Forward-Looking Statements

This Report on Economic and Financial Analysis contains forward-looking statements relating to our business. Such statements are based on managements current expectations, estimates and projections about future events and financial trends, which could affect our business. Words such as:

"believes", "anticipates", "plans", "expects", "intends", "aims", "evaluates", "predicts", "foresees", "projects", "guidelines", "should" and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements. These statements, however, do not guarantee future performance and involve risks and uncertainties, which could be beyond our control. Furthermore, certain forward-looking statements are based on assumptions that, depending on future events, may prove to be inaccurate. Therefore, actual results may differ materially from the plans, objectives, expectations, projections and intentions expressed or implied in such statements.

Factors which could modify actual results include, among others, changes in regional, national and international commercial and economic conditions; inflation rates; increase in customer delinquency on the account of borrowers in loan operations, with the consequent increase in the allowance for loan losses; loss of funding capacity; loss of clients or revenues; our capacity to sustain and improve performance; changes in interest rates which could, among other events, adversely affect our margins; competition in the banking sector, financial services, credit card services, insurance, asset management and other related sectors; government regulations and fiscal matters; disputes or adverse legal proceedings or rulings; as well as credit risks and other loan and investment activity risks.

Accordingly, the reader should not rely excessively on these forward-looking statements. These statements are valid only as of the date they were prepared. Except as required under applicable legislation, we assume no obligation whatsoever to update these statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or for any other reason.

Few numbers of this Report were submitted to rounding adjustments.
Therefore, amounts indicated as total in certain charts may not correspond to the arithmetic sum of figures preceding them.

Summarized Analysis of Adjusted Income

Adjusted Net Income and Profitability

In the fourth quarter of 2011, Bradesco's adjusted net income was R$2,771 million, down 3.2% from the previous quarter, mainly due to: (i) lower revenue from non-interest financial margin; and (ii) greater personnel and administrative expenses, mainly resulting from accelerated organic growth in the year, marked by the expansion of 11,030 service points, including the opening of 1,009 branches.

In the comparison of 2011 and 2010, adjusted net income increased by R$1,394 million, or 14.2%, for Return on Average Shareholders' Equity (ROAE) of 21.3%. The main reasons for this result are described in this chapter, among which the aforementioned organic growth demands our attention.

Shareholders' Equity stood at R$55,582 million in December 2011, up 15.7% on the balance on December 2010. The Capital Adequacy Ratio stood at 15.1%, of which, 12.4% fell under Tier I Reference Shareholders' Equity.

Total Assets came to R$761,533 million in December 2011, up 19.5% over December 2010, driven by the increase in operations and the expansion of business volume. Return on Average Assets (ROAA) hovered around 1.6%.

Summarized Analysis of Adjusted IncomeEfficiency Ratio (ER)

The ER was impacted by the following events in the period: (i) accelerated organic growth in the year, especially in the second half of 2011, marked by the expansion of 11,030 service points, including the inauguration of 1,009 branches, which impacted personnel and administrative expenses; and (ii) greater expenses with advertising and marketing, brought on by the seasonal effect in the quarter.

With regards to the “adjusted to risk” ER, which reflects the impact of risk associated with loan operations⁽²⁾ and the aforementioned events, it was also affected by the increase in delinquency in the period.

(1) $ER = (\text{Personnel Expenses} - \text{Employee Profit Sharing} + \text{Administrative Expenses}) / (\text{Financial Margin} + \text{Fee and Commission Income} + \text{Income from Insurance} + \text{Equity in the Earnings (Losses) of Unconsolidated Companies} + \text{Other Operating Income} - \text{Other Operating Expenses})$. Considering the ratio between: (i) total administrative costs (Personnel Expenses + Administrative Expenses + Other Operating Expenses + Tax Expenses not related to revenue generation + Insurance Selling Expenses) and (ii) revenue net of related taxes (not considering Claims and Selling Expenses from the Insurance Group), our ER in the fourth quarter of 2011 would be 45.8%; and

(2) Including ALL expenses, adjusted for granted discounts, loan recovery and sale of foreclosed assets, among others.

Summarized Analysis of Adjusted Income

Financial Margin

The R$28 million increase in the fourth quarter of 2011 compared to the third quarter of 2011 was due to:

- a R$316 million increase in interest-earning operations, mainly due to higher gains with “Loan” and “Securities/Other” margins; and was offset by:

- a R$288 million decrease in the non-interest margin, due to lower treasury/securities gains.

Financial margin posted a R$6,265 million improvement between the 2011 fiscal year and that of 2010, for growth of 19.0%, mainly driven by:

- a R$6,145 million increase in income from interest-earning operations due to an increase in business volume, driven by:
 - (i) “Loans;” and (ii) “Funding;” and
- greater income from the non-interest margin, in the amount of R$120 million, due to higher treasury/securities gains.

Summarized Analysis of Adjusted Income

Expanded Loan Portfolio⁽¹⁾

In December 2011, Bradesco's loan operations totaled R$345.7 billion. The 4.0% increase in the quarter was due to growth of: (i) 6.2% in Small and Medium-sized Entities (SMEs); (ii) 3.1% in Individuals; and (iii) 3.1% in Corporations.

Over the last 12 months, the portfolio expanded by 17.1%, driven by: (i) 22.6% growth in SMEs; (ii) 18.6% growth in Corporations; and (iii) 10.6% growth in Individuals.

In the Individuals segment, the products that posted the strongest growth in the last 12 months were: (i) real estate financing; (ii) BNDES/Finame onlending; and (iii) payroll-deductible loans. In the Corporate segment, growth was led by: (i) real estate financing – corporate plan; (ii) working capital; and (iii) export financing.

(1) Includes sureties, guarantees, letters of credit, advances of credit card receivables, debentures, promissory notes, assignment of receivables-backed investment funds and mortgage-backed receivables and rural loan.

For more information, see page 38 of chapter 2 of this Report.

Allowance for Loan Losses (ALL)

In the fourth quarter of 2011, ALL expenses stood at R$2,661 million, down 4.2% from the previous quarter, mainly as a result of: (i) adequate provision levels in comparison with the expected losses from certain operations with corporate customers, which offset: (ii) the increased delinquency in the period; and (iii) the growth in loan operation volume.

(1) In the 3Q11, includes exceeding ALL in the total amount of R$1.0 billion.

In comparison with 2010, ALL expenses in 2011 increased by 17.6%, mainly due to: (i) growth in loan operations; and (ii) greater delinquency in the period, especially among individuals.

Summarized Analysis of Adjusted Income

Delinquency Ratio > 90 days

The delinquency ratio of over 90 days posted a slight increase of 0.1 p.p. in the quarter, mainly due to: (i) a 0.2 p.p. increase in the SME ratio; and (ii) a 0.1 p.p. increase in the Individuals ratio.

Coverage Ratios

The following graph presents the evolution of the coverage ratio of the ALL for loans overdue for more than 60 and 90 days. In December 2011 these ratios reached 151.8% and 184.4%, respectively, pointing to a comfortable level of provisioning.

The ALL, totaling R$19.5 billion in December 2011, was made up of: (i) R$15.5 billion required by the Brazilian Central Bank; and (ii) R$4.0 billion in additional provisions.

Summarized Analysis of Adjusted Income

In the fourth quarter of 2011, the Group's total revenue increased by 23.0% on the previous quarter, led by the "Life and Pension Plan" segment, which was driven by a greater concentration of pension plan contributions in the period in question.

In 2011, revenue was up 21.3% in comparison with 2010, driven by the performance of "Life and Pension Plan," "Health" and "Savings Bond" products, which posted respective growth of 23.8%, 22.0% and 22.7% in the period.

Net income increase in the quarter was mainly due to: (i) a 23.0% increase in revenues; (ii) improved equity income; and (iii) a drop in the claims ratio.

Net income increase in the 2011 fiscal year was the result of: (i) 21.3% growth in revenues; (ii) a 1.1 p.p. decrease in the claims ratio; (iii) improved financial result and equity in the earnings (losses) of unconsolidated subsidiaries; and partially offset by: (iv) an increase in personnel expenses, mainly driven by the collective bargaining agreement in January 2011.

In terms of solvency, Grupo Bradesco de Seguros e Previdência complies with Insurance Superintendence (Susep) rules effective as of January 1, 2008, and international standards (Solvency II). The Group's financial leverage ratio stood at 2.7 times its Shareholders' Equity.

Summarized Analysis of Adjusted Income

Fee and Commission Income

In the fourth quarter of 2011, fee and commission income totaled R$4,086 million, up 5.4% or R$210 million from the previous quarter. This increase was mainly driven by: (i) higher credit card revenue, resulting from the increase in the cards/customer base; (ii) greater checking account revenue; and (iii) greater gains from capital market operations (underwriting/ financial advisory services).

When comparing 2011 with 2010, the R$1,851 million, or 13.8%, increase in fee and commission income was mainly due to: (i) the performance of the credit card segment, driven by the growth in card base and revenues; (ii) higher income from checking accounts, which was driven by growth in business volume and an increase in checking account holder base, which posted net growth of 2.0 million accounts in the period; (iii) greater income from loan operations, resulting from an increase in the volume of contracted operations; (iv) greater income from collections; and (v) the increase in income from consortium management.

Summarized Analysis of Adjusted Income

Personnel Expenses

In the fourth quarter of 2011, the R$260 million increase from the previous quarter was due to the following:

- structural expenses – R$127 million growth, mainly resulting from: (i) higher expenses with salaries, social charges and benefits due to the Bank's organic growth, which led to the opening of new service points and the consequent increase in staff; and (ii) an adjustment to salary levels, pursuant to the collective bargaining agreement; and
- non-structural expenses – R$133 million increase, mainly due to expenses with employee and management profit sharing.

- R$478 million in non-structural expenses, mainly driven by: (i) greater expenses with employee and management profit sharing; and (ii) greater expenses with the provision for labor claims.

Growth between 2011 and 2010 of R$1,759 million is mainly due to:

- R$1,281 million in structural expenses, resulting from: (i) increased expenses with salaries, social charges and benefits, due to higher salary levels; and (ii) the net increase in the number of employees by 9,436 professionals; and

Note: Structural Expenses = Salaries + Social Charges + Benefits + Pension Plans.

Non-Structural Expenses = Employee and Management Profit Sharing + Training + Labor Provision + Costs with Termination of Employment Contracts.

Summarized Analysis of Adjusted Income

Administrative Expenses

In the fourth quarter of 2011, administrative expenses increased by 8.1% on the previous quarter, mainly due to: (i) greater expenses with advertising and marketing; and (ii) expenses related to accelerated organic growth (i.e. transportation, security and surveillance, maintenance and preservation of goods, etc.), which led to the inauguration of 689 branches.

The 16.3% increase between 2011 and 2010 was mainly due to greater expenses with:

(i) outsourced services, mainly related variable expenses tied to revenues/business volume (i.e. correspondent banks, Call Center, etc.); (ii) contract adjustments; and (iii) accelerated organic growth in the period, marked by the expansion of 11,030 service points, including the inauguration of 1,009 branches.

(1) Does not include Postal Bank.

Other Operating Income and Expenses

Other operating expenses, net of other operating income, totaled R$808 million in the fourth quarter of 2011, down R$99 million from the previous quarter, mainly due to less expenses with the recording of operating provisions, particularly those with civil provisions.

Compared with the previous year, the increase in other operating expenses, net of other operating income, by R$1,019 million in 2011 is mainly the result of: (i) higher expenses with the recording of operating provisions, especially civil provisions; and (ii) higher expenses with amortization of intangible assets – acquisition of banking rights.

Summarized Analysis of Adjusted Income

Income Tax and Social Contributions

Income tax and social contribution expenses in the fourth quarter of 2011 were down 4.8%, or R$63 million, from the previous quarter, due to lower taxable income in the period.

In 2011, the increase in these expenses over 2010 is mainly the result of: (i) an increase in taxable income; and (ii) the termination of tax credits resulting from the increase in the social contribution rate from 9% to 15% in the first quarter of 2011.

Unrealized Gains

Unrealized gains totaled R$10,618 million in the fourth quarter of 2011, a R$1,561 million increase from the previous quarter. This was mainly due to: (i) the appreciation of investments, particularly the Cielo investment, which saw a 15.0% increase in share value in the quarter; (ii) the valuation of mark-to-market securities in both fixed income and equities; and (iii) mark-to-market effect of subordinated debt.

Economic Scenario

Economic activity indicators in the USA were better than expected in the fourth quarter of 2011, but failed to completely ward off uncertainties regarding the pace and sustainability of growth in the coming months. At the same time, the constant downward revisions of projected Chinese growth lost momentum, despite persisting doubts in relation to the country's banking system and real estate market. However, concern with the fiscal imbalance in many European nations mounted, given that the European Central Bank's recent measures to promote liquidity in the Eurozone banking system were insufficient to dispel existing fears.

