SPECIAL NOTE REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

In this annual report, references to “CoroWare,” “the Company,” “we,” “us,” and “our” refer to CoroWare, Inc.

This Annual Report on Form 10-K contains forward-looking statements regarding our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects. Words such as "expects," "anticipates," "intends," "plans," "believes," "seeks," "estimates" and similar expressions or variations of such words are intended to identify forward-looking statements, but are not deemed to represent an all-inclusive means of identifying forward-looking statements as denoted in this Annual Report on Form 10-K. Additionally, statements concerning future matters are forward-looking statements.

Although forward-looking statements in this Annual Report on Form 10-K reflect the good faith judgment of our management, such statements can only be based on facts and factors currently known by us. Consequently, forward-looking statements are inherently subject to risks and uncertainties and actual results and outcomes may differ materially from the results and outcomes discussed in or anticipated by the forward-looking statements. Factors that could cause or contribute to such differences in results and outcomes include, without limitation, those specifically addressed under the heading "Risks Related to Our Business" below, as well as those discussed elsewhere in this Annual Report on Form 10-K. Readers are urged not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date of this Annual Report on Form 10-K.

CoroWare undertakes no obligation to revise or update any forward-looking statements in order to reflect any event or circumstance that may arise after the date of this Annual Report on Form 10-K, except as required by law. Readers are urged to carefully review and consider the various disclosures made throughout this Annual Report, which are designed to advise interested parties of the risk factors that may affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

PART I

ITEM 1. BUSINESS

Overview

CoroWare, Inc. (“CWI” or, collectively with its subsidiaries, the “Company”) is a public holding company whose principal subsidiary, CoroWare Technologies, Inc. (“CTI”), has expertise in information technology consulting, mobile robotics, and Internet of Things (“IOT”). Through our subsidiary, the Company delivers custom engineering services, hardware and software products.

Employees

As of December 31, 2015, we had forty-four (44) employees comprised of one (1) full-time Officer and CEO, two (2) full-time finance administration persons, one (1) full-time human resources person, thirty-two (32) full-time employees delivering services, and eight (8) part-time employees delivering services. Our employees are not represented by a union. We consider relations with our employees to be positive and productive.

COROWARE TECHNOLOGIES, INC.

CTI is a software professional services company with a strong focus on information technology integration and robotics integration, business automation solutions, and unmanned systems solutions to its customers in North America and Europe.

CTI’s consulting staff members uses their experience to develop product specifications, project plans, marketing plans, workflow checklists, and perform their work with the objective of helping enterprise customers - such as Microsoft - deliver their solutions and products efficiently, affordably and on schedule.

CTI service model includes R&D engineering services; business process workflow; software architecture, design and development; content management; and marketing coordination and management. CTI’s revenues are principally derived from standing contracts with customers whose product development groups require custom software development and consulting companies. Existing contract revenues vary month by month based on the demands of the clients.

CTI’s enhanced collaboration and conferencing subscription services were discontinued in fiscal year 2015 as the Company focused its resources on its growing software professional services business.

COROWARE ROBOTICS SOLUTIONS, INC.

In fiscal year 2015, the Company created a new subsidiary, CoroWare Robotics Solutions, Inc. (“CRS”). CRS is a technology incubation company whose focus is on the delivery of mobile robotics and IOT products, solutions and services for university, government and corporate researchers, and enterprise customers.

In December 2015, we reorganized CRS by establishing operations in Bellevue, Washington and Phoenix, Arizona, and focused our efforts on developing and delivering solutions based on the CoroBot Spark platform.

Regulation

Our services and products are not uniquely subject to governmental or industry regulations.

Research & Development

Our research and development activities have primarily been focused on the development of software components, mobile robot platforms and IOT solutions.

Products

CoroBot Classic:

CoroBot Classic was created to minimize the complexity of robot development. By combining a powerful PC-class platform with a robust, object-oriented software development system, the CoroBot Classic empowers users to rapidly deploy and develop robotic solutions. The CoroBot Classic also assists the hardware developer with additional physical mounting space, ports, sensors and communication devices.

CoroBot Spark:

CoroBot Spark is an open and state-of-the-art mobile robotics platform that is based on the Raspberry Pi™ 2 Model B embedded computer and the CoroBot Pi Hat™ embedded controller card, and will support the development of mobile applications that run on both Linux and Windows 10 operating systems. The CoroBot Spark platform will include open and cross-platform application programming interfaces that support the development of mobile robot applications.

ITEM 1A. RISK FACTORS

As a smaller reporting company, as defined in Rule 12b-2 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”), we are not required to provide the information required by this item.

ITEM 1B. UNRESOLVED STAFF COMMENTS

As a smaller reporting company, as defined in Rule 12b-2 of the Exchange Act, we are not required to provide the information required by this item.

ITEM 2. PROPERTIES

Corporate Offices

On June 1, 2015 and October 1, 2015, the Company entered into lease agreements on two corporate offices located at 14777 NE 40th Street, Bellevue, WA. Under this lease for a period of 1 year, the Company is obligated to pay an average monthly rent of $3,000 per month.

Our main corporate mailing address is 601 108th Avenue Northeast, Suite 1900, Bellevue, WA 98004.

ITEM 3. LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

We are party to two pending legal proceedings that arose in the normal course of business. While the results of proceedings cannot be predicted with certainty, management believes that the final outcome of these proceedings should not have a material adverse effect on our consolidated financial statements, and should not adversely affect our cash flows. None of our directors, officers or affiliates is involved in a proceeding adverse to our business or has a material interest adverse to our business.

ITEM 4. MINE SAFETY DISCLOSURES

Prices of Common Stock

Beginning in February 2002, CoroWare's common stock was eligible for listing in the OTC Bulletin Board. Our trading symbol was "SRMW" until such time as our acquisition of Hy-Tech Technology Group, Inc. on January 31, 2003, when our symbol became "HYTT". In November 2006, our name was changed to Innova Robotics & Automation, Inc., and the trading symbol was changed to INRA. In April 2008, we became CoroWare, Inc. and our trading symbol was changed to CROE. In April 2009, in conjunction with a 1-for-300 reverse stock split, our trading symbol was changed to COWI. In January 2012, we revised the par value of our Common Stock from $0.001 to $0.0001. In July 2013, we effected a reverse split of 1-for-200. In January 2014, we effected a reverse split of 1-for-200.

Our common stock is quoted on the OTCQB exchange under the symbol "COWI". Accordingly, there can be no assurance as to the liquidity of any markets that may develop for our common stock, the ability of holders of our common stock to sell our common stock, or the prices at which holders may be able to sell our common stock.

The following table sets forth the quarterly high and low sales prices as reported during the last two fiscal years ended December 31, 2015, and December 31, 2014.

These quotations represent interdealer prices, without retail markup, markdown, or commission, and may not reflect actual transactions. As of May 23, 2016 there were approximately 226 record holders of the Company's common stock.

Dividend Policy

The Company has never declared or paid any cash dividends on its common stock. The Company anticipates that any earnings will be retained for development and expansion of its business and does not anticipate paying any cash dividends in the foreseeable future. Additionally, as of December 31, 2015 and 2014, the Company has issued and has outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock, which are entitled, prior to the declaration of any dividends on common stock, to earn a 5 percent dividend, payable in either cash or common stock of the Company. The Board of Directors has sole discretion to declare dividends based on the Company's financial condition, results of operations, capital requirements, contractual obligations and other relevant factors. At December 31, 2015 and 2014, there were cumulative undeclared dividends to Preferred Series B shareholders of $15,969 and $15,969, respectively, the obligation for which is contingent on declaration by the board of directors. At December 31, 2015 and 2014, there were accrued unpaid dividends of $15,969 and $15,969, respectively. These balances have been recorded as part of accounts payable and accrued expenses.

ITEM 6. SELECTED FINANCIAL DATA

As a smaller reporting company, as defined in Rule 12-b-2 of the Exchange Act, we are not required to provide the information required by this item.

ITEM 7. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

PLAN OF OPERATION

We believe that CoroWare is well positioned for stable growth in Fiscal Year 2016, principally through continued growth of our CoroWare Business Solutions group.

The Business Consulting Services group anticipates growing its revenues by delivering consulting services to its long-term clients – including Microsoft – such as R&D engineering; business process workflow; software architecture, design and development; content management; and marketing coordination and management.

The Robotics & Automation group is in the process of reestablishing its market presence by providing custom engineering solutions and services to clients who are developing innovative software services, solutions and products that leverage our expertise in “Internet of Things”.

We shall continue to grow an investor relations program that has already helped the Company communicate more effectively and actively with CoroWare shareholders, and generate greater awareness of CoroWare and our services, solutions and products.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

During the year ended December 31, 2015 (the "2015 Period"), revenues were $5,461,238 compared to revenues of $1,943,729 during the year ended December 31, 2014 (the "2014 Period"), an increase of $3,517,509 or 181.0%. Revenues in the 2015 Period were higher compared to the 2014 Period as the Company intensified its focus on selling R&D support, operations support, and marketing support services in the 2015 Period.

Cost of goods sold was $4,369,390 and $1,480,228 for the 2015 Period and the 2014 Period, respectively, and increase of $2,889,162 or 195.2%. Cost of goods sold primarily represents labor and labor-related costs in addition to overhead costs. The increased cost of goods sold was principally due to the higher cost of delivering these services due to increased labor expenses. The Company began to reorganize its Robotics & Automation team at the end of the 2014 Period in order to improve profitability in the upcoming fiscal year

Gross profits increased to $1,091,848 during the 2015 Period compared to $463,501 during the 2014 Period, an increase of $628,347 or 135.6%. Gross profits increased during the 2015 Period as a result of gross revenues increased. The gross profit percentage in the 2015 Period was 20% compared to 24% in the 2014 Period. The decrease in gross profit percentage relates to the higher cost of delivering these services due to increased labor expenses, along with weaker sales of our Robotics & Automation products and services.

Operating expenses were $1,086,438 for the 2015 Period compared to $2,585,036 for the 2014 Period, a decrease of $1,498,598 or 58.0%. General and administrative expenses amounted to $850,285 during the 2015 Period compared to $2,379,736 for the 2014 period, and represented mostly labor and related compensation costs, legal and professional fees, outside services, travel expenses, rental expense and related office expenses. Sales and marketing expenses were $81,463 for the 2015 Period compared to $86,380 for the 2014 Period. Research and developments costs totaled $146,284 for the 2015 Period compared to $106,842 during the 2014 Period. Depreciation and amortization costs were $8,406 for the 2015 period compared to $12,078 for the 2014 Period. The overall decrease in operating expenses was due to the Company writing off accounts payable and accrued expenses that have been outstanding for over six years.

