PROXY STATEMENT

This proxy statement contains information relating to the special meeting of Equus II Incorporated ("EQS" or the "Fund") to be held on Friday, August 11, 2006, beginning at 9:00 a.m., local time, at Meeting Room No. 1, Ground Level, Wortham Tower, 2727 Allen Parkway, Houston, Texas 77019, and at any adjournments or postponements thereof, and is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by our Board of Directors to be voted at the special meeting. This proxy statement is being mailed to stockholders on or about June 30, 2006.

ABOUT THE MEETING

What is the purpose of the special meeting?

At the special meeting, stockholders will act upon the matters outlined in the notice of special meeting on the cover page of this proxy statement, including the approval of changes to the Fund's investment objective and the Fund's name (see Item 1) and the approval of amendments to the indemnification provisions of the Fund's Restated Certificate of Incorporation (see Item 2).

What are the Board's recommendations?

Unless you give other instructions on your proxy card, the persons named as proxy holders on the proxy card will vote in accordance with the recommendations of the Board. The Board's recommendation is set forth together with the description of each item in this proxy statement. In summary, the Board recommends a vote:

for approval of amendments to the Fund's investment objective by changing it to a non-fundamental, total return objective and changing the Fund's name from Equus II Incorporated to Equus Total Return, Inc. (see Item 1); and for approval of amendments to the Fund's Restated Certificate of Incorporation to broaden the indemnification of directors, officers, employees and agents to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law (see Item 2).

With respect to any other matter that properly comes before the meeting, the proxy holders will vote as recommended by the Board or, if no recommendation is given, in their own discretion.

What vote is required to approve each item?

Changes to the Fund's Investment Objective and Name. The affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding voting securities of the Fund is required to approve Item 1. Under applicable law, the vote of a majority of the outstanding voting securities means the affirmative vote of the lesser of (a) 67% or more of the voting securities of the Fund that are present at the special meeting or represented by proxy if holders of shares representing more than 50% of the outstanding voting securities of the Fund are present or represented by proxy or (b) more than 50% of the outstanding voting securities of the Fund. A properly executed proxy marked "Abstain" with respect to Item 1 will not be voted in favor of or against such matter, but will be treated as present and will have the effect of a vote "Against" Item 1.

Amendments to the Indemnification Provisions of the Fund's Restated Certificate of Incorporation. The affirmative vote of a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of the Fund is required to approve Item 2. A properly executed proxy marked Abstain with respect to Item 2 will not be voted in favor of or against such matter, but will be treated as present and will have the effect of a vote Against Item 2.

Broker Non-Votes. If you hold shares in street name through a broker, bank, or other nominee, your broker, bank, or nominee will not be permitted to exercise voting discretion with respect to Item 1. Thus, if you do not give your broker or nominee specific instructions with respect to Item 1, your shares may have the effect of a vote Against that item. However, your broker, bank, or nominee will be permitted to exercise voting discretion with respect to Item 2, and your shares may be voted For that item if you fail to provide specific instructions.

Adjournment. The chairman of the meeting or the holders of a majority of the shares of the Fund, present in person or represented by proxy, although not constituting a quorum, may adjourn the meeting. If a vote is required to adjourn the meeting, the persons named as proxies will vote those proxies for such adjournment, unless marked to be voted against the proposal for which an adjournment is sought.

How are votes counted?

For each proposal, you may vote For, Against, or Abstain. If you Abstain, it has the same effect as a vote Against. If you sign your proxy card or broker voting instruction card with no further instructions, your shares will be voted in accordance with the recommendations of the Board.

Am I required to approve or reject all of the proposals as a group, or can I vote For one item and Against another?

Each of the items discussed in this proxy statement is subject to a separate vote, and you should vote on each item on its own merits.

Who is entitled to vote at the meeting?

If you owned shares of the Fund at the close of business on June 26, 2006 (the Record Date), you are entitled to receive notice of and to participate in the special meeting. A list of stockholders on the Record Date will be available for inspection at the Fund's office at 2727 Allen Parkway, 13th Floor, Houston, Texas for ten days before the special meeting.

What are the voting rights of holders of the Fund's common stock?

You may cast one vote per share of the Fund's common stock that you held on the Record Date on each item considered at the special meeting. These shares include shares that are: (1) held directly in your name as the stockholder of record and (2) held for you as the beneficial owner through a stockbroker, bank, or other nominee.

Who can attend the special meeting?

All stockholders as of the Record Date, or their duly appointed proxies, may attend the special meeting. Each stockholder may be asked to present valid identification. Cameras, recording devices, and other electronic devices will not be permitted at the special meeting.

Please note that if you hold your shares in street name (that is, through a broker, bank, or other nominee), you will need to bring a copy of a brokerage statement reflecting your stock ownership as of the Record Date.

What constitutes a quorum?

The presence at the meeting, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the shares of common stock outstanding on the Record Date will constitute a quorum, permitting the meeting to conduct its business.

As of the Record Date, 8,106,365 shares of the Fund's common stock, representing the same number of votes, were outstanding.

Proxies received but marked as abstentions or broker non-votes will be included in the calculation of the number of shares considered to be present at the meeting.

What is the difference between holding shares as a stockholder of record and as a beneficial owner?

Many stockholders of the Fund hold their shares through a stockbroker, bank or, other nominee rather than directly in their own name. As summarized below, there are some distinctions between shares held of record and those owned beneficially.

Stockholder of Record. If your shares are registered directly in your name with the Fund's transfer agent, American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, you are considered, with respect to those shares, the stockholder of record, and these proxy materials are being sent directly to you by the Fund. As the stockholder of record, you have the right to grant your voting proxy directly to the Fund or to vote in person at the special meeting. We have enclosed a proxy card for you to use.

Beneficial Owner. If your shares are held in a stock brokerage account or by a bank or other nominee, you are considered the beneficial owner of shares held in street name, and these proxy materials are being forwarded to you by your broker or nominee who is considered, with respect to those shares, the stockholder of record. As the beneficial owner, you have the right to direct your broker on how to vote and are also invited to attend the special meeting. However, since you are not the stockholder of record, you may not vote these shares in person at the special meeting. Your broker or nominee has enclosed a voting instruction card for you to use in directing the broker or nominee regarding how to vote your shares.

How can I vote my shares in person at the special meeting?

Shares held directly in your name as the stockholder of record may be voted in person at the special meeting. If you choose to do so, please bring the enclosed proxy card or proof of identification. Even if you plan to attend the special meeting, we recommend that you vote your shares in advance as described below so that your vote will be counted if you later decide not to attend the special meeting. Shares held in street name may be voted in person by you only if you obtain a signed proxy from the record holder giving you the right to vote the shares.

How can I vote my shares without attending the special meeting?

Whether you hold shares directly as the stockholder of record or beneficially in street name, you may direct your vote without attending the special meeting by completing and mailing your proxy card or voting instruction card in the enclosed pre-paid envelope. Please refer to the enclosed materials for details.

