NITCHES, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES

Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements

1. Description of Business

Nitches, Inc. (the Company) is a wholesale importer and distributor of clothing manufactured to its specifications and distributed in the United States under Company brand labels and private retailer labels. The Company's product lines include women's sleepwear and western wear, men's casual wear and men's and women's performance apparel.

2. Condensed Financial Statements:

The accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the instructions to Form 10-Q. They do not include all information and footnotes necessary for a fair presentation of financial position and results of operations and cash flows in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America. These consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and related notes contained in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended August 31, 2003. In the opinion of Management, all adjustments considered necessary for a fair presentation have been included in the interim period. Operating results for the three months ended November 30, 2003 are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the year ending August 31, 2004.

3. Earnings Per share:

At November 30, 2003, there were no stock options or similar instruments outstanding and therefore no dilutive effect to the number of shares outstanding.

4. Inventories:

	November 30, 2003	August 31, 2003
Fabric and trim	$1,045,000	$ 320,000
Work in progress	1,506,000	1,254,000
Finished goods	2,320,000	3,400,000
	$4,871,000	$4,974,000

5. Trade accounts receivable:

Pursuant to the terms of an agreement between Nitches and a factor, Nitches sells a majority of its trade accounts receivable to the factor on a pre-approved, non-recourse basis. The price at which the accounts are sold is the invoice amount reduced by the factor commission (.3% of the invoice amount) and all selling discounts. For accounts sold to the factor without recourse, the factor is responsible for collection, assumes all credit risk, and obtains all of the rights and remedies against the company's customers. For such accounts, payment is due from the factor upon the earlier of the payment of the receivable to the factor by the customer, or the maturity of the receivable (generally 180 days from the date of shipment to the customer). As of November 30, 2003, non-recourse receivables totaled $4,829,000.

Edgar Filing: NITCHES INC - Form 10-Q

Trade accounts receivable not sold to the factor remain in the custody and control of the Company and the Company maintains all credit risk on those accounts as well as accounts which are sold to the factor with recourse. The combined credit risk for non-factored and recourse receivables as of November 30, 2003, totaled $304,000.

The Company may request payment from the factor in advance of the collection date or maturity. Any such advance payments are assessed an interest charge through the collection date or maturity at the factor's prime rate less 1.5% (one and one half percent) per annum. The company's obligations with respect to advances from the factor are limited to the interest charges thereon. Advance payments are limited to a maximum of 85% (eighty-five percent) of eligible accounts receivable. The factoring agreement also provides for the issuance of irrevocable letters of credit for the Company's purchase of inventory in the normal course of its business. Letters of credit are subject to a $6 million limit. All assets of the company collateralize the advances and letters of credit. The Company's Chairman has also provided a personal guaranty in connection with the factoring arrangement.

Contingent liabilities for irrevocable letters of credit	$ 3,357,000	$ 2,401,000

6. Dividends:

The Company did not pay any dividends during the current period. During fiscal 2003 the Company declared and paid dividends of $.30 per share.

7. Significant Customers:

Sales to two separate customers, Kohl's and Mervyn's, accounted for 50.0% and 13.7% respectively of the Company's net sales in the three months ended November 30, 2003. By comparison, sales to three separate customers (Kohl's, Mervyn's and Sears) accounted for 31.0%, 26.9% and 24.2%, respectively, of the Company's net sales in the three months ended November 30, 2002.

Three customers, Kohl's, Mervyn's and Sears, accounted for 48.6%, 16.8% and 11.0% respectively of the Company's trade receivable balance as of November 30, 2003. By comparison, three customers (Kohl's, Sears and Mervyn's) accounted for 36.0%, 29.2% and 27.4% respectively of the Company's trade receivable balance at November 30, 2002.

