Item 8.01 Other Events

On May 18, 2009, the Registrant was served with notice of a complaint filed on May 15, 2009 by T-Mobile USA, Inc. ("T-Mobile") against the Registrant's subsidiary, IDT Domestic Telecom, Inc. ("Domestic Telecom"), in the Superior Court of the State of Washington, King County. The complaint alleges that Domestic Telecom breached a Wholesale Supply Agreement entered into between T-Mobile and Domestic Telecom in February 2005, as amended, by failing to purchase at least $75 million in services from T-Mobile (T-Mobile claims that Domestic Telecom purchased only approximately $31 million of services). T-Mobile is seeking monetary damages, including interest and costs, in an amount to be determined at trial. The Registrant believes that its subsidiary has valid defenses to T-Mobile's allegations and intends to defend the action vigorously and pursue all avenues of redress to reach a fair result.

This Current Report on Form 8-K, contains forward-looking statements made pursuant to the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements typically are identified by use of terms such as "may," "will," "should," "plan," "expect," "anticipate," "estimate" and similar words, although some forward-looking statements are expressed differently. While these forward-looking statements represent our current judgment of what may happen in the future, actual results may differ materially from the results expressed or implied by these statements due to numerous important factors, including, but not limited to, those described in our most recent report on SEC Form 10-K (under the headings "Risk Factors" and "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations"), which may be revised or supplemented in subsequent reports on SEC Forms 10-Q and 8-K. We are under no obligation, and expressly disclaim any obligation, to update the forward-looking statements in this Current Report on Form 8-K, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