Can I change my vote after I return my proxy card?

Yes. You may change your proxy instructions at any time prior to the vote at the special meeting. You may accomplish this by granting a new proxy card or new voting instruction card bearing a later date (which automatically revokes the earlier proxy instructions) or by attending the special meeting and voting in person. Attendance at the special meeting will not cause your previously granted proxy to be revoked unless you specifically so request.

What does it mean if I receive more than one proxy or voting instruction card?

It means your shares are registered differently or are in more than one account. Please provide voting instructions for all proxy and voting instruction cards you receive.

Where can I find the voting results of the special meeting?

We will announce preliminary voting results at the special meeting and publish the final results in our quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2006.

Who can I call if I have a question?

If you have any questions about this proxy statement, please call us at (713) 529-0900 or toll-free at (800) 856-0901 between 9:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m., Central Daylight Time, Monday through Friday.

Management Agreement

Pursuant to an investment advisory agreement, dated as of June 30, 2005 (the Management Agreement), and subject to the overall supervision of the Board, MCCA manages the investment and reinvestment of the Fund's assets in accordance with the Fund's investment objectives and policies. Under the terms of the Management Agreement, MCCA provides any and all management and investment advisory services necessary for the operation and conduct of the Fund's business as well as the following:

Determines the composition of the Fund's portfolio, the nature and timing of the changes to the portfolio and the manner of implementing such changes;

Identifies, evaluates, and negotiates the structure of the Fund's investments;

Monitors the performance of, and manages the Fund's investments;

Determines the securities and other assets that the Fund will purchase, retain, or sell and the terms on which any securities are purchased or sold;

Arranges for the disposition of the Fund's investments;

Recommends to the Board the fair value of the Fund's investments that are not publicly traded debt or equity securities based on the Fund's valuation guidelines;

Votes proxies in accordance with the proxy voting policy and procedures adopted by MCCA; and Provides the Fund with such other investment advice, research, and related services as the Board may, from time to time, reasonably require for the investment of the Fund's assets.

MCCA's services under the Management Agreement are not exclusive, and it is free to furnish the same or similar services to other entities, including businesses which may directly or indirectly compete with the Fund and directly compete with the Fund for particular investments, so long as its services to the Fund are not impaired by the provision of such services to others. Under the Management Agreement and to the extent permitted by the Investment Company Act, MCCA will also provide on the Fund's behalf significant managerial assistance to those portfolio companies to which the Fund is required to provide such assistance under the Investment Company Act and who require such assistance from the Fund.

Pursuant to the Management Agreement, the Fund pays MCCA a fee for management services consisting of two components: a base management fee and an incentive fee.

The base management fee is calculated quarterly as 0.50% of the Fund's net assets (2% per year). The base management fee is payable quarterly in arrears.

The incentive fee consists of two parts. The first part, which is calculated and payable quarterly in arrears, is equal to 20% of the excess, if any, of the Fund's net investment income for the quarter that exceeds a quarterly hurdle rate equal to 2% (8% annualized) of the Fund's net assets (defined as total assets less total liabilities, determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles). The second part of the incentive fee (the Capital Gains Fee) is determined and payable in arrears as of the end of each fiscal year (or upon termination of the Management Agreement, as of the termination date), and equals (1) 20% of (a) the Fund's net realized capital gain (realized capital gains less realized capital losses) on a cumulative basis from effective date of the Management Agreement to the end of such fiscal year, less (b) any unrealized capital depreciation at the end of such fiscal year, less (2) the aggregate amount of all Capital Gains Fees paid to MCCA in prior fiscal years.

Who is the Fund's administrator?

The Fund's administrator is Equus Capital Administration Company, Inc. (the Administrator) and its principal offices are located at 2727 Allen Parkway, 13th Floor, Houston, Texas 77019. The Administrator is a wholly-owned subsidiary of MCC and was formed for the purpose of managing the Fund's administrative and business operations.

Administration Agreement

Pursuant to an administration agreement, dated as of June 30, 2005 (the Administration Agreement), the Administrator furnishes the Fund with office facilities, equipment, and clerical, bookkeeping, and record keeping services at such facilities. Under the Administration Agreement, the Administrator performs, or oversees the performance by third parties of, the Fund's required administrative services, which include being responsible for the financial records that the Fund is required to maintain and preparing reports to the Fund's stockholders and reports filed with the SEC. In addition, the Administrator assists the Fund in determining and publishing its net asset value, oversees the preparation and filing of the Fund's tax returns, and the printing and dissemination of reports to shareholders and generally oversees the payment of the Fund's expenses and the performance of administrative and professional services provided to the Fund by others. To the extent permitted under the Investment Company Act, the Administrator may also provide, on the Fund's behalf, significant managerial assistance to the Fund's portfolio companies. Payments under the Administration Agreement are equal to the costs and expenses incurred by the Administrator in connection with administering the Fund's business (including rent and the allocable portion of the salaries and benefits of the Fund's officers and their respective staffs) up to a maximum reimbursement of $450,000 per year.

ITEM 1 TO APPROVE AMENDMENTS TO THE FUND'S INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE BY CHANGING IT TO A NON-FUNDAMENTAL, TOTAL RETURN OBJECTIVE AND CHANGING THE FUND'S NAME FROM EQUUS II INCORPORATED TO EQUUS TOTAL RETURN, INC.

Currently, the Fund's investment objective is to achieve capital appreciation. This investment objective may be changed only with the approval of the holders of a majority of the Fund's outstanding voting securities, as defined in the Investment Company Act. All investment strategies of the Fund may be changed without a vote of stockholders.

Total Return Investment Objective. The Fund's Board of Directors, including all of the Fund's independent directors, has authorized, and recommends that stockholders approve, changing the Fund's investment objective to a total return investment objective. If approved by stockholders, the amended investment objective of the Fund would provide as follows:

The Fund's investment objective is to seek the highest total return, consisting of capital appreciation and current income.

In order to achieve the proposed total return investment objective, the Fund's investment adviser, MCCA, would implement an investment strategy which strikes a balance between the potential for gain and the risk of loss. In the capital appreciation category, MCCA, on behalf of the Fund, would continue to be a growth-at-reasonable-price investor by identifying and acquiring securities that meet MCCA's criteria for selling at reasonable prices. In the current income category, MCCA, on behalf of the Fund, would invest principally in debt financing with the objective of generating regular interest income back to the Fund. Debt financing may also be used to create long-term capital appreciation through the exercise and sale of warrants received in connection with the financing. Unlike the Fund's current investment objective, the Fund's investment strategies may be changed without a vote of stockholders.

Non-Fundamental Investment Objective. The Board of Directors, including all of the Fund's independent directors, has also authorized, and recommends that stockholders approve, eliminating the fundamental nature (i.e., changeable only by stockholder vote) of the Fund's amended investment objective. This is intended to remove unnecessary restrictions on the Fund's operations, which exceed the requirements imposed on business development companies by the Investment Company Act and conform the Fund more closely to other business development companies whose investment objectives are not considered fundamental.