Faced with these risks, global growth remained low, adversely impacting the confidence of the economic agents. This trend has had two relevant effects: (i) the normalization of monetary policy by the main central banks will most likely be delayed, ensuring high international liquidity, as long as there are no major breakdowns in the banking systems of the major economies, an event we believe to be unlikely; and (ii) the average of commodity prices should also continue on a downward trajectory throughout 2012, despite short-term pressures, especially in relation to agricultural produce (unfavorable weather conditions) and oil (geo-political tensions).

Brazil is not immune to global events, although it is certainly much better prepared to face the materialization of existing risks than it was three years ago. Faced with a deteriorating international scenario and the current leveling-off of domestic activity in the second half of 2011, the economic authorities have adopted a number of stimulus measures, including: (i) a series of interest rate reductions, a process that should continue into the first quarter of 2012; (ii) the partial reversal of the macroprudential measures adopted in December 2010; and (iii) tax incentives for the consumer goods and industrial segments. At the same time, the country's foreign reserves (currently US$355 billion, versus US$208 billion in September 2008) and the

Although the prospective global scenario should have a deflationary impact on Brazil's economy, there are still a number of challenges related to the handling of monetary policy, given the mismatch between supply and demand, the economy's high level of indexation and the buoyant job market.

Bradesco is maintaining its positive long-term outlook for Brazil. Despite the country's undeniable export vocation, domestic demand has been and will continue to be the main engine of economic performance. Household consumption has been driven by the buoyant job market, while investments have benefited from the opportunities generated by pre-salt oil exploration and the sporting events in the coming years. With no signs of excessive income commitment by borrowers and with continuing upward social mobility, the outlook for the Brazilian banking system also remains favorable.

The Organization continues to believe that Brazil will achieve a higher potential growth pace more rapidly if fueled by bigger investments in education and infrastructure and by economic reforms that increase the efficiency of the productive sector. Action on these fronts would play a crucial role in giving the private sector a more solid foundation in regard to facing global competition and continuing to grow and create jobs.

volume of reserve requirements held by Bacen (R$448 billion, versus R$272 billion three years ago) constitute an excellent line of defense that can be tapped into quickly if needed. Given these measures and the expected increase in public investments, the Brazilian economy should respond favorably, accelerating the pace of growth in the coming months. This improvement should become even more evident in the second quarter, when the industrial inventory adjustments will have run their course.

(1) Average Margin Rate = (Financial Margin / Average Assets – Purchase and Sale Commitments - Permanent Assets) Annualized

In the fourth quarter of 2011, financial margin was R$10,258 million. Compared with the previous quarter there was R$28 million increase. This variation was the result of: (i) the R$316 million increase in the interest margin, reflecting the increase in the volume of operations; and offset by: (ii) the reduction in the non-interest margin in the amount of R$288 million.

Financial margin grew by 19.0% or R$6,265 million when compared to the same period in the previous year. This variation is due to: (i) the R$6,145 million increase in interest margin, of which: (a) R$6,765 million corresponds to the increase in volume of operations; and partially offset by: (b) the decrease in spread of R$620 million; and (ii) the increase in non-interest margin in the amount of R$120 million.

Loan Financial Margin – Net Margin

The graph above presents a summary of loan activity. The Gross Margin line refers to interest income from loans, net of opportunity cost (essentially the accrued Interbank Deposit Certificate - CDI over rate in the period).

The ALL curve shows delinquency costs, which are represented by Allowance for Loan Losses (ALL) expenses, discounts granted in transactions net of loan recoveries and the result of the sale of foreclosed assets, among other items.

The net margin curve presents the result of loan interest income, net of ALL, which, in the fourth quarter of 2011, recorded an 8.5% increase from the previous quarter, due to: (i) a 3.4% growth in gross margin; and (ii) a 4.3% decrease in ALL expenses, resulting from adequate provision levels in relation to expected losses from certain operations with corporate customers. Comparing 2011 to 2010, loan interest income grew by 13.1%, or R$1,921 million, as a result of: (i) a 14.8% gain in gross margin; and (ii) the 17.6% increase in ALL expenses, mainly due to: (a) growth of loan operations; and (b) increase in delinquency, mainly among individuals.

(4) Letters of credit: R$1,754 million in December 2011, R$1,946 million in September 2011 and R$1,501 million in December 2010.

Loan and financing for corporate customers grew by 20.4% in the last 12 months and 4.5% in the quarter. The main highlights in the last 12 months were the following: (i) real estate financing – corporate plan; (ii) working capital; and (iii) export financing. In the quarter, the following portfolios posted significant growth: (i) real estate financing – corporate plan; (ii) working capital; and (iii) export financing.

Loan Portfolio – Consumer Financing

The graph below shows the types of credit related to Consumer Financing of Individual Customers (CDC/vehicle leasing, personal loans, financing of goods, revolving credit card and cash and installment purchases at merchants).

Consumer financing totaled R$83.0 billion, which corresponded to a 2.6% increase in the quarter and a 7.0% increase in the last 12 months. Growth was led by: (i) vehicle financing (CDC/Leasing); and (ii) payroll-deductible loans, which together totaled R$50.8 billion, accounting for 61.2% of the consumer financing balance. Given their guarantees and characteristics, these products provide a reduced level of credit risk to this group of operations.

(3) Including operations involving interbank deposit certificates (CDI), international treasury, euronotes, swaps, forward currency contracts and investments in receivables-backed investment funds (FIDC) and mortgage-backed receivables (CRI).

It is worth noting that growth in the Corporation portfolio in the past 12 months was impacted by funds raised by customers on the capital markets. Therefore, it is worth pointing out the R$4.5 billion increase in balance of operations with debentures and promissory notes for corporate customers in the last 12 months, representing an increase of 23.1% in the total balance of the period, mainly due to operations with Corporations, which grew by 20.7% on the same period in 2010, resulting in lower growth of traditional loan operations for this type of customer.

The loan portfolio, excluding renegotiation, stood at R$260.0 billion in December 2011, up 3.1% in the quarter. The graph below presents the behavior of the total portfolio and delinquency over 90 days, including and excluding renegotiation, both of which present similar trends, proof that renegotiation does not have a material effect on delinquency.

In December 2011, the renegotiated portfolio totaled R$8.7 billion, a 4.4% increase in the quarter. The renegotiated share in the total loan portfolio was 3.2% in December 2011 (3.2% in September 2011). It is worth noting that, in December 2010, for an existing provision of 62.8% of the portfolio, net loss over the subsequent 12 months was 23.2%, meaning that the existing provision exceeded the loss recorded in the following 12 months by over 170%. Furthermore, the Company's provisions remained stable in the period.

Loan Financial Margin - Interest

Allowance for Loan Losses (ALL) vs. Delinquency vs. Losses

An ALL of R$19.5 billion, representing 7.3% of the total portfolio, comprises the generic provision (customer and/or operation rating), the specific provision (non-performing operations) and the excess provision (internal criteria).

Bradesco's provision levels reflect a cautious approach aimed at supporting potential changes in scenarios, such as higher delinquency levels and/or changes in the loan portfolio profile.

Economic and Financial Analysis

Loan Financial Margin - Interest

It is worth mentioning the assertiveness of adopted provisioning criteria, which are proven by: (i) analyzing historical data on recorded allowances for loan losses; and (ii) effective losses in the subsequent twelve-month period. For instance, in December 2010, for an existing provision of 7.1% of the portfolio, the effective gross loss in the subsequent twelve-month period was 3.8%, meaning the existing provision exceeded the loss over the subsequent twelve-month period by more than 84%, as shown in the graph below.

Analysis in terms of loss, net of recovery, shows a significant increase in the coverage margin. In December 2010, for an existing provision of 7.1% of the portfolio, the net loss in the subsequent twelve-month period was 2.6%, meaning that the existing provision covered the loss in the subsequent 12 months by 170%.

Allowance for Loan Losses

The Non-Performing Loan ratio (operations overdue for over 60 days) posted a slight increase in the quarter, from 4.6% in September 2011 to 4.8% in December 2011. Coverage ratios for the allowance for loans overdue for over 60 and 90 days stood at very comfortable levels.

(1) Loan operations overdue for over 60 days and that do not generate revenue appropriation under the accrual accounting method.

Interest - due to spread					554	(106)
Interest Financial Margin	4,562	3,029	1,169	1,252	1,533	(83)

Comparing the fourth quarter of 2011 with the previous quarter, there was a decrease of 6.6% or R$83 million in the interest funding financial margin. This variation was due to: (i) the drop in the average spread in the amount of R$106 million, resulting from the reduction in the interest rate in the period; and partially offset by: (ii) higher volume of operations, which contributed to growth of R$23 million.

In 2011, the interest funding financial margin reached R$4,562 million, versus R$3,029 million last year, for growth of 50.6% or R$1,533 million. The increase was driven by: (i) an increase in average business volume, contributing with R$979 million, as a result of the efforts put in by Bradesco to obtain new customers and diversify products, which led to an increase in the average volume; and (ii) greater spread gains of R$554 million, mainly due to: (a) an improvement in the funding mix; and (b) an increase in interest rates (Selic) in the period.

Economic and Financial Analysis

Funding Financial Margin – InterestLoans vs. Funding

To analyze Loan Operations in relation to Funding, it is first necessary to deduct from total customer funding (i) the amount committed to compulsory deposits at Bacen and (ii) the amount of available funds held at units in the customer service network, as well as add (iii) funds from domestic and foreign lines that provide funding to meet loan and financing needs.

Bradesco presents low reliance on interbank deposits and foreign lines of credit, given its capacity to effectively obtain funding from customers. This is a result of: (i) the outstanding position of its service points; (ii) the extensive diversity of products offered; and (iii) the market's confidence in the Bradesco brand.

Note that the use of funds provides a comfortable margin, which proves that Bradesco is capable of meeting demand for funds for loan operations through its own funding.

(1) Considering only debentures used to back purchase and sale commitments.

Demand Deposits

The 4.0% or R$1,259 million increase recorded in the fourth quarter of 2011 compared to the previous quarter is mainly due to the seasonal effect in the period.

(1) Additional installments are not included.

Demand deposits were down by R$4,211 million, or 11.3%, when compared to the same period of the previous year, mainly due to migration to other funding sources.

Savings Deposits

Savings deposits recorded growth of 5.4% quarter on quarter and of 11.6% over the last 12 months, mainly as a result of greater funding volume. Balances were remunerated (TR + 0.5% p.m.) at 1.7% in the quarter and 7.4% in the last 12 months.

Bradesco is always increasing its savings accounts base and posted net growth of 2.3 million new savings accounts over the last 12 months.

Economic and Financial Analysis

Funding Financial Margin - Interest

Time Deposits

In the fourth quarter of 2011, time deposits dropped by 8.6%, or R$11,721 million, over the previous quarter, basically due to the migration to other funding sources, mainly Financial Bills, thereby extending average funding terms.

In 2011 versus the previous year, there was an increase of 21.5% or R$21,969 million, mainly due to: (i) increased funding volume from institutional investors and the branch network; and (ii) the restatement of the deposit portfolio.

Debentures

On December 31, 2011, the balance of Bradesco's debentures was R$49,777 million, up by 4.7% quarter on quarter and 8.1% over the last 12 months.

These variations are mainly due to the placement and maturity of the securities, which are also used to back purchase and sale commitments that are, in turn, impacted by stable levels of economic activity.

Borrowing and Onlending

The 8.5%, or R$4,190 million, increase in the quarter is mainly due to: (i) new funding in the period and the 1.2% increase in foreign exchange variation that impacted borrowing and onlending obligations denominated in and/or indexed to foreign currency, which increased from R$13,304 million in September 2011 to R$17,340 million in December 2011; and (ii) the R$154 million increase in the volume of funding from borrowing and onlending in Brazil, mainly through Finame operations.

The balance grew 39.4%, or R$15,050 million, in 2011 versus 2010 comparison, mainly driven by: (i) the R$9,344 million increase in borrowing and onlending denominated in and/or indexed to foreign currency, the balance of which was up from R$7,996 million in December 2010 to R$17,340 million in December 2011, mainly due to new funding and a positive foreign exchange variation of 12.6% in the period; and (ii) the R$5,706 million increase in the volume of funds from borrowing and onlending in Brazil, basically through Finame and BNDES operations.

Report on Economic and Financial Analysis - December 2011

Funding Financial Margin - InterestFunds from Issuance of Securities

The 26.3% or R$8,643 million increase in the quarter is mainly due to: (i) the R$7,835 million increase in the volume of Financial Bills; (ii) an increase in Mortgage Bonds, in the amount of R$394 million; (iii) the increased volume of securities issued abroad of R$259 million; and (iv) higher volume of Letters of Credit for Agribusiness, in the amount of R$185 million.