Income (loss) from operations was $5,410 for the 2015 Period compared to $(2,121,535) for the 2014 period, and increase of $2,126,945 or 100.3%. The increase in income from operations in the 2015 Period was due primarily to a significant decrease in general and administrative expenses, along with a modest increase in gross profit.

Other expenses was $2,312,806 during the 2015 Period compared to other expense of $5,816,861 in the 2014 Period, a decrease of $3,504,055 or 60.2%. Other expenses is comprised primarily of gain/loss on derivative, amortization of debt discount, deferred finance costs, accrued interest on notes payable, and loss on extinguishment of debt. The change in derivative liabilities for the 2015 Period was $1,196,257 compared to $3,709,967 for the 2014 Period, a decrease of $2,513,710 or 67.8%. The embedded conversion features associated with our convertible debentures are valued based on the number of shares that are indexed to that liability. Keeping the number of shares constant, the liability associated with the embedded conversion features increases as our share price increases and, likewise, decreases when our share price decreases. Derivative income (expense) displays the inverse relationship. Interest expense, net for the 2015 Period was $944,410 compared to $1,110,281 for the 2014 Period, a decrease of $165,871 or 14.9%. The Company also recognized a $172,139 loss on extinguishment of debt during the 2015 Period compared to $990,282 in the 2014 Period, a decrease of $818,143 or 82.6%. The decrease in interest expense is principally a result of a decrease in the amount of debt discount that was amortized and derivative valuations in excess of debt discount amounts. The debt discount is being amortized using the effective interest method. Under this method, the amount of amortization decreases exponentially as the underlying carrying value of the amortized debt decreases.

Net loss for the 2015 Period was $2,307,396 compared to net loss of $7,939,101 for the 2014 Period, a decrease of $5,631,705 or 70.9%.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

During the 2015 Period net cash provided by operating activities was $186,135, compared to net cash used in operating activities of $(73,354) for the 2014 Period. This increase for the 2015 Period was primarily due to a decrease in net loss, a decrease in derivative expense, a decrease in stock issued for services and compensation, and a decrease in accounts payable and accrued expenses.

During the 2015 Period, we used $20,915 net cash from investing activities compared to $16,963 for the 2014 Period, exclusively for purchases of property and equipment.

During the 2015 Period, the Company had used $93,843 in cash from financing activities compared to net cash provided by financing activities of $117,996 for the 2014 Period. This increased use of cash for financing activities was primarily due to payments made towards debt financings in the 2015 Period.

At December 31, 2015, we had current assets of $284,936, current liabilities of $19,873,447, a working capital deficit of $19,588,511 and an accumulated deficit of $51,950,675.

At December 31, 2014, we had current assets of $99,161, current liabilities of $17,445,882, a working capital deficit of $17,346,721 and an accumulated deficit of $49,643,279.

We presently do not have any available credit, bank financing or other external sources of liquidity. We will need to obtain additional capital in order to expand operations and become profitable. In order to obtain capital, we may need to sell additional shares of our common stock or borrow funds from private lenders. There can be no assurance that we will be successful in obtaining additional funding. We will still need additional capital in order to continue operations until we are able to achieve positive operating cash flow. Additional capital is being sought, but we cannot guarantee that we will be able to obtain such investments. Financing transactions may include the issuance of equity or debt securities, obtaining credit facilities, or other financing mechanisms. However, even if we are able to raise the funds required, it is possible that we could incur unexpected costs and expenses, fail to collect significant amounts owed to us, or experience unexpected cash requirements that would force us to seek alternative financing. Furthermore, if we issue additional equity or debt securities, stockholders may experience additional dilution or the new equity securities may have rights, preferences or privileges senior to those of existing holders of our common stock. If additional financing is not available or is not available on acceptable terms, we will have to curtail our operations.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The consolidated financial statements and notes included in our quarterly and annual financial statements contain information that is pertinent to this management's discussion and analysis. The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires us to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of our assets and liabilities, and affect the disclosure of any contingent assets and liabilities. We believe these accounting policies involve judgment due to the sensitivity of the methods, assumptions, and estimates necessary in determining the related asset and liability amounts. The significant accounting policies are described in the notes to our financial statements and notes included elsewhere in this Form 10-K.

Revenue Recognition

We derive our software system integration services revenue from short-duration, time and material contracts. Generally, such contracts provide for an hourly-rate and a stipulated maximum fee. Revenue is recorded only on executed arrangements as time is incurred on the project and as materials, which are insignificant to the total contract value, are expended. Revenue is not recognized in cases where customer acceptance of the work product is necessary, unless sufficient work has been performed to ascertain that the performance specifications are being met and the customer acknowledges that such performance specifications are being met. We periodically review contractual performance and estimate future performance requirements. Losses on contracts are recorded when estimable. No contractual losses were identified during the periods presented.

We recognize revenue for our software and software professional services when persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists, delivery has occurred, the sales price is fixed or determinable and collectability is probable. Product sales are recognized by us generally at the time product is shipped. Shipping and handling costs are included in cost of goods sold.

We account for arrangements that contain multiple elements in accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) Accounting Standards Codification (“ASC”) 605-25, Revenue Recognition, Multiple Element Arrangements. When elements such as hardware, software and consulting services are contained in a single arrangement, or in related arrangements with the same customer, we allocate revenue to each element based on its relative fair value, provided that such element meets the criteria for treatment as a separate unit of accounting. The price charged when the element is sold separately generally determines fair value. In the absence of fair value for a delivered element, we allocate revenue first to the fair value of the underlying elements and allocate the residual revenue to the delivered elements. In the absence of fair value for an undelivered element, the arrangement is accounted for as a single unit of accounting, resulting in a delay of revenue recognition for the delivered elements until the undelivered elements are fulfilled. We limit the amount of revenue recognition for delivered elements to the amount that is not contingent on future delivery of products or services or subject to customer-specified return or refund privileges.

We recognize revenue from the sale of manufacturer’s maintenance and extended warranty contracts in accordance with FASB ASC 605-45, Revenue Recognition, Principal Agent Considerations, net of its costs of purchasing the related contracts.

Share-based payment

Stock based compensation expense is recorded in accordance with FASB ASC 718, Compensation – Stock Compensation, for stock and stock options awarded in return for services rendered. The expense is measured at the grant-date fair value of the award and recognized as compensation expense on a straight line basis over the service period, which is the vesting period. We estimate forfeitures that we expect will occur and record expense based upon the number of awards expected to vest.

For the year ended December 31, 2014, the Company issued Series E Preferred Shares valued at $475,608 for employee incentive payments and vendor payments.

Derivative Financial Instruments

Derivative financial instruments, as defined in FASB ASC 815, Derivatives and Hedging (“ASC 815”), consist of financial instruments or other contracts that contain a notional amount and one or more underlying variables (e.g. interest rate, security price or other variable), require no initial net investment and permit net settlement. The caption Derivative Liability consists of (i) the fair values associated with derivative features embedded in various convertible note financings and (ii) the fair values of the detachable warrants that were issued in connection with those financing arrangements.

We generally do not use derivative financial instruments to hedge exposures to cash-flow, market or foreign-currency risks. However, we have entered into certain other financial instruments and contracts, such as debt financing arrangements and freestanding warrants with features that are either (i) not afforded equity classification, (ii) embody risks not clearly and closely related to host contracts, or (iii) may be net-cash settled by the counterparty. As required by ASC 815, these instruments are required to be carried as derivative liabilities, at fair value, in our financial statements.

We estimate fair values of derivative financial instruments using various techniques (and combinations thereof) that are considered to be consistent with the objective of measuring fair values. In selecting the appropriate technique, we consider, among other factors, the nature of the instrument, the market risks that it embodies and the expected means of settlement. For less complex derivative instruments, such as free-standing warrants, we generally use the Black-Scholes-Merton option valuation technique because it embodies all of the requisite assumptions (including trading volatility, estimated terms and risk free rates) necessary to value these instruments. For complex derivative instruments, such as embedded conversion options, we generally use the Flexible Monte Carlo valuation technique because it embodies all of the requisite assumptions (including credit risk, interest-rate risk and exercise/conversion behaviors) that are necessary to value these more complex instruments. Estimating fair values of derivative financial instruments requires the development of significant and subjective estimates that may, and are likely to, change over the duration of the instrument with related changes in internal and external market factors. In addition, option-based techniques are highly volatile and sensitive to changes in the trading market price of our common stock, which has a high-historical volatility. Since derivative financial instruments are initially and subsequently carried at fair values, our income will reflect the volatility in these estimate and assumption changes.

Recent Financing Transactions

Notes Payable

In January 2015 and February 2015, the Company entered into two short-term notes with LoanMe due on February 1, 2017 and March 1, 2017, respectively, whereby the Company received $18,500 in total cash proceeds, and $1,500 went directly towards indirect expenses, totaling $20,000 in principal due. These notes were paid in full in February 2015 and July 2015, along with $828 and $6,066 of interest expense, respectively.

As of December 31, 2015 and 2014 the Company had an aggregate total of $153,732 and $154,732, respectively, in notes payable. These notes bear interest at rates ranging from 5% per annum to 41.6% per annum. As of December 31, 2015, all notes payable were in default. Accrued interest on notes payable totaled $244,632 and $197,181 at December 31, 2015 and 2014, respectively.

Convertible Notes Payable

On January 7, 2015, the Company borrowed $20,625 from LG, of which $4,125 was an original issue discount. The note accrues simple interest at a rate of 12% per annum and is due on January 7, 2016, with a default simple interest rate of 24%. Pursuant to the terms of the note, the principal balance and accrued interest is convertible at the option of the note holder into shares of the Company's common stock at a rate of 45% of the lowest closing price during the 20-day trading period prior to, and including the date of, conversion. This note is currently in default.

On March 12, 2015 the Company entered into two Convertible Note Agreements with Cariou totaling $188,356 ($94,178 each) for settlement of compensation owed as well as penalties and interest. The note calls for 24% compounded interest through the maturity date of September 12, 2015 with a default compounded interest rate of 29%. The principal balance and accrued interest are convertible into shares of the Company's common stock at a conversion rate of the average of the five trading days prior to the applicable conversion date, with the number of conversion shares multiplied by 115%. These notes are currently in default.

As of December 31, 2015 and 2014 the Company had an aggregate principal balance total of $2,937,593 and $2,778,560, respectively, in convertible notes payable. These notes bear interest at rates ranging from 0% per annum to 36% per annum. As of December 31, 2015, all convertible notes payable, except for one, were in default. Accrued interest on convertible notes payable totaled $2,846,312 and $2,481,427 at December 31, 2015 and 2014, respectively.