Making the Fund's amended investment objective non-fundamental will provide additional flexibility in the future to adjust the investment program of the Fund in response to changing market conditions and circumstances without the expense and delay associated with a stockholder meeting to approve such changes. The Board does not expect to use this flexibility frequently, however, the Board would be in a position to change the amended investment objective in circumstances when a change, in the Board's judgment, would be in the best interests of the Fund's stockholders.

Status of Fund as a Business Development Company. Implementing a non-fundamental, total return investment objective will not change the status of the Fund as a business development company. Any such change would require a separate vote by stockholders. The Fund intends to continue complying with the investment limitations imposed on business development companies. A business development company must invest at least 70% of its total assets in qualifying assets under the Investment Company Act and provide, with limited exceptions, significant managerial assistance to the eligible portfolio companies in which the business development company invests. Qualifying assets include, among others, securities purchased in transactions not involving any public offering from the issuer of such securities, which issuer is an eligible portfolio company. An eligible portfolio company is defined as any issuer that: (a) is organized under the laws of, and has its principal place of business in, the United States; (b) is not, with limited exceptions, an investment company; and (c) either does not have any class of securities with respect to which a broker may extend margin credit, or is controlled by the business development company, or has total assets of not more than $4,000,000 (and capital and surplus of not less than $2,000,000).

Change to the Fund's Name. In furtherance of this proposal to implement a non-fundamental, total return investment objective, the Board of Directors, including all of the Fund's independent directors, has authorized, and recommends that stockholders approve, amending the Fund's Restated Certificate of Incorporation to change the name of the Fund from Equus II Incorporated to Equus Total Return, Inc. If approved, the Board intends to make conforming changes to the Fund's Amended and Restated By-laws.

This proposal to approve changes to the Fund's investment objective and the Fund's name requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding voting securities of the Fund. Under the Investment Company Act, the vote of a majority of the outstanding voting securities means the affirmative vote of the lesser of (a) 67% or more of the voting securities of the Fund that are present at the special meeting or represented by proxy if holders of shares representing more than 50% of the outstanding voting securities of the Fund are present or represented by proxy or (b) more than 50% of the outstanding voting securities of the Fund.

The Board unanimously recommends that each stockholder vote FOR approving amendments to the Fund's investment objective by changing it to a non-fundamental total return objective and changing the Fund's name from Equus II Incorporated to Equus Total Return, Inc.

ITEM 2 TO APPROVE AMENDMENTS TO THE FUND'S RESTATED CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION TO BROADEN THE INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS, OFFICERS, EMPLOYEES AND AGENTS TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW

The Fund's Board of Directors, including all of the Fund's independent directors, has determined that in order to attract and retain skilled and effective directors, officers, employees and agents, the Fund needs to amend its Restated Certificate of Incorporation to broaden the indemnification provisions to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law. In order to accomplish this, the Board, including all of the Fund's independent directors, has authorized, and recommends that stockholders approve replacing, in its entirety, Article Eleventh of the Fund's Restated Certificate of Incorporation with the following:

Eleventh: A. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the Corporation is authorized to provide indemnification of (and advancement of expenses to) directors, officers, employees and agents of the Corporation (and any other persons to which applicable law permits the Corporation to provide indemnification) through by-law provisions, agreements with such persons, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors, or otherwise.

B. Any amendment, repeal or modification of this Article Eleventh shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation (or any other person to which applicable law permits the Corporation to provide indemnification or advancement of expenses) with respect to any acts or omissions of such person occurring prior to such amendment, repeal or modification.

Current Certificate of Incorporation. The Fund's Restated Certificate of Incorporation currently provides indemnification for, and advancement of expenses to, current and former directors, officers, employees and agents of the Fund, as well as those who are or were serving at the request of the Fund as a director, officer, employee or agent of another entity, against third-party claims and claims by or in right of the Fund. A copy of current Article Eleventh of the Fund's Restated Certificate of Incorporation is attached hereto as Appendix A. As a Delaware corporation, the Fund is subject to Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law (DGCL), Delaware's indemnification statute.

Current Article Eleventh of the Fund's Restated Certificate of Incorporation generally follows the provisions of Section 145 of the DGCL by making its permissive indemnification provisions mandatory on the Fund. However, current Article Eleventh imposes additional limitations on the Fund's ability to indemnify which are not required by Section 145. For instance, set forth below are summaries of certain limitations, among others, imposed by Article Eleventh which are not required by Section 145:

Indemnification by the Fund is subject to any limitation imposed pursuant to the Investment Company Act;

No director or officer of the Fund will be protected against any liability for willful misfeasance, bad faith, negligence or reckless disregard of the duties involved in the conduct of his or her office;

No indemnification by the Fund may be made in respect of any matter as to which the relevant person has been adjudged to be liable for bad faith, negligence, willful misconduct or breach of fiduciary duty, unless and only to the extent the Delaware Court of Chancery or the court in which such matter was brought determines that such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses;

In connection with any third-party claim where a violation of federal or state securities laws is alleged, no indemnification may be provided unless (a) if the relevant person is successful in defending against the claim, a court approves indemnification for the costs of such defense or (b) if the claim is settled, a court approves the settlement and finds that indemnification for the settlement costs and expenses related to the claim should be made;

Any Fund advances of expenses incurred by an officer or director in defending a civil or criminal action requires that one of the following conditions first be met: (a) the officer or director has provided security for his or her undertaking to repay advances if it is ultimately determined that he or she is not entitled to indemnification; (b) the Fund is insured against losses arising by reason of any lawful advances; or (c) the disinterested non-party directors of the Fund or an independent legal counsel in a written opinion determines that there is reason to believe that such officer or director ultimately will be found entitled to indemnification; and

The Fund may not purchase and maintain insurance that will protect or purport to protect any person against any liability for willful misfeasance, bad faith, gross negligence or reckless disregard of duty.

Delaware Law. In general, Section 145 of the DGCL provides that a corporation may indemnify any person from civil and criminal liability by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another entity, against expenses, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with an actual or threatened action, suit or proceeding (whether by a third party or by or in right of the corporation) if the person acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation, and with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the person's conduct was unlawful.

Section 145 also provides that expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by an officer or director in defending any civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding may be paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director or officer to repay such amount if it is ultimately determined that such person is not entitled to indemnification. Section 145 goes on to provide that such expenses incurred by former directors and officers or other employees and agents may be paid upon such terms and conditions as the corporation deems appropriate.

Investment Company Act. In addition, as a business development company, the Fund is subject to indemnification limitations imposed by the Investment Company Act. Under the Investment Company Act, the Fund may not include any provision in its certificate of incorporation or by-laws which purports to protect any director or officer for liability by reason of willful misfeasance, bad faith, gross negligence, or reckless disregard of the duties involved in the conduct of his or her office.