When compared to the previous year, 2011 posted growth of 134.9% or R$23,848 million, mainly the result of: (i) new issuances of Financial Bills, up by R$19,300 million, from R$7,820 million in December 2010 to R$27,120 million in December 2011; (ii) the increased volume of securities issued abroad of R$3,053 million, a result of the positive foreign exchange variation of 12.6% and new issuances carried out in the period; (iii) the higher volume of Mortgage Bonds, in the amount of R$1,367 million; (iv) the higher volume of Letters of Credit for Agribusiness, in the amount of R$839 million; and partially offset by: (v) the R$743 million decrease in the balance of debentures, due to the maturity of these securities.

Subordinated Debt

Subordinated Debt totaled R$26,910 million in December 2011 (R$6,404 million abroad and R$20,506 million in Brazil). In the last 12 months, Bradesco issued R$9,626 million in Subordinated Debt (R$815 million abroad and R$8,811 million in Brazil) and R$12,017 million came due (R$293 million abroad and R$11,724 million in Brazil).

Additionally, it is worth pointing out that, in the fourth quarter of 2011, the Brazilian Central Bank authorized the use of Subordinated Financial Bills amounting to R$1,828 million (R$5,239 million in the third quarter) to compose Tier II of the Capital Adequacy Ratio, of which only R$15,630 million of total subordinated debt is used to calculate the Capital Adequacy Ratio, given their maturity terms.

In the comparison between the fourth quarter of 2011 and the previous quarter, the interest financial margin from Securities/Other was up by R$195 million. This variation was due to: (i) the increase in the average spread in the amount of R$150 million, which includes gains from derivative financial instruments in the management of the fixed-rated commercial portfolio; and (ii) the increase in operation volume, which contributed with R$45 million.

In 2011, the interest financial margin with Securities/Other stood at R$2,902 million, versus R$2,307 million recorded the previous year, up 25.8% or R$595 million. This is the result of: (i) an increase in the volume of operations, which affected the result in R$490 million; and (ii) the R$105 million raise in the average spread.

In the fourth quarter of 2011, interest financial margin from insurance operations posted a drop of R$30 million or 3.8% from the previous quarter, impacted by: (i) a R$69 million decrease in the average spread; and partially offset by: (ii) a R$39 million increase in the volume of operations.

By comparing 2011 to 2010, interest financial margin from insurance operations was up by 19.8%, or R$561 million, mainly due to: (i) the increase in volume of operations, amounting to R$506 million; and (ii) further average spread gains totaling R$55 million.

The non-interest financial margin in the fourth quarter of 2011 stood at R$273 million, versus R$561 million in the third quarter of 2011. The margin posted a R$120 million gain in the year-on-year comparison. Main variations in the non-interest financial margin are due to:

- “Funding,” represented by expenses with the Credit Guarantee Fund (FGC), due to increased funding volume;
- “Insurance,” represented by gains from equity instruments. The variations in both periods are associated with market conditions, which enabled a greater/lower opportunity of obtaining gains; and
- “Securities/Other,” down by R$318 million in the fourth quarter of 2011 when compared to the previous quarter, resulting in lower income from Treasury/securities, offset by gains from the partial sale of CETIP shares, in the amount of R$179 million. In the year-on-year comparison, there was a higher result from Treasury/Securities in the amount of R$495 million.

The total revenue from the Insurance Group was up by 23.0% in the fourth quarter of 2011 versus the previous quarter, mainly due to the Life and Pension Plan segment, which was boosted by a greater concentration of pension plan contributions in the period.

In 2011, written premiums, pension plan contributions and savings bond income increased by 21.3% in comparison with 2010. Leading growth in the year were the "Life and Pension Plan," "Health" and "Savings Bond" products, which posted gains of 23.8%, 22.0% and 22.7%, respectively.

Insurance Expense Ratio by Insurance Line

Note: for comparison purposes, we have excluded Technical Reserve complements on benefits to be granted – Remission from the expense ratio calculation (Earned Premiums) for the first quarter of 2010, amounting to R$149 million (health insurance).

(1) In compliance with Susep Circular Letter 424/11, in the second quarter of 2011 we have reclassified the Risk Evaluation expenses from “Other Operating Expenses” account to “Other Selling Expenses”, in the amount of R$21,511 thousand (Auto/RE). Should this expense be taken in consideration, expense ratio for Auto/RCF and Basic Lines would stand at 17.5 and 18.6, respectively.

Net income for the fourth quarter of 2011 was 37.1% greater quarter on quarter, mainly due to: (i) a 3.9 p.p. drop in the claims ratio; and (ii) an improved financial result.

Net income for 2011 was 23.5% higher than that of the same period of the previous year, due to: (i) a 20.9% increase in revenue; (ii) improved financial result performance; partially offset by: (iii) the 1.7 p.p. increase in claims; and (iv) increased administrative and personnel expenses, impacted by the collective bargaining agreement dated January 2011.

In December 2011, Bradesco Saúde and Mediservice maintained strong market position in the corporate segment (source: ANS).

Approximately 41 thousand companies in Brazil have Bradesco Saúde insurance and Mediservice plans. Of the 100 largest companies in Brazil, in terms of revenue, 45 are Bradesco Saúde and Mediservice customers (source: Exame magazine's Best and Major Companies (Melhores e Maiores) ranking, July 2011).

Net income for the quarter remained virtually steady when compared to the previous quarter, a result of the main performance indicators at the same levels seen in the third quarter of 2011.

2011 posted a 43.8% higher net income versus 2010 due to: (i) the 22.7% increase in sales, recording revenue higher than R$3.0 billion; (ii) an improved financial result performance; and (iii) an improved management efficiency ratio.

Economic and Financial Analysis

Bradesco Capitalização

Bradesco Capitalização ended 2011 in an outstanding position among private savings bond companies, due to its policy of transparency and of adjusting its products based on potential consumer demand.

In order to offer the savings bond that best fits the profile and budget of each customer, Bradesco Capitalização has developed several products that vary in accordance with payment method (lump-sum or monthly), contribution term, frequency of drawings and premium amounts. This phase was mainly marked by a closer relationship with the public by consolidating Pé Quente Bradesco products.

Among these, we can point out the performance of our social and environmental products, from which a part of the profit is allocated to socially responsible projects, while also allowing the customer to create a financial reserve. Bradesco Capitalização currently has partnerships with the following social and environmental institutions: (i) Fundação SOS Mata Atlântica (contributes to the conservation of biological and cultural diversity of the Atlantic Forest, stimulating social and environmental citizenship); (ii) Instituto Ayrton Senna (contributes to education and human development, reducing illiteracy rates, school failure and drop-out rates); (iii) Fundação Amazonas Sustentável (contributes to the sustainable commitment, environmental preservation and improvement to the quality of life of communities that benefit from the preservation centers in the state of Amazonas); (iv) the Brazilian Cancer Control Institute (contributes to the development of projects for the prevention, early diagnosis and treatment of cancer in Brazil); and (v) Projeto Tamar (created to save sea turtles).

Bradesco Capitalização is the first and only savings bond company in Brazil to receive the ISO 9001 certification of Quality Management. In 2009, it was certified with the ISO 9001:2008 for Management of Bradesco Savings Bonds. This certification, granted by Fundação Vanzolini, attests to the quality of its internal processes and confirms the principle that underpins Bradesco Savings Bonds: good products, services and continuous growth.

The portfolio is composed of 20.2 million active bonds, of which: 35.4% is Traditional Bonds sold in the Branch Network and at Bradesco Dia & Noite service channels, up 25.3% over December 2010; and 64.6% are incentive bonds (assignment of drawing rights), such as partnerships with Bradesco Vida e Previdência and Bradesco Auto/RE, which were up 11.7% over December 2010. Given that the purpose of this type of savings bond is to add value to the associated company or even encourage the performance of its customers, bonds have reduced maturity and grace terms and a lower sale price.

Net income for the fourth quarter of 2011 was down by 34.0% from the previous quarter, mainly due to: (i) 4.6 p.p. growth in the claims ratio, a result of the increase in the frequency of claims and workforce in cases of repairs (vehicle segment); and (ii) occasional claims for the basic segment.

Net income for 2011 was 23.0% higher than that posted in 2010, mainly due to: (i) a 5.8 p.p. decrease in claims; (ii) increased financial and equity results; and partially offset by: (iii) an increase in administrative and personnel expenses, resulting from the collective bargaining agreement dated January 2011.

In the Property Insurance segment, Bradesco Auto/RE has renewed insurance programs with its main customers through partnerships with brokers that specialize in the segment and a close relationship with the Bradesco Corporate and Bradesco Empresas (Middle Market) segments. The excellent performance of the Oil industry and recovery of the Civil Construction industry have also contributed to Bradesco Auto/RE's growth in the segment.

In Aviation and Maritime Hull insurance, the increased exchange with Bradesco Corporate and Bradesco Empresas has been drawn on extensively,

The transportation segment is still the primary focus, with essential investments made to leverage new business, especially in the renewal of reinsurance agreements, which gives insurers the power to assess and cover risk, and consequently increase competitiveness in more profitable businesses such as international transportation insurance for shipping companies involved in international trade.

Despite strong competition in the Auto/RCF line, the insurer has increased its customer base, mainly due to improvements to current products and the creation of products for a specific target-public. Among them, the Exclusive Bradesco Customer Insurance for Banco Bradesco account holder (Bradesco Seguro Exclusivo Clientes Bradesco) and Auto Mulher (car insurance for women) stand out.

For better service, Bradesco Auto/RE currently has 15 Bradesco Auto Centers (BAC), which offer policyholders the greatest variety of services in a single place, including: auto claims services, reserve rental cars, installation of anti-theft equipment, preventative maintenance checks, glass repairs or replacement and environmental vehicle inspections.

taking full advantage of the stronger sales of new aircraft and those of the maritime segment.

Mass insurance targets individuals, self-employed professionals and SMEs. The launch of new products combined with the continuous improvement to methods and systems has contributed to growth in the customer base, which increased by 10.7% in the last 12 months, to a total of 3.7 million customers.

It is worth pointing out that we continued with a strong strategy for the Residential Insurance segment, with an approximate 41.2% growth in premiums in 2011, totaling approximately 1.9 million insured homes.

Explanations of the main items that influenced the variation in Fee and Commission Income between periods can be found as follows.

Fee and Commission IncomeCard Income

Card income stood at R$1,406 million in the fourth quarter of 2011, up R$107 million, or 8.2%, over the previous quarter. This performance is mainly due to the increase in number of transactions and in average ticket, with a consequent increase in revenue.

In 2011, the same figure posted year-on-year growth of 21.3%, or R$894 million, mainly due to an increase in revenue from purchases and services, resulting from the expansion of the card base by 7.2%, from 145.2 million in December 2010 to 155.7 million in December 2011. This expansion led to an 18.6% increase in credit card revenue in the period, for a total of R$89,624 million in 2011, as well as a 15.3% increase in transactions, from 959.0 million in the twelve months of 2010 to 1,105.7 million in 2011.

Economic and Financial Analysis

Fee and Commission Income

Checking Account

In the fourth quarter of 2011, income from checking accounts was up by 5.6% quarter on quarter, mainly due to: (i) a net increase of 430 thousand new checking accounts (392 thousand individual accounts and 38 thousand corporate accounts); and (ii) the expansion of the service portfolio provided to the Bank's customers.

Year on year, income increased by 18.0% or R$425 million in 2011, mainly due to the expansion of the checking account base, which posted a net increase of 1,981 thousand new accounts (1,859 thousand new individual accounts and 122 thousand new corporate accounts).

Loan Operations

In the fourth quarter of 2011, income from loan operations amounted to R$528 million, up 4.6% in comparison with the previous quarter, mainly due to the greater volume of loan operations in the period, in which the 9.2% increase in Sureties and Guarantees operations compared to the third quarter of 2011 stood out.

The 14.8% growth in 2011 compared with the previous year is mainly due to the increase in the volume of operations in 2011, mainly income from collateral, up 21.4%, mainly deriving from the 18.9% growth in the volume of Sureties and Guarantees.

Economic and Financial Analysis

Fee and Commission IncomeFund Management

In the fourth quarter of 2011, revenue from fund management stood at R$498 million, down R$8 million from the previous quarter, mainly due to fewer business days in the quarter, partially offset by the 5.0% growth in the volume of funds raised and managed.

Year on year, the R$142 million or 7.9% increase was mainly due to: (i) increases in funds raised and managed by Bradesco, which grew by 13.4%; partially offset by: (ii) the 18.1% drop in the Ibovespa index in the period, impacting revenue from managed funds and portfolios pegged to equities.

The highlight was income from fixed-income funds, which grew by 16.8% in the period, followed by the 8.4% growth in third-party funds.

Fee and Commission Income

Cash Management Solutions (Payments and Collections)

The R$6 million, or 1.5%, growth in income in this segment in the fourth quarter of 2011 over the previous quarter is mainly due to the increase in business volume and number of processed documents, which remained practically steady when compared to the previous quarter.

Year on year, Payment and Collection income grew by 11.5%, or R$158 million, mainly due to an increase in the number of processed documents, which grew from 1,508 million in 2010 to 1,750 million in 2011.