8. Equity Investment:

In October 2002 the Company acquired a 28% interest in Designer Intimates, Inc., which owns 100% of NAP, Inc., a New York-based intimate apparel company. Designer Intimates had acquired NAP from its founders and obtained a credit line of approximately $12 million from HSBC, secured by the inventory and accounts receivable of NAP and the guarantees of shareholders of Designer Intimates. Nitches guaranteed $3 million of this credit line and this guarantee formed the consideration from Nitches for its 28% ownership interest in Designer Intimates. Nitches reports any income or loss from the ongoing operation of Designer Intimates using the equity method of accounting, whereby Nitches 28% interest in Designer Intimates is reported as a single line item on the Consolidated Statement of Income. For the three months ended November 30, 2003, the Company recognized $468,000 in income from the unconsolidated subsidiary. This income is reported net of tax and is not taxable to the Company. For that same period, Designer Intimates had net income of $1,667,000 on sales of $37.1 million.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Revenue Recognition. The Company recognizes revenue at the time products are shipped based on its terms of F.O.B. shipping point, where risk of loss and title transfer to the buyer at time of shipment. The Company records sales in accordance with SEC Staff Accounting Bulletin No. 101, Revenue Recognition in Financial Statements. Under these guidelines, revenue is recognized when all of the following exist: persuasive evidence of a sale arrangement exists, delivery of the product has occurred, the price is fixed or determinable and payment is reasonably assured. Provisions are made currently for estimated product returns and sales allowances.

Allowances for Sales Returns, Doubtful Accounts and Other. Sales are recorded net of estimated future returns, uncollectible accounts receivable and other customer related allowances. Management analyzes historical returns and bad debt expense, current economic trends, changes in customer demand and sell-through of our products when evaluating the adequacy of these allowances. In addition, the Company may provide warehousing credits and other allowances to certain customers in accordance with industry practice. These reserves are determined based on historical experience, budgeted customer allowances and existing commitments to customers. Although management believes it has established adequate reserves with respect to these items, actual activity could vary from management's estimates and such variances could have a material impact on reported results. At November 30, 2003, trade accounts receivable balance was $1.5 million, net of allowances of $243,000, as compared to the balance of $900,000, net of allowances of $549,000 at August 31, 2003. At November 30, 2002, the trade accounts receivable balance was $4.0 million, net of allowances for doubtful accounts of $522,000.

Inventory. The Company marks down its inventory for estimated obsolescence or unmarketable inventory equal to the difference between the cost of inventory and the estimated net realizable value based on assumptions about age of the inventory, future demand and market conditions. This process provides for a new basis for the inventory until it is sold. If actual market conditions are less favorable than those projected by management, additional inventory markdowns may be required. The Company's inventory balance was $4.9 million, net of inventory markdowns of $142,000 at November 30, 2003, as compared to an inventory balance of $5.0 million, net of inventory markdowns of $140,000, at August 31, 2003. At November 30, 2002, the inventory balance was $3.3 million, net of inventory markdowns of $88,000.

Results of Operations

Three Months Ended November 30, 2003 Compared to the Three Months Ended November 30, 2002

Net sales for the three months ended November 30, 2003, decreased approximately $3.7 million as compared to the three months ended November 30, 2002. This was attributable to a decrease in unit sales in the Company's sleepwear product line.

Cost of sales as a percent of net sales declined 7.0%, generating a higher gross profit margin of 25.5% for the three months ended November 30, 2003 as compared to 18.5% for the year earlier period. The increase in gross margin came as the result of reduced unit costs in the Company's sleepwear line. The Company's product mix constantly changes to reflect customer mix, fashion trends and changing seasons. Consequently, gross margin is likely to vary on a quarter-to-quarter basis and in comparison to gross margins generated in the same period of prior fiscal years.

Selling, general and administrative expenses for the first quarter of fiscal 2004 declined $115,000 as compared to a year ago, due to a decrease in salaries and warehouse expenses in line with the reduced sales volume. Expenses included $603,000 of selling and merchandising expenses and $277,000 of shipping and warehousing expenses. This compares with $487,000 of selling and merchandising expenses and $390,000 of shipping and warehousing expenses incurred during the quarter ended November 30, 2002. Expenses increased as a percent of net sales to 24.8% from 17.3% in the year earlier period, due to the decrease in net sales.

Interest expense decreased $18,000 in the current quarter to $11,000 as compared to $29,000 for the three months ended November 30, 2002. This decline was due to the lower interest rate charged on advances made under the Company's factoring agreement due to a lower prime interest rate, as well as reduced borrowings.