The SEC staff has also taken the position that advances of attorneys' fees or other expenses incurred by an investment company's directors or officers in defending a proceeding are permissible, provided there is an undertaking to repay the advances if it is ultimately determined the person is not entitled to indemnification and one of the following conditions is met: (a) the person provides security for his or her undertaking; (b) the investment company is insured against losses arising by reason of any lawful advances; or (c) a majority of a quorum of the disinterested, non-party directors of the investment company, or an independent legal counsel in a written opinion, determines, based on a review of readily available facts, that there is reason to believe that the person ultimately will be found entitled to indemnification.

Current By-laws and Indemnification Agreements Still Effective. If stockholders approve replacing current Article Eleventh in its entirety with proposed Article Eleventh, the Fund's by-laws and indemnification agreements entered into with former and current directors and officers of the Fund would still be effective. Article X of the Fund's Amended and Restated By-laws (which is attached hereto as Appendix B) contains indemnification provisions which are substantially similar to those contained in current Article Eleventh of the Fund's Restated Certificate of Incorporation. However, Article X of the Fund's Amended and Restated By-laws contains an additional catch-all provision which authorizes the Board to indemnify any relevant person or to make advances of expenses to any relevant person or to reimburse the expenses of any relevant person, to the extent not inconsistent with law as evidenced by an opinion of counsel.

By-law Amendments. Unlike the Fund's Restated Certificate of Incorporation, the Board may amend Article X of the Fund's Amended and Restated By-laws without stockholder approval, subject to the right of the stockholders to amend or repeal such by-law provisions as adopted or amended by the Board. If stockholders approve replacing current Article Eleventh of the Fund's Restated Certificate of Incorporation with proposed Article Eleventh, the Board intends to amend Article X of the Fund's Amended and Restated By-laws to, among other things:

Remove any limitations on indemnification or advances by the Fund resulting from the negligence of any director, officer, employee or agent of the Fund, or any person serving at the request of the Fund as a director, officer, employee or agent of another entity;

Remove in its entirety the limitation on indemnification by the Fund with respect to: third-party claims where the relevant person has been adjudged to be liable for bad faith, negligence, willful misconduct or breach of fiduciary duty in the performance of his or her duty to the Fund, unless and only to the extent the Delaware Court of Chancery or the court in which such matter was brought determines that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the Delaware Court of Chancery or such other court deems proper;

Remove in its entirety the limitation on indemnification by the Fund with respect to: third-party claims where a violation of federal or state securities laws is alleged, and no indemnification is provided unless (a) if the relevant person is successful in defending against the claim, a court approves indemnification for the costs of such defense or (b) if the claim is settled, a court approves the settlement and finds that indemnification for the settlement costs and expenses related to the claim should be made; and

Remove the limitation on the Fund purchasing and maintaining insurance that protects or purports to protect any person against any liability for willful misfeasance, bad faith, gross negligence or reckless disregard of duty.

The Board may also make further amendments to Article X of the Fund's Amended and Restated By-laws as it deems appropriate.

Indemnification Agreements. In addition to the Amended and Restated By-laws, the Fund has indemnification obligations in agreements it has entered into with its former and current directors and officers. Attached hereto as Appendix C is the form of indemnification agreement that the Fund has previously entered into with each of its current directors and officers. Stockholders are not being asked to vote on this indemnification agreement which is already in place. The indemnification agreement supplements the Fund's Restated Certificate of Incorporation and Amended and Restated By-laws and is attached hereto for completeness. The indemnification agreement will continue to be effective independent of whether stockholders vote for or against this Item 2. Set forth below is a summary of the indemnification agreement.

The indemnification agreement indemnifies the indemnitee to the fullest extent permitted by law, including against third-party claims and claims by or in right of the Fund or any subsidiary or majority-owned partnership of the Fund by reason of that person (a) being a director, officer, employee or agent of the Fund, or of any subsidiary or majority-owned partnership of the Fund or (b) serving at the request of the Fund or its investment adviser as a director, officer, employee or agent of another entity. If appropriate, the Fund is entitled to assume the defense of the claim with counsel selected by the Fund and approved by the indemnitee, which approval may not be unreasonably withheld. Separate counsel employed by the indemnitee will be at his or her own expense unless (i) the employment of separate counsel has been previously authorized by the Fund, (ii) the indemnitee reasonably concludes there may be a conflict of interest, or (iii) the Fund has not, in fact, employed counsel to assume the defense of such claim.

Any advancement of expenses under the indemnification agreement must be paid by the Fund within 20 days following delivery of a written request or promptly upon completion of any required review by directors of the Fund or counsel if (a) security is provided by the indemnitee for his undertaking to repay advances, (b) the Fund is insured against losses arising by reason of lawful advances, or (c) a majority of a quorum of disinterested, non-party directors or an independent legal counsel in a written opinion determines there is a reason to believe the indemnitee is entitled to indemnification.

The indemnification agreement contains a rebuttable presumption that the indemnitee has not engaged in willful misfeasance, gross negligence or reckless disregard of his or her duties as a director or officer of the Fund. The indemnification agreement also provides that it is not a defense to the payment of expenses in advance of a final disposition that the indemnitee has not met the standards of conduct that make it permissible under applicable law for the Fund to provide indemnification. The indemnification agreement further provides that the indemnitee may bring a good faith, non-frivolous action against the Fund to recover the unpaid amount of his or her indemnification claim and be entitled to expenses for bringing such action. The indemnification agreement states that the Fund has the burden of proving that the indemnitee has not met the standard of conduct that makes it permissible under applicable law for the Fund to provide indemnification.

Reasons for Proposal. This proposal to amend the Fund's Restated Certificate of Incorporation to broaden the indemnification provisions to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the amendments to the Fund's Amended and Restated By-laws discussed in this proxy statement and the referenced indemnification agreements are a response to (a) the increasing hazard of litigation directed against directors, officers, employees and agents of a corporation and the expense of such litigation, (b) the limited availability of adequate and reasonably priced directors' and officers' liability insurance, and (c) the potential inability of the Fund to continue to attract and retain qualified directors, officers, employees and agents in light of the foregoing circumstances. The Board believes that enacting the provisions stated herein, is in the best interests of the Fund and its stockholders, by strengthening the Fund's ability to attract and retain the services of skilled and effective persons to serve as directors, officers, employees and agents of the Fund. In accordance with the Fund's Restated Certificate of Incorporation, if this proposal is approved by stockholders, these amendments to the Fund's Restated Certificate of Incorporation will become effective on the next date on which the Fund's directors are to be elected.

The Fund is not aware of any pending or threatened claims or any litigation or proceeding which may result in a claim for indemnification by any director, officer, employee or agent of the Fund. The Fund does not presently have directors' and officers' liability insurance.

This proposal to amend the Fund's Restated Certificate of Incorporation to broaden the indemnification of directors, officers, employees and agents to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of the Fund.