Obligations Collateralized by Receivables

On May 27, 2015, the Company entered into an accounts receivable financing arrangement with Expansion Capital for a principal amount received in cash of $130,000. The terms of the arrangement requires the Company to repay the principal balance plus an additional $52,080 in debt discounts for total remittance of $182,080. The terms of repayment require the Company to remit to the lender approximately 35% of all future receivables arising from credit card, debit card and prepaid transactions until such time as the total remittance is paid in full. This borrowing is secured by the assets of the Company. The additional $52,080 will be recognized as interest expense over the estimated term of the agreement. The term is not fixed due to the variable repayment terms; however, management currently estimates such terms to be between approximately two and eight months. This borrowing was paid off in full during the year ended December 31, 2015.

On July 16, 2015, the Company entered into an accounts receivable financing arrangement with Knight Capital for a principal amount received in cash of $173,500. repayment require the Company to remit to the lender approximately 30% of all future receivables arising from credit card, debit card and prepaid transactions until such time as the total remittance is paid in full. This borrowing is secured by the assets of the Company. The additional $52,050 will be recognized as interest expense over the estimated term of the agreement. The term is not fixed due to the variable repayment terms; however, management currently estimates such terms to be between approximately two and eight months. The ending principal balance of this borrowing at December 31, 2015 was $85,018 (net of debt discount of $27,320).

On July 31, 2015, the Company entered into an accounts receivable financing arrangement with High Speed Capital for a principal amount received in cash of $85,000. The terms of the arrangement requires the Company to repay the principal balance plus an additional $39,950 in debt discounts for total remittance of $124,950. The terms of repayment require the Company to remit to the lender approximately 47% of all future receivables arising from credit card, debit card and prepaid transactions until such time as the total remittance is paid in full. This borrowing is secured by the assets of the Company. The additional $39,950 will be recognized as interest expense over the estimated term of the agreement. The term is not fixed due to the variable repayment terms; however, management currently estimates such terms to be between approximately two and eight months. The ending principal balance of this borrowing at December 31, 2015 was $37,683 (net of debt discount of $16,698).

On August 17, 2015, the Company entered into an accounts receivable financing arrangement with QuickFix Capital for a principal amount received in cash of $70,000. The terms of the arrangement requires the Company to repay the principal balance plus an additional $32,200 in debt discounts for total remittance of $102,200. The terms of repayment require the Company to remit to the lender approximately 46% of all future receivables arising from credit card, debit card and prepaid transactions until such time as the total remittance is paid in full. This borrowing is secured by the assets of the Company. The additional $32,200 will be recognized as interest expense over the estimated term of the agreement. The term is not fixed due to the variable repayment terms; however, management currently estimates such terms to be between approximately two and eight months. The ending principal balance of this borrowing at December 31, 2015 was $73,907 (net of debt discount of $25,577).

On August 18, 2015, the Company entered into an accounts receivable financing arrangement with PowerUp Lending Group, Ltd. for a principal amount received in cash of $150,000. The terms of the arrangement requires the Company to repay the principal balance plus an additional $45,000 in debt discounts for total remittance of $195,000. The terms of repayment require the Company to remit to the lender approximately 39% of all future receivables arising from credit card, debit card and prepaid transactions until such time as the total remittance is paid in full. This borrowing is secured by the assets of the Company. The additional $45,000 will be recognized as interest expense over the estimated term of the agreement. The term is not fixed due to the variable repayment terms; however, management currently estimates such terms to be between approximately two and eight months. The ending principal balance of this borrowing at December 31, 2015 was $46,224 (net of debt discount of $14,020).

OFF-BALANCE SHEET ARRANGEMENTS

We do not have any off-balance sheet arrangements that are reasonably likely to have a current or future effect on our financial condition, revenues, results of operations, liquidity, or capital expenditures.

ITEM 8. CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

All financial information required by this Item is attached hereto at the end of this report beginning on page F-1 and is hereby incorporated by reference.

ITEM 9. CHANGES IN AND DISAGREEMENTS WITH ACCOUNTANTS ON ACCOUNTING AND FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE

None.

ITEM 9A. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures

As of the end of the period covered by this annual report on Form 10-K, management performed, with the participation of our Chief Executive Officer and our interim Chief Financial Officer, an evaluation of the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) of the Exchange Act). Based on the evaluation and the identification of the material weaknesses in internal control over financial reporting described below our Chief Executive Officer and our interim Chief Financial Officer concluded that, as of December 31, 2015, our disclosure controls and procedures were not effective in ensuring that information required to be disclosed by us in the reports filed or submitted by us under the Exchange Act is (i) recorded, processed, summarized and reported, within the time periods specified in the Commission's rules and forms and (ii) accumulated and communicated to our management, including our principal executive and financial officers, or persons performing similar functions, as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

Management's Report on Internal Control over Financial Reporting

Our management is responsible for establishing and maintaining adequate internal control over financial reporting (as defined in Rule 13a-15(f) and 15d-15(f) promulgated under the Exchange Act.) Internal control over financial reporting is a process designed by, or under the supervision of, the company's principal executive officer and principal financial officer and effected by an entity's board of directors, management and other personnel, to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of consolidated financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and includes those policies and procedures that:

pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the entity; provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the entity are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the entity; and provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use or disposition of the entity's assets that could have a material effect on its consolidated financial statements.

Because of its inherent limitations, internal control over financial reporting may not prevent or detect misstatements. Projections of any evaluation of effectiveness to future periods are subject to the risk that controls may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Under the supervision and with the participation of our Chief Executive Officer and interim Chief Financial Officer, the Company's management conducted an assessment of the effectiveness of our internal control over financial reporting based on the criteria set forth in the Internal Control — Integrated Framework issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations (COSO) of the Treadway Commission.

Based upon this assessment, as of December 31, 2015 the Company's management concluded that there are material weaknesses affecting our internal control over financial reporting and have concluded that our internal control over financial reporting was not effective as of the end of the period covered by this report.

The matters involving internal controls and procedures that our management considers to be material weaknesses under COSO and Commission rules are: (1) lack of a functioning audit committee and lack of independent directors on our board of directors, resulting in potentially ineffective oversight in the establishment and monitoring of required internal controls and procedures; (2) inadequate segregation of duties consistent with control objectives; (3) insufficient written policies and procedures for accounting and financial reporting with respect to the requirements and application of US GAAP and SEC disclosure requirements; and (4) ineffective controls over period end financial disclosure and reporting processes. The aforementioned potential material weaknesses were identified by our interim Chief Financial Officer in connection with the preparation of our financial statements as of December 31, 2015, who communicated the matters to our management and board of directors.

Management believes that the material weaknesses set forth in items (2), (3) and (4) above did not have an effect on our financial results. However, the lack of a functioning audit committee and lack of a majority of independent directors on our board of directors, resulting in potentially ineffective oversight in the establishment and monitoring of required internal controls and procedures, can impact our financial statements.

Attestation Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

This annual report on Form 10-K does not include an attestation report of our independent registered public accounting firm regarding internal control over financial reporting. Management's report was not subject to attestation by our independent registered public accounting firm pursuant to an exemption for non-accelerated filers set forth in Section 989G of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act.

Management's Remediation Initiatives

Although we are unable to meet the standards under COSO because of the limited resources available to a company of our size, we are committed to improving our financial organization. As funds become available, we will undertake to: (1) create a position to segregate duties consistent with control objectives, (2) increase our personnel resources and technical accounting expertise within the accounting function (3) appoint one or more outside directors to our board of directors who shall be appointed to a Company audit committee resulting in a fully functioning audit committee who will undertake the oversight in the establishment and monitoring of required internal controls and procedures; and (4) prepare and implement sufficient written policies and checklists which will set forth procedures for accounting and financial reporting with respect to the requirements and application of US GAAP and SEC disclosure requirements.

We will continue to monitor and evaluate the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures and our internal control over financial reporting on an ongoing basis and are committed to taking further action and implementing additional enhancements or improvements, as necessary and as funds allow. However, because of the inherent limitations in all control systems, no evaluation of controls can provide absolute assurance that misstatements due to error or fraud will not occur or that all control issues and instances of fraud, if any, within the Company have been detected. These inherent limitations include the realities that judgments in decision making can be faulty and that breakdowns can occur because of simple error or mistake. The design of any system of controls is based in part on certain assumptions about the likelihood of future events, and there can be no assurance that any design will succeed in achieving its stated goals under all potential future conditions. Projections of any evaluation of controls effectiveness to future periods are subject to risks.

The implementation of these and other initiatives will be largely contingent on our ability to expand our board of directors and create audit and compensation committees. As we build an independent board-majority, comprised of a number of financial professionals, we anticipate the planning and implementation of internal controls to be expedited and improved.

Changes in Internal Control over Financial Reporting

There were no changes in our internal control over financial reporting during the quarter ended December 31, 2015 that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.

Auditor's Attestation

This annual report does not include an attestation report of the Company's registered public accounting firm regarding internal control over financial reporting. Management's report was not subject to attestation by the Company's registered public accounting firm pursuant to temporary rules of the SEC that permit the Company to provide only management's report in this annual report.

ITEM 9B. OTHER INFORMATION

PART III

ITEM 10. DIRECTORS, EXECUTIVE OFFICERS, AND CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Our directors, principal executive officers and significant employees as of December 31, 2015 are as specified on the following table:

Name	Age	Position
Lloyd Spencer	59	Chief Executive Officer, Interim Chief Financial Officer, Director, Treasurer, Secretary

The principal occupations for each of our current executive officers and directors are as follows:

LLOYD T. SPENCER became our Chief Executive Officer on January 28, 2008, interim Chief Financial Officer on November 17, 2008, and a member of the board of directors and Vice President since September 20, 2007. Beginning in May 2006, Mr. Spencer has served as President and CEO of our subsidiary, CoroWare Technologies, Inc. Beginning in October 2004, Mr. Spencer was co-founder and President of CoroWare, Inc., a Washington State private company that was acquired by Innova Holdings, Inc., which is now known as CoroWare, Inc. From June 2002 to September 2004, Mr. Spencer was Vice President of Sales at Planet Technologies, a systems integration company based in Germantown, MD. From November 1996 to August 2001, Mr. Spencer was Solutions Unit Manager and Group Product Manager at Microsoft in Redmond, Washington. Prior to Microsoft, Mr. Spencer served as Assistant Vice-President and Business Unit Manager at Newbridge Networks; and Product Line Manager at Sun Microsystems. He is an active contributor to the robotics community in the Seattle area through his participation in the Seattle Robotics Society. He is also instrumental in initiating and fostering 4H robotics clubs and programs in Washington State. Mr. Spencer received his Bachelor's degree from Cornell University in 1980 with a major in Biology and Animal Science and with an emphasis in Immunogenetics.