Consortium Management

In the fourth quarter of 2011, income from consortium management remained virtually stable compared to the third quarter. On December 31, 2011, Bradesco posted 625,763 active quotas (584,097 active quotas on September 30, 2011), ensuring its leading position in all segments it operates (real estate, auto, trucks/tractors).

Year on year, there was a 21.5% increase in income, resulting from: (i) the growth in the volume of bids; and (ii) the increase in sales of new quotas, from 471,620 net quotas sold on December 31, 2010 to 625,763 on December 31, 2011, an increase of 154,143 net quotas.

Fee and Commission Income

Custody and Brokerage Services

In the fourth quarter of 2011, total custody and brokerage service income decreased R$6 million, or 5.6%, when compared to the previous quarter. This performance mainly results from the reduction in brokerage revenue, mainly due the lower volume traded on the BM&FBovespa.

In the comparison between 2011 and 2010, the 6.5% or R$29 million income decrease is mainly related to: (i) the performance of capital markets in this period, which impacted brokerage income; and partially offset by: (ii) the increase in custody services, due to the R$67 billion gain in assets under custody.

Underwriting/ Financial Advising Services

The R$31 million increase in the quarter-on-quarter comparison mainly refers to increased revenue with capital market operations in the fourth quarter of 2011, particularly underwriting operations. Furthermore, changes in this income are often the result of volatile performance of capital markets.

From 2010 to 2011, there was an increase of R$7 million as a result of a higher business volume in the year.

In the fourth quarter of 2011, total Administrative and Personnel Expenses amounted to R$6,822 million, up 8.5% in relation to the previous quarter, driven by a significant investment in accelerated organic growth in the period, marked by the expansion of 11,030 service points, including the inauguration of 1,009 branches.

Personnel Expenses

In the fourth quarter of 2011, personnel expenses totaled R$3,140 million, up 9.0% or R$260 million from the previous quarter.

Within the structural portion, the R$127 million increase is mainly the result of: (i) greater expenses with payroll, social charges and benefits, in the amount of R$95 million, due to the expansion of service points and improvement to business segmentation and consequent raise in the number of employees; and (ii) the adjustment for the increase of salary levels, based on the collective bargaining agreement and labor adjustments amounting to R$32 million.

In the non-structural portion, the R$133 million increase is basically due to higher expenses with: (i) the complement of a portion related to the management and employee profit sharing in the amount of R$177 million; and partially offset by: (ii) lower expenses with the provision for labor claims in the amount of R$54 million.

Economic and Financial Analysis

Administrative and Personnel Expenses

In the year-on-year comparison, the R$1,759 million increase reflects: (i) the structural expenses of R$1,281 million related to: (a) the increase in expenses with payroll, social charges and benefits, impacted by salary increases; and (b) the net increase in staff, hiring 9,436 employees in the period, driven by organic growth; and (ii) the R$478 million gain in the non-structural expenses mainly due to higher expenses with: (a) management and employee profit sharing, totaling R$289 million; and (b) the provision for labor claims, totaling R$120 million.

Economic and Financial Analysis

Administrative and Personnel Expenses

Administrative Expenses

In the fourth quarter of 2011, administrative expenses totaled R$3,682 million, up by 8.1%, or R$277 million from the previous quarter. Main variations were: (i) a R$119 million expense with advertising and marketing; and (ii) higher expenses related to accelerated organic growth (e.g.: transportation, security and surveillance, maintenance and preservation of goods, etc.), which enabled the inauguration of 689 branches in the quarter, totaling 59,711 service points on December 31, 2011.

The year-on-year growth of R$1,874 million, or 16.3%, is mainly due to: (i) higher expenses with outsourced services, in the amount of R$479 million, basically related to variable expenses tied to business revenue/volume (correspondent units, Call Center and etc.); (ii) contract adjustments; and (iii) higher expenses related to accelerated organic growth, which expanded service points by 11,030 units, pointing out the inauguration of 1,009 branches in the period.

Operating Coverage Ratio ⁽¹⁾

The coverage ratio over the last 12 months dropped by 0.5 p.p. in the quarter, as a result of: (i) the increase in personnel and administrative expenses, mainly originated by: (a) the impact of the collective bargaining agreement; and (b) the increase in expenses partly resulting from an increase in business volume and the expansion of service points, driven by accelerated organic growth that resulted in the expansion of 11,030 units, including the inauguration of 1,009 branches in the period; and partially offset by: (ii) the growth in fee and commission income.

Tax Expenses

The R$139 million increase quarter on quarter in tax expenses essentially arises from higher PIS/Cofins expenses, due to the increase in tax expenses in the fourth quarter of 2011.

Year on year, tax expenses grew by R$544 million, mainly due to: (i) higher expenses with ISS/PIS/Cofins taxes reflecting the increase in taxable income, especially financial margin and fee and commission income.

Economic and Financial Analysis

Equity in the Earnings (Losses) of Unconsolidated Companies

In the fourth quarter of 2011, equity in the earnings (losses) of unconsolidated companies stood at R$53 million. The R$12 million increase from the previous quarter was mainly due to greater results with the company IRB – Brasil Resseguros.

Year on year, the R$17 million increase recorded in 2011 was mainly due to greater results from the companies IRB – Brasil Resseguros and Serasa.

Operating Income

Operating income in the fourth quarter of 2011 was R$4,034 million, down 3.4%, or R$140 million, from the third quarter of 2011, mainly impacted by: (i) a R$537 million growth in personnel and administrative expenses; (ii) higher tax expenses amounting to R$139 million; partially offset by: (iii) a R$210 million increase in fee and commission income; (iv) lower allowance for loan loss expenses, in the amount of R$118 million; (v) the increase in other operating income (net of other expenses), in the amount of R$99 million; and (vi) a R$69 million increase in operating income from Insurance, Pension Plans and Savings Bonds.

Year on year, the R$2,001 million, or 14.0%, increase in 2011 is basically a result of (i) the R$6,265 million increase in financial margin; (ii) the R$1,851 million increase in fee and commission income; (iii) the R$598 million increase in operating income from Insurance, Pension Plans and Savings Bonds, partially offset by: (iv) a R$3,633 million increase in personnel and administrative expenses; (v) a R$1,534 million increase in allowance for loan loss expenses; (vi) a R$1,019 million increase in other operating expenses (net of other income); and (vii) a R$544 million increase in tax expenses.

Economic and Financial Analysis

Non-Operating Income

The R$6 million variation between the fourth quarter of 2011 and 2010 is mainly due to greater losses from the sale of assets in the fourth quarter of 2011.

Comparing 2011 and 2010, the variation is mainly the result of greater non-operating expenses.

Sustainability

The fourth quarter of 2011 was marked by a number of important events for Bradesco.

For the seventh consecutive time, the Bank was selected as a part of the Corporate Sustainability Index (ISE), of the Securities, Commodities and Futures Exchange (BM&FBovespa). In being selected, Bradesco's common (BBDC3) and preferred (BBDC4) shares were added to the index.

Bradesco signed the International Statement of Commitment by Financial Institutions on the Environment and Sustainable Development, formalizing its entrance into the United Nations Environment Programme - Finance Initiative (UNEP FI). The Statement affirms that economic development should be compatible with human well-being and environmental balance, in addition to establishing a commitment to adopting best practices to integrate social and environmental questions into business and operations in all markets.

Bradesco also attended the semi-annual conference organized by the United Nations Environment Programme – Finance Initiative (UNEP FI) in a unique and global partnership with the financial sector.

Bradesco, in a partnership with Fundação Amazonas Sustentável (FAS), participated in the 17th Conference of Parties (COP17) at the United Nations Climate Change Conference, held in the city of Durban, South Africa, in 2011.

For the third consecutive year, Bradesco participated in the Annual Equator Principles Meeting, in October, in the city of Washington D.C.,

The Bank organized the 2nd Technological Waste Collection Campaign at administrative buildings in the city of São Paulo and in Cidade de Deus, in the city of Osasco. A total of 6.7 metric tons of waste were sent to a company specializing in the reprocessing of equipment, turning the waste into raw material for the ceramic, glass and paint industries.

2011 marked the celebration of the tenth anniversary of the “International Year of Volunteers,” created by the United Nations (UN). Bradesco sponsored the initiative as a supporter and promoter of volunteer work. To promote the theme among its employees, Bradesco held the fourth Bradesco Volunteer Marathon, a solidarity competition focused on eco-efficiency. A total of 1,307 employees participated in the event, helping 37,196 people in 112 social institutions nationwide.

During 2011, Bradesco promoted a number of actions to support and guide its suppliers in incorporating sustainability into their business. In October, the Company held the 9th Bradesco Supplier Meeting, with the theme “A More Sustainable Supply Chain – How to Learn, How to Act?” The event, which brought together representatives of product and service suppliers from a number of segments, focused on providing a complete overview of the dimension of sustainability for Bradesco and invited entrepreneurs to engage in sustainable developments.

U.S.A. The event brought together representatives of more than 50 financial institutions that signed the commitment and focused on the process of revising the Equator Principles. Bradesco was an active participant in the process through its engagement in two work groups focused on evaluating opportunities for improvement to the Principles.

Bradesco closed its 4Q11 event program with the APIMEC Meeting cycles in the cities of Vitória and Manaus. Throughout the year, Bradesco held 18 APIMEC meetings and one INI Meeting in every Brazilian region, attended by over 4 thousand people, among analysts, shareholders, customers and investors. All events were broadcast live over the internet with simultaneous translation into English, and were followed by more than 13 thousand viewers. The São Paulo event also included a transmission in Libras (Brazilian Sign Language), reinforcing the democratization of information.

A summary of all events and a replay of the entire meeting in São Paulo can be found at www.bradesco.com.br/ri.

In 2011, Bradesco received, for the 2nd consecutive year, the “Best APIMEC Meeting in Quality” award for the meeting held in São Paulo. A qualified jury elects the best meeting, based on the answers of a questionnaire filled out by meeting participants. Bradesco’s efforts to organize these events were also recognized in 2011 by the Association of Capital Market Analysts and Investment Professionals (APIMEC) as the “Best APIMEC Meeting” in the Federal District and Northeast region.

In 2011 we expanded our participation in the ExpoMoney Circuit, the largest financial education fair in Latin America by six, taking the event to the cities of Recife, Florianópolis, São Paulo, Belo Horizonte, Rio de Janeiro and Porto Alegre. Participants attending these fairs had the opportunity to learn through lectures and interactive questionnaires prepared by Bradesco on the Macroeconomic Scenario, Strategies, Main Figures, Capital Markets and Sustainability.

Bradesco —

Additional Information

Investments in Infrastructure, Information Technology and Telecommunication

Information Technology is of great strategic importance to the Organization, enabling it to offer customers services characterized by speed and security in carrying out operations at all of its service points in Brazil or abroad. Therefore, decisions regarding technological evolution are guided by elements that seek to provide high-quality services, speed, convenience and security at all service points and via all electronic channels.

In 2011, Bradesco won the award for Best Internet Banking for Individuals in Brazil, from Global Finance magazine. The new Internet Banking was redesigned to offer innovative solutions in operation, technology and architecture of information. In addition to the new layout, the website provides easy-to-operate resources to carry out online transactions.

Another important indicator of Bradesco's position on the forefront of IT was the Intangible Assets Brazil award given to the Bank, for the fifth consecutive year, in the Intangible Assets: Information Technology and Internet category, organized by Grupo Padrão.

Our position as a pioneer was also highlighted by the option our customers now have (if bearers of biometric registration) to carry out transactions at ATMs using only their bank debit card and their biometric registration, without the need to provide the six-digit password or any other security devices.

Corporate management of non-structured information, began in 2011, seeks to radically reduce the use of paper in a number of processes, providing benefits such as quality and speed in accessing information and the mitigation of risks in the total recovery of information in the case of accidents, in addition to improving the operational efficiency of the Bank's back office work.

The IT improvement project, which mainly sought to provide for new system architecture, will provide great improvements as of 2012, including greater speed in serving business units, products and services and improved service quality.

Focused on the international market, we implemented a new technological platform to support business at our external units. The first stage of the project included Private Banking products, allowing for expansion to other wholesale banking areas.

We have an up-to-date technological environment, duly controlled and prepared to meet the demands of the growing volume of our customers' business transactions. Last year, Bradesco's processing capability grew by 33%, to a daily volume of 229 million transactions, while data storage capability increased 38%, allowing the Bank to offer more services and information to its customers.

Following the world's best practices, our customer service network remained highly accessible. In fact, it was expanded with the opening of more than 1,000 new branches, with complete IT and communication infrastructure. This environment is managed in order to make complex tasks simple and manageable, while maintaining low operating risk and the scalability needed to support the Bank's growth.

As a prerequisite for its continuous expansion in 2011, Bradesco invested R$4,328 million in Infrastructure and IT/Telecommunications.

The total amount invested in recent years, including infrastructure (facilities, restorations, improvements, furniture and fixtures), can be found below:

In 2011, the Bank also implemented a system for check clearing by image. This new process led to improvements in customer service by reducing the time needed to deliver copies of checks and for check clearing, as well as speeding up the crediting of funds to accounts.