The Board unanimously recommends that each stockholder vote FOR amending the Fund's Restated Certificate of Incorporation to broaden the indemnification of directors, officers, employees and agents to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law.

OTHER MATTERS

The Board knows of no matters other than those listed in the Notice of Special Meeting that are likely to come before the special meeting. However, if any other matter properly comes before the meeting, the individuals named as proxies will vote in accordance with their best judgment on such matters.

In the event that sufficient votes in favor of the proposals set forth in the Notice of the Special Meeting are not received by the time scheduled for the special meeting, the chairman of the meeting or the holders of a majority of the shares of the Fund, present in person or represented by proxy, although not constituting a quorum, may adjourn the meeting.

Proxy Solicitation Costs. The proxies being solicited hereby are being solicited by the Board of Directors of the Fund. The cost of soliciting proxies in the enclosed form will be paid by the Fund. Officers and regular employees of the Fund and MCCA may, but without compensation other than their regular compensation, solicit proxies by further mailing or personal conversations, or by telephone, telex, facsimile, or electronic means. Copies of solicitation material will be furnished to brokerage houses, fiduciaries and custodians to forward to beneficial owners of stock held in the name of such nominees. We will, upon request, reimburse brokerage firms and others for their responsible expenses in forwarding solicitation material to the beneficial owners of stock. In addition, the Fund has retained MacKenzie Partners, a proxy solicitation firm, to assist in the solicitation of proxies. It is anticipated that MacKenzie Partners will be paid approximately $5,000 by the Fund for such solicitation services (plus reimbursement of out-of-pocket expenses). MacKenzie Partners may solicit proxies personally and by telephone.

APPENDIX A

ARTICLE ELEVENTH OF THE FUND S RESTATED CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION

Eleventh: A. Subject to any limitation imposed pursuant to the 1940 Act, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the Corporation) by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit, or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful, except that (i) no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable for bad faith, negligence, willful misconduct or breach of fiduciary duty in the performance of his duty to the Corporation unless and only to the extent the Court of Chancery or the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the Court of Chancery or such other court shall deem proper, and (ii) no such person shall be entitled to indemnification in connection with any lawsuit in which the violation of any federal or state securities laws is alleged unless (a) if such person is successful in defending against such lawsuit, a court approves indemnification for the costs of such defense or (b) if the lawsuit is settled, a court approves the settlement and finds that indemnification for the settlement costs and expenses related to the lawsuit should be made. The satisfaction of any indemnification hereunder shall be limited to Corporation assets. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement or conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

B. Subject to any limitation imposed by the 1940 Act, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation and except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable for bad faith, negligence, willful misconduct or breach of fiduciary duty in the performance of his duty to the Corporation unless and only to the extent that the Court of Chancery or the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the Court of Chancery or such other court shall deem proper.

C. To the extent that a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in subsections A and B, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection therewith.

D. Any indemnification under subsection A and B (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the Corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the officer, director, employee or agent, is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in subsections A and B. Such determinations shall be made (1) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, or (2) if such quorum is not obtainable, or even if obtainable a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or (3) by the stockholders.

E. Expenses incurred by an officer or director in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding shall be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding as authorized by the Board of Directors in the specific case upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director or officer to repay such amount unless it shall ultimately be determined that he is entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation as authorized in Section 145 of The General Corporation Law of Delaware provided that at least one of the following conditions precedent has occurred in the specific case: (1) the officer or director has provided security for his undertaking; (2) the Corporation is insured against losses arising by reason of any lawful advances; or (3) a majority of a quorum of the disinterested non-party directors of the Corporation or an independent legal counsel in a written opinion shall determine, based upon a review of readily available facts, that there is reason to believe that such officer or director ultimately will be found entitled to indemnification. Such expenses incurred by other employees and agents may be so paid upon such terms and conditions, if any, as the Board of Directors deems appropriate.

F. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by this Article shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under any by-law, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person. The Corporation shall be permitted to enter into contracts directly with its officers and directors providing the maximum indemnity and relief from liability permitted under Delaware law.

G. The Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this Article; provided, however, that the Corporation may not purchase and maintain insurance that will protect or purport to protect any person against any liability for willful misfeasance, bad faith, gross negligence or reckless disregard of duty.

H. For purposes of this Article, references to other enterprises shall include employee benefit plans; references to fines shall include any excise taxes assessed on a person with respect to any employee benefit plan; and references to serving at the request of the Corporation shall include any service as a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation which imposes duties on, or involves services by, such director, officer, employee, or agent with respect to an employee benefit plan, its participants, or beneficiaries; and a person who acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in the interest of the participants and beneficiaries of an employee benefit plan shall be deemed to have acted in a manner not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation as referred to in this Article.

I. No provision of this Certificate on Incorporation shall be effective to protect or purport to protect any director or officer of the Corporation against any liability to the Corporation or its security holders to which he would otherwise be subject by reason of willful misfeasance, bad faith, negligence or reckless disregard of the duties involved in the conduct of his office.

APPENDIX B

ARTICLE X OF THE FUND S AMENDED AND RESTATED BY-LAWS

SECTION 10.1. THIRD PARTY ACTIONS. Subject to any limitation imposed by the Investment Company Act of 1940, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the Corporation) by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit, or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful except that (i) no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable for bad faith, negligence, willful misconduct or breach of fiduciary duty in the performance of his duty to the Corporation unless and only to the extent the Court of Chancery or the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the Court of Chancery or such other court shall deem proper, and (ii) no such person shall be entitled to indemnification in connection with any lawsuit in which the violation of any federal or state securities laws is alleged unless (a) if such person is successful in defending against such lawsuit, a court approves indemnification for the costs of such defense or (b) if the lawsuit is settled, a court approves the settlement and finds that indemnification for the settlement costs and expenses related to the lawsuit should be made. The satisfaction of any indemnification hereunder shall be limited to Corporation assets. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement or conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

SECTION 10.2. ACTIONS BY OR IN THE RIGHT OF THE CORPORATION. Subject to any limitation imposed by the Investment Company Act of 1940, the Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation and except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable for bad faith, negligence, willful misconduct or breach of his fiduciary duty in the performance of his duty to the Corporation unless and only to the extent that the Court of Chancery or the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the Court of Chancery or such other court shall deem proper.

SECTION 10.3. SUCCESS ON THE MERITS. To the extent that a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in Sections 10.1 and 10.2, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection therewith.

SECTION 10.4. DETERMINATION OF CONDUCT. The determination that an officer, director, employee or agent, has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Sections 10.1 and 10.2 (unless indemnification is ordered by a court) shall be made (1) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, or (2) if such quorum is not obtainable, or even if obtainable a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or (3) by the stockholders.

