WWB may terminate the Merger Agreement only after the fifth day following Heritage's receipt of a written notice advising Heritage that WWB's board of directors is prepared to accept a superior proposal, and only if, during that five-day period, if Heritage so elects, WWB has negotiated in good faith with Heritage to make adjustments in the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement as would enable Heritage to proceed with the merger on those adjusted terms; or by Heritage if the average closing price of Heritage shares for the 30 day trading period ending three trading days prior to the effective date of the merger is less than $19.00.

Edgar Filing: HERITAGE FINANCIAL CORP /WA/ - Form 424B2

It is not possible to know whether the price-based termination right will be triggered until after the third trading day immediately prior to the effective date of the merger (the determination date). If WWB's shareholders approve and adopt the Merger Agreement at the special meeting and afterward WWB's price-based termination right is triggered, the WWB board of directors will have the authority, consistent with its fiduciary duties, to elect either to complete the merger, whether or not there is any increase in the total stock consideration and without any further action by or resolicitation of the shareholders of WWB, or to terminate the Merger Agreement.

Termination Fee. WWB must pay Heritage a termination fee of $500,000 if:

WWB terminates the Merger Agreement in order to accept a superior proposal;

WWB terminates the Merger Agreement because MWRI fairness opinion is withdrawn for any reason and on or before June 30, 2007, WWB enters into an acquisition agreement providing for a merger, reorganization, recapitalization or other business combination involving WWB or WSB, or the sale of a substantial equity interest in, or a substantial portion of the assets of, WWB or WSB

if the board of directors of WWB fails to recommend that the shareholders approve the transaction for any reason and the agreement is terminated by mutual agreement or by either party because the merger is not completed by June 30, 2006 or by Heritage for breach of covenant; or an acquisition proposal with respect to WWB has been made known to WWB and has been publicly announced or otherwise become public, or been made to the WWB shareholders, and after which both of the following occurs:

(a) the Merger Agreement is terminated by Heritage or WWB because the merger is not completed on or before June 30, 2006, and prior to that date the shareholders of WWB have not previously approved the merger; and

(b) on or before June 30, 2007 WWB or WSB enters into an acquisition agreement providing for a merger, reorganization, recapitalization or other business combination, or the sale of a substantial equity interest in, or a substantial portion of the assets of WWB or WSB.

Further, WWB must pay Heritage a termination fee of $500,000 if either party terminates the Merger Agreement by reason of WWB's material breach of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements in the Merger Agreement, which breach is not cured within 30 days following written notice by Heritage, or which breach, by its nature, cannot be cured prior to the closing date of the merger.

Heritage is entitled to only one termination fee.

WWB agreed to this termination fee arrangement in order to induce Heritage to enter into the Merger Agreement. This arrangement could have the effect of discouraging other companies from trying to acquire WWB.

Heritage must pay WWB a termination fee of $500,000 if either party terminates the Merger Agreement by reason of Heritage's material breach of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements in the Merger Agreement, which breach is not cured within 30 days following written notice by WWB, or which breach, by its nature, cannot be cured prior to the closing date of the merger.

Effect of Termination. If the Merger Agreement is terminated, subject to the termination fee provisions, it will become void and there will be no liability on the part of Heritage or WWB or their respective officers or directors, except that:

any termination will be without prejudice to the rights of any party arising out of the willful breach by the other party of any provision of the Merger Agreement;

certain provisions of the Merger Agreement relating to the payment of fees and expenses and the confidential treatment of information will survive the termination; and

Edgar Filing: HERITAGE FINANCIAL CORP /WA/ - Form 424B2

Heritage and WWB each will bear its own expenses in connection with the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

Extension, Waiver and Amendment of the Merger Agreement

Extension and Waiver. At any time prior to the completion of the merger, each of Heritage and WWB may, to the extent legally allowed:

extend the time for the performance of the obligations under the Merger Agreement;

waive any inaccuracies in the other party's representations and warranties contained in the Merger Agreement; and waive the other party's compliance with any of its agreements contained in the Merger Agreement, or waive compliance with any conditions to its obligations to complete the merger.

Amendment. Subject to compliance with applicable law, Heritage and WWB may amend the Merger Agreement at any time before or after approval of the Merger Agreement by WWB shareholders. However, after approval of the Merger Agreement by WWB shareholders, there may not be, without their further approval, any amendment of the Merger Agreement that reduces the amount or changes the form of the consideration to be delivered to the WWB shareholders.

Stock Market Listing

Heritage common stock is listed on the NASDAQ National Market. Heritage has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to cause the shares of Heritage common stock to be issued in the merger to be listed on the NASDAQ National Market. It is a condition of the merger that those shares be listed on the NASDAQ National Market.

Resale of Heritage Common Stock

The shares of Heritage common stock to be issued to shareholders of WWB upon consummation of the merger are being registered pursuant to an S-4 Registration Statement under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. Upon the effectiveness of the S-4 Registration Statement, such shares may be traded freely and without restriction by those shareholders not deemed to be affiliates of WWB or Heritage as that term is defined in the rules under the Securities Act. Heritage common stock received by those shareholders of WWB who are deemed to be affiliates of WWB on the date of the special meeting may be resold without registration only to the extent provided for by rule 145, which permits limited sales under certain circumstances, or as otherwise permitted under the Securities Act.

An affiliate of WWB is a person who directly, or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with, WWB. These restrictions generally are expected to apply to the directors and executive officers of WWB. The same restrictions apply to certain relatives or the spouse of those persons and any trusts, estates, corporations or other entities in which those persons have a 10% or greater beneficial or equity interest. Heritage will give stop transfer instructions to the transfer agent with respect to the shares of Heritage common stock to be received by persons subject to these restrictions, and the certificates for their shares will be appropriately legended.

In the Merger Agreement, WWB has agreed to use its best efforts to cause each person who may be deemed to be an affiliate of WWB to enter into an agreement with Heritage providing that such affiliate will not sell, transfer, or otherwise dispose of the shares of Heritage common stock to be received by such person in the merger except in compliance with the applicable provisions of the Securities Act and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder. This Proxy Statement/Prospectus does not cover any resales of Heritage common stock received by affiliates of WWB.

Accounting Treatment

The acquisition of WWB will be accounted for using the purchase method of accounting by Heritage under accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Accordingly, using the purchase method of accounting, the assets and liabilities of WWB will be recorded by Heritage at their respective fair values at the time of the merger. The excess of Heritage's purchase price over the net fair value of assets acquired including identifiable intangible asset(s), and liabilities assumed is recorded as goodwill. Intangible assets without definitive lives and goodwill will be periodically reviewed for impairment but no less frequently than on an annual basis. Prior period financial statements are not restated and results of operation of WWB will be included in Heritage's consolidated statement of operations after the date of the merger. Intangible asset with definitive lives will be amortized against the combined company's earnings following completion of the merger.

Expenses

The Merger Agreement provides that each of Heritage and WWB will pay its own expenses in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

BUSINESSES OF THE PARTIES TO THE MERGER

Industry Overview

The commercial banking industry continues to undergo increased competition, consolidation and change. Non-insured financial service companies such as mutual funds, brokerage firms, insurance companies, mortgage companies and leasing companies are offering alternative investment opportunities for customers' funds or lending sources for their needs. Banks have been granted extended powers to better compete, including the limited right to sell insurance and securities products, but the percentage of financial transactions handled by commercial banks has dropped steadily. Although the amount of deposits in banks is remaining relatively steady, such deposits represent less than 20% of household financial assets compared to over 35% 25 years ago. This trend represents a continuing shift to stocks, bonds, mutual funds and retirement accounts.

Nonetheless, commercial banks are reducing costs by consolidation and exploring alternative products and different ways of delivering bank products. Although new community banks continue to be organized, bank mergers substantially outstrip formations.

To more effectively and efficiently deliver their products, banks are opening in-store branches, installing more automated teller machines (ATMs) and investing in technology to permit telephone, personal computer and Internet banking. While all banks are experiencing the effects of the changing environment, the manner in which banks choose to compete is increasing the gap between larger super-regional banks, committed to becoming national or regional brand names providing a broad selection of products at low cost and with advanced technology, and community banks that provide most of the same products but with a commitment to personal service and with local ties to the customers and communities they serve.

Heritage

Heritage is a Washington corporation registered as a bank holding company under the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956. Heritage is primarily engaged in the business of planning, directing, and coordinating the business activities of its wholly owned subsidiaries, Heritage Bank and Central Valley Bank. Heritage Bank is headquartered in Olympia, Washington and conducts business from its 12 offices located in Thurston, Pierce and Mason Counties in Washington. Central Valley Bank conducts business from its main office in Toppinish, Washington and its five branch offices located in Yakima and Kittitas Counties. As of December 31, 2005, Heritage had total assets of approximately $751 million, net loans receivable of approximately $644 million, total deposits of approximately $637 million and shareholder's equity of approximately $66 million. Heritage was incorporated in 1997.

Lending activities are conducted through Heritage Bank and Central Valley Bank. Heritage offers commercial, real estate, income property, agricultural, and consumer loans. Their focus is on commercial lending with commercial comprising 55% of the loan portfolio at December 31, 2005. Heritage also provides real estate mortgages, both single and multifamily residential and commercial. At December 31, 2005, real estate mortgages comprised 33% of the loan portfolio. Almost all of these loans were to borrowers within the Banks' principal market areas.

Heritage's primary source of funds has historically been customer deposits. Heritage offers a variety of accounts designed to attract both short-term and long-term deposits from its market area. These accounts include NOW, money market, sweep accounts, savings and certificates of deposit. Interest rates paid on these accounts vary from time to time and are based on competitive factors and liquidity needs. One of the goals of management is to maintain noninterest-bearing deposits at the highest level possible. These are low cost funds and help to increase the net interest margin.

The deposits of Heritage Bank and Central Valley Bank are insured by the FDIC up to the limits specified by law.

Market Area. Headquartered in Olympia, Thurston County, Washington, Heritage conducts business through Heritage Bank and Central Valley Bank. Heritage Bank has thirteen full service offices, with seven in Pierce County, five in Thurston County, and one in Mason County. Heritage Bank has mortgage origination offices in Thurston County, Mason County and Pierce County, which all operate within banking offices. The mortgage loan operations are performed in one office located in Thurston County. Central Valley Bank operates six full service offices, with five in Yakima County and one in Kittitas County.