— Report on Economic and Financial Analysis – December 2011

Risk Management

Risk management is a highly strategic activity due to the increasing complexity of products and services offered and the globalization of the Organization's business. Therefore, Bradesco is constantly enhancing its process.

The Organization's decisions are based on factors that combine return on previously identified, measured and assessed risks, providing the conditions required to meet strategic goals while working to strengthen the Organization.

The Organization exercises the corporate control of risks in an integrated and independent manner, unifying policies, processes, criteria and methodology for risk control by means of a statutory body, the Integrated Risk Management and Capital Allocation Committee, which is supported by specific committees and risk management policies approved by the Board of Directors

Capital Adequacy Ratio

In December 2011, Bradesco's Reference Shareholders' Equity amounted to R$71,476 million, versus a Required Reference Shareholders' Equity of R$52,159 million, resulting in a R$19,317 million capital margin. This figure was mostly impacted by the credit risk portion (PEPR), representing 90.9% of the risk-weighted assets, resulting from the expansion in loan operations.

Detailed information on the risk management process, reference shareholders' equity and required reference shareholders' equity, as well as the Organization's risk exposure, can be found in the Risk Management Report on the Investor Relations website, at www.bradesco.com.br/ri.

The Capital Adequacy Ratio improved 0.4 p.p., from 14.7% in September 2011 to 15.1% in December 2011, mainly due to: (i) the eligibility of the Subordinated Financial Bills to be included under Tier II Capital in the fourth quarter of 2011, which amounted to R$1,828 million; and (ii) the effects of Bacen Circular Letter 3,563/11, which set forth a decrease in capital requirements for certain loan and leasing operations (abrogation of Circular Letter 3,515/10) and investments in quotas of investment funds tied to pension plans (PGBL and VGBL).

Reasonable assurance report from independent auditors on the supplementary accounting information

To the Board of Directors

Banco Bradesco S.A.

Osasco – SP

Introduction

We have been engaged for the purpose of applying reasonable assurance procedures on the supplementary accounting information included in the Economic and Financial Analysis Report of Banco Bradesco S.A. ("Bradesco") for the year ended December 31, 2011, which is prepared under the Bradesco's Management responsibility. Our responsibility is to issue a Reasonable Assurance Report on this supplementary accounting information.

Scope, procedures applied and limitations

The reasonable assurance procedures were performed in accordance with the Brazilian Accounting Standard (NBC) TO 3000 – Assurance Engagement Other than Audit and Review, issued by the Brazilian Federal Accounting Council (CFC), and with the International Standard on Assurance Engagements (ISAE) 3000 - issued by the International Auditing and Assurance Standards Board (IASB), both for assurance engagements other than audits or reviews of historical financial information.

The reasonable assurance procedures comprised: (a) the planning of the work, considering the relevance of the supplementary financial information and the internal control systems that served as a basis for the preparation of the Economic and Financial Analysis Report of Bradesco, (b) the understanding of the calculation methodology and the consolidation of indicators by means of interviews with the managers responsible for the preparation of the supplementary accounting information, and (c) the comparison of the financial and accounting indicators with the interim information disclosed as of this date and / or accounting records.

The procedures that were applied do not constitute an audit or review in accordance with Brazilian and international auditing and review standards. Additionally, our report does not provide reasonable assurance on the scope of future information (such as goals, expectations and future plans) and descriptive information which is subject to subjective evaluation.

Criteria for preparation of the supplementary accounting information

The supplementary accounting information disclosed in the Economic and Financial Analysis Report for the year ended December 31, 2011 was prepared by the Bradesco's Management, based on the consolidated financial information included in the financial statements and the criteria described in the Economic and Financial Analysis Report, aiming at enabling further analysis, but without being part of the financial statements disclosed on that date.

Conclusion

Based on the procedures applied, the supplementary accounting information included in the Economic and Financial Analysis Report for the year ended December 31, 2011 are fairly presented, in all material aspects, in relation to the information referred to in the paragraph "Criteria for preparation of the supplementary accounting information".

Message to Shareholders

Dear Shareholders,

At the close of 2011, the global economic outlook was marked by prospects of deceleration and risk, especially in the developed countries. Signs of improvement in the U.S. economy were quickly erased by political disputes on the eve of the 2012 presidential elections. In Europe, the experience of a monetary and customs union being unable to evolve into a political and fiscal union may require certain governments to expend greater effort on solving their current difficulties.

Involved in and, at the same time, benefiting from the growing wave of transparency sweeping through the developed world in recent decades, the developing economies were able to promptly adopt measures to prevent the supposed errors of their developed peers, leading to quicker and less onerous adjustments to their fiscal, monetary and exchange policies.

Within this scenario, one that partially affected the optimistic forecasts at the beginning of 2011, Brazil's social and economic potential and performance will almost certainly remain on an upward trajectory. Now that more than 50% of its population has joined the middle class, an unprecedented achievement, the country's domestic market will be a powerful ally in maintaining growth in 2011 and 2012, albeit at a slower pace than in 2010. In addition, global recognition of the maturity of Brazil's democratic regime, freedom of speech, independent judiciary and increasing consumption have made it a prime destination for direct foreign investments.

In regard to results, Bradesco recorded net income of R$11.028 billion in 2011, up 10.04% on the previous year. Of this total, R$3.740 billion was allocated to shareholders as dividends and interest on equity, equivalent to 31.50% (net of withholding tax) of adjusted annual net income. Once again, we cannot help but mention Grupo Bradesco de Seguros' contribution to this result, which came to 29.03%. In addition, the Organization contributed R$19.159 billion to the government's coffers.

We also cannot forget the social and environmental initiatives of Fundação Bradesco, one of the largest private social and educational programs in Brazil. The Foundation maintains 40 schools, most of which in underprivileged regions, providing free, high-quality education and strengthening ethical values and civic responsibility. This includes the provision of learning materials, uniforms, meals and dental and medical assistance. In 2011, Fundação Bradesco had 112,081 enrolled students, in addition to benefitting 382,329 students through distance education (EaD), via the Virtual School, and another 134,764 students through partnership projects and actions.

The current year, which has faced a number of challenges from the start, could be marked by periods of greater volatility in Brazil, depending on the scenarios in the developed countries. However, this should have no undue impact on the growth trajectory of a fiscally responsible country, which has built up substantial foreign reserves, is keeping inflation under control and is anchored in the solid expansion of domestic demand. Focused on the domestic market through its extensive network of around 60,000 service points, Bradesco is fully prepared to take advantage of any business

For the Bradesco Organization, its 68th year was marked by substantial progress and a number of notable achievements, especially: a) the inauguration of 1,009 branches, bringing the total number of branches and service posts to 9,063 nationwide, underlining the extent and solidity of the Bank's structure and its confidence in Brazil, as well as its determination to continue investing; b) the acquisition of Banco do Estado do Rio de Janeiro S.A. - BERJ, which gave Bradesco responsibility for handling the state's civil service payroll and mobilized teams of employees throughout the country, transforming the registration of more than 400 thousand accounts into a platform for expanding the Bank's business in the state; and c) the creation of a new subsidiary, BSP Empreendimentos Imobiliários S.A., to consolidate management of the Organization's real estate assets, with a portfolio of 840 properties. Recognitions in 2011 included: a) Bradesco's continued inclusion in the NYSE's Dow Jones Sustainability Index; and b) the BM&FBOVESPA's Corporate Sustainability Index, as well as the appointment of the Bradesco brand as one of the most valuable in the country by a renowned consulting firm. Bradesco also increased its monthly dividends by 10% in August.

opportunities that may arise, in complete security and in line with its corporate strategy.

Finally, we would like to pay tribute to the work of our 104,684 dedicated employees, guided by the skilled and devoted leadership of our executives, in overcoming challenges and reaffirming our culture of success. We would also like to thank our customers and shareholders for the trust that we are so proud to have earned.

Financial Statements, Independent Auditors' Report,
Summary of the Audit Committee's Report and Fiscal Council's Report

Management Report

We hereby present the consolidated financial statements of Banco Bradesco S.A. for the year ended December 31, 2011, pursuant to the accounting practices adopted in Brazil and applicable to institutions authorized to operate by the Brazilian Central Bank.

Concerns over the need for fiscal adjustments in the developed countries intensified throughout the second half of 2011. The complexity of the issue and the difficulties involved in arriving at an adequate and politically viable solution increased the risk of the financial sector being contaminated by the problems facing the economy. The dwindling confidence of the agents in Europe and the USA reduced the pace of economic growth in the developing economies, increasing the risk of a global slowdown in 2012.

Brazil is better prepared to face the materialization of existing risks in the world scenario than it was three years ago at the peak of the 2008 crisis. It has much more anticyclical maneuvering room than many other countries and is well-regarded by the international community, which has led to its consolidation as one of the leading destinations for direct foreign investments. Even the domestic deceleration in recent months has not tempered the current positive outlook.

Despite the country's undeniable export vocation, domestic demand has been and will continue to be the main engine of economic performance. Household consumption has been driven by the buoyant job market, while investments have benefited from the opportunities generated by pre-salt oil exploration and the sporting events in 2014 and 2016. With no signs of excessive income commitment by borrowers and with continuing

- on August 29, the Bank announced a 10% increase in monthly dividends per share as of October 2011, in compliance with the Monthly Remuneration System, from R$0.013219250 to R$0.014541175 for common shares, and from R$0.014541175 to R$0.015995293 for preferred shares;

- on September 8, Bradesco was once again included in the Dow Jones Sustainability Index, a select list prepared by the New York Stock Exchange comprising those companies with the best sustainable development practices; and on November 25, the Bank was once again selected for inclusion in the BM&FBOVESPA's Corporate Sustainability Index – ISE, consisting of those companies with the best corporate sustainability initiatives; and

- on October 30, the creation of "BSP – Empreendimentos Imobiliários S.A." sought to consolidate management of the Organization's real estate assets, with a portfolio of 840 properties. BSP will generate efficiency gains, streamline structures, reduce operating costs and provide opportunities for improving these assets.

1. Net Income for the Year

In 2011, the results achieved and the remuneration paid to shareholders underline the success of the Bank's strategies in a scenario of uncertainty, backed by the improvement in business confidence, resulting in the continuation of sustainable growth. A detailed analysis of these numbers, including their origin and evolution, is available in the Economic and Financial Analysis Report section of the Company's website bradesco.com.br/ri.

upward social mobility, the outlook for the Brazilian banking system also remains favorable, especially in the real estate segment, which has found ample room for sustainable growth on the back of sound economic fundamentals.

R$11.028 billion in Net Income for the year, corresponding to Earnings per Share of R$2.89 and a Return on Average Shareholders' Equity^(*) of 20.98%. The Return on Average Total Assets stood at 1.58%, versus 1.76% in the previous year.

The Bradesco Organization's period highlights are listed below:

- on May 20, Bradesco acquired control of Banco do Estado do Rio de Janeiro S.A. – BERJ, in an auction held by the BM&FBOVESPA – Securities, Commodities and Futures Exchange. The operation guaranteed Bradesco the right to provide services to the state of Rio de Janeiro in regard to the payment of civil service salaries, the payment of suppliers and the collection of state taxes, among others, between January 2012 and December 2014, thereby expanding the Bank's presence in the state and reaffirming its confidence in and partnership with its development. The Extraordinary Shareholders' Meeting on November 3, 2011 approved the alteration of the bank's corporate name to Banco BERJ S.A., a decision which was approved by the Brazilian Central Bank on the following day.

Bradesco

Financial Statements, Independent Auditors' Report, Summary
of the Audit Committee's Report and Fiscal Council's Report

Management Report

R$3.740 billion was allocated to shareholders in the form of monthly Dividends, and interim and supplementary Interest on Shareholders' Equity, which was included in the calculation of the mandatory dividends. Thus, R$1.03 (R$0.91 net of withholding tax) was attributed to each preferred share, which includes the additional 10%, and R$0.93 (R$0.82 net of withholding tax) was attributed to each common share. Dividends and interest on shareholders' equity represented 35.70% of adjusted net income for the year (31.50% net of withholding tax).

In order to leverage growth and profitability in keeping with previous years, Bradesco has concentrated on expanding its client base and consolidating its role as a "Complete Bank" in Brazil, with an active presence in all segments, exemplified by the consistent offer of more and better mass-market products and services, especially in the loan and insurance areas.

Bradesco's service network ended the year with 47,815 service points nationwide and 12 abroad, giving a total of 47,827, a 25.48% increase over 2010.

Taxes and Contributions

A substantial percentage of Bradesco's annual earnings, in direct proportion to its volume of operations, was paid to the federal government.

R$10.032 billion in taxes and contributions, including social security contributions, paid or provisioned in the year.

R$9.127 billion in taxes withheld and collected related to financial intermediation.

All in all, taxes originating in the Organization or collected on resources in transit through it came to a hefty R$19.159 billion.

