Notice to the Market

Suspension of trading in the Company's shares

COMPANHIA SIDERÚRGICA NACIONAL ( CSN or the Company ) hereby informs its shareholders and the public in general that:

1. The suspension of trading in the Company's shares, determined today by the BM&FBovespa, was in line with market regulations and practices. The decision was based on the publication of the totally unfounded bankruptcy petition filed against the Company by DAD Industrial Ltda. ( DAD ) at 4:42 p.m. on Friday, May 28, 2010, released today, in the Movimento Falimentar column of the newspaper Valor Econômico.

2. Immediately upon becoming aware of the suspension of trading of its shares (through BM&FBovespa Official Letter GAE/CAEM 1245-10, received at 9:22 a.m. today), CSN presented the clarifications in its reply, sent at 10:32 a.m. via the CVM's IPE system, upon which the BM&FBovespa decided to restore normal trading as of 11:05 a.m. today.

3. As explained to the BM&FBovespa, DAD was hired by CSN to undertake maintenance services at the Presidente Vargas Steelworks, in Volta Redonda. Due to various instances of DAD contractual non-performance, which were formally notified on April 9, 2010, the Company withheld payment, as it was entitled to do under the terms of the agreement between the parties. This led to the filing of notices of protest by DAD in the approximate amount of R$1.3 million. This matter has already been submitted to the São Paulo State Courts.

4. In addition, the notices of protest which led to DAD's filing of the bankruptcy petition against CSN were canceled today by a judicial decision, and the amount in question has been fully guaranteed by a judicial deposit with the São Paulo Civil Court.

5. Since May 28, 2010, CSN has been taking the appropriate legal measures to obtain redress for moral damages caused by DAD and is now determining the extent of the material damages suffered for purposes of seeking judicial redress.

6. Finally, CSN reiterates that: (i) the amounts in question are not material, nor do they represent any risk to the Company's solid financial and credit situation; and that (ii) its conduct is always in line with the law and its contractual obligations, given the value it places on its relations with clients and suppliers.