Olympia enjoys a stable economic climate, largely due to government employment and military personnel, both retired and active. State government is by far the largest employer in Thurston County, employing over 40% of the total county work force. Federal, county and municipal government comprise nearly 50% of the county's employment base. Fort Lewis and McChord Air Force Base are both located in Heritage's primary market area.

Thurston County has a population of 226,721 as of June 30, 2005 and has experienced steady growth over the past few decades. Thurston County's growth has been spurred by an increase in government employment in the 1980's and the expansion of a large retirement population, including many former military personnel.

Pierce County, where Tacoma is located, has a population of 282,596 as of June 30, 2005. Its economy is well-diversified, with the principal industries being aerospace, shipping, military-related government employment, agriculture and forest products.

Heritage's market area also includes Shelton and the surrounding Mason County area. The population of Mason County is approximately 53,236 as of June 30, 2005, and its economy is substantially dependent upon timber and the forest products industries.

Heritage's market area includes several counties in central Washington. The population of Yakima County is approximately 229,624 as of June 30, 2005 and its economy is primarily agriculturally-based. Yakima County ranks first in the United States in the number of all fruit trees. It produces apples, winter pears, peaches, apricots, cherries, mint, hops, beef and wheat as well as wines. Yakima County has surpassed Whatcom County as Washington's leading county for dairy production and cow numbers.

Kittitas County has a population of 37,701 as of June 30, 2005. Its economy is increasingly diversified with substantial industries in agriculture, manufacturing (including food processing, lumber and wood products) and education as county seat Ellensburg is the home of Central Washington University.

Business Strategy. Heritage is attempting to pursue the following strategies:

increasing the percentage of its assets consisting of business, construction, and commercial real estate loans with higher risk-adjusted returns, shorter maturities and greater sensitivity to interest rate fluctuations;

Table of Contents

increasing deposits by attracting lower cost transaction accounts (such as checking, savings and money market accounts) through an enhanced branch network and online banking;

maintaining cost-effective operations by efficiently offering products and services;

maintaining its capital position at or above the well-capitalized (as defined for regulatory purposes) level; and exploring prudent means to grow the business internally and/or through acquisitions.

A source of future growth may be through acquisitions. Heritage's management believes that many other financial institutions are considering selling their institutions for a variety of reasons, including lack of shareholder liquidity, management succession issues, technology challenges, and increasing competition. Heritage actively reviews proposals for various acquisition opportunities. The objective of acquisitions will be to increase the opportunity for quality earning asset growth, deposit generation and fee-based income opportunities; diversify the earning assets portfolio and core deposit base through expansion into new geographic markets; maintain a well capitalized position after the acquisition; improve the potential profits from the combined operations through economies of scale and; enhance shareholder value measured through increasing return on equity and/or increasing earnings per share.

Heritage's ability to make future acquisitions depends on several factors such as the availability of suitable acquisition candidates, necessary regulatory and shareholder approval, compliance with applicable capital requirements and, in the case of cash acquisitions, on its cash assets or ability to acquire cash. Heritage may need to obtain additional debt and equity capital in pursuing its business strategy. Heritage's access to capital markets or the costs of this capital can be impacted by economic, financial, competitive and other conditions beyond Heritage's control. Further, acquisition candidates may not be available in the future on favorable terms. There are only a limited number of suitable acquisition candidates with in Heritage's existing and potential market areas, and many of these candidates would also be attractive acquisition candidates for other financial institutions. This competition is likely to affect Heritage's ability to make acquisitions, increase the price paid for certain acquisitions, and increase the costs of analyzing possible acquisitions. Therefore, no assurance can be made that acquisition activity will continue in the future.

Managing growth through acquisitions is a challenging process that includes integration and training of personnel, developing common products and pricing, combining office and operations policies and procedures, data processing conversion and various other matters. After any acquisition, Heritage may experience adverse changes in results of operations of acquired entities, unforeseen liabilities, asset quality problems of acquired entities, loss of key personnel, loss of customers because of change in identity, difficulties in integrating data processing and operational procedures, and deterioration in local economic conditions.

Facilities. Heritage's executive offices and the main office of Heritage Bank are located in approximately 22,000 square feet of the headquarters building and adjacent office space which are owned by Heritage Bank and located in downtown Olympia. At December 31, 2005, Heritage Bank had six offices located in Tacoma and surrounding areas of Pierce County (all but one of which are owned), five offices located in Thurston County (all of which are owned with one office located on leased land), and one office in Shelton, Mason County (which is owned). Central Valley Bank had six offices, five located in Yakima County and one in Kittitas County (all of which are owned with two on leased land).

Competition. The banking industry is highly competitive. Heritage Bank faces strong competition in attracting deposits and in originating loans. The most direct competition for deposits has historically come from other commercial banks, saving institutions and credit unions located in the primary market area. As with all banking organizations, Heritage also has competition from nonbanking sources, including mutual funds, corporate and governmental debt securities and other investment alternatives. Heritage expects increasing competition from other financial institutions and nonbanking sources in the future. Many of Heritage's competitors have more significant financial resources, larger market share and greater name recognition than Heritage. The existence of such competitors may make it difficult for Heritage to achieve its financial goals.

Table of Contents

Competition has further increased as a result of Washington banking laws that permit statewide branching of Washington domiciled financial institutions and acquisitions of Washington-based financial institutions by out-of-state bank holding companies.

Management believes that the principal competitive factors affecting Heritage's markets include interest rates paid on deposits and charged on loans, the range of banking products available, and customer service and support. Although management believes that Heritage's products currently compete favorably with respect to these factors, there can be no assurance that Heritage can maintain its competitive position against current and potential competitors, especially those with significantly greater financial resources.

Heritage's competition for loans comes principally from other commercial banks, savings institutions, credit unions and mortgage banking companies. Heritage competes for loans principally through the efficiency and quality of the services it provides borrowers, real estate brokers and home builders, and the interest rates and loan fees it charges.

Heritage competes for deposits by offering depositors a wide variety of checking accounts, savings accounts, certificates and other services. Heritage's ability to attract and retain deposits depends on its ability to provide deposit products that satisfy the requirements of customers as to interest rates, liquidity, transaction fees, risk of loss of deposit, convenience and other factors. Deposit relationships are actively solicited through a sales and service system.

Changes in technology, mostly from the growing use of computers and computer-based technology, present competitive challenges to Heritage. Large banking institutions typically have the ability to devote significant resources to developing and maintaining technology-based services such as on-line banking and other banking products and services over the Internet, including deposit services and mortgage loans. Some new banking competitors offer all of these services online. Customers who bank by computer or by telephone may not need to go to a branch location in person. Heritage's high service philosophy emphasizes face-to-face contact with tellers, loan officers and other employees. Heritage believes a personal approach to banking is a competitive advantage, one that will remain popular in the communities that it serves. However, customer preferences may change, and the rapid growth of online banking could, at some point, render Heritage's personal, branch-based approach obsolete. Heritage believes that it has reduced this risk by offering on-line banking services to its customers, and by continuing to provide 24-hour banking services. There can be no assurance that these efforts will be successful in preventing the loss of customers to competitors.

Employees. As of February 15, 2006, Heritage and its subsidiaries had 211 full-time equivalent employees. None of Heritage's employees are covered by a collective bargaining agreement. Management believes relations with its employees are good.

Legal Proceedings. Periodically and in the ordinary course of business, various claims and lawsuits are brought against Heritage, Heritage Bank or Central Valley Bank, such as claims to enforce liens, condemnation proceedings on properties in which Heritage Bank held security interests, claims involving the making and servicing of real property loans and other issues incident to the business of Heritage and Heritage Bank. In the opinion of management, the ultimate liability, if any, resulting from such claims or lawsuits will not have a material adverse effect on the financial position or results of operations of Heritage.

Executive Compensation.

Report of the Personnel and Compensation Committee

This report of Heritage's Personnel and Compensation Committee describes in general terms the process the committee undertakes and the factors it considers to determine the appropriate compensation for Heritage's officers.

What Are The Responsibilities of the Personnel and Compensation Committee?

The committee establishes and monitors compensation programs for executive officers of Heritage and its subsidiaries. The committee:

reviews and approves individual officer salaries, bonus plan allocations, and stock option grants and other equity-based awards; and establishes the compensation and evaluates the performance of the chief executive officer, while the chief executive officer evaluates the performance of the other executive officers and recommends individual compensation levels for approval by the committee.

None of the members of the committee are officers or employees of Heritage or any Heritage subsidiary.

What is Heritage's Philosophy of Executive Officer Compensation?

The committee's compensation philosophy is intended to reflect and support the goals and strategies that Heritage has established. Currently, Heritage's strategic focus is on expanding our commercial banking relationships. The key elements of this strategy are geographic and product expansion, loan portfolio diversification, development of relationship banking and maintenance of asset quality. The committee believes these goals, which are intended to create long-term stockholder value, must be supported by a compensation program that:

attracts and retains highly qualified executives; provides levels of compensation that are competitive with those offered by other financial institutions;

motivates executives to enhance long-term stockholder value by helping them to build their own ownership in Heritage; and integrates Heritage's long-term strategic planning and measurement processes.

Heritage's compensation program includes competitive salary and benefits, opportunities for employee ownership of Heritage stock through participation in an employee stock ownership plan and, for certain employees, an annual incentive cash bonus based upon attainment of company and individual performance goals and opportunities for stock ownership of Heritage stock through stock option and restricted stock programs.

To determine compensation packages for individual executives, the committee considers various subjective and objective factors, including:

individual job responsibilities and experience;

individual performance in terms of both qualitative and quantitative goals;

Heritage's overall performance, as measured by attainment of strategic and budgeted financial goals and prior performance; and industry surveys, prepared by an independent consulting firm, of compensation for comparable positions with similar institutions in the State of Washington, the Pacific Northwest and the United States.