The Company's income tax provision for the three months ended November 30, 2003, reflects a $13,000 tax expense accrued at an estimated 39% tax rate on the Company's pretax income for the quarter of $34,000, which is net of the income from the unconsolidated subsidiary. For the three months ended November 30, 2002, the Company's income tax provision reflects the effect of $41,000 accrued tax expense at the 39% estimated rate less the elimination of a deferred tax reserve in the amount of $109,000, for a net tax benefit of $68,000.

Equity Investment

In October 2002 the Company acquired a 28% interest in Designer Intimates, Inc., which owns 100% of NAP, Inc., a New York-based intimate apparel company. Designer Intimates had acquired NAP from its founders and obtained a credit line of approximately $12 million from HSBC, secured by the inventory and accounts receivable of NAP and the guarantees of shareholders of Designer Intimates. Nitches guaranteed $3 million of this credit line and this guarantee formed the consideration from Nitches for its 28% ownership interest in Designer Intimates. Nitches reports any income or loss from the ongoing operation of Designer Intimates using the equity method of accounting, whereby Nitches 28% interest in Designer Intimates is reported as a single line item on the Consolidated Statement of Income. For September through November, the Company recognized $468,000 in income from the unconsolidated subsidiary. This income is reported net of tax and is not taxable to the

Edgar Filing: NITCHES INC - Form 10-Q

Company. For that same period, Designer Intimates had net income of $1,667,000 on sales of $37.1 million.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Working capital remained at $5.0 million at November 30, 2003 versus $5.0 million at August 31, 2003. However, the current ratio decreased to 3.3:1 at November 30, 2003 from 3.9:1 at August 31, 2003. At November 30, 2003, the Company's net trade receivables balance was $1.5 million, an increase of $600,000 from the receivables balance at August 31, 2003. This increase was due to an increase in sales in the current period offset partially by an increase in advances from the factor.

Inventories decreased 2.0% to $4.9 million at November 30, 2003, from $5.0 million at August 31, 2003, primarily due to the decline in sales of the Company's sleepwear line. The Company believes that its current inventory mix and amounts, combined with inventory markdown reserves (see Critical Accounting Policies), are appropriate to respond to anticipated market demand.

The Company sells substantially all of its trade receivables to a factor (HSBC) on a pre-approved, non-recourse basis. The Company attempts to make any recourse shipments on a COD basis or ensure that the customers' payments are backed by a commercial or standby letter of credit issued by the customers' bank. The amount of the Company's receivables that were recourse and were not made on a COD basis or supported by commercial or standby letters of credit at November 30, 2003 was approximately $304,000, of which approximately $87,000 had been collected through December 19, 2003.

Payment for non-recourse factored receivables is made at the time customers make payment to HSBC or, if a customer is financially unable to make payment, within approximately 180 days of the invoice due date. Under the factoring agreement, the Company can request advances in anticipation of customer collections at HSBC's prime rate (currently 4.0%) less one and one-half percent (1.5%). The amount of advances available to the Company is limited to eighty-five percent (85%) of non-recourse factored receivables.

The Company may also issue letters of credit through HSBC for the purchase of inventory in the normal course of its operations. Letters of credit are subjected to a limit of $6 million. At November 30, 2003, the Company had outstanding letters of credit of approximately $3.4 million for the purchase of finished goods, which had been opened through HSBC.

The factoring agreement does not contain any financial covenants to which the Company must adhere. Advances are collateralized by all of the assets of the Company as well as a personal guaranty of the Company's Chairman. The factoring agreement can be terminated by HSBC on 30-days written notice. The company believes the factoring agreement with HSBC, along with expected cash flow from operating activities and current levels of working capital are adequate to fulfill the Company's liquidity needs for the foreseeable future.

Total obligations & commitments	$6,597,000	$3,564,000	$33,000	$3,000,000	$

Inventory

In its ordinary course of operations, the Company generally makes some sales below its normal selling prices or below cost. Based on prior experience, management believes this will be true for some inventory held on or acquired after November 30, 2003. The amount of such sales depends on several factors, including general economic conditions, market conditions within the apparel industry, the desirability of the styles held in inventory and competitive pressures from other garment suppliers.