On February 14, 2014, Mr. Lloyd Spencer, Chairman of the Board of Directors, was appointed as Interim Corporate Secretary. Mr. Spencer continues to serve as President and Chief Executive Officer.

Our director will serve until the next annual meeting of stockholders. Our executive officers are appointed by our Board of Directors and serve at the discretion of the Board of Directors.

Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act

Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act requires the Company's officers and directors and persons who beneficially own more than 10% of the Company's common stock (collectively, "Reporting Persons") to file reports of beneficial ownership and changes in beneficial ownership with the SEC. Reporting Persons are required by SEC regulations to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file. We believe that all Reporting Persons complied with all applicable reporting requirements, except for the late filings of Form 3 (Initial Statement of Beneficial Ownership of Securities), and 4 (Statement of Changes of Beneficial Ownership of Securities) filings of Lloyd Spencer and Shanna Gerrard.

CODE OF ETHICS DISCLOSURE COMPLIANCE

CoroWare has adopted a Code of Ethics that applies to our principal executive officer, principal financial officer, principal accounting officer and other employees performing similar functions. The Code of Ethics was revised and updated in 2007 and approved by the board on December 6, 2007. The Code of Ethics is in the investor section of our website at www.coroware.com.

Stock Option Plans

CoroWare's 2005 Stock Option Plan was ratified by the Stockholders of the Corporation at a Special Meeting of the Stockholders on November 3, 2006. The plan is presently administered by our board of directors, which selects the eligible persons to whom options shall be granted, determines the number of common shares subject to each option, the exercise price therefore and the periods during which options are exercisable, interprets the provisions of the plan and, subject to certain limitations, may amend the plan. Each option granted under the plan shall be evidenced by a written agreement between the company and the optionee. Options may be granted to employees (including officers) and directors and certain consultants and advisors. Options granted under the plan are not transferable, except by will and the laws of descent and distribution.

Employment Agreements with Executive Officers

Currently, there is an employment agreement with Lloyd Spencer, CEO and interim CFO of CoroWare, Inc., and President and CEO of CoroWare Technologies, Inc. We entered into a five year employment agreement with Mr. Spencer on May 20, 2006. Under the terms of this agreement, Mr. Spencer is to serve as the President of CoroWare and to provide services as needed. His salary is $150,000 per annum. During 2012, Mr. Spencer reduced his annual salary to $59,541, of which $40,000 was deferred. During 2012, an additional $17,650 was deferred. An annual bonus may be awarded at the discretion of the board of directors. At the inception of the agreement, Mr. Spencer was awarded 16,667 stock options to purchase CoroWare, Inc. common stock at $5.40 per share. These options vest annually over three years and terminate on the tenth anniversary of the date of grant.

ITEM 12. SECURITY OWNERSHIP OF CERTAIN BENEFICIAL OWNERS AND MANAGEMENT AND RELATED STOCKHOLDER MATTERS

The following table sets forth certain information regarding the beneficial ownership of our common stock as of May 23, 2016, by each person or entity known by us to be the beneficial owner of more than 5% of any class of our voting securities, each of our directors and named executive officers, and all of our directors and executive officers as a group. Beneficial ownership has been determined in accordance with Rule 13d-3 of the Exchange Act. Generally, a person is deemed to be the beneficial owner of a security if he has the right to acquire voting or investment power within 60 days.

Percentage ownership in the following table is based on 11,504,431,008 shares of common stock outstanding, 100,000 shares of Series D Convertible Preferred Stock outstanding, and 25,000 shares of Series G Convertible Preferred Stock outstanding as of May 23, 2016. A person is deemed to be the beneficial owner of securities that can be acquired by that person within 60 days from May 23, 2016 upon the exercise of options, warrants or convertible securities, or other rights. Each beneficial owner's percentage ownership is determined by dividing the number of shares beneficially owned by that person by the base number of outstanding shares, increased to reflect the shares underlying options, warrants, convertible securities, or other rights included in that person's holdings, but not those underlying shares held by any other person.

Name and Address of Beneficial Owner	Amount and Nature of Common Stock Beneficial Ownership	Percent of Class
Lloyd Spencer 18529 NE 184 th Street Woodinville, WA 98072	60,606,335	< 1%
Directors and Officers as a Group (1 person)	60,606,335	< 1%

Name of Series D Preferred Stockholder (1)	Number of Series D Preferred Shares held by Stockholder	Number of Votes for each Series D Preferred Share held	Number of Votes held by Series D Preferred Stockholder

Shanna Gerrard	20,000	x 100,000	2,000,000,000
Jared Robert	20,000	x 100,000	2,000,000,000

Name of Series G Preferred Stockholder (2)	Number of Series G Preferred Shares held by Stockholder	Number of Votes for each Series G Preferred Share held	Number of Votes held by Series G Preferred Stockholder
Lloyd Spencer	25,000	x 5,000,000	125,000,000,000

Name of Stockholder	Number of Shares of Common Stock Held	Number of Votes held by Series D Stockholder	Number of Votes held by Series G Stockholder	Total Number of Votes Held by Stockholder	Percentage of the Voting Equity
Lloyd Spencer	60,606,335	6,000,000,000	125,000,000,000	131,060,606,335	89.5%
Shanna Gerrard	5,000	2,000,000,000	-	2,000,005,000	1.4%
Jared Robert	17,299,965	2,000,000,000	-	2,017,299,965	1.4%

- (1) Each share of Series D Convertible Preferred Stock (“Series D Preferred”) has the equivalent of one hundred thousand (100,000) votes of common stock. Currently, there are 3 holders of Series D Preferred Stock, namely Lloyd Spencer (60,000 shares), Shanna Gerrard (20,000 shares) and Jared Robert (20,000 shares) (together, the “Series D Stockholders”), collectively holding 100,000 shares of Series D Preferred.
- (2) Each share of Series G Convertible Preferred Stock (“Series G Preferred”) has the equivalent of five million (5,000,000) votes of common stock. Currently, there is 1 holder of Series G Preferred Stock, namely Lloyd Spencer (25,000 shares), (together, the “Series G Stockholders”), collectively holding 25,000 shares of Series G Preferred, resulting in the Series G Stockholders holding in the aggregate a majority of the total voting power of all issued and outstanding voting shares of the Company.

ITEM 13. CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS AND DIRECTOR INDEPENDENCE

No director, executive officer or nominee for election as a director of our company, and no owner of five percent or more of our outstanding shares or any member of their immediate family has entered into or proposed any transaction in which the amount involved exceeds $60,000 except as set forth below.

We also entered into short-term debt obligations other than in the ordinary course of business. The following table sets forth the pertinent information relating to the obligations:

Lender	Interest Rate	Original Amount of Loan	Outstanding Balance at December 31, 2015	Date of Loan	Due Date
Amy Spencer	18%	$ 50,000	$ 50,000	Jul 3, 2008	Dec 20, 2008
Lloyd Spencer	18%	$ 223,629	$ 116,506	Feb 2 – Aug 14, 2009	Various dates thru Mar 16, 2010

In July 2008, CTI entered into a short-term debt obligation totaling $50,000 with Amy Spencer. The entire balance of the loan plus accrued interest at 1.5% per month was due on December 20, 2008. The note was not paid at maturity and is currently accruing late fees of 0.5% per month in addition to the interest.

During 2009, CoroWare borrowed an aggregate $223,629 from Lloyd Spencer, our CEO and a shareholder. The notes bear interest at 18% and mature on various dates from July 2009 through March 2010. During 2010, the Company made cash payments of $40,018 towards these loans and issued 10,000,000 shares of stock valued at $50,000. All of the remaining notes are currently in default and accruing late fees of 0.5% per month in addition to the interest.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Board of Directors
CoroWare, Inc.

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of CoroWare, Inc. and Subsidiaries (collectively, the “Company”) as of December 31, 2015 and 2014 and the related consolidated statements of operations, stockholders’ deficit and cash flows for the years then ended. These consolidated financial statements are the responsibility of the Company’s management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free of material misstatement. The Company is not required to have, nor were we engaged to perform, an audit of its internal control over financial reporting. Our audits included consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company’s internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2015 and 2014, and the results of their operations and cash flows for the years then ended, in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

The accompanying consolidated financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern. As discussed in Note 4 to the financial statements, the Company had accumulated losses for the period from inception through December 31, 2015 which raises substantial doubt about its ability to continue as a going concern. Management’s plans concerning these matters are also described in Note 4. The consolidated financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

COROWARE, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES
Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

NOTE 3 – SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Presentation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of CoroWare, Inc. and its wholly-owned subsidiaries, CoroWare Technologies, Inc., CoroWare Robotics Solutions, Inc., and Robotic Workspace Technologies, Inc., as well as its 51% interest in ARiCON, LLC (collectively, the “Company”). All significant inter-company balances and transactions have been eliminated in the consolidated financial statements.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. The Company uses all available information and appropriate techniques to develop its estimates. However, actual results could differ from its estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less when purchased as cash equivalents. The Company had no cash equivalents as of December 31, 2015 and 2014. At times throughout the year, the Company might maintain bank balances that may exceed Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (“FDIC”) insured limits. Periodically, the Company evaluates the credit worthiness of the financial institutions, and has not experienced any losses in such accounts. As of December 31, 2015 and 2014, the Company did not have bank balances that exceeded the FDIC insured limits.

Accounts Receivable

The Company’s accounts receivable are exposed to credit risk. During the normal course of business, the Company extends unsecured credit to its customers with normal and traditional trade terms. Typically credit terms require payments to be made by the thirtieth day following the sale. The Company regularly evaluates and monitors the creditworthiness of each customer. The Company provides an allowance for doubtful accounts based on our continuing evaluation of its customers’ credit risk and its overall collection history. The Company had an allowance for doubtful accounts of $11,450 and $2,000 at December 31, 2015 and 2014, respectively.

Inventory

Inventories, which are comprised solely of finished goods, are stated at the lower of cost (based on the first-in, first-out method) or market. The Company provides for estimated losses from obsolete or slow-moving inventories, and writes down the cost of inventory at the time such determinations are made. Reserves are estimated based upon inventory on hand, historical sales activity, industry trends, the business environment and the expected net realizable value. The net realizable value is determined based upon current awareness of market prices.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are recorded at cost. Expenditures for major renewals and improvements are capitalized while expenditures for minor replacements, maintenance and repairs are expensed as incurred. Depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets. Upon retirement or disposal of assets, the accounts are relieved of cost and accumulated depreciation and the related gain or loss, if any, is reflected in loss on disposal of assets in the consolidated statement of income and comprehensive income.