The components of Heritage's compensation program are the following:

Base Salary. Salary levels of executive officers are designed to be competitive within the banking industry. To set competitive salary ranges, the committee periodically evaluates current salary levels of other financial institutions with size, lines of business, geographic dispersion and market place position similar to Heritage's. Base salaries for Heritage's executive officers other than the chief executive officer are based upon recommendations by the chief executive officer, taking into account the subjective and objective factors described above. The committee reviews and approves or disapproves those recommendations.

Annual Incentive Bonus. Executive officers have an annual incentive opportunity with cash bonus awards based on the overall performance of Heritage and on attainment of individual performance targets. The annual awards are determined by formulas established by the committee following each fiscal year and are based upon an assessment of Heritage's performance (for the year ended December 31, 2005, primarily with respect to Heritage's return on average equity) as compared to both budgeted and previous fiscal year performance and upon an evaluation by the chief executive officer of an executive's individual performance and contribution to Heritage's overall performance. The committee then reviews and approves the bonus recommendations and presents them to the board of directors for approval.

Stock Option and Other Stock-Based Compensation. Equity-based compensation is intended to more closely align the financial interests of Heritage's executives with long-term stockholder value, and to assist in the retention of executives who are key to the success of Heritage and its subsidiaries. Equity-based compensation generally has been in the form of incentive stock options and restricted stock awards pursuant to Heritage's existing stock option plans. The committee determines from time to time which executives, if any, will receive stock options or awards and determines the number of shares subject to each option or award. Grants of stock options and awards are based on various subjective factors relating primarily to the responsibilities of individual executives, their expected future contributions to Heritage and prior option grants.

How Is Heritage's Chief Executive Officer Compensated?

The base compensation for Heritage's chairman, president and chief executive officer, Donald V. Rhodes, was determined by the committee with final approval by the Board based on the same criteria as the compensation for the other executive officers. During the first quarter of 2002, Heritage entered into a new employment agreement with Mr. Rhodes, effective June 1, 2001, providing for an annual base salary of not less than $234,000 beginning on April 1, 2001. The term of the agreement continued until June 30, 2004. Mr. Rhodes executed a new agreement on August 26, 2004 to be effective January 1, 2005 that provides for an annual base salary of $150,000 beginning on January 1, 2005. In addition to base salary, the agreement provides for Mr. Rhodes' participation in employee benefit plans and other fringe benefits applicable to senior executives of Heritage Bank except that Mr. Rhodes will not be eligible to participate in the Management Incentive Plan or receive options other than director restricted options. The term of the agreement will continue until December 31, 2006. During the year ended December 31, 2005, the annual salary of Mr. Rhodes was $150,000.

Table of Contents

The committee believes that for the year ended December 31, 2005, the compensation for Mr. Rhodes, as well as for the other executive officers, was consistent with Heritage's overall compensation philosophy and clearly related to the realization of Heritage's goals and strategies for the period.

of Directors. Under the plan, on the date of grant, the exercise price of the option must at least equal the market value per share of Heritage Financial Corporation's common stock. The plan provides for the granting of options for up to 395,000 common shares and restricted stock awards of up to 66,125 shares. All awards made under the plan require vesting over a three year period beginning on the date of grant. Under the plan, the options must be exercised within five years of vesting. In 2005, 3,050 restricted stock awards were granted under the 1998 Stock Option and Restricted Stock Award Plan. There are 3,197 restricted stock awards available under the Plan that have not been awarded.

In April 2002, the stockholders approved the adoption of the Heritage Financial Corporation Incentive Stock Option Plan of 2002, the Heritage Financial Corporation Director Non-Qualified Stock Option Plan of 2002 and the Heritage Financial Corporation Restricted Stock Plan of 2002. These plans provided for the award of incentive stock options and restricted stock to employees and Non-Qualified stock options and restricted stock to directors of Heritage Financial Corporation at the discretion of the Board of Directors. Under the plans, on the date of grant, the exercise price of the option must at least equal the market value per share of Heritage Financial Corporation's common stock. The plan provides for the granting of incentive options for up to 430,000 common shares, Non-Qualified options for up to 70,000 common shares and restricted stock awards of up to 50,000 common shares. All awards are subject to a vesting schedule as determined by the Board of Directors. Under the plans, the options must be exercised within five years of vesting. In 2005, 114,517 options were granted under the Heritage Financial Corporation Incentive Stock Option Plan of 2002 and 20,007 options were awarded under the Heritage Financial Corporation Non-Qualified Stock Option Plan of 2002. Taking into account Heritage Financial Corporation's five percent stock dividend to stockholders of record on September 30, 2005, distributed on October 14, 2005, there are 52,921 Incentive Stock Options available that have not been awarded, 16,193 Non-Qualified Stock Options available that have not been awarded and 52,500 restricted stock awards available that have not been awarded.

Other Employee Benefits and Proposed Changes in Those Benefits.

Edgar Filing: HERITAGE FINANCIAL CORP /WA/ - Form 424B2

On October 1, 1999, Heritage combined its defined contribution retirement plan, its salary savings 401(k) Plan and its Employee Stock Ownership Plan (ESOP) into the ESOP and amended the ESOP to give it 401(k) features. The ESOP was renamed the Heritage Financial Corporation 401(k) ESOP (KSOP). On that date, account balances in each employee s account in the defined contribution retirement plan and the 401(k) Plan were transferred to the KSOP, and each employee having account balances in those plans was given the ability to allocate up to 20% of those balances to purchase Heritage stock.

Table of Contents

Under the KSOP, eligible employees have the right to defer a portion of their compensation to be contributed to the KSOP which is matched 50% by Heritage up to certain specified limits. Employees can elect whether to have their deferred compensation amount placed in a Heritage stock account to be invested in Heritage stock by the KSOP trustee (subject to availability) or in other available investment accounts and invested by the KSOP trustee in investments other than Heritage stock as directed by the participants. In addition to the matching contributions Heritage makes, Heritage makes a nondiscretionary 2% contribution and has the discretion to make additional contributions to the KSOP.

On December 31, 2005, the KSOP owned 403,361 shares of Heritage common stock, of which 337,787 shares were allocated to participants accounts and 65,574 shares were held in an unallocated account. Shares held in the suspense account are released to participant accounts on a pro rata basis as the KSOP's loan payable to Heritage is repaid.

Executive Employment and Severance Agreements

In the first quarter of 2002, Donald V. Rhodes executed an employment agreement with Heritage and Heritage Bank effective June 1, 2001. The agreement with Mr. Rhodes provided for an annual base salary of not less than $234,000 beginning on April 1, 2001. In addition to base salary, the agreement provided for Mr. Rhodes' participation in employee benefit plans and other fringe benefits applicable to senior executives of Heritage Bank. The term of the agreement continued until June 30, 2004. Mr. Rhodes was required to notify Heritage prior to 180 days before the end of the term of the employment agreement if Mr. Rhodes did not desire to seek to renew or renegotiate the employment agreement. Mr. Rhodes did provide timely notice that he wished to extend the term of his employment agreement until December 31, 2004 and Heritage Financial Corporation agreed to the extension. Mr. Rhodes executed a new agreement on August 26, 2004 to be effective January 1, 2005 that provides for an annual base salary of $150,000 beginning on January 1, 2005. In addition to base salary, the agreement provides for Mr. Rhodes' participation in employee benefit plans and other fringe benefits applicable to senior executives of Heritage Bank except that Mr. Rhodes will not be eligible to participate in the Management Incentive Plan or receive options other than director restricted options. The term of the agreement will continue until December 31, 2006. If Employer terminates this Agreement for Cause, as defined in the agreement, effective before the end of the term hereof, Employer shall pay Executive upon the effective date of such termination only such salary earned and expenses reimbursable hereunder incurred through such termination date. Executive shall have no right to receive compensation or other benefits for any period after termination for Cause, and in the case of termination for Cause, Executive's unvested stock options, if any, shall terminate immediately. If Employer terminates this Agreement without Cause or Executive terminates this Agreement for Good Reason, both as defined in the agreement, and either termination is effective before the end of the term hereof, Employer shall pay Executive all reimbursable expenses incurred through such termination date and, in addition, a severance benefit in an amount equal to the amount of his then-current base salary which would otherwise have been paid to Executive during the then-remaining term of the Agreement. In such event, all forfeiture provisions regarding restricted stock awards or vesting requirements regarding options shall lapse or be considered completed as of the effective date of termination. Notwithstanding the above, in the event Executive's employment is terminated as a result of a sale or a merger of Heritage Financial Corporation (a Transaction), Executive will be compensated under the terms of this Agreement through the date of closing of the Transaction without provision for severance thereafter.

In 2002, Brian L. Vance executed an employment agreement with Heritage and Heritage Bank effective June 1, 2001. The agreement with Mr. Vance provides for an annual base salary of not less than $150,000 per year effective on April 1, 2001. In addition to the base salary, the agreement provides for Mr. Vance's participation in employee benefit plans and other fringe benefits applicable to senior executives of Heritage Bank. The term of the agreement expired on June 30, 2004 and is currently subject to automatic one year renewal extensions unless prior notice otherwise is given. In the event that Mr. Vance is terminated by Heritage at any time for cause or by Mr. Vance without good reason, both as defined in the agreement, no termination benefit will be payable. If Mr. Vance is terminated without cause or he terminates the agreement for good reason, a severance benefit will be payable in an amount equal to his then current annual base salary or the amount of such salary which would otherwise have been paid to Mr. Vance during the then remaining term of his agreement, whichever is greater.

The agreement with Mr. Vance also provides for the payment of a severance benefit to Mr. Vance in the event of his termination of employment without cause in some cases preceding and for any reason within one year after a change of control of Heritage or Heritage Bank. Under the terms of the agreement, Mr. Vance is entitled to receive two times his then current annual base salary following the termination or the amount due him until the end of the term of his agreement, whichever is greater. In those circumstances, Mr. Vance also is entitled to all benefits in his agreement, to be fully vested as to unvested options, and to have restrictions lapse on any restricted stock or other restricted securities.

