OO (Limited Liability Company)

- (1) The voting and dispositive power of LinnCo, LLC (LinnCo) is limited by its limited liability company agreement, which provides that LinnCo will submit to a vote of its shareholders any matter submitted by the Issuer to a vote of its unitholders, including any election of the Issuer s directors, and LinnCo will vote units representing limited liability company membership interests in the Issuer (Units) that it holds in the same manner as its shareholders vote (or refrain from voting) their common shares representing limited liability company interests in LinnCo (LinnCo shares).
- (2) Based on 355,228,188 Units outstanding (including unvested restricted units) as of March 18, 2016.

This Amendment No. 1 amends and supplements the Schedule 13D first filed February 24, 2014 (the Original Schedule 13D and, as amended by this Amendment No. 1, this Schedule 13D), and is being filed by LinnCo with respect to Units of the Issuer. Capitalized terms used herein but not defined herein shall have the meanings attributed to them in the Original Schedule 13D, as amended.

Item 2. Identity and Background.

Schedule A is amended and restated in its entirety as attached hereto.

Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration.

Item 3 of the Original Schedule 13D is hereby amended and supplemented with the following:

On March 22, 2016, the board of directors of LinnCo approved the offer to exchange for each outstanding Unit validly tendered and not validly withdrawn in the offer, one LinnCo share (the Exchange Offer). LinnCo estimates that the total amount of cash required to complete the Exchange Offer will be approximately $800,000, which consists of transaction fees and expenses associated with the Exchange Offer. The offer is not conditioned upon any financing arrangements or contingencies.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction

Item 4 of the Original Schedule 13D is hereby amended and supplemented with the following:

On March 22, 2016, LinnCo commenced the Exchange Offer. The purpose of the Exchange Offer is to permit holders of Units to maintain their economic interest in the Issuer through LinnCo, an entity that is taxed as a corporation rather than a partnership, which may allow unitholders of the Issuer to avoid future allocations of taxable income and loss, including cancellation of indebtedness income (CODI), that could result from future debt restructurings or other strategic transactions by the Issuer. Because the Issuer is treated as a partnership for federal and all relevant state income tax purposes, all items of income, gain, loss, deduction and credit of the Issuer are treated as items of income, gain, loss, deduction and credit allocated directly to unitholders of the Issuer and reported on such unitholders' separate returns. LinnCo is treated as a corporation for federal and all relevant state income tax purposes and all items of income, gain, loss, deduction and credit of LinnCo are reported on LinnCo's separate income tax return and are not allocated to LinnCo's shareholders. As a result, unitholders of the Issuer generally benefit from owning Units when there is income and profits at the Issuer because such income and profits are not taxed at a corporate level and all of the Issuer's deductions are allocated directly to unitholders of the Issuer, potentially offsetting any allocation of income. However, under distressed economic and business circumstances, similar to what the Issuer is currently experiencing, unitholders of the Issuer may be exposed to disadvantageous tax consequences through the ownership of Units in the event the Issuer's debt is restructured or in the event of any other strategic transaction resulting in CODI. For example, to the extent that the Issuer realizes CODI from future debt restructurings or other strategic transactions, that income will be directly allocated to its unitholders and reported on such unitholders' separate returns. Conversely, to the extent such CODI is allocated to LinnCo, which is taxed as a corporation, such income would not be allocated to LinnCo's shareholders but would instead be reported on LinnCo's separate return.

The consummation of the Exchange Offer may result in one or more of the actions specified in clauses (a) through (j) of Item 4 of this Schedule 13D.

Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer.

Item 5(a) of the Original Schedule 13D is hereby amended and restated as follows:

Edgar Filing: LINN ENERGY, LLC - Form SC 13D/A

The Reporting Person is the record and beneficial owner of 128,544,174 Units, which represents 36% of the outstanding Units of the Issuer, based on 355,228,188 Units outstanding (including unvested restricted units) as of March 18, 2016.

In addition, as of the date of this Schedule 13D, based on LinnCo's review of public filings made with the SEC, certain of the Covered Individuals beneficially own the number and percentage of Units set forth in the following table:
