Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

Multi-Year Revolving Credit Agreement

On June 30, 2010, Questar Corporation (the Company) entered into a senior unsecured revolving credit agreement (the Credit Agreement), among the Company, the administrative agent and the lenders party thereto (the Lenders). The Credit Agreement has a scheduled maturity date of July 1, 2013, with an option for the Company to extend the term for two successive one-year periods, which extended terms will apply to any Lender who consents to such extension and any lender replacing a non-consenting Lender.

The Credit Agreement commits the Lenders to provide advances up to an aggregate principal amount of $350 million at any one time outstanding, with an option for the Company to request increases in the aggregate commitments to an aggregate amount not to exceed $450 million. In addition, the Credit Agreement provides for letters of credit to be issued at the request of the Company in an aggregate amount not to exceed a $60 million sublimit.

Interest accrues on advances at a LIBOR rate or a base rate, as selected by the Company, plus an applicable margin. The issuing fees for all letters of credit are also based on an applicable margin. The applicable margin used in connection with interest rates and fees is based on the Company's ratio of consolidated funded debt (as defined) to consolidated EBITDA (as defined) at the time. Proceeds of borrowings under the Agreement may be used for general corporate purposes, including to provide liquidity for the Company's commercial paper program and finance working capital, to refinance existing indebtedness and to pay certain fees and expenses.

The Credit Agreement contains customary representations, warranties, covenants and events of default, including a covenant limiting the amount of aggregate funded debt (as defined) based on a ratio of total consolidated funded debt to EBITDA, a covenant that limits aggregate funded debt of the Company's subsidiaries based on a ratio of consolidated funded debt to book capitalization (as defined), and a change of control event of default. During the continuance of an event of default, the Lenders may accelerate all outstanding debt and terminate all lending and letter of credit commitments.

The foregoing description of the Credit Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Credit Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 hereto and incorporated by reference herein.

364-Day Revolving Credit Agreement

On June 30, 2010, the Company also entered into a senior unsecured revolving credit agreement (the 364-Day Credit Agreement), among the Company, the administrative agent, the syndication agents and the lenders party thereto (the 364-Lenders). The 364-Day Credit Agreement has a scheduled maturity date of June 29, 2011. The 364-Day Credit Agreement commits the 364-Lenders to provide advances up to an aggregate principal amount of $250 million at any one time outstanding. Interest accrues on advances at a LIBOR rate or a base rate, as selected by the Company, plus an applicable margin. The applicable margin used in connection with interest rates is based on the Company's consolidated funded debt to consolidated EBITDA ratio at the time. Proceeds of borrowings under the 364-Day Credit Agreement may be used for general corporate purposes, including to provide liquidity for the Company's commercial paper program and finance working capital, and to pay certain fees and expenses.

The 364-Day Credit Agreement contains customary representations, warranties, covenants and events of default, including a covenant limiting the amount of aggregate funded debt based on a ratio of total consolidated funded debt to EBITDA, a covenant that limits aggregate funded debt of the Company's subsidiaries based on a ratio of consolidated funded debt to book capitalization, and a change of control event of default. During the continuance of an event of default, the 364-Lenders may accelerate all outstanding debt and terminate all lending and letter of credit commitments.

The foregoing description of the 364-Day Credit Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the 364-Day Credit Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 10.2 hereto and incorporated by reference herein.

Item 2.01 Completion of Acquisition or Disposition of Assets

On July 1, 2010, the Company announced that it has completed the previously announced spin-off (the Spin-off) of QEP Resources, Inc. (QEP). Effective as of 11:59 p.m., New York City time, on June 30, 2010 (the Distribution Date), the Company distributed all of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share (QEP Common Stock), of QEP to the Company's shareholders of record as of the close of business on June 18, 2010 (the Record Date), as a pro rata dividend. On the Distribution Date, Company shareholders received one share of QEP Common Stock for each share (including fractional shares) of the Company's stock held as of the Record Date.

The Spin-off was completed pursuant to a separation and distribution agreement entered into on June 14, 2010 by the Company and QEP for the purpose of legally and structurally separating the two entities. After the Distribution Date, Questar does not beneficially own any shares of QEP Common Stock and, following such date, will not consolidate QEP's financial results for the purpose of its own financial reporting. The unaudited pro forma consolidated financial information of the Company (reflecting the Spin-off and certain other items, as described therein) has been previously filed as Exhibit 99.3 to the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on June 16, 2010.