For purposes of the agreements, change in control generally includes the acquisition by any person of 25% or more of the outstanding securities of Heritage; replacement of incumbent directors or election of newly elected directors constituting a majority of the Board of Heritage where the replacement or election has not been supported by the Board; dissolution, or sale of 50% or more in value of the assets, of either Heritage or Heritage Bank or any of their respective subsidiaries; or the merger of Heritage into any corporation, 25% or more of the outstanding common stock of which is owned by persons other than owners of the common stock of Heritage prior to such merger.

The employment agreement with Mr. Vance provides that in the event he receives an amount under the provisions of the agreements that results in imposition of a tax on the executive under the provisions of the Code Section 4999 (relating to golden Parachute payments), the employer is obligated to reimburse the executive for that amount, exclusive of any tax imposed by reason of receipt of reimbursement under the employment agreements.

The agreements restrict the right of Messrs. Rhodes and Vance to compete against Heritage or Heritage Bank in the State of Washington for a period of two years following termination of employment, except if employment is terminated by Heritage without cause or by Mr. Rhodes or Mr. Vance for good reason.

Effective on March 5, 1999, Central Valley Bank and D. Michael Broadhead entered into an employment agreement. The term of the agreement expired on December 31, 2002 and is currently subject to automatic one year renewal extensions unless prior notice otherwise is given. The agreement calls for Mr. Broadhead to serve as President of Central Valley Bank at a base annual salary of no less than $110,000 plus customary fringe benefits. Also, under the agreement, on December 31, 2005 (regardless of whether Mr. Broadhead is employed by Central Valley Bank at the time), Mr. Broadhead is eligible to receive a payment of $40,000 plus $10,000 for each full year of his service at Central Valley Bank or its successor up to a $200,000 maximum payment. Mr. Broadhead's estate is also entitled to a death benefit payment of no less than $100,000 nor more than $200,000 if he dies prior to the receipt of the December 31, 2005 service payment.

In the event Mr. Broadhead's employment is terminated by Central Valley Bank at any time for cause or if Mr. Broadhead resigns without good reason and his resignation does not coincide with a change in control of Heritage, Mr. Broadhead will not be entitled to any severance benefit payable to him. The agreement does provide for the payment of a severance benefit to Mr. Broadhead (in addition to his service payment described above) in the event of his termination of employment in some cases preceding, and for any reason following by up to one year, a change in control of Heritage. Under the terms of the agreement, Mr. Broadhead is entitled to receive an amount of up to 36 months of his base salary in effect at the time if his employment is terminated without cause by Central Valley Bank from the time after a change in control transaction is announced up to one year following the completion of the change in control or if Mr. Broadhead resigns for any reason within a year after the change in control is completed.

The agreement restricts the right of Mr. Broadhead to compete against Heritage or Central Valley Bank in Yakima County, Washington for a period of up to three years unless Mr. Broadhead is terminated without cause or resigns for good reason.

Table of ContentsSection 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance.

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires directors, executive officers and greater than 10% stockholders to file reports of their ownership and any changes in ownership of Heritage securities with the Securities and Exchange Commission. These directors, executive officers and greater than 10% stockholders are required by regulation to provide Heritage with a copy of any Section 16(a) reports they file. Based on Heritage's review of copies of these reports received by it and written representations made to Heritage by these persons, Heritage believes that all Section 16(a) filing requirements applicable to its directors, executive officers and greater than 10% stockholders were complied with during the year ended December 31, 2005.

Interest of Management in Certain Transactions.

During the year ended December 31, 2005, several directors and executive officers of Heritage and Heritage Bank and their associates, were customers of Heritage Bank or Central Valley Bank, and it is anticipated that these persons will continue to be customers of Heritage Bank or Central Valley Bank in the future. All transactions between Heritage Bank and Central Valley Bank and its executive officers and directors, and their associates, were made in the ordinary course of business on substantially the same terms, including interest rates and collateral, as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with other persons, and, in the opinion of management, did not involve more than the normal risk of repayment or present other unfavorable features.

Relationship with Independent Public Accountants.

The firm of KPMG LLP performed the audit of the consolidated financial statements of Heritage and its subsidiaries for the period ended December 31, 2005. The Audit and Finance Committee has retained KPMG LLP as independent auditors of Heritage and its subsidiaries for the year ending December 31, 2006, subject to the terms of an engagement letter with that firm. Stockholders are not required to take action on this retention. Representatives of KPMG LLP will be present at the annual meeting. They will have the opportunity to present a statement if they desire and will be available to respond to appropriate questions.

Fees for services provided by KPMG during 2005 and 2004 were as follows:

	2005	2004
Audit fees (1)	$ 280,290	$ 250,820
Other Fees:
Audit related	$	$
Tax fees	44,800	35,530

Financial and other information relating to Heritage is set forth in Heritage's annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005. Information regarding the names, ages, positions and business backgrounds of the executive officers and directors of Heritage, as well as additional information, including executive compensation, security ownership of certain beneficial owners and management, and certain relationships and related transactions, is set forth in or incorporated by reference in Heritage's annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005. WWB

WWB is a Washington corporation registered as a bank holding company under The Bank Holding Company Act of 1956. WWB is primarily engaged in the business of planning, directing, and coordinating the business activities of its wholly owned subsidiary, WSB. WSB is headquartered in Federal Way, Washington, where it conducts its business from its main branch office. As of December 31, 2005, WSB had total assets of approximately $57.2 million, total loans receivable of approximately $44.7 million, total deposits of approximately $47.8 million and shareholders' equity of approximately $6.0 million.

WSB is a nationally chartered commercial bank. WSB engages primarily in the business of providing commercial, real estate, private and professional banking services to commercial and individual customers in Federal Way, including short-term and medium-term loans, revolving credit facilities, residential and commercial construction lending, mortgage lending, various savings programs, checking accounts, installment and personal loans, and bank credit cards.

Business Strategy. Since its organization in 1992, WSB has pursued an aggressive growth strategy. WSB has capitalized on market opportunities created by failures of larger banking organizations to focus on local customers following mergers and consolidations and on the strength and experience of its management team. WSB has successfully grown its assets to approximately $57.2 million in thirteen (13) years, with corresponding growth in revenues and earnings, by differentiating its level of service and by being disciplined and focused in its marketing activities.

WSB has always prioritized timely local decision-making and emphasized the highest level of personal banking service. WSB strives to attract and retain the most dedicated and experienced banking professionals in the market and has built its business model around relationship managers that remain directly involved in all aspects of customer relationships.

WSB invests a considerable amount of management and officer time in developing and maintaining referral networks, particularly with professional firms and existing customers. Targets include small-to-medium sized businesses that are generally privately held and not in higher-risk industries requiring specialized knowledge.

Certain financial-related products and service areas have been identified as important to WSB's customer base, yet at the Bank's current volume remain too costly for direct investment. Therefore, WSB has developed strategic referral alliances with providers of equipment leasing, asset-based financing, long-term commercial real estate lending, investment management and payroll processing. These alliances allow WSB to expand its product offerings and generate fee income without significant capital investment.

Products and Services. WSB provides its customers a traditional array of deposit products, including non-interest checking accounts, interest-bearing checking and savings accounts, money market accounts and certificates of deposit. In addition, the Bank offers specialized loans for its business and commercial customers, including working capital and term financing, commercial and standby letter of credit financing, real estate construction loans and SBA loans for qualified businesses. Commercial lending is the primary focus of WSB's lending activities and a significant portion of its loan portfolio consists of commercial loans.

Real estate loans are also available for construction, purchase and refinancing of residential owner-occupied and rental properties, with a variety of fixed and adjustable rate options and terms.

WSB provides loans to individual borrowers for a variety of purposes, including secured and unsecured personal loans, home equity and personal lines of credit.

Market Area. WSB primarily accepts deposits and makes loans within Federal Way and in nearby towns. Due to this market focus, WSB is more dependent on, and exposed to, changes in the local economy than competitors who serve a number of geographic markets. King County, where Federal Way is located, is the state's largest population center, home to approximately half of all Washingtonians. The population grew more than 15% in the last decade.

Table of Contents

Competition. The community banking business is highly competitive. WSB competes primarily with other commercial banks, as well as savings and loan associations, finance companies, and credit unions. WSB's major commercial bank competitors are super-regional diversified financial institutions headquartered outside the state of Washington, such as Bank of America, Wells Fargo Bank, U.S. Bank and Washington Mutual. Deposits at these institutions represent a significant majority of total statewide commercial bank deposits. The major commercial banks have competitive advantages over WWB in that they have higher lending limits and are able to offer statewide facilities and services that WSB does not offer. To a lesser extent, WSB also competes with several locally headquartered community banks.

Facilities. WWB operates out of its main office which is leased, located at 32303 Pacific Highway South, Federal Way, Washington. It was originally constructed in 1979 and is 6,175 square feet in size.

Employees. As of February 15, 2006, WWB and WSB had a total of 14 full-time equivalent employees. None of WWB's employees are covered by a collective bargaining agreement. Management believes relations with its employees are good.

Legal Proceedings. There are no threatened or pending legal proceedings against WWB which, if determined adversely, would, in the opinion of management, have a material adverse effect on the business or financial position of WWB.

DESCRIPTION OF HERITAGE CAPITAL STOCK

Heritage is authorized to issue 15,000,000 shares of common stock, without par value and 2,500,000 shares of preferred stock without par value. Heritage common stock is listed for trading on the NASDAQ National Market under the symbol HFWA. Each share of Heritage common stock has the same relative rights and is identical in all respects with every other share of Heritage common stock. The following summary is not a complete description of the applicable provisions of Heritage's articles of incorporation and bylaws or of applicable statutory or other law, and is qualified in its entirety by reference thereto. See Where You Can Find More Information.

Common Stock

Voting Rights. The holders of Heritage common stock possess exclusive voting rights in Heritage. Each holder of Heritage common stock is entitled to one vote for each share held of record on all matters submitted to a vote of holders of Heritage common stock. Holders of shares of Heritage common stock are not entitled to cumulate votes for the election of directors.

Dividends. The holders of Heritage common stock are entitled to such dividends as the Heritage Board may declare from time to time out of funds legally available therefore. Dividends from Heritage depend upon the receipt by Heritage of dividends from its subsidiaries because Heritage has no source of income other than dividends from its subsidiaries.

