[], 2016

Dear Stockholder:

A special meeting of stockholders of PowerSecure International, Inc., a Delaware corporation (PowerSecure , we or the Company), will be held on [], 2016, at [] a.m. local time, at the offices of PowerSecure located at 9400 Globe Center Drive, Suite 116, Morrisville, North Carolina 27560. You are cordially invited to attend.

On February 24, 2016, PowerSecure entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the merger agreement) with The Southern Company, a Delaware corporation (Southern Company), and PSMS Corp., a newly formed Delaware corporation that is a wholly-owned indirect subsidiary of Southern Company (Merger Sub), providing for, subject to the satisfaction or waiver (if permissible under applicable law) of specified conditions, the acquisition of PowerSecure by Southern Company at a price of $18.75 per share in cash. Subject to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, Merger Sub will be merged with and into PowerSecure (the merger), with PowerSecure surviving the merger as a wholly-owned indirect subsidiary of Southern Company. At the special meeting, PowerSecure will ask you to adopt the merger agreement. The adoption of the merger agreement by PowerSecure stockholders is a condition to the completion of the merger.

At the effective time of the merger, each share of PowerSecure s common stock, par value $.01 per share (Company common stock), issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time, other than shares owned by PowerSecure as treasury stock, shares owned by a subsidiary of PowerSecure and shares owned by stockholders who have properly demanded appraisal rights under Delaware law, will be converted into the right to receive $18.75 in cash, without interest and less any applicable withholding taxes.

The proxy statement accompanying this letter provides you with more specific information concerning the special meeting, the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. We encourage you to carefully read the accompanying proxy statement and the copy of the merger agreement attached as Annex A thereto.

The board of directors of PowerSecure (the Board) carefully reviewed and considered the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. The Board unanimously approved the merger agreement, determined that the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement are advisable and fair to and in the best interests of PowerSecure s stockholders, directed that the merger agreement be submitted to PowerSecure s stockholders for adoption and resolved to recommend that PowerSecure s stockholders vote to adopt the merger agreement. Accordingly, the Board unanimously recommends a vote FOR the proposal to adopt the merger agreement. The Board also unanimously recommends a vote FOR the nonbinding compensation proposal described in the accompanying proxy statement and FOR the adjournment of the special meeting proposal, if necessary or appropriate, described in the accompanying proxy statement.

Whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting and regardless of the number of shares you own, your careful consideration of, and vote on, the proposal to adopt the merger agreement is important and we encourage you to vote promptly. The merger cannot be completed unless the merger agreement is adopted by stockholders holding at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Company common stock as of the close of business on [], 2016. The failure to vote will have the same effect as a vote against the proposal to adopt the merger agreement.

The members of the Board were aware of and considered these interests, among other matters, in evaluating and reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement and determining that the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement are advisable and fair to and in the best interests of the Company's stockholders, and in resolving to recommend that the Company's stockholders vote to adopt the merger agreement. No Financing Condition

There is no financing condition to the merger.

Conditions to the Merger

Each party's obligation to effect the merger is subject to the satisfaction at or prior to the effective time of the following conditions:

the approval of the merger agreement by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Company common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting, voting together as a single voting group;

Table of Contents

the waiting period applicable to the consummation of the merger under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, which we refer to as the HSR Act , will have expired or been terminated; and the absence of a judgment, order, decision, injunction, ruling or other finding or agency requirement of a governmental entity prohibiting the consummation of the merger.

Each party's obligation to consummate the merger is also subject to certain additional conditions, including:

subject to certain materiality qualifiers, the accuracy of the representations and warranties made in the merger agreement by the other party; and performance in all material respects by the other party of its obligations under the merger agreement.

In addition, Southern Company's obligation to consummate the merger is also subject to the following condition:

since the date of the merger agreement, the absence of any fact, occurrence, change, effect or circumstance, individually or in the aggregate, that has had or would reasonably be expected to result in a material adverse effect on the Company.

Prior to the effective time, each of the Company and Southern Company may waive any of the conditions to its obligation to consummate the merger even though one or more of the conditions described above has not been met, except where waiver is not permissible under applicable law.

The merger is subject to the requirements of the HSR Act, which prevents Southern Company and the Company from completing the merger until required information and materials are furnished to the Antitrust Division of the United States Department of Justice (DOJ) and the United States Federal Trade Commission (FTC) and the HSR Act waiting period is terminated or expires. On March 10, 2016, Southern Company and the Company filed the requisite notification and report forms under the HSR Act with the DOJ and the FTC. Consequently, the required waiting period is scheduled to expire at 11:59 p.m. on April 11, 2016, unless earlier terminated or the FTC or DOJ extends that period by issuing a request to the parties for additional information.

The merger agreement generally requires each party to use reasonable best efforts to resolve objections that may be asserted under any law that would delay, prevent, enjoin or otherwise prohibit the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, subject to certain limitations (as described under The Merger Agreement Efforts to Obtain Regulatory Approvals).

Subject to certain limitations, either party may terminate the merger agreement if the merger is not consummated by November 30, 2016, which we refer to as the outside date .

No Solicitation by the Company

The merger agreement generally restricts the Company's ability to solicit alternative proposals (as defined below under The Merger Agreement No Solicitation by the Company) from (including by furnishing information to) third parties, or participate in discussions or negotiations with third parties regarding an alternative proposal. Under certain circumstances, however, and in compliance with certain obligations contained in the merger agreement, the Company is permitted to engage in negotiations with, and provide information to, third parties making an unsolicited alternative proposal that the Board determines in good faith, after consultation with its outside financial and legal advisors, constitutes or is reasonably likely to result in a superior proposal (as defined below under The Merger Agreement No Solicitation by the Company). Under certain circumstances prior to the adoption of the merger agreement by the Company's stockholders, the Board may effect a change in recommendation (as described below under The Merger Agreement Changes in the Board's Recommendation) and the Company may terminate the merger agreement in order to enter into a definitive agreement with respect to a superior proposal, upon payment by the Company of a $12,000,000 termination fee to Southern Company.

The merger agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the effective time in the following circumstances:

by mutual written consent of the Company and Southern Company as duly authorized by each of their respective boards of directors;

by either the Company or Southern Company, if:

the merger is not consummated by the outside date, provided that the right to terminate the merger agreement in accordance with the foregoing will not be available to a party if the inability to satisfy any closing condition is a result of a failure of such party to perform any of its obligations under the merger agreement or if the other party has filed an action seeking specific performance;

a judgment, order, decision, injunction, ruling or other finding or agency requirement of a governmental entity preventing the consummation of the merger is in effect and has become final and nonappealable; or stockholder approval of the merger agreement is not obtained at the special meeting;

by Southern Company:

if the Company breaches any of its representations or warranties (or if any such representations or warranties fail to be true) or fails to perform any of its covenants or agreements, which breach or failure (a) would give rise to the failure of the applicable condition to consummate the merger and (b) is incapable of being cured or is not cured by the earlier of the outside date and 30 days after receiving written notice of such breach or failure; or prior to the adoption of the merger agreement by the Company's stockholders, if the Board has made a change of recommendation (as described below under The Merger Agreement Changes in the Board's Recommendation);

by the Company:

if either Southern Company or Merger Sub breaches any of its representations or warranties (or if any such representations or warranties fail to be true) or fails to perform any of its covenants or agreements, which breach or failure (a) would give rise to the failure of the applicable condition to consummate the merger and (b) is incapable of being cured or is not cured by the earlier of the outside date and 30 days after receiving written notice of such breach or failure; or prior to stockholder adoption of the merger agreement, if the Board makes a change of recommendation in response to a superior proposal and the Company is in compliance in all material respects with the no-shop provisions (subject to the payment of a termination fee to Southern Company as described below under The Merger Agreement Termination Fee and Reimbursement of Expenses).

Termination Fee and Reimbursement of Expenses

If the merger agreement is terminated under certain specified circumstances, the Company will be required to pay Southern Company a termination fee of $12,000,000. In certain circumstances, the Company would be required to reimburse Southern Company's expenses up to $1,000,000 (which reimbursement would reduce on a dollar-for-dollar basis any termination fee subsequently payable by the Company).

Appraisal Rights

Under the DGCL, PowerSecure stockholders who do not vote for the adoption of the merger agreement have the right to seek appraisal of the fair value of their shares in cash as determined by the Delaware Court of Chancery, but only if they comply fully with all of the applicable requirements of the DGCL, which are summarized in this proxy statement. Any appraisal amount determined by the court could be more than, the same as, or less than the value of the merger consideration. Any PowerSecure stockholder intending to exercise appraisal rights must, among other things, submit a written demand for appraisal to the Company prior to the vote on the adoption of the merger agreement and must not vote or otherwise submit a proxy in favor of adoption of the merger agreement. Failure to follow exactly the procedures specified under the DGCL will result in the loss of appraisal rights. Because of the complexity of the DGCL relating to appraisal rights, if you are considering exercising your appraisal right we encourage you to seek the advice of your own legal counsel. See Appraisal Rights of Stockholders on page []. A copy of Section 262 of the DGCL is attached as Annex C to this proxy statement and is incorporated by reference herein.

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences

The receipt of cash pursuant to the merger will be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes and may also be a taxable transaction under applicable state, local or foreign income or other tax laws. Generally, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, if you are a U.S. holder (defined below in the section of this proxy statement entitled The Merger Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger), you will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference, if any, between the amount of cash you receive pursuant to the merger (including any cash required to be withheld for tax purposes) and your adjusted tax basis in the shares of Company common stock converted into cash pursuant to the merger. If you are a non-U.S. holder (defined below in the section of this proxy statement entitled The Merger Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger), the receipt of cash pursuant to the merger will generally not be a taxable transaction to you under U.S. federal income tax laws unless you have certain connections to the United States, but may be a taxable transaction to you under non-U.S. federal income tax laws, and you are encouraged to seek tax advice regarding such matters. Because individual circumstances may differ, we recommend that you consult your own tax advisor to determine the particular tax effects of the merger to you.

You should read the section of this proxy statement entitled The Merger Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger beginning on page [] for a more complete discussion of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE SPECIAL MEETING AND THE MERGER

The following questions and answers are intended to briefly address some commonly asked questions regarding the special meeting and the merger. These questions and answers may not address all the questions that may be important to you as a stockholder. You should read the more detailed information contained elsewhere in this proxy statement, the annexes to this proxy statement and the documents referred to or incorporated by reference in this proxy statement.

Q: Why am I receiving this proxy statement?

A: On February 24, 2016, the Company entered into the merger agreement with Southern Company and Merger Sub. You are receiving this proxy statement as a stockholder of the Company in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board in favor of the proposal to adopt the merger agreement and the other matters to be voted on at the special meeting described below under the section of this proxy statement entitled What proposals will be considered at the special meeting? The merger cannot be completed unless the proposal to adopt the merger agreement is approved by stockholders holding at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Company common stock.

Q: As a stockholder, what will I receive in the merger?

A: If the merger is completed, you will be entitled to receive $18.75 in cash, without interest and less any applicable withholding taxes, for each share of Company common stock that you own immediately prior to the effective time.

The exchange of shares of Company common stock for cash pursuant to the merger will be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Please see the section of this proxy statement entitled The Merger Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger beginning on page [] for a more detailed description of the United States federal income tax consequences of the merger. You should consult your own tax advisor for a full understanding of how the merger will affect your federal, state, local or non-U.S. taxes.

Q: What will happen to outstanding Company equity compensation awards in the merger?

A: For information regarding the treatment of the Company's equity awards, please see the section of this proxy statement entitled The Merger Agreement Treatment of Equity Awards beginning on page [].

Q: When and where is the special meeting of PowerSecure stockholders?

A: The special meeting will be held on [], 2016, at [] a.m. local time, at PowerSecure's offices located at 9400 Globe Center Drive, Suite 116, Morrisville, North Carolina 27560.

If you plan to attend the meeting, please note that you will need to present government-issued identification showing your name and photograph (i.e., a driver's license or passport), and, if you are an institutional investor, evidence showing your representative capacity for such entity, in each case to be verified against our stockholder list as of the record date for the meeting. In addition, if your shares are held in the name of a broker, you will need a valid proxy from such entity or a recent brokerage statement or letter from such entity reflecting your stock ownership as of the record date for the special meeting.

Q: Who is entitled to vote at the special meeting?

A: Only holders of record of Company common stock as of the close of business on [], 2016, the record date for the special meeting, are entitled to vote the shares of Company common stock they held on the record date at the special meeting. As of the close of business on the record date, there were [] shares of Company common stock outstanding and entitled to vote, held by [] stockholders of record.

Each stockholder is entitled to one vote for each share of Company common stock held by such stockholder on the record date on each of the proposals presented in this proxy statement.

Q: What proposals will be considered at the special meeting?

A: At the special meeting, you will be asked to consider and vote on the following proposals:

a proposal to adopt the merger agreement;

a nonbinding, advisory proposal to approve the compensation that may be paid or may become payable to the Company's named executive officers in connection with, or following, the consummation of the merger, which we refer to as the nonbinding compensation proposal; and a proposal to approve the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to adopt the merger agreement.

Q: Why am I being asked to consider and vote on the nonbinding compensation proposal?

A: Under Section 14A of the Exchange Act, the SEC requires the Company to conduct a nonbinding, advisory vote of stockholders regarding the compensation that may be paid or may become payable to the Company's named executive officers in connection with, or following, the consummation of the merger.

Q: What constitutes a quorum for purposes of the special meeting?

A: The Company's Bylaws provide that the presence, in person or by proxy, of holders of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast at the special meeting constitutes a quorum for the transaction of business. Abstentions will be counted for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum. Broker non-votes (as described under the section of this proxy statement entitled The Special Meeting Quorum) will not be counted for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum unless the broker, bank, trust, custodian or other nominee (we refer to those organizations collectively as a broker) has been instructed to vote on at least one of the proposals presented in this proxy statement.

Q: What vote of PowerSecure's stockholders is required to approve each of the proposals?

A: The adoption of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Company common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting, voting together as a single voting group. Under the merger agreement, the receipt of such required vote is a condition to the consummation of the merger. Abstentions, failures to vote and broker non-votes will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the proposal to adopt the merger agreement.

The approval of the nonbinding compensation proposal requires that the number of votes cast in favor of the proposal exceeds the votes cast opposing the proposal. Assuming a quorum is present at the special meeting, abstentions, failures to vote and broker non-votes will have no effect on the outcome of the nonbinding compensation proposal.

The approval of the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to adopt the merger agreement, requires that the number of votes cast in favor of the proposal exceed the votes cast opposing the proposal. Assuming a quorum is present at the special meeting, abstentions, failures to vote and broker non-votes will have no effect on the outcome of the adjournment proposal.

Q: How does the Board recommend that I vote?

A: The Board unanimously recommends a vote FOR the proposal to adopt the merger agreement, FOR the nonbinding compensation proposal and FOR the approval of the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to adopt the merger agreement.

For a discussion of the factors that the Board considered in resolving to recommend that the Company's stockholders vote to adopt the merger agreement, please see the section of this proxy statement entitled The Merger Reasons for Recommending the Adoption of the Merger Agreement beginning on page []. In addition, in considering the recommendation of the Board with respect to the merger agreement, you should be aware that some of the Company's directors and executive officers have interests that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of the Company's stockholders generally. Please see the section of this proxy statement entitled The Merger Interests of the Company's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger beginning on page [].

Q: How do the Company's directors and executive officers intend to vote?

A: The Company's directors and executive officers have informed us that they intend, as of the date hereof, to vote all of their shares of Company common stock in favor of the matters before our stockholders as described in this proxy statement. As of the close of business on [], 2016, the record date for the special meeting, the Company's directors and executive officers owned, in the aggregate [] shares of Company common stock, or collectively approximately []% of the outstanding shares of Company common stock.

Q: Do any of the Company's directors or executive officers have any interests in the merger that may be different from, or in addition to, my interests as a stockholder?

A: In considering the proposals to be voted on at the special meeting, you should be aware that certain of the Company's directors and executive officers have interests in the merger that may be different from, or in addition to, your interests as a stockholder. The members of the Board were aware of and considered these interests, among other matters, in evaluating and reaching its unanimous decision to approve the merger agreement and in determining that the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement are advisable and fair to and in the best interests of the Company's stockholders, and in resolving to recommend the Company's stockholders vote to adopt the merger agreement. For more information, please see the section of this proxy statement entitled The Merger Interests of the Company's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger beginning on page [].

Q: What happens if I sell my shares of Company common stock before the special meeting?

A: The record date for the special meeting is earlier than the date of the special meeting. If you own shares of Company common stock on the record date, but transfer your shares after the record date but before the effective time, you will retain your right to vote such shares at the special meeting, but the right to receive the merger consideration will pass to the person to whom you transferred your shares.

Q: How do I cast my vote if I am a stockholder of record?

A:

If you are a stockholder with shares registered in your name, you may vote in person at the special meeting or by submitting a proxy for the special meeting via the internet, by telephone or by completing, signing, dating and mailing the enclosed proxy card in the envelope provided. For more detailed instructions on how to vote using one of these methods, please see the section of this proxy statement entitled The Special Meeting Voting Procedures beginning on page [].

If you are a stockholder of record and you submit a proxy card or voting instructions but do not direct how to vote on each item, the persons named as proxies will vote in favor of the proposal to adopt the merger agreement, the nonbinding compensation proposal and the proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies.

Q: How do I cast my vote if my shares of Company common stock are held in street name by my broker?

A: If you are a stockholder with shares held in street name , which means your shares are held in an account at a broker, you must follow the instructions from your broker in order to vote. Unless you follow those instructions, your shares will not be voted, which will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the proposal to adopt the merger agreement.

Q: What will happen if I abstain from voting or fail to vote on any of the proposals?

A: If you abstain from voting, fail to cast your vote in person or by proxy or fail to give voting instructions to your broker, it will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the proposal to adopt the merger agreement. Assuming a quorum is present at the special meeting, abstentions, failures to vote and broker non-votes will have no effect on the outcome of the nonbinding compensation proposal and the proposal to approve the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to adopt the merger agreement.

Q: Can I change my vote after I have delivered my proxy?

A: Yes. If you are a stockholder of record, your proxy can be revoked in several ways:

by submitting a new vote by telephone or the Internet;

by delivering a written revocation to the Company's Secretary at PowerSecure International, Inc., 1609 Heritage Commerce Court, Wake Forest, North Carolina 27587 prior to the special meeting;

by submitting another valid proxy bearing a later date that is received prior to the special meeting; or by attending the special meeting and voting your shares in person.

However, if your shares are held in street name through a broker, nominee, fiduciary or other custodian, you must contact your broker, nominee, fiduciary or other custodian to determine how to revoke your proxy.

Q: What should I do if I receive more than one set of voting materials?

A: You may receive more than one set of voting materials, including multiple copies of this proxy statement or multiple proxy or voting instruction cards. For example, if you hold your shares of Company common stock in more than one brokerage account, you will receive a separate voting instruction card for each brokerage account in which you hold shares of Company common stock. If you are a stockholder of record and your shares of Company common stock are registered in more than one name, you will receive more than one proxy card. Please submit each proxy and voting instruction card that you receive to ensure that all your shares are voted.

Q: If I hold my shares in certificated form, should I send in my stock certificates now?

A: No. Promptly after the effective time, each holder of record (other than the Depository Trust Company) of (1) a certificate representing any Company common stock or (2) shares of Company common stock in non-certificated book-entry form, in each case that is entitled to receive the merger consideration, will be sent a letter of transmittal and instructions for use in effecting the surrender of such holder's shares in exchange for the merger consideration. If you hold your shares in certificated form, you will receive your cash payment upon surrender of your certificates, together with your duly executed letter of transmittal and any other documents requested in the instructions. You should not return your certificates with the enclosed proxy card, and you should not forward your certificates to the paying agent without a letter of transmittal. If you hold shares of Company common stock in non-certificated book-entry form, you will not be required to deliver a certificate, and you will receive your cash payment after the paying agent has received your duly executed letter of transmittal and any other documents requested in the instructions.

Q: Am I entitled to exercise appraisal rights instead of receiving the merger consideration for my shares of Company common stock?

