EXPLANATORY NOTE

This post-effective amendment to the above-referenced registration statements is being filed pursuant to Rule 414 under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act), to reflect the completion by the Registrant of the Reorganization (as defined below).

On December 20, 2010, O Reilly Automotive, Inc. (Old O Reilly) formed each of O Reilly Holdings, Inc. (the Company), a Missouri corporation and a direct, wholly owned subsidiary of Old O Reilly, and O Reilly MergerCo, Inc. (MergerCo), a Missouri corporation and a direct, wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, for the purpose of facilitating its corporate reorganization to create a holding company structure (the Reorganization) pursuant to and in accordance with Section 351.448 of The General and Business Corporation Law of Missouri (the MGBCL). As a result of the Reorganization, the Company became the parent holding company of Old O Reilly, adopting the name O Reilly Automotive, Inc. , and Old O Reilly was renamed O Reilly Automotive Stores, Inc.

The Reorganization was effected pursuant to an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement), dated as of December 29, 2010, among the Company, Old O Reilly and MergerCo. As provided for in the Merger Agreement, MergerCo merged with and into Old O Reilly, with Old O Reilly continuing as the surviving corporation and as a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company (the Merger). Pursuant to Section 351.448 of the MGBCL, shareholder approval of the Merger was not required.

At the effective time of the Merger (the Effective Time) and pursuant to the Merger Agreement, (i) each issued and outstanding share of common stock of Old O Reilly was converted into a share of common stock of the Company, with the same designations, rights, qualifications, powers, preferences, qualifications, limitations and restrictions, and without any action being required on the part of holders of shares of Old O Reilly common stock, (ii) each share of the Company s common stock owned by Old O Reilly was cancelled, and (iii) each share of common stock of MergerCo was converted into a share of common stock of Old O Reilly, as the surviving corporation of the merger. The shareholders of Old O Reilly did not recognize gain or loss for United States federal income tax purposes as a result of the Merger.

The conversion of the shares of common stock in the Merger occurred without an exchange of certificates. Accordingly, shares of the Company s common stock (including the associated preferred stock purchase rights) continue to be represented by the same stock certificates that represented pre-merger shares of Old O Reilly s common stock (including the associated preferred stock purchase rights). Shares of the Company s common stock have been substituted for the shares of common stock of Old O Reilly listed on the NASDAQ Global Select Market immediately prior to the Effective Time and will continue to trade under the same ORLY symbol but will have a new CUSIP Number (67103H 107).

In addition, at the Effective Time and pursuant to the Merger Agreement, (i) each option to acquire shares of Old O Reilly s common stock was converted into an option to purchase a number of shares of common stock of the Company equal to the number of shares of Old O Reilly common stock issuable upon the exercise of such option and otherwise continues to be governed by the same terms and conditions as applied to such option immediately prior to the Effective Time, and (ii) each other equity-based award of Old O Reilly was converted into an equity-based award with respect to a number of shares of common stock of the Company equal to the number of shares of Old O Reilly common stock then subject to such equity-based award and otherwise continues to be governed by the same terms and conditions as applied to such equity-based award immediately prior to the Effective Time. The conversion of the options and other equity based awards in the Merger occurred automatically, without any action being required on the part of holders of such options or other equity based awards.

This post-effective amendment pertains to the adoption by the Company of the following registration statements (collectively, the Registration Statements):

Item 4. Description of Securities.

Not Applicable.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.
None.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Section 351.355(1) of The General and Business Corporation Law of Missouri (MGBCL) provides that a corporation may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, other than an action by or in the right of the corporation, by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses, including attorney s fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful.

Section 351.355(2) of the MGBCL provides that a corporation may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against expenses, including attorneys fees, and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of the action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, except that no person shall be indemnified as to any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his duty to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the court in which the action or suit was brought determines upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability and in view of all circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses that the court deems proper.

Section 351.355(3) of the MGBCL provides that, except as otherwise provided in the corporation s articles of incorporation or bylaws, to the extent that a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any such action, suit or proceeding referred to in subsection (1) or (2) of Section 351.355 of the MGBCL, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses, including attorney s fees, actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding. Section 351.355(7) of the MGBCL provides that a corporation may provide additional indemnification to any person indemnifiable under subsection (1) or (2) of Section 351.355 of the MGBCL, provided such additional indemnification is either (i) authorized, directed or provided for by the corporation s articles of incorporation or an amendment thereto or (ii) is authorized, directed or provided for by a shareholder-approved bylaw or agreement, and provided further that no person shall thereby be indemnified against conduct that was finally adjudged to have been knowingly fraudulent, deliberately dishonest or willful misconduct.

Article IX of O Reilly s articles of incorporation, as currently in effect, permits O Reilly to enter into agreements with its directors, officers, employees and agents, providing such indemnification as deemed appropriate, up to the maximum extent permitted by law. Article IX of the articles of incorporation provides that O Reilly shall extend to its directors the indemnification specified in subsections (1) and (2) of Section 351.355 of the MGBCL and the additional indemnification authorized in subsection (7) of the MGBCL and that it may extend to its officers, employees and agents such indemnification and additional indemnification.

In addition, Article XI of the articles of incorporation states that no director of O Reilly shall be personally liable to O Reilly or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty by such director as a director, but it does not eliminate or limit the liability of a director to the extent provided by applicable law (i) for any breach of the director s duty of loyalty to O Reilly or its shareholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in subjective good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) under Section 351.345 of the MGBCL, or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit. No amendment or repeal of Article XI will apply to or have any effect on the liability or alleged liability of any director of O Reilly for or with respect to any acts or omissions of such director prior to such amendment or repeal.

Item 7. Exemption from Registration Claimed.

Not Applicable.

Item 8. Exhibits.

Item 9. Undertakings.

(a) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes:

1. To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment hereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the Registration Statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in this Registration Statement;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the Registration Statement or any material change to such information in the Registration Statement; provided, however, that the undertakings set forth in paragraphs (i) and (ii) above do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the Registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement.

2. That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

3. To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