Liquidation. In the event of liquidation, dissolution or winding up of Heritage, the holders of shares of Heritage common stock are entitled to share ratably in all assets remaining after payment of all debts and other liabilities of Heritage.

Other Characteristics. Holders of Heritage common stock do not have any preemptive, conversion or other subscription rights with respect to any additional shares of Heritage common stock which may be issued. Therefore, the board of directors of Heritage may authorize the issuance and sale of shares of common stock of Heritage without first offering them to existing shareholders of Heritage. Heritage common stock is not subject to any redemption or sinking fund provisions. The outstanding shares of Heritage common stock are, and the shares to be issued in the merger will be, fully paid and non-assessable.

COMPARISON OF SHAREHOLDERS RIGHTS

Heritage and WWB are incorporated under the laws of the state of Washington and, accordingly, the rights of their respective shareholders are governed by their articles of incorporation, bylaws, and the Washington Business Corporation Act (WBCA).

Upon consummation of the merger, shareholders of WWB will become shareholders of Heritage and, as such, their rights will be governed by Heritage s articles of incorporation, its bylaws, and the WBCA. The following is a summary of material differences between the rights of a Heritage shareholder under Heritage s articles of incorporation and bylaws, and the rights of a WWB shareholder under WWB s articles of incorporation and bylaws. This discussion is not intended to be a complete statement of the differences affecting the rights of shareholders and is qualified in its entirety by reference to governing law and the articles of incorporation and bylaws of each corporation. See Where You Can Find More Information.

Preferred Stock

Heritage. Heritage has 2,500,000 shares of preferred stock authorized but unissued. Heritage s board of directors can at any time, under Heritage s articles of incorporation, and without stockholder approval, issue one or more new series of preferred stock. In some cases, the issuance of preferred stock could discourage or make more difficult attempts to take control of Heritage through a merger, tender offer, proxy contest or otherwise. Preferred stock with special voting rights or other features issued to persons favoring Heritage management could stop a takeover by preventing the person trying to take control of Heritage from acquiring enough voting shares necessary to take control.

WWB. WWB s articles of incorporation do not provide for the issuance of any preferred stock.

Board of Directors

Heritage. Heritage s articles of incorporation provide that its board of directors shall consist of not less than five nor more than 25 members. Heritage s board of directors currently consists of 11 members.

WWB. WWB s bylaws provide that its board of directors shall consist of not less than five nor more than 25 members. WWB s board of directors currently consists of six members.

Classification of Directors

Heritage. Heritage s articles of incorporation provide that the board of directors will be divided into three classes of directors as nearly equal as possible, with each class being elected to a staggered three-year term.

WWB. WWB s articles of incorporation do not provide for a staggered board.

Removal of Directors

Heritage. Heritage s articles of incorporation provide that any director or the entire board of directors may be removed only for cause by the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the total votes eligible to be cast at a meeting called expressly for such purpose. These supermajority and cause requirements make it difficult for a person or entity to acquire control of Heritage s board of directors through director elections.

WWB. WWB s articles of incorporation do not provide that directors may only be removed for cause.

Special Meetings of Shareholders

Heritage. Heritage s bylaws provide that special meetings of shareholders may be called only by the chairman of the board, vice chairman, chief executive officer, president, the board of directors, or holders of not less than 10% of the outstanding shares entitled to vote at the meeting. This restriction on who may call a special meeting of shareholders may deter hostile takeovers of Heritage by making it more difficult for a person or entity to call a special meeting of shareholders for the purpose of considering an acquisition proposal or related matters.

WWB. WWB's bylaws provide that special meetings of the shareholders may be called by the president, the board of directors, or by holders of not less than 25% of the outstanding capital stock of WWB entitled to vote at the meeting.

Nomination of Director Candidates and Other Shareholder Proposals

Heritage. Heritage's articles of incorporation provide detailed procedures that must be strictly complied with in order for shareholder nominations of candidates for directors or shareholder proposals to be considered at a shareholders' meeting. These procedures include providing a specific form of notice to Heritage of such proposals or nominees generally not more than 150 days prior to the annual meeting and not less than ten days after the company's first public announcement of the date of such meeting, and not more than 150 days prior to such meeting nor less than the later of 120 days prior to such meeting or ten days after the company's first public announcement of the date of such meeting and the board's nominees to be elected at such meeting, for any shareholder nomination for a special meeting. Failure to comply with these procedural requirements will preclude such nominations or new business from being considered at the meeting. These procedures make it more difficult for a shareholder to oppose the board's nominees or proposals, and to introduce competing nominees or proposals, at meetings of shareholders.

WWB. WWB's bylaws provide that shareholder nominations of director candidates may be made at an annual meeting of shareholders only: (A) pursuant to the corporation's notice of meeting (or any supplement thereto); (B) by or at the direction of the board of directors; or (C) by a shareholder of the corporation who is a shareholder of record of the corporation if the shareholder's notice is delivered to the Secretary of the corporation at the principal offices of the corporation during the time period specified in the corporation's proxy statement released to shareholders in connection with the previous annual meeting. If no time period is specified in the prior year's annual meeting proxy statement, the shareholder's notice must be delivered to the Secretary of the corporation at the principal offices of the corporation not less than 120 days before and not more than 150 days prior to the first anniversary of the date of the corporation's proxy statement released to shareholders in connection with the previous year's annual meeting (provided, however, that in the event that the date of the corporation's annual meeting is more than thirty days before or after the date of the previous year's annual meeting, notice by the shareholder must be so delivered not more than 150 days prior to such annual meeting or the tenth day following the day on which public announcement of the date of such meeting is first made by the corporation).

For nominations or other business to be properly brought before an annual meeting by a shareholder or before a special meeting by a shareholder, the shareholder must have given timely notice thereof in writing to the Secretary of the corporation and any such proposed business other than the nomination of persons for election to the board of directors must constitute a proper matter for shareholder action. Such shareholder's notice must set forth: (A) as to each person whom the shareholder proposes to nominate for election as a director all information relating to such person that would be required to be disclosed in solicitations of proxies for election of directors in an election contest with respect to a company that is registered with the Securities Exchange Commission, pursuant to Regulation 14A under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended and Rule 14a-12 thereunder (and such person's written consent to being named in the proxy statement as a nominee and to serving as a director if elected); (B) as to any other business that the shareholder proposes to bring before the meeting, a brief description of the business desired to be brought before the meeting, the text of the proposal or business (including the text of any resolutions proposed for consideration and in the event that such business includes a proposal to amend the Bylaws of the corporation, the language of the proposed amendment), the reasons for conducting such business at the meeting and any material interest in such business of such shareholder and the beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the proposal is made; and (C) as to the shareholder giving the notice and the beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the nomination or proposal is made (i) the name and address of such shareholder, as they appear on the corporation's books, and of such beneficial owner, (ii) the class and number of shares of capital stock of the corporation which are owned beneficially and of record by such shareholder and such beneficial owner, (iii) a representation that the shareholder is a holder of record of stock of the corporation entitled to vote at such meeting and/or by proxy at the meeting to propose such business or nomination, and (iv) a representation whether the shareholder or the beneficial owner, if any, intends or is part of a group which intends (a) to deliver a proxy statement and/or form of proxy to holders of at least the percentage of the corporation's outstanding capital stock required to approve or adopt the proposal or elect the nominee and/or (b) otherwise to solicit proxies from shareholders in support of such proposal or nomination. The corporation may require any proposed nominee to furnish such other information as it may reasonably require to determine the eligibility of such proposed nominee to serve as a director of the corporation.

Indemnification of Officers and Directors and Limitation of Liability

Heritage. Heritage's articles of incorporation provide for the indemnification of directors and certain officers.

Heritage's articles of incorporation also direct the Board of Directors to pay reasonable expenses of defense incurred by, or to satisfy a judgment or fine against a current or former director. Indemnification will be made in connection with any personal legal liability incurred by the individual while acting for or on behalf of the company in his or her capacity as a director or officer (if the officer is also a director) unless the board of directors finds that there is clear and convincing evidence that the individual has engaged in egregious conduct or a court determines that the liability was the result of egregious conduct. The indemnified party must agree to repay any expense advances (if such party is adjudged not to be entitled to them) and the board of directors is entitled to require security for advances. Egregious conduct is defined as intentional misconduct, a knowing violation of law or participation in any transaction from which the person will personally receive a benefit in money, property, or services to which that person is not legally entitled. Heritage's articles of incorporation also include a provision that limits the liability of directors from any personal liability to the company or its shareholders for conduct not found to have been egregious.

WWB. Pursuant to WWB's articles of incorporation, WWB has the power to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of WWB) by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of WWB or is or was serving at the request of WWB as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorney's fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement, actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of WWB, and, with respect to any criminal action pending or proceeding if he had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful.

Any person who was or is a party, or is threatened to be a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of WWB to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of WWB, is or was serving at the request of WWB as a director, officer, employee, or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, shall be indemnified by WWB against expenses (including attorney's fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of WWB. Except that no indemnification shall be made in respect to any claim, issue, or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his duties to WWB; UNLESS AND ONLY to the extent that the Court with competent jurisdiction, shall determine upon application, that, despite the adjudication of liability, but in view of all, the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification for such expenses which such court shall deem proper.

Table of Contents

When any director, officer, employee or agent of WWB shall have been successful in defending on the merits or otherwise any action, suit, or proceeding referred to in Sections 1 and 2, or in defense of any claim, issue, or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorney's fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him upon providing appropriate evidence and substantiation thereof to the Board of Directors.

Any other indemnification shall be made by WWB as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification is proper in the circumstances because the director, officer, employee, or agent has met the applicable standards of conduct. Such determination shall be made:

- (a) By a court order; or
- (b) By a majority vote of a quorum of the Board of Directors consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit, or proceeding; or
- (c) If such quorum is not obtainable, or even if obtainable and a quorum of disinterested directors so direct, then by a majority of all directors based on a written opinion of independent counsel; or
- (d) By a vote of majority shareholders.

Expenses incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit, or proceeding may be paid in full by WWB in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit, or proceeding if authorized in a manner provided in subsection (4) and upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director, officer, employee, or agent to repay such amount unless it shall ultimately be determined that he is entitled to be indemnified by WWB.

