Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

On December 15, 2006, Mark A. Salyer, Executive Vice President of Sales and Marketing of BioDelivery Sciences International, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company") provided written notice to the Company of his intention to voluntarily resign from the Company for personal reasons. Mr. Salyer's employment with the Company will end on January 14, 2007.

Mr. Salyer's departure from the Company was at his own initiative and was not based on any disagreement with the Company's management or board of directors on any matter, including those relating to the Company's operations, policies or practices. The Company will ultimately look to replace Mr. Salyer and does not expect Mr. Salyer's departure to have a material impact on the Company's operations.

This Current Report on Form 8-K may contain, among other things, certain forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, including, without limitation, statements with respect to the Company's plans, objectives, expectations and intentions and other statements identified by words such as "may", "could", "would", "should", "believes", "expects", "anticipates", "estimates", "plans" or similar expressions. These statements are based upon the current beliefs and expectations of the Company's management and are subject to significant risks and uncertainties. Actual results may differ from those set forth in the forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements involve certain risks and uncertainties that are subject to change based on various factors (many of which are beyond the Company's control).