Together with the public's trust in the Bradesco brand, the Bank's convenience channels, including branches, service points, Bradesco Espresso outlets, 34,516 Bradesco Dia&Noite ATMs and 12,455 shared ATM's (Banco24Horas network and those shared with Banco do Brasil and Banco Santander), as well as Internet Banking, Bradesco Celular and Fone Fácil, ensure the efficient distribution of products, services and solutions, backed by excellent customer service.

In 2011, Bradesco began a bold network-expansion program, culminating in the opening of 1,009 new branches, always aiming to promote social and banking inclusion in Brazil, which is the key to its strategic plan. This was of vital importance, highlighting the Bank's market presence and its role in generating jobs and income, and underlining its belief in the country's future.

2. Corporate Strategy

While the global economy is undergoing a period of uncertainty, Brazil is currently much better positioned to face future risks.

We believe that Brazilian economic growth in 2012 and following years will continue to be driven by household consumption and investment. These components of GDP will benefit from increased income and employment, strong social mobility and opportunities from pre-salt and the 2014 and 2016 sporting events. Based on this scenario and in the face of the current international situation, Bradesco will continue to focus on the domestic market.

It has also been extremely active in financing the modernization of infrastructure, industry and commerce. At the same time, the country has become a highly attractive destination for foreign investments. Bradesco will continue to adopt efficient security criteria for ensuring a balance between increasing loans and reducing delinquency through the strict evaluation of loan granting procedures and the efficient daily collection of overdue payments through the Loan Recovery Program (PRC).

The Bank will maintain its strategic focus on its current operational segments, such as investment banking, capital markets, private banking and asset management. It will also continue to invest in credit cards, through Elo and Amex, as well as insurance, private pension plans and savings bonds through Grupo Bradesco Seguros.

Continuing with the expansion of its essential commercial areas, Bradesco operates on two fronts: finance and insurance (where it occupies a leading position), based on the Bank-Insurance model.

of the Audit Committee's Report and Fiscal Council's Report

Management Report

Bradesco is also present in strategic overseas markets, providing support to foreign clients and investors who are increasingly interested in Brazil. Bradesco Securities in New York and London play a vital role in issuing and distributing securities in these important financial centers, while Banco Bradesco Europe provides asset management, private banking and trade finance services.

Another highlight is the Brazilian Elo brand, jointly implemented by Bradesco, Banco do Brasil and Caixa Econômica Federal, which has a strong presence in credit, debit and pre-paid cards for checking account holders and non-account holders.

The Bank also continuously invests in two fundamental banking operations – information technology and infrastructure, and human resources. The pursuit of new service channels, such as internet banking, self-service and cell phone mobility, with more service options, has generated customer service productivity gains, accompanied by greater comfort and security. Bradesco has invested R$4.328 billion in innovating, upgrading and maintaining its IT environment, while investments in staff training programs totaled R$161.495 million.

Bradesco's corporate culture is grounded in respect for the consumer, social and environmental responsibility, security and credibility, and its strategic plan is based on three main guidelines:

3. Capital, Reserves and Subordinated Debt

Banco Bradesco posted the following figures at year-end:

R$30.100 billion in Subscribed and Paid-Up Capital Stock;

R$25.482 billion in Equity Reserves; and

R$55.582 billion in Shareholders' Equity, up 15.69% on the previous year, equivalent to 7.38% of Assets, which amounted to R$753.337 billion, while Shareholders' Equity under Management stood at 7.38% of Consolidated Assets, which totaled R$761.533 billion. Book Value per Share came to R$14.56.

The Extraordinary Shareholders' Meeting (ESM) of March 10, 2011, ratified a capital increase of R$1.5 billion to R$30 billion, approved by the ESM of December 17, 2010, through the issue of 62,344,140 new registered, book-entry shares with no par value, comprising 31,172,072 common shares and 31,172,068 preferred shares, as well as a further increase to R$30.1 billion, through any capitalization of reserves, without the issue of new shares. The operation was then ratified by the

a) to grow organically, always alert to potential acquisitions, associations and partnerships, fully committed to maintaining secure, high-quality products, solutions and services, and always seeking to improve its operating ratios and indicators;

b) to identify and evaluate the inherent risks of its activities, applying adequate controls and acceptable levels of risk to each operation; and

c) to operate in partnership with capital markets, conducting its business with total transparency, the highest ethical standards and adequate compensation for investors.

Brazilian Central Bank on March 18, 2011. As a result, the Bank's capital stock now comprises 3,824,794,581 shares, divided among 1,912,397,390 common and 1,912,397,191 preferred shares.

The Capital Adequacy Ratio stood at 15.03% of the consolidated financial result and 15.07% of the consolidated economic and financial result, substantially higher than the 11% minimum established by National Monetary Council Resolution 2,099/94, in conformity with the Basel Committee. In relation to Consolidated Reference Assets, the fixed asset ratio (maximum of 50%, in accordance with the Brazilian Central Bank) was 21.03% in the consolidated financial result and 48.37% in the consolidated economic and financial result.

Subordinated Debt at year-end totaled R$26.910 billion (R$6.404 billion abroad and R$20.506 billion in Brazil), R$15.630 billion of which was considered eligible as capital and included in Tier II of the Reference Assets adopted when calculating the ratios in the previous paragraph.

In compliance with Article 8 of Brazilian Central Bank Circular Letter 3,068/01, Bradesco declares that it has both the financial capacity and intent to hold until maturity those securities classified under "held-to-maturity securities." The Bank further declares that the operations of Banco Ibi S.A., its subsidiary, are in line with the strategic aims defined in the Business Plan, pursuant to Article 8, paragraph 3 of the Regulations attached to National Monetary Council Resolution 3,040/02.

R$19.540 billion in the allowance for doubtful accounts, R$4.011 billion more than the amount required by National Monetary Council Resolution 2,682/99.

Mortgages

Bradesco's 2011 Mortgage Portfolio was distinguished by the substantial volume of operations, reflecting its priority commitment to meeting the demands of homebuyers and giving added momentum to the construction industry, which is a major generator of jobs and a driver of social and economic development. Properties for sale by partner developers and brokers, together with related information, can be found on the website bradescoimoveis.com.br.

R$14.907 billion in total funds allocated to this area, enabling the construction and acquisition of 76,346 properties, 63.31% more than in the previous year.

Onlending

Bradesco was one of the largest onlenders of BNDES funds in 2011, responsible for R$13.227 billion (reference date: October 2011), or 19.48% of all operations of this type. With R$8,592 billion, or 21.37% of the total, the Bank was the country's leading lender to SMEs for the ninth consecutive year.

4.2 Loan Operations

Bradesco is fully committed to the democratization of credit. Its diversified offering has consistently increased the volume of its financing operations, either directly or in partnership with market agents, and of its individual lines, such as payroll-deductible loans, through its extensive branch, service point and Banco Postal network, as well as the 0800 toll-free Customer Service Center for Loans.

R$31.427 billion in the onlending portfolios with internal and external funds, mainly allocated to SMEs. The number of contracts totaled 316,711.

R$5.798 billion in guarantees provided to the BNDES, with R$2.304 billion contracted in the year.

R$345.724 billion in consolidated loan operations, in the expanded concept, pointing out the Advances on Exchange Contracts, Sureties and Guarantees, Credit Card Receivables and Leasing, up 17.12% on 2010.

Rural Loans

As a traditional partner of the agriculture and cattle-raising sector, Bradesco invests in financing initiatives for crop production, processing and sale, contributing to the expansion of business and increasing the quality and yield of Brazil's agricultural produce. The Bank also offers support for domestic market supply and export growth. Information on agribusiness and loan products and services can be found on the bradescorural.com.br website.

Financial Statements, Independent Auditors' Report, Summary of the Audit Committee's Report and Fiscal Council's Report

Management Report

R$15.499 billion in investments at year-end, representing 121,715 operations.

Consumer Financing

The Bank has a substantial share of consumer financing operations geared towards the acquisition of new and used vehicles, including through partnerships, helping create jobs and fueling domestic market growth.

Inspired by social and environmental responsibility, the partnership with the Programa Floresta do Futuro of Fundação SOS Mata Atlântica (Fundação SOS Mata Atlântica Forest of the Future Program), together with the Ecofinancing line, involves the planting of native tree seedlings for each financed vehicle, aiming to reduce the impact of atmospheric greenhouse gas emissions.

R$83.043 billion in consumer financing operations.

Lending Policy

Bradesco's lending policy is based on businesses that demonstrate diversification and low concentration, are backed by appropriate guarantees and involve individuals and companies in good standing with proven payment capacity. Operations are carried out rapidly and securely, ensuring profitable and liquid asset investments.

4.3 Loan Collection and Recovery

Based on differentiated negotiation policies and payment terms, the Bank makes use of several collection channels to recover overdue loans, including: call centers, bank payment slips, the internet, friendly collection companies and court collection offices. The Loan Recovery Program (PRC) includes several initiatives to improve results, exemplified in 2011 by 1,550 Business Rooms and 16,355 conciliation court hearings, interacting with the Court of Appeals of Brazil to intensify the process of renegotiating overdue loans.

R$2.799 billion was recovered in 2011, up 4.57% on the previous year.

5. International Area

On the international front, the Bradesco Organization offers a wide range of products and services through its offices in New York, London, Grand Cayman, Buenos Aires, Tokyo, Hong Kong, Luxembourg and Mexico, as well as an extensive network of correspondent banks. 11. Corporate Governance

Bradesco's presence in the Brazilian capital market began in 1946, when the Bank's shares were listed on the stock exchange (BBDC3 – common share and BBDC4 – preferred share), just over three years after it was founded. In 2001, it began trading on the NYSE (American Depositary Receipts – ADRs Level II – BBD) and on the Madrid Stock Exchange (Latibex - XBBDC). In the same year, it voluntarily adhered to the requirements of the BM&FBOVESPA's Level 1 Special Corporate Governance Segment

The Related Parties Transaction Policy consolidates the Company's procedures regarding this issue, in accordance with the rules issued by the regulatory agencies, aiming to ensure the utmost transparency, while the Material Act or Fact Disclosure Policy and Securities Trading Policy establish the highest standards of conduct, mainly in regard to its controlling shareholders and administrators.

Since 2009, material regarding Shareholders' Meetings has been published on Bradesco's website and sent to the BM&FBOVESPA and the Brazilian Securities and Exchange Commission (CVM) approximately 30 days before the meetings take place, versus the 15 days required by Brazilian law.

In July 2005, Bradesco received an AA rating (Excellent Corporate Governance Practices) from Austin Rating, which was raised to AA+ in December 2011, reflecting the improvement to and maturity of several of the Bank's corporate governance practices.

In accordance with CVM Rule 381/03, in 2011 the Bradesco Organization neither contracted from nor rendered services to KPMG Auditores Independentes that were not related to the external audit in an amount exceeding 5% of the total cost of this audit. This policy is designed to preserve the auditors' independence in accordance with generally accepted international criteria.

11.1. Internal Controls and Compliance

Bradesco's Management comprises the Board of Directors and Board of Executive Officers. Members of the Board of Directors are elected annually by the Annual Shareholders' Meeting, and in turn elect the members of the Board of Executive Officers in internal meetings.

The Fiscal Council, a non-permanent body, has been installed on an annual basis since 2002. The Annual Shareholders' Meeting of March 10, 2011 resolved to maintain the body, which is composed of three sitting members and three alternate members, with mandates until 2012. One sitting member and one alternate member are elected by the preferred shareholders.

The Bradesco Organization is constantly seeking to improve its governance practices, under the supervision of the Board of Directors, which is responsible for defining and monitoring overall strategies and overseeing internal controls, especially concerning risk management – an issue that is widely regarded as synonymous with sustainability in any organization.

In addition to 100% tag-along rights for common shareholders and 80% rights for preferred shareholders, Bradesco maintains a differentiated Dividend Policy that guarantees shareholders mandatory minimum dividends equivalent to 30% of adjusted net income, higher than the 25% minimum established by Law 6,404/76. In addition, preferred shareholders receive dividends 10% higher than those attributed to common shareholders.

The efficiency of the Organization's internal controls is sustained by three pillars: people, processes and technology. In this context, we rely on a group of dedicated, highly-trained professionals, well-defined and established processes and technology that meets our business requirements.

The Internal Controls and Compliance Policy and the Corporate Methodology are duly formalized and fully aligned with the main control frameworks, such as COSO (the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission and COBIT (the Control Objectives for Information and Related Technology), which deal with business and technology aspects, respectively, and also complies with the requirements of National Monetary Council Resolution 2554/98, the PCAOB (Public Company Accounting Oversight Board) and Section 404 of the U.S. Sarbanes-Oxley Act.

of the Audit Committee's Report and Fiscal Council's Report

Management Report

In compliance with the latter, the Company's 20-F, the report that certifies the adequacy of internal controls, together with the corresponding financial statements in US GAAP for the year ended December 31, 2010, were filed with the SEC in May 2011.