At least annually, the Company evaluates, and adjusts when necessary, the estimated useful lives. The changes in estimated useful lives did not have a material impact on depreciation in any period. The estimated useful lives are:

Leasehold improvements	Remaining term of lease
Furniture and fixtures	5-7 years
Computer equipment and software	3-5 years

Impairment of Long-lived Assets

The Company evaluates the carrying value and recoverability of its long-lived assets when circumstances warrant such evaluation by applying the provisions of Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) Accounting Standards Codification (“ASC”) 360-35, Property, Plant and Equipment, Subsequent Measurement (“ASC 360-35”). ASC 360-35 requires that long-lived assets be reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable through the estimated undiscounted cash flows expected to result from the use and eventual disposition of the assets. Whenever any such impairment exists, an impairment loss will be recognized for the amount by which the carrying value exceeds the fair value.

Income Taxes

Income taxes are computed using the asset and liability method. Under the asset and liability method, deferred income tax assets and liabilities are determined based on the differences between the financial reporting and tax bases of assets and liabilities and are measured using the currently enacted tax rates and laws. A valuation allowance is provided for the amount of deferred tax assets that, based on available evidence, are not expected to be realized. Additionally, taxes are calculated and expensed in accordance with applicable tax code.

Segment Reporting

FASB ASC 280-10, Segment Reporting, defines operating segments as components of a company about which separate financial information is available that is evaluated regularly by the chief decision maker in deciding how to allocate resources and in assessing performance. The Company reports according to one main segment.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The Company follows FASB ASC 820-10-35-37 (“Paragraph 820-10-35-37”) to measure the fair value of its financial instruments and paragraph 825-10-50-10 of the FASB ASC for disclosures about fair value of its financial instruments. Paragraph 820-10-35-37 establishes a framework for measuring fair value in GAAP, and expands disclosures about fair value measurements. To increase consistency and comparability in fair value measurements and related disclosures, Paragraph 820-10-35-37 establishes a fair value hierarchy which prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value into three broad levels. The three levels of fair value hierarchy defined by Paragraph 820-10-35-37 are described below:

- Level 1 Quoted market prices available in active markets for identical assets or liabilities as of the reporting date.
- Level 2 Pricing inputs other than quoted prices in active markets included in Level 1, which are either directly or indirectly observable as of the reporting date.
- Level 3 Pricing inputs that are generally unobservable inputs and not corroborated by market data.

Financial assets are considered Level 3 when their fair values are determined using pricing models, discounted cash flow methodologies or similar techniques and at least one significant model assumption or input is unobservable.

The fair value hierarchy gives the highest priority to quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs. If the inputs used to measure the financial assets and liabilities fall within more than one level described above, the categorization is based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement of the instrument.

The carrying amounts reported in the Company’s consolidated financial statements for accounts receivable, accounts payable and accrued expenses, and related party accrued expenses approximate their fair value because of the immediate or short-term nature of these financial instruments. The carrying amounts reported in the balance sheet for its notes payable approximates fair value as the contractual interest rate and features are consistent with similar instruments of similar risk in the market place.

Transactions involving related parties cannot be presumed to be carried out on an arm's-length basis, as the requisite conditions of competitive, free-market dealings may not exist. Representations about transactions with related parties, if made, shall not imply that the related party transactions were consummated on terms equivalent to those that prevail in arm's-length transactions unless such representations can be substantiated.

It is not, however, practical to determine the fair value of advances from stockholders, if any, due to their related party nature.

The following table presents assets and liabilities that are measured and recognized at fair value as of December 31, 2015 and 2014, on a recurring basis:

Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total

Assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis at December 31, 2015

Derivative liabilities	$	-	$ (7,396,430)	$	-	$ (7,396,430)
------------------------	----	---	----------------	----	---	----------------

Assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis at December 31, 2014

	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3		Total Carrying Value
Derivative liabilities	$	-	$ (6,200,173)	$	-	$ (6,200,173)

Convertible Instruments

The Company evaluates and accounts for conversion options embedded in its convertible instruments in accordance with professional standards for FASB ASC 815, Derivatives and Hedging (“ASC 815”).

Professional standards generally provides three criteria that, if met, require companies to bifurcate conversion options from their host instruments and account for them as free standing derivative financial instruments. These three criteria include circumstances in which (a) the economic characteristics and risks of the embedded derivative instrument are not clearly and closely related to the economic characteristics and risks of the host contract, (b) the hybrid instrument that embodies both the embedded derivative instrument and the host contract is not re-measured at fair value under otherwise applicable generally accepted accounting principles with changes in fair value reported in earnings as they occur and (c) a separate instrument with the same terms as the embedded derivative instrument would be considered a derivative instrument. Professional standards also provide an exception to this rule when the host instrument is deemed to be conventional as defined under professional standards as “The Meaning of Conventional Convertible Debt Instrument”.

The Company accounts for convertible instruments (when it has determined that the embedded conversion options should not be bifurcated from their host instruments) in accordance with professional standards when “Accounting for Convertible Securities with Beneficial Conversion Features,” as those professional standards pertain to “Certain Convertible Instruments.” Accordingly, the Company records, when necessary, discounts to convertible notes for the intrinsic value of conversion options embedded in debt instruments based upon the differences between the fair value of the underlying common stock at the commitment date of the note transaction and the effective conversion price embedded in the note. Debt discounts under these arrangements are amortized over the term of the related debt to their earliest date of redemption. The Company also records when necessary deemed dividends for the intrinsic value of conversion options embedded in preferred shares based upon the differences between the fair value of the underlying common stock at the commitment date of the note transaction and the effective conversion price embedded in the note.

ASC 815 provides that, among other things, generally, if an event is not within the entity’s control could or require net cash settlement, then the contract shall be classified as an asset or a liability.

Stock Based Compensation

The Company follows FASB ASC 718, Compensation – Stock Compensation, prescribes accounting and reporting standards for all share-based payment transactions in which employee services are acquired. Transactions include incurring liabilities, or issuing or offering to issue shares, options, and other equity instruments such as employee stock ownership plans and stock appreciation rights. Share-based payments to employees, including grants of employee stock options, are recognized as compensation expense in the consolidated financial statements based on their fair values. That expense is recognized over the period during which an employee is required to provide services in exchange for the award, known as the requisite service period (usually the vesting period).

The Company accounts for stock-based compensation issued to non-employees and consultants in accordance with the provisions of FASB ASC 505-50, Equity-based Payments to Non-Employees. Measurement of share-based payment transactions with non-employees is based on the fair value of whichever is more reliably measurable: (a) the goods or services received; or (b) the equity instruments issued. The fair value of the share-based payment transaction is determined at the earlier of performance commitment date or performance completion date.

Through newly issued restricted common stock, the Company pays qualified contractors and advisors common shares in lieu of compensation for services provided including business development, management, technology development, consulting, legal services and accounting services.

For the year ended December 31, 2014, the Company issued Series E Preferred Shares valued at $607,856 for employee incentive payments and vendor payments.

For the year ended December 31, 2015, the Company issued Series E Preferred Shares valued at $10,000 for employee incentive payments.

Revenue Recognition

The Company derives its software system integration services revenue from short-duration, time and material contracts. Generally, such contracts provide for an hourly-rate and a stipulated maximum fee. Revenue is recorded only on executed arrangements as time is incurred on the project and as materials, which are insignificant to the total contract value, are expended. Revenue is not recognized in cases where customer acceptance of the work product is necessary, unless sufficient work has been performed to ascertain that the performance specifications are being met and the customer acknowledges that such performance specifications are being met. The Company periodically review contractual performance and estimate future performance requirements. Losses on contracts are recorded when estimable. No contractual losses were identified during the periods presented.

The Company recognizes revenue for its software and software professional services when persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists, delivery has occurred, the sales price is fixed or determinable and collectability is probable. Product sales are recognized by us generally at the time product is shipped. Shipping and handling costs are included in cost of goods sold.

COROWARE, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES
Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

The Company accounts for arrangements that contain multiple elements in accordance with FASB ASC 605-25, Revenue Recognition, Multiple Element Arrangements. When elements such as hardware, software and consulting services are contained in a single arrangement, or in related arrangements with the same customer, the Company allocates revenue to each element based on its relative fair value, provided that such element meets the criteria for treatment as a separate unit of accounting. The price charged when the element is sold separately generally determines fair value. In the absence of fair value for a delivered element, the Company allocates revenue first to the fair value of the underlying elements and allocate the residual revenue to the delivered elements. In the absence of fair value for an undelivered element, the arrangement is accounted for as a single unit of accounting, resulting in a delay of revenue recognition for the delivered elements until the undelivered elements are fulfilled.

The Company limits the amount of revenue recognition for delivered elements to the amount that is not contingent on future delivery of products or services or subject to customer-specified return of refund privileges. The Company recognizes revenue from the sale of manufacturer's maintenance and extended warranty contracts in accordance with FASB ASC 605-45, Revenue Recognition, Principal Agent Considerations, net of its costs of purchasing the related contracts.

The Company's collaboration service revenues are generated through the sale of CoroCall™, a managed collaboration service. Our contracts provide for usage pricing or when paid for pre-paid service. The Company recognizes this revenue in the period that the services or minutes are used and prepaid.

Research and Development

Research and development costs relate to the development of new products, including significant improvements and refinements to existing products, and are expensed as incurred. Research and development expenses for the years ended December 31, 2015 and 2014 were $146,284 and $106,842, respectively.

Advertising Expense

The Company expenses advertising costs as they are incurred. Advertising expense for the years ending December 31, 2015 and 2014 were $42,987 and $26,672, respectively.

Concentration of Credit Risk

Financial instruments which potentially expose the Company to concentrations of credit risk are cash and cash equivalents and trade accounts receivable. The Company maintains its cash and cash equivalents in deposit accounts with high quality, credit-worthy financial institutions.

At December 31, 2015 and 2014, the Company's revenues and receivables were comprised of the following customer concentrations:

	2015		2014
	Percent of Revenues	Percent of Receivables	Percent of Revenues	Percent of Receivables
Customer 1	99.24%	86.14%	96.85%	90.26%

Basic and Diluted Loss per Share

The Company computes basic and diluted earnings per share amounts in accordance with FASB ASC 260, Earnings per Share. Basic earnings per share is computed by dividing net income (loss) available to common shareholders by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the reporting period. Diluted earnings per share reflects the potential dilution that could occur if stock options and other commitments to issue common stock were exercised or equity awards vest resulting in the issuance of common stock that could share in the earnings of the Company.