SECTION 10.5. PAYMENT OF EXPENSES IN ADVANCE. Expenses incurred by an officer or director in defending a civil or criminal action, suite or proceeding shall be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding as authorized by the Board of Directors in the specific case upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director or officer to repay such amount unless it shall ultimately be determined that he is entitled to be indemnified by the corporation as authorized in this Article X, provided that at least one of the following conditions precedent has occurred in the specific case: (1) the officer or director has provided security for his undertaking; (2) the Corporation is insured against losses arising by reason of lawful advances; or (3) a majority of a quorum of the disinterested non-party directors of the Corporation or an independent legal counsel in a written opinion, shall determine, based upon a review of readily available facts, that there is reason to believe that such officer or director ultimately will be found entitled to indemnification. Such expenses incurred by other employees and agents may be so paid upon such terms and conditions, if any, as the Board of Directors deems appropriate.

SECTION 10.6. INDEMNITY NOT EXCLUSIVE. The indemnification provided hereunder shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification may be entitled under any other by-law, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person. The Board of Directors shall also have the authority to authorize the Corporation making advances with respect to and indemnifying any person named in Sections 10.1 and 10.2 against, or making payments on behalf of or to reimburse such person for, any costs or expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments or fines or amounts paid in settlement, in connection with any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative as set forth in Sections 10.1 to 10.2 to the extent not inconsistent with law as evidenced by an opinion of counsel.

SECTION 10.7. INSURANCE. The Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this Article X of the by-laws; provided, however, that the Corporation may not purchase and maintain insurance that will protect or purport to protect any person against any liability for willful misfeasance, bad faith, gross negligence or reckless disregard of duty.

SECTION 10.8. DEFINITIONS. For purposes of this Article X, reference to the Corporation shall include, in addition to the resulting corporation, any constituent corporation (including any constituent of a constituent) absorbed in a consolidation or merger which, if its separate existence has continued, would have had power and authority to indemnify its directors, officers and employees or agents, so that any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of such constituent corporation, or is or was serving at the request of such constituent corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, shall stand in the same position under the provisions of this Article X with respect to the resulting or surviving corporation as he would have with respect to such constituent corporation if its separate existence had continued.

For purposes of this Article X, references to other enterprises shall include employee benefit plans; references to fines shall include any excise taxes assessed on a person with respect to any employee benefit plan; and references to serving at the request of the Corporation shall include any service as a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation which imposes duties on, or involves services by, such director, officer, employee, or agent with respect to an employee benefit plan, its participants, or beneficiaries; and a person who acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in the interest of the participants and beneficiaries of an employee benefit plan shall be deemed to have acted in a manner not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation as referred to in this Article X.

APPENDIX C

FORM OF INDEMNIFICATION AGREEMENT

This Indemnification Agreement (Agreement) dated , 2006, by and between Equus II Incorporated, a Delaware corporation (the Company), and (Indemnitee).

WHEREAS, the Company and Indemnitee recognize the increasing difficulty in obtaining directors and officers liability insurance, the significant increases in the cost of such insurance and the general reductions in the coverage of such insurance;

WHEREAS, the Company and Indemnitee further recognize the substantial increase in corporate litigation in general, subjecting officers and directors to expensive litigation risks at the same time as the availability and coverage of liability insurance has been severely limited;

WHEREAS, Indemnitee does not regard the current protection available as adequate under the present circumstances, and Indemnitee and other officers and directors of the Company may not be willing to continue to serve as officers and directors without additional protection; and

WHEREAS, the Company desires to attract and retain the services of highly qualified individuals, such as Indemnitee, to serve as officers and directors of the Company and to indemnify its officers and directors so as to provide them with the maximum protection permitted by law.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Company and Indemnitee hereby agree as follows:

1. INDEMNIFICATION.

a. Third Party Proceedings. The Company shall indemnify Indemnitee if Indemnitee is or was a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the Company) by reason of the fact that Indemnitee is or was (i) a director, officer, employee, or agent of the Company, or any subsidiary or majority-owned partnership of the Company, by reason of any action or inaction on the part of Indemnitee while an officer or director (ii) serving at the request of the Company or its investment advisor as a director, officer, employee, or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys fees), judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement (if such settlement is approved in advance by the Company, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld) actually and reasonably incurred by Indemnitee in connection with such action, suit, or proceeding if Indemnitee acted in good faith and in a manner Indemnitee reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe Indemnitee s conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit, or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that Indemnitee did not act in good faith and in a manner that Indemnitee reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that Indemnitee s conduct was unlawful.

b. Proceedings By or In the Right of the Company. The Company shall indemnify Indemnitee if Indemnitee was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending, or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Company or any subsidiary or majority-owned partnership of the Company to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of (i) the fact that Indemnitee is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the Company, or any subsidiary or majority-owned partnership of the Company, (ii) any action or inaction on the part of Indemnitee while an officer or director of the Company or any subsidiary or majority-owned partnership of the Company, or (iii) by reason of the fact that Indemnitee is or was serving at the request of the Company or its investment advisor as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees) and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by Indemnitee in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if Indemnitee acted in good faith and in a manner Indemnitee reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company, except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which Indemnitee shall have been adjudged to be liable to the Company unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, Indemnitee is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the court shall deem proper.

c. Indemnification for Expenses as a Witness. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, to the extent that Indemnitee is, by reason of his or her status as a current or former director, officer, employee, or agent of the Company (or of any other corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan, or other enterprise which the Indemnitee is or was serving at the request of the Company), a witness in any action, suit or proceeding to which Indemnitee is not a party, he or she shall be indemnified against all expenses actually and reasonably incurred by him or her or on his or her behalf in connection therewith.

d. Mandatory Payment of Expenses. To the extent that Indemnitee has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in Subsections (a), (b) and (c) of this Section 1 or the defense of any claim, issue, or matter therein, Indemnitee shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by Indemnitee in connection therewith.

e. Advancement of Expenses. The Company shall advance all expenses incurred by Indemnitee in connection with the investigation, defense, settlement, or appeal of any civil or criminal action, suit, or proceeding referenced in Subsection I (a), (b), or (c) hereof, provided that at least one of the following conditions has been met: (1) Indemnitee has provided security for his or her undertaking, (2) the Company is insured against losses arising by reason of lawful advances, or (3) either a majority of a quorum of the disinterested, non-party directors of the Company or an independent legal counsel in a written opinion, shall determine, based upon a review of readily available facts, that there is reason to believe that Indemnitee ultimately will be found entitled to indemnification. Indemnitee hereby undertakes to repay such amounts advanced only if, and to the extent that, it shall ultimately be determined that the Indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified by the Company as authorized hereby. The advances to be made hereunder shall be paid by the Company to the Indemnitee within twenty (20) days following delivery of a written request therefor by Indemnitee to the Company or promptly upon completion of any required review by directors or counsel. In making any reasonable belief determination required by this Section 1.e, (1) there shall be a rebuttable presumption that Indemnitee has not engaged in disabling conduct (as hereinafter defined), (2) directors or counsel may rely on a review of readily available facts (as opposed to a full-trial type inquiry), and (3) the review need only be sufficient to form the basis of a reasonable, but not necessarily conclusive, belief. If Indemnitee requests additional advances from the Company, and a reasonable belief determination no longer can be made, no additional advances shall be made unless Indemnitee provides security for his or her undertaking, the Company is insured against losses arising by reason of lawful advances, or the Company has otherwise obtained assurances that the advance will be repaid if Indemnitee ultimately is found to have engaged in disabling conduct.