The task of ensuring effective internal controls is developed in conjunction with the areas responsible for managing the Organization's products, services and processes. These areas are subject to regular adherence tests and the results are reported to the Audit and Internal Control Committees, as well as the Board of Directors. In cases of non-compliance, corrective measures are applied and duly monitored.

These initiatives heighten the quality of operating processes and help propagate the importance of a control culture, in turn leading to improved best practices.

Prevention of Money Laundering and the Financing of Terrorism

Bradesco maintains specific policies, processes and systems to prevent and/or detect the use of its structure, products or services for the purpose of money laundering or financing terrorism.

A specialized area, independent from those that create or use the models, is responsible for this process. It provides reports of its activities and results to managers, Internal Auditors and the Integrated Risk Management and Capital Allocation Committee, in compliance with best practices, the guidelines of the New Capital Accord – Basel II and the requirements of the Brazilian Central Bank.

Information Security

Comprising a set of controls, procedures, processes, organizational structures, policies and regulations, Information Security seeks to ensure the confidentiality, integrity and availability of information.

The bases for the protection of informational assets are described in Bradesco's Information Security Policy and Regulations, which are in turn grounded in best international standards and practices, and constitute a platform for the development of the awareness and training programs, focusing on the protection of customers' data and the Organization's strategic information.

The Corporate Security Executive Committee meets on a quarterly basis to examine and approve guidelines, measures and directives that support the Organization's Information Security processes and procedures.

Significant investments are made in employee training, with programs in various formats, including informative brochures, videos, e-learning courses and on-site lectures for areas requiring these activities.

Suspicious or atypical cases are assessed by a commission that includes representatives from several areas and departments to ascertain whether the proper authorities should be informed.

The program is supported by the Executive Committee to Prevent Money Laundering and Terrorism Financing, which holds quarterly meetings to evaluate the work and the need (if any) to adopt measures in order to ensure that the Bank's procedures are aligned with the rules issued by the regulatory agencies and best national and international practices.

Independent Authentication of Models

Internal business support models, whether based on statistical data or specialist knowledge, facilitate the approach to critical subjects, the fine-tuning of processes, and the standardization and streamlining of decisions within their particular context. These models are subject to a continuous process of critical analysis, ensuring quality and alignment with their objectives.

Integrated Management System

In an effort to improve results and expand resource management capacity, Bradesco makes use of one of the most modern concepts for integrating organizational processes, Enterprise Resource Planning (ERP).

This system covers human resources, training, the purchase of materials and services, accounts payable, physical and tax receipts, fixed assets, bank accounting, availability control, works management, maintenance, audits and real estate. System users receive continuous training through on-site and e-learning programs. The ERP allows the Organization to standardize its processes, speeds up decision making and streamlines operational security, while minimizing operating costs and increasing productivity.

11.2. Internal Audit

Reporting directly to the Board of Directors, the General Inspectorate is an independent body responsible for the Organization's internal audit. It performs corporate inspections and consulting and auditing tasks in order to mitigate business and information technology risks while ensuring compliance with the various policies, norms, standards, procedures and internal and external regulations governing the area.

11.3. Information Disclosure and Transparency Policies

In line with its market transparency principle, Bradesco publishes a number of periodicals. The Cliente Sempre em Dia newsletter, with a print-run of 400,000 copies, and PrimeLine, geared towards Bradesco Prime clients with a print-run of 200,000 copies, are published every two months, while the Acionista Sempre em Dia newsletter, with print-run of 38,000, and the periodicals Revista Bradesco, with a print-run of 3,000, are distributed on a quarterly basis. The Bank's Management Report and Sustainability Report are published annually and the Economic and Financial Analysis Report, which is a detailed compilation of the data most requested by readers interested in the area, is available on its investor relations website bradesco.com.br/ri.

11.4. Investor Relations – IR

The Investor Relations area ensures that the Bank retains direct relations with individual and corporate investors in Brazil and abroad. Its interactivity plays a fundamental role in Bradesco and benefits the entire market, enabling investors to form an

In order to disclose its performance, in 2011 the Bank held 18 Capital Market Professionals and Investors Association (APIMEC) meetings and one National Investors Institute (INI) Meeting, with over 4,000 participants, all of which were broadcast live over the internet, with simultaneous translation into English, attracting over 13,000 viewers. In addition to transmission via iPhones, iPads and Android-equipped phones, the Sao Paulo event was also broadcast in Libras (Brazilian Sign Language), increasing the democratization of information.

Throughout the year, Bradesco held 168 internal and external meetings with analysts, 210 conference calls and 29 events abroad, as well as 165 communications with investors via the Fale com o RI (Contact the IR Department) service on the website. To disclose its annual results, it maintained the video chat model.

On November 21, the Company held a "Bradesco Day" at the New York Stock Exchange to mark the tenth anniversary of its ADR trading.

11.5. Bradesco Ombudsman

Created in 1985, five years before the issue of the new Consumer Defense Code, to register and handle complaints and suggestions from the Bank's clients, Alô Bradesco was the financial market's first communications channel with the general public.

This has now been refined by the creation of an Ombudsman's Department, which provides an extra channel for maintaining open and direct dialogue with clients and users, underlining the Bank's commitment to ensuring customer satisfaction and recognizing client tendencies and demands.

472,745 contacts registered in 2011.

accurate assessment of the Bank, as well as giving the Institution important insights into the opinions and performance of the financial community.

The Company's IR website bradesco.com.br/ri which is available in Portuguese and English and is segmented for each investor profile, provides shareholders, investors and market analysts with clear, timely and extensive information, including corporate profile, historical data, ownership structure, management reports, financial results and APIMEC meetings, as well as other information of interest to the financial market.

12. Integrated Risk Management

12.1 Risk Management

Given the growing complexity of products and services and the globalization of the Organization's business, risk management has become a highly strategic activity, which must be constantly enhanced to keep pace with the dynamism of the markets.

Bradesco

Financial Statements, Independent Auditors' Report, Summary
of the Audit Committee's Report and Fiscal Council's Report

Management Report

The Organization exercises corporate risk control in an integrated and independent manner, preserving and valuing collegiate decision-making and developing and implementing methodologies, models, measurement and control tools, supported by Statutory and Executive Committees, including the Audit Committee. It also ensures that all employees, from the business areas to the Board of Directors, are aware of these mechanisms.

The management process ensures that risks can be proactively identified, measured, mitigated, monitored and reported as required in line with the complexity of the Organization's financial products and activity profile.

12.2 Credit Risk

Credit risk management is a continuous and evolutionary process of mapping, developing, measuring and diagnosing through models, instruments and procedures; it requires a high degree of discipline and control when analyzing operations in order to preserve the integrity and independence of processes. Credit risk management considers all aspects related to the granting of loans, such as concentration, guarantees and terms, on which the quality of the portfolio is based.

The liquidity risk management process involves monitoring the composition of available funds on a daily basis, ensuring compliance with minimum liquidity levels and drawing up a contingency plan for stress situations. The control and monitoring of positions is conducted on a centralized basis.

12.5 Operational Risk

The management of operational risk is essential for the generation of added value. This risk is controlled in a centralized manner through identification, measurement, planned mitigation and follow up on a consolidated basis and in each Organization company.

One of the most important mitigation mechanisms is business continuity management, which comprises a series of structured plans to be adopted in crisis situations to ensure the recovery and continuity of business and the prevention of losses.

12.6 Risk Factors and Critical Accounting Policies

Bradesco discloses its risk factors and critical accounting practices, in accordance with

The Organization continuously maps all activities that could generate exposure to credit risk, measuring and classifying each in terms of probability and magnitude, identifying their managers and planning for mitigation. Control is exercised on a centralized and standardized corporate basis.

international best corporate governance practices and US GAAP in the Reports and Spreadsheets – SEC Reports section of its IR website bradesco.com.br/ri. These factors include potential political and economic situations in local and international markets that could have a direct impact on the Bank's day-to-day operations and, consequently, its financial situation.

12.3 Market Risk

Market risk is carefully identified, mapped, measured, mitigated and managed. The Organization's market risk exposure profile is conservative and guidelines and limits are independently monitored on a daily basis.

All the activities of all the Organization's companies exposed to market risk are controlled on a centralized, corporate basis.

12.4 Liquidity Risk

The Market Risk and Liquidity Management Policy, together with the resulting rules and procedures, defines minimum liquidity levels, including considerations of stress scenarios, the types of financial instrument in which funds should be applied and the operational strategy to be adopted, if needed.

13. Intangible Assets

Bradesco closed 2011 with a market capitalization of R$106.971 billion, equivalent to 1.92 times its book shareholders' equity of R$55.582 billion. This substantial difference is due to the strength of its intangible assets, which, although not reflected in the balance sheet, are perceived and evaluated by investors.

Bradesco's strategic planning always seeks the best results, setting realistic and conservative goals that take into consideration: the value of the Bradesco brand; best corporate governance and culture practices; the scale of its businesses; the various relationship channels with its different target groups; an innovative information technology policy; the broad diversification of its products, services and solutions and the coverage and reach of the Customer Service Network, which is present in all of Brazil's municipalities and abroad; a dynamic and responsible social and environmental responsibility policy; a robust human resources policy that: a) ensures solid relations between all employees and consequently increases the level of mutual trust; b) indicates the opportunities for professional recognition and development; c) substantially reduces the staff turnover rate and associated costs; and d) cultivates a long-term vision at all levels of the Organization. All of these factors are inextricably linked to sustainability.

13.1. Bradesco Brand

Bradesco is ranked sixth among the world's most valuable bank brands, according to a ranking by the consulting firm Brand Finance, a global specialist in the evaluation and management of intangible assets, published by The Banker magazine; is among the world's strongest brands, according to Bloomberg News, one of the most important international financial news agencies; is ranked first among the 10 most valuable brands in terms of social networks by Brand Finance; and was appointed the most valuable brand in Brazil for the fifth consecutive year, being valued at R$31.2 billion, according to a traditional ranking by Superbrands, a Brand Finance subsidiary.

By taking advantage of the latest technological innovations, the increasing investments in training have allowed the Bank to expand its educational resources to include on-site or distance learning through video courses, brochures, e-learning, videoconferences, etc. One especially important initiative is TreiNet – Training by Internet/Intranet, a distance-learning tool with extensive coverage. In 2011, 1,277,513 employees took part in the program, underlining its importance and the extent of its coverage.

The assistance benefits aimed at improving the quality of life, well-being and safety of employees and their dependents benefited 202,846 individuals at year-end. These included:

- Healthcare plans;
- Dental plans;
- Private pension and retirement plans;
- Group life and personal accident insurance;
- Group auto insurance; and
- 0800 Viva Bem – a service channel providing employees and their dependents with assistance

13.2. Human Resources

The Organization's Human Resource Management Policy is based on recognizing employees' performance and increasing their potential for achievement through intensive training. Bradesco has 104,684 employees in all, 86,263 of which work for the Bank and 18,421 work for affiliated companies.

The aim is to ensure the professional growth of its employees through respect, transparency and an emphasis on personal development through investments in training programs, especially courses on operational, technical and behavioral issues, thereby improving service quality and excellence.

Teams of specialized instructors supported by robust infrastructure further the pursuit of knowledge in issues related to the market needs, economic scenarios and the demands posed by technological advances.

In order to ensure that its employees keep abreast of the latest advances, the Organization promotes managerial development programs through specialization courses, as well as graduate courses and MBAs in economics, business administration and law, in partnership with consulting firms, universities and business schools.

In 2011, Bradesco continued with its Advanced Development Program through which executives are given leave to study at top universities abroad in order to develop their technical and personal potential, thereby guaranteeing the continuous improvement of management processes by adding the latest global knowledge and spreading it among the other employees.

It was also considered one of the 150 Best Companies in Personnel Management Practices for the second consecutive year, and was ranked among the 50 Most Psychologically Healthy Companies, doing especially well in the Employee Growth category, by Gestão & RH magazine. For the fifth consecutive year, Bradesco was ranked among the 100 Companies with the Best Organizational Human Development Index (IDHO) in 2011, with an excellent Sustainability rating. For the eighth consecutive year, it was listed among the Best in People Management by Valor Carreira magazine, a Valor Econômico publication, being ranked in first place for companies with over 10 thousand employees. Once again, it was awarded the São Paulo Diversity Seal, in the Pleno 2011 category, by the São Paulo state government, which recognizes organizations whose human resources policies consider race, ethnicity, age and deficiency issues, among others.

R$161.495 million invested in training programs, with 2,040,892 participations.

R$941.999 million invested in the Food Program, with the daily supply of 123,372 meals and 140,042 meal vouchers.

4.676 million medical and hospital consultations.

563,769 dental service consultations.

The CEO's Blog was created in 2009 as an internal and interactive channel to promote the exchange of information and opinions between employees and the CEO's office. The blog discusses issues of particular importance to the Organization and the country and is available through the Intranet.