For the years ended December 31, 2015 and 2014, the effect of common stock equivalents has been excluded from the calculation of diluted earnings per share as their effect would be anti-dilutive.

The Company currently has convertible debt and preferred stock, which, if converted, as of December 31, 2015 and 2014, would have caused the Company to issue diluted shares totaling 75,469,652,233 and 71,221,788,387, respectively.

Dividend Policy

The Company has never declared or paid any cash dividends on its common stock. The Company anticipates that any earnings will be retained for development and expansion of its business and does not anticipate paying any cash dividends in the foreseeable future. Additionally, as of December 31, 2015 and 2014 the Company has issued and has outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock which are entitled, prior to the declaration of any dividends on common stock, to earn a 5 percent dividend, payable in either cash or common stock of the Company. The Board of Directors has sole discretion to declare dividends based on the Company's financial condition, results of operations, capital requirements, contractual obligations and other relevant factors. At December 31, 2015 and 2014, there were cumulative undeclared dividends to Preferred Series B shareholders of $15,969 and $15,969, respectively, the obligation for which is contingent on declaration by the board of directors. These balance have been recorded as part of accounts payable and accrued expenses.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

ASU 2014-08

In April 2014, the FASB issued ASU No. 2014-08, Presentation of Financial Statements (Topic 205) and Property, Plant, and Equipment (Topic 360) and Reporting Discontinued Operations and Disclosures of Disposals of Components of an Entity ("ASU 2014-08"). ASU 2014-08 amends the definition for what types of asset disposals are to be considered discontinued operations, as well as amending the required disclosures for discontinued operations and assets held for sale. ASU 2014-08 is effective for fiscal years, and interim periods within those fiscal years, beginning on or after December 15, 2014. The adoption of ASU 2014-08 did not have any effect on the Company's financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

ASU 2014-09

In May 2014, the FASB issued ASU No. 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606) ("ASU 2014-09"). ASU 2014-09 affects any entity using U.S. GAAP that either enters into contracts with customers to transfer goods or services, or enters into contracts for the transfer of nonfinancial assets unless those contracts are within the scope of other standards (e.g., insurance contracts or lease contracts). ASU 2014-09 is effective for fiscal years, and interim periods within those fiscal years, beginning after December 15, 2016. The Company is still evaluating the effect of the adoption of ASU 2014-09. On April 1, 2015, the FASB voted to propose to defer the effective date of the new revenue recognition standard by one year.

ASU 2014-12

In June 2014, the FASB issued ASU No. 2014-12, Compensation - Stock Compensation (Topic 718): Accounting for Share-Based Payments When the Terms of an Award Provide That a Performance Target Could Be achieved after the Requisite Service Period ("ASU 2014-12"). This ASU requires that a performance target that affects vesting, and that could be achieved after the requisite service period, be treated as a performance condition. ASU 2014-12 is effective for fiscal years, and interim periods within those fiscal years, beginning after December 15, 2015. The adoption of ASU 2014-12 did not have any effect on the Company's financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

ASU 2014-15

In August 2014, the FASB issued ASU No. 2014-15, Presentation of Financial Statements - Going Concern (Subtopic 205-40) ("ASU 2014-15"). ASU 2014-15 provides guidance related to management's responsibility to evaluate whether there is substantial doubt about an entity's ability to continue as a going concern and to provide related footnote disclosure. ASU 2014-15 is effective for annual periods ending after December 15, 2016, and for interim and annual periods thereafter. Early application is permitted. The Company does not expect the adoption of ASU 2014-15 to have a material effect on its financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

ASU 2014-16

In November 2014, the FASB issued ASU 2014-16, Derivatives and Hedging (Topic 815) ("ASU 2014-16"). ASU 2014-16 addresses whether the host contract in a hybrid financial instrument issued in the form of a share should be accounted for as debt or equity. ASU 2014-16 is effective for fiscal years, and interim periods within those fiscal years, beginning after December 15, 2015. The adoption of ASU 2014-16 did not have any effect on the Company's financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

ASU 2014-17

In November 2014, the FASB issued ASU No. 2014-17, Business Combinations (Topic 805): Pushdown Accounting ("ASU 2014-17"). This ASU provides an acquired entity with an option to apply pushdown accounting in its separate financial statements upon occurrence of an event in which an acquirer obtains control of the acquired entity. An acquired entity may elect the option to apply pushdown accounting in the reporting period in which the change-in-control event occurs. If pushdown accounting is applied to an individual change-in-control event, that election is irrevocable. ASU 2014-17 was effective on November 18, 2014. The adoption of ASU 2014-17 did not have any effect on the Company's financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

ASU 2015-01

In January 2015, the FASB issued ASU No. 2015-01, Income Statement - Extraordinary and Unusual Items (Subtopic 225-20): Simplifying Income Statement Presentation by Eliminating the Concept of Extraordinary Items ("ASU 2015-01"). This ASU eliminates from U.S. GAAP the concept of extraordinary items. ASU 2015-01 is effective for fiscal years, and interim periods within those fiscal years, beginning after December 15, 2015. A reporting entity may apply the amendments prospectively. The adoption of ASU 2015-01 did not have any effect on the Company's financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

ASU 2015-02

In February 2015, the FASB issued ASU No. 2015-02, Consolidation (Topic 810): Amendments to the Consolidation Analysis ("ASU 2015-02"), which is intended to improve targeted areas of consolidation guidance for legal entities such as limited partnerships, limited liability corporations, and securitization structures (collateralized debt obligations, collateralized loan obligations, and mortgage-backed security transactions). This ASU focuses on the consolidation evaluation for reporting organizations that are required to evaluate whether they should consolidate certain legal entities. In addition to reducing the number of consolidation models from four to two, the new standard simplifies the FASB ASC and improves current U.S. GAAP by placing more emphasis on risk of loss when determining a controlling financial interest, reducing the frequency of the application of related-party guidance when determining a controlling financial interest in a variable interest entity ("VIE"), and changing consolidation conclusions for companies in several industries that typically make use of limited partnerships or VIEs. This ASU will be effective for fiscal years, and interim periods within those fiscal years, beginning after December 15, 2015. Early adoption is permitted, including adoption in an interim period. The adoption of ASU 2015-02 did not have any effect on the Company's financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

ASU 2015-03

In April 2015, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update ("ASU") No. 2015-03, Interest - Imputation of Interest (Subtopic 835-30): Simplifying the Presentation of Debt Issuance Costs ("ASU 2015-03"). The amendments in this ASU require that debt issuance costs related to a recognized debt liability be presented in the balance sheet as a direct deduction from the carrying amount of that debt liability, consistent with debt discounts. The recognition and measurement guidance for debt issuance costs are not affected by the amendments in this ASU. The amendments are effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years, and interim periods within those fiscal years, beginning after December 15, 2015. The amendments are to be applied on a retrospective basis, wherein the balance sheet of each individual period presented is adjusted to reflect the period-specific effects of applying the new guidance. The adoption of ASU 2014-08 did not have any effect on the Company's financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

There are various other updates recently issued, most of which represented technical corrections to the accounting literature or application to specific industries and are not expected to have a material impact on the Company's financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

NOTE 4 – GOING CONCERN

The Company incurred a net loss in the amount of $2,307,396 during the year ended December 31, 2015 compared to a net loss of $7,939,101 for the year ended December 31, 2014. The Company has a working capital deficit of $19,588,511 and $17,346,721 as of December 31, 2015 and 2014, respectively. The Company has accumulated deficits of $51,950,675 and $49,643,279 as of December 31, 2015 and 2014, respectively. Because of these and other factors, the Company will require additional working capital to develop its business operations. The Company intends to raise additional working capital through the use of private placements, public offerings and/or bank financing.

There are no assurances that the Company will be able to either (1) achieve a level of revenues adequate to generate sufficient cash flow from operations; or (2) obtain additional financing through either private placements, public offerings and/or bank financing necessary to support the Company's working capital requirements. To the extent that funds generated from operations, any private placements, public offerings and/or bank financing are insufficient, the Company will have to raise additional working capital. No assurance can be given that additional financing will be available, or if available, will be on terms acceptable to the Company.

These conditions raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. The consolidated financial statements do not include any adjustments relating to the recoverability and classification of asset carrying amounts or the amount and classification of liabilities that might be necessary should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern.

NOTE 5 – ACCOUNTS RECEIVABLE FACTORING

On March 21, 2010, the Company established a $200,000 factoring line with an asset-based lender, CapeFirst Funding, LLC (“Capefirst”) that is secured by accounts receivable that the Lender may accept and purchase from the Company. The agreement calls for Capefirst to advance up to 80% of the net face amount of each assigned account or up to 50% of eligible assigned purchase orders. The agreement calls for a maximum facility amount of $200,000 with a purchase fee of 2% of the net face amount of each assigned account and a collection fee of 0.1% compounded daily. In the event of a dispute or in the event of fraud, misrepresentation, willful misconduct or negligence on the part of the Company, Capefirst may require the Company to immediately repurchase the assigned accounts at a purchase price that includes the amount of the assigned account plus the discount fee, interest and collection fee and may include a processing fee of 10%. The combined net balance due to Capefirst as of December 31, 2015 and 2014 was $140,936 and $64,274, respectively. Factor expense charged to operations for the years ended December 31, 2015 and 2014 amounted to $94,364 and $65,158, respectively.

COROWARE, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES
Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

The Company has adopted the FASB's amended authoritative guidance which was issued in June 2009 and which became effective January 1, 2010 as it relates to distinguishing between transfers of financial assets that are sales from transfers that are secured borrowings. Under this new guidance as adopted by the Company effective January 1, 2010, the reporting of the sale of accounts receivable is treated as a secured borrowing rather than as a sale. As a result, affected accounts receivable are reported under current assets within the Company's consolidated balance sheet as "Trade receivables" subject to reserves for doubtful accounts, returns and other allowances. Similarly, the net liability owing to Capefirst appears as accounts payable and accrued expenses within the current liabilities section of the Company's consolidated balance sheet. Net proceeds received from the sale of accounts receivable appear as cash provided or used by financing activities within the Company's consolidated statements of cash flows. Early adoption of this amended guidance was not permitted. Under the authoritative guidance in effect prior to the amended guidance noted above, after a transfer of financial assets, an entity recognizes the financial and servicing assets it controls and liabilities it has incurred, derecognizes financial assets when control has been surrendered, and derecognizes liabilities when extinguished.