2. SERVICES BY INDEMNITEE. Indemnitee agrees to serve as an executive officer and/or director of the Company and, as mutually agreed by Indemnitee and the Company, as a director, officer, employee, agent, or fiduciary of other corporations, partnerships, joint ventures, trusts, or other enterprises (including, without limitation, employee benefit plans). Indemnitee may at any time and for any reason resign from any such position (subject to any other contractual obligation or any obligation imposed by operation of law), in which event the Company shall have no obligation under this Agreement to continue Indemnitee in that position. This Agreement shall not be deemed an employment contract between the Company (or any of its subsidiaries) and Indemnitee. Indemnitee specifically acknowledges that Indemnitee's employment with the Company (or any of its subsidiaries), if any, is at will, and the Indemnitee may be discharged at any time for any reason, with or without cause, except as may be otherwise provided in any written employment contract between Indemnitee and the Company (or any of its subsidiaries or majority-owned partnership), other applicable formal severance policies duly adopted by the Board or, with respect to service as a director of the Company, by the Company's Certificate of Incorporation, Bylaws and the Delaware General Corporation Law. Notwithstanding, the foregoing, this Agreement shall continue in force after Indemnitee has ceased to serve as an officer or director of the Company and no longer serves at the request of the Company as a director, officer, employee, or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise.

3. INDEMNIFICATION PROCEDURE.

a. Notice/Cooperation by Indemnitee. Indemnitee shall, as a condition precedent to his or her right to be indemnified under this Agreement, give the Company notice in writing as soon as practicable of any claim made against Indemnitee for which indemnification will or could be sought under this Agreement. Notice to the Company shall be directed to Equus II Incorporated, 2929 Allen Parkway, Suite 2500, Houston, Texas 77019 (Attention: Chief Executive Officer) (or such other address as the Company shall designate in writing to Indemnitee). Notice shall be deemed received on the third business day after the date postmarked if sent by domestic certified or registered mail, properly addressed; otherwise notice shall be deemed received when such notice shall actually be received by the Company. In addition, Indemnitee shall give the Company such information and cooperation as it may reasonably require and as shall be within Indemnitee's power.

b. Procedure. Any indemnification and advances provided for in Section 1 and this Section 3 shall be made no later than 45 days after receipt of the written request of Indemnitee. If a claim under this Agreement, under any statute, or under any provision of the Company's Certificate of Incorporation or By-laws providing for indemnification, is not paid in full by the Company within 45 days after a written request for payment thereof has first been received by the Company, Indemnitee may, but need not, at any time thereafter bring an action against the Company to recover the unpaid amount of the claim and, subject to Section 13 of this Agreement, Indemnitee shall also be entitled to be paid for the expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) of bringing such action. It shall be a defense to any such action (other than an action brought to enforce a claim for expenses incurred in connection with any action, suit or proceeding in advance of its final disposition) that Indemnitee has not met the standards of conduct that make it permissible under applicable law for the Company to indemnify Indemnitee for the amount claimed, but the burden of proving such defense shall be on the Company and Indemnitee shall be entitled to receive interim payments of expenses pursuant to Subsection 1(e) unless and until such defense may be finally adjudicated by court order or judgment from which no further right of appeal exists.

c. Notice to Insurers. If, at the time of the receipt of a notice of a claim pursuant to Subsection 3(a) hereof, the Company has director and officer liability insurance in effect, the Company shall give prompt notice of the commencement of such proceeding to the insurers in accordance with the procedures set forth in the respective policies. The Company shall thereafter take all necessary or desirable action to cause such insurers to pay, on behalf of the Indemnitee, all amounts payable as a result of such proceeding in accordance with the terms of such policies.

d. Selection of Counsel. In the event the Company shall be obligated under Subsection 1(e) hereof to pay the expenses of any proceeding against Indemnitee, the Company, if appropriate, shall be entitled to assume the defense of such proceeding, with counsel approved by Indemnitee (which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld), upon the delivery to Indemnitee of written notice of its election so to do. After delivery of such notice, approval of such counsel by Indemnitee and the retention of such counsel by the Company, the Company will not be liable to Indemnitee under this Agreement for any fees of counsel subsequently incurred by Indemnitee with respect to the same proceeding, provided that (i) Indemnitee shall have the right to employ his or her counsel in any such proceeding at Indemnitee's expense; and (ii) if (A) the employment of counsel by Indemnitee has been previously authorized by the Company, (B) Indemnitee shall have reasonably concluded that there may be a conflict of interest between the Company and Indemnitee in the conduct of any such defense or (C) the Company shall not, in fact, have employed counsel to assume the defense of such proceeding, then the reasonable fees and expenses of Indemnitee's counsel shall be at the expense of the Company.

4. ADDITIONAL INDEMNIFICATION RIGHTS; NONEXCLUSIVITY.

a. Scope. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the Company hereby agrees to indemnify the Indemnitee to the fullest extent permitted by law, notwithstanding that such indemnification is not specifically authorized by, the other provisions of this Agreement, the Company's Certificate of Incorporation, the Company's Bylaws or by statute. In the event of any change, after the date of this Agreement, in any applicable law, statute, or rule that expands the right of a Delaware corporation to indemnify a member of its board of directors or an officer, such changes shall be, ipso facto, within the purview of Indemnitee's rights and Company's obligations, under this Agreement. In the event of any change in any applicable law, statute or rule that narrows the right of a Delaware corporation to indemnify a member of its board of directors or an officer, such changes, to the extent not otherwise required by such law, statute or rule to be applied to this Agreement, shall have no effect on this Agreement or the parties' rights and obligations hereunder.

b. Nonexclusivity. The indemnification provided by this Agreement shall not be deemed exclusive of any rights to which Indemnitee may be entitled under the Company's Certificate of Incorporation, its Bylaws, any agreement, any vote of shareholders or disinterested Directors, the Delaware General Corporation Law Act, or otherwise, both as to action in Indemnitee's official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office. The indemnification provided under this Agreement shall continue as to Indemnitee for any action taken or not taken while serving in an indemnified capacity even though he may have ceased to serve in an indemnified capacity at the time of any action, suit or other covered proceeding.

5. PARTIAL INDEMNIFICATION. If Indemnitee is entitled under any provision of this Agreement to indemnification by the Company for some or a portion of the expenses, judgments, fines or penalties actually or reasonably incurred by him in the investigation, defense, appeal or settlement of any civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding, but not, however, for the total amount thereof, the Company shall nevertheless indemnify Indemnitee for the portion of such expenses, judgments, fines or penalties to which Indemnitee is entitled.