A: Yes. Under the DGCL, PowerSecure stockholders who do not vote for the adoption of the merger agreement have the right to seek appraisal of the fair value of their shares as determined by the Delaware Court of Chancery, but only if they comply fully with all applicable requirements of the DGCL, which are summarized in this proxy statement. Any appraisal amount determined by the court could be more than, the same as, or less than the value of the merger consideration. Any PowerSecure stockholder intending to exercise appraisal rights must, among other things, submit a written demand for appraisal to PowerSecure prior to the vote on the adoption of the merger agreement and must not vote or otherwise submit a proxy in favor of adoption of the merger agreement. Failure to follow exactly the procedures specified under the DGCL will result in the loss of appraisal rights. Because of the complexity of the DGCL relating to appraisal rights, if you are considering exercising your appraisal rights we encourage you to seek the advice of your own legal counsel. For more information regarding appraisal rights, see the section of this proxy statement entitled Appraisal Rights of Stockholders on page []. A copy of Section 262 of the DGCL is attached as Annex C to this proxy statement.

Q: When is the merger expected to be completed?

A: We are working toward completing the merger as promptly as practicable. If the merger agreement is approved at the special meeting, we anticipate that the merger will be completed by the end of the second quarter of 2016. However, because the merger cannot be completed until the conditions to closing (some of which, as described under The Merger Agreement Conditions to the Merger , will not be determined until the closing date) are satisfied, we cannot assure completion by any particular date, if at all.

Q: What effect will the merger have on the Company?

A: If the merger is consummated, Merger Sub will be merged with and into the Company, and the Company will continue to exist following the merger as a wholly-owned indirect subsidiary of Southern Company. Following such consummation of the merger, shares of Company common stock will no longer be traded on the NYSE or any other public market, and the registration of shares of Company common stock under the Exchange Act will be terminated.

Q: What happens if the merger is not completed?

A: In the event that the proposal to adopt the merger agreement does not receive the required approval from our stockholders, or if the merger is not completed for any other reason, our stockholders will not receive any payment for their shares of Company common stock in connection with the merger. Instead, we will remain an independent public company and stockholders will continue to own their shares of Company common stock. Under certain circumstances, if the merger agreement is terminated, the Company may be obligated to pay to Southern Company a termination fee or to reimburse Southern Company for its expenses. Please see the section of this proxy statement entitled The Merger Agreement Termination Fee and Reimbursement of Expenses beginning on page [].

Q: What is householding and how does it affect me?

A: The SEC permits companies to send a single set of certain disclosure documents to stockholders who share the same address and have the same last name, unless contrary instructions have been received, but only if the applicable company provides advance notice and follows certain procedures. In such cases, each stockholder continues to receive a separate notice of the meeting and proxy card. This practice, known as householding, is designed to reduce duplicate mailings and save significant printing and postage costs as well as natural resources. If you received a householded mailing and you would like to have additional copies of this proxy statement mailed to you, or you would like to opt out of this practice for future mailings, please submit your request to Investor Relations, by phone at (919) 556-3056, by mail to PowerSecure International, Inc., 1609 Heritage Commerce Court, Wake Forest, North Carolina 27587, or by e-mail to info@powersecure.com. We will promptly send additional copies of this proxy statement upon receipt of any such request.

Q: Who can help answer my questions?

A: If you have any questions or need assistance voting your shares, please contact MacKenzie Partners, Inc., PowerSecure's proxy solicitor for the special meeting, toll-free at (800) 322-2885 or via email at proxy@mackenziepartners.com.

THE SPECIAL MEETING

Date, Time and Place

The special meeting will be held on [], 2016, at [] a.m. local time, at the offices of PowerSecure located at 9400 Globe Center Drive, Suite 116, Morrisville, North Carolina 27560.

If you plan to attend the meeting, please note that you will need to present government-issued identification showing your name and photograph (i.e., a driver's license or passport), and, if you are an institutional investor, evidence showing your representative capacity for such entity, in each case to be verified against our stockholder list as of the record date for the meeting. In addition, if your shares are held in the name of a broker, you will need a valid proxy from such entity or a recent brokerage statement or letter from such entity reflecting your stock ownership as of the record date for the meeting.

Purpose of the Special Meeting

The special meeting is being held for the following purposes:

to consider and vote on a proposal to adopt the merger agreement (see the section of this proxy statement entitled The Merger Agreement beginning on page []);

to consider and vote on a nonbinding, advisory proposal to approve the compensation that may be paid or may become payable to the Company's named executive officers in connection with, or following, the consummation of the merger, which we refer to as the nonbinding compensation proposal (see the section of this proxy statement entitled The Merger Interests of the Company's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger beginning on page []); and to approve the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to adopt the merger agreement.

A copy of the merger agreement is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement.

Recommendation of the Board

The Board carefully reviewed and considered the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. The Board unanimously approved the merger agreement, determined that the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement are advisable and fair to and in the best interests of the Company's stockholders, directed that the merger agreement be submitted for adoption at a duly held meeting and resolved to recommend that the Company's stockholders vote to adopt the merger agreement. Accordingly, the Board unanimously recommends a vote FOR the proposal to adopt the merger agreement. For a discussion of the material factors that the Board considered in resolving to recommend that the Company's stockholders vote to adopt the merger agreement, please see the section of this proxy statement entitled

The Merger Reasons for Recommending the Adoption of the Merger Agreement .

Record Date and Stockholders Entitled to Vote

Only holders of record of Company common stock as of the close of business on [], 2016, the record date for the special meeting, are entitled to vote the shares of Company common stock they held on the record date at the special meeting. As of the close of business on the record date, there were [] shares of Company common stock outstanding and entitled to vote, held by [] stockholders of record. Each stockholder is entitled to one vote for each share of Company common stock held by such stockholder on the record date on each of the proposals presented in this proxy statement.

Quorum

The Company's Bylaws provide that the presence, in person or by proxy, of holders of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast at the special meeting constitutes a quorum for the transaction of business. Abstentions will be counted for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum. Broker non-votes will not be counted for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum unless the broker has been instructed to vote on at least one of the proposals presented in this proxy statement.

A broker non-vote occurs on a matter when a broker, bank or other holder of shares you own in street name is not permitted to vote on that particular matter without instructions from you, you do not give such instructions and the broker or other nominee indicates on its proxy card, or otherwise notifies us, that it does not have authority to vote its shares on that matter. You must follow instructions from your broker to authorize it to vote with respect to the proposal to adopt the merger agreement, the nonbinding compensation proposal or the proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies.

In the event that a quorum is not present at the special meeting, or if there are insufficient votes to adopt the merger agreement at the time of the special meeting, we expect that the special meeting will be adjourned or postponed to solicit additional proxies.

Vote Required

Adoption of the Merger Agreement

The adoption of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Company common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting, voting together as a single voting group. Under the merger agreement, the receipt of such required vote is a condition to the consummation of the merger.

The failure to vote your shares of Company common stock, abstentions and broker non-votes will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the proposal to adopt the merger agreement.

Approval of the Nonbinding Compensation Proposal

The approval of the nonbinding compensation proposal requires that the number of votes cast in favor of the proposal exceeds the number of votes cast opposing the proposal. Assuming a quorum is present at the special meeting, abstentions, failures to vote and broker non-votes will have no effect on the outcome of the nonbinding compensation proposal. This is an advisory vote only and will not be binding on the Company or the Board.

Approval of the Adjournment of the Special Meeting

The approval of the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to adopt the merger agreement, requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the voting shares represented at the special meeting, without further notice other than by announcement at the meeting.

Any appraisal amount determined by the court could be more than, the same as, or less than the value of the merger consideration. Any PowerSecure stockholder intending to exercise appraisal rights must, among other things, submit a written demand for appraisal to the Company prior to the vote on the adoption of the merger agreement and must not vote or otherwise submit a proxy in favor of adoption of the merger agreement. Failure to follow exactly the procedures specified under the DGCL will result in the loss of appraisal rights. Because of the complexity of the DGCL relating to appraisal rights, if you are considering exercising your appraisal right we encourage you to seek the advice of your own legal counsel. See Appraisal Rights of Stockholders on page []. A copy of Section 262 of the DGCL is attached as Annex C to this proxy statement.

THE MERGER

Overview

The Company is seeking the adoption by its stockholders of the merger agreement the Company entered into on February 24, 2016 with Southern Company and Merger Sub. Under the terms of the merger agreement, subject to the satisfaction or (if permissible under applicable law) waiver of specified conditions, Merger Sub will be merged with and into the Company, with the Company surviving the merger as a wholly-owned indirect subsidiary of Southern Company. The Board has unanimously approved the merger agreement, determined that the merger and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement are advisable and fair to and in the best interests of the Company's stockholders, directed that the merger agreement be submitted to the Company's stockholders for adoption at a duly held meeting and resolved to recommend that the Company's stockholders vote in favor of the proposal to adopt the merger agreement.

Upon the consummation of the merger, each share of Company common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time, other than shares owned by the Company as treasury stock, shares owned by a subsidiary of the Company and shares owned by stockholders who have properly demanded appraisal rights under the DGCL, will be converted into the right to receive $18.75 in cash, without interest and less any applicable withholding taxes.

Background of the Merger

The Board and senior management of PowerSecure regularly review and evaluate the Company's strategic business plan and the possibility of pursuing various strategic transactions as part of their ongoing efforts to strengthen the Company's business, grow the Company and enhance stockholder value, taking into account financial, industry, competitive and other conditions. As an essential component of our strategy, the Board and senior management continuously assess the Company's business needs and opportunities, including potential acquisitions and divestitures, as well as existing business line expansions, in order to complement and expand the Company's existing business and operations. As part of this process, from time to time, the Board and senior management have reviewed potential strategic alternatives, including strategic acquisitions and divestitures, a sale of the Company and remaining an independent, stand-alone entity.

PowerSecure has provided services to the Southern Company system at various times over the past ten years, including at present two large-scale solar projects being completed by PowerSecure for the benefit of Georgia Power's customers.

Throughout the course of this business relationship, PowerSecure and Southern Company have from time to time engaged in discussions regarding their existing business relationship and whether there are opportunities to expand this relationship in a manner that would be mutually beneficial for the two companies and their respective customers and stockholders. Thom, Strategic Support Director at Southern Company Services, the parties discussed possible mutual opportunities for business collaborations and expansion of the relationship, including but not limited to the possibility of a strategic transaction in which Southern Company would acquire PowerSecure, but no specific form of transaction or valuation was discussed. Southern Company Services management also expressed an interest in learning more about PowerSecure's business in order to help determine whether the parties should continue to explore a potential business collaboration.

On May 22, 2015, Mr. Kerr sent a draft confidentiality agreement to Mr. Bluth, which Southern Company Services and PowerSecure negotiated during the ensuing week and executed on June 1, 2015. Following the would undertake in connection with a potential proposal from Southern Company to acquire PowerSecure. The Board determined that such a process should include reviewing valuation, strategic alternatives and sensitivity analyses, potential discussions and negotiations between senior management, J.P. Morgan and Southern Company. The Board also determined that the process should include a market check consisting of J.P. Morgan contacting other potential acquirors to gauge their interest in a potential transaction with the Company, thorough evaluation of any proposals, with the assistance of J.P. Morgan and outside counsel, and the Company's senior management and advisors keeping the Board updated on a regular basis. To that end, the Board directed J.P. Morgan to prepare a list of companies that could potentially be interested in acquiring PowerSecure. During the meeting, Kegler Brown further reviewed with the directors their fiduciary duties in the context of considering a potential sale of the Company, should the Board determine to pursue such a transaction.

On January 15, 2016, Mr. Hinton met with Mr. Robinson and Ms. Thom to continue the discussions regarding Southern Company's interest in a strategic transaction with PowerSecure and certain items of due diligence.

Morgan and Kegler Brown, to discuss the market check process which the Board had previously authorized, including reviewing a list of potential strategic and financial acquirors that could potentially be interested in a transaction with PowerSecure. J.P. Morgan provided a list of potential acquirors, and the Board and management evaluated, and provided input and suggestions with respect to, the potential acquirors, with a focus on reaching out to companies most likely to be interested in acquiring the company at the highest price. The Board directed J.P. Morgan to reach out to those potential candidates to determine if they would be interested in an acquisition of PowerSecure, and if so, to provide an indication of the valuation at which they would be willing to transact. Kegler Brown again advised the Board of its fiduciary duties in connection with evaluating a potential sale of the company.

On January 20 and January 22, 2016, representatives of J.P. Morgan contacted the parties that had been discussed with the Board in order to gauge their interest in a potential acquisition of, or other strategic transaction with PowerSecure. The Company's identity was only disclosed to potential buyers that demonstrated interest in considering a potential transaction.

On January 28, 2016, a party that had been contacted by J.P. Morgan delivered to Party B marketing materials and financial information regarding PowerSecure.

On January 29, 2016, Mr. Hinton met with Messrs. Lantrip and Robinson and Ms. Thom to continue discussions regarding a potential acquisition of PowerSecure by Southern Company. Mr. Hinton reiterated to Southern Company his previous feedback regarding valuations that could potentially form the basis for negotiation of a transaction between the parties. During the meeting, the parties agreed that any post-transaction roles for Mr. Hinton or other PowerSecure executive officers should not be negotiated prior to the material terms of the transaction being agreed, including valuation.

On February 1, 2016, the Board held a telephonic meeting that was also attended by certain members of senior management, representatives of J.P. Morgan and Kegler Brown, to review the expressions of interest from potential buyers received by PowerSecure and J.P. Morgan. J.P. Morgan reported that two of the companies, Party A and Party B, had entered into confidentiality agreements with PowerSecure and were reviewing the PowerSecure marketing materials and considering whether they were interested in pursuing a transaction with the Company. Because a proposal was anticipated to be made by Southern Company within the next few weeks, the Board instructed J.P. Morgan to send bid process letters to Party A and Party B to elicit from those parties the valuation at which they would be interested in exploring a transaction.

On February 1, 2016, representatives of J.P. Morgan delivered a bid process letter to representatives of each of Party A and Party B. The bid process letter instructed the bidders to deliver an indication of interest by February 5, 2016.

On February 4, 2016, representatives of Party A requested an extension of the bid deadline to February 9, 2016, which was granted.

On February 5, 2016, Party B submitted an indication of interest with respect to a transaction valuing PowerSecure at $15.00 per share.

On February 8, 2016, the Board held a telephonic meeting that was also attended by certain members of senior management, representatives of J.P. Morgan and Kegler Brown in order for the Board to receive an update on discussions with Party A and Party B. J.P. Morgan reported that the Company had received an indication of interest from Party B and that Party A had requested an extension to bid until February 9 and had communicated that it was planning on submitting an indication of interest by that time. Also at the meeting, J.P. Morgan provided a financial review of the Party B's indication of interest. At that meeting, the Board also determined to engage Wachtell, Lipton, Rosen & Katz (Wachtell Lipton) to act as PowerSecure's special counsel in connection with its evaluation and negotiation of a potential strategic transaction.

On February 9, 2016, Messrs. Hinton and Dupont met with Messrs. Lantrip and Robinson to discuss possible structures of a potential transaction, due diligence and transaction valuation. Mr. Hinton encouraged the representatives of Southern Company to propose as high of a purchase price as possible as part of any potential transaction, and indicated that a proposed purchase price of at least approximately $20.00 per share would be necessary to position Southern Company to achieve a transaction with PowerSecure on an expedited basis, in light of the interest of other potential acquirors. Messrs. Lantrip and Robinson advised that the Southern Company board of directors was evaluating an offer to purchase PowerSecure that had been recommended by senior management of Southern Company, and that they expected to make that offer to PowerSecure the following day.

On February 10, 2016, Mr. Robinson called Mr. Hinton to orally convey that Southern Company was prepared to make a proposal to acquire PowerSecure in an all-cash transaction for $18.00 per share, and that such proposal would have the support of the Southern Company board. Mr. Hinton urged Southern Company to improve on its proposal. Mr. Robinson stated that he would carry that message back to senior management of Southern Company and explore if the proposal could be improved. Later in the day, Mr. Robinson contacted Mr. Hinton to orally convey that

Southern Company had increased its offer to $18.75 per share, and that such proposal would have the support of the Southern Company board. Mr. Robinson asked Mr. Hinton to contact him before the next PowerSecure Board meeting if PowerSecure had any questions or needed clarification on Southern Company's proposal. Mr. Hinton informed the Board and senior management, as well as representatives of J.P. Morgan, Kegler Brown and Wachtell Lipton, of the oral offer.

On February 10, 2016, Southern Company delivered a proposal letter to PowerSecure, indicating that Southern Company was prepared to acquire PowerSecure in an all-cash transaction for $18.75 per share, which represented a premium of 92.7% to the closing sale price of our common stock on February 10, 2016, which was $9.73, and a 70.1% premium to the 20-day volume weighted average trading price of our common stock as of such date. The letter also indicated that Southern Company was prepared to conduct confirmatory due diligence in an expeditious manner, and requested an exclusivity period of 45 days to conclude diligence and negotiate a mutually acceptable definitive merger agreement. Mr. Hinton provided a copy of the letter to the Board.

Later in the day on February 10, 2016, representatives of J.P. Morgan separately contacted certain members of senior management of Southern Company Services to discuss certain clarifying questions regarding the proposal letter.

Also on February 10, 2016, J.P. Morgan discussed with representatives of Party A their interest in a potential transaction and encouraged Party A to accelerate their potential timing.

On February 11, 2016, the Board held a special telephonic meeting that was also attended by certain members of senior management, representatives of J.P. Morgan, Kegler Brown and Wachtell Lipton, to discuss the proposal letter from Southern Company, including the proposed purchase price of $18.75 of per share and Southern Company's request for a 45-day exclusivity period to complete its due diligence and negotiate definitive documents. The proposed price represented a 90% premium to the closing sale price of our common stock on the prior day. Prior to the Board meeting, the independent directors held an executive session with Kegler Brown in preparation for the full Board meeting. At the Board meeting, J.P. Morgan reviewed the proposal made by Southern Company, the proposal made by Party B, as well as an update on discussions with Party A. Kegler Brown and Wachtell Lipton again advised the Board of its fiduciary duties and engaged in a discussion with the Board regarding the key terms that would be expected to be included in a merger agreement with respect to a transaction. The Board further discussed Southern Company's request for exclusivity for a period of 45 days. Following this discussion, the Board determined that Southern Company's proposal was reasonably likely to lead to a transaction that would be in the best interests of the Company's stockholders, and that J.P. Morgan should continue the market check process in order to determine if a transaction at an even higher valuation was reasonably obtainable. The Board directed senior management and PowerSecure's advisors to proceed to seek to negotiate a more limited exclusivity agreement with Southern Company, and directed J.P. Morgan to continue the market check process with Party A and Party B by engaging in further discussions with both parties in order to seek the best possible proposals from each of them. The Board also instructed Mr. Hinton to communicate to Southern Company that the length of the proposed exclusivity period was not acceptable, but that PowerSecure would consider a much shorter exclusivity period if Southern Company would endeavor to reach a definitive agreement with the Company during that shorter timeframe.

Later on February 11, 2016, Mr. Hinton contacted Mr. Robinson in order to advise him of the Board's feedback regarding the proposed exclusivity period. During this conversation, Mr. Hinton explained that, in light of other alternatives potentially available to PowerSecure, it was important to PowerSecure that the terms of any transaction with Southern Company either be negotiated or terminated within approximately ten days and that PowerSecure was prepared to commit its resources to reach that outcome and would expect Southern Company to do the same, should Southern Company wish to proceed with negotiations with the Company. That same evening, Mr. Robinson contacted Mr. Hinton to convey that Southern Company would be prepared to meet this timeline, and also requested a corresponding 10-day period of exclusivity to facilitate such negotiations, to commence on February 15, 2016.

Over the course of February 11 and February 12, 2016, representatives of J.P. Morgan contacted representatives of Party A and Party B to encourage them to make a proposal at a significant valuation, in light of other interest in acquiring PowerSecure. Both Party A and Party B, separately, advised J.P. Morgan that they would not be able to propose a transaction at or near such a valuation at that time or in the reasonably foreseeable future.

On February 13 and February 14, 2016, Wachtell Lipton negotiated the terms of an exclusivity agreement with Jones Day that provided for an exclusivity period of ten days.