NOTE 6 – INVENTORY

NOTE 10 – OBLIGATIONS COLLATERALIZED BY RECEIVABLES, NET

On May 27, 2015, the Company entered into an accounts receivable financing arrangement with Expansion Capital for a principal amount received in cash of $130,000. The terms of the arrangement requires the Company to repay the principal balance plus an additional $52,080 in debt discounts for total remittance of $182,080. The terms of repayment require the Company to remit to the lender between approximately 35% of all future receivables arising from credit card, debit card and prepaid transactions until such time as the total remittance is paid in full. This borrowing is secured by the assets of the Company. The additional $52,080 will be recognized as interest expense over the estimated term of the agreement. The term is not fixed due to the variable repayment terms; however, management currently estimates such terms to be between approximately two and eight months. This borrowing was paid off in full during the year ended December 31, 2015.

On July 16, 2015, the Company entered into an accounts receivable financing arrangement with Knight Capital for a principal amount received in cash of $173,500. The terms of the arrangement requires the Company to repay the principal balance plus an additional $52,050 in debt discounts for total remittance of $225,550. The terms of repayment require the Company to remit to the lender approximately 30% of all future receivables arising from credit card, debit card and prepaid transactions until such time as the total remittance is paid in full. This borrowing is secured by the assets of the Company. The additional $52,050 will be recognized as interest expense over the estimated term of the agreement. The term is not fixed due to the variable repayment terms; however, management currently estimates such terms to be between approximately two and eight months. The note accrues compounded interest at a rate of 10% per annum and is due on June 10, 2015, with a default compounded interest rate of 15%. Pursuant to the terms of the note the principal balance and accrued interest is convertible at the option of the note holder into shares of the Company's common stock at a rate of 60% of the lowest closing price during the 20-day trading period prior to conversion, or $0.01, whichever is lower. As of December 31, 2015, there is $20,000 of principal and $2,848 of accrued interest remaining on this note. This note is currently in default.

On January 7, 2015, the Company issued a convertible promissory note to LG for $20,625, of which $4,125 was an original issue discount. The note accrues simple interest at a rate of 12% per annum and is due on January 7, 2016, with a default simple interest rate of 24%. Pursuant to the terms of the note, the principal balance and accrued interest is convertible at the option of the note holder into shares of the Company's common stock at a rate of 45% of the lowest closing price during the 20-day trading period prior to, and including the date of, conversion. As of December 31, 2015, there is $20,625 of principal and $2,434 of accrued interest remaining on this note. This note is currently in default.

On March 12, 2015 the Company issued two convertible promissory notes to Cariou totaling $188,356 ($94,178 each) for settlement of compensation owed as well as penalties and interest. The note calls for 24% compounded interest through the maturity date of September 12, 2015, with a default compounded interest rate of 29%. The principal balance and accrued interest are convertible into the Company's common stock at a conversion rate of the average of the five trading days prior the applicable conversion date, with the number of conversion shares multiplied by 115%. Through December 31, 2015, the Company made $9,000 in principal payments towards these notes. As of December 31, 2015, there is a total of $179,366 of principal and $42,468 of accrued interest remaining on these notes. These notes are currently in default.

COROWARE, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES
Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

In the Company's evaluation of each convertible debt instrument in accordance with FASB ASC 815, Derivatives and Hedging (pre-codification FAS 133 "Accounting for Derivative Financial Instruments and Hedging Activities") ("ASC 815"), based on the variable conversion price, it was determined that the conversion features were not afforded the exemption as a conventional convertible instrument and did not otherwise meet the conditions for equity classification. As such, the conversion and other features were compounded into one instrument, bifurcated from the debt instrument and carried as a derivative liability, at fair value (see Note 15). As of December 31, 2015 and 2014, debt discounts related to convertible notes payable totaled $0 and $18,825, respectively.

NOTE 14 – SMALL BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION LOAN

On April 17, 2002, the Company borrowed $989,100 under a note agreement with the Small Business Administration. The note bears interest at 4% and is secured by the equipment and machinery assets of the Company. The balance outstanding at December 31, 2015 and 2014 was $979,950 and $979,950, respectively. The note calls for monthly installments of principal and interest of $4,813 beginning September 17, 2002 and continuing until April 17, 2032.

The Company and the Small Business Administration reached an agreement in November 2010, whereby the Small Business Administration would accept $500 per month for 12 months with payment reverting back to $4,813 in November 2011. The Company only made four payments under the modification agreement. The Company continues to carry the loan as a current term liability because current payments are not being made, resulting in a default. Accrued interest payable on the note totaled $458,111 and $418,913 as of December 31, 2015 and 2014, respectively.

NOTE 15 – DERIVATIVE LIABILITY

Effective July 31, 2009, the Company adopted ASC 815, which defines determining whether an instrument (or embedded feature) is solely indexed to an entity's own stock. The conversion price of certain convertible notes and exercise price of certain warrants are variable and subject to the fair value of the Company's units on the date of conversion or exercise. As a result, the Company has determined that the conversion and exercise features are not considered to be solely indexed to the Company's own stock and is therefore not afforded equity treatment. In accordance with ASC 815, the Company has bifurcated the conversion and exercise features of the instruments to be recorded as a derivative liability.

ASC 815 requires Company management to assess the fair market value of certain derivatives at each reporting period and recognize any change in the fair market value as items of other income or expense. The Company's only asset or liability measured at fair value on a recurring basis is its derivative liability associated with convertible notes payable and warrants.

At origination and subsequent revaluations, the Company valued the derivative liabilities using the Black-Scholes options pricing model under the following assumptions:

	2015	2014
Risk-free interest rate	0.89% - 1.31%	0.02% - 1.78%
Expected options life	1 - 3 yrs	1 - 3 yrs
Expected dividend yield	-	-
Expected price volatility	295.78% - 531.45 %	280.03% - 643.07 %

During the year ended December 31, 2015, the Company's derivative liability increased from $6,200,173 to $7,396,430, and the Company recognized a loss on derivative liabilities of $1,196,257 and $3,709,967 for the years ended December 31, 2015 and 2014, respectively, in conjunction with settlement of convertible notes payable, additions of new derivative liabilities and subsequent revaluations of existing derivative liabilities.

NOTE 16 – PREFERRED STOCK

a) Series A Preferred Stock

The Company has authorized 125,000 shares of Series A Preferred Stock. Each share of Series A Preferred Stock (i) pays a dividend of 5%, payable at the discretion of the Company in cash or common stock, (ii) is convertible immediately after issuance into the Company's common stock at the lesser of $0.005 per share or 75 percent of the average closing bid prices over the 20 trading days immediately preceding the date of conversion, (iii) has a liquidation preference of $1.00 per share, (iv) may be redeemed by the Company at any time up to five years after the issuance date for $1.30 per share plus accrued and unpaid dividends, and (v) has no voting rights except when mandated by Delaware law. There were no shares of Series A Preferred Shares outstanding at any time during the years ended December 31, 2015 and 2014.

b) Series B Preferred Stock

The Company has authorized 525,000 shares of Series B Preferred Stock. Each share of Series B Preferred Stock (i) pays a dividend of 5 percent, payable at the discretion of the Company in cash or common stock, (ii) is convertible immediately after issuance into the Company's common stock at the lesser of $15 per share or 75 percent of the average closing bid prices over the 20 trading days immediately preceding the date of conversion, (iii) has a liquidation preference of $1.00 per share, and (iv) may be redeemed by the Company at any time up to five years.

Based upon the Company's evaluation of the terms and conditions of the Series B Preferred Stock, the embedded conversion feature related to the preferred stock was afforded the exemption as a conventional convertible instrument due to certain variabilities in the conversion price, and met the conditions for equity classification. However, the Company is required to bifurcate the embedded conversion feature and carry it as a derivative liability.

COROWARE, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES
Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

The Company estimated the fair value of the compound derivative using a common stock equivalent and the current share price of the Company's common stock. As a result of this estimate, the Company's valuation model resulted in a compound derivative balance associated with the Series B preferred stock of $212,868 and $212,888 as of December 31, 2015 and 2014, respectively. This amount is included as a current liability on the Company's balance sheet. Fair value adjustments of $20 and $445 were charged to derivative income (expense) for the years ended December 31, 2015 and 2014, respectively. At December 31, 2015 and 2014 the Company has 159,666 shares of series B preferred stock issued and outstanding.

c) Series C Preferred Stock

The Company has authorized 500,000 shares of Series C Preferred Stock. During 2007, the Company initiated a private offering under Regulation D of the Securities Act of 1933 (the "Private Offering"), of an aggregate 500,000 units (collectively referred to as the "Units") at a price of $1.00 (one dollar) per unit, with each unit consisting of one share of Series C Convertible Preferred Stock at the lesser of eighty five percent (85%) of the average closing bid price of the Common Stock over the twenty (20) trading days immediately preceding the date of conversion or $0.04 and stock purchase warrants equal to the number of shares of common stock converted from the Series C Convertible Preferred Stock, exercisable at $0.06 per share and which expire five (5) years from the conversion date.

d) Series D Preferred Stock

On November 10, 2011 the Board approved by unanimous written consent an amendment to the Corporation's Certificate of Incorporation to designate the rights and preferences of Series D Preferred Stock. There are 500,000 shares of Series D Preferred Stock authorized with a par value of $0.001. Each share of Series D Preferred Stock has a stated value equal to $1.00. These preferred shares rank higher than all other securities. Each outstanding share of Series D Preferred Stock shall be convertible into the number of shares of the Corporation's common stock determined by dividing the Stated Value by the Conversion Price which is defined as eighty five percent (85%) of the average closing bid price of the Common Stock over the twenty (20) trading days immediately preceding the date of conversion, (ii) but no less than Par Value of the Common Stock. Mandatory conversion can be demanded by the Company prior to October 1, 2013. Each one share of the Series D Preferred Stock shall have voting rights equal to 100,000 votes of Common Stock.

There were no issuances, conversions or redemptions of Series D stock during the years ended December 31, 2015 and 2014. At December 31, 2015 and 2014 there were 100,000 shares of series D preferred stock issued and outstanding.

Based upon the Company's evaluation of the terms and conditions of the Series D Preferred Stock, the embedded conversion feature related to the preferred stock was afforded the exemption as a conventional convertible instrument due to certain variabilities in the conversion price, and met the conditions for equity classification. However, the Company is required to bifurcate the embedded conversion feature and carry it as a derivative liability.