13.3 Information Technology

Information technology is one of the central pillars of the Organization's strategy. Decisions on technological evolution are based on factors that seek to provide high-quality services, ensuring security, speed and convenience at all service points and electronic channels.

Bradesco's technological environment is up to date and fully equipped to meet the growth in business volume and customer transactions. In 2011, the processing capacity of the Bank's computers increased by 33%, given a daily volume of 229 million transactions. Data storage increased by 38%, allowing for even greater availability of service and business information.

In accordance with best global practices, the Bradesco service network, which grew by more than 1,000 branches in 2011, is equipped with complete IT and communications infrastructure in an environment that is designed to transform the complex into the simple and manageable, while maintaining the low operating risk and scalability needed to support the Bank's growth.

Internal Communications

Through a series of notices, the Organization's employees receive information on the policies, guidelines and operational procedures to be adopted. The Bradesco Intranet is another important instrument that should only be used to perform work-related activities, always observing the security criteria, which are set forth in the Corporate Information Security Policies and Regulations, as well as the Rules and Procedures for Using and Accessing the Intranet.

TV Bradesco is an outstanding internal communications channel at every level, informing, integrating and motivating the Bank's employees. Revista Interação (Interaction Magazine), which is delivered to each employee, and the daily newsletter Sempre em Dia (Always Up-to-Date), both of which are also available on the Intranet, help with this task.

The TI Melhorias (IT Enhancement) project), whose main front is the construction of a new service-oriented systems architecture, will result in a series of benefits as of 2012, including faster service in the business units, as well as higher quality products and services.

The corporate management of unstructured information, which began in 2011, seeks to reduce the use of paper in a number of processes.

Also in 2011, the Bank began to clear checks by image, which greatly improved customer service. On the international market, the Bank implemented a new technological platform to support the business of its overseas units.

R$4.328 billion invested in IT maintenance, expansion and innovation.

14. Marketing

Bradesco's communications initiatives Presença (Presence), adopted in 2009, and Lado a Lado (Side by Side), introduced in 2010, remained active throughout 2011. The idea is to explore the delivery of a number of products and services to demonstrate how Bradesco is always present and working side-by-side with its customers.

In the media, the brand continued to mark its presence in the daily lives of millions of Brazilians. It began the year with a campaign to publicize its various service channels and show that it will be working side-by-side with people during the summer. Throughout the year, its Perguntas (Questions) campaign showed that it had the solutions to meet the needs and resolve the doubts of its individual and corporate customers, while its campaign to open more than a thousand branches in Brazil during the year demonstrated its presence in the remotest municipalities and underlined its commitment to the country's future.

Bradesco supported and sponsored a series of social and cultural events throughout 2011 which helped enrich Brazilian culture, including traditional festivals, carnivals, regional festivals, concerts and plays. On the social and environmental responsibility front, it sponsored forums, fairs and conferences and promoted community financial education meetings.

It also launched a campaign to reinforce its position as a sponsor of Brazilian sporting activities which included a film and advertisements, in addition to demonstrating its support for six sports federations. Launched during transmission of the Panamerican games, the campaign marked the beginning of an initiative that will last until 2016, when the Olympic Games, which Bradesco sponsors as a bank and insurer, come to Rio de Janeiro.

For the 16th consecutive year, Grupo Bradesco Seguros presented the city of Rio de Janeiro with its traditional "Christmas Tree" on Rodrigo de Freitas lake. With the theme Um presente para a família brasileira (A present for the Brazilian family), the "tree," which is already part of the city's calendar of tourist attractions, embodied the principles of social and environmental responsibility, being powered by a biodiesel generator.

288 regional, industry and/or professional events held nationwide, including trade fairs, seminars, congresses and cultural/community events, received Bradesco's support in 2011.

15. Sustainability at Bradesco Organization

Ever since it was founded, the Bradesco Organization has been committed to the social and economic development of Brazil. Issues such as education, banking inclusion and best practices in regard to sustainable business development have always been part of its day-to-day activities.

The Organization has been investing in the education of children and teenagers since 1956, when Fundação Bradesco was founded. In 2011, as part of its sustainability strategy, it began holding financial education lectures in the communities where it operates, in Rio de Janeiro and São Paulo, covering such topics as household budgets, spending controls, the correct use of credit cards and debt negotiations. Offering access to banking services, insurance, pension plans and education for underprivileged populations is parts of the Bank's business strategy, which is based on the concept of growth with sustainable development and respect for stakeholders. All of our actions in this area are focused on three pillars: sustainable finances, responsible management and social and environmental investments. Sustainability initiatives

Bradesco's end-of-year film, entitled Acreditar (Believe), adopted an emotional and inspirational tone to put across the message that "Living is the best sport." With images of children involved in sports such as basketball, judo, swimming, running and soccer, the film shows that they have to believe in themselves and those around them in order to overcome life's challenges. The Bank emphasized the importance of believing in people, friends, family and the country and reaffirmed its presence side-by-side with the Brazilian people, no matter what the situation.

Management Report

As a result of its commitment to sustainable development, Bradesco has been included in a number of indicators with high market credibility. For the sixth consecutive year, it was included in the NYSE's Dow Jones Sustainability Index, which is made up of companies with the best sustainable development performance. Since 2010, it has been part of the BM&FBOVESPA's Carbon Efficient Index (ICO2), comprising companies that monitor their greenhouse gas emissions as part of their concern for global warming, and for the seventh consecutive year it was included in the BM&FBOVESPA's Corporate Sustainability Index (ISE), which consists of those companies with the best corporate sustainability indicators.

Having adhered to the Equator Principles since 2004, in 2011 the Organization took part in discussions in London and Washington to revise the commitment, as a result of which the signatory financial institutions undertook to adopt criteria for evaluating the risk and social and environmental impact of the projects they finance. To do so, Bradesco was aided by the Loan and Market Relations Departments.

BRAM - Bradesco Asset Management evaluates social, environmental and corporate governance questions in its investment analysis, adhering the UN's Principles for Responsible Investment (PRI), when making investment decisions.

As part of its sustainability strategy, Bradesco joined the United Nations Environment Programme – Finance Initiative (UNEP-FI). The initiative establishes a commitment to adopt best practices in order to integrate social and environmental issues into business decisions and operations in all markets.

Bradesco has been publishing its Sustainability Report on an annual basis since 2006, based on the GRI – Global Reporting Initiative guidelines. This report is a valuable instrument for disclosing the Organization's main sustainable development initiatives. For further information, go to bancodoplaneta.com.br.

Fundação Bradesco

Fundação Bradesco, the Organization's pioneering social investment vehicle which runs one of the largest private social and educational programs in Brazil and the world, has 40 schools which are located in all Brazilian states, including the Federal District, mostly in socially and economically underprivileged regions.

In 2011, the Foundation had 112,081 students enrolled in its schools in the following areas: Basic Education (Kindergarten to High School); Vocational Training - High School; Youth and Adult Education; and Preliminary and Continuing Vocational Training, which focuses on creating jobs and income. In addition to a formal education, the more than 50,000 students enrolled in the Foundation's basic education system also receive uniforms, school supplies, meals, and medical and dental assistance free of charge.

A total of 382,329 students also completed at least one of the distance learning courses available on the Virtual School e-learning portal, while a further 134,764 benefited from partnership projects and initiatives, including the Digital Inclusion Centers (CIDs), the Educa+Ação program and technology courses (Educar and Aprender).

The quality of Bradesco's personnel management was recognized by a number of publications, including Guia Você S/A Exame Best Companies to Work For yearbook and the 100 Best Companies to Work for in Brazil guide, published by Época magazine in partnership with the Great Place to Work institute. It was also included in the list of the 100 Companies with the Best Organizational Human Development Index (IDHO) and the Best Companies in People Management by Valor Carreira magazine, a Valor Econômico publication.

The pass rate at the Fundação Bradesco schools averaged 95.15% in 2011.

The Foundation's high-school level vocational training courses are in line with the prevailing technical education model in Brazil and are divided among the following subjects: natural resources (agriculture and cattle raising); industrial control and processes (electronics); information and communications (IT), and management and business (administration). In addition to technical information, the courses provide an education focused on constant learning and updating.

Concerned with the rational use of natural resources and in line with the Guidelines of the Eco-efficient Management Program, the Organization has an entire area dedicated to managing electricity and water consumption. The Program also covers other initiatives, including recycling, the appropriate disposal of technological waste and the use of certified paper, refilled ink cartridges and furniture made of certified wood.

Management Report

One of Fundação Bradesco's main concerns is to produce creative, productive and entrepreneurial citizens and it therefore offers training and vocational courses for workers at a variety of levels. There are a wide range of courses with flexible and customized curriculums that aim to provide the students with a foundation for starting up their own businesses or taking advantage of better jobs and opportunities in the market. These include printing technology, agriculture and cattle raising, business administration, information technology, fashion, leisure and development, all of which are designed to increase ties with regional markets and the specific interests of the communities in question.

In order to facilitate the insertion of high school students into the labor market, Fundação Bradesco participates in the National Young Apprentice Program, which is also supported by the Bradesco Organization, during which employees become educators and tutors in the youths' development process.

Created in partnership with Banco Bradesco, the Educa+Ação Program enables Fundação Bradesco to share the positive results of its literacy courses with public schools, using the same experience, teaching methods and learning materials. In 2011, the program included 127 schools in 14 cities in the states of São Paulo and Mato Grosso do Sul, benefiting nearly 24 thousand students and 956 teachers.

For the ninth consecutive year, National Volunteer Action Day, held on March 20, mobilized more than 35 thousand volunteers from all the Foundation's units, who performed over 830 thousand services in the areas of citizenship, education, leisure, sports and the environment at more than 160 sites, including the Digital Inclusion Centers (CIDs).

Fundação Bradesco helps improve the quality of life of the communities where it operates, making it a socially responsible investment in the best sense of the term. It also represents a unique means of distributing the wealth generated by the Bradesco Organization, given that most of its resources derive from its status as a Bradesco shareholder.

R$291.892 million in investments by Fundação Bradesco in 2011, with R$385.473 million programmed for 2012 to finance educational benefits for: a) 111,170 students enrolled in the Foundation's schools, in basic education, youth and adult education, and preliminary and continuing vocational training; b) around 300 thousand students who will complete at least one of the distance-learning courses on offer (EaD); and c) 83 thousand people through partnership projects and initiatives, including the Digital Inclusion Centers (CIDs), the Educa+Ação program and technology courses (Educar and Aprender).

R$3.534 billion, in present value, invested by Fundação Bradesco to finance its activities in the last ten years.

R$241.001 million in other investments by the Bradesco Organization in 2011, in social projects focusing on education, the arts, culture, sports, health, sanitation, combating hunger and food safety.

Bradesco Sports and Education Program

Fundação Bradesco uses the CIDs to promote digital inclusion in the needy communities surrounding its schools, some of which are indigenous communities. They also function as learning and professional training centers and are engaged in promoting social responsibility and entrepreneurship, in addition to strengthening engagement and instilling a sense of civic duty.

Aiming to encourage citizenship and social inclusion among children and teenagers, the Bradesco Sports and Education Program has been promoting the practice of sporting activities for more than 24 years, together with initiatives related to education, health, and well-being.

The Program to Promote Computer Use by the Visually Impaired, created in 1998, has already trained 11,549 individuals, ensuring the social inclusion of thousands of people. Fundação Bradesco also develops initiatives in several other areas, including environmental education, finance and taxes, work and consumption, sexuality and personal care, prevention of drug abuse and the responsible use of the internet. These programs draw on the support of various partners specializing in preparing educators and educational materials, including Canal Futura, SOS Mata Atlântica, the Military Police, BM&FBOVESPA S.A. – Securities, Commodities and Futures Exchange, and the Federal Revenue Service.

Bradesco holds a certification for the "Processing of Transaction Routines and Services, File Transfers, Printing of Customer Documents and Reports, Data Communication, Software Installation and Support in User Equipment.

Our achievements in 2011 have strengthened our work over the last 68 years, in an economic environment that has not always been favorable, and consolidated the Organization's positioning in the various segments of the domestic financial market. Above all, these results reflect the success of our efforts to promote the development of Brazil, in which banking inclusion plays an essential role in reducing inequality and improving the living standards of the population. We would like to thank our shareholders and customers for their support and trust and our employees and other collaborators for their dedicated and efficient work.

Cidade de Deus, January 30, 2012

The Board of Directors and the Board of Executive Officers

At the end of 2011, 208 of the Organization's products and services had been granted this quality certificate. This management system seeks to continuously improve processes and business performance in order to increase customer satisfaction while considering the needs of all stakeholders.

(*)Excludes the mark-to-market effect of available-for-sale securities recorded under shareholders' equity.

- ISO 27001 – Information Security Management

Bradesco holds two certifications for logic security processes, seeking to guarantee access codes for applications on the Bank's internal network in the Security and Contingency Management area, in addition to certifications of infrastructure, storage and operations in the Information Technology Building – CTI.