On February 15, 2016, the Board held a special telephonic meeting that was also attended by certain members of senior management, representatives of J.P. Morgan and representatives of Kegler Brown and Wachtell Lipton. At that meeting, J.P. Morgan updated the Board on the market check process, reviewed the terms of the Southern Company proposal and discussed with senior management and the Board the view that it was unlikely that Party A, Party B or any other party would be willing or able to match the $18.75 per share cash offer from Southern Company. In addition, the Board discussed the potential risks and benefits of entering into an exclusivity agreement with a reduced exclusivity period of ten days. The Board considered, among other things, the risk that Southern Company might decide not to continue to pursue a strategic opportunity with PowerSecure, whether Party A, Party B or any other interested potential counterparty would be able to complete due diligence and negotiate a definitive agreement within a reasonable time period and the potential risks of a broader solicitation of interest, including the harm that could accrue to the business of the Company in the event it became public that the Company was considering a transaction.

At the same meeting, representatives of J.P. Morgan summarized the Southern Company and Party A proposals. J.P. Morgan and representatives of Kegler Brown and Wachtell Lipton also discussed a potential transaction timeline, should the Board determine to pursue a transaction. Kegler Brown and Wachtell Lipton again advised the Board of its fiduciary duties in connection with considering a transaction.

At the conclusion of the meeting, the Board determined that it would be in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders to authorize management and the advisors to proceed to execute the exclusivity agreement as presented to the Board, and subsequently to negotiate a definitive merger agreement with Southern Company with respect to Southern Company's proposal to acquire the Company for $18.75 per share. The Board directed senior management to oversee management day-to-day in the negotiations, and to consult with the Board as appropriate. At that time, no discussions had taken place between Southern Company and members of PowerSecure senior management regarding their potential roles with Southern Company following the completion of a transaction. With the purchase price having been agreed in principle, the Board advised Mr. Hinton and the other members of senior management that such discussions could commence if requested by Southern Company, but no agreements with respect to potential post-transaction roles with Southern Company should be reached without first being presented to the Board.

On the evening of February 15, 2016, after the Board meeting concluded, Mr. Hinton called Mr. Robinson to advise him that PowerSecure's Board had determined to authorize management to enter into the 10-day exclusivity agreement and proceed to negotiations of a merger agreement. That same evening, the parties executed the exclusivity agreement.

On the evening of February 15, 2016, Jones Day delivered a first draft of the merger agreement to Wachtell Lipton. The parties and their representatives exchanged drafts and negotiated the terms of the merger agreement between February 15 and February 23, 2016. During that period, representatives from PowerSecure, Wachtell Lipton and Kegler Brown and representatives from Southern Company Services and Jones Day had various telephone conferences to review open items, discuss regulatory matters, complete due diligence and negotiate the final terms of the merger agreement.

On February 19, 2016, Messrs. Hinton, Hutter and Dupont, along with Kegler Brown, had a telephone conference with members of senior management of Southern Company Services, and representatives of Jones Day, regarding certain confirmatory due diligence items.

On February 22, 2016, Mr. Hinton met with Messrs. Lantrip and other members of Southern Company Services' senior management regarding Mr. Hinton's post-transaction compensation arrangements.

On February 23, 2016, Messrs. Hinton, Hutter, Dupont, along with representatives of Wachtell Lipton and Kegler Brown, had a telephone conference with certain members of senior management of Southern Company Services, along with Jones Day, regarding Mr. Hinton's post-transaction compensation arrangements, including the potential terms of a letter agreement (the "Hinton letter agreement") to be entered into among Mr. Hinton, Southern Company and PowerSecure, which is described in more detail below under Interests of the Company's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger - Hinton Letter Agreement.

Also on February 23, 2016, Wachtell Lipton and Jones Day engaged in further negotiations regarding the merger agreement. Based on discussions between representatives of Jones Day and Wachtell Lipton throughout that day, the parties reached agreement on all substantive transaction terms to the satisfaction of senior management of PowerSecure and Southern Company Services that evening.

On February 24, 2016, Southern Company delivered a proposed final form of the merger agreement to PowerSecure, and the parties resolved the treatment of certain employee and executive compensation matters, subject in all cases to approval of the Board.

On February 24, 2016, a joint meeting of the Board and the Compensation Committee of the Board was held, which was also attended by certain members of senior management and representatives of J.P. Morgan, Wachtell Lipton and Kegler Brown. During the meeting, representatives of Wachtell Lipton and Kegler Brown reviewed with the directors their fiduciary duties in the context of considering a potential sale of the Company. Representatives of Wachtell Lipton summarized the material terms of the draft merger agreement and the Hinton letter agreement.

At the same meeting, representatives of J.P. Morgan made a presentation to the Board in which it updated its financial analysis of the $18.75 per share merger consideration offered by Southern Company and rendered its oral opinion to the Board that, as of February 24, 2016 and based upon and subject to qualifications, assumptions and limitations set forth in the written opinion it subsequently delivered, the $18.75 in cash per share of Company common stock to be paid to the holders (other than Southern Company and its affiliates) of the outstanding shares of Company common stock pursuant to the merger agreement was fair from a financial point of view to such holders. The full text of the written opinion of J.P. Morgan, dated February 24, 2016 which sets forth the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken in rendering its opinion, is attached as Annex B to this proxy statement and is incorporated by reference, and J.P. Morgan's analysis is summarized below under Opinion of J.P. Morgan.

Following discussion of the presentations by Wachtell Lipton, Kegler Brown and J.P. Morgan, and J.P. Morgan's delivery of its oral opinion, and following deliberation by the Compensation Committee of the Board, the Compensation Committee approved the treatment of the Company's equity compensation awards in the merger and the Hinton letter agreement. Following deliberation by the Board, the Board then unanimously approved the merger agreement, determined that the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement are advisable and fair to and in the best interests of the Company's stockholders, directed that the merger agreement be submitted to the Company's stockholders for adoption at a duly held meeting, resolved to recommend that the Company's stockholders vote to adopt the merger agreement and approved certain related matters.

In the afternoon of February 24, 2016, the Company and Southern Company executed the definitive merger agreement and the Company, Southern Company and Mr. Hinton executed the Hinton letter agreement. Later in the afternoon of February 24, 2016, the Company and Southern Company issued a joint press release announcing the parties' entry into the merger agreement.

Recommendation of the Board

At the special meeting of the Board on February 24, 2016, after careful consideration, including detailed discussions with the Company's management and its outside financial and legal advisors, the Board unanimously:

approved the merger agreement;

determined that the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement are advisable and fair to and in the best interests of the Company's stockholders;

directed that the merger agreement be submitted to the Company's stockholders for adoption at a duly held meeting; and resolved to recommend that the Company's stockholders vote to adopt the merger agreement.

Reasons for Recommending the Approval of the Merger Agreement

As described above in the section entitled Background of the Merger, prior to and in reaching this determination, the Board consulted with and received the advice of its financial advisor and outside counsel, discussed the proposed transaction with the Company's management and considered a variety of factors weighing positively in favor of the merger, including the following material factors:

the Board's understanding of the business, operations, financial condition, earnings, strategy and prospects of the Company, as well as the Company's historical and projected financial performance;

the fact that the $18.75 per share merger consideration represented approximately a 90% premium based on the market closing price of $9.87 on February 24, 2016, the final closing price prior to the announcement of the transaction;

the opinion of J.P. Morgan, dated February 24, 2016, that as of such date and based upon, and subject to the qualifications, assumptions and limitations set forth therein, the $18.75 in cash per share of Company common stock paid to the holders of the outstanding shares of Company common stock pursuant to the merger agreement was fair from a financial point of view to such holders, including the various analyses undertaken by J.P. Morgan in connection with its opinion as described below under The Merger Opinion of J.P. Morgan beginning on page [];

the fact that J.P. Morgan had contacted other parties believed to be logical potential acquirors of the Company during the months preceding the execution of the merger agreement, and $18.75 per share in cash was significantly higher than any other formal or informal indication of interest received by the Company from any such party;

the Board's belief that the all-cash merger consideration will allow the stockholders of the Company to realize in the near term a fair value, in cash, for their shares, while avoiding medium and long-term market and business risks and the risks associated with realizing current expectations for the Company's future financial performance;

the fact that Southern Company has significant financial resources, with available funds and sources of liquidity well in excess of that required to pay the purchase price in full;

the Board's belief that the merger consideration compensates the stockholders of the Company not only for the value of the Company's current business and results but also for the potential that these results will improve over time;

that all of the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, including, among other things, the representations, warranties, covenants and agreements of the parties, the conditions to closing of the merger, the form and structure of the merger consideration and the termination rights of the Company, are fair and reasonable;

that while the merger agreement contains a covenant prohibiting the Company from soliciting alternative proposals (as defined in the merger agreement), the merger agreement permits the Company, prior to the time that the stockholders of the Company adopt the merger agreement, to engage or participate in discussions and negotiations, if a bona fide alternative proposal is made and the Board determines in good faith, after consultation with its outside legal and financial advisors, that the bona fide alternative proposal either constitutes a superior proposal (as defined in the merger agreement) or is reasonably likely to result in a superior proposal, subject to payment of a termination fee of $12,000,000;

the assessment that the termination fee described above is approximately equal to 2.8% of the fully-diluted equity value of the Company, which the Board did not believe would preclude any other party from making a superior proposal for the Company;

that the merger agreement allows the Board, prior to the time that stockholders of the Company adopt the merger agreement, to change or withdraw its recommendation of the merger agreement in connection with a superior proposal or in response to an intervening event (as defined in the merger agreement), if the Board determines in good faith, after consultation with its outside financial and legal advisors, that the merger is not in the best interests of the Company's stockholders and the failure to effect a change of recommendation would be inconsistent with the directors' fiduciary duties or obligations under applicable law; and the terms of the merger agreement provide a significant degree of certainty that the merger will be consummated, including the fact that (i) the conditions required to be satisfied prior to the consummation of the merger, such as the receipt of stockholder approval and the expiration or termination of the waiting period under the HSR Act, are expected to be fulfilled and (ii) the merger agreement contains no financing conditions.

The Board also considered a variety of risks and potentially negative factors concerning the merger and the merger agreement, including the following:

the risk that the merger will be delayed or will not be consummated, as well as the potential loss of value to the stockholders of the Company and the potential negative impact on the financial position, operations and prospects of the Company if the merger is delayed or is not consummated for any reason;

the risk, if the merger is not consummated, that the pendency of the merger could affect adversely the relationship of the Company and its subsidiaries with their respective customers, employees, suppliers, agents and others with whom they have business dealings;

that stockholders of the Company will have no ongoing equity participation in the Company or Southern Company following the merger and that the stockholders of the Company will cease to participate in the Company's future earnings or growth, if any, and will not benefit from increases, if any, in the value of Company common stock in the future;

the risk of incurring substantial expenses related to the merger;

the significant costs involved in connection with negotiating the merger agreement and consummating the merger, the substantial management time and effort required to effectuate the merger and the related disruption to the Company's day-to-day operations during the pendency of the merger;

that the Company will be required to bear certain costs and expenses involved in connection with negotiating the merger agreement and attempting to close the merger if the merger is not consummated;

the terms of the merger agreement that place restrictions on the conduct of the Company's business prior to the consummation of the merger, which may delay or prevent the Company from undertaking business opportunities that may arise prior to consummation of the merger, and the resultant risk if the merger is not consummated;

that the receipt of cash in exchange for shares of Company common stock pursuant to the merger will be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes for many Company stockholders;

the fact that Company's directors and executive officers have interests in the merger that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of the Company's stockholders generally, including that (i) all outstanding Company options held by such persons will be deemed to be fully vested and converted into the right to receive a cash payment equal to the excess of the merger consideration over the exercise prices of such stock options, (ii) all outstanding Company restricted shares and restricted stock units held by such persons will be deemed to be fully vested and converted into the right to receive the merger consideration, except for certain unvested restricted shares held by the Sidney Hinton, the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer, which will be converted into a stock award relating to shares of Southern Company pursuant to the terms of a letter agreement between Southern Company and Mr. Hinton, (iv) the letter agreement between Southern Company and Mr. Hinton contains other terms with respect to Mr. Hinton's continued employment with the Company following the completion of the merger, (v) all Company performance share units payable in shares of Company common stock will be deemed vested at the target level of achievement and converted into the right to receive the merger consideration and (vi) the Company's directors and officers also have interests in continued indemnification and insurance coverage from the surviving corporation and Southern Company under the terms of the merger agreement;

the projected financial results of the Company through 2019 as a stand-alone company and the associated value creation, including in connection with a future acquisition transaction which might yield greater value as a result of such projected financial results actually being achieved; and other strategic alternatives that may be available to the Company, including continuing to operate as an independent company, the possibility of growing its business through acquisitions and internal growth and whether there were other potential parties that might have an interest in and be financially capable of engaging in an alternative strategic transaction with the Company, and the valuation, regulatory and financing issues that might arise in connection with pursuing an alternative strategic transaction.

Opinion of J.P. Morgan

Pursuant to an engagement letter dated December 8, 2015, the Company retained J.P. Morgan as its financial advisor in connection with the proposed merger.

At the meeting of the Board on February 24, 2016, J.P. Morgan rendered its oral opinion to the Board that, as of such date and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth in its opinion, the consideration to be paid to the Company's common stockholders in the proposed merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to such stockholders. J.P. Morgan has confirmed its February 24, 2016 oral opinion by delivering its written opinion to the Board, dated February 24, 2016, that, as of such date, the consideration to be paid to the Company's common stockholders in the proposed merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to such stockholders. The full text of the written opinion of J.P. Morgan dated February 24, 2016 which sets forth the assumptions made, matters considered and limits on the review undertaken, is attached as Annex B to this proxy statement and is incorporated herein by reference. The summary of the opinion of J.P. Morgan set forth in this proxy statement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of such opinion. The Company's stockholders are urged to read the opinion in its entirety. J.P. Morgan's written opinion was addressed to the Board (in its capacity as such) in connection with and for the purposes of its evaluation of the proposed merger, was directed only to the consideration to be paid in the merger and did not address any other aspect of the merger. J.P. Morgan expressed no opinion as to the fairness of the consideration to the holders of any class of securities, creditors or other constituencies of the Company or as to the underlying decision by the Company to engage in the proposed merger. The issuance of J.P. Morgan's opinion was approved by a fairness committee of J.P. Morgan. The summary of the opinion of J.P. Morgan set forth in this proxy statement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of such opinion. The opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder of the Company as to how such stockholder should vote with respect to the proposed merger or any other matter.

In arriving at its opinions, J.P. Morgan, among other things:

reviewed a draft dated February 23, 2016 of the merger agreement;

reviewed certain publicly available business and financial information concerning the Company and the industries in which it operates;

compared the proposed financial terms of the merger with the publicly available financial terms of certain transactions involving companies J.P. Morgan deemed relevant and the consideration received for such companies; compared the financial and operating performance of the Company with publicly available information concerning certain other companies J.P. Morgan deemed relevant and reviewed the current and historical market prices of the Company common stock and certain publicly traded securities of such other companies;

reviewed certain internal financial analyses and forecasts prepared by or at the direction of the management of the Company relating to its business; and performed such other financial studies and analyses and considered such other information as J.P. Morgan deemed appropriate for the purposes of its opinion.

In addition, J.P. Morgan held discussions with certain members of the management of the Company with respect to certain aspects of the merger, and the past and current business operations of the Company, the financial condition and future prospects and operations of the Company, and certain other matters J.P. Morgan believed necessary or appropriate to its inquiry.

In giving its opinion, J.P. Morgan relied upon and assumed the accuracy and completeness of all information that was publicly available or was furnished to or discussed with J.P. Morgan by the Company or otherwise reviewed by or for J.P. Morgan, and J.P. Morgan did not independently verify (and did not assume responsibility or liability for independently verifying) any such information or its accuracy or completeness. J.P. Morgan did not conduct and was not provided with any valuation or appraisal of any assets or liabilities, nor did J.P. Morgan evaluate the solvency of the Company under any applicable laws relating to bankruptcy, insolvency or similar matters. In relying on financial analyses and forecasts provided to J.P. Morgan or derived therefrom, J.P. Morgan assumed that they were reasonably prepared based on assumptions reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments by management as to the expected future results of operations and financial condition of the Company to which such analyses or forecasts relate. J.P. Morgan expressed no view as to such analyses or forecasts or the assumptions on which they were based. J.P. Morgan also assumed that the merger will have the tax consequences described in this proxy statement, and in discussions with, and materials furnished to J.P. Morgan by, representatives of the Company, that the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement will be consummated as described in the merger agreement and this proxy statement, and that the definitive merger agreement would not differ in any material respect from the draft thereof provided to J.P. Morgan. J.P. Morgan also assumed that the representations and warranties made by the Company and in the merger agreement and the related agreements were and will be true and correct in all respects material to its analysis. J.P. Morgan is not a legal, regulatory or tax expert and relied on the assessments made by advisors to the Company with respect to such issues. J.P. Morgan further assumed that all material governmental, regulatory or other consents and approvals necessary for the consummation of the merger will be obtained without any adverse effect on the Company or on the contemplated benefits of the merger.

J.P. Morgan's opinion was necessarily based on economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to J.P. Morgan as of, the date of such opinion. J.P. Morgan's opinion noted that subsequent developments may affect J.P. Morgan's opinion and that J.P. Morgan does not have any obligation to update, revise, or reaffirm such opinion. J.P. Morgan's opinion is limited to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be received by the Company's common stockholders in the proposed merger, and J.P. Morgan has expressed no opinion as to the fairness of any consideration to the holders of any other class of securities, creditors or other constituencies of the Company or the underlying decision by the Company to engage in the merger. Furthermore, J.P. Morgan expressed no opinion with respect to the amount or nature of any compensation to any officers, directors, or employees of any party to the proposed merger, or any class of such persons relative to the consideration in the proposed merger or with respect to the fairness of any such compensation. J.P. Morgan expressed no opinion as to the price at which the Company's common stock will trade at any future time.

The terms of the merger agreement, including the consideration to be received by the Company's common stockholders, were determined through arm's length negotiations between the Company and Southern Company, and the decision to enter into the merger agreement was solely that of the Board. J.P. Morgan's opinion and financial analyses were only one of the many factors considered by the Board in its evaluation of the proposed merger and should not be viewed as determinative of the views of the Board or management with respect to the proposed merger or the consideration.

In accordance with customary investment banking practice, J.P. Morgan employed generally accepted valuation methodology in rendering its opinion to the Board on February 24, 2016 and contained in the presentation delivered to the Board on such date in connection with the rendering of such opinion and does not purport to be a complete description of the analyses or data presented by J.P. Morgan. Some of the summaries of the financial analyses include information presented in tabular format. The tables are not intended to stand alone, and in order to more fully understand the financial analyses used by J.P. Morgan, the tables must be read together with the full text of each summary. Considering the data set forth below without considering the full narrative description of the financial analyses, including the methodologies and assumptions underlying the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of J.P. Morgan's analyses.

Public Trading Multiples

Using publicly available information, J.P. Morgan compared selected financial data of the Company with similar data for selected publicly traded companies engaged in businesses which J.P. Morgan judged to be similar in certain respects to the Company. The companies selected by J.P. Morgan were:

Cummins Inc.

Regal Beloit Corporation

Generac Holdings Inc.

EnerSys

Itron, Inc.

ESCO Technologies Inc.

Ameresco, Inc.

Power Solutions International, Inc.

None of the selected companies reviewed is identical to the Company and certain of these companies may have characteristics that are materially different from those of Company. However, the companies selected were chosen because they are publicly traded companies with operations and businesses that, for purposes of J.P. Morgan's analysis, may be considered similar to those of the Company. The analyses necessarily involve complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operational characteristics of the companies involved and other factors that could affect their comparability to the Company.

The estimated financial data for the selected companies were based on publicly available information and filings and publicly available research analysts' estimates, and the multiples summarized below were based on closing stock prices as of February 19, 2016.