The Company's inventory decreased from $5.0 million at August 31, 2003 to $4.9 million at November 30, 2003. This slight decrease of $100,000 was due to a decline in sleepwear inventory offset by an increase in menswear inventory. The Company has established an inventory markdown reserve as of November 30, 2003, which management believes will be sufficient for current inventory that is expected to sell below cost in the future. There can be no assurance that the Company will realize its expected selling prices, or that the inventory markdown reserve will be adequate, for items in inventory as of November 30, 2003 for which customer sales orders have not yet been received. The inventory markdown reserve is calculated based on specific identification of aged goods and styles that are slow-moving or selling off-price.

Backlog

The Company had unfilled customer orders of $15.3 million at November 30, 2003 compared to $7.9 million at November 30, 2002, with such orders generally scheduled for delivery by May 2004 and May 2003, respectively. The increase of $7.4 million is due to an increase in orders for the Company's menswear line, offset partially by a decrease in orders for the Company's sleepwear line. The amount of unfilled orders at any given time is affected by a number of factors, including the timing of the receipt and processing of customer orders and the scheduling of the manufacture and shipping of the product, which may be dependent on customer requirements.

Backlog amounts include both confirmed orders and unconfirmed orders that the Company believes, based on industry practice and past experience, will be confirmed. While cancellations, rejections and returns have generally not been material in the past, there can be no assurance that such action by customers will not reduce the amount of sales realized from the backlog of orders at November 30, 2003.

Impact of Exchange Rates

While the Company purchases over 90% of its products from foreign manufacturers, all of its purchases are denominated in United States dollars. Because the Company's products are sold primarily in the United States, in dollar denominated transactions, the Company does not engage in hedging or other arbitrage to reduce currency risk. An increase in the value of the dollar versus foreign currencies could enhance the Company's purchasing power for new purchase orders and reduce its cost of goods sold. Conversely, a decrease in the value of the dollar relative to foreign currencies could result in an increase in the Company's cost of manufacturing for new purchase orders and costs of goods sold.

Impact of Inflation and Deflation

Management does not believe that inflation has had any material impact upon the Company's revenues or income from operations to date. The apparel sector in which the Company operates has been in a period of deflation, contrary to the modest inflation experienced in the economy in general. The persistence of the consumer to buy on sale merchandise has put pressure on retail gross margins, which in turn has led to downward pressure from retailers on wholesale gross margins, in the form of selling cost adjustments taken as deductions against invoices issued by the Company. In the apparel industry, these are commonly referred to as markdown allowances or chargebacks. Without a corresponding decrease in fabric and labor prices, these markdown allowances have led to a decline in wholesale gross margins. Management believes these deflationary pressures will continue into the foreseeable future.

Future Operating Results

Business conditions in the apparel sector continue to be characterized by weak consumer demand and discounting of merchandise by retailers to encourage sales. In general, retailers have to sell more units in order to achieve sales equal to last year. In light of this continuing trend and the mixed indicators regarding the health of the broader economy, the Company does not expect significant improvement in business conditions in the apparel sector for the remainder of the current fiscal year.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures

As of November 30, 2003 the Chief Executive and Financial Officer evaluated the effectiveness of the design and operation of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures pursuant to Exchange Act Rule 13a-14. Based upon that evaluation, he concluded that the disclosure controls and procedures of the Company are effective in timely alerting of the material information required to be included in the periodic filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission and that the information required to be disclosed in these filings is recorded, processed, summarized, and reported within the time periods specified in the rules and forms of the Commission.

There have been no significant changes in the Company's internal controls or in other factors that could significantly affect internal controls subsequent to the date of this evaluation.

Cautionary Statement under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995

Statements in the quarterly report on Form 10-Q under the caption Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations, as well as oral statements that may be made by the Company or by officers, directors or employees of the Company acting on the Company's behalf, that are not historical fact constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. Forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks and uncertainties that may cause the Company's actual results in future periods to differ materially from forecasted results. Those risks include a softening of retailer or consumer acceptance of the Company's products, pricing pressures and other competitive forces, or unanticipated loss of a major customer. In addition, the Company's business, operations and financial condition are subject to reports and statements filed from time to time with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
