GOL Announces Rights Offering

São Paulo, April 9, 2007 GOL Linhas Aéreas Inteligentes (NYSE: GOL and Bovespa: GOLL4) announced today that it will conduct a preemptive rights offering, in which holders of its preferred shares and American Depositary Receipts (ADRs) can subscribe for GOL's preferred shares and ADRs.

As previously disclosed, when GOL agreed to acquire the capital stock of VRG Linhas Aéreas S.A. (VRG, the airline that operates the Varig brand) in March 2007, it agreed to pay a portion of the acquisition price in its preferred shares (representing approximately 3% of its total shares outstanding). According to Brazilian law, the issuance and transfer of preferred shares to the seller of VRG triggers preemptive rights of GOL's existing shareholders. Although GOL is not obliged under the existing arrangements to extend the preemptive rights to U.S. holders of its preferred shares and ADRs, it has elected to register the rights offering with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), in order to enable U.S. holders to participate in the rights offering.

A registration statement relating to the rights offering in the United States will be filed at the appropriate time with the SEC.

The Board of Directors, in a meeting held on April 9, 2007, approved a capital increase with regard to the rights offering, within the limit of GOL's authorized capital, which details are listed below:

1. Total Amount of the Issuance: R$518,099,923.00 allocated to the Company's capital.
2. Issued Shares: 8,519,979 preferred shares, including preferred shares in form of ADRs.
3. Issuance and Subscription Price: R$60.81 per share.
4. Term for the Exercise of the Pre-emptive Rights by U.S. Shareholders: commencing on or about April 23, 2007, and ending on May 21, 2007.
5. Proportion of the Subscription Right: The holders of preferred shares may subscribe preferred shares of the capital increase proportionally to their participation in the Company's capital on April 9, 2007 (record date). The holders of ADRs may subscribe ADRs in the capital increase proportionally to their participation in the Company's capital on April 19, 2007 (record date). The preemptive rights to acquire ADRs are not transferable.
6. Non-subscribed shares and ADRs: any remaining preferred shares or ADRs will be allocated proportionally among the shareholders and ADR holders who have indicated their intention to subscribe remaining preferred shares (including preferred shares in form of ADRs) at the moment of the subscription. If not all preemptive rights for the subscription of preferred shares and ADRs are exercised after one reoffering round, the Board of Directors may reduce the size of the rights offering. After the announcement of any such decrease in the size of the offering, holders of the Company's preferred shares in Brazil will have the opportunity to reconsider their intention to further subscribe for additional preferred shares. This opportunity will not be granted to U.S. persons (as defined in Regulation S promulgated under the Securities Act) and other holders of our preferred shares and ADSs in the United States.

7. Dividends: the preferred shares and ADRs issued shall have the right to receive dividends and interests over the Company's capital since the date of their issuance.

The preferred shares, the ADRs and the preemptive rights have not been registered under the Securities Act and may not be offered or sold (a) in the United States absent registration or an applicable exemption from registration under the Securities Act, or (b) in any other jurisdiction in which such offer or sale is prohibited. This press release shall not constitute an offer to sell nor the solicitation of an offer to buy the preferred shares, the ADRs or the preemptive rights.