Using publicly available information, J.P. Morgan calculated for each selected company the ratio of the company's Firm Value (calculated as the equity value of the company's common stock on a fully diluted basis, plus any debt and minority interest, and less cash and cash equivalents) to the company's estimated EBITDA (defined as earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization) for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2016, and the price to estimated earnings for the company's fiscal year ending December 31, 2016 (the Price per Share / 2016E EPS). The following table presents the results of this analysis:

Metric	Mean	Median	Low	High
Firm Value / 2016E EBITDA	8.2x	8.2x	5.3x	11.2x
Price per Share / 2016E EPS	14.0x	13.4x	10.7x	18.8x

Table of Contents

Based on the results of this analysis and taking into account differences in the Company's business and such other factors as J.P. Morgan deemed appropriate, J.P. Morgan selected multiple reference ranges for the Company of 5.0x-9.0x for Firm Value / 2016E EBITDA and a multiple reference range of 12.0x-17.0x for Price per Share / 2016E EPS. These multiples were then applied to the Company's 2016 estimated earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (EBITDA) and 2016 estimated earnings per share (EPS), each of which were provided by the Company, yielding implied values for the Company common stock of approximately $9.30 to $16.65 and $8.45 to $12.00 per share, respectively, rounded to the nearest $0.05, as compared to the common stock per share consideration of $18.75.

Selected Transaction Analysis

Using publicly available information, J.P. Morgan examined selected transactions involving acquired businesses that, for purposes of J.P. Morgan's analysis, were similar to the Company. Specifically, J.P. Morgan reviewed the following transactions:

Date	Target	Acquiror
5-Oct-15	Willbros Professional Services	TRC Companies, Inc.
18-May-15	GE Roots Blowers & Compressors	Colfax Corporation
9-Mar-15	Distech Controls Inc.	Acuity Brands, Inc.
15-Dec-14	Emerson Power Transmission Solutions	Regal Beloit Corporation
6-Nov-14	AERCO International, Inc.	Watts Water Technologies, Inc.
18-Aug-14	Cameron Centrifugal Compression	Ingersoll-Rand plc
6-May-14	Rolls Royce Energy Gas Turbine & Compressor	Siemens AG
16-Apr-14	Air Distribution Technologies	Johnson Controls, Inc.
16-Apr-14	GEA Heat Exchangers	Triton Partners
1-Apr-14	Alstom Auxiliary Components	Triton Partners
3-Mar-14	ADT Korea	The Carlyle Group

For each of the transactions for which information was publicly available, J.P. Morgan compared the Firm Value implied by the purchase price in each transaction as a multiple of last twelve months (LTM) EBITDA (or if LTM was unavailable, most recent calendar year) for the target company based on the most recently available public information at the time of announcement of the relevant transaction. The following table presents the results of this analysis:

	FV / LTM EBITDA
High	13.5x
Low	7.2x
Mean	10.2x
Median	10.5x

Based on the foregoing and taking into account differences in the Company's business and such other factors as J.P. Morgan deemed appropriate, J.P. Morgan applied a range of multiples of 10.0x to 13.5x to the Company's actual 2015 EBITDA as provided by the Company, and arrived at an estimated range of implied equity values for the Company's common stock of between $11.25 and $15.15 per share of the Company's common stock, rounded to the nearest $0.05, as compared to the common stock per share consideration of $18.75.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis

J.P. Morgan conducted a discounted cash flow analysis for the purpose of determining an implied fully diluted equity value per share of the Company's common stock. A discounted cash flow analysis is a method of evaluating an asset using estimates of the future unlevered free cash flows generated by the asset and taking into consideration the time value of money with respect to those future cash flows by calculating their present value. The unlevered free cash flows refers to a calculation of the future cash flows generated by an asset without including in such calculation any debt servicing costs. Specifically, unlevered free cash flow represents unlevered net operating profit after tax, adjusted for depreciation, capital expenditures, changes in net working capital, and certain other one-time cash expenses as applicable. Present value refers to the current value of one or more future cash payments from the asset, which is referred to as that asset's cash flows, and is obtained by discounting those cash flows back to the present using a discount rate that takes into account macro-economic assumptions and estimates of risk, the opportunity cost of capital, capitalized returns and other appropriate factors. Terminal value refers to the present value of all future cash flows generated by the asset for periods beyond the projections period.

J.P. Morgan calculated the unlevered free cash flows that the Company is expected to generate during fiscal years 2016 through 2019 based upon financial projections prepared by management of the Company, and during fiscal years 2020 through 2030, based upon extrapolations of those financial projections, which extrapolations were reviewed and approved by management of the Company. See The Merger Prospective Financial Information beginning on page [] for additional information. J.P. Morgan also calculated a range of terminal values of the Company at the end of the 15-year period ending 2030 by applying a perpetual growth rate ranging from 1.0% to 2.0% to the unlevered free cash flow of the Company during the terminal period of the projections. The unlevered free cash flows and the range of terminal values were then discounted to present values as of December 31, 2015 using a range of discount rates from 9.25% to 11.25%. This discount rate range was based upon J.P. Morgan's analysis of the capital structures and costs of equity and debt of the Company and the selected publicly traded companies identified above. The present value of the unlevered free cash flows was then adjusted for net debt as of December 31, 2015 and the net present value of the Company's net operating loss carryforwards (which was $.30 to $.31 per share) to derive a range of equity values of between $16.80 and $23.50 per share of the Company's common stock, rounded to the nearest $0.05, as compared to the per share consideration of $18.75.

In addition, at the request of the Board and management of the Company and for reference purposes only, J.P. Morgan also performed a discounted cash flow analysis of the Company using the following four sensitivity cases:

Periodic, cyclical downturn in growth and margins: one year (15.0%) revenue decline and 5.0% estimated EBITDA margin in each of 2020, 2024 and 2028 (Sensitivity Case #1);

Estimated EBITDA margins at 6.0% from 2018 through the extrapolation period (Sensitivity Case #2);

Reduced estimated revenue growth rates from 2018 through the extrapolation period and estimated EBITDA margins at 8.0% from 2018 through the extrapolation period (Sensitivity Case #3); and Assumes equity additional investments in company owned DG assets from 2019 to 2025 (Sensitivity Case #4).

Using the same perpetuity growth rates and discount rates summarized above, this analysis indicated the following implied per share equity value ranges for shares of the Company's common stock, rounded to the nearest $0.05, compared to the per share consideration of $18.75:

	Implied Per Share Equity Value Range
Sensitivity Case #1	$10.25	$13.50
Sensitivity Case #2	$4.85	$6.80
Sensitivity Case #3	$7.10	$9.60
Sensitivity Case #4	$17.35	$27.00

Other Analyses for Reference Purposes Only

J.P. Morgan reviewed the trading range of the Company's common stock for the 52-week period ended February 19, 2016, which was $9.60 per share of common stock to $16.43 per share of common stock, and compared that to (a) the closing price of $10.30 per share of common stock on February 19, 2016, and (b) the common stock per share consideration of $18.75.

Additionally, J.P. Morgan reviewed the volume weighted average price of the Company's common stock over the 1-month, 3-month and 6-month periods prior to February 19, 2016, and noted that such prices were $10.54, $12.70 and $12.54, respectively.

Furthermore, J.P. Morgan reviewed the price targets for the Company's common stock by certain equity research analysts since December 1, 2015, and noted that such price targets ranged from $17.00 to $21.00 per share of common stock, with a median price target of $17.00 per share.

However, J.P. Morgan noted that historical stock trading, volume weighted average price, and analyst price targets analyses are not valuation methodologies but were presented merely for reference purposes.

The foregoing summary of certain material financial analyses does not purport to be a complete description of the analyses or data presented by J.P. Morgan. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process and is not necessarily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. J.P. Morgan believes that the foregoing summary and its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of the foregoing summary and these analyses, without considering all of its analyses as a whole, could create an incomplete view of the processes underlying the analyses and its opinion. As a result, the ranges of valuations resulting from any particular analysis or combination of analyses described above were merely utilized to create points of reference for analytical purposes and should not be taken to be the view of J.P. Morgan with respect to the actual value of the Company. The order of analyses described does not represent the relative importance or weight given to those analyses by J.P. Morgan. In arriving at its opinion, J.P. Morgan did not attribute any particular weight to any analyses or factors considered by it and did not form an opinion as to whether any individual analysis or factor (positive or negative), considered in isolation, supported or failed to support its opinion. Rather, J.P. Morgan considered the totality of the factors and analyses performed in determining its opinion.

Analyses based upon forecasts of future results are inherently uncertain, as they are subject to numerous factors or events beyond the control of the parties and their advisors. Accordingly, forecasts and analyses used or made by J.P. Morgan are not necessarily indicative of actual future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by those analyses. Moreover, J.P. Morgan's analyses are not and do not purport to be appraisals or otherwise reflective of the prices at which businesses actually could be acquired or sold. None of the selected companies reviewed as described in the above summary is identical to the Company, and none of the selected transactions reviewed was identical to the merger. However, the companies selected were chosen because they are publicly traded companies with operations and businesses that, for purposes of J.P. Morgan's analysis, may be considered similar to those of the Company. The transactions selected were similarly chosen because their participants, size and other factors, for purposes of J.P. Morgan's analysis, may be considered similar to the merger. The analyses necessarily involve complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operational characteristics of the companies involved and other factors that could affect the companies compared to the Company and the transactions compared to the merger.

As a part of its investment banking business, J.P. Morgan and its affiliates are continually engaged in the valuation of businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, investments for passive and control purposes, negotiated underwritings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements, and valuations for corporate and other purposes. J.P. Morgan was selected to advise the Company with respect to the merger on the basis of, among other things, such experience and its qualifications and reputation in connection with such matters and its familiarity with the Company and the industries in which it operates.

Table of Contents

For services rendered in connection with the proposed merger and the delivery of its opinion, the Company has agreed to pay J.P. Morgan a transaction fee of 1.42% of the total consideration to be paid to the holders of Company common stock, $2,000,000 of which was payable upon the earlier of the public announcement of the proposed merger or delivery by J.P. Morgan of its opinion, and the remainder of which is payable contingent upon closing of the proposed merger. In addition, the Company has agreed to reimburse J.P. Morgan for its expenses incurred in connection with its services, including the fees and disbursements of counsel, and will indemnify J.P. Morgan against certain liabilities arising out of J.P. Morgan's engagement. During the two years preceding the date of J.P. Morgan's opinion, neither J.P. Morgan nor any its affiliates have had commercial or investment banking relationships with the Company. During the two years preceding the date of its opinion, J.P. Morgan and its affiliates have had commercial or investing banking relationships with Southern Company, for which J.P. Morgan and such affiliates have received customary compensation. Such services during such period have included acting as joint lead arranger and joint bookrunner on Southern Company's credit facility in September 2015, joint bookrunner on its bond offering in June 2015 and joint bookrunner on its bond offering in August 2014. In addition, J.P. Morgan and its affiliates have provided investor services and asset management services to Southern Company during such two year period, and currently hold, on a proprietary basis, less than 1% of the outstanding common stock of Southern Company. In the ordinary course of their businesses, J.P. Morgan and its affiliates may actively trade the debt and equity securities of the Company or Southern Company for their own accounts or for the accounts of customers and, accordingly, they may at any time hold long or short positions in such securities.

Certain Effects of the Merger

If the proposal to adopt the merger agreement receives the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of outstanding shares of Company common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting, voting together as a single voting group, and the other conditions to the closing of the merger are either satisfied or (if permissible under applicable law) waived, Merger Sub will be merged with and into the Company upon the terms set forth in the merger agreement. As the surviving corporation in the merger, the Company will continue to exist following the merger as a wholly-owned indirect subsidiary of Southern Company.

Following the merger, all of the Company's equity interests will be beneficially owned by a direct wholly-owned indirect subsidiary of Southern Company and none of the Company's current stockholders will, by virtue of the merger, have any ownership interest in, or be a stockholder of, the Company, the surviving corporation or Southern Company (except that certain restricted shares of Company common stock held by Mr. Hinton will be cancelled in exchange for a restricted stock unit award of Southern Company and therefore Mr. Hinton may receive shares of Southern Company common stock in the future, as described above under The Merger Agreement Treatment of Equity Awards). As a result, the Company's current stockholders will no longer benefit from any increase in the value, nor will they bear the risk of any decrease in the value, of Company common stock. Following the merger, Southern Company will benefit from any increase in the Company's value and also will bear the risk of any decrease in the Company's value.

At the effective time, each share of Company common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time, other than shares owned by the Company as treasury stock, shares owned by a subsidiary of the Company and shares owned by stockholders who have properly demanded appraisal rights under the DGCL, will be converted into the right to receive the merger consideration, without interest and less any applicable withholding taxes, and all shares of Company common stock so converted will, at the effective time, be canceled. Please see the section of this proxy statement entitled The Merger Agreement Merger Consideration and Conversion of Company Common Stock beginning on page [].

For information regarding the effects of the merger on the Company's outstanding equity awards, please see the section below entitled Interests of the Company's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger beginning on page [] and the section of this proxy statement entitled The Merger Agreement Treatment of Equity Awards beginning on page [].

The Company common stock is currently registered under the Exchange Act and trades on the NYSE under the symbol POWR . Following the consummation of the merger, shares of Company common stock will no longer be traded on the NYSE or any other public market. In addition, the registration of shares of Company common stock under the Exchange Act will be terminated and the Company will no longer be required to file periodic and other reports with the SEC with respect to the Company common stock. Termination of registration of the Company common stock under the Exchange Act will reduce the information required to be furnished by the Company to the Company's stockholders and the SEC, and would make provisions of the Exchange Act, such as the requirement to file annual and quarterly reports pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Exchange Act, the short-swing trading provisions of Section 16(b) of the Exchange Act and the requirement to furnish a proxy statement in connection with stockholders' meetings pursuant to Section 14(a) of the Exchange Act, no longer applicable to the Company.

Effects on the Company if Merger is Not Completed

In the event that the proposal to adopt the merger agreement does not receive the required approval from the Company's stockholders, or if the merger is not completed for any other reason, the Company's stockholders will not receive any payment for their shares of Company common stock in connection with the merger. Instead, the Company will remain an independent public company, the Company common stock will continue to be listed and traded on the NYSE, the Company common stock will continue to be registered under the Exchange Act and the Company's stockholders will continue to own their shares of the Company common stock and will continue to be subject to the same general risks and opportunities as they currently are with respect to ownership of Company common stock.

If the merger is not completed, there is no assurance as to the effect of these risks and opportunities on the future value of your shares of Company common stock, including the risk that the market price of Company common stock may decline if the current market price of the Company's stock reflects a market assumption that the merger will be completed. If the merger is not completed, there is no assurance that any other transaction acceptable to the Company will be offered or that the business, operations, financial condition, earnings or prospects of the Company will not be adversely impacted. Pursuant to the merger agreement, under certain circumstances the Company is permitted to terminate the merger agreement in order to enter into an alternative transaction. Please see the section of this proxy statement entitled The Merger Agreement Termination of the Merger Agreement beginning on page [].

Under certain circumstances, if the merger agreement is terminated, the Company may be obligated to pay to Southern Company a termination fee or reimburse Southern Company for its expenses. Please see the section of this proxy statement entitled The Merger Agreement Termination Fee and Reimbursement of Expenses beginning on page [].

Financing of the Merger

There is no financing condition to the merger. Southern Company has represented in the merger agreement that it will have, at the effective time, sufficient cash and committed credit facilities to pay the merger consideration and make all other necessary payments by it in connection with the merger.

Interests of the Company's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger

In considering the recommendations of the Board with respect to the merger, PowerSecure stockholders should be aware that the executive officers and directors of PowerSecure have certain interests, including financial interests, in the merger that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of PowerSecure stockholders generally. The Board was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in approving the merger agreement, and in making its recommendations that PowerSecure stockholders adopt the merger agreement. For the purposes of the plans and agreements described below, to the extent applicable, the completion of the merger will constitute a change of control, change in control or term of similar meaning.

Treatment of Equity Awards

Other than as described in the section of this proxy statement below entitled Hinton Letter Agreement, the equity compensation held by the Company's directors and executive officers will be treated in the merger in the same manner as similar awards held by other Company employees. For information regarding the treatment of the Company's equity awards, including the equity awards held by the Company's directors and executive officers, please see the section of this proxy statement entitled The Merger Agreement Treatment of Equity Awards beginning on page [].

Value of Payments in respect of Unvested Equity Awards. For an estimate of the value of the payments and benefits described above that would become payable to each of the PowerSecure named executive officers in respect of their unvested equity awards, see Quantification of Payments and Benefits below. Assuming that (i) the effective time of the merger is March 11, 2016, which is the assumed date of the effective time solely for purposes of this merger-related compensation disclosure and (ii) the relevant price per share of Powersecure common stock is equal to the merger consideration, the estimated aggregate amount that would become payable in respect of unvested RSUs and restricted shares held by Powersecure's directors is $116,729 ($52,960 in respect of unvested RSUs and $63,769 in respect of unvested restricted shares), and the estimated aggregate amount that would become payable to Ronnie Brannen, PowerSecure's other executive officer, in respect of his unvested restricted shares is $187,500.

Employment Agreements

PowerSecure is party to employment agreements with each executive officer that provide for the severance benefits described below upon a termination of employment by PowerSecure without cause or a resignation by the executive officer for good reason (in each case, as defined in the applicable employment agreement) following the effective time. While PowerSecure has entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Zuiderveen, he is not eligible for severance in connection with any termination of employment. None of PowerSecure's executive officers are entitled to a gross-up or other reimbursement payment for any tax liability that he might owe as a result of the application of Section 280G or 4999 of the Code. The severance benefits of Messrs. Brannen and Dupont are conditioned upon the execution of a release of claims in favor of PowerSecure and its affiliates, and Messrs. Hinton and Hutter have agreed to execute a release of claims in favor of PowerSecure and its affiliates following any termination of employment other than by the Company for cause.

Sidney Hinton. In accordance with the terms of Mr. Hinton's existing employment agreement, as amended by the Hinton letter agreement (as described below), in the event of a termination without cause or a resignation with good reason during the three years following the merger, Mr. Hinton would be eligible to receive a cash severance payment equal to $4,200,000 and continuation of all life, disability, medical and other insurance plans in which he and his dependents participated in prior to such termination for three years. In addition, Southern Company has agreed to maintain the annuity arrangement previously granted to Mr. Hinton under his existing employment agreement with the Company. For further details regarding the terms of the Hinton letter agreement, please see the section of this proxy statement entitled Hinton Letter Agreement.

Christopher T. Hutter. In the event of a termination without cause or resignation with good reason during the three years following a change in control, Mr. Hutter would be eligible to receive:

cash severance equal to two times his highest base salary in effect during his employment term, a cash separation bonus equal to two times the greater of (a) the average annual bonus paid to him during the three fiscal years prior to such termination and (b) the average of the annual bonus paid to him during the two fiscal years prior to such termination and the bonus that would have been awarded to him in respect of the fiscal year of termination had his employment not been terminated, subject to a maximum of two times base salary, and

continuation of all life, disability, medical and other insurance plans in which he and his dependents participated in prior to such termination for two years.

Eric Dupont. In the event of a termination without cause or a resignation with good reason during the two years following a change in control, Mr. Dupont would be eligible to receive:

cash severance equal to the sum of (a) one times his base salary in effect upon his termination, plus (b) the average annual bonus paid to him for the three fiscal years prior to such termination, and

continuation of all life, disability, medical and other insurance plans in which he and his dependents participated in prior to such termination for one year.

Ronnie Brannen. In the event of a termination without cause, Mr. Brannen would be eligible to receive a cash severance payment equal to $500,000. Mr. Brannen is also subject to a perpetual confidentiality covenant and a non-competition covenant for three years following any termination of employment.

Gary J. Zuiderveen. The employment agreement between the Company and Mr. Zuiderveen does not provide for severance upon any termination of employment.

Value of Payments. For an estimate of the value of the payments and benefits described above that would become payable under the employment agreements to each of the named executive officers of PowerSecure, please see the section of this proxy statement entitled Quantification of Payments and Benefits below. For an estimate of the payments and benefits that would become payable to Mr. Brannen, PowerSecure's other executive officer, please see the section of this proxy statement entitled Ronnie Brannen above.