The indemnification provided by this Article shall not be deemed to be exclusive of any other right to which a person seeking indemnification may be entitled under any Bylaws, agreement, vote of the shareholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent, and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns of such person.

No director of the corporation shall be liable to the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for conduct as a director provided that this provision shall not eliminate or limit the liability of a director for acts or admissions that involve intentional misconduct by a director or a knowing violation of law by a director, for conduct violating RCW 23A.08.450, or for any transaction from which the director will personally receive a benefit in money, property, or services to which the director is not legally entitled. This provision shall only be effective from the date it is filed with the Secretary of State of the state of Washington.

Amendment of Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws

Heritage. Amendments to Heritage's articles of incorporation must be approved by a majority of the Heritage Board and also by a majority of the outstanding share of voting stock. An exception to this requirement is that an affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the outstanding voting stock entitled to vote is required to amend or repeal certain provisions of the Heritage articles of incorporation. These provisions requiring the greater vote include the provision limiting voting rights, the provisions relating to approval of certain business combinations, the number and classification of directors, director and officer indemnification by Heritage, and amendment of the Heritage articles of incorporation. These provisions render more difficult the accomplishment of a merger or the assumption of control by a principal shareholder, and such provisions make the removal of management more difficult.

Unless applicable law requires a different vote with respect to a particular provision in the Heritage bylaws, the bylaws may be amended or repealed by a majority vote of the Board of Heritage.

WWB. WWB's articles of incorporation may generally be amended by the vote of a majority of the shares eligible to be cast at a meeting of the shareholders. WWB's bylaws may be amended by the board of directors or by the holders of a majority of shares.

Anti-Takeover Defenses, Approval of Mergers, Sale of Substantially All Assets, Tender Offers and Business Combinations

Heritage. Certain provisions of the Heritage articles of incorporation and bylaws may be deemed to have an anti-takeover effect. These provisions may have the effect of discouraging a future takeover attempt which is not approved by the Heritage Board, but which individual Heritage shareholders may deem to be in their best interest or in which shareholders may receive a substantial premium for their shares over current market prices. As a result, shareholders who might desire to participate in such a transaction may not have an opportunity to do so. These provisions in the Heritage articles and bylaws also will render the removal of incumbent members of the Board or management or Heritage more difficult.

Heritage's articles of incorporation provide for restrictions on voting rights of shares owned in excess of 10% of any class of equity security of Heritage. Specifically, Heritage's articles of incorporation provide that if any person acquires the beneficial ownership of more than 10% of any class of equity security of Heritage, then, with respect to each vote in excess of 10%, the record holders of voting stock of Heritage beneficially owned by such person will be entitled to cast only 1/100th of one vote with respect to each vote in excess of 10% of the voting power of the outstanding shares of Heritage voting stock which such record holders would otherwise be entitled to cast without giving effect to this provision. The aggregate voting power of such record holders will be allocated proportionately among such record holders. An exception from this restriction is provided if the acquisition of more than 10% of the securities receive the prior approval of a two-thirds vote of continuing directors of Heritage. Under Heritage's articles of incorporation, the restriction on voting shares beneficially owned in violation of these limitations is imposed automatically. In order to prevent the imposition of such restrictions, the Heritage Board must take affirmative action approving in advance a particular offer to acquire or an acquisition. Unless the Heritage Board takes such affirmative action, the provision would operate to restrict the voting by beneficial owners of more than 10% of Heritage common stock in a proxy contest.

Heritage articles of incorporation require the approval of the holders of at least two-thirds of Heritage's outstanding shares of voting stock to approve certain business combinations involving a person related to Heritage, except in cases where the proposed transaction has been approved in advance by a majority of the members of the Heritage Board who are not affiliated with the related person and were directors before the time the related person became related to Heritage. The person related to Heritage in this situation includes any individual, corporation, partnership or other entity which beneficially owns or controls, directly or indirectly, 10% or more of the outstanding shares of voting stock of Heritage or an affiliate of such related person.

Heritage's articles of incorporation also allow the Heritage Board to consider certain non-monetary factors when evaluating an acquisition offer by another party. These factors may include the social and economic effects of the potential transaction on Heritage's employees, customers, suppliers and the communities in which Heritage and its subsidiaries operate or are located.

WWB. WWB's articles of incorporation do not contain any special business combination or fair price provisions.

Certificates representing Dissenting Shares shall only represent the holder's right as a dissenting shareholder.

(F) If, between the Execution Date and the Effective Date, the shares of Heritage Common Stock shall be changed into a different number or class of shares by reason of any reclassification, recapitalization, split-up, combination, exchange of shares or readjustment, or a stock dividend thereon shall be declared with a record date within such period, appropriate adjustments shall be made to the Per Share Consideration.

(G) As of the Effective Date, all shares of WWB Common Stock that are owned, directly or indirectly, by WWB or Heritage or any of their respective Subsidiaries [other than shares of WWB Common Stock (x) held directly or indirectly in trust accounts, managed accounts and the like or otherwise held in a fiduciary capacity for the benefit of third parties (any such shares, and shares of Heritage Common Stock which are similarly held, whether held directly or indirectly by Heritage or WWB, as the case may be, being referred to herein as Trust Account Shares) or (y) held by Heritage or WWB or any of their respective Subsidiaries in respect of a debt previously contracted (any such shares of WWB Common Stock, and shares of Heritage Common Stock which are similarly held, whether held directly or indirectly by Heritage or WWB, being referred to herein as DPC Shares)] shall be canceled and shall cease to exist and no stock of Heritage, cash or other consideration shall be delivered in exchange therefore.

On or before the Effective Date, Heritage shall deposit, or shall cause to be deposited, with a bank or trust company (the Exchange Agent) selected by Heritage and reasonably satisfactory to WWB, for the benefit of the holders of Certificates, for exchange in accordance with this ARTICLE II: (A) certificates representing the shares of Heritage Common Stock to be issued pursuant to Section 1.3 and Section 2.2(A) in exchange for outstanding shares of WWB Common Stock; (B) such cash as shall be necessary to pay the Cash Consideration to each WWB shareholder in accordance with Section 1.3 and 2.2(A); and (C) the cash in lieu of fractional shares to be paid in accordance with Section 2.2(E). (E) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, no certificates or scrip representing fractional shares of Heritage Common Stock shall be issued upon the surrender for exchange of Certificates, no dividend or distribution with respect to Heritage Common Stock shall be payable on or with respect to any fractional share, and such fractional share interests shall not entitle the owner thereof to vote or to any other rights of a shareholder of Heritage. In lieu of the issuance of any such fractional share, Heritage shall pay to each former shareholder of WWB who otherwise would be entitled to receive a fractional share of Heritage Common Stock an amount in cash determined by multiplying (1) the Heritage Average Closing Price by (2) the fraction of a share of Heritage Common Stock which such holder would otherwise be entitled to receive pursuant to Section 1.3 hereof.

(O) REDONDO OFFICE SITE. As of the effective date, WSB's lease on its second office site shall be terminated at no cost and with no penalty to Heritage or to WWB or WSB. The building at that site shall be removed from the books of WWB, WSB and Washington State Bank Real Estate Holdings, Inc. (Holdings) at a loss after tax not exceeding $101,640. In addition, the building is to be sold for cash with no financing provided by WWB or WSB.

(A) PERFORMANCE. Each of the material acts, covenants and undertakings of Heritage to be performed at or before the Effective Date shall have been duly performed in all material respects.

(B) REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES. The representations and warranties of Heritage contained in this Agreement shall be true and correct on and as of the Effective Date with the same effect as though made on and at the Effective Date, except for any such representations and warranties that specifically relate to an earlier date, which shall be true and correct as of such earlier date; provided in each case that any such failure to be true and correct, individually or in the aggregate, would have a Material Adverse Effect on Heritage.

(C) LEGAL OPINION. WWB shall have received a legal opinion, dated the Effective Date, from Gerrish McCreary Smith, PC in the form of EXHIBIT G.

(D) OFFICER'S CERTIFICATE. (1) Each of the representations and warranties of Heritage and Heritage Bank contained in this Agreement shall be true and correct in all material respects as of the Execution Date and upon the Effective Date with the same effect as though all such representations and warranties had been made on the Effective Date, except for any such representations and warranties that specifically relate to an earlier date, which shall be true and correct as of such earlier date, and (2) each and all of the agreements and covenants of Heritage and Heritage Bank to be performed and complied with pursuant to this Agreement on or prior to the Effective Date shall have been duly performed and complied with in all material respects, and WWB shall have received a certificate signed by an executive officer of Heritage and Heritage Bank dated the Effective Date, to such effect.

(E) NO MATERIAL ADVERSE CHANGE. During the period from the Execution Date to the Effective Date, there shall have occurred or be threatened no change relative to: (1) the business, property, assets (including loan portfolios), liabilities (whether absolute, contingent or otherwise), prospects, operations, liquidity, income or condition (financial or otherwise) of Heritage and/or its Subsidiaries which is reasonably likely, individually or in the aggregate to have a Material Adverse Effect on Heritage and/or its Subsidiaries, other than any such effect attributable to or resulting from (i) any change in banking or similar laws, rules or regulations of general applicability or interpretations thereof by courts or governmental authorities, (ii) any change in GAAP (as defined herein) or regulatory accounting principles applicable to banks, thrifts or their holding companies generally, (iii) changes attributable to or resulting from changes in general economic conditions, including changes in the prevailing level of interest rates, (iv) any action or omission of WWB or Heritage or any Subsidiary of either of them taken with the prior written consent of the other party hereto, or (v) any expenses incurred by such party in connection with this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby; or (2) the ability of Heritage and/or its Subsidiaries to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.

(F) FAIRNESS OPINION. WWB's financial advisor, McAdams Wright Ragen, Inc., shall not have withdrawn its fairness opinion described in Section 4.1(EE) prior to the Effective Date.

ARTICLE VII. TERMINATION

7.1 TERMINATION. This Agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the Effective Date, before or after approval of the matters presented in connection with the Corporate Merger by the holders of WWB Common Stock, under each of the following conditions:

(A) MUTUAL CONSENT. By the mutual consent of Heritage and WWB, if the Board of Directors of each so determines by vote of a majority of the members of its entire board.