The Company estimated the fair value of the compound derivative using a common stock equivalent and the current share price of the Company's common stock. As a result of this estimate, the Company's valuation model resulted in a compound derivative balance associated with the Series D preferred stock of $99,989 and $100,000 as of December 31, 2015 and 2014, respectively. This amount is included as a current liability on the Company's balance sheet. Fair value adjustments of $11 and $(10,705) were charged to derivative income (expense) for the year ended December 31, 2015 and 2014, respectively.

e) Series E Preferred Stock

On March 9, 2012, the Corporation filed the Certificate of Designation of the Rights and Preferences of Series E Convertible Preferred Stock of the Company with the Delaware Secretary of the State pursuant to which the Company set forth the designation, powers, rights, privileges, preferences and restrictions of 1,000,000 authorized shares of Series E Convertible Preferred Stock, par value $0.001 per share. The Series E preferred shares are convertible into common shares at 50% of the lowest closing bid price of the common stock over the twenty days immediately prior the date of conversion, but no less than the par value of the common stock ($0.0001).

In October 2015, the Company issued 10,000 shares of Series E preferred stock for services valued at $10,000 per the agreement.

In December 2015, the Company repurchased 2,692 shares of Series E preferred stock for $3,500 cash from an employee of the Company.

At December 31, 2015 and 2014, the Company had 805,392 and 798,084 shares of Series E preferred stock issued and outstanding, respectively.

Based upon the Company's evaluation of the terms and conditions of the Series E Preferred Stock, the embedded conversion feature related to the preferred stock was afforded the exemption as a conventional convertible instrument due to certain variabilities in the conversion price, and met the conditions for equity classification. However, the Company is required to bifurcate the embedded conversion feature and carry it as a derivative liability.

COROWARE, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES
Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

The Company estimated the fair value of the compound derivative using a common stock equivalent and the current share price of the Company's common stock. As a result of this estimate, the Company's valuation model resulted in a compound derivative balance associated with the Series E preferred stock of $805,303 and $798,084 as of December 31, 2015 and 2014, respectively. This amount is included as a current liability on the Company's balance sheet. Fair value adjustments of $(7,219) and $(156,671) were charged to derivative income (expense) for the year ended December 31, 2015 and 2014, respectively.

f) Series F Preferred Stock

On October 4, 2013, the Company filed the certificate of designation pursuant to which the Company set forth the designation, powers, rights, privileges, preferences and restrictions of 500,000 authorized shares of Series F Convertible Preferred Stock, par value $0.001 per share.

The shares of preferred stock have a stated value of $1.00, have no voting rights, are entitled to no dividends due or payable and are convertible into the number of shares of the Corporation's common stock determined by dividing the stated value by the conversion price which is defined as eighty five percent (85%) of the average closing bid price of the common stock over the five (5) trading days immediately preceding the date of conversion, but no less than par value of the common stock. At any time after the issuance date through the fifth (5th) anniversary of the issuance of the preferred stock, the Company shall have the option to redeem any unconverted shares at an amount equal to one hundred thirty percent (130%) of the stated value of the stock plus accrued and unpaid dividends, if any. Redemption shall be established by the Company in its sole and absolute discretion and no holder of Series F Preferred Stock may demand that the Series F Preferred Stock be redeemed. At December 31, 2015 and 2014, the Company had 190,000 and 190,000 shares of Series F preferred stock issued and outstanding, respectively.

Based upon the Company's evaluation of the terms and conditions of the Series F Preferred Stock, the embedded conversion feature related to the preferred stock was afforded the exemption as a conventional convertible instrument due to certain variabilities in the conversion price, and met the conditions for equity classification. However, the Company is required to bifurcate the embedded conversion feature and carry it as a derivative liability.

The Company estimated the fair value of the compound derivative using a common stock equivalent and the current share price of the Company's common stock. As a result of this estimate, the Company's valuation model resulted in a compound derivative balance associated with the Series F preferred stock of $189,979 and $190,000 as of December 31, 2015 and 2014, respectively. This amount is included as a current liability on the Company's balance sheet. Fair value adjustments of $21 and $(79,012) were charged to derivative income (expense) for the year ended December 31, 2015 and 2014, respectively.

g) Series G Preferred Stock

On April 17, 2014, the Company filed the certificate of designation pursuant to which the Company set forth the designation, powers, rights, privileges, preferences and restrictions of 500,000 authorized shares of Series G Convertible Preferred Stock, par value $0.001 per share.

The shares of preferred stock have a stated value of $1.00, have voting rights equal to 5,000,000 votes of common stock, are entitled to no dividends due or payable, are non-redeemable and are convertible into the number of shares of the Corporation's common stock determined by dividing the stated value by the conversion price which is defined as eighty five percent (85%) of the average closing bid price of the common stock over the twenty (20) trading days immediately preceding the date of conversion, but no less than par value of the common stock.

During the year ended December 31, 2014 the Company issued 25,000 shares of preferred series G to a related party for $25,000 worth of deferred salary. The fair value of the preferred series G shares was based on the trading price of common stock equivalents into which the preferred shares were convertible on the date of issuance and was $14,006, which, as the recipient is a related party resulted in an increase to additional paid-in capital of $13,981.

Based upon the Company's evaluation of the terms and conditions of the Series G Preferred Stock, the embedded conversion feature related to the preferred stock was afforded the exemption as a conventional convertible instrument due to certain variabilities in the conversion price, and met the conditions for equity classification. However, the Company is required to bifurcate the embedded conversion feature and carry it as a derivative liability.

The Company estimated the fair value of the compound derivative using a common stock equivalent and the current share price of the Company's common stock. As a result of this estimate, the Company's valuation model resulted in a compound derivative balance associated with the Series G preferred stock of $24,997 and $25,000 as of December 31, 2015 and 2014, respectively. This amount is included as a current liability on the Company's balance sheet. Fair value adjustments of $3 and $(50,000) were charged to derivative income (expense) for the year ended December 31, 2015 and 2014, respectively.

NOTE 19 – INCOME TAXES

The Company accounts for income taxes in accordance with FASB ASC 740, Income Taxes (“ASC 740”), which requires the recognition of deferred tax liabilities and assets at currently enacted tax rates for the expected future tax consequences of events that have been included in the consolidated financial statements or tax returns. A valuation allowance is recognized to reduce the net deferred tax asset to an amount that is more likely than not to be realized.

ASC 740 provides guidance on the accounting for uncertainty in income taxes recognized in a company's financial statements. ASC 740 requires a company to determine whether it is more likely than not that a tax position will be sustained upon examination based upon the technical merits of the position. If the more likely-than-not threshold is met, a company must measure the tax position to determine the amount to recognize in the consolidated financial statements.

Current operations	$ 784,515	$ 2,699,294
Change in valuation allowance	(784,515)	(2,699,294)
Total provision for income taxes	$ -	$ -

The income tax provision differs from the amount of income tax determined by applying the estimated U.S. federal and state income tax rates of 34 percent to pretax income from continuing operations for the year ended December 31, 2015 and 2014 due to the following:

	December 31, 2015	December 31, 2014
Loss carryforwards (expire through 2033)	$ 17,663,230	$ 16,878,715
Valuation allowance	(17,663,230)	(16,878,715)
Net deferred taxes	$ -	$ -

At December 31, 2015, the Company had net operating loss carry forwards of approximately $17,700,000 through 2033. No tax benefit has been reported in the December 31, 2015 consolidated financial statements since the potential tax benefit is offset by a valuation allowance of the same amount. Due to the change in ownership provisions of the Tax Reform Act of 1986, net operating loss carry forwards for Federal income tax reporting purposes are subject to annual limitations. Should a change in ownership occur, net operating loss carry forwards may be limited as to use in future years.

In accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, the Company has analyzed its filing positions in all jurisdictions where it is required to file income tax returns for the open tax years in such jurisdictions. The Company has identified its federal income tax returns for the previous five years remain subject to examination. The Company's income tax returns in state income tax jurisdictions also remain subject to examination for the previous five years. The Company currently believes that all significant filing positions are highly certain and that all of its significant income tax filing positions and deductions would be sustained upon audit. Therefore, the Company has no significant reserves for uncertain tax positions, and no adjustments to such reserves were required by generally accepted accounting principles. No interest or penalties have been levied against the Company and none are anticipated, therefore no interest or penalty has been included in the provision for income taxes in the consolidated statements of operations.

NOTE 21 – SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

Management has evaluated subsequent events according to the requirements of FASB ASC Topic 855, Subsequent Events, and has determined that there were no material reportable subsequent events to be disclosed, other than those listed below:

Share Issuances on Convertible Debt

Through May 23, 2016, the Company has issued a total of 2,938,860,826 shares of common stock pursuant to conversions of various notes payable, accrued interest and dividends payable. The shares were valued at an aggregate of $175,086.

Preferred Stock Activity

In the first quarter of 2016, the Company issued 21,000 shares of Series E preferred stock for services valued at $21,000 per the agreements.

In the first quarter of 2016, the Company entered in agreements to repurchase 62,220 shares of Series E preferred stock for $80,886 cash from employees of the Company.

Debt Issuances

On February 5, 2016, the Company issued an amended convertible promissory note to YA Global for $2,829,690, which consolidated all the outstanding principal and interest due to YA Global from various notes outstanding through January 7, 2016. The note accrues simple interest at a rate of 6% per annum and matures on April 30, 2016, with a default simple interest rate of 18%. Pursuant to the terms of the note, the principal balance and accrued interest is convertible at the option of the note holder into shares of the Company's common stock at a rate of the lesser of (a) $0.0003 or (b) 50% of the lowest closing price during the 20-day trading period prior to conversion, with the conversion rate being rounded to $0.0001 or whole share. In relation to the note, the Company issued warrants to purchase 2,000,000 shares of the Company's common stock at an exercise price of $0.0006 per share, with an expiration date of December 31, 2020. The warrants are also subject to a cashless exercise, should there be an event of default or the warrants are not subject to an effective registration statement. This note is currently in default.

On April 12, 2016, the Company entered into an accounts receivable financing arrangement with PowerUp Lending Group, Ltd. for a principal amount received in cash of $75,000. The terms of the arrangement requires the Company to repay the principal balance plus an additional $30,000 in debt discounts for total remittance of $105,000. The terms of repayment require the Company to remit to the lender approximately 12% of all future receivables arising from credit card, debit card and prepaid transactions until such time as the total remittance is paid in full. This borrowing is secured by the assets of the Company. The additional $30,000 will be recognized as interest expense over the estimated term of the agreement. The term is not fixed due to the variable repayment terms; however, management currently estimates such terms to be between approximately two and eight months.

On April 27, 2016, the Company issued a promissory note to YA Global for $80,000, of which $5,000 is original issue discount. The note accrues no interest per annum and matures on June 1, 2016, with a default simple interest rate of 18%. Effective May 6, 2016, the Company is to make weekly payments of $18,750 for four consecutive weeks, with a final payment of $5,000 due on June 3, 2016.