6. MUTUAL ACKNOWLEDGMENT. Both the Company and Indemnitee acknowledge that in certain instances, Federal law or public policy may override applicable state law and prohibit the Company from indemnifying its directors and officers under this Agreement or otherwise. For example, the Company and Indemnitee acknowledge that the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") has taken the position that indemnification is not permissible for liabilities arising under certain federal securities laws, and federal legislation prohibits indemnification for certain ERISA violations. Indemnitee understands and acknowledges that the Company has undertaken, and may be required in the future to undertake, with the SEC to submit the question of indemnification to a court in certain circumstances for a determination of the Company's right under public policy to indemnify Indemnitee.

7. OFFICER AND DIRECTOR LIABILITY INSURANCE. To the extent the Company maintains an insurance policy or policies providing directors' and officers' liability insurance, Indemnitee shall be covered by such policy or policies, in accordance with its or their terms, to the maximum extent of the coverage available for any director or officer of the Company.

8. SEVERABILITY. Nothing in this Agreement is intended to require or shall be construed as requiring the Company to do or fail to do any act in violation of applicable law. The Company's inability, pursuant to court order, to perform its obligations under this Agreement shall not constitute a breach of this Agreement. The provisions of this Agreement shall be severable as provided in this Section 8. If this Agreement or any portion hereof shall be invalidated on any ground by any court of competent jurisdiction, then the Company shall nevertheless indemnify Indemnitee to the full extent permitted by any applicable portion of this Agreement that shall not have been invalidated, and the balance of this Agreement not so invalidated shall be enforceable in accordance with its terms.

9. EXCEPTIONS. Any other provision herein to the contrary notwithstanding, the Company shall not be obligated pursuant to the terms of this Agreement for the following:

a. Claims Initiated by Indemnitee. The Company shall not be obligated to indemnify or advance expenses to Indemnitee with respect to proceedings or claims initiated or brought voluntarily by Indemnitee and not by way of defense, except with respect to proceedings brought to establish or enforce a right to indemnification under this Agreement or any other statute or law or otherwise as required under the Delaware General Corporation Law, but such indemnification or advancement of expenses may be provided by the Company in specific cases if the Board of Directors finds it to be appropriate;

b. Lack of Good Faith. The Company shall not be obligated to indemnify Indemnitee for any expenses incurred by Indemnitee with respect to any proceeding instituted by Indemnitee to enforce or interpret this Agreement, to the extent a court of competent jurisdiction determines that any of the assertions made by Indemnitee in such proceeding was not made in good faith or was frivolous;

c. Insured Claims. The Company shall not be obligated to indemnify Indemnitee for expenses or liabilities of any type whatsoever (including, but not limited to judgments, fines, ERISA excise taxes or penalties, and amounts paid in settlement) that have been paid directly to Indemnitee by an insurance carrier under a policy of officers and directors liability insurance maintained by the Company; or

d. Claims under Section 16(b). The Company shall not be obligated to indemnify Indemnitee for expenses or the payment of profits arising from the purchase and sale by Indemnitee of securities in violation of Section 16(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or any similar successor statute.

e. Disabling Conduct. The Company shall not be obligated to indemnify or advance expenses to Indemnitee with respect to any claim, issue, or matter as to which Indemnitee shall have been adjudged to be liable for willful misfeasance, gross negligence, or reckless disregard of Indemnitee's duties as an officer or director of the Company (disabling conduct). Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, the Company shall not be obligated to indemnify or advance expenses to Indemnitee if such indemnification or advancement of expenses is prohibited by the Investment Company Act of 1940.

10. CONSTRUCTION OF CERTAIN PHRASES.

a. For purposes of this Agreement, references to the Company shall include, in addition to the resulting corporation, any constituent corporation (including any constituent of a constituent) absorbed in a consolidation or merger that, if its separate existence had continued, would have had power and authority to indemnify its directors, officers, and employees or agents, so that if Indemnitee is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of such constituent corporation, or is or was serving at the request of such constituent corporation as a director, officer, employee, or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, Indemnitee shall stand in the same position under the provisions of this Agreement with respect to the resulting or surviving corporation as Indemnitee would have with respect to such constituent corporation if its separate existence had continued.

b. For purposes of this Agreement, references to other enterprises shall include employee benefit plans; references to fines shall include any excise taxes assessed on Indemnitee with respect to an employee benefit plan; and references to serving at the request of the Company shall include any service as a director, officer, employee, or agent of any corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise (i) that imposes duties on, or involves services by, such director, officer, employee, or agent with respect to an employee benefit plan, its participants, or beneficiaries or (ii) in which the Company has an investment. If Indemnitee acted in good faith and in a manner Indemnitee reasonably believed to be in the interest of the participants and beneficiaries of an employee benefit plan, Indemnitee shall be deemed to have acted in a manner not opposed to the best interests of the Company as referred to in this Agreement.

11. COUNTERPARTS. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall constitute an original.

12. SUCCESSORS AND ASSIGNS. This Agreement shall be binding upon the Company and its successors and assigns, and shall inure to the benefit of Indemnitee and Indemnitee's estate, heirs, legal representatives and assigns.

13. ATTORNEYS' FEES. In the event that any action is instituted by Indemnitee under this Agreement to enforce or interpret any of the terms hereof, Indemnitee shall be entitled to be paid all court costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred by Indemnitee with respect to such action, except to the extent as a part of such action, a court of competent jurisdiction determines that any of the assertions made by Indemnitee as a basis for such action was not made in good faith or was frivolous. In the event of an action instituted by or in the name of the Company under this Agreement or to enforce or interpret any of the terms of this Agreement, Indemnitee shall be entitled to be paid all court costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred by Indemnitee in defense of such action (including with respect to Indemnitee's counterclaims and cross-claims made in such action), except to the extent as a part of such action the court determines that any of Indemnitee's defenses to such action was made in bad faith or was frivolous.

14. NOTICE. All notices, requests, demands and other communications under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed duly given (i) if delivered by hand and receipt is acknowledged by the party addressee, on the date of such receipt, or (ii) if mailed by certified or registered mail with postage prepaid, on the third business day after the date postmarked. Addresses for notice to either party are as shown on the signature page of this Agreement, or as subsequently modified by written notice.

15. CONSENT TO JURISDICTION. The Company and the Indemnitee each hereby irrevocably consent to the jurisdiction of the courts of the State of Texas for all purposes in connection with any action or proceeding that arises out of or relates to this Agreement and agree that any action instituted under this Agreement shall be brought only in the state courts of the State of Texas.

16. CHOICE OF LAW. This Agreement shall be governed by and its provisions construed in accordance with the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware and the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, and to the extent not in conflict with either of the foregoing, the laws of the State of Texas, as applied to contracts between residents entered into and to be performed entirely within Texas.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties or their duly authorized representatives hereto have executed this agreement as of the date first above written.
