ITEM 1.01. ENTRY INTO A MATERIAL DEFINITIVE AGREEMENT MERGER AGREEMENT

On January 8, 2011, Duke Energy Corporation, a Delaware corporation (Duke), Diamond Acquisition Corporation, a North Carolina corporation (Merger Sub), and Progress Energy, Inc. (Progress), a North Carolina corporation, entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (together with the exhibits thereto, the Merger Agreement). Merger Sub is a newly-formed, wholly-owned direct subsidiary of Duke.

The Merger Agreement provides that Merger Sub will merge with and into Progress (the Merger) and each share of Progress common stock will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive 2.6125 shares of Duke common stock, subject to appropriate adjustment for a reverse stock split of the Duke common stock as contemplated in the Merger Agreement (and except that any shares of Progress common stock that are owned by Progress, other than in a fiduciary capacity, will be cancelled without any consideration therefor). Each outstanding option to acquire, and each outstanding equity award relating to, one share of Progress common stock will be converted into an option to acquire, or an equity award relating to, 2.6125 shares of Duke common stock, as applicable, subject to appropriate adjustment for the reverse stock split. As a result of the Merger, Progress will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of Duke and the former shareholders of Progress will become shareholders of Duke. The board of directors of Duke has approved a reverse share split (at a ratio of 1-for-2 or 1-for-3, to be determined by the board of directors of Duke after consultation with Progress) that will be effective prior to the Merger and will be subject to the Merger being completed and receipt of the requisite approval of the shareholders of Duke.

The Merger Agreement provides that upon completion of the Merger, Duke will have an eighteen member board of directors. All 11 current directors of Duke will continue as directors, subject to their ability and willingness to serve. Seven of the current directors of Progress will be added to the board of directors of Duke upon completion of the Merger, subject to their ability and willingness to serve, with such seven directors to be designated by Progress, following reasonable consultation with Duke, no later than March 20, 2011.

James E. Rogers, Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of Duke, will be the Executive Chairman of the Board of Directors of Duke following the completion of the Merger. Duke, Merger Sub and Mr. Rogers have executed a term sheet (the Rogers Employment Agreement Term Sheet) pursuant to which the parties agree to amend the existing employment agreement for Mr. Rogers in certain respects to reflect the changes to Mr. Rogers' duties and responsibilities in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement. The Rogers Employment Agreement Term Sheet provides, among other things, for Mr. Rogers' term of employment to end on the later of the second anniversary of the completion of the Merger and December 31, 2013 and for Mr. Rogers' compensation arrangement to remain the same as under his current employment agreement through December 31, 2013. William D. Johnson, Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of Progress will be President and Chief Executive Officer of Duke following the completion of the Merger. Duke, Merger Sub and Mr. Johnson have executed a term sheet (the Johnson Employment Agreement Term Sheet) pursuant to which the parties agree to enter into a new employment agreement for Mr. Johnson prior to the effective time of the Merger reflecting the terms in such term sheet. The Johnson Employment Agreement Term Sheet and the Rogers Employment Agreement Term Sheet are Exhibits C and D, respectively, to the Merger Agreement that is filed as Exhibit 2.1 hereto and are incorporated into this report by reference.

Duke and Progress have each made customary representations, warranties and covenants in the Merger Agreement, including, among others, covenants to conduct their businesses in the ordinary course between the execution of the Merger Agreement and the completion of the Merger and covenants not to engage in certain kinds of transactions during that period. During such period, Progress will not increase its $0.62 regular quarterly cash dividend without the prior written consent of Duke and Duke may increase its regularly quarterly cash dividend to $0.25 per share without the prior written consent of Progress commencing with the regular quarterly dividend that would be payable in 2011 with respect to the second quarter of 2011 and to $0.255 commencing with the regular quarterly dividend that would be payable in 2012 with respect to the second quarter of 2012. In addition, Duke and Progress have made certain additional customary covenants, including, among others, covenants, subject to certain exceptions, (A) to cause a stockholder meeting to be held to consider, in the case of Progress, approval of the Merger Agreement and, in the case of Duke, approval of the issuance of Duke common stock in the Merger and the amendment to Duke's amended and restated certificate of incorporation to effect the reverse stock split discussed above, (B) not to solicit proposals relating to alternative business combination transactions, and (C) not to enter into discussions concerning, or provide confidential information in connection with, alternative business combination transactions.

Consummation of the Merger is subject to customary conditions, including, among others, (i) approval of the stockholders of each of Duke and Progress, (ii) absence of any material adverse effect, (iii) expiration or termination of the applicable Hart-Scott-Rodino Act waiting period, (iv) absence of any order or injunction prohibiting the consummation of the Merger, (v) the registration statement of Duke filed on Form S-4 having become effective, (vi) shares of Duke common stock to be issued in connection with the Merger having been approved for listing on the New York Stock Exchange, (vii) subject to certain exceptions, the accuracy of representations and warranties with respect to Duke's and Progress's business, as applicable, (viii) receipt of customary tax opinions, (ix) receipt of all required statutory approvals from, among others, the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, the Nuclear Regulatory Commission, the Federal Communications Commission, and state public service and utility commissions and (x) the effectiveness of the amendment to Duke's amended and restated certificate of incorporation to effect the reverse stock split discussed above. The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights for both Duke and Progress, and further provides that, upon termination of the Merger Agreement under specified circumstances, a party would be required to pay the other party's fees and expenses in an amount not to exceed $30 million or a termination fee of $400 million in the case of a fee payable by Progress to Duke or a termination fee of $675 million in the case of a fee payable by Duke to Progress. The termination fee is payable by Duke under specified circumstances, including (i) if Duke enters into a definitive agreement with respect to certain business combinations (other than the Merger Agreement), or (ii) if Progress terminates the Merger Agreement following a withdrawal by Duke's Board of Directors of its recommendation of the approval of the issuance of Duke common stock in the Merger and the amendment to Duke's amended and restated certificate of incorporation to effect the reverse stock split discussed above under certain circumstances. The termination fee is payable by Progress under specified circumstances, including (i) if Progress enters into a definitive agreement with respect to certain business combinations (other than the Merger Agreement), or (ii) if Duke terminates the Merger Agreement following a withdrawal by Progress's Board of Directors of its recommendation of the Merger Agreement and the Merger under certain circumstances.

The Merger Agreement has been filed to provide security holders with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about Duke, Progress or their respective subsidiaries and affiliates. The Merger Agreement contains representations and warranties by each of the parties to the Merger Agreement. These representations and warranties were made solely for the benefit of the other parties to the Merger Agreement and (a) are not intended to be treated as categorical statements of fact, but rather as a way of allocating risk to one of the parties if those statements prove to be inaccurate, (b) may have been qualified in the Merger Agreement by confidential disclosure schedules that were delivered to the other party in connection with the signing of the Merger Agreement, which disclosure schedules contain information that modifies, qualifies and creates exceptions to the representations, warranties and covenants set forth in the Merger Agreement, (c) may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the parties that differ from what might be viewed as material to stockholders and (d) were made only as of the date of the Merger Agreement or such other date or dates as may be specified in the Merger Agreement. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations, warranties and covenants may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in public disclosures by Duke or Progress. Accordingly, you should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of Duke or Progress.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 hereto, and is incorporated into this report by reference.