Hinton Letter Agreement

On February 24, 2016, in connection with the execution of the merger agreement, the Company, Southern Company and Mr. Hinton entered into a letter agreement (the "Hinton letter agreement") that addresses Mr. Hinton's compensation arrangements following the merger. Under the Hinton letter agreement, Mr. Hinton has waived his right under his existing employment agreement with the Company to terminate his employment with the Company for good reason as a result of the fact that he will no longer serve as chief executive officer of a public company following the consummation of the merger. The Hinton letter agreement further provides that the term of the existing employment agreement will expire on December 31, 2016, but that Mr. Hinton's existing change in control severance rights under the existing employment agreement will continue for three years following the effective time. In addition, under the Hinton letter agreement, Southern Company has agreed to maintain the annuity arrangement previously granted to Mr. Hinton under his existing employment agreement with the Company.

Under the Hinton letter agreement, Mr. Hinton also waived his right to accelerated vesting of 72,054 shares of restricted Common Stock and agreed that those shares would convert at the effective time into a Southern Company performance-based stock award (the "rollover RSU award") with a three-year performance vesting term, a guaranteed value upon vesting based on the value of the merger consideration, and the potential to earn a maximum number of shares equal to 150% of the target number of shares subject to the rollover RSU Award. Vesting of the rollover RSU award would accelerate upon the termination of Mr. Hinton's employment, other than his voluntary termination of employment without good reason. Southern Company further agreed to grant to Mr. Hinton a Southern Company performance-based stock award (the milestone award) having a grant date value of $3 million. The milestone award will have a five-year performance period and a payout range of 0% to 200% of the target number of shares subject to the milestone award. If Mr. Hinton resigns for good reason or is terminated without cause or due to death or disability during the fourth or fifth year of the milestone award performance period, he will receive the target number of shares subject to the milestone award.

Indemnification and Insurance

Pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, PowerSecure's directors and executive officers will be entitled to certain ongoing indemnification and coverage under directors' and officers' liability insurance policies following the merger. Such indemnification and insurance coverage is further described in the section entitled The Merger Agreement Director and Officer Indemnification and Insurance beginning on page [].

Quantification of Payments and Benefits

The information set forth in the table below is intended to comply with Item 402(t) of Regulation S-K, which requires disclosure of information about certain compensation for each of PowerSecure's named executive officers that is based on or otherwise relates to the merger. For additional details regarding the terms of the payments described below, please see the section of this proxy statement entitled Interests of the Company's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger above. The merger will constitute a change in control under all applicable compensation plans and agreements.

The following table sets forth the amount of payments and benefits that may be paid or become payable to each of the named executive officers in connection with the merger pursuant to all applicable compensation plans or agreements, assuming:

The effective time is March 11, 2016, which is the assumed date of the effective time solely for purposes of this merger-related compensation disclosure;

The relevant price per share of PowerSecure common stock is equal to the merger consideration;

Each executive officer is terminated by Southern Company without cause or resigns with good reason, in each case immediately following the effective time;

Quantification of outstanding equity awards is calculated based on the outstanding equity awards held by each named executive officer as of March 11, 2016, the latest practicable date before the filing of this joint proxy statement;

All unvested stock options, restricted shares, RSUs and PSUs held by each named executive officer as of March 11, 2016 remain unvested and unexercised as of immediately prior to the effective time; and

The amounts set forth in the tables below regarding named executive officer compensation are based on compensation levels as of March 11, 2016.

Name	Cash ($)⁽¹⁾	Equity ($)⁽²⁾	Perquisites/ Benefits ($)⁽³⁾	Total ($)
Sidney Hinton	4,200,000	6,755,026	95,667	11,050,693
Christopher T. Hutter	1,005,596	306,330	38,328	1,350,254
Eric Dupont	362,080	481,035	16,659	859,774
Gary J. Zuiderveen (4)

(1) Cash. Cash severance payable to each of the executive officers consists of the following components, all of which are double-trigger benefits contingent upon such named executive officer's termination without cause or resignation for good reason following the consummation of the merger:

(a) Pursuant to the terms of the Hinton letter agreement, for Mr. Hinton, cash severance equal to $4,200,000.

Table of Contents

- (b) For Mr. Dupont, cash severance equal to the sum of (i) one times his base salary in effect upon his termination, plus (ii) the average annual bonus paid to him for the three fiscal years prior to such termination (or such lesser period, as applicable).
- (c) For Mr. Hutter, cash severance equal to two times the sum of (i) his highest base salary in effect during his employment term, plus (ii) the greater of (x) the average annual bonus paid to him during the three fiscal years prior to termination and (y) the average of the annual bonus paid to him during the two fiscal years prior to termination and the bonus that would have been awarded to him in respect of the fiscal year of termination had his employment not been terminated, subject to a maximum of two times base salary.

Mr. Dupont's cash severance is contingent upon his execution and non-revocation of a release of claims in favor of PowerSecure and its affiliates and Messrs. Hinton and Hutter have agreed to execute a release of claims in favor of PowerSecure and its affiliates following any termination of employment other than by the Company for cause. Mr. Hinton is subject to a perpetual confidentiality covenant and two-year post-termination non-competition and employee and customer non-solicitation covenants following a termination of his employment during the employment term without cause, for good reason or a upon a non-renewal of his employment agreement by the Company. Mr. Hutter is subject to a perpetual confidentiality covenant and two-year post-termination non-competition and employee and customer non-solicitation covenants in the event his employment is terminated without cause or he resigns with good reason; provided that the two-year post-termination restricted period is reduced to one-year following any other termination of employment. Mr. Dupont is subject to perpetual confidentiality covenant and non-competition and employee and customer non-solicitation covenants for one year following any termination of employment.

For further details regarding the cash severance, please see the sections of this proxy statement entitled Employment Agreements and Hinton Letter Agreement.

- (2) Equity. As described in the section of this proxy statement entitled The Merger Agreement Treatment of Equity Awards, all outstanding stock options, restricted shares, RSUs and PSUs held by PowerSecure's named executive officers (other than Mr. Hinton's rollover RSU award) will vest on a single-trigger basis at the effective time. Mr. Hinton's rollover RSU award will vest on a double-trigger basis upon any termination of employment other than a resignation without good reason following the merger.

The following table is a summary of the value of the equity awards held by the named executive officers that will vest on a single-trigger basis at the effective time, based on the assumptions set forth above. For stock options, the values set forth in the following table represent the number of shares of Company common stock covered by such option, less the applicable exercise price.

Named Executive Officer	Number of Unvested Stock		Number of Unvested Restricted Shares		Number of PSUs		Total ($)
	Options	Value ($)	Value ($)	Value ($)	Value ($)
Sidney Hinton			242,744	4,551,450	45,470	852,563	5,404,013
Christopher T. Hutter	2,000	25,080	15,000	281,250			306,330
Eric Dupont	9,000	40,410	23,500	440,625			481,035
Gary J. Zuiderveen

Mr. Hinton's rollover RSU award will vest on a double-trigger basis in the event that, following the effective time, his employment terminates for any reason other than his resignation without good reason. Based on the assumptions set forth above, the value of the double-trigger vesting of Mr. Hinton's rollover RSU award would be $1,351,013.

For further details regarding the value of accelerated equity awards, please see the sections of this proxy statement entitled Treatment of Equity Awards and Hinton Letter Agreement.

- (3) Perquisites/Benefits. Each named executive officer is eligible to receive continuation of all life, disability, medical and other insurance plans in which he and his dependents participated in prior to such termination for a period of years (three, two and one for Messrs. Hinton, Hutter and Dupont, respectively). The continuation of welfare benefits is a double-trigger benefit contingent upon each named executive officer's termination without cause or resignation for good reason following the effective time. For further details regarding the prerequisites and benefits, please see the section of this proxy statement entitled Employment Agreements.

- (4) Gary J. Zuiderveen. Mr. Zuiderveen is not entitled to any severance benefits under the terms of his employment agreement, and, as of March 11, 2016, he did not hold any outstanding Company equity awards.

Advisory Vote Regarding Merger-Related Executive Compensation

PowerSecure is required pursuant to Section 14A of the Exchange Act to include in this proxy statement a non-binding, advisory vote on the compensation payable to each of its named executive officers, as determined in accordance with Item 402(t) of Regulation S-K, in connection with the merger pursuant to arrangements entered into with PowerSecure, and PowerSecure is therefore asking its stockholders to approve the following resolution:

RESOLVED, that the stockholders of PowerSecure hereby approve, on an advisory, non-binding basis, the compensation that will or may become payable by PowerSecure to the named executive officers of PowerSecure as disclosed pursuant to Item 402(t) of Regulation S-K in the table found in the section of this proxy statement entitled Interests of the Company's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger - Quantification of Payments and Benefits and the accompanying footnotes.

The description of the payments contained in the section of this proxy statement entitled Interests of the Company's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger including the section therein entitled Quantification of Payments and Benefits, are intended to comply with Item 402(t) of Regulation S-K, which requires disclosure of information about compensation for each of PowerSecure's named executive officers that is based on or otherwise relates to the merger and will or may become payable either by PowerSecure or Southern Company. PowerSecure is asking its stockholders to approve on an advisory, non-binding basis, the compensation that will or may become payable by PowerSecure to each of its named executive officers as set forth in the section of this proxy statement entitled Interests of the Company's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger including the section therein entitled Quantification of Payments and Benefits.

The Board unanimously recommends a vote FOR the approval of the nonbinding compensation proposal.

The vote on the nonbinding compensation proposal is a vote separate and apart from the vote to adopt the merger agreement. Accordingly, you may vote to adopt the merger and vote not to approve the compensation and vice versa. This nonbinding compensation proposal relates only to already existing contractual obligations of the Company that may result in a payment to the Company's named executive officers in connection with, or following, the consummation of the merger and does not relate to any new compensation or other arrangements between the Company's named executive officers and Southern Company or, following the merger, the surviving corporation and its subsidiaries. Because the vote is advisory in nature only, it will not be binding on the Company or the Board. Accordingly, because the Company is contractually obligated to pay the compensation, such compensation will be paid or become payable, subject only to the conditions applicable thereto, if the merger is consummated and regardless of the outcome of the advisory vote.

The approval of the nonbinding compensation proposal requires that the number of votes cast in favor of the proposal exceeds the votes cast opposing the proposal. Assuming a quorum is present at the special meeting, abstentions, failures to vote and broker non-votes will have no effect on the outcome of the nonbinding compensation proposal. This is an advisory vote only and will not be binding on the Company, the Board or Southern Company.

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger

The following discussion summarizes the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to holders of Company common stock. This discussion is based upon the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, which we refer to as the Code, the U.S. Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder and judicial and administrative rulings, all as in effect as of the date of this proxy statement and all of which are subject to change or varying interpretation, possibly with retroactive effect. Any such changes could affect the accuracy of the statements and conclusions set forth herein.

This discussion assumes that holders of Company common stock hold their shares as capital assets within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code (generally, property held for investment). This discussion does not address all aspects of U.S. federal income taxation that may be relevant to a holder of Company common stock in light of such holder's particular circumstances, nor does it discuss the special considerations applicable to holders of Company common stock subject to special treatment under the U.S. federal income tax laws, such as, for example, financial institutions or broker-dealers, mutual funds, partnerships or other pass-through entities and their partners or members, tax-exempt organizations, retirement or other tax-deferred accounts, insurance companies, dealers in securities or foreign currencies, traders in securities who elect mark-to-market method of accounting, controlled foreign corporations, passive foreign investment companies, U.S. expatriates, holders who acquired their Company common stock through the exercise of options or otherwise as compensation, holders who hold their Company common stock as part of a hedge, straddle, constructive sale or conversion transaction, U.S. holders (as defined below) whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar, holders who exercise appraisal rights, and holders who own or have owned (directly, indirectly or constructively) five percent or more of the Company's stock (by vote or value). This discussion does not address any tax consequences arising under the unearned income Medicare contribution tax pursuant to the Health Care and Education Reconciliation Act of 2010, any consequences or requirements of or relating to the Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act, or any aspect of foreign, state, local, alternative minimum, estate, gift or other tax law that may be applicable to a holder.

We intend this discussion to provide only a general summary of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to holders of Company common stock. We do not intend it to be a complete analysis or description of all potential U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger. The U.S. federal income tax laws are complex and subject to varying interpretation. Accordingly, the Internal Revenue Service, which we refer to as the IRS, may not agree with the tax consequences described in this proxy statement.

If an entity or arrangement treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes holds Company common stock, the tax treatment of a partner in such partnership generally will depend on the status of the partner and activities of the partnership. If you are a partner of a partnership holding Company common stock, you should consult your own tax advisor.

All holders should consult their own tax advisor to determine the particular tax consequences to them (including the application and effect of any state, local or foreign income and other tax laws and the application of any U.S. federal tax rules not addressed in this discussion) of the receipt of cash in exchange for shares of Company common stock pursuant to the merger.

For purposes of this discussion, the term U.S. holder means a beneficial owner of Company common stock that is, for U.S. federal income tax purposes:

an individual citizen or resident of the United States;

a corporation (including any entity treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes) created or organized in or under the laws of the United States, any state thereof or the District of Columbia;

a trust if (1) its administration is subject to the primary supervision of a court within the United States and one or more U.S. persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust or (2) it has a valid election in effect under applicable U.S. Treasury Regulations to be treated as a U.S. person; or an estate the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income tax regardless of its source.

A non-U.S. holder is a beneficial owner (other than a partnership) of Company common stock that is not a U.S. holder.

U.S. Holders

The conversion of shares of Company common stock into cash pursuant to the merger will be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes. A U.S. holder generally will recognize gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes equal to the difference, if any, between the amount of cash received pursuant to the merger (including any cash required to be withheld for tax purposes) and such U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in the shares converted into cash pursuant to the merger. Such gain or loss generally will be capital gain or loss, and will be long-term capital gain or loss if the holder's holding period for such shares exceeds one year as of the date of the merger. Long-term capital gains for certain non-corporate U.S. holders, including individuals, are generally eligible for a reduced rate of U.S. federal income taxation. The deductibility of capital losses (including for individual U.S. holders) is subject to limitations. If a U.S. holder acquired different blocks of Company common stock at different times or at different prices, such U.S. holder must determine its adjusted tax basis, holding period, and gain or loss separately with respect to each block of Company common stock.

A U.S. holder may, under certain circumstances, be subject to information reporting and backup withholding (currently at a rate of 28%) with respect to the cash received pursuant to the merger, unless such holder properly establishes an exemption or provides its correct tax identification number and otherwise complies with the applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules can be refunded or credited against a payee's U.S. federal income tax liability, if any, provided that such U.S. holder furnishes the required information to the IRS in a timely manner.

Non-U.S. Holders

Any gain recognized on the receipt of cash pursuant to the merger by a non-U.S. holder generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax unless:

the gain is effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business of such non-U.S. holder (and, if required by an applicable income tax treaty, is also attributable to a permanent establishment or, in the case of an individual, a fixed base in the United States maintained by such non-U.S. holder), in which case the non-U.S. holder generally will be subject to tax on such gain in the same manner as a U.S. holder and, if the non-U.S. holder is a foreign corporation, such corporation may be subject to branch profits tax at the rate of 30% (or such lower rate as may be specified by an applicable income tax treaty);

the non-U.S. holder is a nonresident alien individual who is present in the United States for 183 days or more in the taxable year of the merger and certain other conditions are met, in which case the non-U.S. holder generally will be subject to a 30% tax on the non-U.S. holder's net gain realized in the merger, which may be offset by U.S. source capital losses of the non-U.S. holder, if any; or the Company is or has been a United States real property holding corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes at any time during the shorter of (i) the five-year period ending on the date of the merger and

(ii) the non-U.S. holder's holding period in the Company common stock, and the non-U.S. holder owned (directly, indirectly or constructively) more than 5% of the Company's outstanding common stock at any time during the applicable period. Although there can be no assurances in this regard, the Company does not believe that it is or was a United States real property holding corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes at any time during the five-year period preceding the merger.

Table of Contents

A non-U.S. holder will be subject to information reporting and, in certain circumstances, backup withholding will apply with respect to the cash received by such holder pursuant to the merger, unless such non-U.S. holder certifies under penalties of perjury that it is a non-U.S. holder (and the payor does not have actual knowledge or reason to know that the holder is a United States person as defined under the Code) or such holder otherwise establishes an exemption from backup withholding. Backup withholding is not an additional tax and any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules can be refunded or credited against a non-U.S. holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, if any.

Dividends

The Company has not historically paid dividends on Company common stock, and is restricted by the merger agreement from paying any such dividends prior to the completion of the merger without the prior written consent of Southern Company.

Regulatory Waiting Periods and Approvals Required for the Merger

The merger is subject to the requirements of the HSR Act, which prevents Southern Company and the Company from completing the merger until required information and materials are furnished to the Antitrust Division of the United States Department of Justice (DOJ) and the United States Federal Trade Commission (FTC) and the HSR Act waiting period is terminated or expires. On March 10, 2016, Southern Company and the Company filed the requisite notification and report forms under the HSR Act with the DOJ and the FTC. Consequently, the required waiting period is scheduled to expire at 11:59 p.m. on April 11, 2016, unless earlier terminated or the FTC or DOJ extends that period by issuing a request to the parties for additional information.

For a description of Southern Company's and the Company's respective obligations under the merger agreement with respect to regulatory approvals, please see the section of this proxy statement entitled The Merger Agreement Efforts to Obtain Regulatory Approvals beginning on page [].

Delisting and Deregistration of the Company Common Stock

If the merger is completed, the shares of Company common stock will be delisted from the NYSE and deregistered under the Exchange Act, and shares of Company common stock will no longer be publicly traded.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following is a summary of the material terms and conditions of the merger agreement. This summary does not purport to be complete and may not contain all of the information about the merger agreement that is important to you. The description of the merger agreement in this section and elsewhere in this proxy statement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the merger agreement, a copy of which is attached to this proxy statement as Annex A and is incorporated by reference into this proxy statement. We encourage you to read the merger agreement carefully and in its entirety because it is the primary contractual document that governs the merger.

*Additional information about the Company and Southern Company may be found elsewhere in this proxy statement and in other public reports and documents filed with the SEC. Please see the section of this proxy statement entitled Where You Can Find Additional Information , beginning on page [].*

Explanatory Note Regarding the Merger Agreement

The merger agreement and this summary of its terms have been included to provide you with information regarding the terms of the merger agreement. The merger agreement is not intended to be a source of factual, business or operational information about the Company, Southern Company or Merger Sub, and the following summary of the merger agreement and the copy thereof attached hereto as Annex A are not intended to modify or supplement any factual disclosure about the Company in any documents it publicly files with the SEC. The representations, warranties and covenants made in the merger agreement by the Company, Southern Company and Merger Sub were qualified and subject to important limitations agreed to by the Company, Southern Company and Merger Sub in connection with negotiating the terms of the merger agreement. In particular, in your review of the representations and warranties contained in the merger agreement and described in this summary, it is important to bear in mind that the representations and warranties were negotiated with the principal purposes of establishing the circumstances in which a party to the merger agreement may have the right not to close the merger if the representations and warranties of the other party prove to be untrue due to a change in circumstance or otherwise, and allocating risk between the parties to the merger agreement, rather than establishing matters as facts. The representations and warranties may also be subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from those generally applicable to stockholders and reports and documents filed with the SEC and in some cases were qualified by disclosures that were made by each party to the other, which disclosures are not reflected in the merger agreement. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties, which do not purport to be accurate as of the date of this proxy statement, may have changed since the date of the merger agreement, and subsequent developments or new information qualifying a representation or warranty may or may not be fully reflected in this proxy statement or the Company's public disclosures. Accordingly, you should not rely on the representations and warranties as being accurate or complete or characterizations of the actual state of facts as of any specified date.

Effects of the Merger; Directors and Officers; Certificate of Incorporation; Bylaws

The merger agreement provides for the merger of Merger Sub with and into the Company upon the terms, and subject to the conditions, set forth in the merger agreement. As the surviving corporation, the Company will continue to exist following the merger as a wholly-owned indirect subsidiary of Southern Company.

The parties have agreed under the merger agreement to take all necessary action such that, from and after the effective time, the board of directors of Merger Sub immediately prior to the effective time will become the directors of the surviving corporation, until the earlier of their death, incapacity, resignation or removal or until their respective successors are duly elected and qualified. From and after the effective time, the officers of the Company immediately prior to the effective time will become the officers of the surviving corporation, until the earlier of their death, incapacity, resignation or removal or until their respective successors are duly elected or appointed and qualified, as the case may be.

