Dear Fellow Hormel Shareholders,

Copied below is the independent recommendation recently made by the proxy services group Institutional Shareholder Services (ISS) to vote in favor of the proposal filed by The Humane Society of the United States regarding Hormel's use of gestation confinement crates. ISS' full report is available upon request.

As well, though not included here, Glass Lewis & Co. has also issued a report recommending a vote in favor of the proposal.

Thank you for your consideration of this information.

Sincerely,

Matthew Prescott, Food Policy Director
The Humane Society of the United States

From the ISS report:

Item 4. Report on the Risks Associated with Use of Gestation Crates in Supply Chain

FOR

VOTE RECOMMENDATION

A vote FOR this resolution is warranted because:

- The company does not provide information about how it is evaluating and managing potential risks related to the evolving animal housing standards and practices; and
- The proposal does not appear to be unduly burdensome or overly prescriptive.