(B) DELAY. By Heritage or WWB in the event the Corporate Merger is not consummated by June 30, 2006, unless the failure of the consummation of the transactions to occur shall be due to the failure of the party seeking to terminate this Agreement to perform its obligations hereunder in a timely manner; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that Heritage may not terminate the Agreement pursuant to this Section 7.1(B), if such delay results from amendments to the Registration Statement or a resolicitation of proxies as a consequence of a Heritage Transaction, or any other acquisition or sale transaction, or any offering of securities, in which Heritage is involved, and PROVIDED, FURTHER, that a party may not terminate the Agreement pursuant to this Section 7.1(B) if it is in material breach of any of the provisions of this Agreement.

(C) NO FAIRNESS OPINION. By WWB in the event the fairness opinion described in Section 6.3(F) is not received or is withdrawn; provided, however, if this Agreement is terminated in reliance upon this Section 7.1(C) and WWB enters into any Acquisition Agreement providing for any transaction described in clause (1) or clause (2) of Section 5.18(D) on or before June 30, 2007 following the termination of this Agreement pursuant to this Section 7.1(C), WWB shall pay to Heritage $500,000 (less any Termination Fee Amount previously paid).

(D) NO REGULATORY APPROVALS. By Heritage or WWB, in the event that any of the required regulatory approvals described in Section 6.1(C) are denied (or should any such required approval be conditioned upon a substantial deviation from the transactions contemplated); PROVIDED HOWEVER, that either party may extend the term of this Agreement for a sixty (60) day period to prosecute diligently and overturn such denial provided that such denial has been appealed within fourteen (14) business days of the receipt thereof.

(E) BREACH OF WARRANTY. By Heritage or WWB (provided that the terminating party is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained herein) if there shall have been a material breach of any of the representations or warranties set forth in this Agreement on the part of the other party, which breach is not cured within thirty (30) days following written notice to the party committing such breach, or which breach, by its nature, cannot be cured prior to the Effective Date; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that neither party shall have the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 7.1(E) unless the breach of representation or warranty, together with all other such breaches, would entitle the party receiving such representation or warranty not to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby under Section 6.2(B) (in the case of a breach of representation or warranty by WWB or WWB Bank) or Section 6.3(B) (in the case of a breach of representation or warranty by Heritage or Heritage Bank).

(F) BREACH OF COVENANT. By Heritage or WWB (provided that the terminating party is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement contained herein) if there shall have been a material breach of any of the covenants or agreements set forth in this Agreement on the part of the other party, which breach shall not have been cured within thirty (30) days following receipt by the breaching party of written notice of such breach from the other party hereto, or which breach, by its nature, cannot be cured prior to the Effective Date.

(G) SUPERIOR PROPOSAL. By WWB, in the event that the Board of Directors of WWB determines in good faith, after consultation with outside counsel, that in light of a Superior Proposal (as defined in Section 5.18) it would not be consistent with its fiduciary duties to WWB and to WWB's shareholders under applicable law to continue with the transactions contemplated under this Agreement; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that the Board of Directors of WWB may terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 7.1(G) solely in order to concurrently enter into a letter of intent, agreement in principle, acquisition agreement or other similar agreement (each, an Acquisition Agreement) related to a Superior Proposal; provided further, however, that this Agreement may be terminated pursuant to this Section 7.1(G) only after the fifth day following Heritage's receipt of written notice advising Heritage that the Board of Directors of WWB is prepared to accept a Superior Proposal, and only if, during such five-day period, if Heritage so elects, WWB and its advisors shall have negotiated in good faith with Heritage to make such adjustments in the terms and conditions of this Agreement as would enable Heritage to proceed with the transactions contemplated herein on such adjusted terms.

(H) HERITAGE CONDITION PRECEDENT. By Heritage as a result of a Material Adverse Change in WWB or WSB as set forth in Section 6.2(F).

(I) WWB CONDITION PRECEDENT. By WWB as a result of a Material Adverse Change in Heritage or Heritage Bank as set forth in Section 6.3(E).

(J) HERITAGE AVERAGE CLOSING PRICE. By Heritage, by written notice to WWB within two (2) business days immediately following the date of determination of the Heritage Average Closing Price, in the event that the Heritage Average Closing Price is less than $19.00. If Heritage declares or effects a stock dividend, reclassification, recapitalization, split-up, combination, exchanges of shares or similar transaction between the Execution Date and the Effective Date, the prices of the Heritage Common Stock shall be appropriately adjusted for the purposes of applying this Section 7.1(J).

7.2 EFFECT OF TERMINATION.

(A) In the event of termination of this Agreement by either Heritage or WWB as provided in Section 7.1, this Agreement shall forthwith become void and have no effect except (1) Sections 5.6(B), 5.18, 7.1(D), 7.2 and 8.5 through 8.7 shall survive any termination of this Agreement, and (2) that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, no party shall be relieved or released from any liabilities or damages arising out of its willful breach of any provision of this Agreement.

(B) If either party terminates this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.1(E) or Section 7.1(F) by reason of the other party's breach of this Agreement or if WWB or WSB terminates this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.1(G), the non-breaching party shall be entitled to a payment equal to $500,000 (the Termination Fee Amount) from the breaching party.

(C) In the event that an Acquisition Proposal with respect to WWB shall have been made known to WWB and shall have been publicly announced or otherwise become public, or shall have been made to the shareholders of WWB, and thereafter (1) this Agreement is terminated by either Heritage or WWB pursuant to Section 7.1(B) hereof and prior to such termination the shareholders of WWB shall not have previously approved the Merger, and (2) WWB consummates any Acquisition Agreement providing for any transaction described in Section 5.18 on or before June 30, 2007 then upon the first occurrence of an event contemplated by clause (2) of this Section 7.2(C) WWB shall pay Heritage $500,000 (less any Termination Fee Amount previously paid).

ARTICLE VIII. OTHER MATTERS

8.1 SURVIVAL. Only those agreements and covenants in this Agreement that by their express terms apply in whole or in part after the Effective Date shall survive the Effective Date. All other representations, warranties, and covenants shall be deemed only to be conditions of the Mergers and shall not survive the Effective Date. 8.2 AMENDMENT. Subject to compliance with applicable law, this Agreement may be amended by the parties hereto, by action taken or authorized by their respective Boards of Directors, at any date before or after approval of the matters presented in connection with the Corporate Merger by the shareholders of WWB; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that after any approval of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement by WWB's shareholders, there may not be, without further approval of such shareholders, any amendment of this Agreement which reduces the amount or changes the form of the consideration to be delivered to WWB shareholders hereunder other than as contemplated by this Agreement. This Agreement may not be amended except by an instrument in writing signed on behalf of each of the parties hereto.

Any agreement on the part of a party hereto to any such extension or waiver shall be valid only if set forth in a written instrument signed on behalf of such party, but such extension or waiver or failure to insist on strict compliance with an obligation, covenant, agreement or condition shall not operate as a waiver of, or estoppel with respect to, any subsequent or other failure.

8.4 COUNTERPARTS. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, all of which shall become effective when one or more counterparts have been signed by each of the Parties and delivered to the other Party, it being understood that both Parties need not sign the same counterpart.

APPENDIX B

DISSENTERS RIGHTS UNDER THE WASHINGTON BUSINESS CORPORATION ACT Chapter 13 of the Washington Business Corporation Act

RCW 23B.13.010 Definitions. As used in this chapter:

- (1) Corporation means the issuer of the shares held by a dissenter before the corporate action, or the surviving or acquiring corporation by merger or share exchange of that issuer.
- (2) Dissenter means a shareholder who is entitled to dissent from corporate action under RCW 23B.13.020 and who exercises that right when and in the manner required by RCW 23B.13.200 through 23B.13.280.
- (3) Fair value, with respect to a dissenter's shares, means the value of the shares immediately before the effective date of the corporate action to which the dissenter objects, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in anticipation of the corporate action unless exclusion would be inequitable.
- (4) Interest means interest from the effective date of the corporate action until the date of payment, at the average rate currently paid by the corporation on its principal bank loans or, if none, at a rate that is fair and equitable under all the circumstances.
- (5) Record shareholder means the person in whose name shares are registered in the records of a corporation or the beneficial owner of shares to the extent of the rights granted by a nominee certificate on file with a corporation.
- (6) Beneficial shareholder means the person who is a beneficial owner of shares held in a voting trust or by a nominee as the record shareholder.
- (7) Shareholder means the record shareholder or the beneficial shareholder.

RCW 23B.13.020 Right to dissent.

- (1) A shareholder is entitled to dissent from, and obtain payment of the fair value of the shareholder's shares in the event of, any of the following corporate actions:
 - (a) Consummation of a plan of merger to which the corporation is a party (i) if shareholder approval is required for the merger by RCW 23B.11.030, 23B.11.080, or the articles of incorporation and the shareholder is entitled to vote on the merger, or (ii) if the corporation is a subsidiary that is merged with its parent under RCW 23B.11.040;
 - (b) Consummation of a plan of share exchange to which the corporation is a party as the corporation whose shares will be acquired, if the shareholder is entitled to vote on the plan;
 - (c) Consummation of a sale or exchange of all, or substantially all, of the property of the corporation other than in the usual and regular course of business, if the shareholder is entitled to vote on the sale or exchange, including a sale in dissolution, but not including a sale pursuant to court order or a sale for cash pursuant to a plan by which all or substantially all of the net proceeds of the sale will be distributed to the shareholders within one year after the date of sale;
 - (d) An amendment of the articles of incorporation that materially reduces the number of shares owned by the shareholder to a fraction of a share if the fractional share so created is to be acquired for cash under RCW 23B.06.040; or
 - (e) Any corporate action taken pursuant to a shareholder vote to the extent the articles of incorporation, bylaws, or a resolution of the board of directors provides that voting or nonvoting shareholders are entitled to dissent and obtain payment for their shares.