Table of Contents

The certificate of incorporation of the Company will be amended and restated at the effective time in a form attached as an exhibit to the merger agreement which will be the certificate of incorporation of the surviving corporation until thereafter amended in accordance with the DGCL. At the effective time, the bylaws of the Company will, by virtue of the merger, be amended and restated in their entirety to read as the bylaws of Merger Sub as in effect immediately prior to the effective time, and as so amended and restated will be the bylaws of the surviving corporation, until thereafter amended in accordance with the DGCL.

Closing and Effective Time of the Merger

Unless the parties otherwise agree, the closing of the merger, which we refer to as the closing, will take place on the second business day following the date on which the conditions to closing (described in the section of this proxy statement entitled Conditions to the Merger), other than those conditions that by their terms are to be satisfied at the closing (but subject to the satisfaction or waiver of those conditions at closing), have been satisfied or (to the extent permitted by applicable law) waived.

The merger will become effective at such time as the certificate of merger is duly filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware, or at such other time as Southern Company and the Company will agree and specify in the certificate of merger.

Merger Consideration and Conversion of Company Common Stock

At the effective time, each share of Company common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time, other than shares owned by the Company as treasury stock, shares owned by a subsidiary of the Company and shares owned by stockholders who have properly demanded appraisal rights under the DGCL, will be canceled and converted into the right to receive the merger consideration, without interest, subject to adjustment as described in the following sentence. If at any time during the period between the date of the merger agreement and the effective time, any change in the outstanding shares of capital stock of the Company occurs as a result of any reclassification, recapitalization, stock split (including a reverse stock split) or combination, exchange or readjustment of shares, or any stock dividend or stock distribution with a record date during such period, the merger consideration will be equitably adjusted to reflect such change.

At the effective time, each share of Company common stock owned by the Company as treasury stock and each share of Company common stock owned by a subsidiary of the Company will be canceled without payment of consideration.

Shares of Company common stock that are issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time and are held by a stockholder who is entitled to demand, and properly demands, appraisal rights with respect to such shares pursuant to, and who complies in all respects with, the provisions of the DGCL, will not be converted into the right to receive the merger consideration. At the effective time, any such stockholders will cease to have any rights to such shares of Company common stock except for the right to receive payment of the fair value of such shares as may be determined to be due in accordance with the DGCL, as described in the section of this proxy statement entitled Appraisal Rights of Stockholders. All such shares of Company common stock that are shares held by any such stockholder who has failed to perfect or who otherwise has withdrawn, in accordance with the DGCL, or lost such stockholder's rights to demand payment in respect of such shares of Company common stock under the DGCL, will thereupon be deemed to have been converted into the right to receive, without any interest thereon, the merger consideration, without interest and less applicable withholding taxes.

Exchange and Payment Procedures

At or prior to the effective time, Southern Company will deposit with a designated commercial bank or trust company (the exchange agent) cash in an amount sufficient to pay the aggregate merger consideration payable to holders of Company common stock in accordance with the merger agreement. Promptly following the effective time, the exchange agent will mail to each holder of record (i) a letter of transmittal in customary form and (ii) instructions for use in effecting the surrender of such holder's certificates or book-entry shares in exchange for payment of merger consideration. If you are a stockholder of record, you will not be entitled to receive the merger consideration until you surrender your certificates or book-entry shares along with a duly executed letter of transmittal to the exchange agent.

You should not return your certificates with the enclosed proxy card, and you should not forward your stock certificates to the exchange agent without a letter of transmittal.

Southern Company, Merger Sub, the surviving corporation and the exchange agent will be entitled to deduct and withhold any applicable required taxes from the merger consideration. In the event any amount is withheld from the merger consideration otherwise payable to any person (and is paid over to the applicable taxing authorities), that amount will be treated as having been paid to that person.

At the effective time, the stock transfer books of the Company will be closed and there will be no further registration of transfers thereafter on the records of the Company. On or after the effective time, any certificates or book-entry shares presented to the exchange agent or Southern Company for any reason will be cancelled and exchanged for the merger consideration with respect to the shares formerly represented by such certificates or book-entry shares.

The exchange agent will invest the aggregate merger consideration deposited with it as directed by Southern Company. Any interest and other income resulting from any such investments will be paid to and become income of Southern Company. To the extent that there are losses with respect to such investments, Southern Company will promptly replace or restore the cash in the exchange fund lost through such investments or other events to ensure that the exchange fund is at all times maintained at a level sufficient to promptly make such cash payments.

Any portion of the aggregate merger consideration deposited with the exchange agent that remains undistributed to holders of shares of Company common stock on the date that is one year after the effective time will be delivered to Southern Company, upon demand. Holders of shares of Company common stock who have not complied with the exchange and payment procedures described above may thereafter look only to the Southern Company for payment of the merger consideration. None of Southern Company, Merger Sub, the surviving corporation or the exchange agent will be liable to any holder of shares of Company common stock for any merger consideration from the exchange fund or other cash delivered to a public official pursuant to any abandoned property, escheat or similar law. Any portion of the exchange fund remaining unclaimed by holders of shares of Company common stock as of a date that is immediately prior to the date on which any merger consideration would otherwise escheat to or become property of a governmental entity will, to the extent permitted by law, become the property of Southern Company free and clear of all claims or interest of any person previously entitled thereto.

Lost Certificates

If any certificate has been lost, stolen or destroyed, then the person claiming the certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed must make an affidavit of that fact in order to be entitled to receive the merger consideration in respect of such certificate and, if required by Southern Company, such person must deliver a bond in a reasonable and customary amount as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such certificate. These procedures will be described in the letter of transmittal that you will receive, which you should read carefully in its entirety.

Treatment of Equity Awards

At the effective time, each stock option, whether vested or unvested, that is outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will be deemed fully vested and be cancelled and converted into the right to receive a cash amount equal to the product of (a) the total number of shares of Company common stock subject to such stock option immediately prior to the effective time multiplied by (b) the excess, if any, of $18.75 over the per share exercise price of the stock option, less any applicable withholding taxes. Any stock option with a per share exercise price greater than $18.75 will be cancelled at the effective time for no consideration.

Except as described above under the section of this proxy statement entitled Interests of the Company's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger Hinton Letter Agreement, at the effective time, each award of restricted shares, RSUs or PSUs that is outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will be deemed fully vested and be cancelled and converted into the right to receive $18.75 in cash in respect of each share of Company common stock covered by the award. Each PSU will be deemed vested based on the target level of achievement of the performance goals applicable to such PSU.

Representations and Warranties

The merger agreement contains representations and warranties made by the Company, Southern Company and Merger Sub to each other. The statements embodied in those representations and warranties were made for purposes of the merger agreement and are subject to qualifications and limitations agreed to by the parties in connection with negotiating the terms of the merger agreement (including in the disclosure schedule delivered by the Company to Southern Company in connection therewith). In addition, some of those representations and warranties were made as of a specific date, may be subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from that generally applicable to stockholders or may have been used for the purpose of allocating risk between the parties to the merger agreement rather than establishing matters as facts.

The representations and warranties made by the Company (including, in certain cases, with respect to its subsidiaries) to Southern Company and Merger Sub relate to, among other things, the following:

Many of the Company's representations and warranties are qualified as to, among other things, materiality or Company material adverse effect. For purposes of the merger agreement, Company material adverse effect means any fact, occurrence, change, effect or circumstance, individually or in the aggregate that: (i) has had, or would reasonably be expected to result in, a material adverse effect on the business, assets, liabilities, properties or results of operations or financial condition of the Company and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or (ii) would, or would reasonably be expected to, prevent or materially impair or delay the ability of the Company to consummate the merger. Facts, occurrences, changes, effects or circumstances resulting from the following events are excluded in determining whether a Company material adverse effect has occurred:

any transaction litigation;

actions taken pursuant to the merger agreement or at the request of Southern Company; and changes in the market price or trading volume of the Company common stock or any failure to meet internal or published projections, forecasts or revenue or earnings predictions for any period (it being understood that the facts or occurrences giving rise to or contributing to any such change or failure will be taken into account in determining whether a Company material adverse effect has occurred or would reasonably be expected to occur).

The following events are also excluded in determining whether a Company material adverse effect has occurred, but will be taken into account to the extent such matters adversely affect the Company and its subsidiaries in a materially disproportionate manner relative to other participants in the industries in which the Company and its subsidiaries operate:

conditions or effects that generally affect the industries in which the Company and its subsidiaries operate;

The representations and warranties made by Southern Company and Merger Sub to the Company are more limited and relate to, among other things, the following:

due organization, valid existence, good standing and corporate authority to carry on its business;

ownership and operations of Merger Sub;

corporate authority to execute and deliver, to perform Southern Company's and Merger Sub's obligations under, and to consummate the transactions contemplated by, the merger agreement, and the enforceability of the merger agreement against Southern Company and Merger Sub;

the absence of broker's or finder's fees; and the absence of a requirement for a vote of Southern Company stockholders.

Certain of the representations and warranties of Southern Company and Merger Sub are qualified as to, among other things, materiality or certain changes, events, developments, conditions, occurrences or effects that has a material adverse effect on the ability of either Southern Company or Merger Sub to consummate the merger or perform their respective obligations under the merger agreement or that would prevent or materially delay the consummation by Southern Company of the merger.

Subject to certain exceptions, the representations and warranties contained in the merger agreement will terminate upon the earlier of the effective time or the termination of the merger agreement pursuant to its terms.

No Solicitation by the Company

The Company has agreed under the merger agreement, subject to certain exceptions described below, that the Company and its representatives cannot, directly or indirectly:

initiate, solicit or knowingly facilitate or encourage any inquiries, discussions regarding, or the making or submission of, any proposal, request or offer that constitutes, or could reasonably be expected to lead to, any acquisition, purchase, tender offer, exchange offer, merger, consolidation, exclusive license, business combination, joint venture, partnership, share exchange or other transaction involving the Company that would result in the transfer of 10% or more of any class of capital stock of the Company or 10% or more of the consolidated total assets of the Company and its subsidiaries (an alternative proposal);

approve, endorse, recommend or enter into any agreement or agreement in principle, whether written or oral, with any person concerning any letter of intent, memorandum of understanding, acquisition agreement, merger agreement, joint venture agreement, partnership agreement or other similar agreement concerning an alternative proposal;

terminate, amend, release, modify, or fail to enforce any provision of, or grant any waiver under, any standstill, confidentiality or similar agreement entered into by the Company or any of its subsidiaries in respect of or in contemplation of an alternative proposal (other than to the extent the Board determines in good faith, after consultation with its outside financial and legal advisors, that failure to take any such actions under this provision would be inconsistent with the directors' fiduciary duties or obligations under applicable law);

conduct, engage in, continue or otherwise participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding any alternative proposal; furnish any non-public information relating to the Company, or afford access to the books or records or representatives of the Company, to any third party that, to the knowledge of the Company, is seeking to or may make, or has made, an alternative proposal;

take any action to make the provisions of any takeover laws inapplicable to any transactions contemplated by any alternative proposal; or resolve or publicly propose or announce to do any of the foregoing.

Notwithstanding the restrictions described above, in response to a bona fide alternative proposal that was not solicited or received in violation of the restrictions described above and that was made prior to the approval of the merger agreement by the Company's stockholders, the Company may (i) provide information or afford access to the books and records of the Company to the party that has made such bona fide alternative proposal and (ii) engage or participate in discussions or negotiations with such party with respect to such bona fide alternative proposal, but in each case only if, prior to taking such action:

the Company enters into a confidentiality and standstill agreement with such party on terms that are no less restrictive than those contained in the confidentiality agreement between the Company and Southern Company;

the Company has delivered to Southern Company written notice prior to taking any such action stating that the Board intends to take such action; and the Board has determined in good faith, after consultation with its outside financial and legal advisors, that such bona fide alternative proposal either constitutes a superior proposal (as defined below) or is reasonably likely to result in a superior proposal and delivered to Southern Company notice of such determination.

Under the merger agreement, a bona fide alternative proposal is an unsolicited written bona fide alternative proposal that was not received or obtained in violation of the merger agreement's no solicitation or change of Board recommendation provisions. Under the merger agreement, a superior proposal is a bona fide alternative proposal that was not received or obtained in violation of the merger agreement's no solicitation or change of Board recommendation provisions (except that references to 10% or more in the definition of alternative proposal will be deemed to be references to 90% or more) that the Board has determined in good faith, after consultation with its outside financial and legal advisors (taking into account the various legal, financial, regulatory (including the impact of any necessary regulatory approvals or antitrust law on such bona fide alternative proposal) and other aspects of such bona fide alternative proposal), (i) is reasonably likely to be consummated in accordance with its terms and (ii) if consummated, would result in a transaction more favorable to the Company's stockholders from a financial point of view than the merger.

Changes in the Board's Recommendation

The Company has agreed under the merger agreement, subject to certain exceptions described below, that the Board will not (i) withdraw, qualify or modify the Board's recommendation that its stockholders vote in favor of adoption of the merger agreement (such recommendation, the Board recommendation) in a manner adverse to Southern Company or Merger Sub; (ii) fail to announce publicly its recommendation to reject any takeover proposal that is a tender offer or exchange offer within 10 business days of the commencement thereof; (iii) fail to include the Board's recommendation that its stockholders vote in favor of adoption of the merger agreement in this proxy statement; (iv) approve, adopt or recommend any alternative proposal; or (v) resolve or publicly propose to do any of the foregoing (any such action, a change of recommendation).

Notwithstanding the general restrictions described above, at any time prior to the adoption of the merger agreement by the Company's stockholders, the Board may make a change of recommendation under two circumstances:

the Board determines that a bona fide alternative proposal constitutes a superior proposal; and in response to an intervening event, which is any material event, development or change in circumstances that first occurs, arises or becomes known to the Company or the Board after the date of the merger agreement, to the extent that such event, development or change in circumstances was not reasonably foreseeable as of or prior to the date of the merger agreement; except that in no event will (i) the receipt, existence or terms of an alternative proposal or any matter relating thereto or consequence thereof, (ii) any actions taken in compliance with the merger agreement, (iii) entry into any contract or (iv) any change in the Company's stock price or the Company exceeding its projections or forecasts constitute an intervening event or be taken into account in determining whether an intervening event has occurred.

To make a change of recommendation, the Board must determine in good faith, after consultation with its outside financial and legal advisors, that (i) the merger is not in the best interests of the Company's stockholders and (ii) the failure to effect a change of recommendation would be inconsistent with the directors' fiduciary duties or obligations under applicable law.

In addition, to make a change of recommendation, the Board must deliver to Southern Company an unredacted copy of such superior proposal and any acquisition agreements, a written notice stating that the Board intends to effect a change of recommendation and, during the four business day period following Southern Company's receipt of such written notice, the Company must engage in good faith negotiations with Southern Company regarding an amendment to the merger agreement so that (after taking into account the revisions to the terms of the merger agreement proposed by Southern Company) the alternative proposal that is the subject of such written notice ceases to be a superior proposal or the basis to make a change of recommendation for an intervening event no longer exists, as applicable. In the event of any amendment or modification of the financial or other material terms or conditions of a bona fide alternative proposal or a material change to the facts relating to an intervening event, as applicable, the Company must deliver a written notice summarizing such modifications or material changes and such period will be extended by two business days following Southern Company's receipt of such written notice.

Table of Contents

Nothing contained in the merger agreement's no solicitation provisions prohibits the Company or the Board (or any committee thereof) from (i) complying with Rule 14d-9 or Rule 14e-2(a) promulgated under the Exchange Act, including any stop, look and listen communication to the stockholders of the Company pursuant to Rule 14d-9(f) under the Exchange Act, and in no event will any such stop, look and listen communication be deemed a change of recommendation or to violate the merger agreement no solicitation provisions or (ii) making any disclosure to the stockholders of the Company if, in the good faith judgment of the Board (after consultation with outside legal counsel) failure to do so would be inconsistent with the directors' fiduciary duties or obligations under applicable law, except that any such position or disclosure will be deemed a change of recommendation unless the Board expressly and concurrently reaffirms the Board's recommendation that stockholders adopt the merger agreement.

Stockholders Meeting

The Company has agreed under the merger agreement to call a meeting of its stockholders to be held as soon as reasonably practicable after this proxy statement is cleared by the SEC staff for mailing to consider and vote on adoption of the merger agreement and any other matters required to be voted on by the Company's stockholders in connection with the merger. The Company may adjourn or postpone the special meeting. The Company has also agreed under the merger agreement for the Board to recommend to the Company's stockholders the adoption of the merger agreement, subject to the provisions of the merger agreement described above under the section of this proxy statement entitled No Solicitation by the Company and Changes in the Board's Recommendation.

Efforts to Obtain Regulatory Approvals

The merger agreement requires each of the parties to use their respective reasonable best efforts to take all actions necessary, proper or advisable to consummate the merger as soon as practicable. Without limiting the foregoing, the Company, Parent and Merger Sub have agreed to (i) promptly file any and all required notifications under the HSR Act and use all reasonable best efforts to cause the expiration or termination of any applicable waiting periods under the HSR Act, (ii) use all reasonable best efforts to cooperate with each other in (x) determining whether any filings are required to be made with or approvals are required from any third parties or other governmental entities under any other applicable regulatory law in connection with the merger and (y) promptly making any such filings and obtaining any such approvals. However, nothing in the merger agreement requires Parent or any of its affiliates to (A) under any circumstances (i) pay any amounts (other than the payment of filing fees and expenses and fees of counsel), (ii) sell, hold separate (including by trust or otherwise), divest or otherwise dispose of all or any portion of their respective businesses, product lines or assets, (iii) limit the operation or conduct of their respective businesses in any way or (iv) waive any of the conditions to the merger agreement or (B) take any actions or make any commitments to obtain any regulatory approval that would or would reasonably be expected to result in the sale, holding separate or divestiture of one or more of the businesses, product lines or assets of the Company or its subsidiaries representing, individually or in the aggregate, more than $1,700,000 of net income.

Access to Information

The Company has agreed that, upon reasonable notice, it will, and will cause each of its subsidiaries to, afford to Southern Company and to its officers, employees, accountants, counsel, lenders, financial advisors and other representatives reasonable access during normal business hours during the period prior to the effective time to all the Company's and its subsidiaries' owned or leased properties, books, contracts, commitments, personnel (including contractors and distributors), records, tax returns and all other information concerning its business, operations, status of compliance with environmental law, properties and personnel as Southern Company may reasonably request. Southern Company agreed that it and its representatives will conduct any such activities in such a manner as not to interfere unreasonably with the business or operations of the Company and its subsidiaries (which will not include any intrusive, invasive or other sampling or testing of any environmental media or any physical assets of the Company) and that the Company and its subsidiaries will not be required to provide any access or disclose any information if such access or disclosure would (i) contravene any applicable law, (ii) jeopardize the attorney-client privilege of the institution in possession or control of such information, or (iii) contravene any fiduciary duty or binding agreement entered into prior to the date of the merger agreement.

Financing

There is no financing condition to the merger. Southern Company has represented in the merger agreement that it will have, at the effective time, sufficient cash and committed credit facilities to pay the merger consideration and make all other necessary payments by it in connection with the merger.

Director and Officer Indemnification and Insurance

Under the merger agreement, Southern Company has agreed to cause the surviving corporation to indemnify, for six years, each individual who was a director or officer of the Company or a subsidiary of the Company at or prior to the effective time with respect to all acts or omissions by such individual in such capacity at any time prior to the effective time to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law or required by the organizational documents of the Company or its subsidiaries or the indemnification agreements in effect as of the date of the merger agreement.

At or prior to the effective time, the Company or, if the Company is unable, Southern Company will purchase six-year prepaid tail policies with respect to such acts or omissions by such individuals containing terms and conditions that are at least as favorable as the policies in effect on the date of the merger agreement, provided that the premium for such tail policies may not exceed 300% of the annual premium paid by the Company for coverage for its last full fiscal year for such insurance. In the event neither the Company nor Southern Company purchase such tail policies, Southern Company has agreed that, for a period of six years following the effective time, it will maintain in effect the Company's current directors' and officers' liability insurance policies (or that it will purchase substitute policies of at least the same coverage and amounts and containing terms and conditions that are at least as favorable as provided in the Company's existing policies), provided that in no event will Southern Company be required to pay an aggregate premium for such policies in excess of 300% of the annual premium paid by the Company for coverage for its last full fiscal year for such insurance.

