Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On June 30, 2016, New Residential Investment Corp. (the Company), NRZ Advance Receivables Trust 2015-ON1 (an indirect subsidiary of the Company, the Issuer), HLSS Holdings, LLC (an indirect subsidiary of the Company, the Sponsor), Deutsche Bank National Trust Company, Ocwen Loan Servicing, LLC (Ocwen) and Credit Suisse AG, New York Branch entered into a securitization transaction pursuant to which the Issuer issued $400,000,000 of rated receivables-backed term notes (the Series 2016-T1 Notes).

The Series 2016-T1 Notes are secured by receivables for corporate and escrow advances made by Ocwen, principal and interest advances made by Ocwen and accrued and unpaid servicing fees payable to Ocwen under certain identified securitization servicing agreements (the Underlying Servicing Agreements). The collateral securing the Series 2016-T1 Notes cross-collateralizes five other series of outstanding notes previously issued by the Issuer.

The Series 2016-T1 Notes bear fixed interest, varying by class, ranging from 2.7511% to 5.7670% per annum. The revolving period for the Series 2016-T1 Notes ends on June 15, 2019. If the Series 2016-T1 Notes are still outstanding at the end of the revolving period, the Issuer will be required to repay one-twelfth of the remaining principal balance of the Series 2016-T1 Notes each month until the principal balance of the Series 2016-T1 Notes is paid in full.

The events of default and target amortization events under the Series 2016-T1 Notes include customary events such as: (i) failing an interest coverage test; (ii) failing a collateral performance test; (ii) failing to deliver certain reports; (iii) material breaches of transaction documents beyond applicable cure periods; (iv) nonpayment of principal, interest or other amounts when due; (v) insolvency of Ocwen, the Sponsor or the subsidiaries of the Sponsor party to the transaction documents; (vi) the Issuer becoming subject to registration as an investment company within the meaning of the 1940 Act; and (vii) Ocwen or the Sponsor failing to comply with the deposit and remittance requirements under any Underlying Servicing Agreements.

Upon the occurrence of an event of default or a target amortization event in respect of the Series 2016-T1 Notes, the Issuer may be subject to any or all of (i) an interest rate increase on the notes, (ii) an amortization of all or a portion of the notes or (iii) an acceleration of principal repayment.

Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an event of default in respect of the Series 2016-T1 Notes, the holders of the requisite percentage of all of the notes issued by the Issuer may declare the notes and all other obligations of the applicable issuer immediately due and payable, other than a bankruptcy event of default, which automatically causes such obligations to become immediately due and payable and the termination of any funding commitments.

The definitive documents related to the Series 2016-T1 Notes contain customary representations and warranties, as well as affirmative and negative covenants. Affirmative covenants include, among others, reporting, providing of notices of material events, maintaining books and records, complying with laws, complying with covenants under the Underlying Servicing Agreements and maintaining certain servicing standards with respect to the advances and the related mortgage loans. Negative covenants include, among others, limitations on amendments to the Underlying Servicing Agreements and limitations on amendments to the procedures and methodology for reimbursing advances or determining that advances have become non-recoverable.

The Series 2016-T1 Notes were issued by the Issuer under a base indenture dated as of August 28, 2015 and a related series indenture supplement dated as of June 30, 2016. In connection with the issuance of the Series 2016-T1 Notes, the Sponsor, the Issuer, Ocwen and other parties entered into an amendment to such base indenture to clarify language related to certain permitted amendments to such base indenture.

Item 2.03 Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant.

The information contained in Item 1.01 concerning the Issuer's direct financial obligations under the notes is hereby incorporated herein by reference.

Item 9.01 Financial Statements and Exhibits.