Table of Contents

(2) A shareholder entitled to dissent and obtain payment for the shareholder's shares under this chapter may not challenge the corporate action creating the shareholder's entitlement unless the action fails to comply with the procedural requirements imposed by this title, RCW 25.10.900 through 25.10.955, the articles of incorporation, or the bylaws, or is fraudulent with respect to the shareholder or the corporation.

(3) The right of a dissenting shareholder to obtain payment of the fair value of the shareholder's shares shall terminate upon the occurrence of any one of the following events:

- (a) The proposed corporate action is abandoned or rescinded;
- (b) A court having jurisdiction permanently enjoins or sets aside the corporate action; or
- (c) The shareholder's demand for payment is withdrawn with the written consent of the corporation.

RCW 23B.13.030 Dissent by nominees and beneficial owners.

(1) A record shareholder may assert dissenters' rights as to fewer than all the shares registered in the shareholder's name only if the shareholder dissents with respect to all shares beneficially owned by any one person and delivers to the corporation a notice of the name and address of each person on whose behalf the shareholder asserts dissenters' rights. The rights of a partial dissenter under this subsection are determined as if the shares as to which the dissenter dissents and the dissenter's other shares were registered in the names of different shareholders.

(2) A beneficial shareholder may assert dissenters' rights as to shares held on the beneficial shareholder's behalf only if:

(a) The beneficial shareholder submits to the corporation the record shareholder's written consent to the dissent not later than the time the beneficial shareholder asserts dissenters' rights, which consent shall be set forth either (i) in a record or (ii) if the corporation has designated an address, location, or system to which the consent may be electronically transmitted and the consent is electronically transmitted to the designated address, location, or system, in an electronically transmitted record; and

(b) The beneficial shareholder does so with respect to all shares of which such shareholder is the beneficial shareholder or over which such shareholder has power to direct the vote.

RCW 23B.13.200 Notice of dissenters' rights.

(1) If proposed corporate action creating dissenters' rights under RCW 23B.13.020 is submitted to a vote at a shareholders' meeting, the meeting notice must state that shareholders are or may be entitled to assert dissenters' rights under this chapter and be accompanied by a copy of this chapter.

(2) If corporate action creating dissenters' rights under RCW 23B.13.020 is taken without a vote of shareholders, the corporation, within ten days after the effective date of such corporate action, shall deliver a notice to all shareholders entitled to assert dissenters' rights that the action was taken and send them the notice described in RCW 23B.13.220.

RCW 23B.13.210 Notice of intent to demand payment.

(1) If proposed corporate action creating dissenters' rights under RCW 23B.13.020 is submitted to a vote at a shareholders' meeting, a shareholder who wishes to assert dissenters' rights must (a) deliver to the corporation before the vote is taken notice of the shareholder's intent to demand payment for the shareholder's shares if the proposed action is effected, and (b) not vote such shares in favor of the proposed action.

(2) A shareholder who does not satisfy the requirements of subsection (1) of this section is not entitled to payment for the shareholder's shares under this chapter.

- (1) If the corporation does not effect the proposed action within sixty days after the date set for demanding payment and depositing share certificates, the corporation shall return the deposited certificates and release any transfer restrictions imposed on uncertificated shares.
- (2) If after returning deposited certificates and releasing transfer restrictions, the corporation wishes to undertake the proposed action, it must send a new dissenter's notice under RCW 23B.13.220 and repeat the payment demand procedure.

RCW 23B.13.270 After-acquired shares.

- (1) A corporation may elect to withhold payment required by RCW 23B.13.250 from a dissenter unless the dissenter was the beneficial owner of the shares before the date set forth in the dissenter's notice as the date of the first announcement to news media or to shareholders of the terms of the proposed corporate action.
- (2) To the extent the corporation elects to withhold payment under subsection (1) of this section, after taking the proposed corporate action, it shall estimate the fair value of the shares, plus accrued interest, and shall pay this amount to each dissenter who agrees to accept it in full satisfaction of the dissenter's demand. The corporation shall send with its offer an explanation of how it estimated the fair value of the shares, an explanation of how the interest was calculated, and a statement of the dissenter's right to demand payment under RCW 23B.13.280.

RCW 23B.13.280 Procedure if shareholder dissatisfied with payment or offer.

- (1) A dissenter may deliver a notice to the corporation informing the corporation of the dissenter's own estimate of the fair value of the dissenter's shares and amount of interest due, and demand payment of the dissenter's estimate, less any payment under RCW 23B.13.250, or reject the corporation's offer under RCW 23B.13.270 and demand payment of the dissenter's estimate of the fair value of the dissenter's shares and interest due, if:
 - (a) The dissenter believes that the amount paid under RCW 23B.13.250 or offered under RCW 23B.13.270 is less than the fair value of the dissenter's shares or that the interest due is incorrectly calculated;
 - (b) The corporation fails to make payment under RCW 23B.13.250 within sixty days after the date set for demanding payment; or
 - (c) The corporation does not effect the proposed action and does not return the deposited certificates or release the transfer restrictions imposed on uncertificated shares within sixty days after the date set for demanding payment.
- (2) A dissenter waives the right to demand payment under this section unless the dissenter notifies the corporation of the dissenter's demand in writing under subsection (1) of this section within thirty days after the corporation made or offered payment for the dissenter's shares.

RCW 23B.13.300 Court action.

- (1) If a demand for payment under RCW 23B.13.280 remains unsettled, the corporation shall commence a proceeding within sixty days after receiving the payment demand and petition the court to determine the fair value of the shares and accrued interest. If the corporation does not commence the proceeding within the sixty-day period, it shall pay each dissenter whose demand remains unsettled the amount demanded.

(2) The corporation shall commence the proceeding in the superior court of the county where a corporation's principal office, or, if none in this state, its registered office, is located. If the corporation is a foreign corporation without a registered office in this state, it shall commence the proceeding in the county in this state where the registered office of the domestic corporation merged with or whose shares were acquired by the foreign corporation was located.

(3) The corporation shall make all dissenters, whether or not residents of this state, whose demands remain unsettled, parties to the proceeding as in an action against their shares and all parties must be served with a copy of the petition. Nonresidents may be served by registered or certified mail or by publication as provided by law.

(4) The corporation may join as a party to the proceeding any shareholder who claims to be a dissenter but who has not, in the opinion of the corporation, complied with the provisions of this chapter. If the court determines that such shareholder has not complied with the provisions of this chapter, the shareholder shall be dismissed as a party.

(5) The jurisdiction of the court in which the proceeding is commenced under subsection (2) of this section is plenary and exclusive. The court may appoint one or more persons as appraisers to receive evidence and recommend decision on the question of fair value. The appraisers have the powers described in the order appointing them, or in any amendment to it. The dissenters are entitled to the same discovery rights as parties in other civil proceedings.

(6) Each dissenter made a party to the proceeding is entitled to judgment (a) for the amount, if any, by which the court finds the fair value of the dissenter's shares, plus interest, exceeds the amount paid by the corporation, or (b) for the fair value, plus accrued interest, of the dissenter's after-acquired shares for which the corporation elected to withhold payment under RCW 23B.13.270.

RCW 23B.13.310 Court costs and counsel fees.

(1) The court in a proceeding commenced under RCW 23B.13.300 shall determine all costs of the proceeding, including the reasonable compensation and expenses of appraisers appointed by the court. The court shall assess the costs against the corporation, except that the court may assess the costs against all or some of the dissenters, in amounts the court finds equitable, to the extent the court finds the dissenters acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith in demanding payment under RCW 23B.13.280.

(2) The court may also assess the fees and expenses of counsel and experts for the respective parties, in amounts the court finds equitable:

(a) Against the corporation and in favor of any or all dissenters if the court finds the corporation did not substantially comply with the requirements of RCW 23B.13.200 through 23B.13.280; or

(b) Against either the corporation or a dissenter, in favor of any other party, if the court finds that the party against whom the fees and expenses are assessed acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith with respect to the rights provided by chapter 23B.13 RCW.

Members of the Board:

You have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be received by the common shareholders of Western Washington Bancorp (WWB) from Heritage Financial Corporation (HFWA) pursuant to the terms of the Definitive Merger Agreement (the Agreement), dated January 24, 2006, between WWB and HFWA, whereby WWB will be merged with and into HFWA.

In connection with the proposed merger transaction (the Transaction), each issued and outstanding share of WWB common stock, along with its associated rights, shall be exchanged in a 40% cash and 60% common stock transaction, and WWB will merge with and into HFWA at the effective date of the Transaction. The value of the gross aggregate consideration is valued at $8,965,883. The consideration is comprised of $3,408,101 in cash and $5,112,152 in HFWA common stock, or $50.90 per share based on 167,392 WWB shares outstanding. In addition, option holders will receive the spread between the exercise price of the options of $21.77 and the purchase price per share of $50.90, or $29.13 per option for the 15,298 options outstanding, for a total cash for options of $445,630. The Agreement provides the complete terms of the proposed transaction, and this summary is qualified in its entirety by reference thereto.

In conducting our review and arriving at our opinion we have assumed and relied on the accuracy and completeness of all financial information publicly available and supplied or otherwise made available to us by WWB management. We have not independently verified such information nor have we undertaken an independent appraisal of the assets or liabilities of WWB or HFWA. With respect to the financial forecasts referred to above, we have assumed that they have been reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgment of the senior management of WWB as of the date of this letter.

This opinion is necessarily based upon economic, market and other conditions as they exist and should be evaluated as of the date of this letter. In rendering our opinion, we have assumed that in the course of obtaining the necessary approvals for the Agreement, no restrictions, limitations or conditions will be imposed that would have a material adverse effect on the expected benefits of the Agreement to WWB's shareholders or the ability to consummate the Agreement.

This opinion is being furnished for the use and benefit of the Board of Directors of WWB and is not intended to be, nor constitutes, a recommendation to any shareholder as to how such shareholder should vote with respect to the Agreement. We express no opinion on matters of a legal, regulatory, tax or accounting nature or the ability of the Agreement to be consummated. No limitations were imposed on us regarding the scope of our investigation or otherwise by WWB or HFWA.

In reliance upon and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Agreement consideration to be issued by HFWA to the WWB shareholders pursuant to the Agreement is fair, from a financial point of view, to the shareholders of WWB.