The individuals who are directors and officers of the Company or a subsidiary of the Company at or prior to the effective time are third-party beneficiaries of the provisions described above, and such individuals will have the right to enforce these provisions of the merger agreement.

Employee Benefit Matters

During the one-year period following the effective time, Southern Company has agreed to provide each employee of the Company and its subsidiaries with base compensation and cash bonus opportunities that are, in each case, no less favorable than the base compensation and cash bonus opportunities provided to each such employee on the closing date and to provide other compensation and benefits that are in the aggregate no less favorable than provided to such employees as of the closing date.

As of the effective time, Southern Company has also agreed to waive any limitations, exclusions or waiting periods under its health and welfare benefit plans and, subject to customary exceptions, to recognize the service of employees of the Company accrued prior to the effective time for purposes the employee benefit plans and personnel policies maintained by Southern Company after the effective time.

Other Covenants and Agreements

The merger agreement contains additional agreements between the Company and Southern Company relating to, among other things, the following:

preparation of this proxy statement;

furnishing the other party with all information as may be reasonably necessary in connection with this proxy statement;

keeping the other party apprised of the status of matters relating to the completion of the merger, including promptly furnishing the other party with any information or notices or other correspondence received from any third party or any governmental entity;

transaction litigation; and ensuring exemptions of certain transactions in connection with the merger under Rule 16b-3 under the Exchange Act.

Conditions to the Merger

The respective obligations of the Company, Southern Company and Merger Sub to effect the merger are subject to the satisfaction or (if permissible under applicable law) waiver on or prior to the closing date of the following conditions:

the approval of the merger agreement by the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Company common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting, voting together as a single voting group;

expiration or termination of the applicable waiting period under the HSR Act; and the absence of any judgment, order, decision, injunction, ruling or other finding or agency requirement of a governmental entity preventing the consummation of the merger.

The obligations of Southern Company and Merger Sub to effect the merger are further subject to the satisfaction or (if permissible under applicable law) waiver on or prior to the closing date of the following additional conditions:

the representations and warranties of the Company set forth in the merger agreement will be true and correct as of the date of the merger agreement and as of the effective time as though made on and as of the effective time (except that representations and warranties that by their terms speak specifically as of the date of the merger agreement or another date will be true and correct as of such date), except that this condition will be deemed satisfied unless all inaccuracies in such representations and warranties in the aggregate constitute a Company material adverse effect at the closing date (ignoring solely for purposes of this proviso any reference to Company material adverse effect or other materiality qualifiers contained in such representations and warranties); the representations and warranties of the Company regarding capitalization, the absence of preemptive rights and the corporate authority to execute and deliver, to perform the Company's obligations under, and to consummate the transactions contemplated by, the merger agreement and the enforceability of the merger agreement against the Company will be true and correct in all material respects as of the date of the merger agreement and as of the effective time as though made on and as of the effective time (except that representations and warranties that by their terms speak specifically as of the date of the merger agreement or another date will be true and correct in all material respects as of such date), and the receipt by Southern Company of a certificate signed on behalf of the Company by the Chief Executive Officer or the Chief Financial Officer of the Company to such effect;

the Company's performance in all material respects of its obligations under the merger agreement at or prior to the closing date, and the receipt by Southern Company of a certificate signed on behalf of the Company by the Chief Executive Officer or the Chief Financial Officer of the Company to such effect; and since the date of the merger agreement, the absence of any fact, occurrence, change, effect or circumstances that, individually or in the aggregate, has had or would reasonably be expected to result in a material adverse effect on the Company.

The obligation of the Company to effect the merger is further subject to the satisfaction or (if permissible under applicable law) waiver by the Company on or prior to the closing date of the following additional conditions:

the representations and warranties of Southern Company and Merger Sub set forth in the merger agreement will be true and correct as of the date of the merger agreement and as of the effective time as though made on and as of the effective time (except that representations and warranties that by their terms speak specifically as of the date of the merger agreement or another date will be true and correct as of such date), except that this condition will be deemed satisfied unless all inaccuracies in such representations and warranties in the aggregate constitute a material adverse effect on Southern Company at the closing date (ignoring solely for purposes of this proviso any reference to material adverse effect or other materiality qualifiers contained in such representations and warranties), and the receipt by the Company of a certificate signed on behalf of Southern Company and Merger Sub by the Chief Executive Officer or the Chief Financial Officer of Southern Company to such effect; and

Southern Company's and Merger Sub's performance in all material respects of its obligations under the merger agreement at or prior to the closing date, and the receipt by the Company of a certificate signed on behalf of Southern Company and Merger Sub by the Chief Executive Officer or the Chief Financial Officer of Southern Company to such effect.

The receipt or availability of funds or financing is not a condition to the consummation of the merger.

Before the closing, the Company, Southern Company and Merger Sub may each waive any of their respective conditions to closing and effect the merger even though one or more of the conditions described above has not been met, except where waiver is not permissible under applicable law.

None of Southern Company, Merger Sub or the Company may rely on the failure of any closing condition to be satisfied if such party's failure to perform any material obligation required to be performed by it was the primary cause of, or primarily results in, such failure.

Termination of the Merger Agreement

The merger agreement may be terminated by either the Company or Southern Company if any of the following events occur:

the merger is not consummated by November 30, 2016 (the "outside date"), except that a party does not have this right to terminate due to the outside date if the failure of the merger to occur on or before the outside date is a result of a failure of such party to perform any of its obligations under the merger agreement or if the other party has filed an action seeking specific performance;

a judgment, order, decision, injunction, ruling or other finding or agency requirement of a governmental entity preventing the consummation of the merger is in effect and has become final and nonappealable;

the Company stockholder approval is not obtained at a duly held stockholders meeting (including adjournments thereof); or the other party breaches any of its representations or warranties (or if any such representations or warranties fail to be true) or fails to perform any of its covenants or agreements, which breach or failure (a) would give rise to the failure of the applicable condition to consummate the merger and (b) is incapable of being cured or is not cured by the earlier of the outside date and 30 days after receiving written notice of such breach or failure.

Table of Contents

Southern Company may also terminate the merger agreement if, prior to the receipt of the Company stockholder approval, the Board makes a change of recommendation.

The Company may also terminate the merger agreement if, prior to the receipt of the Company stockholder approval, the Board makes a change of recommendation in response to a superior proposal or an intervening event and the Company is in compliance in all material respects with the no solicitation and change of Board recommendation provisions; provided that prior to, and as a condition of, any such termination, the Company will have paid the termination fee to Southern Company.

Termination Fee and Reimbursement of Expenses

The Company will be required to pay to Southern Company a termination fee equal to $12,000,000 (or approximately 2.8% of the Company's fully diluted equity value as of February 24, 2016) if:

Southern Company terminates the merger agreement in response to the Board making a change of recommendation;

Southern Company or the Company terminates the merger agreement in connection with the merger not having been consummated on or before the outside date if (a) the stockholders meeting has not been held or completed prior to such termination and (b) either (i) the merger agreement was terminable by Southern Company as a result of the Company breaching any of its representations or warranties or failing to perform any of its covenants or agreements (if the failure to hold the stockholders meeting was due to the Company's failure to perform in any material respect any covenant or agreement) or (ii) the merger agreement was terminable by Southern Company as a result of the Board having made a change of recommendation;

Southern Company or the Company terminates the merger agreement in connection with certain failures to obtain the Company stockholder approval if (a) the merger agreement was terminable by Southern Company as a result of the Company breaching any of its representations or warranties or failing to perform any of its covenants or agreements (if the failure to obtain the Company stockholder approval was due to the Company's failure to perform in any material respect any covenant or agreement) or (b) the merger agreement was terminable by Southern Company as a result of the Board having made a change of recommendation;

the Company terminates the merger agreement prior to receipt of the Company stockholder approval as a result of a change of recommendation; or both of the following circumstances occur:

the merger agreement is terminated:

by Southern Company as a result of the Company breaching any of its representations or warranties or failing to perform any of its covenants or agreements, which breach or failure would give rise to the failure of the applicable condition to consummate the merger and, prior to termination, an alternative proposal has been made to the Company or otherwise announced;

by Southern Company or the Company at the outside date at a time when (a) the merger agreement was terminable by Southern Company as a result of the Company breaching any of its representations or warranties or failing to perform any of its covenants or agreements or (b) the Company stockholder approval was not obtained due to the stockholders meeting not being held or completed and, in each case, prior to termination, an alternative proposal has been made to the Company or otherwise announced; or by Southern Company or the Company as a result of the Company stockholder approval not being obtained and prior to the date of the stockholders meeting, an alternative proposal has been made to the Company or otherwise announced; within 9 months of the date of termination, the Company consummates or enters into a definitive agreement to consummate any alternative proposal.

In addition, the merger agreement provides that the Company must reimburse Southern Company for up to $1,000,000 of its out-of-pocket costs, fees and expenses incurred in connection with the documentation and negotiation of the merger agreement and the merger if the Company stockholder approval is not obtained at the duly held stockholder meeting, including any adjournment thereof. The reimbursement would reduce on a dollar-for-dollar basis any termination fee subsequently payable by the Company.

Remedies; Specific Enforcement

The parties to the merger agreement have agreed that immediate, extensive and irreparable damage, for which monetary damages would not be an adequate remedy, would occur in the event that the parties do not perform their obligations under the provisions of the merger agreement in accordance with its specified terms or otherwise breach such provisions. Accordingly, the parties have agreed that the parties will be entitled at law or in equity, to an injunction or injunctions, specific performance or other equitable relief to prevent breaches of this agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions (including the obligation of the parties to consummate the merger and the obligation of Southern Company and Merger Sub to pay, and the Company's stockholders' right to receive, the merger consideration payable to them pursuant to the merger).

In the event the termination fee is payable by the Company to Southern Company under the circumstances described above under the section of this proxy statement entitled Termination Fee and Reimbursement of Expenses, the right of payment of such termination fee will be the sole and exclusive remedy of Southern Company and Merger Sub against the Company.

Amendment of the Merger Agreement

At any time prior to the effective time, the merger agreement may be amended by the Company or Southern Company (on behalf of itself and Merger Sub) by an instrument in writing signed on behalf of each of the parties.

Governing Law

The merger agreement is governed and construed in accordance with the internal laws of the State of Delaware applicable to contracts made and wholly performed within such state, without regard to any applicable conflict of laws principles (whether of the State of Delaware or any other jurisdiction).

- (1) For purposes of this table, we have determined beneficial ownership in accordance with the rules of the SEC, although such information does not necessarily indicate beneficial ownership for any other purpose. Under such rules, beneficial ownership includes any shares as to which the beneficial owner has sole or shared voting power or investment power and any shares that the beneficial owner has the right to acquire within 60 days of _____, 2016 through the exercise of any stock option or other right. In addition, such shares that the beneficial owner has the right to acquire are deemed to be outstanding in calculating the percent beneficially owned by such beneficial owner, but are not deemed to be outstanding in determining the percent beneficially owned by any other beneficial owner. Moreover, restricted shares, even if subject to vesting or forfeiture, are deemed to be beneficially owned by the grantee and deemed to be outstanding in calculating the percent beneficially owned by such beneficial owner and by any other beneficial owner. Restricted stock units that are not scheduled to settle within 60 days and which would be converted into the right to receive a cash payment upon the closing of the merger are not included in the ownership table. Unless otherwise indicated in these notes, we believe, based on the information furnished to us, that each beneficial owner has sole voting and investment power with respect to the shares beneficially owned, subject to community property laws where applicable.

APPRAISAL RIGHTS OF STOCKHOLDERS

Holders of Company common stock who do not vote for the adoption of the merger and who otherwise comply with the applicable statutory procedures of Section 262 of the DGCL will have the right to obtain an appraisal of the value of their shares of Company common stock in connection with the merger. This means that stockholders are entitled to obtain the fair value of their shares of Company common stock (exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger) as determined by the Delaware Court of Chancery and entitled to receive payment based upon that valuation, together with a fair rate of interest, in lieu of any consideration to be received under the merger agreement.

The following is intended as a brief summary of the material provisions of the Delaware statutory procedures required to be followed by a stockholder in order to perfect appraisal rights. This summary, however, is not a complete statement of law pertaining to appraisal rights under Delaware law and is qualified in its entirety by the full text of Section 262 of the DGCL, which is attached hereto as Annex C and is incorporated herein by reference. The perfection of appraisal rights requires strict and timely adherence to the applicable provisions of the DGCL. Failure to follow the requirements of Section 262 of the DGCL for perfecting appraisal rights may result in the loss of such rights (and each share of Company common stock held by such stockholder will be deemed to have been converted at the effective time into the right to receive the per share merger consideration, without interest thereon, less any withholding taxes). All references in this summary to a stockholder are to the record holder of Company common stock on the record date for the special meeting unless otherwise indicated.

If you wish to consider demanding your appraisal rights, you should carefully review the text of Section 262 of the DGCL contained in Annex C hereto and should consult your legal advisor since failure to timely and properly comply with the requirements of Section 262 of the DGCL will result in the loss of your appraisal rights under the DGCL. All demands for appraisal must be received prior to the vote on the merger agreement and should be addressed to PowerSecure International, Inc., Attn: Corporate Secretary, 1609 Heritage Commerce Court, Wake Forest, North Carolina 27587, and should be executed by, or on behalf of, the record holder of the shares of Company common stock. Holders of Company common stock who desire to demand their appraisal rights must not vote in favor of the merger agreement, must continuously hold their shares of Company common stock through the effective time and must not submit an election form.

Under Section 262 of the DGCL, where a merger agreement relating to a proposed merger is to be submitted for adoption at a meeting of stockholders, as in the case of the Company special meeting, the corporation, not less than 20 days prior to such meeting, must notify each of its stockholders who was a stockholder on the record date for notice of such meeting with respect to shares for which appraisal rights are available, that appraisal rights are so available, and must include in each such notice a copy of Section 262 of the DGCL. This document constitutes such notice to the holders of Company common stock and Section 262 of the DGCL is attached to this document as Annex C.

If you wish to demand appraisal rights you must not vote for the adoption of the merger agreement and must deliver to the Company, before the vote on the merger proposal, a written demand for appraisal of your shares of Company common stock. If you sign and return a proxy card that does not contain voting instructions or submit a proxy by telephone or through the internet that does not contain voting instructions, you will effectively waive your appraisal rights because such shares represented by the proxy will, unless the proxy is revoked, be voted for the adoption of the merger agreement. Therefore, a stockholder who submits a proxy and who wishes to demand appraisal rights must submit a proxy containing instructions to vote against the adoption of the merger agreement or abstain from voting on the adoption of the merger agreement. Neither voting against the merger proposal, nor abstaining from voting or failing to vote on the merger proposal, will in and of itself constitute a written demand for appraisal satisfying the requirements of Section 262 of the DGCL.

A demand for appraisal will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the Company of the identity of the stockholder and that such stockholder intends thereby to demand appraisal of such stockholder's shares of common stock. This written demand for appraisal must be separate from any proxy or vote abstaining from or voting against the adoption of the merger agreement. If you wish to demand appraisal rights, you must be the record holder of such shares of Company common stock on the date the written demand for appraisal is made, and you must continue to hold such shares of record through the effective time. Accordingly, a stockholder who is the record holder of shares of common stock on the date the written demand for appraisal is made, but who thereafter transfers such shares prior to the effective time, will lose any right to appraisal in respect of such shares.

Only a holder of record of shares of Company common stock on the record date for the Company special meeting is entitled to assert appraisal rights for such shares of common stock registered in that holder's name. To be effective, a demand for appraisal by a stockholder must be made by, or on behalf of, such stockholder of record. The demand should set forth, fully and correctly, the stockholder's name as it appears, with respect to shares evidenced by certificates, on his or her stock certificate, or, with respect to book-entry shares, on the stock ledger. Beneficial owners who do not also hold their shares of Company common stock of record may not directly make appraisal demands to Company. The beneficial holder must, in such cases, have the owner of record, such as a broker, bank or other nominee, submit the required demand in respect of those shares of Company common stock. If shares of Company common stock are owned of record in a fiduciary capacity, such as by a trustee, guardian or custodian, execution of a demand for appraisal should be made by or for the fiduciary. If the shares of Company common stock are owned of record by more than one person, as in a joint tenancy or tenancy in common, the demand should be executed by or for all joint owners. An authorized agent, including an authorized agent for two or more joint owners, may execute the demand for appraisal for a stockholder of record; however, the agent must identify the record owner or owners and expressly disclose the fact that, in executing the demand, he or she is acting as agent for the record owner. A record owner, such as a broker, who holds shares of Company common stock as a nominee for others, may demand his or her right of appraisal with respect to the shares of Company common stock held for one or more beneficial owners, while not exercising this right for other beneficial owners. In that case, the written demand should state the number of shares of Company common stock as to which appraisal is sought. Where no number of shares of Company common stock is expressly mentioned, the demand will be presumed to cover all shares of Company common stock held in the name of the record owner.

If you hold your shares of Company common stock in a brokerage account or in other nominee form and you wish to demand appraisal rights, you should consult with your broker or the other nominee to determine the appropriate procedures for the making of a demand for appraisal by the nominee.

If a stockholder who demands appraisal under Delaware law fails to perfect, or effectively withdraws or loses his or her rights to appraisal as provided under Delaware law, each share of Company common stock held by such stockholder will be deemed to have been converted at the effective time into the right to receive the per share merger consideration, without interest thereon, less any withholding taxes. A stockholder may withdraw his or her demand for appraisal and agree to accept the per share merger consideration by delivering to Company a written withdrawal of his or her demand for appraisal and acceptance of the per share merger consideration within 60 days after the effective time (or thereafter with the consent of the surviving corporation). Notwithstanding the foregoing, no appraisal proceeding in the Delaware Court of Chancery will be dismissed as to any stockholder without the approval of the Delaware Court of Chancery, and such approval may be conditioned upon such terms as the Court deems just; provided, however, that any stockholder who has not commenced an appraisal action or joined that proceeding as a named party may withdraw his or her demand for appraisal and agree to accept the per share merger consideration offered within 60 days after the effective time.

Within 10 days after the effective time, the surviving corporation will notify each stockholder who properly demanded appraisal rights under Section 262 of the DGCL and has not voted for the adoption of the merger agreement of the effective time. Within 120 days after the effective time, but not thereafter, either the surviving corporation, or any stockholder who has complied with the requirements of Section 262 of the DGCL and who is otherwise entitled to appraisal rights, may file a petition in the Delaware Court of Chancery demanding a determination of the fair value of the shares of Company common stock held by all stockholders entitled to appraisal. A person who is the beneficial owner of shares of Company common stock held in a voting trust or by a nominee on behalf of such person may, in such person's own name, file the petition described in the previous sentence. Upon the filing of the petition by a stockholder, service of a copy of such petition shall be made upon the surviving corporation. The surviving corporation has no obligation to file such a petition in the event there are stockholders that have demanded their appraisal rights. Accordingly, the failure of a stockholder to file such a petition within the period specified could nullify the stockholder's previously written demand for appraisal. Stockholders seeking to exercise appraisal rights should not assume that the surviving corporation will file such a petition or that it will initiate any negotiations with respect to the fair value of such shares of Company common stock. Accordingly, stockholders who desire to have their shares of Company common stock appraised should initiate any petitions necessary for the perfection of their appraisal rights within the time periods and in the manner prescribed in Section 262 of the DGCL.

The costs of the appraisal action may be determined by the Delaware Court of Chancery and made payable by the parties as the Court deems equitable. The Court also may order that all or a portion of the expenses incurred by any stockholder in connection with an appraisal, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and the fees and expenses of experts utilized in the appraisal proceeding, be charged pro rata against the value of all of the shares entitled to appraisal.

If a petition for appraisal is duly filed by a stockholder and a copy of the petition is delivered to the surviving corporation, the surviving corporation will then be obligated, within 20 days after receiving service of a copy of the petition, to provide the Delaware Court of Chancery with a duly verified list containing the names and addresses of all stockholders who have demanded an appraisal of their shares of Company common stock and with whom agreements as to the value of their shares of Company common stock have not been reached by the surviving corporation. After notice to stockholders who demanded appraisal of their shares of Company common stock, the Delaware Court of Chancery is empowered to conduct a hearing upon the petition, and to determine those stockholders who have complied with Section 262 of the DGCL and who have become entitled to the appraisal rights provided thereby. The Delaware Court of Chancery may require the stockholders who have demanded appraisal for their shares of Company common stock to submit their stock certificates to the Register in Chancery for notation thereon of the pendency of the appraisal proceedings; and if any stockholder fails to comply with that direction, the Delaware Court of Chancery may dismiss the proceedings as to that stockholder.

