Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

On February 29, 2008, the Board of Directors of Fannie Mae (formally, the Federal National Mortgage Association) adopted amendments to the company's Bylaws, effective immediately, to provide stockholders with the right to amend "Bylaw Provisions," generally without prior action by the Board of Directors. To effect this change, the Board of Directors amended the bylaws to designate specified provisions of the company's Bylaws as "Certificate Provisions" and others as "Bylaw Provisions." Prior to these amendments, the Bylaws provided that the power to alter, amend or repeal any bylaw, or to adopt any new bylaw, was vested in the Board of Directors. As amended, the Bylaws specify the vote required to amend the Bylaws and either retain or establish additional procedural requirements. The principal changes effected by the amended Bylaws are summarized below.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE PRACTICES AND PROCEDURES

As amended, Section 1.05 provides that Sections 1.01, 1.02, 1.05, 2.01, 2.02, 2.03, 2.10, 3.08(b), 3.08(c), 4.01, 4.02, 4.03 and 4.18, Articles 6, 7 and 8, and any new bylaw which may be adopted and designated as such in accordance with Section 7.01 of the Bylaws shall be treated as part of the company's "certificate of incorporation" for all purposes of the Delaware General Corporation Law and treated as "Certificate Provisions."

Any sections of the Bylaws not designated as "Certificate Provisions" in accordance with Section 7.01 shall be treated as part of the company's "bylaws" for all purposes of the Delaware General Corporation Law and treated as "Bylaw Provisions."

ACTIONS BY THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

As amended, Section 7.01 provides the Board of Directors with the power to alter, amend or repeal any "Certificate Provision" or "Bylaw Provision" of the Bylaws, or to adopt new bylaws either (i) by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the then-incumbent members of the Board of Directors or (ii) by unanimous written consent of the then-incumbent members of the Board of Directors. Any new bylaw adopted by the Board of Directors, and any "Certificate Provision" altered or amended by the Board of Directors shall be designated as a "Certificate Provision," unless an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the then-incumbent Board of Directors approves the designation of that bylaw as a "Bylaw Provision."

ACTIONS BY THE STOCKHOLDERS

As amended, Section 7.02 provides stockholders with the power to take action to alter, amend or repeal any bylaw, or to adopt any new bylaw, as long as the provision involves the subject matter of a "Bylaw Provision," by the affirmative vote of a majority of the stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at any regular meeting of the stockholders or at any special meeting of the stockholders if notice of the proposed action is contained in the notice of the special meeting. The stockholders, however, do not have the power to alter, amend or repeal any "Bylaw Provision" or adopt any new bylaw, if (i) it would be inconsistent with the "Charter Act" or other federal law, rules and regulations or the safe and sound operations of the company, (ii) the "Bylaw Provision" involves the subject matter of any "Certificate Provision," or (iii) the altering, adopting, amending or repealing of the "Bylaw Provision" would be inconsistent with any "Certificate Provision." The "Charter Act" refers to the Federal National Mortgage Association Charter Act, which sets forth the activities that Fannie Mae may conduct, authorizes Fannie Mae to issue debt and equity securities, and describes Fannie Mae's general corporate powers.

In addition, the stockholders may not take action to alter, amend, repeal or adopt any "Certificate Provision" unless the action is explicitly authorized and referred to the stockholders by the Board of Directors. In that event, the affirmative vote of a majority of the stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote on that action is required.

The preceding summary of the amendments is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the amendments, as included in the amended and restated bylaws. A copy of the company's amended and restated bylaws, which has been marked in Sections 1.05, 7.01 and 7.02 to show the amendments adopted on February 29, 2008, is included as Exhibit 3.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K, and is incorporated into this Item 5.03 by reference.