Within 120 days after the effective time, any stockholder (including any beneficial owner of shares entitled to appraisal rights) that has complied with the requirements for demand of appraisal rights will be entitled, upon written request, to receive from the surviving corporation a statement setting forth the aggregate number of shares of Company common stock not voted in favor of the merger and with respect to which demands for appraisal have been timely received and the aggregate number of holders of those shares. These statements must be mailed to the stockholder within 10 days after a written request by such stockholder for the information has been received by the surviving corporation, or within 10 days after expiration of the period for delivery of demands for appraisal under Section 262 of the DGCL, whichever is later.

After determination of the stockholders entitled to appraisal of their shares of Company common stock, the Delaware Court of Chancery will appraise the shares of Company common stock, determining their fair value exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger, together with interest, if any. Unless the Delaware Court of Chancery in its discretion determines otherwise for good cause shown, interest from the effective time through the date of payment of the judgment shall be compounded quarterly and shall accrue at 5% over the Federal Reserve discount rate (including any surcharge) as established from time to time during the period between the effective time and the date of payment of the judgment. When the value is determined, the Delaware Court of Chancery will direct the payment of such value, with interest thereon accrued during the pendency of the proceeding, if the Delaware Court of Chancery so determines, to the stockholders entitled to receive the same, upon surrender by such stockholders of their certificates and book-entry shares.

In determining the fair value of the shares of Company common stock, the Delaware Court of Chancery is required to take into account all relevant factors. Accordingly, such determination could be based upon considerations other than, or in addition to, the market value of the shares of Company common stock, including, among other things, asset values and earning capacity. In Weinberger v. UOP, Inc., the Delaware Supreme Court stated, among other things, that proof of value by any techniques or methods which are generally considered acceptable in the financial community and otherwise admissible in court should be considered in an appraisal proceeding. The surviving corporation may argue in an appraisal proceeding that, for purposes of such a proceeding, the fair value of the shares of Company common stock is less than the per share merger consideration. Therefore, the value so determined in any appraisal proceeding could be the same as, or more or less than, the per share merger consideration. Stockholders considering appraisal should be aware that an investment banking opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration payable in a sale transaction, such as the merger, is not an opinion as to, and does not otherwise address, fair value under Section 262 of the DGCL.

Section 262 of the DGCL provides that fair value is to be exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the mergers. In Cede & Co. v. Technicolor, Inc., the Delaware Supreme Court stated that such exclusion is a narrow exclusion [that] does not encompass known elements of value, but which rather applies only to the speculative elements of value arising from such accomplishment or expectation. In Weinberger, the Delaware Supreme Court construed Section 262 of the DGCL to mean that elements of future value, including the nature of the enterprise, which are known or susceptible of proof as of the date of the mergers and not the product of speculation, may be considered. In view of the complexity of Section 262 of the DGCL, stockholders who may wish to dissent from the merger and pursue appraisal rights should consult their legal advisors.

Any Company stockholder who has duly demanded and perfected an appraisal in compliance with Section 262 of the DGCL will not, after the effective time, be entitled to vote his or her shares for any purpose or be entitled to the payment of dividends or other distributions thereon, except dividends or other distributions payable to holders of record of shares of Company common stock as of a date prior to the effective time.

If you desire to demand your appraisal rights, you must not vote for the adoption of the merger agreement, and you must strictly comply with the procedures set forth in Section 262 of the DGCL.

Failure to take any required step in connection with the demand of appraisal rights will result in the termination or waiver of such rights.

STOCKHOLDER PROPOSALS

If the merger is completed, we will no longer have public stockholders and there will be no public participation in any future meetings of our stockholders. However, if the merger is not completed, our stockholders will continue to be entitled to attend and to participate in our stockholders' meetings. We intend to hold an annual stockholders' meeting only if the merger is not completed, or if we are required to do so by our bylaws or applicable law. If the 2016 annual meeting of stockholders is held, stockholder proposals will be eligible for consideration for inclusion in the proxy statement and form of proxy for the Company's 2016 annual meeting of stockholders in accordance with Rule 14a-8 under the Exchange Act and the Company's by-laws, as described below.

Proposals to be Included in our Proxy Materials

In order for a stockholder proposal to be considered for inclusion in our proxy materials for our 2016 annual meeting of stockholders, the written proposal must have been received by our Secretary at our principal executive offices on or before December 28, 2015. In addition, stockholder proposals must otherwise comply with the requirements of Rule 14a-8 of the Exchange Act, including the SEC regulations under Rule 14a-8. The timely submission of a stockholder proposal does not guarantee that it will be included in our proxy materials for the 2016 annual meeting of stockholders.

Other Proposals and Nominations

Our by-laws establish advance notice procedures that a stockholder must comply with in order (i) to nominate persons for election to the Board at an annual meeting of stockholders or (ii) to bring other items of business before an annual meeting of stockholders that will not be included in our proxy materials pursuant to Rule 14a-8.

Our by-laws provide that the only business that may be conducted at an annual meeting of stockholders is business that is (1) specified in the notice of the meeting given by or at the direction of the Board, (2) brought before the meeting by or at the direction of the Board, or (3) otherwise properly brought before the meeting by a stockholder who (a) was a stockholder of record both when such stockholder gave such notice and at the time of the annual meeting, (b) is entitled to vote at the annual meeting, and (c) complies with the notice procedures in our by-laws by delivering timely written notice to our corporate secretary, which notice must contain the information specified in our by-laws concerning the matters to be brought before such annual meeting and concerning the stockholder making the proposal. These by-law requirements are separate from the SEC requirements under Rule 14a-8 that a stockholder must comply with in order to have a stockholder proposal included in our proxy statement.

These advance notice procedures of our by-laws require that, among other things, notice of a stockholder proposal of an item of business not intended to be included in our proxy statement must be submitted by a stockholder in writing to and received by our Secretary not less than 90 days nor more than 120 days prior to the one year anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting, unless the date of the annual meeting is more than 30 days before or after the anniversary of the date of the preceding annual meeting, in which case we must receive the notice not later than 90 days before the date of the annual meeting or, if later, 10 days following the date on which public disclosure of the date of the annual meeting is first made. For stockholder proposals to be timely for our 2016 annual meeting, a stockholder must deliver written notice to our corporate secretary at our principal executive offices not earlier than February 11, 2016 and not later than March 14, 2016. However, if the date of our 2016 annual meeting is changed by more than 30 days from the anniversary date of the 2015 Annual Meeting, then the notice of the stockholder proposal must be received not later than 90 days before the date of the 2016 annual meeting or, if later, 10 days following the date on which public announcement of the date of the 2016 annual meeting is first made.

In addition, our by-laws permit stockholders to nominate directors for election at an annual meeting of stockholders. To nominate a director, a stockholder must give timely notice of such nomination to our Secretary at our principal executive offices, which notice must contain the information specified in our by-laws concerning the person to be nominated as a director and concerning the stockholder making the nomination. To be timely, such notice must be received by our Secretary within the time period described in the paragraph above for stockholder proposals not intended to be included in our proxy statement. In addition, the proposed nominee must be willing to provide any other information reasonably requested by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee of the Board.

Only such business may be conducted at an annual meeting of stockholders as shall have been properly brought before the annual meeting in accordance with the procedures set forth in the advance notice provisions of our by-laws. The chairman of our 2016 annual meeting will have the discretion to determine if a nomination or another item of business proposed by a stockholder has been proposed in accordance with the procedures set forth in our by-laws, and if not, declare that the nomination or other item of business be disregarded. Only nominations for director and proposals of other items of business submitted in accordance with the advance notice provisions of our by-laws will be eligible for presentation at our 2016 annual meeting, and any matter not submitted in accordance with such provisions will not be considered or acted upon at our 2016 annual meeting.

A copy of the relevant provisions of our by-laws regarding the requirements for making stockholder proposals and nominating director candidates may be obtained by a stockholder, without charge, upon written request to our corporate secretary at our principal executive offices.

Notice and Other Information

All notices of nominations for director and proposals of other items of business by stockholders, whether or not to be included in our proxy materials, must be sent to us as follows:

PowerSecure International, Inc.

Attention: Secretary

Any stockholder proposal or director nomination must also comply with all other applicable provisions of our Second Restated Certificate of Incorporation and our by-laws, the Exchange Act (including the rules and regulations under the Exchange Act), and Delaware law. We reserve the right to reject, rule out of order or take other appropriate action with respect to any proposal or nomination that does not comply with these and other applicable requirements. If we do not exclude the proposal, then the persons appointed as proxies in the proxy card solicited by the Board for the 2016 annual meeting may exercise discretionary voting authority to vote in accordance with their best judgment on any proposal submitted outside of Rule 14a-8.

RECITALS

A. The Board of Directors of the Company (the Company Board), the Board of Directors of Parent (the Parent Board) and the Board of Directors of Merger Sub have determined that it is in the best interests of their respective companies and stockholders to consummate the transactions provided for in this Agreement in which Merger Sub will, on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, merge with and into the Company (the Merger), with the Company being the surviving corporation in the Merger.

B. The Parties desire to make or enter into certain representations, warranties and covenants in connection with the Merger and also to prescribe certain conditions to the Merger.

The Company, Parent and Merger Sub hereby agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

THE MERGER

Section 1.1 The Merger. On the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, and in accordance with the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (the DGCL), Merger Sub will be merged with and into the Company at the Effective Time. At the Effective Time, the separate corporate existence of Merger Sub will cease, and the Company will continue as the surviving corporation (the Surviving Corporation) and will succeed to and assume all the rights and obligations of Merger Sub in accordance with the DGCL.

Section 1.2 Closing. The closing (the Closing) of the Merger will take place at the offices of Jones Day, 1420 Peachtree Street, N.E., Suite 800, Atlanta, Georgia 30309 at 10:00 a.m. local time on the second Business Day following the satisfaction or, to the extent permitted by Law, waiver of the conditions set forth in Article VII (other than those conditions that by their terms are to be satisfied at the Closing, but subject to the satisfaction or, to the extent permitted by Law, waiver of those conditions at Closing), unless another time, date or place is agreed to in writing by the Parties. The date on which the Closing occurs is referred to in this Agreement as the Closing Date.

Section 1.3 Effective Time. On the Closing Date, Parent, Merger Sub and the Company will cause to be filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware a certificate of merger or other appropriate documents (collectively, the Certificate of Merger) executed in accordance with the relevant provisions of the DGCL and will make all other filings or recordings required under the DGCL in connection with the Merger. The Merger will become effective at such time as the Certificate of Merger is duly filed with such Secretary of State, or at such other time as Parent and the Company will agree and specify in the Certificate of Merger (the time the Merger becomes effective being the Effective Time).

Section 1.4 Effects. The Merger will have the effects provided in this Agreement and in the applicable provisions of the DGCL.

Table of Contents

All shares that have been converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration will be automatically cancelled and cease to exist. Except as set forth in Section 1.5(b), as a result of the Merger, each holder of a certificate or certificates that immediately prior to the Effective Time represented outstanding Shares (Certificates) and each holder of Shares outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time that are not represented by Certificates (Book-Entry Shares) will thereafter cease to have any rights with respect to such Shares except the right to receive the Merger Consideration, to be paid, without interest, in consideration therefor upon surrender of such Certificate or Book-Entry Shares in accordance with Section 2.1(b) (or in the case of a lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate, Section 2.1(h)).

(a) At the Effective Time, the Company Charter will, by virtue of the Merger, be amended and restated to read in its entirety as set forth on Exhibit A, and as so amended and restated will be the certificate of incorporation of the Surviving Corporation until thereafter amended in accordance with the DGCL.

(b) At the Effective Time, the Company Bylaws will, by virtue of the Merger, be amended and restated to read in their entirety as the Merger Sub Bylaws as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time, and as so amended and restated will be the bylaws of the Surviving Corporation, until thereafter amended in accordance with the DGCL.

Section 1.7 Directors. ARTICLE II

DELIVERY OF MERGER CONSIDERATION

Section 2.1 Exchange of Shares.

(a) Exchange Agent. Prior to the Effective Time, Parent will designate a commercial bank or trust company reasonably acceptable to the Company to act as agent (the Exchange Agent) for the purpose of exchanging Shares for the Merger Consideration and enter into an agreement with the Exchange Agent relating to the services to be performed by the Exchange Agent. Parent will deposit or will cause to be deposited with the Exchange Agent at or prior to the Effective Time, cash in an amount sufficient to pay the Merger Consideration pursuant to Section 1.5(a) (the Exchange Fund). The Exchange Fund will be invested by the Exchange Agent as directed by Parent. Any interest or other income from such investments will be paid to and become income of Parent. Except as contemplated by Section 2.1(d), the Exchange Fund will not be used for any purpose other than as specified in this Section 2.1(a). To the extent that there are losses with respect to any investments made by the Exchange Agent of the Exchange Fund, Parent shall promptly replace or restore the cash in the Exchange Fund to ensure that the Exchange Fund is at all times maintained at a level sufficient for the Exchange Agent to promptly pay the Merger Consideration.

(b) Exchange Procedures.

(i) As promptly as practicable after the Effective Time, and in any event not later than the second Business Day after the Effective Time, Parent will cause the Exchange Agent to mail to each Person who was, at the Effective Time, a holder of record of Shares entitled to receive the Merger Consideration pursuant to Section 1.5(a): (A) a letter of transmittal in customary form and containing such provisions as Parent may reasonably specify (including a provision confirming that delivery will be effected, and risk of loss and title will pass, only upon proper delivery of the Certificates to the Exchange Agent or, in the case of Book-Entry Shares, upon adherence to the procedures set forth in the letter of transmittal), and (B) instructions for use in effecting the surrender of such holder's Certificates or Book-Entry Shares in exchange for payment of the Merger Consideration issuable and payable in respect thereof pursuant to such letter of transmittal. Exchange of any Book-Entry Shares will be effected in accordance with the Exchange Agent's customary procedures with respect to securities represented by book entry.

(ii) Upon surrender of a Certificate or Book-Entry Share to the Exchange Agent for exchange, together with a duly executed letter of transmittal and such other documents as may be reasonably required by the Exchange Agent or Parent, the holder of such Shares will be entitled to receive in exchange for such properly surrendered Shares an amount in cash equal to the product of (A) the number of Shares represented by such holder's properly surrendered Certificates and Book-Entry Shares and (B) the Merger Consideration.

(c) No Further Rights in Company Common Stock. All Merger Consideration paid upon surrender of Certificates or transfer of Book-Entry Shares in accordance with the terms of this Article II will be deemed to have been paid, as the case may be, in full satisfaction of all rights pertaining to the Shares formerly represented by such Certificates or Book-Entry Shares.

(d) Adjustments. If at any time during the period between the date of this Agreement and the Effective Time, any change in the outstanding shares of capital stock of the Company will occur as a result of any reclassification, recapitalization, stock split (including a reverse stock split) or combination, exchange or readjustment of shares, or any stock dividend or stock distribution with a record date during such period, the Merger Consideration will be equitably adjusted to reflect such change.

(e) Termination of Exchange Fund. Any portion of the Exchange Fund (including proceeds of any investment thereof) that remains undistributed to the holders of Shares on the date that is one year after the Effective Time will be delivered to Parent, upon demand, and any holders of Shares who have not theretofore complied with this Article II will thereafter look only to Parent for the Merger Consideration to which they are entitled pursuant to Section 1.5(a).

(f) No Liability. None of the Exchange Agent, Parent or the Surviving Corporation will be liable to any holder of Shares for any Merger Consideration from the Exchange Fund or other cash delivered to a public official pursuant to any abandoned property, escheat or similar Law. Any portion of the Exchange Fund remaining unclaimed by holders of Shares as of a date that is immediately prior to such time as such amounts would otherwise escheat to or become property of any Governmental Entity will, to the extent permitted by applicable Law, become the property of Parent free and clear of any claims or interest of any Person previously entitled thereto.

(g) Withholding Rights. Each of the Surviving Corporation, the Exchange Agent, Parent and Merger Sub will be entitled to deduct and withhold from any amounts otherwise payable pursuant to this Agreement such amount as it is required to deduct and withhold with respect to the making of such payment under the Code, the Treasury Regulations, any provision of applicable state, local or foreign Tax Law or any other Law. To the extent that amounts are so withheld and timely paid over to the appropriate taxing authority, such withheld amounts will be treated for purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the Person in respect of which such deduction and withholding was made.

(h) Lost Certificates. In the event that any Certificate will have been lost, stolen or destroyed, the Exchange Agent will issue in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the holder thereof, the Merger Consideration; except that Parent may, in its reasonable discretion and as a condition precedent to the payment of such Merger Consideration, require the owner of such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate to deliver a bond in such sum as it may reasonably direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against Parent, Merger Sub, the Surviving Corporation or the Exchange Agent with respect to the Certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

Section 2.2 Stock Transfer Books. At the Effective Time, the stock transfer books of the Company will be closed and there will be no further registration of transfers of Shares thereafter on the records of the Company. On or after the Effective Time, any Certificates or Book-Entry Shares presented to the Exchange Agent or Parent for any reason will be cancelled and exchanged for the Merger Consideration with respect to the Shares formerly represented by such Certificates or Book-Entry Shares to which the holders thereof are entitled pursuant to Section 1.5(a).

Section 2.3 Company Stock Awards.

(a) Company Stock Options. Each option award to purchase Shares granted under the Company Equity Incentive Plans (each, a Company Stock Option) that is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time will be deemed to be fully vested and will be cancelled, with the holder thereof becoming entitled to receive an amount in cash, payable in accordance with Section 2.3(f), equal to the product of (i) the total number of Shares subject to such Company Stock Option as of immediately prior to the Effective Time and (ii) the excess, if any, of (A) the Merger Consideration over (B) the exercise price per Share of such Company Stock Option. Any Company Stock Option with an exercise price greater than the Merger Consideration will be cancelled at the Effective Time for no consideration.

(b) Company Restricted Shares. At the Effective Time, each award of restricted Shares granted under the Company Equity Incentive Plans (each, a Company Restricted Share) that is outstanding as of immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than the Rollover Restricted Shares) will be deemed to be fully vested and will be cancelled, with the holder thereof becoming entitled to receive an amount in cash, payable in accordance with Section 2.3(f), equal to the product of (i) the total number of Shares subject to such award of Company Restricted Shares as of immediately prior

(f) Payment. As soon as reasonably practicable (but in no event later than five Business Days) following the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation will pay the amounts due to the holders of Company Stock Options pursuant to Section 2.3(a), the amounts due to the holders of Company Restricted Shares pursuant to Section 2.3(b), the amounts due to the holders of Company RSUs pursuant to Section 2.3(d) and the amounts due to the holders of Company PSUs in accordance with Section 2.3(e), in each case without interest and subject to any required Tax withholding. (g) Notice. Prior to the Effective Time, the Company will be permitted (but not obligated) to send a written notice in a form reasonably acceptable to Parent to each holder of an outstanding Company Stock Option, Company Restricted Share, Company RSU and Company PSU (the Company Stock Awards) that will inform such holder of the treatment of such awards as provided in this Section 2.3, and otherwise setting forth such holder's rights pursuant to the applicable Company Equity Incentive Plan and equity award agreements.

Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, any Shares that are issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time and are held by a stockholder who is entitled to demand, and properly demands, appraisal of such Shares (each, a Dissenting Stockholder) pursuant to, and who complies in all respects with, the provisions of the DGCL (collectively, the Dissenting Shares) will not be converted into or represent the right to receive the Merger Consideration (except as provided in this Section 2.4) and will entitle such Dissenting Stockholder only to payment of the fair value of such Dissenting Shares as may be determined to be due to the holder of such Dissenting Shares in accordance with the DGCL, unless and until such Dissenting Stockholder effectively waives, withdraws or loses the right to appraisal under the DGCL or is otherwise no longer entitled to the relief provided by the DGCL.
